FIDELITY NATIONAL FINANCIAL, INC.

601 Riverside Avenue
Jacksonville, Florida 32204

, 2005

Dear Fidelity National Financial Stockholders:

On May 16, 2005, the board of directors of Fidelity National Financial, Inc. (“FNF”) approved a restructuring that will result in FNF contributing its title insurance businesses to a newly formed holding company, Fidelity National Title Group, Inc. (“FNT”). In connection with the restructuring, a pro rata distribution of shares of FNT Class A Common Stock representing 17.5% of the outstanding common stock of FNT will be made to FNF stockholders.

As a result of the distribution, FNF stockholders will receive .175 shares of FNT Class A Common Stock for each share of FNF common stock held at the close of business on the distribution record date, currently expected to be on or about , 2005. On , 2005, shares of FNT Class A Common Stock will be quoted on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol “FNT.” Shares of FNF common stock will continue to be listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol “FNF.”

Immediately after the distribution is completed, FNF will own shares of Class B Common Stock of FNT representing the remaining 82.5% of the shares of FNT common stock. FNT Class B Common Stock will have ten votes per share and Class A Common Stock will have one vote per share. As a result, FNF will hold 97.9% of all voting power of FNT common stock immediately after the distribution. FNF also currently owns other operating subsidiaries, including its majority-owned subsidiary Fidelity National Information Services, Inc., a leading provider of technology solutions and processing and information services to the financial services and real estate industries, and its wholly-owned subsidiary Fidelity National Insurance Company, which operates various specialty lines of insurance. Separating the businesses that comprise FNF into distinct public companies should provide improved transparency for the investment community and a simpler means of valuing FNF. We also believe that using an independent operating subsidiary strategy will allow us to focus on continuing to improve the operations of each subsidiary while maximizing long-term shareholder value.

No action is required on your part to receive your FNT Class A Common Stock. FNF stockholders will not be required to pay anything to FNF or FNT for the new stock or to surrender any certificates representing shares of FNF stock. The receipt of the stock of FNT in the distribution will be a taxable event to you for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

The enclosed prospectus describes the distribution of shares of FNT Class A Common Stock and contains important information about FNT and its business. I suggest that you read it carefully. If you have any questions regarding the distribution, please contact FNT’s transfer agent, .

Very truly yours,

William P. Foley, II

Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board

PROSPECTUS SUMMARY

This summary highlights some of the information about FNT contained elsewhere in this prospectus and may not contain all of the information that may be important to you. In this prospectus, “FNT,” “we,” and “our” refer to Fidelity National Title Group, Inc. and its subsidiaries, unless the context suggests otherwise. References to “FNF” are to Fidelity National Financial, Inc. References in this prospectus to “dollars” or “$” are to the lawful currency of the United States of America, unless the context otherwise requires. You should read the following summary together with the entire prospectus, including the more detailed information in our financial statements and related notes appearing elsewhere in this prospectus. You should carefully consider, among other things, the matters discussed in “Risk Factors.”

Company Overview

We are the largest title insurance company in the United States. Our title insurance underwriters — Fidelity National Title, Chicago Title, Ticor Title, Security Union Title and Alamo Title — together issued approximately 30.5% of all title insurance policies issued nationally during 2004, as measured by premiums per the Demotech Performance of Title Insurance Companies 2005 Edition. Our title business consists of providing title insurance and escrow and other title-related products and services arising from the real estate closing process. Our operations are conducted on a direct basis through our own employees who act as title and escrow agents and through independent agents. In addition to our independent agents, our customers are lenders, mortgage brokers, attorneys, real estate agents, home builders and commercial real estate developers.

The Distribution

We are currently a wholly-owned subsidiary of FNF. After the distribution of the shares covered by this prospectus, FNF will beneficially own 100% of the shares of our Class B Common Stock, representing 82.5% of our outstanding common stock and 97.9% of all voting power of our common stock. FNF also currently owns other operating businesses, including its majority-owned subsidiary Fidelity National Information Services, Inc. (“FIS”), and its wholly-owned subsidiary Fidelity National Insurance Company (“FNIC”).

Competitive Strengths

We believe that our competitive strengths include the following:

Leading title insurance company. We are the largest title insurance company in the United States and the leading provider of title insurance and escrow services for real estate transactions. We have approximately 1,500 locations throughout the United States providing our title insurance services.

Established relationships with our customers. We have strong relationships with the customers who use our title services. We also benefit from strong brand recognition in our five FNT title brands that allows us to access a broader client base than if we operated under a single consolidated brand and provides our customers with a choice among FNT brands.

Strong value proposition for our customers. We provide our customers with services that support their ability to effectively close real estate transactions. We help make the real estate closing more efficient for our customers by offering a single point of access to a broad platform of title-related products and resources necessary to close real estate transactions.

Proven management team. The managers of our operating businesses have successfully built our title business over an extended period of time. Our managers have demonstrated their leadership ability during numerous acquisitions through which we have grown and throughout a number of business cycles and significant periods of industry change.

Competitive cost structure. We have been able to maintain competitive operating margins and also believe that, when compared to other industry competitors, our management structure has fewer layers of managers which allows us to operate with lower overhead costs.

Commercial title insurance. Our network of agents, attorneys, underwriters and closers that service the commercial real estate markets is one of the largest in the industry. Our commercial network combined with our financial strength makes our title insurance operations attractive to large national lenders.

Corporate principles. A cornerstone of our management philosophy and operating success is the five fundamental precepts upon which FNF was founded:

- Bias for action
- Autonomy and entrepreneurship
- Employee ownership
- Minimal bureaucracy
- Close customer relationships

Strategy

Our strategy in the title insurance business is to maximize operating profits by increasing our market share and managing operating expenses throughout the real estate business cycle. To accomplish our goals, we intend to:

Continue to operate each of our five title brands independently. We believe that in order to maintain and strengthen our title insurance customer base, we must leave the Fidelity National Title, Chicago Title, Ticor Title, Security Union Title and Alamo Title brands intact and operate these brands independently.

Consistently deliver superior customer service. We believe customer service and consistent product delivery are the most important factors in attracting and retaining customers. Our goal is to continue to improve the experience of our customers in all aspects of our business.

Manage our operations successfully through business cycles. We operate in a cyclical business and our ability to diversify our revenue base within our core title insurance business and manage the duration of our investments may allow us to better operate in this cyclical business. Maintaining a broad geographic revenue base, utilizing both direct and independent agency operations and pursuing both residential and commercial title insurance business help diversify our title insurance revenues.

Continue to improve our products and technology. As a national provider of real estate transaction products and services, we participate in an industry that is subject to significant change, frequent new product and service introductions and evolving industry standards. We believe that our future success will depend in part on our ability to anticipate industry changes and offer products and services that meet evolving industry standards.

Maintain values supporting our strategy. We believe that continuing to focus on and support our long-established corporate culture will reinforce and support our business strategy. Our goal is to foster and support a corporate culture where our agents and employees seek to operate independently and profitably at the local level while forming close customer relationships by meeting customer needs and improving customer service.

Effectively manage costs based on economic factors. We believe that our focus on our operating margins is essential to our continued success in the title insurance business. Regardless of the business cycle in which we may be operating, we seek to continue to evaluate and manage our cost structure and make appropriate adjustments where economic conditions dictate to help us to better maintain our operating margins.

Challenges

We face challenges in maintaining our strengths and implementing our strategies, including but not limited to the following:

Further downgrades in our ratings could negatively affect our business. After FNF announced this distribution, A.M. Best Company, Inc. (“A.M. Best”) downgraded the financial strength ratings of our principal insurance subsidiaries to “A-” (Excellent). As the ratings of our insurance subsidiaries have significant influence on our business, a future downgrade could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations.

We are dependent on our subsidiaries to pay dividends. As a holding company, we are dependent on distributions from our subsidiaries and our ability to declare and pay dividends may be adversely affected if distributions from our subsidiaries are materially impaired. Our title insurance subsidiaries must comply with state and federal laws requiring them to maintain minimum amounts of working capital, surplus and reserves and placing restrictions on the amount of dividends that they can distribute to us.

Changes in real estate activity may adversely affect our performance. While our title insurance revenues have benefited in recent years from record lows in mortgage interest rates and record highs in both volume and average price of residential real estate, if any of these trends change we may experience a decline in our revenues.

We will be controlled by FNF as long as it owns a majority of the voting power of our common stock. While FNF controls us, FNF will control decisions relating to the direction of our business, financing and the payment of dividends. In addition, FNF will be able to elect all of our directors and determine the outcome of any actions requiring stockholder approval.

We face competition in our title business from traditional title insurers and from new entrants with alternative products. The competitors in our principal markets include larger companies such as The First American Corporation, LandAmerica Financial Group, Inc., Old Republic International Corporation and Stewart Information Services Corporation, as well as numerous smaller title insurance companies and independent agency operations at the regional and local level. Competition among the major title insurance companies, expansion by smaller regional companies and any new entrants with alternative products could affect our business operations and financial condition.

We and our subsidiaries are subject to extensive regulation by state insurance authorities in each state in which we operate. The regulations imposed by state insurance authorities may affect our ability to increase or maintain rate levels and may impose conditions on our operations.

For additional challenges and risks relating to our business, see “Risk Factors.”

Company History

The predecessors to FNT have primarily been title insurance companies, some of which have been in operation since the late 1800s. Many of these title insurance companies have been acquired in the last two decades. During the 1990s, FNF acquired Alamo Title, Nations Title Inc., Western Title Company of Washington and First Title Corp. In 2000, FNF completed the acquisition of Chicago Title Corp. and in 2004, FNF acquired American Pioneer Title Insurance Company, which now operates under our Ticor Title brand. Our businesses have historically been operated as wholly-owned subsidiaries of FNF.

Our principal executive offices are located at 601 Riverside Avenue, Jacksonville, Florida 32204, and our telephone number is (904) 854-8100.

Summary of the Distribution
The Distribution	The distribution is part of a restructuring whereby FNT will become a separate publicly traded company.
Reason for the Distribution	The distribution should enhance the ability of the financial markets to evaluate the individual operations of the title business which were previously valued as part of FNF's operations. A separate publicly traded title company will also allow investors who prefer title company operations to that of the broader operations of FNF to own an investment directly in FNT. Moreover, separate incentive compensation plans for key employees will provide incentives that are more directly related to the performance of the title insurance business.
Distributing Company	FNF. After the distribution, FNF will own 100% of FNT's Class B Common Stock, comprising approximately 82.5% of FNT's outstanding common stock. FNF has indicated it currently has no plans to dispose of its common stock interest in FNT.
Securities to be Distributed	Approximately shares of the Class A Common Stock of FNT, representing 100% of the outstanding Class A Common Stock of FNT and approximately 17.5% of FNT's outstanding common stock. Immediately following the distribution, approximately stockholders of record will hold shares of the Class A Common Stock, although some of the shares may be registered in the name of a single stockholder who represents a number of stockholders.
Distribution Ratio	Each stockholder of FNF common stock will receive .175 shares of Class A Common Stock of FNT for each FNF share held on the distribution record date.
Voting Rights	Holders of Class A Common Stock are entitled to one vote per share held on all matters submitted to a vote of FNT stockholders. Holders of Class B Common Stock are entitled to ten votes per share held on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders.
Distribution Record Date	Expected to be , 2005 (close of business)
Distribution Date	Expected to be , 2005
Distribution Agent
Registrar and Transfer Agent
Use of Proceeds	Because this is not an offering for cash, there will be no proceeds to FNT from the distribution.
Dividend Policy	We currently intend to pay an annual dividend of $1.00 per FNT common share payable quarterly to FNT stockholders of record, beginning in the quarter of 2005. Any determination to pay cash dividends will be made at the discretion of our board of directors.
Proposed NYSE Symbol	We have applied to list our Class A Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "FNT."

Tax Consequences	The receipt of the stock of FNT in the distribution will be a taxable event to FNF stockholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes. See “United States Federal Income Tax Considerations.”
Distribution of Shares	On or shortly after the distribution date, beneficial owners of shares of FNF common stock on the distribution record date should have credited to their brokerage, custodian or similar account through which they own their FNF common stock, the number of shares of our Class A Common Stock to which they are entitled in the distribution.
Relationship with FNF after the Distribution	We expect to enter into certain agreements with FNF which will address various matters such as corporate services, taxes, employee matters, registration rights and intellectual property, among other things. See “Our Arrangements with FNF.”
The number of shares of our common stock identified above as outstanding after this distribution does not include options that we will grant to our employees and directors in connection with this distribution. In connection with this distribution, we will grant employees and directors options to purchase an aggregate of approximately shares of our Class A Common Stock at an exercise price equal to the closing price of our Class A Common Stock on the NYSE on the date of the distribution. See “Management — Omnibus Incentive Plan.”

RISK FACTORS

An investment in our common stock involves a number of risks. Each stockholder of FNT common stock should carefully consider the following information about these risks, together with the other information contained in this prospectus. These risks could materially affect our business, results of operations or financial condition and cause the trading price of our common stock to decline.

Risks Relating to Our Business

If adverse changes in the levels of real estate activity occur, our revenues will decline.

Title insurance revenue is closely related to the level of real estate activity which includes sales and mortgage refinancing. The levels of real estate activity are primarily affected by the average price of real estate sales, the availability of funds to finance purchases and mortgage interest rates. We have found that residential real estate activity generally decreases in the following situations:

- when mortgage interest rates are high or increasing;
- when the mortgage funding supply is limited; and
- when the United States economy is weak.

While prevailing mortgage interest rates have declined to record lows in recent years and both volume and average price of residential real estate transactions have experienced record highs, these trends may not continue. If either the level of real estate activity or the average price of real estate sales decline it could adversely affect our title insurance revenues.

Because we are dependent upon California for over twenty-two percent of our title insurance premiums, our business may be adversely affected by regulatory conditions in California.

California is the largest source of revenue for the title insurance industry and in 2004, California-based premiums accounted for 49.2% of premiums earned by our direct operations and 2.6% of our agency premium revenues. In the aggregate, California accounted for 22.4% of our total title insurance premiums for 2004. A significant part of our revenues and profitability are therefore subject to our operations in California and to the prevailing regulatory conditions in California. Adverse regulatory developments in California, which could include reductions in the maximum rates permitted to be charged, inadequate rate increases or more fundamental changes in the design or implementation of the California title insurance regulatory framework, could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.

Our subsidiaries engage in insurance-related businesses and must comply with additional regulations. These regulations may impede, or impose burdensome conditions on, our rate increases or other actions that we might seek to increase the revenues of our subsidiaries.

Our insurance businesses are subject to extensive regulation by state insurance authorities in each state in which we operate. These agencies have broad administrative and supervisory power relating to the following, among other matters:

- licensing requirements;
- trade and marketing practices;
- accounting and financing practices;
- capital and surplus requirements;
- the amount of dividends and other payments made by insurance subsidiaries;
- investment practices;
- rate schedules;

Table of Contents

- deposits of securities for the benefit of policyholders;
- establishing reserves; and
- regulation of reinsurance.

Most states also regulate insurance holding companies like us with respect to acquisitions, changes of control and the terms of transactions with our affiliates. State regulations may impede or impose burdensome conditions on our ability to increase or maintain rate levels or on other actions that we may want to take to enhance our operating results, and could affect our ability to pay dividends on our common stock. In addition, we may incur significant costs in the course of complying with regulatory requirements. We cannot assure you that future legislative or regulatory changes will not adversely affect our business operations. See “Business — Regulation.”

Regulatory investigations of the insurance industry may lead to new regulation and legal uncertainty, which could negatively affect our results of operations.

In the fall of 2004, the California Department of Insurance began an investigation into reinsurance practices in the title insurance industry and in February 2005 FNF was issued a subpoena to provide information to the California Department of Insurance as part of its investigation. This investigation paralleled similar inquiries of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, which began earlier in 2004. The investigations have focused on arrangements in which title insurers would write title insurance generated by realtors, developers and lenders and cede a portion of the premiums to a reinsurance company affiliate of the entity that generated the business. Other state insurance departments and attorneys general also have made formal or informal inquiries of us regarding these matters.

We recently negotiated a settlement with the California Department of Insurance with respect to that department’s inquiry into captive reinsurance programs in the title insurance industry. Under the terms of the settlement we will refund approximately $7.7 million to those consumers whose California property was subject to a captive reinsurance arrangement and we will pay a penalty of $5.6 million.

We have been cooperating and intend to continue to cooperate with the other ongoing investigations. We have discontinued all reinsurance agreements of the type the investigations cover. The total amount of premiums we ceded to reinsurers was approximately $10 million over the existence of these agreements. These investigations are at an early stage and as a result we are unable to give any assurance regarding their consequences for the industry or for us.

State regulation of the rates we charge for title insurance could adversely affect our results of operations.

Our subsidiaries are subject to extensive rate regulation by the applicable state agencies in the jurisdictions in which we operate. Title insurance rates are regulated differently in the various states in which we operate, with some states requiring our subsidiaries to file rates before such rates become effective and some states promulgating the rates to be charged by our subsidiaries. In almost all states in which we operate, our rates must not be excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory.

The California Department of Insurance has recently announced its intent to examine levels of pricing and competition in the title insurance industry in California. New York and Colorado insurance regulators have also announced similar inquiries and other states could follow. At this stage, we are unable to predict what the outcome will be of this or any similar review.

State regulators may use their rate-regulation oversight authority to take steps to cause us to reduce our rates, or block our attempts to increase our rates. Such actions by regulators could adversely affect our operating results.

If the rating agencies further downgrade our company our results of operations and competitive position in the industry may suffer.

Ratings have always been an important factor in establishing the competitive position of insurance companies. Our insurance companies are rated by Standard & Poor's, a division of The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc. ("S&P"), Moody's Corporation ("Moody's"), Fitch Ratings, Inc. ("Fitch"), A.M. Best and Demotech, Inc. ("Demotech"). Ratings reflect the opinion of a rating agency with regard to an insurance company's or insurance holding company's financial strength rating, operating performance, and ability to meet its obligations to policyholders and are not evaluations directed to investors. In connection with the announcement of this distribution, S&P placed our A-financial strength rating on CreditWatch negative, Moody's affirmed our A3 financial strength rating although the rating outlook was changed to negative and Fitch placed our financial strength rating on Rating Watch Negative. In addition, A.M. Best downgraded the financial strength ratings of our principal insurance subsidiaries to A-. Our ratings are subject to continued periodic review by those entities and the continued retention of those ratings cannot be assured. If our ratings are reduced from their current levels by those entities, our results of operations could be adversely affected. The relative position of each of our ratings among the ratings assigned by each rating agency is as follows:

- the seventh highest rating of twenty-one ratings for S&P;
- the seventh highest rating of twenty-one ratings for Moody's;
- the seventh highest rating of twenty-four ratings for Fitch;
- the fourth highest rating of fifteen ratings for A.M. Best; and
- the first and second highest ratings of five ratings for Demotech.

As a holding company, we depend on distributions from our subsidiaries, and if distributions from our subsidiaries are materially impaired, our ability to declare and pay dividends may be adversely affected.

We are a holding company whose primary assets are the securities of our operating subsidiaries. Our ability to pay dividends is dependent on the ability of our subsidiaries to pay dividends or repay funds to us. If our operating subsidiaries are not able to pay dividends or repay funds to us, we may not be able to declare and pay dividends to our stockholders.

Our title insurance subsidiaries must comply with state and federal laws which require them to maintain minimum amounts of working capital, surplus and reserves and place restrictions on the amount of dividends that they can distribute to us. Compliance with these laws will limit the amounts our regulated subsidiaries can dividend to us. During the remainder of 2005, our title insurance subsidiaries can pay dividends or make distributions to us of approximately $89.1 million without prior regulatory approval.

We face competition in our title business from traditional title insurers and from new entrants with alternative products.

The title insurance industry is highly competitive. According to Demotech, the top five title insurance companies accounted for 90.2% of net premiums collected in 2004. Over 40 independent title insurance companies accounted for the remaining 9.8% of the market. The number and size of competing companies varies in the different geographic areas in which we conduct our business. In our principal markets, competitors include other major title underwriters such as The First American Corporation, LandAmerica Financial Group, Inc., Old Republic International Corporation and Stewart Information Services Corporation, as well as numerous smaller title insurance companies and independent agency operations at the regional and local level. These smaller companies may expand into other markets in which we compete. Also, the removal of regulatory barriers might result in new competitors entering the title insurance business, and those new competitors may include companies that have greater financial resources than we do and possess other competitive advantages. Competition among the major title insurance companies, expansion by smaller regional companies and any new entrants with alternative products could affect our business operations and financial condition.

Our historical financial information may not be representative of our results as a consolidated, stand-alone company and may not be a reliable indicator of our future results.

Our historical financial statements may not be indicative of our future performance as a consolidated, stand-alone company. We were incorporated on May 24, 2005 in anticipation of the distribution. Prior to the distribution, FNF will contribute to us the various FNF subsidiaries that conduct our business. Our historical financial statements reflect assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses directly attributable to our operations. Accordingly, they exclude certain of our expenses that have been allocated to other operations of FNF and of FIS, and they reflect an allocation to us of a portion of the compensation of certain senior officers and other personnel of FNF who will not be our employees after the distribution but who have historically provided services to us. These allocations are expected to in general continue after the distribution under the corporate services agreements to be entered into in connection with the distribution. Further, our financial statements reflect transactions with related parties, which were not negotiated on an arms-length basis. Our historical financial statements presented in this prospectus do not reflect the debt or interest expense we might have incurred if we had been a stand-alone entity. In addition, we will incur other expenses, not reflected in our historical financial statements, as a result of being a separate publicly traded company. As a result of these and other factors, our historical financial statements do not necessarily reflect what our financial position and results of operations would have been if we had been operated as a stand-alone public entity during the periods covered, and may not be indicative of future results of operations or financial position.

Risks Relating to the Distribution

We will be controlled by FNF as long as it owns a majority of the voting power of our common stock and our other stockholders will be unable to affect the outcome of stockholder voting during this time.

As long as FNF continues to hold a majority of the voting power of our outstanding stock, FNF will be able to elect all of our directors and determine the outcome of all corporate actions requiring stockholder approval. After the completion of this distribution, FNF will own 100% of our Class B Common Stock, representing approximately 82.5% of our outstanding common stock, and 97.9% of all voting power of our outstanding common stock. In order to consolidate the results of our operations for tax purposes and to get favorable tax treatment of dividends paid by us, FNF is generally required to own at least 80% of our outstanding common stock and as a result FNF may be unlikely to decrease its ownership below 80%. The Class B Common Stock entitles FNF to ten votes per share on all matters submitted to stockholders until converted to Class A Common Stock.

While it controls us, FNF will control decisions with respect to:

- our business direction and policies, including the election and removal of our directors;
- mergers or other business combinations involving us;
- the acquisition or disposition of assets by us;
- our issuance of stock;
- our payment of dividends;
- our financing; and
- amendments to our certificate of incorporation and bylaws.

We have agreed that, with FNF's consent, we will not issue any shares of our stock if as a result FNF would no longer be able to consolidate our results for tax purposes, receive favorable treatment with respect to dividends paid by us or, if it so desired, distribute the remainder of its FNT stock to its stockholders in a tax-free distribution. These limits will generally enable FNF to continue to own at least 80% of our outstanding common stock. Among other things, this control could make it more difficult for us to raise capital by selling stock or using our stock as currency in acquisitions. This concentrated ownership also might delay or prevent a change in control and may impede or prevent transactions in which stockholders might otherwise receive a premium for their shares. In addition, we will enter into a registration rights agreement with FNF requiring us, under certain circumstances, to register FNT shares beneficially owned by FNF following this distribution. See “Our Arrangements with FNF — Registration Rights Agreement.” If FNF exercises these registration rights, the market price of our common stock could be adversely affected.

We could have conflicts with entities remaining with FNF, and the chairman of our board of directors will also be both the chief executive officer and chairman of the board of directors of FNF and FIS.

Conflicts may arise between entities remaining with FNF and us as a result of our ongoing agreements and the nature of our respective businesses. We will seek to manage any potential conflicts through our agreements with FNF and other FNF entities and through oversight by independent members of our board of directors. However, there can be no assurances that such measures will be effective or that we will be able to resolve all potential conflicts with entities remaining with FNF, and even if we do, the resolution may be less favorable to us than if we were dealing with an unaffiliated third party.

Some of our executive officers own substantial amounts of FNF and FIS stock and options because of their relationships with FNF and FIS prior to this distribution. Such ownership could create or appear to create potential conflicts of interest involving fiduciary duties when directors and officers are faced with decisions that could have different implications for our company and FNF or FIS.

Mr. Foley is the chairman of our board of directors and will continue to be the chief executive officer and chairman of the board of directors of FNF and chief executive officer and chairman of the board of directors of FIS following this distribution. As an officer and director of multiple companies, he will have obligations to us as well as FNF and FIS and may have conflicts of interest with respect to matters potentially or actually involving or affecting us. Matters that could give rise to conflicts include, among other things:

- our past and ongoing relationships with FNF and other entities of FNF, including tax matters, employee benefits, indemnification, and other matters;
- the quality and pricing of services that we have agreed to provide to entities remaining with FNF or that those entities have agreed to provide to us; and
- sales or distributions by FNF of all or part of its ownership interest in us.

Provisions of our certificate of incorporation may prevent us from receiving the benefit of certain corporate opportunities.

Because FNF and FIS may engage in the same activities in which we engage, there is a risk that we may be in direct competition with FNF and FIS over business activities and corporate opportunities. To address these potential conflicts, we have adopted a corporate opportunity policy that has been incorporated into our certificate of incorporation. Among other things, this policy provides that FNF has no duty not to compete with us or to provide us with corporate opportunities of which it becomes aware. The policy also limits the situations in which one of our directors or officers, if also a director or officer of FNF, must offer corporate opportunities to us of which such individual becomes aware. These provisions may limit the corporate opportunities of which we are made aware or which are offered to us. See “Description of Capital Stock — Provisions of our Certificate of Incorporation and Resolutions Relating to Corporate Opportunities.” Moreover, our ability to take advantage of certain corporate opportunities may be limited by FNF’s voting control over us.

Risks Relating to our Common Stock

You may experience fluctuations in the prices of our common stock or the common stock of FNF as a result of this distribution.

Prior to this distribution, there has not been a market for our common stock. Our common stock will be traded on the NYSE after the distribution. We cannot predict the prices at which our common stock may trade after the distribution. After the distribution, FNF common stock will continue to be listed and traded on the NYSE. As a result of the distribution, the trading price of FNF common stock will likely be lower than the trading price of FNF common stock immediately prior to the distribution. The combined trading prices of FNF common stock and FNT common stock after the distribution may be less than, equal to or greater than the trading prices of FNF common stock immediately prior to the distribution. Until the market has fully analyzed the operations of FNF separate from the operations of FNT and the operations of FNT separate from the operations of FNF, the prices at which both FNT and FNF common stock trade may fluctuate.

The price of our common stock may be volatile and may be affected by market conditions beyond our control.

Our share price is likely to fluctuate in the future because of the volatility of the stock market in general and a variety of factors, including:

- quarterly variations in actual or anticipated results of our operations;
- changes in financial estimates by securities analysts;
- actions or announcements by our competitors;
- regulatory actions;
- changes in the market outlook for the lending and real estate industries;
- departure of our key personnel; and
- future sales of our common stock, including by FNF.

These market fluctuations could result in volatility in the price of our shares of common stock, which could cause a decline in the value of your investment. You should also be aware that price volatility may be greater if the public float and trading volume of our shares of common stock is low.

Provisions in our charter documents, Delaware law and state insurance laws may delay or prevent a change in control and may therefore prevent stockholders from receiving the benefit of potential control transactions.

Our certificate of incorporation, bylaws and the laws of Delaware contain provisions that may delay, deter or prevent a takeover attempt that some stockholders might consider in their best interests. For example, our organizational documents provide for a classified board of directors with staggered terms, prevent stockholders from taking action by written consent, prevent stockholders from calling a special meeting of stockholders, provide for supermajority voting requirements to amend our certificate of incorporation and certain provisions of our bylaws and provide for the filling of vacancies on our board of directors by the majority of the directors then in office. These provisions will render the removal of the incumbent board of directors or management more difficult. In addition, these provisions may prevent stockholders from receiving the benefit of any premium over the market price of our common stock offered by a bidder in a potential takeover. Even in the absence of a takeover attempt, the existence of these provisions may adversely affect the prevailing market price of our common stock if they are viewed as discouraging takeover attempts in the future.

Before a person can acquire control of a U.S. insurance company, prior written approval must be obtained from the insurance commissioner of the state where the domestic insurer is domiciled. Prior to granting approval of an application to acquire control of a domestic insurer, the state insurance commissioner will consider such factors as the financial strength of the applicant, the integrity and management of the applicant's board of directors and executive officers, the acquiror's plans for the insurer's board of directors and executive officers, the acquiror's plans for the future operations of the domestic insurer and any anti-competitive results that may arise from the consummation of the acquisition of control. Generally, state statutes provide that control over a domestic insurer is presumed to exist if any person, directly or indirectly, owns, controls, holds with the power to vote, or holds proxies representing, 10% or more of the voting securities of the domestic insurer. Because a person acquiring 10% or more of our common shares would indirectly control the same percentage of the stock of our title insurance subsidiaries, the insurance change of control laws would likely apply to such a transaction.

THE DISTRIBUTION

History

We are currently a wholly-owned subsidiary of FNF. We were incorporated in Delaware on May 24, 2005 in connection with a restructuring by FNF of its title insurance business. In the restructuring, FNT will become the holding company for FNF's title insurance business. The distribution will result in FNT's title insurance business becoming a separate public company, distinct from FNF's information services business and specialty insurance business.

Benefits of the Distribution

We believe that we can realize significant benefits from the distribution. These benefits include:

- having a separate public company which will enable financial markets to better evaluate the individual operations of the title business apart from FNF;
- having a separate management and ownership structure for our company which will provide equity based compensation that is more closely related to the business in which our employees work; and
- placing us in a better position to focus on the title insurance business and maintain our competitiveness in a consolidating title insurance market.

Actions to be Taken Prior to the Distribution

Currently, FNF directly owns various subsidiaries engaged in the title insurance business. FNF will contribute the stock or other securities of these entities to its subsidiary Chicago Title and Trust Company ("CTT"). As a result of this contribution, these entities and their subsidiaries will become direct or indirect subsidiaries of CTT. Following this contribution, FNF will contribute the stock of CTT to FNT. Following this contribution, the entities comprising FNF's title business will be direct or indirect subsidiaries of FNT. This reorganization is subject to the prior approval of insurance and other regulators in several states.

Prior to the distribution of FNT common stock to the stockholders of FNF, we will enter into certain agreements in connection with the distribution. These agreements include:

- a separation agreement between us and FNF;
- corporate services agreements under which we will provide corporate and other support services to FNF and to FIS, and under which FNF will provide certain services to us;
- a tax matters agreement which covers our responsibilities with respect to tax liabilities and refunds, tax attributes, tax contests and other matters relating to income tax;
- a services agreement between us and FIS under which FIS will provide IT and other technology support services to us; and
- various other agreements covering employee matters, intellectual property, and other matters.

The separation agreement provides, among other things, that both FNT and FNF will have access to financial information of each other and that FNT will provide to FNF all financial information and other data that will allow FNF to consolidate our results of operations and financial position or account for FNF's investment in our company under the equity method of accounting. It also provides that, subject to certain limited exceptions, we will not issue any shares of stock without consent of FNF. In addition, each of FNT and FNF have agreed to indemnify the other in connection with the liabilities each assumes and any breach by it of the agreements entered into as a result of this distribution. For more detailed descriptions of the above agreements, see "Our Arrangements with FNF."

In addition, prior to the distribution we intend to issue $500 million principal amount of notes to FNF, with terms that mirror FNF's existing public debt. We also anticipate that, at the time of or shortly after the distribution, we will enter into a new credit facility, borrow $150 million under that facility and pay it to FNF in satisfaction of a $150 million intercompany note issued by one of our subsidiaries to FNF in August 2005. See “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations — Liquidity and Capital Resources.”

Manner of Effecting the Distribution

FNF will effect the distribution by delivering shares of Class A Common Stock of FNT representing 17.5% of the outstanding shares of FNT common stock to _____, which will serve as the distribution agent for the distribution, for a pro rata distribution to the holders of record of FNF as of the close of business on the record date of _____, 2005. The distribution of FNT Class A Common Stock will be made on the basis of a distribution ratio of .175 shares of FNT Class A Common Stock for every share of FNF common stock held as of the close of business on the record date. The actual total number of shares of FNT Class A Common Stock to be distributed depends on the number of shares of FNF common stock outstanding as of the record date. The distribution agent will credit the brokerage accounts of FNF stockholders, or if requested, will mail FNT Class A Common Stock certificates to FNF stockholders, on _____, 2005.

No Fractional Shares

No fractional shares of FNT Class A Common Stock will be issued to FNF stockholders as part of the distribution. Instead, all fractional shares will be aggregated and sold in the public market by the distribution agent, and the aggregate cash proceeds will be distributed proportionately to stockholders otherwise entitled to fractional shares. The distribution agent in its sole discretion will determine how and through which broker-dealer to make the sales of the aggregated fractional shares, all of which will be sold at prevailing market prices. Neither the distribution agent nor the broker-dealer will be an affiliate of FNF or FNT. If you would otherwise be entitled to a fractional share, you will receive a check or a credit to your brokerage account in an amount equal to the value of the fractional shares as soon as practicable after the distribution.

Results of the Distribution

After the distribution, FNT will be a publicly traded company, with FNF owning 100% of our Class B Common Stock, representing 82.5% of FNT’s outstanding common stock and 97.9% of the voting power of our common stock. FNF will continue to be a publicly traded company. In addition, immediately after the distribution the number and identity of stockholders of record of FNT will be the same as the number and identity of stockholders of record of FNF on _____, 2005, the record date for the distribution. As of the record date, FNF had approximately _____ stockholders of record and _____ shares of common stock outstanding. The distribution will not affect the number of outstanding shares of FNF common stock or the rights of FNF stockholders. On _____, 2005, shares of FNT Class A Common Stock will be quoted on the NYSE under the symbol “FNT.” Shares of FNF common stock will continue to be listed on the NYSE under the symbol “FNF.”

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Some of the statements under “Prospectus Summary,” “Risk Factors,” “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations,” “Business” and elsewhere in this prospectus include forward-looking statements which reflect our current views with respect to future events and financial performance. These statements include forward-looking statements both with respect to us specifically and the businesses in which we are engaged generally. Statements that include the words “expect,” “intend,” “plan,” “believe,” “project,” “anticipate,” “will” and similar statements of a future or forward-looking nature identify forward-looking statements for purposes of the federal securities laws or otherwise.

All forward-looking statements address matters that involve risks and uncertainties. Accordingly, there are or will be important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated in these statements. These factors include:

- adverse changes in real estate activity;
- regulatory conditions in California;
- regulation by state insurance authorities;
- regulatory investigations involving title insurance;
- rate regulation by state authorities;
- downgrades by our rating agencies;
- dependence upon our subsidiaries for dividend payments;
- competition from traditional title insurers and new entrants; and
- other factors described under “Risk Factors.”

We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Because this is not an offering for cash, there will be no proceeds from the distribution.

DIVIDEND POLICY

We currently intend to pay an annual dividend of $1.00 per FNT common share payable quarterly to FNT stockholders of record, beginning in the quarter of 2005. Any determination to pay cash dividends will be at the discretion of our board of directors and will be dependent upon various factors then existing, including:

- our financial condition, operating results and current and anticipated cash needs;
- general economic and business conditions;
- our strategic plans and business prospects;
- regulatory restrictions on the ability of our subsidiaries to pay dividends to us to provide us with cash for the payment of dividends to our stockholders;
- any legal or contractual restrictions on our ability to pay dividends to our stockholders; and
- other factors that our board of directors may consider to be relevant.

Our U.S. insurance subsidiaries are regulated by the insurance laws and regulations of their respective states of domicile regarding dividends and distributions to us. During the remainder of 2005, our title insurance subsidiaries can pay dividends or make distributions to us of approximately $89.1 million without prior regulatory approval. For a more detailed discussion of the regulatory restrictions on dividends from our title insurance subsidiaries, see “Business — Regulation.”

- (1) Effective January 1, 2002, we adopted SFAS No. 142 “Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets” and as a result, have ceased to amortize goodwill. Goodwill amortization in 2001 and 2000 was $33.2 million and $47.5 million, respectively.
- (2) Effective January 1, 2003, we adopted the fair value recognition provisions of SFAS No. 123, “Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation”, using the prospective method of adoption in accordance with SFAS No. 148, “Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation — Transition and Disclosure”, and as a result recorded stock compensation expense of $3.4 million and $3.0 million for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively, and $5.4 million and $2.1 million for the six months ended June 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively.
- (3) During 2001, we recorded a $5.7 million, after-tax charge, reflected as a cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle, as a result of adopting Emerging Issues Task Force No. 99-20, “Recognition of Interest Income and Impairment on Purchased and Retained Beneficial Interests in Securitized Financial Assets”, (“EITF 99-20”).
- (4) Unaudited proforma net earnings per share is calculated using the number of outstanding shares of FNF as of June 30, 2005 because upon completion of the distribution the number of our outstanding shares of common stock will equal the number of FNF shares outstanding on the date of distribution.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with the combined financial statements and the notes thereto and selected historical financial information included elsewhere in this prospectus. The discussion below contains forward-looking statements that are based upon our current expectations and are subject to uncertainty and changes in circumstances. Our actual results may differ materially from these expectations due to changes in global, political, economic, business, competitive and market factors, many of which are beyond our control. See "Forward-Looking Statements."

Overview

We are the largest title insurance company in the United States. Our title insurance underwriters — Fidelity National Title, Chicago Title, Ticor Title, Security Union Title and Alamo Title — together issued approximately 30.5% of all title insurance policies issued nationally during 2004, as measured by premiums. Our title business consists of providing title insurance and escrow and other title-related products and services arising from the real estate closing process. Our operations are conducted on a direct basis through our own employees who act as title and escrow agents and through independent agents. In addition to our independent agents, our customers are lenders, mortgage brokers, attorneys, real estate agents, home builders and commercial real estate developers. We do not focus our marketing efforts on the homeowner.

Our Historical Financial Information

We were incorporated in Delaware on May 24, 2005 in connection with a restructuring of our title insurance operations. Prior to the distribution FNF will contribute to us the subsidiaries relating to our business and operations as described in this prospectus.

Our historical financial statements include assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses directly attributable to our operations. Our historical financial statements reflect allocations of certain of our corporate expenses to FNF and FIS. These expenses have been allocated to FNF and FIS on a basis that management considers to reflect most fairly or reasonably the utilization of the services provided to or the benefit obtained by those businesses. These expense allocations to FNF and FIS reflect an allocation to us of a portion of the compensation of certain senior officers and other personnel of FNF who will not be our employees after the distribution but who historically provided services to us. Our historical financial statements do not reflect the debt or interest expense we might have incurred if we had been a stand-alone entity. In addition, we will incur other expenses, not reflected in our historical financial statements, as a result of being a separate publicly traded company. As a result, our historical financial statements do not necessarily reflect what our financial position or results of operations would have been if we had been operated as a stand-alone public entity during the periods covered, and may not be indicative of our future results of operations or financial position.

FIS was established as a separate subsidiary of FNF in connection with a restructuring that was effective as of November 1, 2004 and prior to that time, FIS's businesses were either subsidiaries of FNF, or were operated as divisions of certain companies that will be our subsidiaries. Historical references to FIS in this prospectus include assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses directly attributable to FIS's operations, including where those operations were conducted as a division of one of our subsidiaries.

Related Party Transactions

Our historical financial statements reflect transactions with other businesses and operations of FNF not being transferred to us, including those being conducted with FIS.

Included as a reduction of our expenses for all periods are amounts allocated to FNF and FIS relating to the provision by us of corporate services to FNF and to FIS and its subsidiaries. These corporate services include accounting, internal audit and treasury, payroll, human resources, tax, legal, purchasing, risk management, mergers and acquisitions and general management. For the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002, our expenses were reduced by $9.4 million, $9.2 million and $7.0 million, respectively, related to the provision of these corporate services by us to FNF and its subsidiaries other than FIS and its subsidiaries. For the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002, our expenses were reduced by $75.1 million, $39.5 million and $21.6 million, respectively, related to the provision of corporate services by us to FIS and its subsidiaries.

We also do business with the lender outsourcing solutions segment of FIS, which includes title agency functions whereby an FIS subsidiary acts as the title agent in the issuance of title insurance policies by a title insurance underwriter owned by us and in connection with certain trustee sales guarantees, a form of title insurance issued as part of the foreclosure process. As a result, our title insurance subsidiaries pay commissions on title insurance policies sold through FIS. For 2004, 2003, and 2002, these FIS operations generated $106.3 million, $284.9 million and $53.0 million of revenues for us, which we reflect as agency title premium. We paid FIS commissions at the rate of 88% of premiums generated, equal to $93.6 million, $250.7 million and $46.7 million for 2004, 2003 and 2002 respectively.

We also historically have leased equipment to a subsidiary of FIS. Revenue relating to these leases was $8.4 million, $7.3 million and $6.7 million in 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively. The title plant assets of several of our title insurance subsidiaries are managed or maintained by a subsidiary of FIS. The underlying title plant information and software continues to be owned by each of our title insurance underwriters, but FIS manages and updates the information in return for either (i) a cash management fee or (ii) the right to sell that information to title insurers, including title insurance underwriters that we own and other third party customers. In most cases, FIS is responsible for keeping the title plant assets current and fully functioning, for which we pay a fee to FIS based on our use of, or access to, the title plant. For 2004, 2003 and 2002, our expenses to FIS under these arrangements were $28.9 million, $28.2 million and $24.3 million, respectively. In addition, since November 2004, each applicable title insurance underwriter in turn receives a royalty on sales of access to its title plant assets. For the year ended December 31, 2004, the revenues from these title plant royalties were $0.3 million. Prior to 2004, there was no royalty agreement in place, but if it had been, we would have earned approximately $2.9 million and $2.7 million in additional revenue from FIS for 2003 and 2002, respectively. In addition, we have entered into agreements with FIS that permit FIS and certain of its subsidiaries to access and use (but not to re-sell) the starters databases and back plant databases of our title insurance subsidiaries. Starters databases are our databases of previously issued title policies and back plant databases contain historical records relating to title that are not regularly updated. Each of our applicable title insurance subsidiaries receives a fee for any access to or use of its starters and back plant databases by FIS. We also do business with additional entities within the information services segment of FIS that provide real estate information to our operations. We recorded expenses of $9.9 million, $11.4 million and $3.7 million in 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

Included in our expenses for 2004 and 2003 are amounts paid to a subsidiary of FIS for the provision by FIS to us of IT infrastructure support, data center management and related IT support services. For 2004 and 2003, the amounts included in our expenses to FIS for these services were $56.6 million and $12.4 million respectively. Prior to September 2003, we performed these services ourselves and provided them to FIS. During 2003 and 2002, we received payments from FIS of $5.4 million and $5.8 million relating to these services that offset our other operating expenses. In addition, we incurred software expenses relating to an agreement with a subsidiary of FIS that amounted to $5.8 million, $2.6 million and $1.3 million in 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

Our financial statements for 2004 and 2003 reflect allocations for a lease of office space to us for our corporate headquarters and business operations.

