

Fidelity National Financial, Inc. Announces Appointment of Paul Perez as Chief Compliance Officer

Jacksonville, Fla. -- (March 13, 2007) -- Fidelity National Financial, Inc. (NYSE:FNF), a leading provider of title insurance, specialty insurance and claims management services, today announced the appointment of Paul Perez, the United States Attorney for the Middle District of Florida, as Chief Compliance Officer for Fidelity National Title Group (FNT).

"We're very pleased that a lawyer so highly placed and praised by the Department of Justice as Paul Perez is joining our company," said FNF General Counsel Peter Sadowski. "We take compliance to codes of conduct and federal and state regulations very seriously and we're confident that Paul will continue to uphold our high standards of ethics and regulatory compliance."

Mr. Perez was appointed by President Bush in January 2002, to be the United States Attorney for the Middle District of Florida, covering 35 counties and home to 8.3 million Floridians. As the chief of the office, he supervises more than 100 assistant U.S. Attorneys in the prosecution of criminal cases brought by the United States, prosecutes and defends cases to which the United States is a party, and collects debts owed to the government. In addition, out of 93 U.S. Attorneys across the nation, Perez is one of 18 serving on the Attorney General's Advisory Committee. This committee advises and counsels Attorney General Alberto Gonzales in areas such as terrorism prevention, immigration enforcement and civil rights.

As a prosecutor in the U.S. Attorney's office from 1989 to 1992, Perez successfully pursued significant international forfeitures and money-laundering cases. He returned to the U.S. Attorney's office in 2002 after a 10-year civil and criminal trial career with the firm of Booth, Arnold and Perez.

Mr. Perez, born in Havana in 1955, immigrated to the United States with his parents in 1960. He received a degree in history and international affairs from Jacksonville University, a Master's Degree in Latin American Studies from the University of Florida and his law degree (with honors) from The George Washington University.

Fidelity National Financial, Inc. (NYSE:FNF), is a leading provider of title insurance, specialty insurance and claims management services.