We believe the amounts earned by us or charged to us under each of the foregoing arrangements are fair and reasonable. Although the commission rate paid on the title insurance premiums written by the FIS title agencies was set without negotiation, we believe it is consistent with the average rate that would be available to a third party title agent given the amount and the geographic distribution of the business produced and the low risk of loss profile of the business placed. In connection with the title plant management and maintenance services provided by FIS, we believe that the fees charged to us by FIS are at approximately the same rates that FIS and other similar vendors charge unaffiliated title insurers. The IT infrastructure support and data center management services provided to us by FIS are priced within the range of prices that FIS offers to its unaffiliated third party customers for the same types of services. However, the amounts we earned or were charged under these arrangements were not negotiated at arm's length, and may not represent the terms that we might have obtained from an unrelated third party.

Amounts due from FNF to us as of December 31, 2004 and December 31, 2003 were as follows:

	As of December 31,
	2004	2003
	(In millions)
Taxes due from FNF	63.6	44.1

We have notes receivable from FNF relating to loans by our title underwriters to FNF. These notes amounted to $22.8 million and $26.6 million at December 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively. As of December 31, 2004, these notes bear interest at 2.66%. We earned interest revenue of $1.0 million, $0.7 million and $0.5 million relating to these notes during 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

We are included in FNF's consolidated tax returns and thus any income tax liability or receivable is due to/from FNF. As of December 31, 2004 and 2003, we have recorded a receivable from FNF relating to overpayment of taxes of $63.6 million and $44.1 million, respectively.

Certain of the foregoing related party arrangements are set forth in agreements between us and FNF or FIS that will remain in effect for specified periods following the distribution. For a description of these agreements, see "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions — Historical Related-Party Transactions." Other items described above in respect of which amounts have been allocated to or by us will be the subject of agreements to be entered into by us with related parties at or prior to the time of the distribution. These new agreements and certain other agreements we will enter into at the time of the distribution are described in “Our Arrangements with FNF.”

Prior to the distribution we intend to issue two $250 million intercompany notes payable to FNF, with terms that mirror FNF’s existing $250 million 7.30% public debentures due in August 2011 and $250 million 5.25% public debentures due in March 2013. Proceeds from the issuance of the 2011 public debentures were used by FNF to repay debt incurred in connection with the acquisition of our subsidiary, Chicago Title, and the proceeds from the 2013 public debentures were used for general corporate purposes. Following the issuance of the intercompany notes, we may make an exchange offer in which we would offer to exchange the outstanding FNF notes for notes we would issue having substantially the same terms and deliver the FNF notes received to FNF to reduce the debt under the intercompany notes. See “— Liquidity and Capital Resources.”

Recent Developments

Our Recent Acquisitions

On March 22, 2004, we acquired American Pioneer Title Insurance Company (“APTIC”) for $115.2 million in cash. APTIC is a title insurance underwriter licensed in 45 states with significant agency operations and computerized title plant assets in the state of Florida. APTIC now operates under our Ticor Title brand.

On July 29, 2005, we acquired Service Link, L.P. (“Service Link”), a national provider of centralized mortgage and residential real estate title and closing services to major financial institutions and institutional lenders. The acquisition price was approximately $110 million in cash.

Business Trends and Conditions

Title insurance revenue is closely related to the level of real estate activity and the average price of real estate sales. Real estate sales are directly affected by the availability of funds to finance purchases, predominantly mortgage interest rates. Other factors affecting real estate activity include, but are not limited to, demand for housing, employment levels, family income levels and general economic conditions. In addition to real estate sales, mortgage refinancing is an important source of title insurance revenue. We have found that residential real estate activity generally decreases in the following situations:

- when mortgage interest rates are high or increasing;
- when the mortgage funding supply is limited; and
- when the United States economy is weak.

Because commercial real estate transactions tend to be driven more by supply and demand for commercial space and occupancy rates in a particular area rather than by macroeconomic events, our commercial real estate title insurance business can generate revenues which are countercyclical to the industry cycles discussed above.

Because these factors can change dramatically, revenue levels in the title insurance industry can also change dramatically. For example, beginning in the second half of 1999 and through 2000, steady interest rate increases caused by actions taken by the Federal Reserve Board resulted in a significant decline in refinancing transactions. As a result, the market shifted from a refinance-driven market in 1998 to a more traditional market driven by new home purchases and resales in 1999 and 2000. However, beginning in January 2001 and continuing through June of 2003, the Federal Reserve Board reduced interest rates by 550 basis points, bringing interest rates down to their lowest level in recent history, which again significantly increased the volume of refinance activity. Beginning in mid-June 2003 and continuing through most of 2004, the ten-year treasury bond yield increased from a low of nearly 3.0% to more than 4.5%, causing mortgage interest rates to rise, which decreased the volume of refinance activity. Notwithstanding the increase in interest rates, home prices appreciated strongly in many markets in 2004, benefiting our revenues. Through the second quarter of 2005, refinance activity has continued to decrease, but real estate activity continues at a high rate and the appreciation of home prices remains high. The decreased refinance activity is evidenced by the Mortgage Bankers Association's ("MBA") statistics showing that approximately 43.3% of new loan originations in the first six months of 2005 were refinance transactions as compared with approximately 48.8% in the first six months of 2004. In July 2005 the ten-year treasury rate moved above 4.25%, but the MBA's Mortgage Finance Forecast estimates a $2.738 trillion mortgage origination market for 2005, which would be a 6% increase from 2004.

Historically, real estate transactions have produced seasonal revenue levels for title insurers. The first calendar quarter is typically the weakest quarter in terms of revenue due to the generally low volume of home sales during January and February. The fourth calendar quarter is typically the strongest in terms of revenue due to commercial customers desiring to complete transactions by year-end. Significant changes in interest rates may alter these traditional seasonal patterns due to the effect the cost of financing has on the volume of real estate transactions.

Critical Accounting Estimates

The accounting estimates described below are those we consider critical in preparing our Combined Financial Statements. Management is required to make estimates and assumptions that can affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures with respect to contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the Combined Financial Statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual amounts could differ from those estimates. See Note A of Notes to the Combined Financial Statements for a more detailed description of the significant accounting policies that have been followed in preparing our Combined Financial Statements.

Reserve for Claim Losses. Title companies issue two types of policies since both the buyer and lender in real estate transactions want to know that their interest in the property is insured against certain title defects outlined in the policy. An owner's policy insures the purchaser for as long as he or she owns the property and a lender's policy insures the priority of the lender's security interest over the claims that other parties may have in the property. The maximum amount of liability under a title insurance policy is generally the face amount of the policy plus the cost of defending the insured's title against an adverse claim. While most non-title forms of insurance, including property and casualty, provide for the assumption of risk of loss arising out of unforeseen future events, title insurance serves to protect the policyholder from risk of loss from events that predated the issuance of the policy.

Unlike many other forms of insurance, title insurance requires only a one-time premium for continuous coverage until another policy is warranted due to changes in property circumstances arising from refinance, resale, additional liens, or other events. Unless we issue the subsequent policy, we receive no notice that our exposure under our policy has ended and as a result we are unable to track the actual terminations of our exposures.

Our reserve for claim losses includes reserves for known claims (PLR) as well as for losses that have been incurred but not yet reported to us (IBNR), net of recoupments. Each known claim is reserved for based on our review of the estimated amount of the claim and the costs required to settle the claim. Reserves for claims that are IBNR are estimates that are established at the time the premium revenue is recognized and are based upon historical experience and other factors, including industry trends, claim loss history, legal environment, geographic considerations, and the types of policies written. We also reserve for losses arising from escrow, closing and disbursement functions, due to fraud or operational error.

The table below summarizes our reserves for known claims and incurred but not reported claims.

	As of December 31, 2004	%	As of December 31, 2003	%
		(in thousands)
PLR	$ 223,202	22.8%	$ 207,909	22.3%
IBNR	757,544	77.2%	724,530	77.7%
Total Reserve	$ 980,746	100.0%	$ 932,439	100.0%

Although most claims against title insurance policies are reported relatively soon after the policy has been issued, claims may be reported many years later. By their nature, claims are often complex, vary greatly in dollar amounts and are affected by economic and market conditions and the legal environment existing at the time of settlement of the claims. Estimating future title loss payments is difficult because of the complex nature of title claims, the long periods of time over which claims are paid, significantly varying dollar amounts of individual claims and other factors.

We continually update loss reserve estimates by utilizing both internal and external resources. Management performs a detailed study of loss reserves based upon the latest available information at the end of each quarter and year. In addition, an independent actuarial consulting firm assists us in analyzing our historic loss experience and developing statistical models to project ultimate loss expectancy. The actuaries prepare a formal analysis of our reserves at December 31 each year. Management examines both the quantitative data provided by the actuaries and qualitative information derived from internal sources such as our legal, claims, and underwriting departments to ultimately arrive at our best reserve estimate. Regardless of technique, all methods involve significant judgment and assumptions. Management strives to improve its loss reserve estimation process by enhancing its ability to analyze loss development patterns and we continually look for ways to identify new trends to reduce the uncertainty of our loss exposure. However, adjustments may be required as experience develops unexpectedly, new information becomes known, new loss patterns emerge, or as other contributing factors are considered and incorporated into the analysis.

Predicting ultimate loss exposure is predicated on evaluating past experience and adjusting for changes in current development and trends. Our external actuaries' work includes two principal steps. First, they use an actuarial technique known as the loss development method to calculate loss development factors for the Company. The loss development factors forecast ultimate losses for each policy year based on historic emergence patterns of the Company. Older policy year experience is applied to newer policy years to project future development. When new trends surface, the loss development factors are adjusted to incorporate the more recent development phenomena. Changes in homeownership patterns, increased property turnover rates, and a boom in refinance transactions all are examples of current events that reduce the tail exposure of the loss pattern and warrant these adjustments.

In the second step, the loss development factors calculated in the first step are used to determine the portion of ultimate losses already reported. The percentage of ultimate losses not yet reported is then applied to the expected losses, which are estimated as the product of written premium and an expected loss ratio. The expected loss ratios are derived from an econometric model of the title insurance industry incorporating various economic variables including interest rates as well as industry related developments such as title plant automation and defalcations, which are misappropriations of funds from escrow accounts, to arrive at an expected loss ratio for each policy year.

Using the above approach, our actuaries develop a single point estimate, rather than a range of reserves or a set of point estimates. As of December 31, 2004, their estimate of incurred but not reported losses, combined with our reserves for known claims, totaled $1,000.1 million, slightly above our carried reserves at that date.

The table below presents our loss development experience for the past three years. As can be seen in the table, the variability in loss estimates over the past three years has ranged from favorable development in an amount equal to 0.9% of title premiums to adverse development of 0.2% of title premiums with the average being favorable development of 0.3% over the three year period. Assuming that variability of potential reserve estimates is + or - 0.3%, the effect on pretax earnings would be as presented in the last line of the table.

Our analysis of our reserves as of December 31, 2004 demonstrates management's continued efforts to improve its loss reserve estimate. For the first time, a separate analysis of mega claims (defined as claims with incurred amounts greater than $500,000) was performed. Prior to this analysis these large claims have influenced the loss development factors used in both actuarial methods by creating a multiplicative effect for newer policy years' loss projections. The mega claims are handled by specific attorneys and may have different emergence patterns that must be projected in isolation from the other claims.

In addition, adjustments were made to reflect the reduced tail exposure of fairly recent policy years due to unprecedented refinancing activity and property turnover rates. Our hypothesis supported by recent data is that a lower percentage of policies from prior years remain in force due to the substantial turnover in property mortgages. Furthermore, it is our belief that refinance transactions develop differently than resale transactions in that there appears to be an acceleration of claim activity as claims are reported more quickly. As a result, we have incorporated the effect of these assumptions on our loss projections.

The point estimate provided by our independent actuaries, combined with our known claim reserves, aggregated $1,000.1 million at December 31, 2004, as compared with our carried reserve of $980.7 million, a difference of $19.4 million, or 1.9%. Different professional judgment in two critical assumptions was the primary driver of the difference between the independent actuary's estimate and our carried reserve level; different weight given to a separate projection of individually significant losses (losses greater than $500,000) and adjustments based on recent experience to realize emerging changes in refinance versus home sale activity. In the independent actuaries' estimate only one half of the effect of projecting significant losses separately was taken into consideration; whereas, our management applied full weight to such analysis. Additionally, the independent actuaries' estimate placed less weight on the effects of refinancings in the 2002-2004 policy years, some of the largest refinance years in history; whereas our management placed moderately greater weights on the effects of refinancing assumptions in such years.

In our reserve setting process, our independent actuaries fulfill a function, which is to provide information that is part of the overall mix of information that our management uses to set our reserves, but by no means do they provide a definitive evaluation. While there can be no assurance as to the precision of loss reserve estimates, as shown in the table above, our development on prior years' loss reserves over the past three years has generally been favorable, averaging 0.3% of carried reserves, using the reserve setting processes described above.

Valuation of Investments. We regularly review our investment portfolio for factors that may indicate that a decline in fair value of an investment is other-than-temporary. Some factors considered in evaluating whether or not a decline in fair value is other-than-temporary include: (i) our ability and intent to retain the investment for a period of time sufficient to allow for a recovery in value; (ii) the duration and extent to which the fair value has been less than cost; and (iii) the financial condition and prospects of the issuer. Such reviews are inherently uncertain and the value of the investment may not fully recover or may decline in future periods resulting in a realized loss. Investments are selected for analysis whenever an unrealized loss is greater than a certain threshold that we determine based on the size of our portfolio. Fixed maturity investments that have unrealized losses caused by interest rate movements are not at risk as we have the ability and intent to hold them to maturity. Unrealized losses on investments in equity securities and fixed maturity instruments that are susceptible to credit related declines are evaluated based on the aforementioned factors. Currently available market data is considered and estimates are made as to the duration and prospects for recovery, and the ability to retain the investment until such recovery takes place. These estimates are revisited quarterly and any material degradation in the prospect for recovery will be considered in the other than temporary impairment analysis. We believe that continuous monitoring and analysis has allowed for the proper recognition of other than temporary impairments over the past three year period. Any change in estimate in this area will have an impact on the results of operations of the period in which a charge is taken. During 2004, 2003 and 2002, we recorded other than temporary impairments totaling $6.6 million, $0.0 million and $30.4 million, respectively.

Goodwill. We have made acquisitions in the past that have resulted in a significant amount of goodwill. As of December 31, 2004 and December 31, 2003, goodwill was $959.6 million and $920.3 million, respectively. The majority of our goodwill as of December 31, 2004 and 2003 relates to our Chicago Title acquisition. The process of determining whether or not an asset, such as goodwill, is impaired or recoverable relies on projections of future cash flows, operating results and market conditions. While we believe that our estimates of future cash flows are reasonable, these estimates are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ from what is assumed in these impairment tests. In evaluating the recoverability of goodwill, we perform an annual goodwill impairment test based on an analysis of the discounted future cash flows generated by the underlying assets. We have completed our annual goodwill impairment tests in each of the past three years and have determined that we have a fair value in excess of our carrying value. Such analyses are particularly sensitive to changes in estimates of future cash flows and discount rates. Changes to these estimates might result in material changes in fair value and determination of the recoverability of goodwill which may result in charges against earnings and a reduction in the carrying value of our goodwill.

Long-Lived Assets. We review long-lived assets, primarily computer software, property and equipment and other intangibles, for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. If indicators of impairment are present, we estimate the future net cash flows expected to be generated from the use of those assets and their eventual disposal. We would recognize an impairment loss if the aggregate future net cash flows were less than the carrying amount. We have not recorded any material impairment charges in the past three years. As a result, the carrying values of these assets could be significantly affected by the accuracy of our estimates of future net cash flows, which cannot be estimated with certainty, similar to our goodwill analysis.

Revenue Recognition. Our direct title insurance premiums and escrow and other title-related fees are recognized as revenue at the time of closing of the related transaction as the earnings process is then considered complete, whereas premium revenues from agency operations and agency commissions include an accrual based on estimates using historical information of the volume of transactions that have closed in a particular period for which premiums have not yet been reported to us. The accrual for agency premiums is necessary because of the lag between the closing of these transactions and the reporting of these policies to us by the agent. In the second quarter of 2005, we began to compile data that illustrated the correlation of direct and agency premiums. Prior to the end of the quarter we determined that we had gathered sufficient data and concluded that we should enhance our lag accrual methodology to utilize the additional data. Accordingly, we refined our method of estimation for accruing agency title revenues and commissions to take into account trends in direct premiums in addition to the historical information about agency premiums and commissions previously considered. This refinement resulted in our recording approximately $50.0 million in additional agency revenue in the second quarter of 2005 than we would have under our prior method. After related accruals for commissions and other associated expenses, the impact on net earnings of this change was approximately $2.0 million. We are likely to continue to have changes to our accrual for agency revenue in the future, but as demonstrated by this second quarter adjustment, the impact on net earnings of changes in these accruals is very small, equal to approximately four percent of the change in revenues.

- (1) These measures are used by management to judge productivity and are a measure of transaction volume for our direct title businesses. An order is opened when we receive a customer order and is closed when the related real estate transaction closes, which typically takes 45-60 days from the opening of an order.

Total revenues for the first six months of 2005 increased $36.2 million to $2,952.4 million as compared to the first six months of 2004. This increase was primarily the result of a change in accounting estimate relating to agency title premiums, increased direct title premiums, escrow and other title-related fees and interest and investment income. During the second quarter of 2005, we re-evaluated our method of estimation for accruing agency title revenues and commissions and refined the method which resulted in our recording approximately $50.0 million in additional agency revenue in the second quarter and six month period than we would have under our prior method. The impact on net earnings of this adjustment was approximately $2.0 million.

Total title insurance premiums for the six-month periods were as follows:

	Six Months Ended June 30,
	2005	% of Total	2004	% of Total
(In thousands)
Title premiums from direct operations	$ 1,017,396	43.8%	$ 987,019	42.3%
Title premiums from agency operations	1,304,200	56.2%	1,348,430	57.7%
Total	$ 2,321,596	100.0%	$ 2,335,449	100.0%

Title insurance premiums decreased 0.6% to $2,321.6 million in the first six months of 2005 as compared with the first six months of 2004. A decrease of $44.2 million or 3.3% in premiums from agency operations was offset by an increase of $30.4 million or 3.1% in direct premiums. The decrease in agency premiums was offset by approximately $50.0 million in additional agency premiums accrued in the second quarter of 2005 due to the change in estimate for accruing agency revenues noted above. The increased level of direct title premiums is a direct result of an increase in the average fee per file offset by a decline in closed order levels as compared with the prior year. The drop experienced in closed orders reflects a slowing refinance market as evidenced by the MBA statistics showing that approximately 43.3% of new loan originations in the first six months of 2005 were refinance transactions as compared with approximately 48.8% in the first six months of 2004. The increase in fee per file is the result of the decreased levels of refinance-driven activity, which typically have lower fees, in the first six months of 2005 as compared with the same period of the prior year, as well as the appreciation of home prices over the past year. The decrease in agency revenues relates to the fact that the first six months of 2004 benefited from the continued strong refinance volumes of 2003, which were at an all-time high, while in the first six months of 2005 there was a weaker refinance environment. The 2004 period included $74.5 million in revenue from FIS's title agency business, which benefited from refinancings, while the 2005 period only included $42.8 million in revenue from FIS's title agency business.

Trends in escrow and other title-related fees are primarily related to title insurance activity generated by our direct operations. Escrow and other title-related fees during the six-month periods ended June 30, 2005 and 2004 fluctuated in a pattern generally consistent with the fluctuation in direct title insurance premiums and order counts. Escrow and other title-related fees were $543.5 million and $514.0 million for the first six months of 2005 and 2004, respectively.

Interest and investment income levels are primarily a function of securities markets, interest rates and the amount of cash available for investment. Interest and investment income in the first six months of 2005 was $45.4 million, compared with $28.2 million in the first six months of 2004, an increase of $17.2 million, or 60.9%. The increase in interest and investment income in the first six months of 2005 is due primarily to an increase in our fixed income asset base during the current year period and the increasing interest rate environment.

Net realized gains for the first six months of 2005 were $21.9 million compared with net realized gains of $17.0 million for the corresponding period of the prior year.

Operating expenses consist primarily of personnel costs and other operating expenses, which are incurred as orders are received and processed, and agent commissions which are incurred as revenue is recognized. Title insurance premiums, escrow and other title-related fees are generally recognized as income at the time the underlying transaction closes. As a result, direct operations revenue lags approximately 45-60 days behind expenses and therefore gross margins may fluctuate. The changes in the market environment and mix of business between direct and agency operations have impacted margins and net earnings. We have implemented programs and have taken necessary actions to maintain expense levels consistent with revenue streams. However, a short time lag does exist in reducing short-run fixed costs and certain long-run fixed costs are incurred regardless of revenue levels.

Personnel costs include base salaries, commissions, benefits and bonuses paid to employees, and are one of our most significant operating expenses. Personnel costs totaled $904.6 million and $838.1 million for the six months ended June 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively. Personnel costs, as a percentage of total direct title premiums and escrow and other title-related fees, were 58.0% in the first six months of 2005, and 55.8% for the first six months of 2004. The increase of $66.5 million or 7.9% in personnel costs primarily relates to an increase in revenues from direct operations of 3.9% and higher costs incurred in 2005 due to the competitive environment.

Other operating expenses consist primarily of facilities expenses, title plant-related charges, premium taxes (which insurance underwriters are required to pay on title premiums in lieu of franchise and other state taxes), postage and courier services, computer services, professional services, advertising expenses, general insurance and trade receivable allowances. Other operating expenses totaled $451.1 million and $422.1 million for the six months ended June 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively. The increase of $29.0 million or 6.8% primarily relates to the increase in revenues from direct operations.

Agent commissions represent the portion of premiums retained by agents pursuant to the terms of their respective agency contracts. Agent commissions and the resulting percentage of agent premiums we retain vary according to regional differences in real estate closing practices and state regulations.

The following table illustrates the relationship of agent premiums and agent commissions:

	Six Months Ended June 30,
	2005		2004
	Amount	%	Amount	%
	(In thousands)
Agent title premiums	$ 1,304,200	100.0%	$ 1,348,430	100.0%
Agent commissions	1,005,121	77.1%	1,046,601	77.6%
Net margin	$ 299,079	22.9%	$ 301,829	22.4%

Net margin from agency title insurance premiums increased as a percentage of total agency premiums due to our writing a higher percentage of policies in states where we pay lower commission rates.

The provision for claim losses includes an estimate of anticipated title and title-related claims, and escrow losses. The estimate of anticipated title and title-related claims is accrued as a percentage of title premium revenue based on our historical loss experience and other relevant factors. We monitor our claims loss experience on a continual basis and adjust the provision for claim losses accordingly. The claim loss provision for title insurance was $150.7 million in the first six months of 2005 as compared to $125.0 million in the first six months of 2004. Our claim loss provision as a percentage of total title premiums was 6.5% and 5.4% in the first six months of 2005 and 2004, respectively. The increase is attributable to higher than expected payment levels, especially for individually significant claims, and a return to a more normalized environment with the volume of resale transactions exceeding the refinance transactions.

Interest expense was $0.7 million and $2.3 million in the first six months of 2005 and 2004, respectively.

Income tax expense as a percentage of earnings before income taxes was 37.5% for the first six months of 2005 and 36.6% for the first six months of 2004. Income tax expense as a percentage of earnings before income taxes changes due to the characteristics of pre-tax earnings, such as the percentage of earnings from operating income, investment income and state tax apportionment, year to year.

Total revenue in 2004 decreased $81.3 million to $5,889.4 million, a decrease of 1.4% compared to 2003. Total revenue in 2003 increased $1,503.4 million, or 33.7% to $5,970.7 million from $4,467.3 million in 2002. Although the mix of direct and agency title premiums changed from 2003 to 2004, total title premiums and escrow and other title-related fees remained fairly consistent in 2004 as compared with 2003. The increase in total revenue in 2003 is due in part to increases in real estate and refinance activity as a result of decreasing interest rates. Further, increased realized gains on investments also contributed to increased revenue in 2003 compared to 2002.

Title insurance premiums were $4,718.2 million in 2004, $4,700.8 million in 2003 and $3,547.7 million in 2002. Direct title premiums decreased from 2003 to 2004 while agency title premiums increased during the same period. The decrease in direct title premiums is primarily due to a reduction in refinancing activity experienced in 2004 as compared with 2003 and was partially offset by an increase in the average fee per file. The average fee per file in our direct operations was $1,324, $1,081 and $1,099 in 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively. The increase in direct title premiums in 2003 was due primarily to increases in resale and refinance activity as a result of the decline in interest rates through mid-year 2003. The increase in resale and refinance activity in 2003 was partially offset by a decrease in the average fee per file. The increase in the fee per file in 2004 and the decrease in fee per file in 2003 is consistent with the overall level of refinance activity experienced during 2004 and 2003. The fee per file tends to increase as mortgage interest rates rise, and the mix of business changes from a predominately refinance-driven market to more of a resale-driven market.

The following table presents the percentages of title insurance premiums generated by our direct and agency operations:

	Year Ended December 31,
	Amount	%	Amount	%	Amount	%
	(In thousands)
Direct	$ 2,003,447	42.5%	$ 2,105,317	44.8%	$ 1,557,769	43.9%
Agency	2,714,770	57.5	2,595,433	55.2	1,989,958	56.1
Total title insurance premiums	$ 4,718,217	100.0%	$ 4,700,750	100.0%	$ 3,547,727	100.0%

In 2004, our mix of direct and agency title premiums changed, with agency premiums increasing to 57.5% of total premiums compared with 55.2% in 2003. Agency premiums increased in 2004 by $119.3 million, which was primarily attributed to an increase in agency premiums of $193.5 million due to our acquisition of APTIC in March 2004 that was offset by a decrease in the amount of agency revenue provided by FIS's title agency operations. Agency business in general is not as profitable as direct business. Our mix of direct and agency title insurance premiums changed in 2003 as compared with 2002, primarily as a result of our acquisition of ANFI, Inc. ("ANFI") in March 2003, and the inclusion of ANFI's title insurance premiums as direct title insurance premiums in 2003. In 2002, ANFI's title insurance premiums were included in agency title insurance premiums. Agency revenues from FIS title agency businesses were $106.3 million, $284.9 million and $53.0 million in 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

Trends in escrow and other title-related fees are primarily related to title insurance activity generated by our direct operations. Escrow and other title-related fees during the three-year period ended December 31, 2004, fluctuated in a pattern generally consistent with the fluctuation in direct title insurance premiums and order counts. Escrow and other title-related fees were $1,039.8 million, $1,058.7 million and $790.8 million, respectively, during 2004, 2003 and 2002.

Interest and investment income levels are primarily a function of securities markets, interest rates and the amount of cash available for investment. Interest and investment income in 2004 was $64.9 million compared with $56.7 million in 2003 and $72.3 million in 2002. Average invested assets in 2004 increased 14.8% to $3,226.2 million, from $2,811.5 million in 2003. The tax equivalent yield in 2004, excluding realized gains and losses, was 2.7% as compared with 2.5% in 2003 and 3.3% in 2002. Interest and investment income decreased $15.6 million, or 21.6% in 2003 to $56.7 million from $72.3 million in 2002.

Net realized gains and losses for 2004, 2003 and 2002 were $22.9 million, $101.8 million and $0.6 million, respectively. Net realized gains in 2003 includes a $51.7 million realized gain as a result of IAC InterActive Corp.'s acquisition of Lending Tree Inc. and the subsequent sale of our IAC Interactive Corp. common stock and a realized gain of $21.8 million on the sale of New Century Financial Corporation common stock.

Net realized gains in 2002 included a $0.1 million gain recognized on our investment in Santa Barbara Restaurant Group, Inc. ("SBRG") common stock as a result of the merger between SBRG and CKE Restaurants, Inc. ("CKE") and a $2.6 million loss on the sale of a portion of our CKE common stock in the second quarter of 2002. Net realized gains in 2002 were partially offset by other-than-temporary impairment losses of $5.1 million on CKE recorded during the fourth quarter of 2002 and $3.3 million recorded on MCI WorldCom bonds in the second quarter of 2002.

Other income represents revenue generated by other smaller real-estate related businesses that are not directly title-related. Other income was $43.5 million in 2004, $52.7 million in 2003 and $55.9 million in 2002.

Our operating expenses consist primarily of personnel costs and other operating expenses, which are incurred as orders are received and processed and agent commissions which are incurred as revenue is recognized. Title insurance premiums, escrow and other title-related fees are generally recognized as income at the time the underlying transaction closes. As a result, direct operations revenue lags approximately 45-60 days behind expenses and therefore gross margins may fluctuate. The changes in the market environment, mix of business between direct and agency operations and the contributions from our various business units have impacted margins and net earnings. We have implemented programs and have taken necessary actions to maintain expense levels consistent with revenue streams. However, a short time lag does exist in reducing variable costs and certain fixed costs are incurred regardless of revenue levels. We have taken significant measures to maintain appropriate personnel levels and costs relative to the volume and mix of business while maintaining customer service standards and quality controls. As such, with the decline in open orders on refinance transactions resulting from the increase in mortgage interest rates during the second half of 2003, we began reducing personnel costs with the reduction of approximately 22% of the title and escrow workforce from July to December of 2003 and maintained personnel at appropriate levels during 2004. We will continue to monitor prevailing market conditions and will adjust personnel costs in accordance with activity.

Personnel costs include base salaries, commissions, benefits and bonuses paid to employees, and are one of our most significant operating expenses. Personnel costs totaled $1,680.8 million, $1,692.9 million and $1,260.1 million for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively. Personnel costs, as a percentage of direct title insurance premiums and escrow and other title-related fees, were 55.2% in 2004, compared with 53.5% in 2003 and 53.7% 2002. The increase in personnel costs as a percentage of total revenue in 2004 is attributable to the lag in reducing personnel to the appropriate level based on activity. In addition, as a result of adopting SFAS No. 123 during 2003, included in personnel costs for 2004 and 2003 is approximately $5.4 million and $4.9 million in stock compensation expense, respectively.

Other operating expenses consist primarily of facilities expenses, title plant-related changes, premium taxes (which insurance underwriters are required to pay on title premiums in lieu of franchise and other state taxes), postage and courier services, computer services, professional services, advertising expenses, general insurance, and trade and notes receivable allowances. Other operating expenses totaled $849.6 million, $817.6 million and $633.2 million for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively. Other operating expenses increased as a percentage of direct title insurance premiums and escrow and other title-related fees to 27.9% in 2004 from 25.8% in 2003, which decreased from 27.0% in 2002. The increase in other operating expenses as a percentage of total direct title premiums and escrow and other fees in 2004 is consistent with the increase in personnel costs as a percentage of total direct title premiums and escrow and other fees.

Agent commissions represent the portion of premiums retained by agents pursuant to the terms of their respective agency contracts. Agent commissions and the resulting percentage of agent premiums we retain vary according to regional differences in real estate closing practices and state regulations.

The provision for claim losses includes an estimate of anticipated title and title-related claims. The estimate of anticipated title and title-related claims is accrued as a percentage of title premium revenue based on our historical loss experience and other relevant factors. We monitor our claims loss experience on a continual basis and adjust the provision for claim losses accordingly.

A summary of the reserve for claim losses is as follows:

(1) We assumed APTIC's outstanding reserve for claim losses in connection with its acquisition in 2004. We assumed ANFI's outstanding reserve for claim losses in connection with its acquisition in 2003.

The title loss provision in 2004 reflects a higher estimated loss for the 2004 policy year offset in part by a favorable adjustment from previous policy years. The unfavorable development during 2003 reflects higher than expected payment levels on previously issued policies.

Interest expense for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002 was $3.9 million, $4.6 million and $8.6 million, respectively.

Income tax expense as a percentage of earnings before income taxes for 2004, 2003 and 2002 was 36.6%, 37.3%, and 36.0%, respectively. The fluctuation in income tax expense as a percentage of earnings before income taxes is attributable to our estimate of ultimate income tax liability, and changes in the characteristics of net earnings year to year, such as underwriting income versus investment income. The increase in 2003 as compared with 2002 is primarily due to an increase in state income tax rates.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Cash Requirements

Our cash requirements include operating expenses, taxes, payments of interest and principal on our debt, capital expenditures, business acquisitions and dividends on our common stock. We believe that all anticipated cash requirements for current operations will be met from internally generated funds, through cash dividends from subsidiaries, cash generated by investment securities and borrowings and existing credit facilities. Our short-term and long-term liquidity requirements are monitored regularly to ensure that we can meet our cash requirements. We forecast the daily needs of all of our subsidiaries and periodically review their short-term and long-term projected sources and uses of funds, as well as the asset, liability, investment and cash flow assumptions underlying these projections.

Our insurance subsidiaries generate cash from premiums earned and their respective investment portfolios and these funds are adequate to satisfy the payments of claims and other liabilities. Due to the magnitude of our investment portfolio in relation to our claim loss reserves, we do not specifically match durations of our investments to the cash outflows required to pay claims, but do manage outflows on a shorter time frame.

Our two significant sources of internally generated funds are dividends and other payments from our subsidiaries. As a holding company, we will receive cash from our subsidiaries in the form of dividends and as reimbursement for operating and other administrative expenses we incur. The reimbursements will be paid within the guidelines of management agreements to be entered among us and our subsidiaries. Our insurance subsidiaries are restricted by state regulation in their ability to pay dividends and make distributions. Each state of domicile regulates the extent to which our title underwriters can pay dividends or make other distributions to us. See “Business — Regulation.” As of December 31, 2004, $1,731.3 million of our net assets were restricted from dividend payments without prior approval from the relevant departments of insurance. During the remainder of 2005, our first tier title subsidiaries can pay or make distributions to us of approximately $89.1 million without prior regulatory approval. Our underwritten title companies collect revenue and pay operating expenses. However, they are not regulated to the same extent as our insurance subsidiaries.

In July 2005 one of our insurance subsidiaries paid a cash dividend to FNF in the amount of $145 million. This dividend required prior regulatory approval, which was obtained. In August 2005 one of our subsidiaries that is not subject to regulatory limitations on dividend payments paid a dividend to FNF in the form of a promissory note having a principal amount of $150 million.

Capital Expenditures

Our capital expenditures relate primarily to fixed assets and were $70.6 million, $80.4 million and $64.1 million in 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively. We do not expect future capital expenditures to increase significantly.

Financing

Prior to the distribution we intend to issue two $250 million intercompany notes payable to FNF, with terms that mirror FNF's existing $250 million 7.30% public debentures due in August 2011 and $250 million 5.25% public debentures due in March 2013. Proceeds from the issuance of the 2011 public debentures were used by FNF to repay debt incurred in connection with the acquisition of our subsidiary, Chicago Title, and the proceeds from the 2013 public debentures were used for general corporate purposes. Interest on each mirror note accrues from the last date on which interest on the corresponding FNF notes was paid and at the same rate. The mirror notes mature on the maturity dates of the corresponding FNF notes. Upon any acceleration of maturity of the FNF notes, whether upon redemption or an event of default of the FNF notes, we must repay the corresponding mirror note. Following issuance of the intercompany notes, we may make an exchange offer in which we would offer to exchange the outstanding FNF notes for notes we would issue having substantially the same terms and deliver the FNF notes received to FNF to reduce the debt under the intercompany notes. We also plan to enter into a credit agreement in the amount of between $200 million and $300 million. We currently anticipate that at the time of or shortly after the distribution we would borrow $150 million under this facility and pay it to FNF in satisfaction of a $150 million intercompany note issued by one of our subsidiaries to FNF in August 2005.

Subject to certain limited exceptions, we may not issue additional shares of stock without consent of FNF, which it may be unwilling to give because of the resulting tax consequences. See "Our Arrangements with FNF — Separation Agreement."

Contractual Obligations

Our long-term contractual obligations generally include our long-term debt and operating lease payments on certain of our property and equipment. As of December 31, 2004, our required payments relating to our long-term contractual obligations are as follows:

	2005	2006	2007	2008 (In thousands)	2009	Thereafter	Total
Notes payable	$ 22,390	$ —	$ —	$ —	$ —	$ —	$ 22,390
Operating lease payments	109,380	94,805	75,338	51,216	28,933	19,699	379,371
Reserve for claim losses	181,617	147,037	115,761	86,806	63,108	386,417	980,746
Pension and postretirement obligations	12,309	12,287	12,575	12,811	12,777	108,936	171,695
Total	$ 325,696	$ 254,129	$ 203,674	$ 150,833	$ 104,818	$ 515,052	$ 1,554,202

As of December 31, 2004 we had reserves for claim losses of $980.7 million. The amounts and timing of these obligations are estimated and are not set contractually. Nonetheless, based on historical title insurance claim experience, we anticipate the above payment patterns. While we believe that historical loss payments are a reasonable source for projecting future claim payments, there is significant inherent uncertainty in this payment pattern estimate because of the potential impact of changes in:

- future mortgage interest rates, which will affect the number of real estate and refinancing transactions and, therefore, the rate at which title insurance claims will emerge;
- the legal environment whereby court decisions and reinterpretations of title insurance policy language to broaden coverage could increase total obligations and influence claim payout patterns;

- events such as fraud, defalcation, and multiple property title defects, that can substantially and unexpectedly cause increases in both the amount and timing of estimated title insurance loss payments;
- loss cost trends whereby increases or decreases in inflationary factors (including the value of real estate) will influence the ultimate amount of title insurance loss payments; and
- claims staffing levels whereby claims may be settled at a different rate based on the future staffing levels of the claims department.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

In conducting our operations, we routinely hold customers' assets in escrow, pending completion of real estate transactions. Certain of these amounts are maintained in segregated bank accounts and have not been included in the Combined Balance Sheets. As a result of holding these customers' assets in escrow, we have ongoing programs for realizing economic benefits during the year through favorable borrowing and vendor arrangements with various banks. There were no investments or loans outstanding as of December 31, 2004 related to these arrangements.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In December 2004, the FASB issued FASB Statement No. 123R ("SFAS No. 123R"), "Share-Based Payment," which requires that compensation cost relating to share-based payments be recognized in FNT's financial statements. During 2003, we adopted the fair value recognition provision of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" ("SFAS No. 123"), for stock-based employee compensation, effective as of the beginning of 2003. We had elected to use the prospective method of transition, as permitted by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 148, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation — Transition and Disclosure" ("SFAS No. 148"). Under this method, stock-based employee compensation cost is recognized from the beginning of 2003 as if the fair value method of accounting had been used to account for all employee awards granted, modified, or settled in years beginning after December 31, 2002. SFAS No. 123R does not allow for the prospective method, but requires the recording of expense relating to the vesting of all unvested options beginning in the first quarter of 2006. Since we adopted SFAS No. 123 in 2003, the impact of recording additional expense in 2006 under SFAS No. 123R relating to options granted prior to January 1, 2003 is not significant.

Market Risks

Market risk refers to the risk that a change in the level of one or more market factors, such as interest rates or equity prices, will result in losses for financial instruments that we hold or arrangements to which we are a party.

Interest Rate Risk

Our fixed maturity investments and borrowings are subject to interest rate risk. Increases and decreases in prevailing interest rates generally translate into decreases and increases in fair values of those instruments. Additionally, fair values of interest rate sensitive instruments may be affected by the creditworthiness of the issuer, prepayment options, relative values of alternative investments, the liquidity of the instrument and other general market conditions.

Equity Price Risk

The carrying values of investments subject to equity price risks are based on quoted market prices as of the balance sheet date. Market prices are subject to fluctuation and, consequently, the amount realized in the subsequent sale of an investment may significantly differ from the reported market value. Fluctuation in the market price of a security may result from perceived changes in the underlying economic characteristics of the investee, the relative price of alternative investments and general market conditions. Furthermore, amounts realized in the sale of a particular security may be affected by the relative quantity of the security being sold.

Caution should be used in evaluating our overall market risk from the information below, since actual results could differ materially because the information was developed using estimates and assumptions as described below, and because our reserve for claim losses (representing 41.1% of total liabilities) is not included in the hypothetical effects.

The hypothetical effects of changes in market rates or prices on the fair values of financial instruments would have been as follows as of or for the year ended December 31, 2004:

- An approximate $58.1 million net increase (decrease) in the fair value of fixed maturity securities would have occurred if interest rates were 100 basis points (lower) higher as of December 31, 2004. The change in fair values was determined by estimating the present value of future cash flows using various models, primarily duration modeling.
- An approximate $23.0 million net increase (decrease) in the fair value of equity securities would have occurred if there was a 20% price increase (decrease) in market prices.
- It is not anticipated that there would be a significant change in the fair value of other long-term investments or short-term investments if there was a change in market conditions, based on the nature and duration of the financial instruments involved.

INDUSTRY BACKGROUND

Title Insurance Policies

Generally, real estate buyers and mortgage lenders purchase title insurance to insure good and marketable title to real estate. A brief generalized description of the process of issuing a title insurance policy is as follows:

- The customer, typically a real estate salesperson or broker, escrow agent, attorney or lender, places an order for a title policy.
- Company personnel note the specifics of the title policy order and place a request with the title company or its agents for a preliminary report or commitment.
- After the relevant historical data on the property is compiled, the title officer prepares a preliminary report that documents the current status of title to the property, any exclusions, exceptions and/or limitations that the title company might include in the policy, and specific issues that need to be addressed and resolved by the parties to the transaction before the title policy will be issued.
- The preliminary report is circulated to all the parties for satisfaction of any specific issues.
- After the specific issues identified in the preliminary report are satisfied, an escrow agent closes the transaction in accordance with the instructions of the parties and the title company's conditions.
- Once the transaction is closed and all monies have been released, the title company issues a title insurance policy.

In a real estate transaction financed with a mortgage, virtually all real property mortgage lenders require their borrowers to obtain a title insurance policy at the time a mortgage loan is made. This lender's policy insures the lender against any defect affecting the priority of the mortgage in an amount equal to the outstanding balance of the related mortgage loan. An owner's policy is typically also issued, insuring the buyer against defects in title in an amount equal to the purchase price. On a refinancing transaction, only a lender's policy is generally purchased because ownership of the property has not changed. In the case of an all-cash real estate purchase, no lender's policy is issued but typically an owner's title policy is issued.

Title insurance premiums paid in connection with a title insurance policy are based on (and typically a percentage of) either the amount of the mortgage loan or the purchase price of the property insured. Title insurance premiums are due in full at the closing of the real estate transaction. The lender's policy generally terminates upon the refinancing or resale of the property.

The amount of the insured risk or “face amount” of insurance under a title insurance policy is generally equal to either the amount of the loan secured by the property or the purchase price of the property (subject to adjustment if the policy includes inflation adjustment provisions). The title insurer is also responsible for the cost of defending the insured title against covered claims. The insurer’s actual exposure at any given time, however, generally is less than the total face amount of policies outstanding because the coverage of a lender’s policy is reduced and eventually terminated as a result of payment of the mortgage loan. Because of these factors, the total liability of a title underwriter on outstanding policies cannot be precisely determined.

Title insurance companies typically issue title insurance policies directly through branch offices or through title agencies which are subsidiaries of the title insurance company, and indirectly through independent third party agencies unaffiliated with the title insurance company. Where the policy is issued through a branch or wholly-owned subsidiary agency operation, the title company typically performs or directs the search, and the premiums collected are retained by the title company. Where the policy is issued through an independent agent, the agent generally performs the search (in some areas searches are performed by approved attorneys), examines the title, collects the premium and retains a majority of the premium. The remainder of the premium is remitted to the title company as compensation, part of which is for bearing the risk of loss in the event a claim is made under the policy. The percentage of the premium retained by an agent varies from region to region and is sometimes regulated by the states. The title company is obligated to pay title claims in accordance with the terms of its policies, regardless of whether the title company issues policies through its direct operations or through independent agents.

Prior to issuing policies, title insurers and their agents attempt to reduce the risk of future claim losses by accurately performing searches and examinations. A title company’s predominant expense relates to such searches and examinations, the preparation of preliminary title reports, policies or commitments and the maintenance of title “plants,” which are indexed compilations of public records, maps and other relevant historical documents. Claim losses generally result from errors made in the title search and examination process and from hidden defects such as fraud, forgery, incapacity, or missing heirs of the property.

Residential real estate business results from the construction, sale, resale and refinancing of residential properties, while commercial real estate business results from similar activities with respect to properties with a business or commercial use. Commercial real estate title insurance policies insure title to commercial real property, and generally involve higher coverage amounts and yield higher premiums. The volume of residential real estate transaction volume is primarily affected by macroeconomic and seasonal factors while commercial real estate transactions are affected primarily by fluctuations in local supply and demand conditions for commercial space.

Product Market

The title insurance market in the United States is large and has grown in the last 10 years. According to Demotech, total operating income for the entire U.S. title insurance industry grew from $4.8 billion in 1995 to $15.5 billion in 2004. Growth in the industry is closely tied to various macroeconomic factors, including, but not limited to, growth in the gross national product, inflation, interest rates and sales of and prices for new and existing homes, as well as the refinancing of previously issued mortgages.

Most real estate transactions consummated in the U.S. require the use of title insurance by a lending institution before a transaction can be completed. Generally, revenues from title insurance policies are directly correlated with the value of the property underlying the title policy, and appreciation in the overall value of the real estate market helps drive growth in total industry revenues. Industry revenues are also driven by changes in interest rates, which affect demand for new mortgage loans and refinancing transactions.

The U.S. title insurance industry is concentrated among a handful of industry participants. According to Demotech, the top five title insurance companies accounted for 90.2% of net premiums collected in 2004. Over 40 independent title insurance companies accounted for the remaining 9.8% of net premiums collected in 2004. Over the years, the title insurance industry has been consolidating, beginning with the merger of Lawyers Title Insurance and Commonwealth Land Title Insurance in 1998 to create LandAmerica Financial Group, Inc., followed by FNF's acquisition of Chicago Title in March 2000. Consolidation has created opportunities for increased financial and operating efficiencies for the industry's largest participants and should continue to drive profitability and market share in the industry.

Trends and Opportunities

Title insurance companies today face significant challenges resulting from consolidation among traditional title companies and new entrants, technological innovation and evolving customer preferences and behavior. As a result of these challenges, we believe that the title insurance industry is experiencing or will be subject to the following significant trends:

- Title insurance companies remain subject to consolidation within the industry. This creates the potential for an increased customer base and continued economies of scale.
- In order to achieve lower costs, title insurance companies may increasingly outsource search and examination functions of the title process.
- If mortgage interest rates begin to rise, the volume and average value of real estate related transactions may decline and affect revenue.

BUSINESS

Company Overview

We are the largest title insurance company in the United States. Our title insurance underwriters — Fidelity National Title, Chicago Title, Ticor Title, Security Union Title and Alamo Title — together issued approximately 30.5% of all title insurance policies issued nationally during 2004, as measured by premiums. Our title business consists of providing title insurance and escrow and other title-related products and services arising from the real estate closing process. Our operations are conducted on a direct basis through our own employees who act as title and escrow agents and through independent agents. In addition to our independent agents, our customers are lenders, mortgage brokers, attorneys, real estate agents, home builders and commercial real estate developers. We do not focus our marketing efforts on the homeowner.

History

The predecessors to FNT have primarily been title insurance companies, some of which have been in operation since the late 1800s. Many of these title insurance companies have been acquired in the last two decades. In 1984, FNF acquired a controlling interest in Fidelity National Title Insurance Company. During the 1990s, FNF acquired Alamo Title, Nations Title Inc., Western Title Company of Washington and First Title Corp. In 2000, FNF completed the acquisition of Chicago Title Corp., creating the largest title insurance organization in the world, and in 2004, FNF acquired American Pioneer Title Insurance Company, which now operates under our Ticor Title brand. Chicago Title had previously acquired Security Union Title in 1987 and Ticor Title Insurance Company in 1991. Our businesses have historically been operated as wholly-owned subsidiaries of FNF.

We believe that our competitive strengths include the following:

Leading title insurance company. We are the largest title insurance company in the United States and a leading provider of title insurance and escrow services for real estate transactions. We currently have the leading market share for title insurance in California, New York, Texas and Florida, which are the four largest markets for title insurance in the United States, which account for approximately 48% of all title insurance business in the United States. We have approximately 1,500 locations throughout the United States providing our title insurance services.

Established relationships with our customers. We have strong relationships with the customers who use our title services. Our agent distribution network, which includes over 9,500 agents, is among the largest in the United States. We also benefit from strong brand recognition in our five FNT title brands that allows us to access a broader client base than if we operated under a single consolidated brand and provides our customers with a choice among FNT brands.

Strong value proposition for our customers. We provide our customers with title insurance and escrow and other closing services that support their ability to effectively close real estate transactions. We help make the real estate closing more efficient for our customers by offering a single point of access to a broad platform of title-related products and resources necessary to close real estate transactions.

Proven management team. The managers of our operating businesses have successfully built our title business over an extended period of time, resulting in our business attaining the size, scope and presence in the industry that it has today. Our managers have demonstrated their leadership ability during numerous acquisitions through which we have grown and throughout a number of business cycles and significant periods of industry change.

Competitive cost structure. We have been able to maintain competitive operating margins in part by monitoring our businesses in a disciplined manner through continual evaluation and management of our cost structure. When compared to other industry competitors, we also believe that our management structure has fewer layers of managers which allows us to operate with lower overhead costs.

Commercial title insurance. While residential title insurance comprises the majority of our business, we believe we are the largest provider of commercial real estate title insurance in the United States. Our network of agents, attorneys, underwriters and closers that service the commercial real estate markets is one of the largest in the industry. Our commercial network combined with our financial strength makes our title insurance operations attractive to large national lenders who require the underwriting and issuing of larger commercial title policies.

Corporate principles. A cornerstone of our management philosophy and operating success is the five fundamental precepts upon which FNF was founded:

- Bias for action
- Autonomy and entrepreneurship
- Employee ownership
- Minimal bureaucracy
- Close customer relationships

These five precepts are emphasized to our employees from the first day of employment and are integral to many of our strategies described below.

Strategy

Our strategy in the title insurance business is to maximize operating profits by increasing our market share and managing operating expenses throughout the real estate business cycle. To accomplish our goals, we intend to:

Continue to operate each of our five title brands independently. We believe that in order to maintain and strengthen our title insurance customer base, we must leave the Fidelity National Title, Chicago Title, Ticor Title, Security Union Title and Alamo Title brands intact and operate these brands independently. In most of our largest markets, we operate two, and in a few cases, three brands. This approach allows us to continue to attract customers who identify with one brand over another and allows us to utilize a broader base of local agents and local operations than we would have with a single consolidated brand.

Consistently deliver superior customer service. We believe customer service and consistent product delivery are the most important factors in attracting and retaining customers. Our ability to provide superior customer service and provide consistent product delivery requires continued focus on providing high quality service and products at competitive prices. Our goal is to continue to improve the experience of our customers in all aspects of our business.

Manage our operations successfully through business cycles. We operate in a cyclical business and our ability to diversify our revenue base within our core title insurance business and manage the duration of our investments may allow us to better operate in this cyclical business. Maintaining a broad geographic revenue base, utilizing both direct and independent agency operations and pursuing both residential and commercial title insurance business help diversify our title insurance revenues. Maintaining shorter durations on our investment portfolio allows us to increase our investment revenue in a rising interest rate environment, which may offset some of the decline in premiums and service revenues we would expect in such an environment. For a more detailed discussion of our investment strategies, see “— Investment Policies and Investment Portfolio.”

Continue to improve our products and technology. As a national provider of real estate transaction products and services, we participate in an industry that is subject to significant change, frequent new product and service introductions and evolving industry standards. We believe that our future success will depend in part on our ability to anticipate industry changes and offer products and services that meet evolving industry standards. In connection with our service offerings, we are currently upgrading our operating system to improve the process of ordering title services and improve the delivery of our products to our customers.

Maintain values supporting our strategy. We believe that continuing to focus on and support our long-established corporate culture will reinforce and support our business strategy. Our goal is to foster and support a corporate culture where our agents and employees seek to operate independently and profitably at the local level while forming close customer relationships by meeting customer needs and improving customer service. Utilizing a relatively flat managerial structure and providing our employees with a sense of individual ownership supports this goal.

Effectively manage costs based on economic factors. We believe that our focus on our operating margins is essential to our continued success in the title insurance business. Regardless of the business cycle in which we may be operating, we seek to continue to evaluate and manage our cost structure and make appropriate adjustments where economic conditions dictate. This continual focus on our cost structure helps us to better maintain our operating margins.

Title Insurance

We provide title insurance services through our direct operations and through independent title insurance agents who issue title policies on behalf of our title insurance companies. Our title insurance companies determine the terms and conditions upon which they will insure title to the real property according to their underwriting standards, policies and procedures.

Direct Operations. In our direct operations, the title insurer issues the title insurance policy and retains the entire premium paid in connection with the transaction. Our direct operations provide the following benefits:

- higher margins because we retain the entire premium from each transaction instead of paying a commission to an independent agent;
- continuity of service levels to a broad range of customers; and
- additional sources of income through escrow and closing services.

We have approximately 1,500 offices throughout the U.S. primarily providing residential real estate title insurance. Our commercial real estate title insurance business is operated almost exclusively through our direct operations. We maintain direct operations for our commercial title insurance business in all the major real estate markets including New York, Los Angeles, Chicago, Atlanta, Dallas, Philadelphia, Phoenix, Seattle and Houston.

Agency Operations. In our agency operations, the search and examination function is performed by an independent agent or the agent may purchase the search and examination from us. In either case, the agent is responsible to ensure that the search and examination is completed. The agent thus retains the majority of the title premium collected, with the balance remitted to the title underwriter for bearing the risk of loss in the event that a claim is made under the title insurance policy. Independent agents may select among several title underwriters based upon their relationship with the underwriter, the amount of the premium “split” offered by the underwriter, the overall terms and conditions of the agency agreement and the scope of services offered to the agent. Premium splits vary by geographic region. Our relationship with each agent is governed by an agency agreement defining how the agent issues a title insurance policy on our behalf. The agency agreement also sets forth the agent’s liability to us for policy losses attributable to the agent’s errors. An agency agreement is usually terminable without cause upon 30 days’ notice or immediately for cause. In determining whether to engage or retain an independent agent, we consider the agent’s experience, financial condition and loss history. For each agent with whom we enter into an agency agreement we maintain financial and loss experience records. We also conduct periodic audits of our agents.

Fees and Premiums. One means of analyzing our business is by examining the level of premiums generated by direct and agency operations. The following table presents the percentages of our title insurance premiums generated by direct and agency operations:

	Six Months Ended June 30,				Year Ended December 31,
	2005		2004		2004		2003		2002
	Amount	%	Amount	%	Amount	%	Amount	%	Amount	%
	(In thousands)				(In thousands)
Direct	$ 1,017,396	43.8%	$ 987,019	42.3%	$ 2,003,447	42.5%	$ 2,105,317	44.8%	$ 1,557,769	43.9%
Agency	1,304,200	56.2%	1,348,430	57.7%	2,714,770	57.5%	2,595,433	55.2%	1,989,958	56.1%
Total title insurance premiums	$ 2,321,596	100.0%	$ 2,335,449	100.0%	$ 4,718,217	100.0%	$ 4,700,750	100.0%	$ 3,547,727	100.0%

The premium for title insurance is due in full when the real estate transaction is closed. We recognize title insurance premium revenues from direct operations upon the closing of the transaction, whereas premium revenues from agency operations include an accrual based on estimates of the volume of transactions that have closed in a particular period for which premiums have not yet been reported to us. The accrual for agency premiums is necessary because of the lag between the closing of these transactions and the reporting of these policies to us by the agent and is based on estimates utilizing historical information.

Geographic Operations. Our direct operations are divided into approximately 228 profit centers consisting of more than 1,500 direct offices. Each profit center processes title insurance transactions within its geographical area, which is usually identified by a county, a group of counties forming a region, or a state, depending on the management structure in that part of the country. We also transact title insurance business through a network of over 9,500 agents, primarily in those areas in which agents are the more prevalent title insurance provider.

The following table sets forth the approximate dollar and percentage volumes of our title insurance premium revenue by state.

Escrow and Other Title-Related Services

In addition to fees for underwriting title insurance policies, we derive a significant amount of our revenues from escrow and other title-related services, including closing services. The escrow and other services provided by us include all of those typically required in connection with residential and commercial real estate purchase and refinance activities. Escrow and other title-related fees represented approximately 18.4% of our revenues in the first six months of 2005 and 17.7% and 17.7% of our revenues for 2004 and 2003, respectively. Escrow and other title-related fees are primarily generated by our direct title operations and increases or decreases in the amount of revenue we receive from these services are closely related to increases or decreases in revenues from our direct title operations.

Sales and Marketing

We market and distribute our title and escrow products and services to customers in the residential and commercial market sectors of the real estate industry through customer solicitation by sales personnel. Although in many instances the individual homeowner is the beneficiary of a title insurance policy, we do not focus our marketing efforts on the homeowner. We actively encourage our sales personnel to develop new business relationships with persons in the real estate community, such as real estate sales agents and brokers, financial institutions, independent escrow companies and title agents, real estate developers, mortgage brokers and attorneys who order title insurance policies for their clients. While our smaller, local clients remain important, large customers, such as national residential mortgage lenders, real estate investment trusts and developers have become an increasingly important part of our business. The buying criteria of locally based clients differ from those of large, geographically diverse customers in that the former tend to emphasize personal relationships and ease of transaction execution, while the latter generally place more emphasis on consistent product delivery across diverse geographical regions and ability of service providers to meet their information systems requirements for electronic product delivery.

Reinsurance and Coinsurance

In a limited number of situations we limit our maximum loss exposure by reinsuring certain risks with other title insurers under agent fidelity, excess of loss and case-by-case reinsurance agreements. We also earn a small amount of additional income, which is reflected in our direct premiums, by assuming reinsurance for certain risks of other title insurers. Reinsurance agreements provide generally that the reinsurer is liable for loss and loss adjustment expense payments exceeding the amount retained by the ceding company. However, the ceding company remains primarily liable in the event the reinsurer does not meet its contractual obligations.

We also use coinsurance in our commercial title business to provide coverage in amounts greater than we would be willing or able to provide individually. In coinsurance transactions, each individual underwriting company issues a separate policy and assumes a portion of the overall total risk. As a coinsurer we are only liable for the portion of the risk we assumed.

Losses and Reserves

While most other forms of insurance provide for the assumption of risk of loss arising out of unforeseen events, title insurance serves to protect the policyholder from risk of loss from events that predate the issuance of the policy. As a result, claim losses associated with issuing title policies are less expensive when compared to other insurance underwriters. The maximum amount of liability under a title insurance policy is generally the face amount of the policy plus the cost of defending the insured's title against an adverse claim.

Reserves for claim losses are established based upon known claims, as well as losses incurred but not yet reported to us based upon historical experience and other factors, including industry trends, claim loss history, legal environment, geographic considerations, expected recoupments and the types of policies written. We also reserve for losses arising from escrow, closing and disbursement functions due to fraud or operational error.

Although most claims against title insurance policies are reported relatively soon after the policy has been issued, claims may be reported many years later. By their nature, claims are often complex, vary greatly in dollar amounts and are affected by economic and market conditions and the legal environment existing at the time of settlement of the claims. Estimating future title loss payments is difficult because of the complex nature of title claims, the long periods of time over which claims are paid, significantly varying dollar amounts of individual claims and other factors.

A title insurance company can minimize its losses by having strict quality control systems and underwriting standards in place. These controls increase the likelihood that the appropriate level of diligence is conducted in completing a title search so that the possibility of potential claims is significantly mitigated. In the case of independent agents who conduct their own title searches, the agency agreement between the agent and the title insurance underwriter gives the underwriter the ability to proceed against the agent when a loss arises from a flawed title search. We take an aggressive stance in pursuing claims against independent agents for losses that arise from fraud, misrepresentation, deceptive trade practices or other wrongful acts commonly referred to as "bad faith."

Courts and juries sometimes award damages against insurance companies, including title insurance companies, in excess of policy limits. Such awards are typically based on allegations of fraud, misrepresentation, deceptive trade practices or other wrongful acts. The possibility of such bad faith damage awards may cause us to experience increased costs and difficulty in settling title claims.

The maximum insurable amount under any single title insurance policy is determined by statutorily calculated net worth. The highest self-imposed single policy maximum insurable amount for any of our title insurance subsidiaries is $375.0 million.

Investment Policies and Investment Portfolio

Our investment policy is designed to maintain a high quality portfolio, maximize income and minimize interest rate risk. We also make investments in certain equity securities in order to take advantage of perceived value and for strategic purposes. Various states regulate what types of assets qualify for purposes of capital and surplus and statutory unearned premium reserves. We manage our investment portfolio and do not utilize third party investment managers.

As of December 31, 2004 and 2003, the carrying amount, which approximates the fair value, of total investments was $2,174.8 million and $1,615.7 million, respectively.

We purchase investment grade fixed maturity securities, selected non-investment grade fixed maturity securities and equity securities. The securities in our portfolio are subject to economic conditions and normal market risks and uncertainties.

Short-term investments, which consist primarily of securities purchased under agreements to resell, commercial paper and money market instruments, which have an original maturity of one year or less, are carried at amortized cost, which approximates fair value. As of December 31, 2004 short-term investments amounted to $508.4 million.

Technology

To meet the changing business and technology needs of our customers, we continually invest in our applications and services. This investment includes maintenance and enhancement of existing software applications, the development of new and innovative software applications and the ongoing enhancement of capabilities surrounding our outsourcing infrastructure.

Competition

The title insurance industry is highly competitive. According to Demotech, the top five title insurance companies accounted for 90.2% of net premiums collected in 2004. Over 40 independent title insurance companies accounted for the remaining 9.8% of the market. The number and size of competing companies varies in the different geographic areas in which we conduct our business. In our principal markets, competitors include other major title underwriters such as The First American Corporation, LandAmerica Financial Group, Inc., Old Republic International Corporation and Stewart Information Services Corporation, as well as numerous smaller title insurance companies and independent agency operations at the regional and local level. These smaller companies may expand into other markets in which we compete. Also, the removal of regulatory barriers might result in new competitors entering the title insurance business, and those new competitors may include diversified financial services companies that have greater financial resources than we do and possess other competitive advantages. Competition among the major title insurance companies, expansion by smaller regional companies and any new entrants with alternative products could affect our business operations and financial condition.

Competition in the title insurance industry is based primarily on expertise, service and price. In addition, the financial strength of the insurer has become an increasingly important factor in decisions relating to the purchase of title insurance, particularly in multi-state transactions and in situations involving real estate-related investment vehicles such as real estate investment trusts and real estate mortgage investment conduits.

The title insurance industry has also experienced periods of consolidation. We expect that, from time to time, we may evaluate opportunities for the acquisition of books of business or of title insurance companies or other complementary businesses as a going concern, for business combinations with other concerns and for the provision of insurance related advisory services to third parties. There can be no assurance, however, that any suitable business opportunity will arise.

Legal Proceedings

In the ordinary course of business, we are involved in various pending and threatened litigation matters related to our operations, some of which include claims for punitive or exemplary damages. We believe that no actions, other than those listed below, depart from customary litigation incidental to our business. As background to the disclosure below, please note the following:

- These matters raise difficult and complicated factual and legal issues and are subject to many uncertainties and complexities, including but not limited to the underlying facts of each matter, novel legal issues, variations between jurisdictions in which matters are being litigated, differences in applicable laws and judicial interpretations, the length of time before many of these matters might be resolved by settlement or through litigation and, in some cases, the timing of their resolutions relative to other similar cases brought against other companies, the fact that many of these matters are putative class actions in which a class has not been certified and in which the purported class may not be clearly defined, the fact that many of these matters involve multi-state class actions in which the applicable law for the claims at issue is in dispute and therefore unclear, and the current challenging legal environment faced by large corporations and insurance companies.

- In these matters, plaintiffs seek a variety of remedies including equitable relief in the form of injunctive and other remedies and monetary relief in the form of compensatory damages. In most cases, the monetary damages sought include punitive or treble damages. Often more specific information beyond the type of relief sought is not available because plaintiffs have not requested more specific relief in their court pleadings. In general, the dollar amount of damages sought is not specified. In those cases where plaintiffs have made a specific statement with regard to monetary damages, they often specify damages just below a jurisdictional limit regardless of the facts of the case. This represents the maximum they can seek without risking removal from state court to federal court. In our experience, monetary demands in plaintiffs' court pleadings bear little relation to the ultimate loss, if any, we may experience.
- For the reasons specified above, it is not possible to make meaningful estimates of the amount or range of loss that could result from these matters at this time. We review these matters on an on-going basis and follow the provisions of SFAS No. 5, "Accounting for Contingencies" when making accrual and disclosure decisions. When assessing reasonably possible and probable outcomes, we base our decision on our assessment of the ultimate outcome following all appeals.
- In the opinion of our management, while some of these matters may be material to our operating results for any particular period if an unfavorable outcome results, none will have a material adverse effect on our overall financial condition.

Several class actions are pending alleging improper premiums were charged for title insurance in Ohio (Dubin v. Security Union Title Insurance Company, filed on March 12, 2003, in the Court of Common Pleas, Cuyahoga County, Ohio and Markowitz v. Chicago Title Insurance Company, filed on February 4, 2004 in the Court of Common Pleas, Cuyahoga County, Ohio), Pennsylvania (Patterson v. Fidelity National Title Insurance Company of New York, filed on October 27, 2003 in the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County, Pennsylvania) and Florida (Thula v. American Pioneer, filed on September 24, 2004 in the Circuit Court of Seventeenth Judicial Circuit, Broward County; Figueroa v. Fidelity, filed on April 20, 2004 in the Circuit Court of 11th Judicial Circuit, Dade County; Grosso v. Fidelity National Title Insurance Company of New York, filed on August 31, 2004 in the Circuit Court of the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit, Broward County; Chereskin v. Fidelity National Title Insurance Company of New York, filed on September 21, 2004 in the Circuit Court, Fourth Judicial Circuit, Nassau County; and Turner v. Chicago Title Insurance Company, filed September 20, 2004 in the Circuit Court, Fourth Judicial District, in and for Nassau County, Florida). The cases allege that the named defendant companies failed to provide notice of premium discounts to consumers refinancing their mortgages, and failed to give discounts in refinancing transactions in violation of the filed rates. The actions seek refunds of the premiums charged and punitive damages. Recently, the court's order denying class certification in one of the Ohio actions was reversed and the case was remanded to the trial court for further proceedings. We intend to vigorously defend these actions.

A class action in California (Lane v. Chicago Title Insurance Company, filed on November 4, 1999 in the Superior Court of the State of California, County of San Francisco) alleges we violated the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act ("RESPA") and state law by giving favorable discounts or rates to builders and developers for escrow fees and requiring purchasers to use Chicago Title Insurance Company for escrow services. The actions seek refunds of the premiums charged and additional damages. We intend to continue to vigorously defend the California action.

A purported shareholder derivative action (McCabe v. Fidelity National Financial, Inc., et al.) was filed on February 11, 2005 in the U.S. District Court, Middle District of Florida, Jacksonville Division alleging that FNF's directors and certain executive officers breached their fiduciary and other duties, and exposed FNF to potential fines, penalties and suits in the future, by permitting so called contingent commissions to obtain business. FNF and its directors and executive officers named as defendants filed Motions to Dismiss the action on June 3, 2005. The plaintiff abandoned his original complaint and responded to the motions by filing an amended Complaint on July 13, 2005, and FNF, along with its directors and executive officers named as defendants, must respond to the amended Complaint by August 29, 2005. The amended complaint repeats the allegations of the original complaint and adds allegations about “captive reinsurance” programs, which we continue to believe were lawful. These “captive reinsurance” programs are the subject of investigations by several state departments of insurance and attorney generals. We have agreed to indemnify FNF in connection with this matter under the separation agreement to be entered into in connection with the distribution and we intend to vigorously defend this action.

None of the cases described above includes a statement as to the dollar amount of damages demanded. Instead, each of the cases includes a demand for damages in an amount to be proved at trial. Two of the cases, Dubin and Markowitz, state that the damages per class member are less than the jurisdictional limit for removal to federal court.

Several state departments of insurance and attorney generals are investigating so called “captive reinsurance” programs whereby some of our title insurance underwriters reinsured policies through reinsurance companies owned or affiliated with brokers, builders or bankers. Some investigating agencies claim these programs unlawfully compensated customers for the referral of title insurance business. Although we believed and continue to believe the programs were lawful, the programs have been discontinued. We recently negotiated a settlement with the California Department of Insurance with respect to that department’s inquiry into captive reinsurance programs in the title insurance industry. Under the terms of the settlement, we will refund approximately $7.7 million to those consumers whose California property was subject to a captive reinsurance arrangement and will also pay a penalty of $5.6 million. As part of the settlement, we have denied any wrongdoing. We continue to cooperate with other investigating authorities, and no other actions have been filed by the authorities against us or our underwriters.

Regulation

Our insurance subsidiaries, including underwriters, underwritten title companies and independent agents, are subject to extensive regulation under applicable state laws. Each of the insurance underwriters is subject to a holding company act in its state of domicile, which regulates, among other matters, the ability to pay dividends and investment policies. The laws of most states in which we transact business establish supervisory agencies with broad administrative powers relating to issuing and revoking licenses to transact business, regulating trade practices, licensing agents, approving policy forms, accounting practices, financial practices, establishing reserve and capital and surplus as regards policyholders (“capital and surplus”) requirements, defining suitable investments for reserves and capital and surplus and approving rate schedules.

Pursuant to statutory accounting requirements of the various states in which our title insurance subsidiaries are licensed, those subsidiaries must defer a portion of premiums earned as an unearned premium reserve for the protection of policyholders and must maintain qualified assets in an amount equal to the statutory requirements. The level of unearned premium reserve required to be maintained at any time is determined by statutory formula based upon either the age, number of policies, and dollar amount of policy liabilities underwritten, or the age and dollar amount of statutory premiums written. As of December 31, 2004, the combined statutory unearned premium reserve required and reported for our title insurance subsidiaries was $1,176.6 million. In addition to statutory unearned premium reserves, each of our insurance subsidiaries maintains surplus funds for policyholder protection and business operations.

The insurance commissioners of their respective states of domicile regulate our title insurance subsidiaries. Regulatory examinations usually occur at three-year intervals, and certain of these examinations are currently ongoing.

Under the statutes governing insurance holding companies in most states, insurers may not enter into various transactions, including certain sales, reinsurance agreements and service or management contracts with their affiliates unless the regulator of the insurer's state of domicile has received notice at least 30 days prior to the intended effective date of such transaction and has not objected in such period or has approved the transaction within the 30 day period.

As a holding company with no significant business operations of our own, we depend on dividends or other distributions from our subsidiaries as the principal source of cash to meet our obligations, including the payment of interest on, and repayment of, principal of any debt obligations. The payment of dividends or other distributions to us by our U.S. insurance subsidiaries is regulated by the insurance laws and regulations of their respective states of domicile. In general, an insurance company subsidiary may not pay an "extraordinary" dividend or distribution unless the applicable insurance regulator has received notice of the intended payment at least 30 days prior to payment and has not objected in such period or has approved the payment within the 30-day period. In general, an "extraordinary" dividend or distribution is defined by these laws and regulations as a dividend or distribution that, together with other dividends and distributions made within the preceding 12 months, exceeds the greater (or, in some jurisdictions, the lesser) of:

- 10% of the insurer's statutory surplus as of the immediately prior year end; or
- the statutory net investment income or the statutory net income of the insurer during the prior calendar year.

The laws and regulations of some of these jurisdictions also prohibit an insurer from declaring or paying a dividend except out of its earned surplus or require the insurer to obtain regulatory approval before it may do so. During the remainder of 2005, our title insurance subsidiaries can pay dividends or make distributions to us of approximately $89.1 million without prior regulatory approval. In addition, insurance regulators may prohibit the payment of ordinary dividends or other payments by our insurance subsidiaries to us (such as a payment under a tax sharing agreement or for employee or other services) if they determine that such payment could be adverse to our policyholders.

As a condition to continued authority to underwrite policies in the states in which our subsidiaries conduct their business, they are required to pay certain fees and file information regarding their officers, directors and financial condition.

Pursuant to statutory requirements of the various states in which our subsidiaries are domiciled, they must maintain certain levels of minimum capital and surplus. Each of our title underwriters has complied with the minimum statutory requirements as of December 31, 2004.

Our underwritten title companies are also subject to certain regulation by insurance regulatory or banking authorities, primarily relating to minimum net worth. Minimum net worth of $7.5 million, $2.5 million, $3.0 million and $0.4 million is required for Fidelity National Title Company, Fidelity National Title Company of California, Chicago Title Company and Ticor Title Company of California, respectively. All of our companies were in compliance with their respective minimum net worth requirements at December 31, 2004.

We get inquiries and requests for information from state insurance departments, attorneys general and other regulatory agencies from time to time about various matters relating to our business. Sometimes these take the form of civil investigative subpoenas. We attempt to cooperate with all such inquiries. From time to time, we are assessed immaterial fines for violations of regulations or other matters. Like many other insurance companies, in 2004 our subsidiaries received civil subpoenas from the New York State Attorney General, requesting information about our arrangements with agents and other matters. We have been cooperating and intend to continue to cooperate with these inquiries.

In the fall of 2004, the California Department of Insurance began an investigation into reinsurance practices in the title insurance industry and in February 2005, FNF was issued a subpoena to provide information to the California Department of Insurance as a part of its investigation. This investigation paralleled the inquiries of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, which began earlier in 2004. The investigations have focused on arrangements in which title insurers would write title insurance generated by realtors, developers and lenders and cede a portion of the premiums to a reinsurance company affiliate of the entity that generated the business. Other state insurance departments and attorneys general also have made formal or informal inquiries to us regarding these matters.

We recently negotiated a settlement with the California Department of Insurance with respect to that department's inquiry into captive reinsurance programs in the title insurance industry. Under the terms of the settlement we will refund approximately $7.7 million to those consumers whose California property was subject to a captive reinsurance arrangement and we will pay a penalty of $5.6 million.

We have been cooperating and intend to continue to cooperate with the other ongoing investigations. We have discontinued all reinsurance agreements of the type the investigations cover. The total amount of premiums we ceded to reinsurers was approximately $10 million over the existence of these agreements. These investigations are at an early stage and as a result we are unable to give any assurance regarding their consequences for the industry or for us.

Our subsidiaries are subject to extensive rate regulation by the applicable state agencies in the jurisdictions in which we operate. Title insurance rates are regulated differently in the various states in which we operate, with some states requiring our subsidiaries to file rates before such rates become effective and some states promulgating the rates to be charged by our subsidiaries. In almost all states in which we operate, our rates must not be excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory.

The California Department of Insurance has recently announced its intent to examine levels of pricing and competition in the title insurance industry in California. New York and Colorado insurance regulators have also announced similar inquiries and other states could follow. At this stage, we are unable to predict what the outcome will be of this or any similar review.

Before a person can acquire control of a U.S. insurance company, prior written approval must be obtained from the insurance commissioner of the state where the domestic insurer is domiciled. Prior to granting approval of an application to acquire control of a domestic insurer, the state insurance commissioner will consider such factors as the financial strength of the applicant, the integrity and management of the applicant's board of directors and executive officers, the acquiror's plans for the insurer's board of directors and executive officers, the acquiror's plans for the future operations of the domestic insurer and any anti-competitive results that may arise from the consummation of the acquisition of control. Generally, state statutes provide that control over a domestic insurer is presumed to exist if any person, directly or indirectly, owns, controls, holds with the power to vote, or holds proxies representing, 10% or more of the voting securities of the domestic insurer. Because a person acquiring 10% or more of our common shares would indirectly control the same percentage of the stock of our title insurance subsidiaries, the insurance change of control laws would likely apply to such a transaction.

The NAIC has adopted an instruction requiring an annual certification of reserve adequacy by a qualified actuary. Because all of the states in which our title insurance subsidiaries are domiciled require adherence to NAIC filing procedures, each such subsidiary, unless it qualifies for an exemption, must file an actuarial opinion with respect to the adequacy of its reserves.

We are not aware of any current material non-compliance with any of the foregoing rules and regulations nor are we aware of material non-compliance with regard to any such rules or regulations within the past three years.

Since we are governed by both state and federal governments and the applicable insurance laws are constantly subject to change, it is not possible to predict the potential effects of any laws or regulations that may become more restrictive in the future or if new restrictive laws will be enacted.

Ratings

Our title insurance subsidiaries are regularly assigned ratings by independent agencies designed to indicate their financial condition and/or claims paying ability. The ratings agencies determine ratings by quantitatively and qualitatively analyzing financial data and other information. Our title subsidiaries include Fidelity National Title, Chicago Title, Tigor Title, Security Union Title and Alamo Title. The insurer financial strength/stability ratings of our principal title insurance subsidiaries are listed below, and an explanation of each rating follows:

	S&P	Moody's	Fitch	A. M. Best	Demotech
Alamo Title Insurance	A-	A3	A-	A-	A'
Chicago Title Insurance Co.	A-	A3	A-	A-	A''
Chicago Title Insurance Co. of Oregon	A-	A3	A-	A-	A'
Fidelity National Title Insurance Co.	A-	A3	A-	A-	A'
Tigor Title Insurance Co.	A-	A3	A-	A-	A'
Security Union Title Insurance Co.	A-	A3	A-	A-	A'

The ratings of S&P, Moody's, A.M. Best, Fitch and Demotech described above are not designed to be, and do not serve as, measures of protection or valuation offered to investors in this distribution. These financial strength ratings should not be relied on with respect to making an investment in our securities. In connection with the announcement of this distribution and the increased financial leverage that will result, S&P placed the A- financial strength rating on CreditWatch negative, Moody's affirmed the A3 financial strength rating although the rating outlook was changed to negative and Fitch placed the financial strength rating on Rating Watch Negative. In addition, A.M. Best downgraded the financial strength ratings of our principal insurance subsidiaries to A-.

S&P Ratings

S&P states that an "A-" rating means that, in its opinion, the insurer is highly likely to have the ability to meet its financial obligations. An "A-" rating is the seventh highest of S&P's twenty-one ratings which range from "AAA" to "R" with a plus (+) or minus (-) showing relative standing within a rating category.

Moody's Ratings

Moody's states that insurance companies rated "A3" offer good financial security. The "A3" rating is the seventh highest rating of Moody's twenty-one ratings that range from "Aaa" to "C" with numeric modifiers used to refer to the ranking within the group, with 1 being the highest and 3 being the lowest.

Fitch Ratings

Fitch states that its "A- (Strong)" rating is assigned to those companies that are viewed as possessing strong capacity to meet policyholder and contract obligations. The "A- (Strong)" rating is the seventh highest rating of Fitch's twenty-four ratings that range from "AAA" to "D." The symbol plus (+) or minus (-) may be appended to a rating to indicate its relative position within a rating category, except that such symbols are not appended to ratings in the "AAA" category or to the ratings below the "CCC" category.

A.M. Best Ratings

A.M. Best states that its "A- (Excellent)" rating is assigned to those companies that have, in its opinion, an excellent ability to meet their ongoing obligations to policyholders. The "A- (Excellent)" rating is the fourth highest rating of A.M. Best's fifteen ratings that range from "A++" to "F."

Demotech Ratings

Demotech rates the financial stability of title underwriters. Demotech states that its ratings of "A'' (A double prime)" and "A' (A prime)" reflect its opinion that, regardless of the severity of a general economic downturn or deterioration in the insurance cycle, the insurers assigned either of those ratings possess "Unsurpassed" financial stability related to maintaining positive surplus as regards policyholders. The "A'' (A double prime)" and "A' (A prime)" ratings are the first and second highest ratings of Demotech's five ratings.

Committees of the Board of Directors

Upon completion of this distribution, the standing committees of our board of directors will include the audit committee, the nominating and corporate governance committee, and the compensation committee. These committees are described below. Our board of directors may also establish various other committees to assist it in its responsibilities.

We expect to appoint at least one independent director to our audit committee effective as of our listing. We intend to appoint additional independent directors to serve on our board and the audit committee as soon as practicable, but in any event within the time periods prescribed by the listing rules.

Nominating and corporate governance committee. This committee's responsibilities will include the selection of potential candidates for our board of directors and the development and annual review of our governance principles.

Compensation committee. This committee will have two primary responsibilities:

- to monitor our management resources, structure, succession planning, development and selection process as well as the performance of key executives; and

The rules of the NYSE will require our compensation and nominating and corporate governance committees to consist of at least three independent directors following the date that FNF no longer owns more than 50% of our common stock. We intend to appoint independent directors (as defined in the applicable rules) to serve on the compensation committee and the nominating and corporate governance committee as soon as practicable, but in any event within the time period prescribed by the listing rules.

Stock Ownership Guidelines

In order to help demonstrate the alignment of the personal interests of our officers and directors with the interests of our stockholders, we have established the following stock ownership guidelines, as multiples of the officer's base salary or the director's annual retainer from FNT, that must be held by our officers or directors:

Position	Multiple
Chief Executive Officer	5x Base Salary
Other Officers (direct reports to the CEO or Section 16 Reporting Persons)	2x Base Salary
Members of the Board	2x Annual Retainer

The number of shares of our stock that must be held is determined by multiplying the officer's annual base salary (or in the case of a non-employee director, such director's annual retainer) by the applicable multiple shown above, and dividing the result by the highest closing price of our stock during the immediately preceding 24 months. Compliance will be monitored by the compensation committee of our board of directors once a year and not on a running basis. In order to meet this stock ownership requirement, an officer or director may count all shares of our stock beneficially owned by such officer or director, including stock held in a 401(k) plan, our employee stock purchase plan, stock units held in any deferral plan, any restricted shares, restricted stock units and vested options including any restricted shares issued to such officer or director upon conversion of FNF restricted shares in connection with the distribution. Each officer or director must attain ownership of the required stock ownership level within five years after first becoming subject to these guidelines, provided, that if an individual becomes subject to a greater ownership requirement due to a promotion or increase in base salary, such individual is expected to meet the higher ownership requirement within three years.

Stock Ownership of Directors and Executive Officers

All of our common stock is currently owned by FNF, and thus none of our present or future officers or directors currently owns any shares of our common stock. In addition, those officers and directors who own shares of FNF common stock will be treated on the same terms as any other holders of FNF common stock and will receive shares of our common stock in the distribution in respect of any shares of FNF common stock that they hold on the record date of the distribution. FNF stock options and restricted stock held by our employees and directors will also be affected in connection with the separation. See "— Treatment of FNF Stock Options and Restricted Shares."

The following table sets forth the number of shares of FNF common stock beneficially owned on May 31, 2005 by each of our directors, each of the executive officers named in the summary compensation table below, and all of our directors and executive officers as a group. Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and includes voting or investment power with respect to the securities. The number of shares of common stock outstanding used in calculating the percentage for each listed person includes the shares of common stock underlying options held by that person that are exercisable within 60 days of May 31, 2005 but excludes shares of common stock underlying options held by any other person.

It is anticipated that, at the time of the distribution, FNF stock options and restricted stock held by our employees and directors will be affected as follows:

- restricted stock: holders of FNF restricted stock will receive unrestricted FNT shares in the distribution in the same proportion as other FNF stockholders. Such holders will continue to hold FNF restricted stock pursuant to the terms and conditions of their individual award agreements.

In connection with this distribution, we intend to establish a 2005 Omnibus Incentive Plan, or omnibus plan. The omnibus plan will permit us to grant the following types of awards:

- nonqualified stock options;
- “incentive stock options” within the meaning of section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code;

Effective date and term. The omnibus plan will become effective on or before the distribution, and will authorize the granting of awards for up to 10 years.

Administration. The omnibus plan may be administered by our compensation committee or another committee selected by our board of directors, any of which we refer to as the committee. The committee will be able to select the individuals who will receive awards; determine the size and types of awards; determine the terms and conditions of awards; construe and interpret the omnibus plan and any award agreement or other instrument entered into under the omnibus plan; establish, amend and waive rules and regulations for the administration of the omnibus plan; and amend awards. The committee's determinations and interpretations under the omnibus plan will be binding on all interested parties. The committee will be empowered to delegate its administrative duties and powers as it may deem advisable, to the extent permitted by law.

Eligibility. Incentive stock options may be granted only to our employees and employees of our parent and our subsidiaries. Other awards may be granted to employees, directors, consultants and advisors of ours and of our parent and subsidiaries.

Number of shares available for issuance. Subject to adjustment as described below, shares of our common stock may be issued in connection with awards granted under the omnibus plan. The maximum number of shares that may be issued under the omnibus plan in connection with "full-value awards" (awards other than (1) options, (2) stock appreciation rights or (3) other awards for which the participant pays the grant date intrinsic value) is shares. If settlement of a full-value award results in the delivery of shares in excess of the above limit, the aggregate number of shares available for awards other than full-value awards will be reduced by shares for each excess share delivered.

We may grant replacement awards in connection with mergers, acquisitions or other business transactions in which we engage in the future. These replacement awards will be treated as granted under the omnibus plan.

If an award under the omnibus plan is canceled, forfeited, terminates or is settled in cash, the shares related to that award will not be treated as having been delivered under the omnibus plan. In addition, subject to limitations intended to comply with the NYSE listing standards, shares that we hold back or that are tendered or returned by an award holder to cover the exercise price of an option or the tax withholding obligations relating to an award shall be considered shares not issued in connection with an award.

Annual award limits. The omnibus plan also contains annual award limitations. These provisions are designed so that compensation resulting from awards can qualify as tax deductible performance-based compensation under section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code before and after the 162(m) transition period described below. These limitations only apply to awards or related dividends or dividend equivalents intended to qualify as performance-based compensation. The maximum number of our shares with respect to which stock options or stock appreciation rights may be granted to any participant in any fiscal year is shares. The maximum number of our shares of restricted stock that may be granted to any participant in any fiscal year is shares. The maximum number of our shares with respect to which restricted stock units may be granted to any participant in any fiscal year is shares. The maximum number of our shares with respect to which performance shares may be granted to any participant in any fiscal year is shares. The maximum amount of compensation that may be paid with respect to performance units awarded to any participant in any fiscal year is $ or a number of shares having a fair market value not in excess of that amount. The maximum number of our shares with respect to which other stock-based awards may be granted to any participant in any fiscal year is shares. The maximum dividend or dividend equivalent that may be paid to any one participant in any one fiscal year is $.

Adjustments. In the event of any merger, reorganization, consolidation, recapitalization, liquidation, stock dividend, split-up, distribution, stock split, reverse stock split, share combination, share exchange, extraordinary dividend, or any change in the corporate structure affecting our common stock, such adjustment will be made to the number and kind of shares that may be delivered under the omnibus plan, the annual award limits, the number and kind of shares subject to outstanding awards, the exercise price, grant price or other price of shares subject to outstanding awards, any performance conditions relating to our common stock, the market price of our common stock, or per-share results, and other terms and conditions of outstanding awards, as may be determined to be appropriate and equitable by the committee to prevent dilution or enlargement of rights.

Awards. Following is a general description of the types of awards that may be delivered under the omnibus plan. Terms and conditions of awards will be determined on a grant-by-grant basis by the committee, subject to limitations contained in the omnibus plan.

Stock options. A participant granted a stock option will be entitled to purchase a specified number of shares of our common stock during a specified term at a fixed price. Except for replacement options and options that are adjusted by the committee in connection with adjustments, as described above, the per share purchase price of shares subject to options granted under the omnibus plan may not be less than 100% of the fair market value of our common stock on the date the option is granted. No option granted under the omnibus plan may have a term of more than 10 years. The committee may also award dividend equivalent payments in connection with such awards.

Stock appreciation rights. A participant granted a stock appreciation right will be entitled to receive the excess of the fair market value (calculated as of the exercise date) of a share of our common stock over the grant price of the stock appreciation right in cash, our shares of common stock or a combination of cash and shares. Except for replacement stock appreciation rights and stock appreciation rights adjusted by the committee in connection with adjustments, as described above, the grant price of a stock appreciation right granted under the omnibus plan may not be less than 100% of the fair market value of our common stock on the date the option is granted, and no stock appreciation right granted under the omnibus plan may have a term of more than 10 years. The committee may also award dividend equivalent payments in connection with such awards.

Restricted stock. Restricted stock is an award that is non-transferable and subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture until vesting conditions, which can be related to continued service or other conditions established by the committee, are satisfied. Prior to vesting, holders of restricted stock may receive dividends and voting rights. If the vesting condition is not satisfied, the participant forfeits the shares.

Restricted stock units and performance shares. Restricted stock units and performance shares represent a right to receive a share of common stock, an equivalent amount of cash, or a combination of shares and cash, as the committee may determine, if vesting conditions are satisfied. Except for replacement restricted stock units and performance shares and restricted stock units and performance shares adjusted by the committee in connection with adjustments, as described above, the initial value of a restricted stock unit or performance share granted under the omnibus plan may not be less than 100% of the fair market value of our common stock on the date the award is granted. The committee may also award dividend equivalent payments in connection with such awards. Restricted stock units may contain vesting conditions based on continued service or other conditions established by the committee. Performance shares will contain vesting conditions based on attainment of performance goals established by the committee in addition to service conditions.

Performance units. Performance units are awards that entitle a participant to receive shares of common stock, cash or a combination of shares and cash if certain performance conditions are satisfied. The amount received depends upon the value of the performance units and the number of performance units earned, each of which is determined by the committee. The committee may also award dividend equivalent payments in connection with such awards.

Other cash and stock-based awards. Other cash and stock-based awards are awards other than those described above, the terms and conditions of which are determined by the committee. These awards may include, without limitation, the grant of shares of our common stock based on attainment of performance goals established by the committee, the payment of shares as a bonus or in lieu of cash based on attainment of performance goals established by the committee, and the payment of shares in lieu of cash under an incentive or bonus program. Payment under or settlement of any such awards shall be made in such manner and at such times as the committee may determine.

Dividend equivalents. Dividend equivalents granted to participants will represent a right to receive payments equivalent to dividends or interest with respect to a specified number of shares.

Performance-based compensation. The committee may specify that the attainment of the general performance measures set forth below may determine the degree of granting, vesting and/or payout with respect to awards (including any related dividends or dividend equivalents) that the committee intends will qualify as performance-based compensation under section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. The performance goals to be used for such awards must be chosen from among the following performance measure(s): earnings per share, economic value created, market share (actual or targeted growth), net income (before or after taxes), operating income, adjusted net income after capital charge, return on assets (actual or targeted growth), return on capital (actual or targeted growth), return on equity (actual or targeted growth), return on investment (actual or targeted growth), revenue (actual or targeted growth), cash flow, operating margin, share price, share price growth, total stockholder return, and strategic business criteria, consisting of one or more objectives based on meeting specified market penetration goals, productivity measures, geographic business expansion goals, cost targets, customer satisfaction or employee satisfaction goals, goals relating to merger synergies, management of employment practices and employee benefits, or supervision of litigation and information technology, and goals relating to acquisitions or divestitures of subsidiaries, affiliates or joint ventures. The targeted level or levels of performance with respect to such performance measures may be established at such levels and on such terms as the committee may determine, in its discretion, including in absolute terms, as a goal relative to performance in prior periods, or as a goal compared to the performance of one or more comparable companies or an index covering multiple companies. Awards (including any related dividends or dividend equivalents) that are not intended to qualify as performance-based compensation may be based on these or such other performance measures as the committee may determine.

Change in control. The omnibus plan will provide that, except as otherwise provided in a participant's award agreement, upon the occurrence of a change in control, unless otherwise specifically prohibited under applicable laws or by the rules and regulations of any governing governmental agencies or national securities exchanges, any and all outstanding options and stock appreciation rights granted under the omnibus plan will become immediately exercisable, any restriction imposed on restricted stock, restricted stock units and other awards granted under the omnibus plan will lapse, and any and all performance shares, performance units and other awards granted under the omnibus plan with performance conditions will be deemed earned at the target level, or, if no target level is specified, the maximum level.

For purposes of the omnibus plan, the term "change in control" is defined as the occurrence of any of the following events:

- an acquisition immediately after which any person, group or entity possesses direct or indirect beneficial ownership (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act) of 25% or more of either our outstanding common stock or our outstanding voting securities, provided that, after the acquisition, the acquirer's beneficial ownership percentage exceeds FNF's, and excluding any acquisition directly from us, by us, by FNF or by any of our employee benefit plans and certain other acquisitions;

- during any period of two consecutive years, the individuals who, as of the beginning of such period, constitute our board, or incumbent board, cease to constitute at least a majority of the board, provided that any individual who becomes a member of our board subsequent to the beginning of such period and whose election or nomination was approved by at least two thirds of the members of the incumbent board will be considered as though he or she were a member of the incumbent board;
- the consummation of a reorganization, merger, share exchange or consolidation or sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of our assets unless (a) our stockholders immediately before the transaction continue to have beneficial ownership of 50% or more of the outstanding shares of our common stock and the combined voting power of our then outstanding voting securities resulting from the transaction in substantially the same proportions as their ownership immediately prior to the transaction of our common stock and outstanding voting securities; (b) no person (other than us, our parent organization (or the parent organization of the resulting corporation), an employee benefit plan sponsored by us or the resulting corporation, or any entity controlled by us or the resulting corporation) has beneficial ownership of 25% or more of the outstanding common stock of the resulting corporation or the combined voting power of the resulting corporation's outstanding voting securities; and (c) individuals who were members of the incumbent board continue to constitute a majority of the members of the board of directors of the resulting corporation; or
- our stockholders approve a plan or proposal for the complete liquidation or dissolution of our company.

Notwithstanding the foregoing requirements, this distribution shall not constitute a change in control for purposes of the omnibus plan.

In addition, as long as FNF owns more than 50% of our common stock or voting securities, a change in control of FNF will also be considered a change in control for purposes of the omnibus plan. For this purpose, whether a change in control of FNF has occurred is determined in the same manner as described above, except that if the change in control is the result of an acquisition of FNF's outstanding common stock or outstanding voting securities, more than 50% of FNF's common stock or voting securities must be acquired before a change in control will be deemed to have occurred.

Deferrals. The committee may permit the deferral of vesting or settlement of an award and may authorize crediting of dividends or interest or their equivalents in connection with any such deferral. Any such deferral and crediting will be subject to the terms and conditions established by the committee and any terms and conditions of the plan or arrangement under which the deferral is made.

Transferability. Awards generally will be non-transferable except upon the death of a participant, although the committee may permit a participant to transfer awards (for example, to family members or trusts for family members) subject to such conditions as the committee may establish.

Amendment and termination. The omnibus plan may be amended or terminated by our board of directors at any time, subject to certain limitations, and the awards granted under the plan may be amended or terminated by the committee at any time, provided that no such action may, without a participant's written consent, adversely affect in any material way any previously granted award. No amendment that would require stockholder approval under applicable law may become effective without stockholder approval.

Tax withholding. We may deduct or withhold, or require a participant to remit, an amount sufficient to satisfy federal, state, local, domestic or foreign taxes required by law or regulation to be withheld with respect to any taxable event arising as a result of the omnibus plan. The committee may require or permit participants to elect that the withholding requirement be satisfied, in whole or in part, by having us withhold, or by tendering to us, shares of our common stock having a fair market value equal to the withholding obligation.

Certain limitations on deductibility of executive compensation. With some exceptions, section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code limits a publicly held company's ability to deduct compensation paid to its chief executive officer and the next four most highly compensated officers to the extent such compensation exceeds $1 million per executive per taxable year. Compensation paid to employees will not be subject to that deduction limit if it is considered "performance-based compensation" within the meaning of section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. Compensation to be paid to employees under the omnibus plan is generally intended to be qualified performance-based compensation; however, we reserve the right to grant awards that do not qualify as performance-based compensation when we determine that such compliance is not desirable. A special transition rule applies under section 162(m) when a company that is part of an affiliated group of companies with a publicly-traded parent company becomes a separate publicly-traded company. Under this transition rule, compensation paid and awards of stock options, stock appreciation rights or restricted stock granted under the omnibus plan during a transition period may qualify as performance-based compensation if certain conditions are met. The transition period ends on the first regularly scheduled meeting of our shareholders that occurs more than 12 months after the date of the distribution. Compensation attributable to awards granted after the transition period ends will only be able to qualify as performance-based compensation if shareholders approve certain material terms of the plan at, or before, that meeting.

Awards in connection with the distribution. On the date of our distribution, we anticipate granting to our executive officers, employees and directors nonqualified stock options to purchase an aggregate of million shares of our common stock, with Messrs. Quirk, Abbinante, Jewkes, Park and Ms. Meinhardt being granted options to purchase , , , and shares, respectively. The exercise price of these options will be equal to the closing price of our Class A Common Stock on the NYSE on the date of distribution. These options will vest in % annual increments commencing on the anniversary of the date of grant.

It may be necessary to amend the Omnibus Plan and outstanding awards under the Omnibus Plan to comply with section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code, a new tax law applicable to deferred compensation arrangements. We will make any such amendments within the time period permitted for such amendments. Current guidance requires that such amendments be made by December 31, 2005. In the interim, we will administer the plans and awards made under the plans in accordance with existing guidance relating to section 409A whether or not the Omnibus Plan or award agreement provides otherwise.

Employee Stock Purchase Plan

In connection with this distribution, we intend to establish an Employee Stock Purchase Plan ("ESPP"). Participation in the ESPP will begin as soon as administratively practicable following the distribution. The ESPP will provide an incentive for employees to work toward and invest in our growth and will assist us in attracting and retaining quality personnel.

Eligibility. All of our regular employees may participate in the ESPP provided such employees average at least twenty hours per week and have been employed continuously during the last ninety days.

Description. Pursuant to the ESPP, eligible employees may voluntarily purchase, at current market prices, shares of our common stock through payroll deductions and through matching contributions, if any, on their behalf. Employees may contribute an amount between 3% and 15% of their base salary towards the purchase of our common stock under the ESPP. At the end of each calendar quarter, we will make a matching contribution to the account of each participant who has been continuously employed by us for the last four calendar quarters. For most employees, matching contributions are equal to one-third of the amount contributed during the quarter that is one year earlier than the quarter in which the matching contribution is made; for officers, directors and certain senior employees, the matching contribution is one-half of such amount. We will pay the brokerage commissions attributable to the purchase of our common stock under the ESPP.

Number of shares available for issuance. The maximum number of shares of our common stock that will be made available for sale under the ESPP will be (subject to adjustment in the event of a stock split, stock dividend, spin-off, recapitalization, reorganization, or similar transaction).

OUR ARRANGEMENTS WITH FNF

Overview

Historically, FNF and its subsidiaries have provided a variety of services to us, and we have provided various services to FNF and its subsidiaries. These existing arrangements are described below under “Certain Relationships and Related Transactions — Historical Related-Party Transactions.”

Below is a summary description of various new agreements that we will enter into with FNF and its subsidiaries in connection with the distribution. This description summarizes the material terms of these agreements, but is not complete. You should review the full text of these agreements, which will be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission as exhibits to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part.

Our Arrangements with FNF

The new agreements we will enter with FNF will include:

- the separation agreement;
- corporate services agreements;
- the new notes payable to FNF;
- a tax matters agreement;
- an employee matters agreement;
- a registration rights agreement;
- an intellectual property cross license agreement;
- a sublease agreement; and
- an assignment, assumption and novation agreement.

The new agreements we will enter into with FIS are discussed separately below under “— Our Arrangements with FIS.”

Separation Agreement

We will enter into a separation agreement with FNF prior to the completion of the distribution.

No Representations and Warranties. The separation agreement will provide that FNF will make no representation or warranty as to the condition or quality of any subsidiary contributed to us as part of the restructuring of FNF in connection with the distribution or any other matters relating to our businesses. We will have no recourse against FNF if the transfer of any subsidiary to us is defective in any manner. We will agree to bear the economic and legal risks that any conveyance was insufficient to vest in us good title, free and clear of any security interest, and that any necessary consents or approvals are not obtained or that any requirements of laws or judgments are not complied with.

Exchange Offers. The separation agreement requires that, upon request of FNF, we will conduct one or more exchange offers, in which we will offer to exchange our newly-issued debt securities for the outstanding public debt securities of FNF. If we conduct such an exchange offer, we intend to deliver any FNF notes obtained to FNF to reduce our obligations under the mirror notes we will issue to FNF at the time of the distribution.

Access to Financial and Other Information. Under the separation agreement, following the distribution, we and FNF will be obligated to provide each other access to certain information, subject to confidentiality obligations and other restrictions. So long as FNF is required to consolidate our results of operations and financial position or to account for its investment in our company on the equity method of accounting, we will provide to FNF and its independent auditors, at no charge, all financial information and other data that FNF requires in order to timely prepare its financial statements and reports or filings with governmental authorities or to issue its earnings releases, including copies of all quarterly and annual historical financial information and other reports and documents we intend to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission prior to these filings, and copies of our budgets and financial projections as well as access to the responsible company personnel so that FNF and its independent auditors may conduct their audits relating to our financial statements. We will also agree that, so long as FNF is required to consolidate our results of operations and financial position or account for its investment in our company on the equity method of accounting, we will use our reasonable efforts to enable our independent auditors to complete their audit of our financial statements in a timely manner so as to permit the timely filing of FNF's financial statements. In addition, we and FNF will use commercially reasonable efforts to make reasonably available to each other our respective past and present directors, officers, other employees and agents as witnesses in any legal, administrative or other proceedings in which the other party may become involved. We and FNF will each retain all proprietary information within each company's respective possession relating to the other party's respective businesses for an agreed period of time and, prior to destroying the information, each of us must give the other notice and an opportunity to take possession of the information, if necessary or appropriate to the conduct of the respective businesses. We and FNF will each agree to hold in strict confidence all information concerning or belonging to the other for an agreed period of time.

Exchange of Other Information. The separation agreement will also provide for other arrangements with respect to the mutual sharing between us and FNF of information that is requested in connection with any bona fide business purpose.

Indemnification. We will indemnify, hold harmless and defend FNF, each of its affiliates and each of their respective directors, officers and employees, from and against all liabilities relating to, arising out of or resulting from:

- the ownership or operation of the assets or properties, or the operations or conduct, of the entities transferred to us in connection with the distribution, whether arising before or after the distribution (including any liabilities arising under the McCabe case referred to under "Business — Legal Proceedings");
- any guarantee, indemnification obligation, surety bond or other credit support arrangement by FNF or any of its affiliates for our benefit;
- any breach by us or any of our affiliates of the separation agreement, any of the other transaction documents, any other agreement to which we or our affiliates are a party, our certificate of incorporation or by-laws or any law or regulation;
- any untrue statement of, or omission to state, a material fact in FNF's public filings to the extent it was as a result of information that we furnished to FNF or which FNF incorporated by reference from our public filings, if that statement or omission was made or occurred after the distribution; and
- any untrue statement of, or omission to state, a material fact in any registration statement or prospectus we may prepare or any of our other public filings, except to the extent the statement was made or omitted in reliance upon information provided to us by FNF expressly for use in any registration statement or prospectus or other public filing or information relating to and provided by any underwriter expressly for use in any registration statement or prospectus.

FNF will indemnify, hold harmless and defend us, each of our affiliates and each of our and their respective directors, officers and employees, from and against all liabilities relating to, arising out of or resulting from:

- the ownership or operation of the assets or properties, and the operations or conduct, of FNF or any of its affiliates (other than us and our subsidiaries), whether arising before or after the distribution;
- any guarantee, indemnification obligation, surety bond or other credit support arrangement by us or any of our affiliates for the benefit of FNF;
- any breach by FNF or any of its affiliates of the separation agreement or any of the other transaction documents, any other agreement to which FNF or its affiliates are a party, FNF's certificate of incorporation or bylaws, or any law or regulation;
- any untrue statement of, or omission to state, a material fact in our public filings to the extent it was as a result of information that FNF furnished to us or which we incorporated by reference from FNF's public filings;
- any untrue statement of, or omission to state, a material fact contained in any registration statement or prospectus we may prepare, but only to the extent the untrue statement or omission was made or omitted in reliance upon information provided by FNF expressly for use in any registration statement or prospectus; and
- any action or liability arising as a result of the distribution.

The separation agreement will also specify procedures with respect to claims subject to indemnification and related matters and provide for contribution in the event that indemnification is not available to an indemnified party. All indemnification amounts will be reduced by any insurance proceeds and other offsetting amounts recovered by the party entitled to indemnification.

Covenants and Other Provisions. The separation agreement also will contain covenants between FNF and us with respect to various matters, including mutual confidentiality of our and FNF's information, and litigation and settlement cooperation between us and FNF on pending or future litigation matters. In addition, we will agree that, so long as FNF beneficially owns or controls 50% or more of the total voting power of our outstanding stock, we will not, without FNF's prior consent:

- take any action or enter into any agreement that would cause FNF to violate any law, agreement or judgment;
- take any action that limits FNF's ability to freely sell, transfer, pledge or otherwise dispose of our stock or limits the rights of any transferee of FNF as a holder of our common stock; or
- enter into any agreement that binds or purports to bind FNF.

In addition, we agree that we will not issue any shares of our capital stock or any rights, warrants or options to acquire our capital stock, if after giving effect to the issuances and considering all of the shares of our capital stock which may be acquired under the rights, warrants and options outstanding on the date of the issuance, FNF would not be eligible to consolidate our results of operations for tax purposes, would not receive favorable tax treatment of dividends paid by us or would not be able, if it so desired, to distribute the rest of our stock it holds to its stockholders in a tax-free distribution. These limits will generally enable FNF to continue to own at least 80% of our outstanding common stock.

Expenses of the Distribution. In general, the separation agreement will provide that we will pay all costs incurred in connection with the distribution.

Dispute Resolution Procedures. The separation agreement will provide that neither party will commence any court action to resolve any dispute or claim arising out of or relating to the separation agreement. Instead, any dispute that is not resolved in the normal course of business will be submitted to senior executives of each business entity involved in the dispute for resolution. If the dispute is not resolved by negotiation within 30 days, either party may submit the dispute to mediation. If the dispute is not resolved by mediation within 30 days of the selection of a mediator, either party may submit the dispute to binding arbitration before an arbitrator. The arbitrator will determine the dispute in accordance with New York law. Both parties will be permitted to seek injunctive or interim relief in the event of any actual or threatened breach of the provisions of the separation agreement relating to confidentiality. If an arbitral tribunal has not been appointed, both parties may seek injunctive or interim relief from any court with jurisdiction over the matter.

Termination. The separation agreement can be terminated only by the mutual consent of both parties.

FNF Corporate Services Agreements

We will enter into a corporate services agreement with FNF under which we will provide corporate and other support services to FNF. The corporate services agreement will govern the provision by us to FNF of these corporate support services, which may include:

- treasury, cash management and related services;
- accounting, billing and financial transaction support;
- tax services;
- corporate, legal and related services;
- risk management and corporate insurance;
- payroll and human resources and employee benefits administration;
- information technology, network systems, data processing and related services;
- purchasing and procurement;
- travel; and
- other general administrative and management functions.

We will also enter into a separate corporate services agreement with FNF, under which it will provide us senior management consulting services, including time and attention of its chief executive officer, chief financial officer, other senior officers, legal department and mergers and acquisitions staff.

We also will agree to provide each other additional services that we and FNF may identify during the term of the agreements.

Provision of Services. Under the terms of the corporate services agreements, each party will render these services under the oversight, supervision, and approval of the other, acting through its respective board of directors and officers. FNF and we will each have the right to purchase goods or services and realize other benefits and rights under the other party's agreements with third-party vendors to the extent allowed by those vendor agreements, during the term of the agreement.

Pricing and Payment Terms. The pricing for the services to be provided by us to FNF, and by FNF to us, under the corporate services agreements is on a cost-only basis, with each party in effect reimbursing the other for the costs and expenses incurred in providing these corporate services to the other party. Under the corporate service agreement for corporate services to be provided by us to FNF, our costs and expenses will be determined and reimbursed by FNF as follows: (i) all out of pocket expenses and costs incurred by us on FNF's behalf will be fully reimbursed, and (ii) all of our staff and employee costs and expenses associated with performing services under the corporate services agreement, including compensation paid to our employees performing these corporate services as well as general overhead associated with these employees and their functions, will be allocated based on the percentage of time that our employees spend on providing corporate services to FNF under the corporate services agreement. FNF's costs and expenses incurred in providing corporate services to us will be similarly determined and reimbursed. These costs and expenses will be invoiced by each party to the other on a monthly basis in arrears. Payments are expected to be made in cash within thirty days after invoicing.

For the year ended December 31, 2004, our expenses were reduced by $9.4 million related to the provision of these services by us to FNF and its subsidiaries (other than FIS). In addition, for 2004 our expenses included $3.2 million of costs associated with persons who will be FNF executives after the distribution but for whose time we will be charged after the distribution under the corporate services agreement pursuant to which FNF will provide services to us. While the exact amounts to be paid by FNF to us, and by us to FNF, under the corporate services agreements are dependent upon the amount of services actually provided in any given year, we do not anticipate that the level of services to be provided, or the total amounts to be paid by each entity to the other for services during the 2005 fiscal year, will differ materially from the total amounts recorded during the 2004 fiscal year for these corporate services. See "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions — Historical Related-Party Transactions — Corporate Services."

Duration and Effect of Termination. The corporate services agreements will continue in effect as to each service covered by the agreements until the party receiving the services notifies the other party, in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the agreements and subject to certain limitations, that the service is no longer requested. However, if FNF ceases to own 50% or more of our voting stock or ceases to have 50% or more of the voting control for the election of our directors, then the corporate services agreements will terminate after six months. In addition, services to be provided to any subsidiary terminate on the date that the entity ceases to be a subsidiary of the party receiving the services. Under the corporate services agreements, if the party providing the services receives notice that the party receiving services would like to terminate a particular service, and the providing party believes in good faith that, notwithstanding its reasonable commercial efforts, the termination will have a material adverse impact on the other services being provided, then the party providing services can dispute the termination, with the dispute being resolved through the dispute resolution generally applicable to the agreements. When the agreements are terminated, FNF and we would arrange for alternate suppliers or hire additional employees for all the services important to our respective businesses. However, if we have to replicate facilities, services, or employees that we are not using full time, our costs could increase.

Liability and Indemnification. The corporate services agreements will provide that the provider of services will not be liable to the receiving party for or in connection with any services rendered or for any actions or inactions taken by a provider in connection with the provision of services, except to the extent of liabilities resulting from the provider's gross negligence, willful misconduct, improper use or disclosure of customer information or violations of law and except for liabilities that arise out of intellectual property infringement. Additionally, the receiving party will indemnify the provider of services for any losses arising from the provision of services, provided that the amount of any losses will be reduced by the amount of the losses caused by the provider's negligence, willful misconduct, violation of law, or breach of the agreement.

Dispute Resolution Procedures. The corporate services agreements will provide dispute resolution procedures that reflect the parties' desire for friendly collaboration and amicable resolution of disagreements. In the event of a dispute, the matter is referred to the president (or similar position) of each of the divisions implicated for resolution within 15 days. If the division presidents of the parties are unable to resolve the dispute, the matter is referred to the presidents of FNF and our company for final resolution within 15 days. If the matter remains unresolved, then either party may submit the matter to arbitration. The dispute resolution procedures do not preclude either party from pursuing immediate injunctive relief in the event of any actual or threatened breach of confidentiality or infringement of intellectual property.

New Notes Payable to FNF

We intend to issue two $250 million intercompany notes payable to FNF, with terms that mirror FNF's existing $250 million 7.30% public debentures due in August 2011 and $250 million 5.25% public debentures due in March 2013. Proceeds from the issuance of the 2011 public debentures were used by FNF to repay debt incurred in connection with the acquisition of our subsidiary, Chicago Title, and the proceeds from the 2013 public debentures were used for general corporate purposes. Following issuance of the intercompany notes, we may make an exchange offer in which we would offer to exchange the outstanding FNF notes for notes we would issue having substantially the same terms and deliver the FNF notes received to FNF to reduce the debt under the intercompany notes. See "— Liquidity and Capital Resources."

Tax Matters Agreement

In connection with the distribution, we and FNF will enter into a tax matters agreement, which will govern the respective rights, responsibilities, and obligations of FNF and us after this offering with respect to tax liabilities and refunds, tax attributes, tax contests and other matters regarding income taxes, taxes other than income taxes and related tax returns. The tax matters agreement will govern these tax matters as they apply to us and to all of our subsidiaries other than our subsidiaries that are the title insurance companies. Our title insurance companies are parties to various tax sharing agreements with FNF. See "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions — Historical Related Party Transactions — Tax Sharing Agreements".

Allocation of Tax Liability. The tax matters agreement will provide for the allocation and payment of taxes for periods during which we and FNF are included in the same consolidated group for federal income tax purposes or the same consolidated, combined or unitary returns for state tax purposes, the allocation of responsibility for the filing of tax returns, the conduct of tax audits and the handling of tax controversies, and various related matters. Under the tax matters agreement, FNF will be primarily responsible for preparing and filing any tax return with respect to the FNF affiliated group for U.S. federal income tax purposes and with respect to any consolidated, combined or unitary group of which FNF or any of its subsidiaries is the filing parent for U.S. state or local income tax purposes. We generally will be responsible for preparing and filing any federal tax returns that include only us and our subsidiaries and any U.S. state and local tax returns for which we or any of our subsidiaries is the filing parent. For periods during which we are included in FNF's consolidated federal income tax returns or state consolidated, combined, or unitary tax returns, we generally will be required to pay an amount of income tax equal to the amount we would have paid had we filed tax returns as a separate entity. We will be responsible for our own separate tax liabilities that are not determined on a consolidated or combined basis. We will also be responsible in the future for any increases of consolidated tax liability of FNF that are attributable to us and will be entitled to refunds for reductions of tax liabilities attributable to us for prior periods. We will be included in FNF's consolidated group for federal income tax purposes so long as FNF beneficially owns at least 80% of the total voting power and value of our outstanding common stock. Each corporation that is a member of a consolidated group during any portion of the group's tax year is severally liable for the federal income tax liability of the group for that year. While the tax matters agreement will allocate tax liabilities between FNF and us, we could be liable in the event federal tax liability allocated to FNF is incurred but not paid by FNF or any other member of FNF's consolidated group for FNF's tax years that include these periods. In this event, we would be entitled to indemnification by FNF under the tax matters agreement. The tax matters agreement is effective on the date of distribution and is effective until the occurrence of any of the following: (i) written mutual agreement of the parties; (ii) FNF is no longer the parent company of FNT; or (iii) FNF does not file a consolidated tax return.

Tax Disputes and Contests. Generally, for periods in which we are included in FNF's consolidated federal income tax return, or state consolidated, combined, or unitary tax returns, we will control tax contests to the extent the underlying tax liabilities would be allocated to us under the tax matters agreement, and FNF will control all tax contests to the extent the underlying tax liabilities would be allocated to FNF under the tax matters agreement. We generally have authority to control tax contests with respect to tax returns that include only our subsidiaries and us. Disputes arising between us and FNF related to matters covered by the tax matters agreement are subject to resolution through specific dispute resolution provisions described in the tax matters agreement.

Employee Matters Agreement

Historically, our employees have participated in various health, welfare, and retirement plans and programs sponsored by FNF. After the distribution, our employees will continue to participate in these FNF-sponsored plans through the operation of the employee matters agreement.

Specifically, under the employee matters agreement, our employees will continue to be eligible (subject to generally applicable plan limitations and eligibility conditions) to participate in FNF's 401(k) plan and its health, dental, disability, and other welfare benefit plans. Our employees will administer the FNF plans. Our employees' participation in FNF's plans will continue until it is determined that it would be beneficial for us to establish separate plans for our employees.

Under the employee matters agreement, as long as our employees participate in FNF's plans, we will be required to contribute to the plans the cost of our employees' participation in such plans. Such costs will include, for example, payment of 401(k) matching contributions for our employees and payment of the employer portion of the cost of health, dental, disability and other welfare benefits provided to our employees. Since our employees administer the plans, we will not be charged an administrative expense for participation.

Our contributions to FNF's plans for our employees during the 2004 fiscal year were $108.2 million. The contributions we will be required to make to FNF's plans in future years under the employee matters agreement depends on factors that we cannot predict with certainty at this point, such as the level of employee participation and the costs of providing health, dental and other benefits. Nevertheless, we do not anticipate that the contributions we will be required to make to the plans under the employee matters agreement will differ materially from the total amount we contributed for the 2004 fiscal year.

To the extent our employees hold FNF stock-based incentives, such as FNF stock options or restricted stock, related accounting charges under SFAS 123 or SFAS 123R will be allocated to us by treating any such accounting charges that are recognized by FNF as FNF contributions to our capital.

Registration Rights Agreement

Because FNF is not divesting itself of all of its shares of our common stock as part of the distribution, FNF would not be able to freely sell our shares without registration under the Securities Act of 1933 ("Securities Act") or a valid exemption therefrom. Accordingly, we will enter into a registration rights agreement with FNF requiring us, under certain circumstances, to register our shares beneficially owned by FNF following the distribution. These registration rights will generally become effective at the time of the distribution.

Demand Registration Rights. Under the registration rights agreement, FNF will have the right to require us to register for offer and sale all or a portion of our shares beneficially owned by FNF, which we refer to as a demand registration. The maximum number of demand registrations that we are required to effect is two per year and the number of shares to be registered in each demand registration must have an aggregate expected offering price of at least $25 million.

Piggy-Back Registration Rights. In addition, FNF will have the right, subject to certain conditions, which it may exercise at any time, to include its shares in any registration of common stock that we may make in the future, commonly referred to as a piggy-back registration right, if our registration would permit the inclusion.

Terms of Offering. FNF will have the right to designate the terms of each offering effected pursuant to a demand registration, which may take any form, including a shelf registration, a convertible registration or an exchange registration. We will agree to cooperate fully in connection with any registration for FNF's benefit and with any offering FNF makes under the registration rights agreement. We will also agree to pay for the costs and expenses related to shares sold by FNF in connection with any registration covered by the agreement, except that FNF will be responsible for any applicable registration or filing fees with respect to the shares being sold by FNF. The registration rights of FNF will be transferable by FNF and will be for an indefinite term. In addition, the registration rights agreement will contain indemnification and contribution provisions with respect to information included in any registration statement, prospectus or related documents.

Timing of Demand Registrations. We will not be required to undertake a demand registration within 90 days of the effective date of a previous demand registration, other than a demand registration that was effected as a shelf registration. In addition, we will generally have the right (which may be exercised once in any 12-month period) to postpone the filing or effectiveness of any demand registration for up to 90 days, if we determine that the registration would be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on any then-active proposals to engage in certain material transactions or would otherwise disadvantage us through premature disclosure of pending developments.

Duration. The registration rights under the registration rights agreement will remain in effect with respect to our shares until: (i) the shares have been sold pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act; (ii) the shares have been sold to the public pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act (or any successor provision); (iii) the shares have been otherwise transferred, new certificates for them not bearing a legend restricting further transfer have been delivered by us, and subsequent public distribution of the shares does not require registration or qualification under the Securities Act or any similar state law; (iv) the shares have ceased to be outstanding; or (v) in the case of shares held by a transferee of FNF, when the shares become eligible for sale pursuant to Rule 144(k) under the Securities Act (or any successor provision).

Intellectual Property Cross License Agreement

Historically, we and our subsidiaries were permitted, as subsidiaries of FNF, to utilize various trademarks, copyrights, trade secrets and know-how, patents and other intellectual property owned by FNF and its other subsidiaries but used by us in the conduct of our title insurance business. Likewise, FNF and its other subsidiaries were permitted to utilize various trademarks, copyrights, trade secrets and know-how, patents and other intellectual property owned by us and our subsidiaries but used by them in the conduct of their business. The intellectual property cross license agreement will permit each entity to continue to have access to those items of intellectual property that it does not own, but utilizes in the conduct of its business, so that each group can continue to grow and develop its respective businesses and markets after the distribution. This agreement will govern the respective responsibilities and obligations between us and FNF with respect to the applicable intellectual property. The intellectual property licensed by FNF to us will include the use of the name “Fidelity National” and the logo widely used by our company and our subsidiaries.

Terms of the Cross License. The intellectual property to be licensed by or to us, and by or to FNF, relates to a variety of aspects of the title insurance and other lines of business in which we and FNF and our respective subsidiaries are engaged. With respect to each item of intellectual property to be licensed, the party that owns the intellectual property as of the date of the distribution will continue to own the item, but will grant a broad license for use of the intellectual property item to the other party without giving up any ownership rights. Subject to certain limitations and early termination events (limited to bankruptcy, insolvency and the like, or if FNF ceases to own 50% or more of our voting stock or ceases to have 50% or more of the voting control for the election of our directors), the licenses are perpetual, irrevocable, and non-terminable. In addition, as to each item of intellectual property, the license to any subsidiary terminates on the date that the entity ceases to be a subsidiary of the party receiving the benefit of the license. The licenses are also non-exclusive and allow the licensing party to fully utilize its intellectual property, including the granting of licenses to third parties.

Pricing and Payment Terms. Given the nature of the intellectual property to be licensed and the historical relationship between the parties, we and FNF have determined that the licenses to each party should be royalty-free with the consideration for each party’s license of its intellectual property being the receipt of a license of the other’s intellectual property. As a result, no payments will be made to us or received by us under the intellectual property cross license agreement.

Sublease Agreement

We will enter into a sublease agreement pursuant to which we will sublease to FNF a portion of the space that we are leasing from a subsidiary of FIS. See ‘— Our Arrangements with FIS — Lease Agreement.’ The sublease arrangement with FNF will continue until December 31, 2007, which is the date on which our lease with the FIS subsidiary expires by its terms.

Pricing and Payment Terms. Pursuant to the sublease agreement, FNF is obligated to pay rent for approximately square feet on terms and at rental rates that mirror our obligations under our lease agreement with the FIS subsidiary. This includes both the base rent amount as well as the additional rent required under our lease. If FNF fails to pay timely, a default rate applies. FNF is also responsible for the entire cost of any services or materials provided exclusively to FNF in connection with the sublease or the use of the space.

Assignment, Assumption and Novation Agreement

In order to assume the rights and obligations of FNF under certain agreements that were previously entered into by FNF on behalf of the title insurance companies, we will enter into an assignment, assumption and novation agreement with FNF. The agreements to be assigned to, and assumed by, us under the assignment, assumption and novation agreement were entered into by FNF with FIS (or one or more of its subsidiaries). FIS and its relevant subsidiaries have consented to this assignment and assumption arrangement and have also agreed to enter into a novation of each of these agreements with us. See ‘— Our Arrangements with FIS’ for more specific information regarding the agreements to be novated. The consideration for our assumption of the obligations under the novated agreements is the assumption and assignment to us of all rights and interests under these agreements and no other consideration will be paid under the assignment, assumption and novation agreement.

Our Arrangements with FIS

Overview

The agreements we will enter into with FIS and its subsidiaries will include:

- corporate services agreements;
- the starter repository and back plant access agreements;
- the license and services agreement;
- a lease agreement;
- a master information technology agreement; and
- a software license agreement for “SoftPro” software.

FIS Corporate Services Agreements

Through an assignment of FNF’s rights and obligations under a corporate services agreement between FNF and FIS and a novation of that agreement, we will enter into a corporate services agreement with

FIS under which we will provide corporate and other support services to FIS. The corporate services agreement will govern the provision by us to FIS of these corporate support services, which may include:

- treasury, cash management and related services;
- accounting, billing and financial transaction support;
- tax services;
- corporate, legal and related services;
- risk management and corporate insurance;
- payroll and human resources and employee benefits administration;
- information technology, network systems, data processing and related services;
- purchasing and procurement;
- travel; and
- other general administrative and management functions.

Through an assignment of FNF's rights and obligations under a "reverse" corporate services agreement between FNF and FIS and a novation of that agreement, we will also enter into a separate corporate services agreement with FIS, under which it will provide us with access to legal services and access to a mainframe computer system.

We also will agree to provide additional services that we and FIS may identify during the term of the agreement.

Provision of Services and Allocation of Costs. Under the corporate services agreement, each party will render services under the oversight, supervision, and approval of the other party, acting through its board of directors and officers. FIS and we will each have the right to purchase goods or services and realize other benefits and rights under the other party's agreements with third-party vendors to the extent allowed by those vendor agreements, during the term of the agreements.

Pricing and Payment Terms. The pricing for the services to be provided by us to FIS, and by FIS to us, under the corporate services agreements is on a cost-only basis, with each party in effect reimbursing the other for the costs and expenses incurred in providing these corporate services to the other party subject to the limitation described below. Under the corporate service agreement for corporate services to be provided by us to FIS, our costs and expenses will be determined and reimbursed by FIS as follows: (i) all out of pocket expenses and costs incurred by us on FIS's behalf will be fully reimbursed, and (ii) all of our staff and employee costs and expenses associated with performing services under the corporate services agreement, including compensation paid to our employees performing these corporate services as well as general overhead associated with these employees and their functions, will be allocated based on the percentage of time that our employees spend on providing corporate services to FIS under the corporate services agreement. FIS's costs and expenses incurred in providing corporate services to us will be similarly determined and reimbursed. In the case of the agreement for corporate services to be provided by us to FIS, the total amount (with some exclusions) payable under the corporate services agreement cannot exceed $50 million during the 2005 fiscal year, with incremental increases to this maximum amount in future fiscal years. We are not entitled to be reimbursed for any portion of our annual costs that exceeds this $50 million limit, as increased from year to year. The costs and expenses under the corporate services agreements will be invoiced by each party to the other on a monthly basis in arrears, and payments are expected to be made in cash within thirty days after invoicing.

During 2004 our expenses were reduced by $75.1 million related to the provision of these corporate services by us to FIS and our expenses were increased by $78,000 related to the provision of these corporate services from FIS to us. The exact amounts to be paid by FIS to us, and by us to FIS, under the corporate services agreements is dependent upon the amount of services actually provided in any given year. However, because the 2004 aggregate amount paid by FIS included some extraordinary charges we anticipate that the aggregate amount payable by FIS to us during the 2005 fiscal year pursuant to the corporate services agreement will not exceed the $50 million maximum amount provided in the corporate services agreement. See “Certain Relationships and Related Transactions — Historical Related Party Transactions — Corporate Services.”

Duration and Effect of Termination. The corporate services agreements continue in effect as to each service covered by the agreements until the party receiving the services notifies the other party, in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the agreements and subject to certain limitations, that the service is no longer requested. However, the corporate services agreements will terminate after six months from the occurrence of certain specified material events, such as a change of control of FIS, or the completion of an initial public offering of stock by FIS or its subsidiaries. In addition, services to be provided to any subsidiary will terminate on the date that the entity ceases to be a subsidiary of the party receiving the services. Under the corporate services agreements, if the party providing the services receives notice that the party receiving services would like to terminate a particular service, and the providing party believes in good faith that, notwithstanding its reasonable commercial efforts, the termination will have a material adverse impact on the other services being provided, then the party providing services can dispute the termination, with the dispute being resolved through the dispute resolution generally applicable to the agreement. Further, in the event that the party receiving the services is unable to complete its transition efforts prior to the termination date established for any particular corporate service, the party receiving the services can extend the termination date for up to 30 additional days.

Liability and Indemnification. The corporate services agreements provide that the provider of services will not be liable to the receiving party for or in connection with any services rendered or for any actions or inactions taken by a provider in connection with the provision of services, except to the extent of liabilities resulting from the provider’s gross negligence, willful misconduct, improper use or disclosure of customer information or violations of law and except for liabilities that arise out of intellectual property infringement. Additionally, the receiving party will indemnify the provider of services for any losses arising from the provision of services, provided that the amount of any losses will be reduced by the amount of the losses caused by the provider’s negligence, willful misconduct, violation of law, or breach of the agreement.

Dispute Resolution Procedures. The agreements provide dispute resolution procedures that reflect the parties’ desire for friendly collaboration and amicable resolution of disagreements. In the event of a dispute, the matter is referred to the president (or similar position) of each of the divisions implicated for resolution within 15 days. If the division presidents of the parties are unable to resolve the dispute, the matter is referred to the presidents of FIS and our company for final resolution within 15 days. If the matter remains unresolved, then either party may submit the matter to arbitration. The dispute resolution procedures do not preclude either party from pursuing immediate injunctive relief in the event of any actual or threatened breach of confidentiality or infringement of intellectual property.

FNF Starter Repository and Back Plant Access Agreements

Through an assignment by FNF to us of its rights and obligations under agreements between FNF and FIS and a novation of those agreements, we will enter into agreements with FIS whereby certain FIS subsidiaries will be able to access and use certain title records owned by our title company subsidiaries. The FIS subsidiaries covered by the agreement will be granted access to (i) the database of previously issued title policies (the “starter repository”), and (ii) certain other physical title records and information (the “back plant”), and will be permitted to use the retrieved information solely in connection with the issuance of title insurance products that FIS offers as part of its business. The FIS subsidiaries that are covered by the agreement may create proprietary means of technical access to the starter repository, but this does not apply to the back plant since the back plant consists of physical documents and records that cannot be accessed electronically. Our applicable title company subsidiaries retain ownership of the starter repository, the back plant and all related programs, databases, and materials. FIS will pay fees to us for the access to the starter repository and the back plant and will reimburse our subsidiaries for payment of certain taxes and government charges. FIS will also indemnify us for third party claims arising from any errors or omissions in the starter repository and the back plant or the provision of access under the agreements. In addition, FIS is responsible for costs incurred as a result of unauthorized access to the database and records. With regard to dispute resolution, if either FIS or we institutes an action against the other party for breach, such other party has the option, within 30 days of the notice of such action, to institute an arbitration proceeding and stay the other action.

Duration and Termination. Each of the starter repository agreement and the back plant agreement are effective as of March 4, 2005 for a ten year period, with automatic renewal, and may be terminated by mutual agreement of the parties or upon five years' prior written notice, except in the case of a default in performance, in which case the agreement may be terminated immediately if the default is not cured within 30 days after notice (with provisions that permit an extension of the 30-day cure period under certain circumstances). In addition, each of these agreements may be terminated in the event of a change of control of either FIS or us.

License and Services Agreement

Through an assignment by FNF to us of its rights and obligations under a license and services agreement between FNF and FIS, and a novation of that agreement, we will enter into a license and services agreement with FIS. Under this agreement, we will conduct business on behalf of FIS's subsidiaries that operate as title agents through its LSI entities in certain limited jurisdictions in which the LSI entities otherwise lack ready access to title plants, and pay to the LSI entities the associated revenues, with the LSI entities bearing the related costs. This arrangement was entered into by FNF when FIS was established and the LSI businesses, which operated as divisions of our title insurers, were transferred to FIS. The agreement calls for us to license from FIS the use of certain proprietary business processes and related documentation in certain geographic areas. In addition, under this agreement, FIS will provide us with oversight and advice in connection with the implementation of these business processes, including responsibility by FIS for maintaining the computer hardware, software systems, telephone and communication equipment as well as sales support services. In exchange for these business processes and documentation and oversight and advisory services, we will pay fees to FIS equal to the aggregate earnings generated through or as a result of these proprietary business processes and documentation. Fees are billed monthly based on presentation of an invoice schedule showing the revenues generated during the prior month. FIS will retain ownership of the proprietary business processes and documentation and is responsible for defending any claims brought by third parties against us for infringement based upon the business processes licensed to us under the license and services agreement. We are responsible for defending any claims brought by third parties against FIS for infringement based upon any services we undertake that relate to the license and services agreement but are outside the agreement's permitted scope. FIS and we each agree to indemnify each other for property damage arising out of any negligence, breach of statutory duty, omission or default in performing our respective obligations under the license and services agreement. With regard to dispute resolution, the agreement includes procedures by which the parties can attempt to resolve disputes amicably, but if those disputes cannot be resolved timely, then arbitration proceedings can be instituted.

Duration and Termination. Subject to certain early termination provisions, the license and services agreement will continue in effect until either (i) FIS acquires its own direct access to title plants in the relevant geographic area or (ii) we build or otherwise acquire title plants for the relevant geographic area and provide access thereto to FIS on terms acceptable to FIS. The license and services agreement may also be terminated as to all or a portion of the relevant geographic area by mutual agreement of the parties or upon five years' prior written notice given after the fifth anniversary of the date of the agreement, except in the case of a default in performance, in which case the agreement may be terminated immediately if the default is not cured within 30 days after notice (with provisions that permit an extension of the 30-day cure period under certain circumstances). The license and services agreement may also be terminated in the event of a change of control of either FIS or us.

Lease Agreement

Through an assignment of FNF's rights and obligations under a lease agreement between FNF and a subsidiary of FIS, and a novation of that agreement, we will enter into a lease agreement pursuant to which we will lease from a subsidiary of FIS certain portions of FIS' Jacksonville, Florida headquarters building. This lease arrangement will continue until December 31, 2007. Lease terms will be commensurate with those found in the local real estate market.

Pricing and Payment Terms. Under the lease, FNT is obligated to pay base rent for approximately 121,000 square feet at an annual rate of $23.05 per rentable square foot, in equal monthly installments paid in advance on the first day of each calendar month. If FNT fails to pay timely, a default rate applies. In addition to paying base rent, for each calendar year commencing with calendar year 2005, FNT will be obligated to pay, as additional rent, FNT's share of the landlord's reasonable estimate of operating expenses for the entire facility that are in excess of the operating expenses (subject to certain exclusions) applicable to the 2005 base year. FNT is also liable to the landlord for its entire cost of providing any services or materials exclusively to FNT. FNT does not anticipate requesting any exclusive services from the landlord, in its capacity as landlord, during calendar years 2006 or 2007.

The amount allocated to us for office space costs at the FIS Jacksonville, Florida headquarters building for the portion of the buildings utilized by us and our subsidiaries during 2004 was $2.8 million. While the exact amount of rent to be paid by us under the lease agreement is dependent upon the aggregate excess operating costs incurred for the entire facility, we do not anticipate that the total amount to be paid by us under the lease agreement during the 2005 fiscal year will differ materially from the total amount allocated to us during the 2004 fiscal year for the office space at the Jacksonville, Florida building utilized by us and our subsidiaries.

Master Information Technology Services Agreement

Through an assignment by FNF to us of its rights and obligations under a master information technology services agreement between FNF and FIS and a novation of that agreement, we will enter into a master services agreement with FIS, pursuant to which FIS and its subsidiaries will provide various services to FNT and its affiliates, most of which services are similar in nature to the services that FIS has historically provided to us and to FNF, such as IT infrastructure support, data center management and software sales. Moreover, under the master services agreement, we have designated certain services as high priority critical services required for our business. These include: managed operations, network, email/messaging, network routing, technology center infrastructure, active directory and domains, systems perimeter security, data security, disaster recovery and business continuity. FIS has agreed to use reasonable best efforts to provide these core services without interruption throughout the term of the master services agreement, except for scheduled maintenance.

Terms of Provision. The master information technology services agreement sets forth the specific services to be provided and provides for statements of work and amendment as necessary. FIS may provide the services itself or through one or more subcontractors that are approved by us, but it is fully responsible for compliance by each subcontractor with the terms of the master information technology services agreement.

The master information technology services agreement includes, as part of the agreement, various base services agreements, each of which includes a specific description of the service to be performed as well as the terms, conditions, responsibilities and delivery schedules that apply to a particular service. Any new terms, conditions, responsibilities and delivery schedules that may be agreed to by the parties during the term of the agreement will be added as part of one of the base services agreements or the master information technology services agreement itself. We can also request services that are not specified in the agreement. These additional services will be provided on terms that we propose to FIS and, if we can agree on the terms, a new statement of work or amendment will be executed. In addition, if requested by us, FIS will continue to provide, for an appropriate fee, services to us that are not specifically included in the master information technology services agreement if those services were provided to us by FIS or its subcontractors in the past.

The master information technology services agreement provides for specified levels of service for each of the services to be provided, including any additional services that FIS agrees to perform pursuant to amendments to the agreement or additional statements of work. If FIS fails to provide service in accordance with the applicable service levels, then FIS is required to correct its failure as promptly as possible (and in any event, within five days of the failure recognition) at no cost to us. FIS is also required to use reasonable efforts to continuously improve the quality and efficiency of its performance. If either FIS or we find that the level of service for any particular service is inappropriate, ineffective or irrelevant, then the parties may review the service level and, upon agreement, adjust the level of service accordingly. We are permitted to audit FIS's operations, procedures, policies and service levels as they apply to the services under the agreement. In addition, at least every year during the term of the master information technology services agreement, FIS will conduct a customer satisfaction survey.

FIS may provide the services under the master information technology services agreement from one or more of its technology centers or other data centers that it designates within the United States. FIS must also maintain and enforce safety and security procedures that are at least equal to industry standards and are as rigorous as those in effect on the effective date of the agreement. The agreement contains provisions regarding privacy and confidentiality and requires each of the parties to use at least the same standard of care in the protection of confidential information of the other party as it uses in the protection of its own confidential or proprietary information.

Pricing and Payment Terms. Under the master information technology services agreement, we are obligated to pay FIS for the services that we and our subsidiaries utilize, calculated under a specific and comprehensive pricing schedule negotiated on an arms-length basis. Although the pricing includes some minimum usage charges, most of the service charges are based on volume and actual usage, specifically related to the particular service and support provided by FIS and the complexity of the technical analysis and technology support provided by FIS. The amount included in our expenses for information technology services received from FIS during the 2004 fiscal year was $56.6 million. While the exact amounts to be paid by us to FIS under the master information technology services agreement are dependent upon the actual usage and volume of services performed by FIS for us, we do not anticipate that the total amount to be paid by us to FIS under the master information technology services agreement during the 2005 fiscal year will differ materially from the amounts paid by us to FIS during the 2004 fiscal year for these information technology services. See "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions — Historical Related-Party Transactions — IT Services."

Duration and Effect of Termination. The master information technology services agreement will be effective for a term of five years unless earlier terminated in accordance with its terms. We will have the right to renew the agreement for a single one-year period or a single two-year period, by providing a written notice of our intent to renew at least six months prior to the expiration date. Upon receipt of a renewal notice, the parties will begin discussions regarding the terms and conditions that will apply for the renewal period, and if the parties have not reached agreement on the terms by the time the renewal period commences, then the agreement will be renewed for only one year on the terms as in effect at the expiration of the initial term. We may also terminate the master information technology services agreement or any particular statement of work or base services agreement on six months' prior written notice. In addition, if either party fails to perform its obligations under the master information technology services agreement, the other party may terminate after the expiration of certain cure periods. We may also terminate the agreement if there is a change in our ownership or control, as more fully defined by the terms of the services agreement.

Dispute Resolution Procedures. Disputes, controversies and claims under the master information technology services agreement will be referred to a management committee that includes representatives from both parties. If the management committee is unable to resolve the issue, the agreement sets forth a procedure by which the issue is referred to and reviewed by increasingly senior members of our management and FIS's management. If our senior management cannot resolve the issues with FIS's senior management, then the dispute is referred to an independent arbitrator for resolution. However, we are required to continue to provide services during the period of any dispute or dispute resolution process.

SoftPro Software License Agreement

Through an assignment by FNF to us of its rights and obligations under a software license agreement between FNF and a subsidiary of FIS, and a novation of that agreement, we will enter into a software license agreement pursuant to which we will license from a subsidiary of FIS, for the benefit of our title insurance subsidiaries, the use of certain proprietary software, related documentation, and object code for a package of software programs and products known as “SoftPro”. The SoftPro software is a related series of software programs and products that have historically been used, and will continue to be used, in various locations by a number of our title insurance subsidiaries, including Chicago Title, Fidelity National Title, and Ticor Title. In addition to the use license, under this agreement, upon the occurrence of certain events, such as the bankruptcy of the FIS subsidiary, a breach of a material covenant, or the subsidiary’s notification to us that it has ceased to provide maintenance or support for SoftPro, then subject to certain conditions, we will also receive the SoftPro source code for purposes of integration, maintenance, modification and enhancement. We will also receive the SoftPro source code if the FIS subsidiary fails to fulfill our requests for development or integration services or we cannot reach agreement on the commercial terms for that development. We will pay fees to the FIS subsidiary for the use of the SoftPro software based on the number of workstations and the actual number of SoftPro software programs and products used in each location. Fees are billed monthly based on presentation of an invoice. During the term of the agreement, the FIS subsidiary will retain ownership of SoftPro and is responsible for defending any claims brought by third parties against us for infringement based upon the software. The FIS subsidiary and we each agree to indemnify each other for property damage arising out of any negligence, breach of statutory duty, omission or default in performing our respective obligations under the software license agreement. With regard to dispute resolution, the agreement includes procedures by which the parties can attempt to resolve disputes amicably, but if those disputes cannot be resolved timely, then arbitration proceedings can be instituted.

Duration and Termination. While the SoftPro software license agreement is perpetual, we can terminate the license on not less than 90 days prior notice. In addition, if we disclose any of the SoftPro software, or a material part of the documentation related thereto, to a competitor of FIS, then if we fail to discontinue the unauthorized disclosure after a 30-day cure period, SoftPro may terminate the license as to the portion of the SoftPro software that we so disclosed on 30 days notice. In that event, FIS would also retain the right to pursue other remedies, including claims for damages, for the unauthorized disclosure.

Our expenses for the SoftPro license were $5.8 million, $2.6 million and $1.3 million in 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Historical Related-Party Transactions

Corporate Services

Our results for 2004 and 2003 include allocations to FNF and FIS relating to the provision by us of corporate services to FNF and to FIS and its subsidiaries. These corporate services include accounting, internal audit and treasury, payroll, human resources, tax, legal, purchasing, risk management, travel, mergers & acquisitions, and general management. For the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002, our expenses were reduced by $9.4 million, $9.2 million and $7.0 million, respectively, related to the provision of these corporate services by us to FNF and its subsidiaries (other than FIS and its subsidiaries). For the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002, our expenses were reduced by $75.1 million, $39.5 million and $21.6 million, respectively, related to the provision of these corporate services by us to FIS and its subsidiaries. As described in “Our Arrangements with FNF,” prior to the distribution we will enter into agreements with FNF and FIS relating to the provision of corporate services following the distribution.

IT Services

Included in our expenses for 2004 and 2003 are amounts paid to a subsidiary of FIS for the provision by FIS to us of IT infrastructure support, data center management and related IT support services. For 2004 and 2003, the amounts included in our expenses to FIS for these services were $56.6 million and $12.4 million respectively. Prior to September 2003, we performed these services ourselves and provided them to FIS. During 2003 and 2002, we received payments from FIS of $5.4 million and $5.8 million relating to these services that offset our other operating expenses. As described in “Our Arrangements with FNF,” prior to the distribution we will enter into an agreement with FIS relating to the provision of these IT-related services following the distribution.

Lease

Included in our expenses for 2004 and 2003 are $2.8 million and $0.5 million, respectively, of rent expense paid to FIS for our corporate headquarters. We will enter into a lease agreement with FIS covering our rental of this space following the distribution. See “Our Arrangements with FNF.”

Real Estate Information

We also do business with additional entities within the information services segment of FIS that provide real estate information to our operations. We recorded expenses of $9.9 million, $11.4 million and $3.7 million in 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

Agency Agreements

In connection with the transactions that established FIS, our subsidiaries, Chicago Title Insurance Company (“CTI”), a Missouri-domiciled title insurer, and Fidelity National Title Insurance Company (“FNTIC”), a California-domiciled title insurer, each entered into separate issuing agency contracts with five subsidiaries of FIS. Under these issuing agency contracts, the FIS subsidiaries act as title agents for CTI and FNTIC in various jurisdictions.

Under the issuing agency contracts, the title agency appointments of the FIS subsidiaries are not exclusive and CTI and FNTIC each retain the ability to appoint other title agents and to issue title insurance directly. In addition, the issuance of all title insurance for which the FIS subsidiaries are the agents is subject to the terms set forth in the issuing agency contracts. We believe that rates, duties, liability and indemnification provisions comport with the terms and conditions generally applicable in similar arrangements between non-affiliated parties in the title industry.

Subject to certain early termination provisions for cause, each of these agreements may be terminated upon five years’ prior written notice, which notice may not be given until after the fifth anniversary of the effective date of the agreement (thus effectively resulting in a minimum ten year term). The issuing agency contracts were entered into by our subsidiaries between July 22, 2004 and February 24, 2005.

Prior to entering into these issuing agency contracts, these agency operations were conducted as divisions of certain of our title insurers. Our financial statements reflect amounts earned by and charged to us as a result of these arrangements. For the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002, our financial statements reflect $106.3 million, $284.9 million and $53.0 million, respectively, of agency title premiums generated by these operations, and related commissions paid of $93.6 million, $250.7 million and $46.7 million, respectively, representing a commission rate of 88% of premiums earned.

Cost Sharing Agreement

Our subsidiary CTI is a party to a transitional cost sharing agreement effective as of March 4, 2005 with certain subsidiaries of FIS that are engaged in the lenders services business, including providing appraisal, title and closing services to residential mortgage originators and providing automated loan servicing (the “lenders services business”). Pursuant to this cost sharing agreement, CTI agrees to share certain costs and facilities relating to these lenders services businesses with various FIS subsidiaries. The costs shared include costs of the employees performing the services related to these businesses as well as the costs and expenses related to various facilities such as data processing, equipment, business property and communication equipment. The cost sharing agreement will terminate (i) as to all parties, upon the transfer of a particular company that is not part of our company from FNF to FIS, which transfer is contingent upon receipt of certain regulatory approvals, or (ii) as to CTI, at such time as various subsidiaries of FIS obtain the licenses necessary to enable them to operate all aspects of the lenders services business.

Agreements relating to Title Information

We are party to several agreements with subsidiaries of FIS that relate to the maintenance or management of our title plants and the use of those title plants. These agreements are described below.

Title Plant Maintenance Agreement and Master Title Plant Access Agreement

Certain of our title insurance company subsidiaries have entered into a title plant maintenance agreement with Property Insight, LLC (“Property Insight”), a subsidiary of FIS. In connection therewith, one of our subsidiaries has also entered into a master title plant access agreement with Property Insight.

Pursuant to the title plant maintenance agreement, Property Insight manages certain title plant assets of these title insurance company subsidiaries. These management services include keeping the title plant assets current and functioning on a daily basis. Property Insight’s management services also include updating, compiling, extracting, manipulating, purging, storing and processing title plant data so that the title plant database is current, accurate and accessible, through an efficient and organized access system. In performing these functions, Property Insight may make use of the software systems licensed to it from these subsidiaries, but it may also utilize proprietary systems, software, technologies and methodologies that have been developed, or will be developed, by Property Insight. We have no ownership or other right or title to these proprietary systems and methodologies (except in certain limited circumstances in the event of a termination of a title plant maintenance agreement, as a result of a default by, or termination by, Property Insight). Property Insight may also use these proprietary systems and methodologies in the title plant management services it may provide to other third party customers. In exchange for its management services, Property Insight has perpetual, irrevocable, transferable and nonexclusive worldwide licensed access to the title plants owned by these subsidiaries, together with certain software relating thereto, and it is able to sell this title plant access to third party customers and earn all revenue generated from the use of those assets by third party customers. In addition, Property Insight earns fees from providing access to updated and organized title plant databases to our subsidiaries through the master title plant access agreement described below. In consideration for the licensed access to the title plants and related software, Property Insight must pay a royalty to each of our title insurance company subsidiaries who are parties to the title plant maintenance agreement, in an amount equal to 2.5% to 3.75% of the revenues generated from the licensed access to the title plants and related software that the title insurance company subsidiary owns.

Pursuant to the master title plant access agreement, our subsidiaries have access to all title plants to which Property Insight has access or right to access, including the title plants owned by certain of our subsidiaries. In consideration for this access and use, our subsidiaries pay access fees to Property Insight.

Under the title plant maintenance agreement, Property Insight has no liability to our subsidiaries who are parties to the title plant maintenance agreement for any error in the information provided in the performance of its services, except in the event of Property Insight’s gross negligence or willful misconduct. Property Insight accepts no liability under the master title plant access agreement for any errors in the title plant information.

The title plant maintenance agreement is effective for a ten year period, with automatic renewal, and may be terminated by mutual agreement of the parties or upon five years’ prior written notice, except in the case of a default in performance, in which case the agreement may be terminated immediately if the default is not cured within 30 days after notice (with provisions that permit an extension of the 30-day cure period under certain circumstances). In addition, the title plant maintenance agreement may be terminated in the event of a change of control of either Property Insight or our subsidiaries who are parties to the title plant maintenance agreement. So long as Property Insight does not cause the termination of a title plant maintenance agreement (either through notice of termination or by defaulting on its obligations or otherwise), Property Insight will retain a copy of the title plant database and related software as well as the right to use the software and sell access to the title plant database to third party customers. The termination provisions of the master title plant access agreement are in general similar to those of the title plant maintenance agreement.

The foregoing agreements became effective on March 4, 2005. Prior to that time, Property Insight was a division of our company. When FIS was established, the assets, liabilities and operations of Property Insight were transferred to FIS. For 2004, 2003 and 2002, our payments to FIS under these arrangements were $28.9 million, $28.2 million and $24.3 million, respectively. For 2004 revenues from the royalty payable by FIS were $0.3 million. For the six months ended June 30, 2005, the revenues from the royalty payable by FIS were $1.4 million.

Title Plant Management Agreement

We have entered into a management agreement effective as of May 17, 2005 with Property Insight, pursuant to which Property Insight manages title plant assets for one of our subsidiaries, Ticor Title Insurance Company of Florida ("Ticor-FL"). These management services include overseeing and supervising the title plant maintenance process (such as updating and purging), but do not include full responsibility for keeping the title plant assets current and functioning on a daily basis. Ticor-FL maintains all ownership rights over the title plants and its proprietary systems and methodologies used in the title plant maintenance process. Under this agreement, Property Insight's use of these proprietary systems and methodologies and access to Ticor-FL's title plants is limited to use and access necessary to perform its management obligations under the agreement. Property Insight is paid a management fee equal to 20% of the actual costs incurred by Ticor-FL for maintaining its title plants.

Under the title plant management agreement, Property Insight has no liability to the Ticor-FL in the performance of its services, except in the event of Property Insight's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

The title plant management agreement is effective for a ten year period, with automatic renewal, and may be terminated by mutual agreement of the parties or upon five years' prior written notice, except in the case of a default in performance, in which case the agreement may be terminated immediately if the default is not cured within 30 days after notice (with provisions that permit an extension of the 30-day cure period under certain circumstances). In addition, the title plant management agreement may be terminated in the event of a change of control of either Property Insight or Ticor-FL.

Tax Sharing Agreements

FNF and each of our title insurance subsidiaries are parties to one or more of four tax sharing agreements and one tax allocation agreement, which govern the respective rights, responsibilities, and obligations of FNF and those subsidiaries with respect to tax liabilities and refunds, tax attributes, other matters regarding income taxes and related tax returns. These tax sharing agreements have been in effect for varying periods of time prior to the distribution and have been filed with the respective insurance regulators of the title insurance subsidiaries.

Allocation of Tax Liability. The tax sharing agreements generally provide for the allocation and payment of taxes for periods during which the respective title insurance subsidiaries and FNF are included in the same consolidated group for federal income tax purposes or the same consolidated, combined or unitary returns for state tax purposes. For periods during which the respective title insurance subsidiaries are included in FNF's consolidated federal income tax returns or state consolidated, combined, or unitary tax returns, each of the title insurance subsidiaries generally is required to pay an amount of income tax equal to the amount it would have paid had it filed tax returns as a separate entity. Each title insurance subsidiary is also responsible in the future for any increases of consolidated tax liability of FNF that are attributable to the title insurance subsidiary and will be entitled to refunds for reductions of tax liabilities attributable to it for prior periods. Each title insurance subsidiary will be included in FNF's consolidated group for federal income tax purposes so long as FNF beneficially owns, directly or indirectly, at least 80% of the total voting power and value of the title insurance subsidiary's outstanding common stock. Each corporation that is a member of a consolidated group during any portion of the group's tax year is severally liable for the federal income tax liability of the group for that year. As a result, the title insurance subsidiaries could be liable in the event federal tax liability allocated to FNF is incurred but not paid by FNF or any other member of FNF's consolidated group for FNF's tax years that include these periods.

Software License Agreements

Certain FIS subsidiaries have licensed proprietary software and provide maintenance services to certain of our subsidiaries for annual fees under individual license agreements. The three software license agreements, for OTS/OTS Gold, SIMON and TEAM software, all provide our subsidiaries with worldwide nonexclusive, perpetual, irrevocable right to use certain software and documentation. Fees for these licenses are charged on varying bases, including in the case of OTS/OTS Gold, a flat annual fee, and in the case of SIMON and TEAM, a monthly fee based on the number of servers or the number of users utilizing the licensed software. The terms of the licenses are perpetual and may be terminated by our subsidiaries upon ninety days written notice, disclosure of software or documentation to competitors or if an entity is no longer a subsidiary of FIS.

Our expenses for these items in 2004, 2003 and 2002 were insubstantial and not material, either individually or in the aggregate.

Equipment Leases

We previously leased certain business equipment to FIS. Our revenues from these leases were $8.4 million, $7.3 million and $6.7 million in 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively. All of the equipment covered by these leases was purchased by FIS for $19.4 million on June 1, 2005, and the leases were terminated.

Master Loan Agreements

We are parties to two master loan agreements under which our title insurance subsidiaries have made certain loans to FNF. These loans are evidenced by notes that amounted to $22.8 million at December 31, 2004. The notes amortize in equal principal amounts annually with final maturity in 2009 and 2010 and bear interest at a variable rate that at December 31, 2004 was equal to 2.66%. We have no commitment to make further loans under this arrangement.

Cross Conveyance and Joint Ownership and Development Agreements

One of our subsidiaries is a party to a cross conveyance and joint ownership agreement with an FIS subsidiary whereby the parties have conveyed their respective interests in certain proprietary software, known as "eLender", such that both parties are the joint owners of the software. The parties have also entered into a development agreement to further develop the jointly owned software. Pursuant to this agreement, through March 31, 2006, our subsidiary pays $500,000 per month to the FIS subsidiary for development services, including maintenance by the FIS subsidiary for the developed software. Each party will own an undivided half interest in the developed software. This agreement expires on March 31, 2006, but may be terminated prior to that time by mutual agreement or in the event of a breach that remains uncured for more than 30 days (subject to extension in certain circumstances).

One of our subsidiaries is also a party to a joint development agreement with an FIS subsidiary whereby the FIS subsidiary provides development services for proprietary software, known as "Titlepoint", to be used in connection with the title plants owned by our title insurance subsidiaries. Pursuant to this agreement, our subsidiary pays fees and expenses to the FIS subsidiary for development services per our specifications. The fees are charged on an hourly rate basis but cannot exceed an aggregate of $7,130,000 for the entire development project. Upon delivery by the FIS subsidiary of software that meets acceptance criteria, both parties will jointly own the developed software. This agreement expires forty-five days after acceptance of the agreed upon software release, but may be terminated prior to that time by mutual agreement or in the event of a breach that remains uncured for more than 30 days (subject to extension in certain circumstances).

OWNERSHIP OF COMMON STOCK

Prior to the completion of this distribution, all shares of our common stock were owned by FNF. Upon the completion of this distribution, FNF will beneficially own approximately 82.5% of our outstanding common stock in the form of 100% of our Class B Common Stock.

Except for FNF, no person will beneficially own any of our outstanding common stock prior to completion of this distribution, and we are not aware of any person other than FNF who will beneficially own 5% or more of our common stock upon completion of this distribution. Our directors and officers do not currently own any of our common stock, although they will receive options to purchase shares upon the completion of the distribution. Further, in the event of the distribution those who own shares of FNF common stock will be treated on the same terms as any other holders of FNF common stock. See “Management — Stock Ownership of Directors and Executive Officers” for information about the ownership of FNF common stock by our directors and executive officers.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

The following description of select provisions of our certificate of incorporation, our bylaws, and of the Delaware General Corporation Law is necessarily general and does not purport to be complete. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference in each case to the applicable provisions of our certificate of incorporation and bylaws, which are filed as exhibits to our registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part, and to the provisions of Delaware law.

General

Our authorized capital stock will consist of 200 million shares of Class A Common Stock, 200 million shares of Class B Common Stock and 50 million shares of preferred stock. Immediately after the completion of this distribution, _____ shares of Class A Common Stock will be outstanding and _____ shares of Class B Common Stock will be outstanding.

Common Stock

Holders of our common stock are entitled to receive such dividends as may be declared by our board of directors out of funds legally available therefor. See “Dividend Policy.” Holders of our Class A Common Stock are entitled to one vote per share on all matters on which the holders of common stock are entitled to vote. Holders of Class B Common Stock will be entitled to ten votes per share of Class B Common Stock held. Neither our Class A Common Stock nor our Class B Common Stock will entitle its holders to cumulative voting rights. In the event of our liquidation or dissolution, holders of our common stock would be entitled to share equally and ratably in our assets, if any, remaining after the payment of all liabilities and the liquidation preference of any outstanding class or series of preferred stock. The shares of common stock issued by us in the distribution will be fully paid and nonassessable. The rights and privileges of holders of our common stock are subject to the rights and preferences of the holders of any series of preferred stock that we may issue in the future, as described below.

Class B Common Stock

The Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock have identical rights and privileges, except with regard to voting rights as described above and the following conversion provisions. The Class B

Common Stock will be convertible into shares of Class A Common Stock at a one-to-one conversion ratio as follows:

- the holder of any share of Class B Common Stock may elect at any time, and at such holder's sole option, to convert such share into one fully paid and nonassessable share of Class A Common Stock;
- if at any time FNF and its affiliates collectively own less than 40% of the total number of issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of FNT, each issued and outstanding share of Class B Common Stock will automatically be converted into one share of Class A Common Stock; and
- upon the transfer of any share of Class B Common Stock to a person other than FNF or an affiliate of FNF (excluding certain permitted transfers), such share will automatically be converted into one fully paid and nonassessable share of Class A Common Stock.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, FNF may transfer shares of Class B Common Stock (without conversion into Class A Common Stock) if such transfer is effected as part of a distribution by FNF of shares of Class B Common Stock to its shareholders in a tax-free "spinoff" under Section 355(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and any subsequent transfer of such shares will not cause such shares to convert into Class A Common Stock.

Authorized Preferred Stock

Subject to the approval by holders of shares of any class or series of preferred stock, to the extent such approval is required, our board of directors will have the authority following the distribution to issue preferred stock in one or more series and to fix the number of shares constituting any such series and the designations, powers, preferences, limitations and relative rights, including dividend rights, dividend rate, voting rights, terms of redemption, redemption price or prices, conversion rights and liquidation preferences of the shares constituting any series, without any further vote or action by stockholders.

Certain Provisions of our Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaws and Delaware Law

A number of provisions of our certificate of incorporation and our bylaws deal with matters of corporate governance and the rights of stockholders. The following discussion is a general summary of select provisions of our certificate of incorporation, our bylaws and certain Delaware laws that might be deemed to have a potential "anti-takeover" effect. These provisions may have the effect of discouraging a future takeover attempt which is not approved by our board of directors but which individual stockholders may deem to be in their best interest or in which stockholders may be offered a substantial premium for their shares over then current market prices. As a result, stockholders who might desire to participate in such a transaction may not have an opportunity to do so. Such provisions will also render the removal of the incumbent board of directors or management more difficult.

Common Stock. Our unissued shares of authorized Class A and Class B Common Stock will be available for future issuance without additional stockholder approval. While the authorized but unissued shares are not designed to deter or prevent a change of control, under some circumstances we could use the authorized but unissued shares to create voting impediments or to frustrate persons seeking to effect a takeover or otherwise gain control by, for example, issuing those shares in private placements to purchasers who might side with our board of directors in opposing a hostile takeover bid.

Preferred Stock. The existence of authorized but unissued preferred stock could reduce our attractiveness as a target for an unsolicited takeover bid since we could, for example, issue shares of the preferred stock to parties that might oppose such a takeover bid or issue shares of the preferred stock containing terms the potential acquiror may find unattractive. This ability may have the effect of delaying or preventing a change of control, may discourage bids for our common stock at a premium over the market price of our common stock, and may adversely affect the market price of, and the voting and the other rights of the holders of, our common stock.

Classified Board of Directors and Related Provisions. Our certificate of incorporation provides that our board of directors must be divided into three classes of directors (each class containing approximately one-third of the total number of directors) serving staggered three-year terms. As a result, approximately one-third of our board of directors will be elected each year. This classified board provision will prevent a third party who acquires control of a majority of our outstanding voting stock from obtaining control of our board of directors until the second annual stockholders meeting following the date the acquiror obtains the controlling interest. The number of directors constituting our board of directors is determined from time to time by our board of directors. Our certificate of incorporation also provides that directors may be removed only for “cause” by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all outstanding voting stock entitled to vote. This provision, in conjunction with the provisions of our certificate of incorporation authorizing our board of directors to fill vacancies on the board, will prevent stockholders from removing incumbent directors without cause and filling the resulting vacancies with their own nominees.

No Stockholder Action by Written Consent; Special Meetings. Our certificate of incorporation permits our stockholders to act by written consent without a meeting as long as FNF owns more than 50% of our voting stock. Once FNF ceases to own that percentage of our voting stock, our certificate of incorporation provides that stockholder action can be taken only at an annual or special meeting of stockholders and cannot be taken by written consent in lieu of a meeting. Our certificate of incorporation also provides that, except as otherwise required by law, special meetings of the stockholders can only be called by a majority of our entire board of directors or our chief executive officer. Stockholders may not call a special meeting or require that our board of directors call a special meeting of stockholders.

Advance Notice Requirements for Stockholder Proposals and Director Nominees. Our bylaws provide that, if one of our stockholders desires to submit a proposal or nominate persons for election as directors at an annual stockholders’ meeting, the stockholder’s written notice must be received by us not less than 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the date of the proxy statement for the immediately preceding annual meeting of stockholders. However, if the annual meeting is called for a date that is not within 30 days before or after such anniversary date, notice by a stockholder must be received by us not later than the close of business on the 10th day following the day on which public disclosure of the date of the annual meeting was made. The notice must describe the proposal or nomination and set forth the name and address of, and stock held of record and beneficially by, the stockholder. Notices of stockholder proposals or nominations must set forth the reasons for the proposal or nomination and any material interest of the stockholder in the proposal or nomination and a representation that the stockholder intends to appear in person or by proxy at the annual meeting. Director nomination notices must set forth the name and address of the nominee, arrangements between the stockholder and the nominee and other information required under Regulation 14A of the Exchange Act. The presiding officer of the meeting may refuse to acknowledge a proposal or nomination not made in compliance with the procedures contained in our bylaws. The advance notice requirements regulating stockholder nominations and proposals may have the effect of precluding a contest for the election of directors or the introduction of a stockholder proposal if the requisite procedures are not followed and may discourage or deter a third-party from conducting a solicitation of proxies to elect its own slate of directors or to introduce a proposal.

Voting Requirements on Amending our Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws. Our certificate of incorporation and our bylaws provide that amendments to certain provisions of our bylaws, including those related to stockholder proposals and calling special meetings of stockholders, must be approved by both our board of directors and by the vote, at a regular or special stockholders’ meeting, of the holders of at least two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all our capital stock then entitled to vote. All other amendments to our bylaws require either: (i) approval by a majority of our entire board of directors (without stockholder consent) or (ii) the vote, at a regular or special stockholders’ meeting, of the holders of at least two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all our capital stock then entitled to vote. In addition, our certificate of incorporation provides that amendments to certain provisions of our certificate of incorporation, including those relating to the classified board, removal of directors, calling special meetings and no stockholder action by written consent, must be approved by the vote, at a regular or special stockholders’ meeting, of the holders of at least two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all of our capital stock then entitled to vote (in addition to the approval of our board of directors).

Business Combination Statute. Following the distribution, we will be subject to Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, an anti-takeover law. In general, Section 203 prohibits a publicly held Delaware corporation from engaging in a business combination with an interested stockholder for a period of three years following the date the person became an interested stockholder, unless the business combination or the transaction in which the person became an interested stockholder is approved in a prescribed manner. Generally, a “business combination” includes a merger, asset or stock sale, or other transaction resulting in a financial benefit to the interested stockholder. Generally, an “interested stockholder” is a person who, together with affiliates and associates, owns or within three years prior to the determination of interested stockholder status did own, 15% or more of a corporation’s voting stock. Because we were not subject to Section 203 prior to the distribution, following the distribution FNF and its subsidiaries would not be considered an interested stockholder.

Provisions of our Certificate of Incorporation Relating to Corporate Opportunities

Certificate of Incorporation. To address situations in which officers or directors have conflicting duties to affiliated corporations, Section 122(17) of the Delaware General Corporation Law allows a corporation to renounce, in its certificate of incorporation or by action of its board of directors, any interest or expectancy of the corporation in specified classes or categories of business opportunities. As such, and in order to address potential conflicts of interest between us and FNF and its subsidiaries (“Fidelity”), our certificate of incorporation contains provisions regulating and defining, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the conduct of our affairs as they may involve Fidelity and its officers and directors.

Our certificate of incorporation provides that, subject to any written agreement to the contrary, Fidelity will have no duty to refrain from engaging in the same or similar activities or lines of business as us, and, except as set forth in our certificate of incorporation, neither Fidelity nor its officers or directors will be liable to us or our stockholders for any breach of any fiduciary duty due to any such activities of Fidelity. In the event that Fidelity acquires knowledge of a potential transaction or matter which may be a corporate opportunity for both Fidelity and us, Fidelity, to the fullest extent permitted by law, will have no duty to communicate or offer the corporate opportunity to us and will, to the fullest extent permitted by law, not be liable to us or our stockholders for breach of any fiduciary duty by reason of the fact that Fidelity pursues or acquires that corporate opportunity for itself, directs it to another person or does not communicate information regarding it to us.

Our certificate of incorporation further provides that if one of our directors or officers who is also a director or officer of Fidelity acquires knowledge of a potential transaction or matter that may be a corporate opportunity for both Fidelity and us, the director or officer will have satisfied his or her fiduciary duty to us and our stockholders with respect to that corporate opportunity if he or she acts in a manner consistent with the following policy:

- a corporate opportunity offered to any person who is an officer of ours and who is also a director but not an officer of Fidelity, will belong to us unless the opportunity is expressly offered to that person in a capacity other than such person’s capacity as one of our officers, in which case it will not belong to us;
- a corporate opportunity offered to any person who is a director but not an officer of ours, and who is also a director or officer of Fidelity, will belong to us only if that opportunity is expressly offered to that person in that person’s capacity as one of our directors; and
- a corporate opportunity offered to any person who is an officer of both Fidelity and us will belong to us only if that opportunity is expressly offered to that person in that person’s capacity as one of our officers.

Notwithstanding these provisions, our certificate of incorporation does not prohibit us from pursuing any corporate opportunity of which we become aware.

These provisions in our certificate of incorporation will no longer be effective on the date that (i) Fidelity ceases to beneficially own our common stock representing at least 20% of the total voting power of all classes of our outstanding capital stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors and (ii) none of our directors or officers are also directors or officers of Fidelity.

If our certificate of incorporation did not include provisions setting forth the circumstances under which opportunities will belong to us and regulating the conduct of our directors and officers in situations where their duties to us and Fidelity conflict, the actions of our directors and officers in each such situation would be subject to the fact-specific analysis of the corporate opportunity doctrine as articulated under Delaware law. Under Delaware law, a director of a corporation may take a corporate opportunity, or divert it to another corporation in which that director has an interest, if (i) the opportunity is presented to the director or officer in his or her individual capacity, (ii) the opportunity is not essential to the corporation, (iii) the corporation holds no interest or expectancy in the opportunity and (iv) the director or officer has not wrongfully employed the resources of the corporation in pursuing or exploiting the opportunity. Based on Section 122(17) of the Delaware General Corporation Law, we do not believe the corporate opportunity guidelines set forth in our certificate of incorporation conflict with Delaware law. If, however, a conflict were to arise between the provisions of our certificate of incorporation and Delaware law, Delaware law would control.

Limitations on Director Liability

Under the Delaware General Corporation Law, we may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was our director, officer, employee or agent, or is or was serving at our request as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to our best interests, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. In addition, Section 102(b)(7) of the Delaware General Corporation Law provides that a certificate of incorporation may contain a provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, provided that such provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (relating to liability for unauthorized acquisitions or redemptions of, or dividends on, capital stock), or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. Our certificate of incorporation contains the provisions permitted by Section 102(b)(7) of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

SHARES ELIGIBLE FOR FUTURE SALE

All shares distributed to FNF stockholders in the distribution will be freely tradable without restriction or further registration under the Securities Act, except that any shares received in the distribution by our "affiliates," as that term is defined in Rule 144 under the Securities Act, may generally only be sold in compliance with the limitations of Rule 144 described below.

Rule 144

In general, under Rule 144 as currently in effect, an affiliate would be entitled to sell within any three-month period a number of shares that does not exceed the greater of:

- 1% of the number of shares of common stock then outstanding; or
- the average weekly trading volume of the common stock on the New York Stock Exchange during the four calendar weeks preceding the filing of a notice on Form 144 with respect to such sale.

Sales under Rule 144 are also subject to certain manner of sale provisions and notice requirements and to the availability of current public information about us.

Registration Rights

As described in “Our Arrangements with FNF — Registration Rights Agreement,” we have entered into a registration rights agreement with FNF. We do not have any other contractual obligations to register our common stock.

UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following summary describes the material United States federal income tax consequences generally applicable to an FNF stockholder that receives FNT shares in the distribution. This summary is based on the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, and judicial and administrative interpretations thereof, all as in effect on the date of this circular and all of which are subject to change (possibly on a retroactive basis).

A “United States Holder” is a beneficial owner of FNF common stock that is a citizen or resident individual of the United States, a corporation or any other entity taxable as a corporation, in either case organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state or political subdivision thereof, or an estate or trust that is subject to United States federal income taxation without regard to the source of its income. A United States Holder does not include, and this discussion does not address the tax consequences to, certain persons subject to special provisions of United States federal income tax law, such as tax-exempt organizations, qualified retirement plans, financial institutions, insurance companies, partnerships, real estate investment trusts, regulated investment companies, broker-dealers, persons who hold their shares as part of a straddle, a hedge, a constructive sale or a conversion transaction, holders of FNF shares whose functional currency is other than the United States dollar, pass-through entities and investors therein, persons who acquired their stock through the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation, or persons who hold their shares as ordinary assets and not as capital assets.

A “Non-United States Holder” is a beneficial owner of FNF common stock that holds such stock as a capital asset and that is in general an individual, corporation, estate, or trust other than an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States; a corporation (or an entity taxed as a corporation for United States federal income tax purposes) created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States or any subdivision thereof; an estate the income of which is includible in gross income for United States federal income tax purposes regardless of its source; or a trust if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust.

This summary does not address all of the United States federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to the particular circumstances of an FNF stockholder that receives FNT stock in the distribution, nor does it address the effect of any foreign, state or local tax law on an FNF stockholder that receives FNT stock in the distribution.

This summary is for general information purposes only and is not intended to be, and should not be construed to be, legal or tax advice to any particular shareholder. Consequently, FNF shareholders are advised to consult their own tax advisors to determine the particular tax consequences of the distribution, and of acquiring, exchanging, holding or disposing of shares of FNT common stock.

Tax Consequences of the Distribution to United States Holders

FNF will report the distribution as a taxable distribution in which each FNF stockholder receives an amount equal to the fair market value, at the time of the distribution, of the FNT shares the stockholder receives plus the amount of any cash received in lieu of fractional shares of FNT common stock (the “Distribution Amount”). Assuming that there will be a public market for the FNT stock at the time of the distribution, the fair market value of an FNT share to a stockholder is expected to be the average of the high and low trading price on the date of the distribution, or if such date is not a trading day, on the first trading day following the distribution. However, if the Distribution Amount exceeds the FNF shareholder’s allocable share of FNF’s current and accumulated earnings and profits for federal income tax purposes determined as of the end of the FNF’s fiscal year ending December 31, 2005, the excess generally will be treated first as a basis-reducing, tax-free return of capital to the extent of the shareholder’s basis in his or her FNF common stock, and after this basis is reduced to zero, as capital gain. FNF’s management has advised that, based on the information currently available, FNF’s accumulated earnings and profits at December 31, 2005 is expected to be large enough that the Distribution Amount will not exceed the Holder’s allocable share of such earnings and profits.

The Distribution Amount is expected to constitute “qualified dividend income” for United States federal income tax purposes, subject to certain holding period requirements. Each corporate holder of FNF common stock (other than S corporations) receiving FNT shares and recognizing dividend income would be entitled to the dividends-received deduction (generally 70%) with respect to the dividends, subject to certain holding period requirements.

The Distribution Amount also may be considered an “extraordinary dividend” under the United States federal income tax rules depending on the facts and circumstances of the shareholder. Treatment of the Distribution Amount as an extraordinary dividend may affect a corporate shareholder’s basis in its FNF stock, or, with respect to individual shareholders, may affect the tax characterization of a sale of his or her FNF shares.

An FNF shareholder’s tax basis in the FNT shares received in the distribution would equal the fair market value of the FNT common stock on the date of the distribution, and the shareholder’s holding period in the stock would begin the day after the distribution.

Individual Reporting and Backup Withholding

In early 2006, each individual recipient of FNT shares in the distribution will receive an IRS Form 1099-DIV reflecting the Distribution Amount. An FNF stockholder may be subject to backup withholding at a rate of 28% of amounts paid to the shareholder, unless the shareholder, before the distribution, has provided his or her correct taxpayer identification number on an IRS Form W-9 or a substitute therefor. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or credit against such shareholder’s United States federal income tax liability provided the required information is furnished to the IRS.

Tax Consequences of the Distribution to Non-United States Holders

A Non-United States Holder generally will be subject to withholding of United States federal income tax at a 30% rate or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty. However, if the distribution is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States or is attributable to a permanent establishment in the event such standard applies to the Non-United States Holder under an applicable tax treaty with the United States, the distribution will not be subject to the withholding tax, but instead will be subject to United States federal income tax on a net income basis at applicable graduated individual or corporate rates. Certain certification and disclosure requirements must be satisfied for effectively connected income to be exempt from withholding. Any dividends received by a foreign corporation subject to United States federal income tax on a net basis may, under specific circumstances, be subject to an additional “branch profits tax” at a 30% rate or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty.

A Non-United States Holder who wishes to claim the benefit of an applicable treaty rate (and avoid backup withholding as discussed below) for dividends, will be required to (a) complete IRS Form W-8BEN (or other applicable form) and certify under penalties of perjury that such holder is not a United States person, or (b) if the common stock is held through certain foreign intermediaries, satisfy the relevant certification requirements of applicable United States Treasury regulations. Special certification and other requirements apply to certain Non-United States Holders that are entities rather than individuals.

A Non-United States Holder eligible for a reduced rate of United States withholding tax pursuant to an income tax treaty may obtain a refund of any excess amount withheld by filing an appropriate claim for refund with the IRS.

Gain of Disposition of Common Stock

A Non-United States Holder generally will not be subject to United States federal income or withholding tax with respect to gain recognized on a sale or other disposition of common stock unless (i) the gain is effectively connected with a trade or business of the Non-United States Holder in the United States, and, where a tax treaty applies, is attributable to a United States permanent establishment of the Non-United States Holder; (ii) in the case of a Non-United States Holder who is an individual and holds the common stock as a capital asset, such holder is present in the United States for 183 or more days in the taxable year of the sale or other disposition and certain other conditions are met; or (iii) FNF is at the time of the distribution or has been a “United States real property holding corporation” for United States federal income tax purposes. FNF believes it is not, has not been, and will not be at the time of the distribution a “United States real property holding corporation” for United States federal income tax purposes.

Federal Estate Tax

FNT stock held by an individual Non-United States Holder at the time of death will be included in such holder’s gross estate for United States federal estate tax purposes, unless an applicable estate tax treaty provides otherwise.

Individual Reporting and Backup Withholding

FNF must report annually to the IRS and to each individual Non-United States Holder the amount of dividends paid to such holder and the tax withheld with respect to such dividends, regardless of whether withholding was required. Copies of the information returns reporting such dividends and withholding also may be made available to the tax authorities in the country in which the Non-United States Holder resides under the provisions of an applicable income tax treaty.

A Non-United States Holder will be subject to backup withholding unless applicable certification requirements are met. Information reporting and, depending on the circumstances, backup withholding, will apply to the proceeds of a sale of FNT stock within the United States or conducted through the United States related financial intermediaries unless the beneficial owner certifies under penalties of perjury that it is a Non-United States Holder (and the payor does not have actual knowledge or reason to know that the beneficial owner is not a United States person) or the holder otherwise establishes an exemption. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or credit against such holder’s United States federal income tax liability provided the required information is furnished to the IRS.

THE PRECEDING DISCUSSION OF CERTAIN MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME AND ESTATE TAX CONSEQUENCES IS GENERAL INFORMATION ONLY AND IS NOT TAX ADVICE. ACCORDINGLY, EACH NON-U.S. HOLDER SHOULD CONSULT THAT NON-U.S. HOLDER’S OWN TAX ADVISER AS TO THE PARTICULAR TAX CONSEQUENCES TO IT OF PURCHASING, HOLDING, OR DISPOSING OF OUR COMMON STOCK, INCLUDING THE APPLICABILITY OF ANY STATE, LOCAL, OR FOREIGN TAX LAWS, AND OF ANY CHANGES OR PROPOSED CHANGES IN APPLICABLE LAW.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The Board of Directors
Fidelity National Title Group, Inc.:

We have audited the accompanying Combined Balance Sheets of Fidelity National Title Group, Inc. and subsidiaries as of December 31, 2004 and 2003, and the related Combined Statements of Earnings, Equity and Comprehensive Earnings and Cash Flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2004. These Combined Financial Statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these Combined Financial Statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the Combined Financial Statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Fidelity National Title Group, Inc. and subsidiaries as of December 31, 2004 and 2003, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2004 in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

The Combined Financial Statements for 2002 were prepared using Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees," to record stock-based employee compensation. As discussed in Note A to the Combined Financial Statements, effective January 1, 2003, the Company adopted the fair value recognition provisions of SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation", to record stock-based employee compensation, applying the prospective method of adoption in accordance with SFAS No. 148, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation — Transition and Disclosure."

NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

A. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The following describes the significant accounting policies of Fidelity National Title Group, Inc. (“FNT”) and its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Company”) which have been followed in preparing the accompanying Combined Financial Statements.

Description of Business

Fidelity National Financial, Inc. (FNF) expects to initiate a distribution of 17.5% of its interest in FNT which represents the title insurance segment of FNF.

FNT is currently a wholly-owned subsidiary of FNF. Once certain regulatory approvals are received all of the legal entities that are being combined for presentation in these historical financial statements will be contributed to FNT, which will be 100% owned by FNF. FNF will then distribute to its current shareholders 0.175 shares of FNT Class A common stock for each share of FNF common stock held on the record date and FNF will beneficially own 100% of the FNT Class B common stock representing 82.5% of the Company’s outstanding common stock. FNT Class B common stock will have ten votes per share while FNT Class A common stock will have one vote per share. Based on FNF having approximately 173 million outstanding shares, there will be approximately 30.3 million Class A common shares outstanding and 142.7 million Class B common shares outstanding. Following the distribution FNF will control 97.9% of the voting rights of FNT.

Prior to the distribution the Company intends to issue two $250 million intercompany notes payable to FNF, with terms that mirror FNF’s existing $250 million 7.30% public debentures due in August 2011 and $250 million 5.25% public debentures due in March 2013. Proceeds from the issuance of the 2011 public debentures were used by FNF to repay debt incurred in connection with the acquisition of the Company’s subsidiary, Chicago Title, and the proceeds from the 2013 public debentures were used for general corporate purposes. Following the issuance of the intercompany notes, the Company may make an exchange offer in which the Company would offer to exchange the outstanding FNF notes for notes the Company would issue having substantially the same terms and deliver the FNF notes received to FNF to reduce the debt under the intercompany notes. The Company also plans to enter into a credit agreement in the amount of between $200 million and $300 million. The Company currently anticipates that prior to the distribution it would borrow $150 million under this facility and pay it to FNF in satisfaction of a $150 million intercompany note issued by one of the Company’s subsidiaries to FNF in August 2005. FNF also currently owns other operating businesses, including Fidelity National Information Services, Inc. (“FIS”), which provides software and servicing solutions for the financial services and real estate industries, and Fidelity National Insurance Company (“FNIC”), which operates various specialty lines of insurance, including flood, homeowners, automobile and certain niche personal lines.

Fidelity National Title Group, Inc., through its principal subsidiaries, is the largest title insurance company in the United States. The Company’s title insurance underwriters — Fidelity National Title, Chicago Title, Ticor Title, Security Union Title and Alamo Title — together issue all of the Company’s title insurance policies in 49 states, the District of Columbia, Guam, Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and in Canada and Mexico. The Company operates its business through a single segment, title and escrow, and does not generate significant revenue from outside the United States. Although the Company earns title premiums on residential and commercial sale and refinance real estate transactions, the Company does not separately track its revenues from these various types of transactions.

Principles of Consolidation and Basis of Presentation

The accompanying Combined Financial Statements include those assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses directly attributable to the Company’s operations and allocations of certain FNF corporate assets, liabilities and expenses to the Company. These amounts have been allocated to the Company on a basis that is considered by management to reflect most fairly the utilization of services provided to or the benefit obtained by the Company. Management believes the methods used to allocate these amounts are reasonable. All intercompany profits, transactions and balances between the combined entities have been eliminated. The Company's investments in non-majority-owned partnerships and affiliates are accounted for on the equity method. The Company records minority interest liabilities related to minority shareholders interest in consolidated affiliates. All dollars presented herein are in thousands of dollars unless otherwise noted.

Unaudited proforma net earnings per share

Unaudited proforma net earnings per share is calculated using the number of outstanding shares of FNF as of June 30, 2005 because upon completion of the distribution the number of our outstanding shares of common stock will equal the number of FNF shares outstanding on the date of distribution.

Included as a reduction of expenses for all periods are payments from FNF and FIS relating to the provision by FNT of corporate services to FNF and to FIS and its subsidiaries. These corporate services include accounting, internal audit and treasury, payroll, human resources, tax, legal, purchasing, risk management, mergers & acquisitions and general management. For the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002, our expenses were reduced by $9.4 million, $9.2 million and $7.0 million, respectively, related to the provision of corporate services by the Company to FNF and its subsidiaries (other than FIS and its subsidiaries). For the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002, our expenses were reduced by $75.1 million, $39.5 million and $21.6 million, respectively, related to the provision of corporate services by us to FIS and its subsidiaries.

The Company does business with the lender outsourcing solutions segment of FIS, which includes title agency functions whereby an FIS subsidiary acts as the title agent in the issuance of title insurance policies by a title insurance underwriter owned by the Company and in connection with certain trustee sales guarantees, a form of title insurance issued as part of the foreclosure process. As a result, the Company's title insurance subsidiaries pay commissions on title insurance policies sold through FIS. For 2004, 2003 and 2002 these FIS operations generated $106.3 million, $284.9 million and $53.0 million of revenues for the Company, which the Company records as agency title premiums. The Company paid FIS commissions at the rate of 88% of premiums generated, equal to $93.6 million, $250.7 million and $46.7 million for 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

The Company also has historically leased equipment to a subsidiary of FIS. Revenue relating to these leases was $8.4 million, $7.3 million and $6.7 million in 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

The title plant assets of several of the Company's title insurance subsidiaries are managed or maintained by a subsidiary of FIS. The underlying title plant information and software continues to be owned by each of the Company's title insurance underwriters, but FIS manages and updates the information in return for either (i) a cash management fee or (ii) the right to sell that information to title insurers, including title insurance underwriters that the Company owns and other third party customers. In most cases, FIS is responsible for keeping the title plant assets current and fully functioning, for which the Company pays a fee to FIS based on the Company's use of, or access to, the title plant. For 2004, 2003 and 2002 the Company's payments to FIS under these arrangements were $28.9 million, $28.2 million and $24.3 million, respectively. In addition, since November 2004, each applicable title insurance underwriter in turn has received a royalty on sales of access to its title plant assets. For the year ended December 31, 2004, the revenues from these title plant royalties were $0.3 million. The Company has also entered into agreements with FIS that permit FIS and certain of its subsidiaries to access and use (but not to re-sell) the starters databases and back plant databases of the Company's title insurance subsidiaries. Starters databases are the Company's databases of previously issued title policies and back plant databases contain historical records relating to title that are not regularly updated. Each of the Company's applicable title insurance subsidiaries receives a fee for any access to or use of its starters and back plant databases by FIS. The Company also does business with additional entities within the information services segment of FIS that provide real estate information to the Company's operations. The Company recorded expenses of $9.9 million, $11.4 million and $3.7 million in 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

Included in the Company's expenses for 2004 and 2003 are amounts paid to a subsidiary of FIS for the provision by FIS to FNT of IT infrastructure support, data center management and related IT support services. For 2004 and 2003, the amounts included in the Company's expenses to FIS for these services were $56.6 million and $12.4 million, respectively. Prior to September 2003, the Company performed these services itself and provided them to FIS. During 2003 and 2002, FNT received payments from FIS of $5.4 million and $5.8 million relating to these services that offset the Company's other operating expenses. In addition, we incurred software expenses relating to an agreement with a subsidiary of FIS that amounted to expense of $5.8 million, $2.6 million, and $1.3 million in 2004, 2003, and 2002, respectively.

The Company believes the amounts earned by the Company or charged to the Company under each of the foregoing arrangements are fair and reasonable. Although the commission rate paid on the title insurance premiums written by the FIS title agencies was set without negotiation, the Company believes the commissions earned are consistent with the average rate that would be available to a third party title agent given the amount and the geographic distribution of the business produced and the low risk of loss profile of the business placed. In connection with the title plant management and maintenance services provided by FIS, the Company believe that the fees charged to the Company by FIS are at approximately the same rates that FIS and other similar vendors charge unaffiliated title insurers. The IT infrastructure support and data center management services provided to the Company by FIS is priced within the range of prices that FIS offers to its unaffiliated third party customers for the same types of services. However, the amounts the

Company earned or were charged under these arrangements were not negotiated at arm's-length, and may not represent the terms that the Company might have obtained from an unrelated third party.

Amounts Due from FNF are as follows:

	2004	As of December 31 (In millions)	2003
Notes receivable from FNF	$	22.8	$ 26.6
Taxes due from FNF		63.6	44.1

The Company has notes receivable from FNF relating to agreements between its title underwriters and FNF. These notes amounted to $22.8 million and $26.6 million at December 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively. As of December 31, 2004, these notes bear interest at 2.66%. The Company earned interest revenue of $1.0 million, $0.7 million and $0.5 million relating to these notes during 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively. All other intercompany payables and receivables relating to transactions between the Company and FNF and its other subsidiaries are considered contributed to capital in these historical financial statements. These transactions consist of receivables and payables arising through intercompany transactions in the normal course of business, such as those noted above.

The Company is included in FNF's consolidated tax returns and thus any income tax liability or receivable is due to/from FNF. As of December 31, 2004 and 2003, the Company had recorded a receivable from FNF relating to overpayment of taxes of $63.6 million and $44.1 million, respectively.

Our financial statements for 2004 and 2003 reflect allocations for a lease of office space to us for our corporate headquarters and business operations. In connection with the distribution, we will enter into a lease with FIS, pursuant to which FIS will lease office space to us for our corporate headquarters and business operations.

Investments

Fixed maturity securities are purchased to support the investment strategies of the Company, which are developed based on factors including rate of return, maturity, credit risk, tax considerations and regulatory requirements. Fixed maturity securities which may be sold prior to maturity to support the Company's investment strategies are carried at fair value and are classified as available for sale as of the balance sheet dates. Fair values for fixed maturity securities are principally a function of current interest rates and are based on quoted market prices. Included in fixed maturities are mortgage-backed securities, which are recorded at purchased cost. Discount or premium is recorded for the difference between the purchase price and the principal amount. The discount or premium is amortized using the interest method and is recorded as an adjustment to interest and investment income. The interest method results in the recognition of a constant rate of return on the investment equal to the prevailing rate at the time of purchase or at the time of subsequent adjustments of book value. Changes in prepayment assumptions are accounted for retrospectively.

Equity securities are considered to be available for sale and are carried at fair value as of the balance sheet dates. Fair values are based on quoted market prices.

Other long-term investments consist primarily of equity investments accounted for under the equity method of accounting.

Short-term investments, which consist primarily of securities purchased under agreements to resell, commercial paper and money market instruments, which have an original maturity of one year or less, are carried at amortized cost, which approximates fair value.

Realized gains and losses on the sale of investments are determined on the basis of the cost of the specific investments sold and are credited or charged to income on a trade date basis. Unrealized gains or losses on fixed maturity and equity securities which are classified as available for sale, net of applicable deferred income taxes (benefits), are excluded from earnings and credited or charged directly to a separate component of stockholders' equity. If any unrealized losses on fixed maturity or equity securities are deemed other-than-temporary, such unrealized losses are recognized as realized losses.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of reporting cash flows, highly liquid instruments purchased with original maturities of three months or less are considered cash equivalents. The carrying amounts reported in the Combined Balance Sheets for these instruments approximate their fair value.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The fair values of financial instruments presented in the applicable notes to the Company's Combined Financial Statements are estimates of the fair values at a specific point in time using available market information and appropriate valuation methodologies. These estimates are subjective in nature and involve uncertainties and significant judgment in the interpretation of current market data. Therefore, the fair values presented are not necessarily indicative of amounts the Company could realize or settle currently. The Company does not necessarily intend to dispose of or liquidate such instruments prior to maturity.

Trade and Notes Receivables

The carrying values reported in the Combined Balance Sheets for trade and notes receivables approximate their fair value.

Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of cost over fair value of identifiable net assets acquired and assumed in a business combination. SFAS No. 142, Goodwill and Intangible Assets ("SFAS No. 142") requires that intangible assets with estimable lives be amortized over their respective estimated useful lives to their estimated residual values and reviewed for impairment in accordance with SFAS No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets (SFAS No. 144). SFAS No. 142 also provides that goodwill and other intangible assets with indefinite useful lives should not be amortized, but shall be tested for impairment annually, or more frequently if circumstances indicate potential impairment, through a comparison of fair value to its carrying amount. The Company measures for impairment on an annual basis.

As required by SFAS No. 142, the Company completed annual goodwill impairment tests in the fourth quarter of each respective year using a September 30 measurement date, and has determined fair value were in excess of carrying value. Accordingly, no goodwill impairments have been recorded.

Other Intangible Assets

The Company has other intangible assets which consist primarily of customer relationships and trademarks which are generally recorded in connection with acquisitions at their fair value. Customer relationships are amortized over their estimated useful lives using an accelerated method which takes into consideration expected customer attrition rates over a ten-year period. Contractual relationships are generally amortized over their contractual life. Trademarks are considered intangible assets with indefinite lives and are reviewed for impairment at least annually in accordance with SFAS No. 142.

At December 31, 2004 and December 31, 2003, included in prepaid and other assets on the combined balance sheets were other intangible assets of $61.5 million, less accumulated amortization of $22.7 million, and $39.5 million, less accumulated amortization of $8.1 million, respectively. Amortization expense relating to other intangible assets was $13.0 million, $1.9 million and $0.7 million for the years ended 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

Capitalized Software

Capitalized software includes software acquired in business acquisitions, purchased software and internally developed capitalized software. Purchased software is recorded at cost and amortized using the straight-line method over a three-year period and software acquired in a business acquisition is recorded at its fair value upon acquisition and amortized using straight-line and accelerated methods over its estimated useful life, generally three to seven years. Capitalized computer software development costs are accounted for in accordance with SOP No. 98-1, Accounting for the Costs of Computer Software Developed or Obtained for Internal Use. At the beginning of application development, software development costs, which include salaries and related payroll costs and costs of independent contractors incurred during development, are capitalized. Research and development costs incurred prior to application development, of a product are expensed as incurred and are not significant. The cost of internally developed computer software is amortized on a product-by-product basis when ready for use for internally developed software and the date of purchase for purchased software. The capitalized cost of internally developed capitalized software is amortized on a straight-line basis over its estimated useful life, generally seven years.

At December 31, 2004 and December 31, 2003, included in prepaid and other assets on the combined balance sheets were capitalized software costs of $101.0 million, less accumulated amortization of $23.7 million, and $93.3 million, less accumulated amortization of $7.7 million, respectively. Amortization expense relating to computer software was $17.2 million, $14.4 million and $2.5 million for the years ended 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

Title Plants

Title plants are recorded at the cost incurred to construct or obtain and organize historical title information to the point it can be used to perform title searches. Costs incurred to maintain, update and operate title plants are expensed as incurred. Title plants are not amortized as they are considered to have an indefinite life if maintained. Sales of title plants are reported at the amount received net of the adjusted costs of the title plant sold. Sales of title plant copies are reported at the amount received. No cost is allocated to the sale of copies of title plants unless the carrying value of the title plant is diminished or impaired.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is computed primarily using the straight-line method based on the estimated useful lives of the related assets: thirty years for buildings and three to seven years for furniture, fixtures and computer equipment. Leasehold improvements are amortized on a straight-line basis over the lesser of the term of the applicable lease or the estimated useful lives of such assets.

Reserve for Claim Losses

The Company's reserve for claim losses includes known claims for title insurance as well as losses the Company expects to incur, net of recoupments. Each known claim is reserved based on a review by the Company as to the estimated amount of the claim and the costs required to settle the claim. Reserves for claims which are incurred but not reported are established at the time premium revenue is recognized based on historical loss experience and other factors, including industry trends, claim loss history, current legal environment, geographic considerations and type of policy written.

The reserve for claim losses also includes reserves for losses arising from the escrow, closing and disbursement functions due to fraud or operational error.

If a loss is related to a policy issued by an independent agent, the Company may proceed against the independent agent pursuant to the terms of the agency agreement. In any event, the Company may proceed against third parties who are responsible for any loss under the title insurance policy under rights of subrogation.

Secured Trust Deposits

In the state of Illinois, a trust company is permitted to commingle and invest customers' assets with those of the Company, pending completion of real estate transactions. Accordingly, the Company's Combined Balance Sheets reflects a secured trust deposit liability of $735.3 million and $671.9 million at December 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively, representing customers' assets held by us and corresponding assets including cash and investments pledged as security for those trust balances.

Income Taxes

The Company's operating results have been historically included in FNF's Consolidated U.S. Federal and State income tax returns. The provision for income taxes in the Combined Statements of Earnings is made at rates consistent with what the Company would have paid as a stand-alone taxable entity. The Company recognizes deferred tax assets and liabilities for temporary differences between the financial reporting basis and the tax basis of the Company's assets and liabilities and expected benefits of utilizing net operating loss and credit carryforwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The impact on deferred taxes of changes in tax rates and laws, if any, are applied to the years during which temporary differences are expected to be settled and reflected in the financial statements in the period enacted.

Reinsurance

In a limited number of situations, the Company limits its maximum loss exposure by reinsuring certain risks with other insurers. The Company also earns a small amount of additional income, which is reflected in the Company's direct premiums, by assuming reinsurance for certain risks of other insurers. The Company also cedes a portion of certain policy and other liabilities under agent fidelity, excess of loss and case-by-case reinsurance agreements. Reinsurance agreements provide that in the event of a loss (including costs, attorneys' fees and expenses) exceeding the retained amounts, the reinsurer is liable for the excess amount assumed. However, the ceding company remains primarily liable in the event the reinsurer does not meet its contractual obligations.

Revenue Recognition

Direct title insurance premiums and escrow and other title-related fees are recognized as revenue at the time of closing of the related transaction as the earnings process is then considered complete, whereas premium revenues from agency operations and agency commissions include an accrual based on estimates of the volume of transactions that have closed in a particular period for which premiums have not yet been reported to us. The accrual for agency premiums is necessary because of the lag between the closing of these transactions and the reporting of these policies to us by the agent.

Stock-Based Compensation Plans

Certain FNT employees are participants in FNF's stock-based compensation plans, which provide for the granting of incentive and nonqualified stock options, restricted stock and other stock-based incentive awards for officers and key employees. The amounts below are based on allocation of FNF's stock compensation expense relating to awards given to FNT employees during the historical period.

The Company accounts for stock-based compensation using the fair value recognition provisions of SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation (SFAS No. 123) effective as of the beginning of 2003. Under the fair value method of accounting, compensation cost is measured based on the fair value of the award at the grant date and recognized over the service period. The Company has elected to use the prospective method of transition, as permitted by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation — Transition and Disclosure (SFAS No. 148). Under this method, stock-based employee compensation cost is recognized from the beginning of 2003 as if the fair value method of accounting had been used to account for all employee awards granted, modified, or settled in years beginning after December 31, 2002. The Company has provided for stock compensation expense of $5.4 million and $4.9 million for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively, which is included in personnel costs in the Combined Statements of Earnings, as a result of the adoption of SFAS No. 148.

The following table illustrates the effect on net earnings for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002 as if the Company had applied the fair value recognition provisions of SFAS No. 123 to all awards held by FNT employees who are plan participants (in thousands):

Management Estimates

The preparation of these Combined Financial Statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the Combined Financial Statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

B. Acquisitions

The results of operations and financial position of the entities acquired during any year are included in the Combined Financial Statements from and after the date of acquisition. The Company generally employs an outside third party valuation firm to value the identifiable intangible and tangible assets and liabilities of each of its acquisitions. Based on this valuation any differences between the fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities and the purchase price paid is recorded as goodwill. Proforma disclosures for acquisitions is considered immaterial to the results of operations for 2004, 2003, and 2002.

During 2004, the Company incurred an impairment charge relating to two investments that it determined to be other than temporarily impaired, which resulted in a charge of $6.8 million. Unrealized losses relating to U.S. government, state and political subdivisions and corporate securities were caused by interest rate increases. Since the decline in fair value of these investments is attributable to changes in interest rates and not credit quality, and the Company has the intent and ability to hold these securities, the Company does not consider these investments other-than-temporarily impaired.

Management believes that based on its historical pattern of taxable income, the Company will produce sufficient income in the future to realize its net deferred tax assets or the realization of its deferred tax assets will coincide with the turnaround in its deferred tax liabilities. A valuation allowance will be established for any portion of a deferred tax asset that management believes may not be realized. Adjustments to the valuation allowance will be made if there is a change in management's assessment of the amount of deferred tax asset that is realizable.

As of January 1, 2005 the Internal Revenue Service has selected FNF to participate in a new pilot program (Compliance Audit Program or CAP) that is a real-time audit for 2005 and future years. The Internal Revenue Service is also currently examining FNF's tax returns for years 2003 and 2002. Management believes the ultimate resolution of this examination will not result in a material adverse effect to the Company's financial position or results of operations.

- (1) The Company assumed APTIC's outstanding reserve for claim losses in connection with its acquisition in 2004. The Company assumed ANFI's outstanding reserve for claim losses in connection with its acquisition in 2003.

The title loss provision in the current year reflects a higher estimated loss for the 2004 policy year offset in part by a favorable adjustment from previous policy years. Consistent with 2002, the favorable adjustment was attributable to lower than expected payment levels on previous issue years that included periods of increased resale activity as well as a high proportion of refinance business. As a result, title policies issued in previous years have been replaced by the more recently issued policies, therefore generally terminating much of the loss exposure on the previously issued policies. The unfavorable development during 2003 reflects the higher than expected payment levels on previously issued policies.

J. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company's title insurance underwriting subsidiaries are, in the ordinary course of business, subject to claims made under, and from time-to-time are named as defendants in legal proceedings relating to, policies of insurance they have issued or other services performed on behalf of insured policyholders and other customers. The Company believes that the reserves reflected in its Combined Financial Statements are adequate to pay losses and loss adjustment expenses which may result from such claims and proceedings; however, such estimates may be more or less than the amount ultimately paid when the claims are settled.

In the ordinary course of business, the Company is involved in various pending and threatened litigation matters related to its operations, some of which include claims for punitive or exemplary damages. The Company believes that no actions, other than those listed below, depart from customary litigation incidental to its business. As background to the disclosure below, please note the following:

- These matters raise difficult and complicated factual and legal issues and are subject to many uncertainties and complexities, including but not limited to the underlying facts of each matter, novel legal issues, variations between jurisdictions in which matters are being litigated, differences in applicable laws and judicial interpretations, the length of time before many of these matters might be resolved by settlement or through litigation and, in some cases, the timing of their resolutions relative to other similar cases brought against other companies, the fact that many of these matters are putative class actions in which a class has not been certified and in which the purported class may not be clearly defined, the fact that many of these matters involve multi-state class actions in which the applicable law for the claims at issue is in dispute and therefore unclear, and the current challenging legal environment faced by large corporations and insurance companies.
- In these matters, plaintiffs seek a variety of remedies including equitable relief in the form of injunctive and other remedies and monetary relief in the form of compensatory damages. In most cases, the monetary damages sought include punitive or treble damages. Often more specific information beyond the type of relief sought is not available because plaintiffs have not requested more specific relief in their court pleadings. In general, the dollar amount of damages sought is not specified. In those cases where plaintiffs have made a specific statement with regard to monetary damages, they often specify damages just below a jurisdictional limit regardless of the facts of the case. This represents the maximum they can seek without risking removal from state court to federal court. In our experience, monetary demands in plaintiffs' court pleadings bear little relation to the ultimate loss, if any, we may experience.
- For the reasons specified above, it is not possible to make meaningful estimates of the amount or range of loss that could result from these matters at this time. The Company reviews these matters on an on-going basis and follow the provisions of SFAS No. 5, "Accounting for Contingencies" when making accrual and disclosure decisions. When assessing reasonably possible and probable outcomes, the Company bases its decision on its assessment of the ultimate outcome following all appeals.

- In the opinion of the Company’s management, while some of these matters may be material to the Company’s operating results for any particular period if an unfavorable outcome results, none will have a material adverse effect on its overall financial condition.

Several class actions are pending in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Florida alleging improper premiums were charged for title insurance. The cases allege that the named defendant companies failed to provide notice of premium discounts to consumers refinancing their mortgages, and failed to give discounts in refinancing transactions in violation of the filed rates. The actions seek refunds of the premiums charged and punitive damages. Recently the court’s order denying class certification in one of the Ohio actions was reversed and the case was remanded to the trial court for further proceedings. The Company intends to vigorously defend the actions.

A class action in California alleges that the Company violated the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (“RESPA”) and state law by giving favorable discounts or rates to builders and developers for escrow fees and requiring purchasers to use Chicago Title Insurance Company for escrow services. The action seeks refunds of the premiums charged and additional damages. The Company intends to vigorously defend this action.

A shareholder derivative action was filed in Florida on February 11, 2005 alleging that the Company’s directors and certain executive officers breached their fiduciary and other duties, and exposed the Company to potential fines, penalties and suits in the future, by permitting so called contingent commissions to obtain business. The Company and the directors and executive officers named as defendants filed Motions to Dismiss the action on June 3, 2005. The plaintiff abandoned his original complaint and responded to the motions by filing an amended Complaint on July 13, 2005, and the Company, along with the directors and executive officers named as defendants, must respond to the amended Complaint by August 29, 2005. The amended complaint repeats the allegations of the original complaint and adds allegations about “captive reinsurance” programs, which the Company continues to believe were lawful. These “captive reinsurance” programs are the subject of investigations by several state departments of insurance and attorney generals. The Company intends to vigorously defend this action.

None of the cases described above includes a statement as to the dollar amount of damages demanded. Instead, each of the cases includes a demand in an amount to be proved at trial. Two of the cases, Dubin and Markowitz, state that the damages per class member are less than the jurisdictional limit for removal to federal court.

Several state departments of insurance and attorney generals are investigating so called “captive reinsurance” programs whereby some of the Company’s title insurance underwriters reinsured policies through reinsurance companies owned or affiliated with brokers, builders or bankers. Some investigating agencies claim these programs unlawfully compensated customers for the referral of title insurance business. Although the Company believed and continues to believe the programs were lawful, the programs have been discontinued. The Company recently negotiated a settlement with the California Department of Insurance with respect to that department’s inquiry into captive reinsurance programs in the title insurance industry. Under the terms of the settlement, the Company will refund approximately $7.7 million to those consumers whose California property was subject to a captive reinsurance arrangement and will also pay a penalty of $5.6 million. As part of the settlement, the Company denied any wrongdoing. The Company continues to cooperate with other investigating authorities, and no other actions have been filed by the authorities against the Company or its underwriters.

In conducting its operations, the Company routinely holds customers' assets in escrow, pending completion of real estate transactions. Certain of these amounts are maintained in segregated bank accounts and have not been included in the accompanying Combined Balance Sheets. The Company has a contingent liability relating to proper disposition of these balances for our customers, which amounted to $6.6 billion at December 31, 2004. As a result of holding these customers' assets in escrow, the Company has ongoing programs for realizing economic benefits during the year through favorable borrowing and vendor arrangements with various banks. There were no investments or loans outstanding as of December 31, 2004 and 2003 related to these arrangements.

The Company leases certain of its premises and equipment under leases which expire at various dates. Several of these agreements include escalation clauses and provide for purchases and renewal options for periods ranging from one to five years.

Future minimum operating lease payments are as follows (dollars in thousands):

2006	94,805
2007	75,338
2008	51,216
2009	28,933
Thereafter	19,699
Total future minimum operating lease payments	$ 379,371

Rent expense incurred under operating leases during the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002, was $140.8 million, $127.3 million and $105.7 million, respectively.

K. Regulation

Our insurance subsidiaries, including underwriters, underwritten title companies and independent agents, are subject to extensive regulation under applicable state laws. Each of the insurance underwriters is subject to a holding company act in its state of domicile which regulates, among other matters, the ability to pay dividends and investment policies. The laws of most states in which the Company transacts business establish supervisory agencies with broad administrative powers relating to: issuing and revoking licenses to transact business; regulating trade practices; licensing agents; approving policy forms; prescribing accounting principles and financial practices; establishing reserve and capital and surplus as regards policyholders ("capital and surplus") requirements; defining suitable investments and approving rate schedules.

Pursuant to statutory accounting requirements of the various states in which the Company's title insurance subsidiaries are licensed, they must defer a portion of premiums earned as an unearned premium reserve for the protection of policyholders and must maintain qualified assets in an amount equal to the statutory requirements. The level of unearned premium reserve required to be maintained at any time is determined by statutory formula based upon either the age, number of policies and dollar amount of policy liabilities underwritten or the age and dollar amount of statutory premiums written. As of December 31, 2004, the combined statutory unearned premium reserve required and reported for the Company's title insurance subsidiaries was $1,176.6 million.

The insurance commissioners of their respective states of domicile regulate the Company's title insurance subsidiaries. Regulatory examinations usually occur at three-year intervals, and certain of these examinations are currently ongoing.

The Company's insurance subsidiaries are subject to regulations that restrict their ability to pay dividends or make other distributions of cash or property to their immediate parent company without prior approval from the Department of Insurance of their respective states of domicile. As of December 31, 2004, $1,731.3 million of the Company's net assets are restricted from dividend payments without prior approval from the Departments of Insurance. During 2005, the Company's title insurance subsidiaries can pay or make distributions to the Company of approximately $207.5 million, without prior approval.

The combined statutory capital and surplus of the Company's title insurance subsidiaries was $887.2 million, $872.3 million and $612.6 million as of December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively. The combined statutory earnings of the Company's title insurance subsidiaries were $371.0 million, $477.9 million and $162.6 million for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

As a condition to continued authority to underwrite policies in the states in which the Company's title insurance subsidiaries conduct their business, the subsidiaries are required to pay certain fees and file information regarding their officers, directors and financial condition. In addition, the Company's escrow and trust business is subject to regulation by various state banking authorities.

Pursuant to statutory requirements of the various states in which the Company's title insurance subsidiaries are domiciled, they must maintain certain levels of minimum capital and surplus. Each of the Company's title underwriters has complied with the minimum statutory requirements as of December 31, 2004.

The Company's underwritten title companies are also subject to certain regulation by insurance regulatory or banking authorities, primarily relating to minimum net worth. Minimum net worth of $7.5 million, $2.5 million, $3.0 million and $0.4 million is required for Fidelity National Title Company, Fidelity National Title Company of California, Chicago Title Company and Ticor Title Company of California, respectively. The Company is in compliance with all of its respective minimum net worth requirements at December 31, 2004.

L. Employee Benefit Plans

Stock Purchase Plan

The Company's employees participate in the Fidelity National Financial, Inc. Employee Stock Purchase Plan (ESPP). Under the terms of the ESPP and subsequent amendments, eligible employees may voluntarily purchase, at current market prices, shares of FNF's common stock through payroll deductions. Pursuant to the ESPP, employees may contribute an amount between 3% and 15% of their base salary and certain commissions. Shares purchased are allocated to employees, based upon their contributions. The Company contributes varying matching amounts as specified in the ESPP. The Company recorded $8.6 million, $11.5 million, and $7.9 million, respectively, for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002 relating to the participation of the FNT employees in the ESPP.

401(k) Profit Savings Plan

The Company's employees are covered by a qualified 401(k) plan sponsored by FNF. Eligible employees may contribute up to 40% of their pretax annual compensation, up to the amount allowed pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code. FNF generally matches 50% of each dollar of employee contribution up to 6% of the employee's total eligible compensation. The Company recorded $20.1 million, $19.0 million, and $15.3 million, respectively, for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002 relating to the participation of FNT employees in the 401(k) plan.

Stock Option Plans

Certain Company employees are participants in FNF's stock-based compensation plans, which provide for the granting of incentive and nonqualified stock options, restricted stock and other stock-based incentive awards for officers and key employees. Grants of incentive and nonqualified stock options under these plans have generally provided that options shall vest equally over three years and generally expire ten years after their original date of grant. All options granted under these plans had an exercise price equal to the market value of the underlying common stock on the date of grant. However, certain of these plans allow for the option exercise price for each share granted pursuant to a nonqualified stock option to be less than the fair market value of the common stock on the date of grant to reflect the application of the optionee's deferred bonus, if applicable.

In 2003, FNF issued to certain Company employees rights to purchase shares of restricted common stock (Restricted Shares). A portion of the Restricted Shares vest over a five-year period and a portion of the Restricted Shares vest over a four-year period, of which one-fifth vested immediately on the date of grant. The Company recorded stock-based compensation expense of $2.6 million and $1.6 million in connection with the issuance of Restricted Shares to FNT employees for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 which was based on an allocation of compensation expense to the Company for personnel who provided services to the Company.

The Company follows the fair value recognition provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation (SFAS No. 123), for stock-based employee compensation. Under the fair value method of accounting, compensation cost is measured based on the fair value of the award at the grant date and recognized over the service period. The Company has elected to use the prospective method of transition, as permitted by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation — Transition and Disclosure (SFAS No. 148). Under this method, stock-based employee compensation cost is recognized from the beginning of 2003 as if the fair value method of accounting had been used to account for all employee awards granted, modified, or settled in years beginning after December 31, 2002. The Company was allocated stock-based compensation expense of $5.4 million and $4.9 million for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 which is included in personnel costs in the Combined Statements of Earnings, as a result of the adoption of SFAS No. 123.

Pro forma information regarding net earnings and earnings per share is required by SFAS No. 123, and has been determined as if the Company had accounted for all of its employee stock options under the fair value method of that statement. The fair value for these FNF options was estimated at the date of grant using a Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following weighted average assumptions. The risk free interest rates used in the calculation are the rates that correspond to the weighted average expected life of an option. The risk free interest rate used for options granted during the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002 was 3.2%, 2.0% and 2.0%, respectively. A volatility factor for the expected market price of FNF common stock of 34%, 43% and 44% was used for options granted for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively. The expected dividend yield used for 2004, 2003, and 2002 was 2.5%, 1.4% and 1.3%, respectively. A weighted average expected life of 3.8 years, 3.5 years and 3.25 years was used for 2004, 2003 and 2002 respectively.

Other disclosures required by SFAS No. 123 have not been provided because the SFAS No. 123 pro forma expense disclosures were prepared based upon an allocation methodology that allocates to the Company expenses associated with portions of individual awards, rather than entire awards.

Pension Plans

In connection with the Chicago Title merger, the Company assumed Chicago Title's noncontributory defined benefit pension plan (the "Pension Plan").

The Pension Plan covered certain Chicago Title employees. Plan benefits are based on years of service and the employee's average monthly compensation in the highest 60 consecutive calendar months during the 120 months ending at retirement or termination. Effective December 31, 2000, the Pension Plan was frozen and there will be no future credit given for years of service or changes in salary.

The following table sets forth the funded status of the Pension Plan as of December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002:

The accumulated benefit obligation (ABO) is the same as the projected benefit obligation (PBO) due to the pension plan being frozen as of December 31, 2000.

Under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 87, "Employers' Accounting for Pensions," ("SFAS No. 87") the measurement date shall be as of the date of the financial statements, or if used consistently from year to year, as of a date not more than three months prior to that date. The Company's measurement date is December 31.

The net pension liability included in accounts payable and accrued liabilities as of December 31, 2004 and 2003 is $63.0 million and $54.2 million, respectively. The net pension liability at December 31, 2004 and 2003 includes the additional minimum pension liability adjustment of $18.7 million and $16.4 million, respectively, which was recorded as a net of tax charge of $11.8 million and $10.0 million to accumulated other comprehensive earnings (loss) in 2004 and 2003 in accordance with SFAS No. 87.

(a) Rate of compensation increase is not applicable due to the pension being frozen at December 31, 2000.

Pension Plan Assets

The expected long term rate of return on plan assets was 8.5% in 2004 and 2003, derived using the plan's asset mix, historical returns by asset category, expectations for future capital market performance, and the fund's past experience. Both the plan's investment policy and the expected long-term rate of return assumption are reviewed periodically. The Company's strategy is to focus on a one to three-year investment horizon, maintaining equity securities at 50-55% of total assets while maintaining an average duration in debt securities, extending that duration as interest rates rise and maintaining cash funds at appropriate levels relating to the current economic environment.

Pension Plan Cash Flows

Plan Contributions

The Company's funding policy is to contribute annually at least the minimum required contribution under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA). Contributions are intended to provide not only for benefits accrued to date, but also for those expected to be earned in the future. In 2004 and 2003, the Company made contributions of $18.0 million and $12.2 million, respectively. Due to regulatory requirements, the Company is not required to make a contribution to the pension plan in 2005. The Company has not yet determined if a voluntary contribution to the plan will be made in 2005.

Postretirement Plans

The Company assumed certain health care and life insurance benefits for retired Chicago Title employees in connection with the Chicago Title merger. Beginning on January 1, 2001, these benefits were offered to all employees who meet specific eligibility requirements. The costs of these benefit plans are accrued during the periods the employees render service.

The Company is both self-insured and fully insured for its postretirement health care and life insurance benefit plans, and the plans are not funded. The health care plans provide for insurance benefits after retirement and are generally contributory, with contributions adjusted annually. Postretirement life insurance benefits are contributory, with coverage amounts declining with increases in a retiree's age.

The accrued cost of the accumulated postretirement benefit obligation included in the Company's Combined Balance Sheets at December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002 is as follows:

In December 2003, the Medicare Prescription Drug Improvement and Modernization Act of 2003 ("the Act") became law in the United States. The Act introduces a prescription drug benefit under Medicare as well as a federal subsidy to sponsors of retiree health care plans that provide a benefit that is at least actuarially equivalent to the Medicare benefit. The Company has elected to recognize the effects of the Act in measures of the benefit obligation and cost.

Under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 106, "Accounting for Postretirement Benefits Other Than Pensions," the measurement date shall be as of the date of the financial statements, or if used consistently from year to year, as of a date not more than three months prior to that date. The Company's measurement date is December 31.

N. Financial Instruments with Off-Balance Sheet Risk and Concentration of Risk

In the normal course of business the Company and certain of its subsidiaries enter into off-balance sheet credit risk associated with certain aspects of its title insurance business and other activities.

The Company generates a significant amount of title insurance premiums in California, Texas and Florida. In 2004, 2003 and 2002, California, Texas and Florida accounted for 22.4%, 10.9% and 10.3%, 25.2%, 11.2% and 6.6% and 25.2%, 12.1% and 6.1% of total title premiums, respectively.

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of cash equivalents, short-term investments, lease receivables, residual interests in securitizations and trade receivables.

The Company places its cash equivalents and short-term investments with high credit quality financial institutions and, by policy, limits the amount of credit exposure with any one financial institution. Investments in commercial paper of industrial firms and financial institutions are rated investment grade by nationally recognized rating agencies.

Concentrations of credit risk with respect to trade receivables are limited because a large number of geographically diverse customers make up the Company's customer base, thus spreading the trade receivables credit risk. The Company controls credit risk through monitoring procedures.

O. Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In December 2004, the FASB issued FASB Statement No. 123R ("SFAS No. 123R"), "Share-Based Payment", which requires that compensation cost relating to share-based payments be recognized in the Company's financial statements. During 2003, the Company adopted the fair value recognition provision of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" ("SFAS No. 123"), for stock-based employee compensation, effective as of the beginning of 2003. The Company had elected to use the prospective method of transition, as permitted by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 148, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation — Transition and Disclosure" ("SFAS No. 148"). Under this method, stock-based employee compensation cost is recognized from the beginning of 2003 as if the fair value method of accounting had been used to account for all employee awards granted, modified, or settled in years beginning after December 31, 2002. SFAS No. 123R does not allow for the prospective method, but requires the recording of expense relating to the vesting of all unvested options beginning in the first quarter of 2006. Since the Company adopted SFAS No. 123 in 2003, the impact of recording additional expense in 2006 under SFAS No. 123R relating to options granted prior to January 1, 2003 will not be significant. SFAS No. 123R will be effective for the Company January 1, 2006.

NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

A. Basis of Financial Statements

The unaudited condensed combined financial information included in this report includes the accounts of Fidelity National Title Group, Inc. and subsidiaries has been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. All adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. This report should be read in conjunction with the Company's combined financial statements included elsewhere in this document.

Description of Business

Fidelity National Financial, Inc. (FNF) expects to initiate a distribution of 17.5% of its interest in FNT to existing shareholders in the third quarter of 2005. FNT represents the title insurance segment of FNF.

FNT is currently a wholly-owned subsidiary of FNF. Once certain regulatory approvals are received all of the legal entities that are being combined for presentation in these historical financial statements will be contributed to FNT, which will be 100% owned by FNF. FNF will then distribute to its current shareholders 0.175 shares of FNT Class A common stock for each share of FNF common stock held on the record date and FNF will beneficially own 100% of the FNT Class B common stock representing 82.5% of the Company's outstanding common stock. FNT Class B common stock will have ten votes per share while FNT Class A common stock will have one vote per share. Based on FNF having approximately 173 million outstanding shares, there will be approximately 30.3 million Class A common shares outstanding and 142.7 million Class B common shares outstanding. Following the distribution FNF will control 97% of the voting rights of FNT.

Prior to the distribution the Company intends to issue two $250 million intercompany notes payable to FNF, with terms that mirror FNF's existing $250 million 7.30% public debentures due in August 2011 and $250 million 5.25% public debentures due in March 2013. Proceeds from the issuance of the 2011 public debentures were used by FNF to repay debt incurred in connection with the acquisition of the Company's subsidiary, Chicago Title, and the proceeds from the 2013 public debentures were used for general corporate purposes. Following the issuance of the intercompany notes, the Company may make an exchange offer in which the Company would offer to exchange the outstanding FNF notes for notes the Company would issue having substantially the same terms and deliver the FNF notes received to FNF to reduce the debt under the intercompany notes. The Company also plans to enter into a credit agreement in the amount of between $200 million and $300 million. The Company currently anticipates that at the time or shortly after the distribution it will borrow $150 million under this facility and pay it to FNF in satisfaction of a $150 million intercompany note issued by one of the Company's subsidiaries to FNF in August 2005. FNF also currently owns other operating businesses, including Fidelity National Information Services, Inc. ("FIS"), which provides software and servicing solutions for the financial services and real estate industries, and Fidelity National Insurance Company ("FNIC"), which operates various specialty lines of insurance, including flood, homeowners, automobile and certain niche personal lines.

Fidelity National Title Group, Inc., through its principal subsidiaries, is the largest title insurance company in the United States. The Company's title insurance underwriters — Fidelity National Title, Chicago Title, Ticor Title, Security Union Title and Alamo Title — together issue all of the Company's title insurance policies in 49 states, the District of Columbia, Guam, Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and in Canada and Mexico. The Company operates its business through a single segment, title and escrow, and does not generate significant revenue outside the United States. Although the Company earns title premiums on residential and commercial sale and refinance real estate transactions, the Company does not separately track its revenues from these various types of transactions.

Principles of Consolidation and Basis of Presentation

The accompanying Combined Financial Statements include those assets, liabilities, revenues, and expenses directly attributable to the Company's operations and allocations of certain FNF corporate assets, liabilities and expenses to the Company. These amounts have been allocated to the Company on a basis that is considered by management to reflect most fairly the utilization of services provided to or the benefit obtained by the Company. Management believes the methods used to allocate these amounts are reasonable. All intercompany profits, transactions and balances between the combined entities have been eliminated. The Company's investments in non-majority-owned partnerships and affiliates are accounted for on the equity method. All dollars presented herein are in thousands unless otherwise noted.

Unaudited Proforma Net Earnings Per Share

Unaudited proforma net earnings per share is calculated using the number of outstanding shares of FNF as of June 30, 2005 because upon completion of the distribution the number of our outstanding shares of common stock will equal the number of FNF shares outstanding on the date of distribution.

Transactions with Related Parties

The Company's historical financial statements reflect transactions with other businesses and operations of FNF not being transferred to it, including those being conducted by another FNF subsidiary, Fidelity National Information Services, Inc. ("FIS").

A detail of related party items included in revenues is as follows:

	2005	2004
	(In millions)
Agency title premiums earned	$ 42.8	$ 74.5
Rental income earned	5.0	2.9
Interest revenue	0.4	0.2
Total revenue	$ 48.2	$ 77.6

A detail of related party items included in operating expenses is as follows:

Agency title commissions	$ 37.7	$ 65.6
Data processing costs	24.7	29.1
Corporate services allocated	(36.1)	(37.1)
Title insurance information expense	11.2	15.3

Rental expense	1.7	1.1
Total expenses	$ 51.3	$ 81.6
Total pretax impact of related party activity	$ (3.1)	$ (4.0)

Included as a reduction of expenses for all periods are payments from FNF and FIS relating to the provision by FNT of corporate services to FNF and to FIS and its subsidiaries. These corporate services include accounting, internal audit and treasury, payroll, human resources, tax, legal, purchasing, risk management, mergers and acquisitions and general management. For the six months ended June 30, 2005 and 2004, the Company's expenses were reduced by $2.3 million and $4.6 million, respectively related to the provision of these corporate services by the Company to FNF and its subsidiaries (other than FIS and its subsidiaries). For the six months ended June 30, 2005 and 2004, the Company's expenses were reduced by $33.8 million and $32.5 million related to the provision of these corporate services by the Company to FIS and its subsidiaries.

The Company does business with the lender outsourcing solutions segment of FIS. This segment's services include title agency functions whereby an FIS subsidiary acts as the title agent in the issuance of title insurance policies by a title insurance underwriter owned by the Company and in connection with certain trustee sales guarantees, a form of title insurance issued as part of the foreclosure process. As a result, the Company's title insurance subsidiaries pay commissions on title insurance policies sold through FIS. For the six months ended June 30, 2005 and 2004, these FIS operations generated $42.8 million and $74.5 million of revenues for the Company, which the Company records as agency title premiums. The Company pays FIS commissions at the rate of 88% of premiums generated, equal to $37.7 million and $65.6 million for the six months ended June 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

The Company also has historically leased equipment to a subsidiary of FIS. Revenue relating to these leases was $5.0 million and $2.9 million for the six months ended June 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

The title plant assets of several of the Company's title insurance subsidiaries are managed or maintained by a subsidiary of FIS. The underlying title plant information and software continues to be owned by each of the Company's title insurance underwriters, but FIS manages and updates the information in return for either (i) a cash management fee or (ii) the right to sell that information to title insurers, including title insurance underwriters that the Company owns and other third party customers. In most cases, FIS is responsible for keeping the title plant assets current and fully functioning, for which the Company pays a fee to FIS based on the Company's use of, or access to, the title plant. For the six months ended June 30, 2005 and 2004, the Company's payments to FIS under these arrangements were $12.6 million and $15.3 million, respectively. In addition, since November 2004, each applicable title insurance underwriter in turn receives a royalty on sales of access to its title plant assets. For the six months ended June 30, 2005, the revenues from these title plant royalties were $1.4 million. In the first six months of 2004, there was no royalty agreement in place. In addition, the Company has entered into agreements with FIS that permit FIS and certain of its subsidiaries to access and use (but not to re-sell) the starters databases and back plant databases of the Company's title insurance subsidiaries. Starters databases are the Company's databases of previously issued title policies and back plant databases contain historical records relating to title that are not regularly updated. Each of the Company's applicable title insurance subsidiaries receives a fee for any access or use of its starters and back plant databases by FIS. The Company also does business with additional entities within the information services segment of FIS that provide real estate information to the Company's operations. The Company recorded expenses of $5.9 million and $4.6 million for the six months periods ended June 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively. The Company also recorded expense of $2.6 million relating to a cost sharing agreement with a subsidiary of FIS in the six months ended June 30, 2005.

Included in the Company's expenses for the six months ended June 30, 2005 and 2004 are amounts paid to a subsidiary of FIS for the provision by FIS of IT infrastructure support, data center management and related IT support services. For the six months ended June 30, 2005 and 2004, the amounts included in the Company's expenses to FIS for these services were $24.7 million and $29.1 million, respectively. In addition, the Company incurred software expenses relating to an agreement with a subsidiary of FIS that amounted to expense of $3.6 million and $3.0 million for the six months ended June 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

The Company believes the amounts earned by the Company or charged to the Company under each of the foregoing arrangements are fair and reasonable. Although the commission rate paid on the title insurance premiums written by the FIS title agencies was set without negotiation, the Company believes the commissions earned are consistent with the average rate that would be available to a third party title agent given the amount and the geographic distribution of the business produced and the low risk of loss profile of the business placed. In connection with the title plant management and maintenance services provided by FIS, the Company believes that the fees charged to the Company by FIS are at approximately the same rates that FIS and other similar vendors charge unaffiliated title insurers. The IT infrastructure support and data center management services provided to the Company by FIS is priced within the range of prices that FIS offers to its unaffiliated third party customers for the same types of services. However, the amounts the Company earned or were charged under these arrangements were not negotiated at arm's-length, and may not represent the terms that the Company might have obtained from an unrelated third party.

Notes receivable and due from FNF to the Company were as follows:

	June 30, 2005	(In millions)	December 31, 2004
Notes receivable from FNF	$ 22.8		$ 22.8
(Due to) Due from FNF	$ (8.9)		$ 57.4

The Company has notes receivable from FNF relating to agreements between its title underwriters and FNF. These notes amounted to $22.8 million at June 30, 2005 and December 31, 2004. As of June 30, 2005, these notes bear interest at a rate of 2.66%. The Company earned interest revenue of $0.4 million and $0.2 million relating to these notes during the six months ended March 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

The Company is included in FNF's consolidated tax returns and thus any income tax liability or receivable is due to/from FNF. As of June 30, 2005 and December 31, 2004, the Company had recorded a payable of $8.9 million to FNF and a receivable from FNF relating to overpayment of taxes of $57.4 million, respectively.

The Company will also enter into a services agreement with a subsidiary of FIS, pursuant to which FIS will continue to provide IT infrastructure support and data center management services to the Company. The pricing for these services is consistent with that charged in 2004. When FIS ceases to provide these services to the Company, the Company's costs of performing these services ourselves or of procuring them from third parties may increase.

Our financial statements for 2005 and 2004 reflect allocations for a lease of office space to the Company for its corporate headquarters and business operations. In connection with the distribution, the Company will enter into a lease with FIS, pursuant to which FIS will lease office space to the Company for its corporate headquarters and business operations.

B. Acquisitions

The results of operations and financial position of the entities acquired during any year are included in the Combined Financial Statements from and after the date of acquisition. The Company generally employs an outside third party valuation firm to value the identifiable intangible and tangible assets and liabilities of each of its acquisitions. Based on this valuation any differences between the fair value of the indentifiable assets and liabilities and the purchase price paid is recorded as goodwill.

Service Link LLC

On July 29, 2005, the Company acquired Service Link, L.P. ("Service Link"), a national provider of centralized mortgage and residential real estate title and closing services to major financial institutions and institutional lenders. The acquisition price was approximately $110 million in cash.

American Pioneer Title Insurance Company

On March 22, 2004, FNT acquired American Pioneer Title Insurance Company (“APTIC”) for $115.2 million in cash, subject to certain equity adjustments. APTIC is a 45-state licensed title insurance underwriter with significant agency operations and computerized title plant assets in the state of Florida. APTIC operates under the Company’s Ticor Title brand. The Company recorded approximately $34.5 million in goodwill and approximately $10.6 in other intangible assets relating to this transaction.

C. Investments

During the second quarter of 2005, the Company began lending fixed maturity and equity securities to financial institutions in short-term security lending transactions. The Company’s security lending policy requires that the cash received as collateral be 102% or more of the fair value of the loaned securities. These short-term security lending arrangements increase investment income with minimal risk. At June 30, 2005, the Company had security loans outstanding with a fair value of $142.8 million included in accounts payable and accrued liabilities and the Company held cash in the amount of $147.5 million as collateral for the loaned securities.

Gross unrealized losses on investment securities and the fair value of the related securities, aggregated by investment category and length of time that individual securities have been in a continuous unrealized loss position at June 30, 2005 were as follows:

	Less than 12 Months		12 Months or Longer		Total
	Fair Value	Unrealized Losses	Fair Value	Unrealized Losses	Fair Value	Unrealized Losses
U.S. government and agencies	$ 438,772	$ (2,934)	$ 385,567	$ (2,217)	$ 824,339	$ (5,151)
States and political subdivisions	179,361	(928)	219,577	(2,938)	398,938	(3,866)
Corporate securities	127,368	(1,306)	263,184	(4,403)	390,552	(5,709)
Equity securities	60,305	(4,949)	54,791	(6,345)	115,096	(11,294)
Total temporarily impaired securities	$ 805,806	$ (10,117)	$ 923,119	$ (15,903)	$ 1,728,925	$ (26,020)

A substantial portion of the Company’s unrealized losses relate to its holdings of equity securities. The unrealized losses relating to these securities were caused by market changes that the Company considers to be temporary. Unrealized losses relating to U.S. government, state and political subdivision holdings were primarily caused by interest rate increases. Since the decline in fair value of these investments is attributable to changes in interest rates and not credit quality, and the Company has the intent and ability to hold these securities, the Company does not consider these investments other-than-temporarily impaired.

D. Stock-Based Compensation Plans

Certain FNT employees are participants in FNF’s stock-based compensation plans, which provide for the granting of incentive and nonqualified stock options, restricted stock and other stock-based incentive awards for officers and key employees. The amounts below are based on allocation of FNF’s stock compensation expense relating to awards given to FNT employees during the historical period.

The Company accounts for stock-based compensation using the fair value recognition provisions of SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation (SFAS No. 123) effective as of the beginning of 2003. Under the fair value method of accounting, compensation cost is measured based on the fair value of the award at the grant date and recognized over the service period. The Company has elected to use the prospective method of transition, as permitted by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation — Transition and Disclosure (SFAS No. 148). Under this method, stock-based employee compensation cost is recognized from the beginning of 2003 as if the fair value method of accounting had been used to account for all employee awards granted, modified, or settled in years beginning after December 31, 2002.

The following table illustrates the effect on net income and earnings per share if the Company had applied the fair value recognition provisions of SFAS No. 123 to all outstanding and unvested awards in each period:

	Six Months Ended June 30,

Pro forma net earnings	$ 244,979	$ 275,184

E. Pension and Postretirement Benefits

The following details the Company's periodic (income) expense for pension and postretirement benefits:

Total net periodic (income) expense	$ 5,760	$ 4,262	$ 174	$ (358)

There have been no material changes to the Company's projected benefit payments under these plans since December 31, 2004.

F. Legal Proceedings

In the ordinary course of business, the Company is involved in various pending and threatened litigation matters related to its operations, some of which include claims for punitive or exemplary damages. The Company believes that no actions, other than those listed below, depart from customary litigation incidental to its business. As background to the disclosure below, please note the following:

- These matters raise difficult and complicated factual and legal issues and are subject to many uncertainties and complexities, including but not limited to the underlying facts of each matter, novel legal issues, variations between jurisdictions in which matters are being litigated, differences in applicable laws and judicial interpretations, the length of time before many of these matters

might be resolved by settlement or through litigation and, in some cases, the timing of their resolutions relative to other similar cases brought against other companies, the fact that many of these matters are putative class actions in which a class has not been certified and in which the purported class may not be clearly defined, the fact that many of these matters involve multi-state class actions in which the applicable law for the claims at issue is in dispute and therefore unclear, and the current challenging legal environment faced by large corporations and insurance companies.

- In these matters, plaintiffs seek a variety of remedies including equitable relief in the form of injunctive and other remedies and monetary relief in the form of compensatory damages. In most cases, the monetary damages sought include punitive or treble damages. Often more specific information beyond the type of relief sought is not available because plaintiffs have not requested more specific relief in their court pleadings. In general, the dollar amount of damages sought is not specified. In those cases where plaintiffs have made a specific statement with regard to monetary damages, they often specify damages just below a jurisdictional limit regardless of the facts of the case. This represents the maximum they can seek without risking removal from state court to federal court. In our experience, monetary demands in plaintiffs' court pleadings bear little relation to the ultimate loss, if any, we may experience.
- For the reasons specified above, it is not possible to make meaningful estimates of the amount or range of loss that could result from these matters at this time. The Company reviews these matters on an on-going basis and follows the provisions of SFAS No. 5, "Accounting for Contingencies" when making accrual and disclosure decisions. When assessing reasonably possible and probable outcomes, the Company bases its decision on its assessment of the ultimate outcome following all appeals.
- In the opinion of the Company's management, while some of these matters may be material to the Company's operating results for any particular period if an unfavorable outcome results, none will have a material adverse effect on its overall financial condition.

Several class actions are pending in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Florida alleging improper premiums were charged for title insurance. The cases allege that the named defendant companies failed to provide notice of premium discounts to consumers refinancing their mortgages, and failed to give discounts in refinancing transactions in violation of the filed rates. The actions seek refunds of the premiums charged and punitive damages. Recently the court's order denying class certification in one of the Ohio actions was reversed and the case was remanded to the trial court for further proceedings. The Company intends to vigorously defend the actions.

A class action in California alleges that the Company violated the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act ("RESPA") and state law by giving favorable discounts or rates to builders and developers for escrow fees and requiring purchasers to use Chicago Title Insurance Company for escrow services. The action seeks refunds of the premiums charged and additional damages. The Company intends to vigorously defend this action.

A shareholder derivative action was filed in Florida on February 11, 2005 alleging that the Company's directors and certain executive officers breached their fiduciary and other duties, and exposed the Company to potential fines, penalties and suits in the future, by permitting so called contingent commissions to obtain business. The Company and the directors and executive officers named as defendants filed Motions to Dismiss the action on June 3, 2005. The plaintiff abandoned his original complaint and responded to the motions by filing an amended Complaint on July 13, 2005, and the Company, along with the directors and executive officers named as defendants, must respond to the amended Complaint by August 29, 2005. The amended complaint repeats the allegations of the original complaint and adds allegations about "captive reinsurance" programs, which the Company continues to believe were lawful.

These “captive reinsurance” programs are the subject of investigations by several state departments of insurance and attorney generals. The Company intends to vigorously defend this action.

None of the cases described above includes a statement as to the dollar amount of damages demanded. Instead, each of the cases includes a demand for damages in an amount to be proved at trial. Two of the cases, Dubin and Markowitz, state that the damages per class member are less than the jurisdictional limit for removal to federal court.

Several state departments of insurance and attorney generals are investigating so called “captive reinsurance” programs whereby some of the Company’s title insurance underwriters reinsured policies through reinsurance companies owned or affiliated with brokers, builders or bankers. Some investigating agencies claim these programs unlawfully compensated customers for the referral of title insurance business. Although the Company believed and continues to believe the programs were lawful, the programs have been discontinued. The Company recently negotiated a settlement with the California Department of Insurance with respect to that department’s inquiry into captive reinsurance programs in the title insurance industry. Under the terms of the settlement, the Company will refund approximately $7.7 million to those consumers whose California property was subject to a captive reinsurance arrangement and will also pay a penalty of $5.6 million. As part of the settlement, the Company denied any wrongdoing. The Company continues to cooperate with other investigating authorities, and no other actions have been filed by the authorities against the Company or its underwriters.

(c) To the extent that FNF is a party to any existing Contracts that provide that certain actions or inactions of the FNF Group (which for purposes of such Contract includes any member of the FNT Group) may result in FNF being in breach of or in default under such Contracts and FNF has advised FNT of the existence, and has furnished FNT with copies, of such Contracts (or the relevant portions thereof), FNT will not take or fail to take, as applicable, and FNT will cause the other members of the FNT Group not to take or fail to take, as applicable, any actions that reasonably could result in FNF being in breach of or in default under any such Contract. The parties acknowledge and agree that from time to time after the date hereof FNF may in good faith (and not solely with the intention of imposing restrictions on FNT pursuant to this covenant) enter into additional Contracts or amendments to existing Contracts that provide that certain actions or inactions of the FNF Group (including, for purposes of this Section 5.1(c), members of the FNT Group) may result in FNF being in breach of or in default under such Contracts. In such event, provided FNF has notified FNT of such additional Contracts or amendments to existing Contracts, FNT will not thereafter take or fail to take, as applicable, and FNT will cause the other members of the FNT Group not to take or fail to take, as applicable, any actions that reasonably could result in FNF being in breach of or in default under any such additional Contracts or amendments to existing Contracts. FNF acknowledges and agrees that FNT will not be deemed in breach of this Section 5.1(c) to the extent that, prior to being notified by FNF of an additional Contract or an amendment to an existing Contract pursuant to this Section 5.1(c), a FNT Group member already has taken or failed to take one or more actions that would otherwise constitute a breach of this Section 5.1(c) had such action(s) or inaction(s) occurred after such notification, provided that FNT does not, after notification by FNF, take any further action or fail to take any action that contributes further to such breach or default. FNT agrees that any information provided to it pursuant to this Section 5.1(c) will constitute information that is subject to FNT's obligations under Article 6.

(d) FNT shall not, without FNF's prior written consent, enter into any agreement or arrangement that binds or purports to bind, directly or indirectly, any member of the FNF Group.

Section 5.2. Stock Issuances. FNT will not, without the prior written consent of FNF, issue any shares of stock of any type or other ownership interests or securities, or any rights, warrants or options to acquire shares of stock of any type or other ownership interests or securities (including, without limitation, securities convertible into or exchangeable for shares of capital stock of any type or other ownership interests or securities), if after giving effect to such issuances and considering all of the shares of stock of any type or other ownership interests or securities acquirable pursuant to such rights, warrants and options to be outstanding on the date of such issuance (whether or not then exercisable), FNT and FNF would not be affiliated within the meaning of Section 1504(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (the "Code"), or any successor provision, or FNF would not control FNT within the meaning of Section 368(c) of the Code or any successor provision.

ARTICLE 6. ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Section 6.1. Restrictions on Disclosure of Information.

(a) Generally. Without limiting any rights or obligations under any other existing or future agreement between the parties and/or any other members of their respective Groups relating to confidentiality, until the date that is three years after the end of the Coordinated Reporting Period each party will, and each party will cause its respective Group members and its Representatives to, hold in confidence, with at least the same degree of care that applies to FNF's confidential and proprietary information pursuant to confidentiality policies in effect as of the Distribution Date, all confidential and proprietary information concerning the other Group that is either in its possession as of the Distribution Date or furnished by the other Group or its respective Representatives at any time pursuant to this Agreement, any Ancillary Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each party, its respective Group members and its Representatives may disclose such information to the extent that such party can demonstrate that such information is or was (i) in the public domain other than by the breach of this Agreement or by breach of any other agreement between or among the parties and/or any of their respective Group members relating to confidentiality, or (ii) lawfully acquired from a third Person on a non-confidential basis or independently developed by, or on behalf of, such party by Persons who do not have access to any such information. Each party will maintain, and will cause its respective Group members and Representatives to maintain, policies and procedures, and develop such further policies and procedures as will from time to time become necessary or appropriate, to ensure compliance with this Section 6.1.

(b) Disclosure of Third Person Information. Each party acknowledges that it and other members of its Group may have in its or their possession confidential or proprietary information of third Persons that was received under a confidentiality or non-disclosure agreement between such third Person and the other party. Each party will, and will cause its respective Group members and its Representatives to, hold in strict confidence the confidential and proprietary information of third Persons to which any member of such party's Group has access, in accordance with the terms of any agreements entered into between such third Person and the other party or a member of the other party's Group.

Section 6.2. Legally Required Disclosure of Information.

If either party or any of its respective Group members or Representatives becomes legally required to disclose any information (the "Disclosing Party") that it is otherwise obligated to hold in strict confidence pursuant to Section 6.1, such party will promptly notify the other party (the "Owning Party") and will use all commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate with the Owning Party so that the Owning Party may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy and/or waive compliance with this Section 6.2. All expenses reasonably incurred by the Disclosing Party in seeking a protective order or other remedy will be borne by the Owning Party. If such protective order or other remedy is not obtained, or if the Owning Party waives compliance with this Section 6.2, the Disclosing Party will (a) disclose only that portion of the information which its legal counsel advises it is compelled to disclose or otherwise stand liable for contempt or suffer other similar significant corporate censure or penalty, (b) use all commercially reasonable efforts to obtain reliable assurance requested by the Owning Party that confidential treatment will be accorded such information, and (c) promptly provide the Owning Party with a copy of the information so disclosed, in the same form and format so disclosed, together with a list of all Persons to whom such information was disclosed.

Section 6.3. Access to Information.

During the Retention Period (as defined in Section 6.4 below), each party will provide to the other party, and will cause its respective Group members and Representatives to provide to the other party, in accordance with the requirements of this Section 6.3, reasonable Access upon reasonable advance written request to all information (other than information which is (a) protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege or work product doctrine, (b) proprietary in nature, (c) the subject of a confidentiality agreement between such party and a third Person which prohibits disclosure to the other party, or (d) prohibited from disclosure under applicable law) owned by such party or one of its Group members or within such party's or any of its respective Group member's or Representative's possession which is created prior to the Distribution Date and which relates to the business, assets or liabilities of the requesting party (the "Requestor"), if such access is reasonably required by the Requestor for any bona fide business purpose. "Access" means the obligation of a party in possession of information (the "Possessor") requested by the Requestor to conduct a diligent search designed to identify and locate all requested information that is owned and/or possessed by the Possessor or any respective Group members or Representatives and to collect all such information for inspection by the Requestor during normal business hours at the Possessor's place of business. Subject to such confidentiality and/or security obligations as the Possessor may reasonably deem necessary, the Requestor may have all requested information duplicated at Requestor's expense. Alternatively, the Possessor may choose to deliver, at the Requestor's expense, all requested information to the Requestor in the form requested by the Requestor. The Possessor will notify the Requestor in writing at the time of delivery if such information is to be returned to the Possessor. In such case, the Requestor will return such information when no longer needed to the Possessor at the Requestor's expense. In connection with providing information pursuant to this Section 6.3, each party hereto will, upon the request of the other party and upon reasonable advance notice, make available during normal business hours its respective employees (and those employees of its respective Group members and Representatives, as applicable) to the extent that they are reasonably necessary to discuss and explain all requested information with and to the Requestor.

Section 6.4. Record Retention.

FNT will, and will cause each of the other FNT Group members to, adopt and comply with a record retention policy with respect to information owned by or in the possession of the FNT Group and which is created prior to the Distribution Date. FNF will, and FNF will cause each of the other FNF Group members to, comply with the FNF record retention policy with respect to information owned by or in the possession of the FNF Group and which is created prior to the Distribution Date. Each party will, at its sole cost and expense, preserve and retain all information in its respective possession or control that the other party has the right to access pursuant to Section 6.3 or that it is required to preserve and retain for such period as is required in accordance with such record retention policy or for any longer period as may be required by (a) any Government Authority, (b) any litigation matter, (c) applicable law, or (d) any Ancillary Agreement (as applicable, the "Retention Period"). If either party wishes to dispose of any information which it is obligated to retain under this Section 6.4 prior to the expiration of the Retention Period, then that party will first provide forty-five (45) days' written notice to the other party, and the other party will have the right, at its option and expense, upon prior written notice within such 45-day period, to take possession of such information within ninety (90) days after the date of the notice provided pursuant to this Section 6.4. Written notice of intent to dispose of such information will include a description of the information in detail sufficient to allow the other party to reasonably assess its potential need to retain such materials.

Section 6.5. Production of Witnesses.

Each party will use commercially reasonable efforts, and will cause each of its respective Group members to use commercially reasonable efforts, to make reasonably available to each other, upon written request, its past and present Representatives as witnesses to the extent that any such Representatives may reasonably be required in connection with any legal, administrative or other proceedings in which the requesting party may from time to time be involved.

Section 6.6. Reimbursement.

Unless otherwise provided in this Article 6, each party providing access to information or witnesses to the other party pursuant to Section 6.3, 6.4 or 6.5 will be entitled to receive from the receiving party, upon the presentation of invoices therefor, payment for all reasonable, out-of-pocket costs and expenses (excluding allocated compensation and overhead expenses) as may be reasonably incurred in providing such information or witnesses.

Section 6.7. Other Agreements Regarding Access to Information.

The rights and obligations of the parties under this Article 6 are subject to any specific limitations, qualifications or additional provisions on the sharing, exchange or confidential treatment of information set forth in this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement.

ARTICLE 7. ADDITIONAL COVENANTS

Section 7.1. Performance.

FNF will cause to be performed, and hereby guarantees the performance of, all actions, agreements and obligations set forth in this Agreement or in any Ancillary Agreement to be performed by any member of the FNF Group. FNT will cause to be performed, and hereby guarantees the performance of, all actions, agreements and obligations set forth in this Agreement or in any Ancillary Agreement to be performed by any member of the FNT Group. Each party further agrees that it will cause its other Group members not to take any action or fail to take any action inconsistent with such party's obligations under this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement.

Section 7.2. Insurance Matters.

(a) Coverage. Until the Cut-off Date, FNF shall use its reasonable best efforts to enable FNT and its subsidiaries and their respective directors and officers to be covered under all policies of insurance maintained by FNF for itself, its Subsidiaries and their respective directors and officers generally. FNT will promptly pay or reimburse FNF, as the case may be, for all costs and expenses associated with this coverage that are allocated by FNF to FNT and its Subsidiaries in accordance with FNF's customary allocation methodology. FNT, its Subsidiaries and each of their directors and officers may review such policies upon request. FNF agrees to cooperate with and assist FNT in FNT obtaining directors', officers' and other insurance coverage after the termination of coverage under FNF's policies, including without limitation in obtaining any tail coverage sought by FNT with respect to periods prior to such termination.

(b) Payments and Reimbursements. All payments and reimbursements by FNT pursuant to this Section 7.2 will be made promptly but in any event within thirty (30) days after FNT's receipt of an invoice therefor from FNF.

(c) Historical Loss Data. FNF will provide FNT with Access, upon written request, to historical insurance loss information relating to the Transferred Businesses and any other information relating to FNF's historic insurance program with respect to the Transferred Businesses. Any such information provided to FNT pursuant to this provision will also be subject to the provisions of Section 6.3.

ARTICLE 8. INDEMNIFICATION

Section 8.1. Indemnification by FNT Group.

FNT will indemnify, defend and hold harmless FNF, each member of the FNF Group, each of their respective past, present and future Representatives, and each of their respective successors and assigns (collectively, the "FNF Indemnified Parties") from and against any and all Indemnifiable Losses incurred or suffered by the FNF Indemnified Parties arising or resulting from the following, whether, except as set forth below, such Indemnifiable Losses arise or accrue prior to, on or following the Distribution Date:

(a) the ownership or operation of the assets or properties, and the operations or conduct, of the Transferred Businesses, or any other business of the FNT Group, whether arising before or after the Distribution Date (for the avoidance of doubt, this clause (a) shall include, without limitation, any Indemnifiable Losses of the FNF Indemnified Parties arising or resulting from the action titled McCabe v. Fidelity National Financial Inc., et al or any alleged or actual conduct that forms the basis for such action);

(b) without limiting clause (a), any guarantee, indemnification obligation, surety bond or other credit support arrangement by FNF or any of its Affiliates for the benefit of FNT or any of FNT's Affiliates, subject to any limitations on liability in such agreement;

(c) any breach by FNT or any of FNT's Affiliates of this Agreement, the Ancillary Agreements, any other agreement to which any of them is a party, FNT's certificate of incorporation, FNT's by-laws or any law or regulation;

(d) any untrue statement of, or omission to state, a material fact in the FNF Public Filings to the extent it was as a result of information that FNT furnished to FNF or which FNF incorporated by reference from the FNT Public Filings, if such statement or omission was made or occurred after the Distribution Date; and

(e) any untrue statement of, or omission to state, a material fact in any registration statement or any prospectus that FNT may prepare or any FNT Public Filing, except to the extent the statement was made or omitted in reliance upon information provided to FNT by FNF expressly for use in any registration statement, prospectus or FNT Public Filing, or information relating to and provided by any underwriter expressly for use in any registration statement or prospectus.

Section 8.2. Indemnification by FNF Group.

FNF will indemnify, defend and hold harmless each member of the FNT Group, each of their respective past, present and future Representatives, and each of their respective successors and assigns (collectively, the "FNT Indemnified Parties") from and against any and all Indemnifiable Losses incurred or suffered by the FNT Indemnified Parties arising or resulting from the following, whether, except as set forth below, such Indemnifiable Losses arise or accrue prior to, on or following the Distribution Date:

(a) the ownership or operation of the assets or properties, and the operations or conduct, of FNF and all other members of the FNF Group, whether arising before or after the Distribution Date;

(b) any guarantee, indemnification obligation, surety bond or other credit support arrangement by FNT or any of its Affiliates for the benefit of FNF or any of FNF's Affiliates, subject to any limitations on liability in such agreement;

(c) any breach by FNF or any of its Affiliates of this Agreement, any of the Ancillary Agreements, any other agreement to which any of them is a party, FNF's certificate of incorporation, FNF's by-laws, or any law or regulation;

(d) any untrue statement of, or omission to state, a material fact in the FNT Public Filings to the extent it was as a result of information that FNF furnished to FNT or which FNT incorporated by reference from FNF's Public Filings;

(e) any untrue statement of, or omission to state, a material fact contained in any registration statement or any prospectus that FNT may prepare, but only to the extent the untrue statement or omission was made or omitted in reliance upon information provided by FNF expressly for use in any registration statement or prospectus; and

(f) any action or liability arising as a result of the Distribution.

Section 8.3. Claim Procedure.

(a) Claim Notice. A party that seeks indemnity under this Article 8 (an "Indemnified Party") will give written notice (a "Claim Notice") to the party from whom indemnification is sought (an "Indemnifying Party"), whether the Damages sought arise from matters solely between the parties or from Third Party Claims. The Claim Notice must contain (i) a description and, if known, estimated amount (the "Claimed Amount") of any Damages incurred or reasonably expected to be incurred by the Indemnified Party, (ii) a reasonable explanation of the basis for the Claim Notice to the extent of facts then known by the Indemnified Party, and (iii) a demand for payment of those Damages. No delay or deficiency on the part of the Indemnified Party in so notifying the Indemnifying Party will relieve the Indemnifying Party of any liability or obligation hereunder except to the extent of any Damages caused by or arising out of such failure.

(b) Response to Notice of Claim. Within thirty (30) days after delivery of a Claim Notice, the Indemnifying Party will deliver to the Indemnified Party a written response in which the Indemnifying Party will either: (i) agree that the Indemnified Party is entitled to receive all of the Claimed Amount, in which case the Indemnifying Party will pay the Claimed Amount in accordance with a payment and distribution method reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party; or (ii) dispute that the Indemnified Party is entitled to receive all or any portion of the Claimed Amount, in which case, the parties will resort to the dispute resolution procedures set forth in Section 9.3.

(c) Contested Claims. In the event that the Indemnifying Party disputes the Claimed Amount, as soon as practicable but in no event later than ten (10) Business Days after the receipt of the notice referenced in Section 8.3(b)(ii) hereof, the parties will begin the process of resolving the matter in accordance with the dispute resolution provisions of Section 9.3 hereof. Upon ultimate resolution thereof, the parties will take such actions as are reasonably necessary to comply with such resolution.

(d) Third Party Claims.

(i) In the event that the Indemnified Party receives notice or otherwise learns of the assertion by a Person who is not a member of either Group of any claim or the commencement of any Action (collectively, a "Third-Party Claim") with respect to which the Indemnifying Party may be obligated to provide indemnification under this Article 8, the Indemnified Party will give written notification to the Indemnifying Party of the Third-Party Claim. Such notification will be given within five (5) Business Days after receipt by the Indemnified Party of notice of such Third-Party Claim, will be accompanied by reasonable supporting documentation submitted by such third party (to the extent then in the possession of the Indemnified Party) and will describe in reasonable detail (to the extent known by the Indemnified Party) the facts constituting the basis for such Third-Party Claim and the amount of the claimed Damages; provided, however, that no delay or deficiency on the part of the Indemnified Party in so notifying the Indemnifying Party will relieve the Indemnifying Party of any liability or obligation hereunder except to the extent of any Damages caused by or arising out of such failure. Within twenty (20) Business Days after delivery of such notification, the Indemnifying Party may, upon written notice thereof to the Indemnified Party, assume control of the defense of such Third-Party Claim with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party. During any period in which the Indemnifying Party has not so assumed control of such defense, the Indemnified Party will control such defense.

(ii) The party not controlling such defense (the "Non-controlling Party") may participate therein at its own expense; provided, however, that if the Indemnifying Party assumes control of such defense and the Indemnified Party concludes that the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Party have conflicting interests or different defenses available with respect to such Third-Party Claim, the reasonable fees and expenses of one separate counsel to all Indemnified Parties will be considered "Damages" for purposes of this Agreement. The party controlling such defense (the "Controlling Party") will keep the Non-controlling Party reasonably advised of the status of such Third-Party Claim and the defense thereof and will consider in good faith recommendations made by the Non-controlling Party with respect thereto. The Non-controlling Party will furnish the Controlling Party with such information as it may have with respect to such Third-Party Claim (including copies of any summons, complaint or other pleading which may have been served on such party and any written claim, demand, invoice, billing or other document evidencing or asserting the same) and will otherwise cooperate with and assist the Controlling Party in the defense of such Third-Party Claim.

(iii) The Indemnifying Party will not agree to any settlement of, or the entry of any judgment arising from, any such Third-Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided, however, that the consent of the Indemnified Party will not be required if (A) the Indemnifying Party agrees in writing to pay any amounts payable pursuant to such settlement or judgment, and (B) such settlement or judgment includes a full, complete and unconditional release of the Indemnified Party from further liability. The Indemnified Party will not agree to any settlement of, or the entry of any judgment arising from, any such Third-Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

Section 8.4. Contribution.

(a) If the indemnification provided for in this Article 8 is unavailable to, or insufficient to hold harmless an Indemnified Party under Section 8.1(d), 8.1(e), 8.2(d) or 8.2(e) hereof in respect of any Indemnifiable Losses referred to therein, then each Indemnifying Party shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such Indemnified Party as a result of such Indemnifiable Losses (or actions in respect thereof) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Party in connection with the actions which resulted in Indemnifiable Losses as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative fault of such Indemnifying Party and Indemnified Party shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or omission or alleged omission to state a material fact related to information supplied by such Indemnifying Party or Indemnified Party, and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission.

(b) The parties hereto agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section 8.4 were determined by a pro rata allocation or by any other method of allocation that does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to in paragraph (a) above. The amount paid or payable by an Indemnified Party as a result of the Indemnifiable Losses referred to in paragraph (a) above shall be deemed to include, subject to the limitations set forth above, any legal or other fees or expenses reasonably incurred by such Indemnified Party in connection with investigating any claim or defending any Action. No Person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any Person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation.

Section 8.5. Limitations.

(a) Insurance Proceeds; Third Party Coverage. The amount of any Damages for which indemnification is provided under this Agreement will be net of any amounts actually recovered by the Indemnified Party from any third Person (including, without limitation, amounts actually recovered under insurance policies) with respect to such Damages. Any Indemnifying Party hereunder will be subrogated to the rights of the Indemnified Party upon payment in full of the amount of the relevant indemnifiable Damages. An insurer who would otherwise be obligated to pay any claim will not be relieved of the responsibility with respect thereto or, solely by virtue of the indemnification provision hereof, have any subrogation rights with respect thereto. If any Indemnified Party recovers an amount from a third Person in respect of Damages for which indemnification is provided in this Agreement after the full amount of such indemnifiable Damages has been paid by an Indemnifying Party or after an Indemnifying Party has made a partial payment of such indemnifiable Damages and the amount received from the third Person exceeds the remaining unpaid balance of such indemnifiable Damages, then the Indemnified Party will promptly remit to the Indemnifying Party the excess (if any) of (X) the sum of the amount theretofore paid by such Indemnifying Party in respect of such indemnifiable Damages plus the amount received from the third Person in respect thereof, less (Y) the full amount of such indemnifiable Damages.

(b) Tax Characterization. Any indemnification payment made under this Agreement will be characterized for Tax purposes as a contribution or distribution or payment of an assumed or retained liability, as applicable.

(c) Other Agreements. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 8.1 or Section 8.2, (i) indemnification with respect to Taxes shall be governed exclusively by the Tax Matters Agreement, (ii) to the extent the Intellectual Property Cross License Agreement specifically provides indemnification with respect to Third-Party Claims for infringement of Intellectual Property rights, the Intellectual Property Cross License Agreement shall govern with respect to that indemnification, and (iii) to the extent the Employee Matters Agreement specifically provides indemnification with respect to certain employee-related Liabilities, the Employee Matters Agreement shall govern with respect to that indemnification. To the extent indemnification is not provided in such Ancillary Agreements, the terms of this Agreement shall govern.

(d) NOTWITHSTANDING ANY OTHER PROVISION OF THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY ANCILLARY AGREEMENT TO THE CONTRARY, IN NO EVENT WILL EITHER PARTY OR ANY OF ITS GROUP MEMBERS BE LIABLE FOR ANY SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, INDIRECT, COLLATERAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES OR LOST PROFITS SUFFERED BY AN INDEMNIFIED PARTY, HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, IN CONNECTION WITH ANY DAMAGES ARISING HEREUNDER OR THEREUNDER; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT TO THE EXTENT AN INDEMNIFIED PARTY IS REQUIRED TO PAY ANY SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, INDIRECT, COLLATERAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES OR LOST PROFITS TO A PERSON WHO IS NOT A MEMBER OF EITHER GROUP IN CONNECTION WITH A THIRD PARTY CLAIM, SUCH DAMAGES WILL CONSTITUTE DIRECT DAMAGES AND NOT BE SUBJECT TO THE LIMITATION SET FORTH IN THIS SECTION 8.5(f).

ARTICLE 9. MISCELLANEOUS

Section 9.1. Governing Law.

The internal laws of the State of Florida (without reference to its principles of conflicts of law) govern the construction, interpretation and other matters arising out of or in connection with this Agreement (including, for the avoidance of doubt, those claims or disputes referenced in Section 9.3(f)) and, unless expressly provided therein, each Ancillary Agreement, and each of the exhibits and schedules hereto and thereto (whether arising in contract, tort, equity or otherwise).

Section 9.2. Jurisdiction.

Subject to Section 9.3, if any Dispute arises out of or in connection with this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement, except as expressly contemplated by another provision of this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement, the parties irrevocably (and the parties will cause each other member of their respective Group to irrevocably) (a) consent and submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of federal and state courts located in Duval County, Florida, (b) waive any objection to that choice of forum based on venue or to the effect that the forum is not convenient, and (c) WAIVE TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL OR ADJUDICATION BY JURY.

Section 9.3. Dispute Resolution.

(a) Amicable Resolution. FNF and FNT mutually desire that friendly collaboration will continue between them. Accordingly, they will try, and they will cause their respective Group members to try, to resolve in an amicable manner all disagreements and misunderstandings connected with their respective rights and obligations under this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement, including any amendments hereto or thereto. In furtherance thereof, in the event of any dispute or disagreement (a "Dispute") between any FNF Group member and any FNT Group member as to the interpretation of any provision of this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement executed in connection herewith or therewith (or the performance of obligations hereunder or thereunder), then unless otherwise provided in any Ancillary Agreement, the matter, upon written request of either party, will be referred for resolution to a steering committee established pursuant to this Section 9.3(a) (the "Steering Committee"). The Steering Committee will have two members, one of whom will be appointed by FNF and the other of whom will be appointed by FNT, and each of whom shall be a senior executive of the party appointing the member. The Steering Committee will make a good faith effort to promptly resolve all Disputes referred to it. Steering Committee decisions will be unanimous and will be binding on FNF and FNT. If the Steering Committee does not agree to a resolution of a Dispute within fifteen (15) days after the reference of the matter to it, the Dispute will be referred to the Presidents of FNF and of FNT. If the Presidents do not agree to a resolution of the Dispute within fifteen (15) days after the reference of the matter to them, then the parties will be free to exercise the remedies available to them under applicable law, subject to Sections 9.3(b) and 9.3(c).

(b) Mediation. In the event any Dispute cannot be resolved in a friendly manner as set forth in Section 9.3(a), the parties intend that such Dispute be resolved by mediation. If the Steering Committee is unable to resolve the Dispute as contemplated by Section 9.3(a), either FNF or FNT may demand mediation of the Dispute by written notice to the other in which case the two parties will select a mediator within ten (10) days after the demand. Neither party may unreasonably withhold consent to the selection of the mediator. Each of FNF and FNT will bear its own costs of mediation but both parties will share the costs of the mediator equally.

(c) Arbitration. In the event that the Dispute is not resolved in a friendly manner as set forth in Section 9.3(a) or through mediation pursuant to Section 9.3(b), the latter within thirty (30) days of the submission of the Dispute to mediation, either party involved in the Dispute may submit the dispute to binding arbitration pursuant to this Section 9.3(c). All Disputes submitted to arbitration pursuant to this Section 9.3(c) shall be resolved in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association, unless the parties involved mutually agree to utilize an alternate set of rules, in which event all references herein to the American Arbitration Association shall be deemed modified accordingly. Expedited rules shall apply regardless of the amount at issue. Arbitration proceedings hereunder may be initiated by either party making a written request to the American Arbitration Association, together with any appropriate filing fee, at the office of the American Arbitration Association in Orlando, Florida. The arbitration shall be by a single qualified arbitrator ("Arbitrator") experienced in the matters at issue, such Arbitrator to be mutually agreed upon by FNF and FNT. If the parties fail to agree on an Arbitrator within thirty (30) days after notice of commencement of arbitration, the American Arbitration Association shall, upon the request of any party to the dispute or difference, appoint the Arbitrator. All arbitration proceedings shall be held in the city of Jacksonville, Florida in a location to be specified by the Arbitrator (or any place agreed to by the parties and the Arbitrator). Any order or determination of the arbitral tribunal shall be final and binding upon the parties to the arbitration as to matters submitted and may be enforced by any party to the Dispute in any court having jurisdiction over the subject matter or over any of the parties. The parties agree that the length of time to be provided in any arbitration action to conduct discovery shall be limited to ninety (90) days, the length of time to conduct the arbitration hearing shall be limited to ten (10) days (with each party having equal time) and that the Arbitrator shall be required to render his or her decision within thirty (30) days of the completion of the arbitration hearing. All costs and expenses incurred by the Arbitrator shall be shared equally by the parties. Each party shall bear its own costs and expenses in connection with any such arbitration proceeding. The use of any alternative dispute resolution procedures hereunder will not be construed under the doctrines of laches, waiver or estoppel to affect adversely the rights of either party.

(d) Non-Exclusive Remedy.

(i) Nothing in this Section 9.3 will prevent either FNF or FNT from commencing formal litigation proceedings or seeking injunctive or similar relief if any delay resulting from efforts to mediate such Dispute could result in serious and irreparable injury to FNF, FNT or any member of either party's Group.

(ii) Nothing in this Section 9.3 will prevent either FNF or FNT from immediately seeking injunctive or interim relief in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any confidentiality provisions of this Agreement. If an arbitral tribunal has not been appointed with respect to any Dispute at the time of such actual or threatened breach, then either party may seek such injunctive or interim relief from any court with jurisdiction over the matter. If an arbitral tribunal has been appointed with respect to any Dispute at the time of such actual or threatened breach, then the parties agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the state and federal courts of Duval County, Florida, pursuant to Section 9.2, with respect to such matter.

(e) Commencement of Dispute Resolution Procedure. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement, FNF and FNT are the only members of their respective Group entitled to commence a dispute resolution procedure under this Agreement, whether pursuant to Section 8.3, this Section 9.3 or otherwise, and each party will cause its respective Group members not to commence any dispute resolution procedure other than through such party as provided in this Section 9.3(e).

Section 9.4. Notices.

Each party giving any notice required or permitted under this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement will give the notice in writing and use one of the following methods of delivery to the party to be notified, at the address set forth below or another address of which the sending party has been notified in accordance with this Section 9.4: (a) personal delivery; (b) facsimile or telecopy transmission with a reasonable method of confirming transmission; (c) commercial overnight courier with a reasonable method of confirming delivery; or (d) pre-paid, United States

Section 9.5. Binding Effect and Assignment.

This Agreement and each Ancillary Agreement binds and benefits the parties and their respective successors and assigns. Notwithstanding anything in Section 6.8 to the contrary, neither party may assign any of its rights or delegate any of its obligations under this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement without the written consent of the other party which consent may be withheld in such party's sole and absolute discretion and any assignment or attempted assignment in violation of the foregoing will be null and void. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, either party may assign this Agreement and any Ancillary Agreement in connection with a merger transaction in which such party is not the surviving entity or the sale of all or substantially all of its assets.

Section 9.6. Severability.

If any provision of this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement is determined to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of this Agreement or such Ancillary Agreement, as the case may be, shall remain in full force, if the essential terms and conditions of this Agreement or such Ancillary Agreement, as the case may be, for each party remain valid, binding and enforceable.

Section 9.7. Entire Agreement.

This Agreement constitutes the final agreement between the parties, and is the complete and exclusive statement of the parties' agreement on the matters contained herein. All prior and contemporaneous negotiations and agreements between the parties with respect to the matters contained herein are superseded by this Agreement. In the event of any conflict between any provision in this Agreement and any provision in any Ancillary Agreement pertaining to the subject matter of such Ancillary Agreement, the specific provisions in such Ancillary Agreement will control over the provisions in this Agreement.

Section 9.8. Counterparts.

The parties may execute this Agreement in multiple counterparts, each of which constitutes an original as against the party that signed it, and all of which together constitute one agreement. The signatures of both parties need not appear on the same counterpart. The delivery of signed counterparts by facsimile or email transmission that includes a copy of the sending party's signature is as effective as signing and delivering the counterpart in person.

Section 9.9. Expenses.

Except as otherwise set forth herein or in any Ancillary Agreement, FNT shall be responsible for all costs (including third party costs) incurred in connection with this Agreement.

Section 9.10. Amendment.

The parties may amend this Agreement only by a written agreement signed by each party to be bound by the amendment and that identifies itself as an amendment to this Agreement.

Section 9.11. Waiver.

The parties may waive a provision of this Agreement only by a writing signed by the party intended to be bound by the waiver. A party is not prevented from enforcing any right, remedy or condition in the party's favor because of any failure or delay in exercising any right or remedy or in requiring satisfaction of any condition, except to the extent that the party specifically waives the same in writing. A written waiver given for one matter or occasion is effective only in that instance and only for the purpose stated. A waiver once given is not to be construed as a waiver for any other matter or occasion. Any enumeration of a party's rights and remedies in this Agreement is not intended to be exclusive, and a party's rights and remedies are intended to be cumulative to the extent permitted by law and include any rights and remedies authorized in law or in equity.

Section 9.12. Authority.

Each of the parties represents to the other that (a) it has the corporate or other requisite power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement and each of the Ancillary Agreements to which it is a party, (b) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and each of the Ancillary Agreements to which it is a party have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate or other action, (c) it has duly and validly executed and delivered this Agreement and each of the Ancillary Agreements to which it is a party, and (d) this Agreement and each of the Ancillary Agreements to which it is a party is a legal, valid and binding obligation, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and general equity principles.

Section 9.13. Construction of Agreement.

(a) Where this Agreement states that a party "will" or "shall" perform in some manner or otherwise act or omit to act, it means that the party is legally obligated to do so in accordance with this Agreement or such Ancillary Agreement, as applicable.

(b) The captions, titles and headings, and table of contents, included in this Agreement are for convenience only, and do not affect this Agreement's construction or interpretation. When a reference is made in this Agreement to an Article or a Section, exhibit or schedule, such reference will be to an Article or Section of, or an exhibit or schedule to, this Agreement unless otherwise indicated.

(c) Neither this Agreement nor any uncertainty or ambiguity herein shall be construed against any party under any rule of construction, and no party shall be considered the draftsman. The parties acknowledge and agree that this Agreement has been reviewed, negotiated, and accepted by all parties and their attorneys and shall be construed and interpreted according to the ordinary meaning of the words used so as fairly to accomplish the purposes and intentions of all parties hereto.

(d) This Agreement is for the sole benefit of the parties hereto and their respective Group members and, except for the indemnification rights of the FNF Indemnified Parties and the FNT Indemnified Parties under this Agreement, do not, and are not intended to, confer any rights or remedies in favor of any Person (including any employee or stockholder of FNF or FNT) other than the parties signing this Agreement and their respective Group members.

(e) The words "including," "includes," or "include" are to be read as listing non-exclusive examples of the matters referred to, whether or not words such as "without limitation" or "but not limited to" are used in each instance.

(f) For purposes of this Agreement, after the Distribution Date the Transferred Businesses will be deemed to be the business of FNT and the FNT Group, and all references made in this Agreement to FNT as a party which operates as of a time following the Distribution Date, will be deemed to refer to all members of the FNT Group as a single party where appropriate.

(g) Any reference in this Agreement to a "member" of a Group means a party to this Agreement or another Person referred to in the definition of FNT Group or FNF Group, as applicable.

Section 9.14. Termination.

This Agreement may be terminated only by mutual consent of both FNT and FNF.

Section 9.15. Limitation on Damages.

EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT OF ANY INDEMNIFICATION OBLIGATIONS HEREUNDER, BUT NOTWITHSTANDING ANY OTHER PROVISION OF THIS AGREEMENT TO THE CONTRARY, IN NO EVENT WILL EITHER PARTY OR ANY OF ITS GROUP MEMBERS BE LIABLE FOR ANY SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, INDIRECT, COLLATERAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES OR LOST PROFITS IN CONNECTION WITH ANY CLAIMS, LOSSES, DAMAGES, OR INJURIES ARISING OUT OF THE CONDUCT OF SUCH PARTY PURSUANT TO THIS AGREEMENT.

In witness whereof, each of the parties has caused this Agreement to be executed on its behalf by a duly authorized officer on the date first set forth above.

CORPORATE SERVICES AGREEMENT

This Corporate Services Agreement (this "Agreement") is effective as of _____, 2005 (the "Effective Date"), by and between FIDELITY NATIONAL TITLE GROUP, INC., a Delaware corporation ("FNT" or "PROVIDING PARTY"), and FIDELITY NATIONAL FINANCIAL, INC., a Delaware corporation ("FNF" or "RECEIVING PARTY"). FNT and FNF shall be referred to together in this Agreement as the "Parties" and individually as a "Party."

WHEREAS, FNF has undertaken a strategic restructuring plan, pursuant to which FNT has been formed and will be the holding company for all of FNF's title insurance subsidiaries and operations; and

WHEREAS, in conjunction with this restructuring plan, the Parties have entered into a Separation Agreement dated as of _____, 2005 (the "Separation Agreement"); and

WHEREAS, in conjunction with the Separation Agreement, the Parties wish to enter into this Agreement;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, and of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements set forth herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I
CORPORATE SERVICES

1.1 Corporate Services. This Agreement sets forth the terms and conditions for the provision by PROVIDING PARTY to RECEIVING PARTY of various corporate services and products, as more fully described below and in Schedule 1.1(a) attached hereto (the Scheduled Services, the Omitted Services, the Resumed Services and Special Projects (as defined below), collectively, the "Corporate Services").

(a) PROVIDING PARTY, through its Subsidiaries (as defined below) and their respective employees, agents or contractors, shall provide or cause to be provided to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries all services set forth on Schedule 1.1(a) (the "Scheduled Services") on and after the Effective Date (with such services to be provided to the RECEIVING PARTY's Subsidiaries as they become Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY, subject to the exception in clause (ii) of Section 1.2(a)). RECEIVING PARTY shall pay fees to PROVIDING PARTY for providing the Scheduled Services or causing the Scheduled Services to be provided as set forth in Schedule 1.1(a). For purposes of this Agreement, "Subsidiary" means, with respect to any Party, any corporation or other legal entity of which such Party controls or owns, directly or indirectly, more than fifty percent (50%) of the stock or other equity interest entitled to vote on the election of the members to the board of directors or similar governing body, provided, however, that when and with respect to the RECEIVING PARTY, "Subsidiary" shall not include Fidelity National Information Services, Inc. or any of its Subsidiaries and shall not include PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries.

(b) PROVIDING PARTY, through its Subsidiaries and their respective employees, agents or contractors, shall provide or cause to be provided to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries all services that PROVIDING PARTY was performing for RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries as of the Effective Date that pertain to and are a part of Scheduled Services under Section 1.1(a) (with such services to be provided to the RECEIVING PARTY's Subsidiaries as they become Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY, subject to the exception in clause (ii) of Section 1.2(a)), which are not expressly included in the list of Scheduled Services in Schedule 1.1(a), but are required to conduct the business of RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries (the "Omitted Services"), unless RECEIVING PARTY consents in writing to the termination of such services. Such Omitted Services shall be added to Schedule 1.1(a) and thereby become Scheduled Services, as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date by the Parties. In the event that RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries had been allocated charges or otherwise paid PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries for such Omitted Services immediately prior to the Effective Date, RECEIVING PARTY shall pay to PROVIDING PARTY for providing the Omitted Services or causing the Omitted Services to be provided hereunder fees equal to the actual fees paid for such Omitted Services immediately preceding the Effective Date; provided, that payment of such fees by the RECEIVING PARTY for the Omitted Services provided hereunder shall be retroactive to the first day of the calendar quarter in which either Party identifies such services as Omitted Services, but in no event shall RECEIVING PARTY be required to pay for any Omitted Services provided hereunder by the PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Date. In the event that RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries had not been allocated charges or otherwise paid PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries for such Omitted Services immediately prior to the Effective Date, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith a fee to be based on the cost of providing such Omitted Services, which shall in no event be less than the Default Fee (as defined below); provided, that payment of such fees by the RECEIVING PARTY for the Omitted Services provided hereunder by the RECEIVING PARTY shall be retroactive to the first day of the calendar quarter in which either the Party identifies such services as Omitted Services, but in no event shall RECEIVING PARTY be required to pay for any such Omitted Services provided hereunder by the PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Date. The "Default Fee" means an amount equal to one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the salary of each full-time employee, on an hourly basis, who provides the applicable Corporate Service or Transition Assistance (as defined in Section 2.3).

(c) At RECEIVING PARTY's written request, PROVIDING PARTY, through its Subsidiaries and their respective employees, agents or contractors, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide or cause to be provided to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries any Scheduled Service that has been terminated at RECEIVING PARTY's request pursuant to Section 2.2 (the "Resumed Services"); provided, that PROVIDING PARTY shall have no obligation to provide a Resumed Service if providing such Resumed Service will have a material adverse impact on the other Corporate Services. Schedule 1.1(a) shall from time to time be amended to reflect the resumption of a Resumed Service and the Resumed Service shall be set forth thereon as a Scheduled Service.

(d) At RECEIVING PARTY's written request, PROVIDING PARTY, through its Subsidiaries and their respective employees, agents or contractors, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide additional corporate services that are not described in the Schedule 1.1(a) and that are neither Omitted Services nor Resumed Services ("Special Projects"). RECEIVING PARTY shall submit a written request to PROVIDING PARTY specifying the nature of the Special Project and requesting an estimate of the costs applicable for such Special Project and the expected time frame for completion. PROVIDING PARTY shall respond promptly to such written request, but in no event later than twenty (20) days, with a written estimate of the cost of providing such Special Project and the expected time frame for completion (the "Cost Estimate"). If RECEIVING PARTY provides written approval of the Cost Estimate within ten (10) days after PROVIDING PARTY delivers the Cost Estimate, then within a commercially reasonable time after receipt of RECEIVING PARTY's written request, PROVIDING PARTY shall begin providing the Special Project; provided, that PROVIDING PARTY shall have no obligation to provide a Special Project where, in its reasonable discretion and prior to providing the Cost Estimate, it has determined and notified RECEIVING PARTY in writing that (i) it would not be feasible to provide such Special Project, given reasonable priority to other demands on its resources and capacity both under this Agreement or otherwise or (ii) it lacks the experience or qualifications to provide such Special Project.

1.2 Provision of Corporate Services; Excused Performance. To the extent commercially reasonable, the Parties will work together and begin the process of migrating the Corporate Services from PROVIDING PARTY to RECEIVING PARTY, one or more of its Subsidiaries or a third party (at RECEIVING PARTY's direction) such that the completion of the migration of the Corporate Services from PROVIDING PARTY to RECEIVING PARTY, one or more of its Subsidiaries or a third party, as the case may be, shall occur prior to the end of the Term. PROVIDING PARTY shall provide or cause to be provided each of the Corporate Services through the expiration of the Term, except (i) as automatically modified by earlier termination of a Corporate Service by RECEIVING PARTY in accordance with this Agreement, (ii) for Corporate Services to or for the benefit of any entity which ceases to be a Subsidiary of RECEIVING PARTY prior to the end of the Term, or (iii) as otherwise agreed to by the Parties in writing.

1.3 Third Party Vendors; Consents.

(a) PROVIDING PARTY shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to keep and maintain in effect its relationships with its vendors that are integral to the provision of the Corporate Services. PROVIDING PARTY shall use commercially reasonable efforts to procure any waivers, permits, consents or sublicenses required by third party licensors, vendors or service providers under existing agreements with such third parties in order to provide any Corporate Services hereunder ("Third Party Consents"). In the event that PROVIDING PARTY is unable to procure such Third Party Consents on commercially reasonable terms, PROVIDING PARTY agrees to so notify RECEIVING PARTY, and to assist RECEIVING PARTY with the transition to another vendor. If, after the Effective Date, any one or more vendors (i) terminates its contractual relationship with PROVIDING PARTY or ceases to provide the products or services associated with the Corporate Services or (ii) notifies PROVIDING PARTY of its desire or plan to terminate its contractual relationship with PROVIDING PARTY or (iii) ceases providing the products or services associated with the Corporate Services, then, in either case, PROVIDING PARTY agrees to so notify

RECEIVING PARTY, and to assist RECEIVING PARTY with the transition to another vendor so that RECEIVING PARTY may continue to receive similar products and services.

(b) PROVIDING PARTY shall not be required to transfer or assign to RECEIVING PARTY any third party software licenses or any hardware owned by PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries in connection with the provision of the Corporate Services or at the conclusion of the Term.

1.4 Dispute Resolution.

(a) Amicable Resolution. PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY mutually desire that friendly collaboration will continue between them. Accordingly, they will try to resolve in an amicable manner all disagreements and misunderstandings connected with their respective rights and obligations under this Agreement, including any amendments hereto. In furtherance thereof, in the event of any dispute or disagreement (a "Dispute") between PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY in connection with this Agreement (including, without limitation, the standards of performance, delay of performance or non-performance of obligations, or payment or non-payment of fees hereunder), then the Dispute, upon written request of either Party, will be referred for resolution to the president (or similar position) of the division implicated by the matter for each of PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY, which presidents will have fifteen (15) days to resolve such Dispute. If the presidents of the relevant divisions for each of PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY do not agree to a resolution of such Dispute within fifteen (15) days after the reference of the matter to them, such presidents of the relevant divisions will refer such matter to the president of each of PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY for final resolution. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 1.4, any amendment to the terms of this Agreement may only be effected in accordance with Section 11.10.

(b) Arbitration. In the event that the Dispute is not resolved in a friendly manner as set forth in Section 1.4(a), either Party involved in the Dispute may submit the dispute to binding arbitration pursuant to this Section 1.4(b). All Disputes submitted to arbitration pursuant to this Section 1.4(b) shall be resolved in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association, unless the Parties involved mutually agree to utilize an alternate set of rules, in which event all references herein to the American Arbitration Association shall be deemed modified accordingly. Expedited rules shall apply regardless of the amount at issue. Arbitration proceedings hereunder may be initiated by either Party making a written request to the American Arbitration Association, together with any appropriate filing fee, at the office of the American Arbitration Association in Orlando, Florida. All arbitration proceedings shall be held in the city of Jacksonville, Florida in a location to be specified by the arbitrators (or any place agreed to by the Parties and the arbitrators). The arbitration shall be by a single qualified arbitrator experienced in the matters at issue, such arbitrator to be mutually agreed upon by PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY. If PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY fail to agree on an arbitrator within thirty (30) days after notice of commencement of arbitration, the American Arbitration Association shall, upon the request of any Party to the Dispute, appoint the arbitrator. Any order or determination of the arbitral tribunal shall be final and binding upon the Parties to the arbitration as to matters submitted and may be enforced by any Party to the Dispute in any court having jurisdiction over the subject matter or over any of the Parties. All costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such arbitration proceeding (including reasonable attorneys' fees) shall be borne by the Party incurring such costs. The use of any alternative dispute resolution procedures hereunder will not be construed under the doctrines of laches, waiver or estoppel to affect adversely the rights of either Party.

(c) Non-Exclusive Remedy. Nothing in this Section 1.4 will prevent either PROVIDING PARTY or RECEIVING PARTY from immediately seeking injunctive or interim relief in the event (i) of any actual or threatened breach of any of the provisions of Article VIII or (ii) that the Dispute relates to, or involves a claim of, actual or threatened infringement of intellectual property. All such actions for injunctive or interim relief shall be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction in accordance with Section 11.6. Such remedy shall not be deemed to be the exclusive remedy for breach of this Agreement, and further remedies may be pursued in accordance with Section 1.4(a) and Section 1.4(b) above.

(d) Commencement of Dispute Resolution Procedure. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY, but none of their respective Subsidiaries, are entitled to commence a dispute resolution procedure under this Agreement, whether pursuant to Article XI, this Section 1.4 or otherwise, and each Party will cause its respective affiliates not to commence any dispute resolution procedure other than through such Party as provided in this Section 1.4(d).

(e) Compensation. RECEIVING PARTY shall continue to make all payments due and owing under Article III for Corporate Services not the subject of a Dispute and shall not off-set such fees by the amount of fees for Corporate Services that are the subject of the Dispute.

1.5 Standard of Services.

(a) PROVIDING PARTY shall perform the Corporate Services for RECEIVING PARTY in a professional and competent manner, using standards of performance consistent with its performance of such services for itself.

(b) During the Term, PROVIDING PARTY shall maintain a disaster recovery program for the Corporate Services substantially consistent with the disaster recovery program in place for such Corporate Services as of the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the disaster recovery program maintained by PROVIDING PARTY will not include a business continuity program.

(c) If RECEIVING PARTY provides PROVIDING PARTY with written notice ("Shortfall Notice") of the occurrence of any Significant Service Shortfall (as defined below), as determined by RECEIVING PARTY in good faith, PROVIDING PARTY shall rectify such Significant Service Shortfall as soon as reasonably possible. For purposes of this Section 1.5(c), a "Significant Service Shortfall" shall be deemed to have occurred if the timing or quality of performance of Corporate Services provided by PROVIDING PARTY hereunder falls below the standard required by Section 1.5(a) hereof; provided that PROVIDING PARTY's obligations under this Agreement shall be relieved to the extent, and for the duration of, any force majeure event as set forth in Article V.

1.6 Response Time. PROVIDING PARTY shall respond to and resolve any problems in connection with the Corporate Services for RECEIVING PARTY within a commercially reasonable period of time, using response and proposed resolution times consistent with its response and resolution of such problems for itself.

1.7 Ownership of Materials; Results and Proceeds. All data and information submitted to PROVIDING PARTY by RECEIVING PARTY, in connection with the Corporate Services or the Transition Assistance (as defined in Section 2.3) (the "RECEIVING PARTY Data"), and all results and proceeds of the Corporate Services and the Transition Assistance with regard to the RECEIVING PARTY Data, is and will remain, as between the Parties, the property of the RECEIVING PARTY. The PROVIDING PARTY shall not and shall not permit its Subsidiaries to use the RECEIVING PARTY Data for any purpose other than to provide the Corporate Services or Transition Assistance.

ARTICLE II TERM AND TRANSITION ASSISTANCE

2.1 Term. The term (the "Term") of this Agreement shall commence as of the date hereof and shall continue until the date on which the last of the Scheduled Services under this Agreement is terminated or the date on which this Agreement is terminated by mutual agreement of the Parties, whichever is earlier (in either case, the "Termination Date"); provided, however, that in no event shall the Term:

(a) expire later than the date that is six (6) months after any event or circumstance causing FNF to own or control, directly or indirectly, fifty percent (50%) or less of the stock, or other equity interest entitled to vote on the election of the members to the board of directors or similar governing body, of FNT, and

2.2 Termination.

(a) If RECEIVING PARTY is not able to complete its transition of the Corporate Services by the Termination Date, then upon written notice provided to PROVIDING PARTY at least thirty (30) days prior to the Termination Date, RECEIVING PARTY shall have the right to request and cause PROVIDING PARTY to provide up to thirty (30) days of additional Corporate Services to RECEIVING PARTY; provided, that RECEIVING PARTY shall pay for all such additional Corporate Services.

(b) If RECEIVING PARTY wishes to terminate a Corporate Service (or a portion thereof) on a date that is earlier than the Termination Date, RECEIVING PARTY shall provide written notice (the "Termination Notice") to PROVIDING PARTY of a proposed termination date for such Corporate Service (or portion thereof), at least ninety (90) days prior to such proposed termination date. Upon receipt of such notice, PROVIDING PARTY shall promptly provide notice to RECEIVING PARTY (the "Termination Dispute Notice") in the event that the PROVIDING PARTY believes in good faith that, notwithstanding the PROVIDING PARTY using its commercially reasonable efforts, the requested termination will have a material adverse impact on other Corporate Services and the scope of such adverse impact. In such event, the Parties will resolve the dispute in accordance with Section 1.4. If PROVIDING PARTY does not provide the Termination Dispute Notice, based on the standards set forth above, within ten (10) days of the date on which the Termination Notice was received, then, effective on the termination date proposed by RECEIVING PARTY in its Termination Notice, such Corporate Service (or portion thereof) shall be discontinued (thereafter, a "Discontinued Corporate Service") and deemed deleted from the Scheduled Services to be provided hereunder and thereafter, this Agreement shall be of no further force and effect with respect to the Discontinued Corporate Service (or portion thereof), except as to obligations accrued prior to the date of discontinuation of such Corporate Service (or portion thereof). Upon the occurrence of any Discontinued Corporate Service, the Parties shall promptly update Schedule 1.1(a) to reflect the discontinuation, and the Corporate Service Fees shall be adjusted in accordance therewith and the provisions of Article III. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, at any time that employees of PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries move to a department within RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries (an "Employee Shift"), a proportional portion of the relevant Corporate Service shall be deemed automatically terminated. If a Corporate Service, or portion thereof, is terminated as a result of an Employee Shift, then such termination shall take effect as of the date of the Employee Shift, and the adjustment in Corporate Service Fees shall also take effect as of the date of the Employee Shift.

(c) If all Corporate Services shall have been terminated under this Section 2.2 prior to the expiration of the Term, then either Party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement by giving written notice to the other Party, which termination shall be effective upon delivery as provided in Section 6.1.

2.3 Transition Assistance. In preparation for the discontinuation of any Corporate Service provided under this Agreement, PROVIDING PARTY shall, consistent with its obligations to provide Corporate Services hereunder and with the cooperation and assistance of RECEIVING PARTY, use commercially reasonable efforts to provide such knowledge transfer services and to take such steps as are reasonably required in order to facilitate a smooth and efficient transition and/or migration of records to the RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries (or at RECEIVING PARTY's direction, to a third party) and responsibilities so as to minimize any disruption of services ("Transition Assistance"). RECEIVING PARTY shall cooperate with PROVIDING PARTY to allow PROVIDING PARTY to complete the Transition Assistance as early as is commercially reasonable to do so. Fees for any Transition Assistance shall be determined in accordance with the calculation formula and methods applicable to the Scheduled Services that are most similar in nature to the Transition Assistance being so provided, as set forth on the applicable section of Schedule 1.1(a).

2.4 Return of Materials. As a Corporate Service or Transition Assistance is terminated, each Party will return all materials and property owned by the other Party, including, without limitation, all RECEIVING PARTY Data, if any, and materials and property of a proprietary nature involving a Party or its Subsidiaries relevant to the provision or receipt of that Corporate Service or Transition Assistance and no longer needed regarding the performance of other Corporate Services or other Transition Assistance under this Agreement, and will do so (and will cause its Subsidiaries to do so) within thirty (30) days after the applicable termination. Upon the end of the Term, each Party will return all material and property of a proprietary nature involving the other Party or its Subsidiaries, in its possession or control (or the possession or control of an affiliate) within thirty (30) days after the end of the Term. In addition, upon RECEIVING PARTY's request, PROVIDING PARTY agrees to provide to RECEIVING PARTY copies of RECEIVING PARTY's Data, files and records on magnetic media, or such other media as the Parties shall agree upon, to the extent practicable. PROVIDING PARTY may retain archival copies of RECEIVING PARTY's Data, files and records.

ARTICLE III
COMPENSATION AND PAYMENT ARRANGEMENTS FOR CORPORATE
SERVICES AND CORPORATE MARKS

3.1 Compensation for Corporate Services.

(a) In accordance with the payment terms described in Section 3.2 below, RECEIVING PARTY agrees to timely pay PROVIDING PARTY, as compensation for the Corporate Services provided hereunder, all fees as contemplated in Section 1.1 (the "Corporate Service Fees") and in Section 2.3 (the "Transition Assistance Fees").

(b) Without limiting the foregoing, the parties acknowledge that RECEIVING PARTY is also obligated to pay, or reimburse PROVIDING PARTY for its payment of, all Out of Pocket Costs (as defined below); provided, however, that the inurrence of any liability by RECEIVING PARTY or any of its Subsidiaries for any New Out of Pocket Cost (as defined below) that requires the payment by RECEIVING PARTY or one of its Subsidiaries of more than $50,000, on an annualized basis, shall require the prior written approval of a full-time employee of RECEIVING PARTY or one of its Subsidiaries. For purposes hereof, the term "Out of Pocket Costs" means all fees, costs or other expenses payable by RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries to third parties that are not affiliates of PROVIDING PARTY in connection with Services provided hereunder; and the term "New Out of Pocket Cost" means any Out of Pocket Cost incurred after the Effective Date that is not a continuation of services provided to FNF or one of its Subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practices and for which FNF had paid or reimbursed a portion thereof prior to the Effective Date.

3.2 Payment Terms. The PROVIDING PARTY shall invoice the RECEIVING PARTY on a monthly basis in arrears for Corporate Service Fees plus Transition Assistance Fees, as calculated in accordance with Section 3.1 and Schedule 1.1(a). In addition, the PROVIDING PARTY shall promptly notify the RECEIVING PARTY, no more frequently than monthly, of the aggregate amount of Out of Pocket Costs to be reimbursed or paid. The RECEIVING PARTY shall pay by electronic funds transfer or other method satisfactory to PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY, in full, the monthly amount so invoiced and the Out of Pocket Costs incurred, within thirty (30) days after the date on which the PROVIDING PARTY's monthly invoice or notification of Out of Pocket Costs, as the case may be, was received. All invoices shall include, without limitation, the category of applicable Corporate Service or Transition Assistance Service (as the case may be), a brief description of the Out of Pocket Costs (if applicable), the billing period, and such other information as RECEIVING PARTY may reasonably request. Should RECEIVING PARTY dispute any portion of the amount due on any invoice or require any adjustment to an invoiced amount, or dispute any Out of Pocket Costs for which it received notification, then RECEIVING PARTY shall notify PROVIDING PARTY in writing of the nature and basis of the dispute and/or adjustment as soon as reasonably possible using, if necessary, the dispute resolution procedures set forth in Section 1.4. The Parties shall use their reasonable best efforts to resolve the dispute prior to the payment due date.

ARTICLE IV LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

4.1 LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. THE LIABILITY OF EITHER PARTY FOR A CLAIM ASSERTED BY THE OTHER PARTY BASED ON BREACH OF ANY COVENANT, AGREEMENT OR UNDERTAKING REQUIRED BY THIS AGREEMENT SHALL NOT EXCEED, IN THE AGGREGATE, THE FEES PAYABLE BY RECEIVING PARTY TO PROVIDING PARTY DURING THE ONE (1) YEAR PERIOD PRECEDING THE BREACH FOR THE PARTICULAR CORPORATE SERVICE AFFECTED BY SUCH BREACH UNDER THIS AGREEMENT; PROVIDED THAT SUCH LIMITATION SHALL NOT APPLY IN RESPECT OF ANY CLAIMS BASED ON A PARTY'S (i) GROSS NEGLIGENCE, (ii) WILLFUL MISCONDUCT, (iii) IMPROPER USE OR DISCLOSURE OF CUSTOMER INFORMATION, (iv) VIOLATIONS OF LAW, OR (v) INFRINGEMENT OF THE INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS OF A PERSON OR ENTITY WHO IS NOT A PARTY HERETO OR THE SUBSIDIARY OF A PARTY HERETO.

ARTICLE V FORCE MAJEURE

Neither Party shall be held liable for any delay or failure in performance of any part of this Agreement from any cause beyond its reasonable control and without its fault or negligence, including, but not limited to, acts of God, acts of civil or military authority, embargoes, epidemics, war, terrorist acts, riots, insurrections, fires, explosions, earthquakes, hurricanes, tornadoes, nuclear accidents, floods, strikes, terrorism and power blackouts. Upon the occurrence of a condition described in this Article, the Party whose performance is prevented shall give written notice to the other Party, and the Parties shall promptly confer, in good faith, to agree upon equitable, reasonable action to minimize the impact, on both Parties, of such conditions.

ARTICLE VI

ARTICLE VII
REMEDIES

7.1 Remedies Upon Material Breach. In the event of material breach of any provision of this Agreement by a Party, the non-defaulting Party shall give the defaulting Party written notice, and:

(a) If such breach is for RECEIVING PARTY's non-payment of an amount that is not in dispute, the defaulting Party shall cure the breach within thirty (30) calendar days of such notice. If the defaulting Party does not cure such breach by such date, then the defaulting Party shall pay the non-defaulting Party the undisputed amount, any interest that has accrued hereunder through the expiration of the cure period plus an additional amount of interest equal to four percent (4%) per annum above the "prime rate" as announced in the most recent edition of the Wall Street Journal. The Parties agree that this rate of interest constitutes reasonable liquidated damages and not an unenforceable penalty.

(b) If such breach is for any other material failure to perform in accordance with this Agreement, the defaulting Party shall cure such breach within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of such notice. If the defaulting Party does not cure such breach within such period, then the defaulting Party shall pay the non-defaulting Party all of the non-defaulting Party's actual damages, subject to Article IV above.

7.2 Survival Upon Expiration or Termination. The provisions of Section 1.4 (Dispute Resolution), Section 2.4 (Return of Materials), Article IV (Limitation of Liability), Article VI (Notices and Demands), this Section 7.2, Article VIII (Confidentiality), Article X (Indemnification) and Article XI (Miscellaneous) shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement unless otherwise agreed to in writing by both Parties.

ARTICLE VIII CONFIDENTIALITY

8.1 Confidential Information. Each Party shall use at least the same standard of care in the protection of Confidential Information of the other Party as it uses to protect its own confidential or proprietary information; provided that such Confidential Information shall be protected in at least a reasonable manner. For purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" includes all confidential or proprietary information and documentation of either Party, including the terms of this Agreement, including with respect to each Party, all of its software, data, financial information all reports, exhibits and other documentation prepared by any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates. Each Party shall use the Confidential Information of the other Party only in connection with the purposes of this Agreement and shall make such Confidential Information available only to its employees, subcontractors, or agents having a "need to know" with respect to such purpose. Each Party shall advise its respective employees, subcontractors, and agents of such Party's obligations under this Agreement. The obligations in this Section 8.1 will not restrict disclosure by a Party pursuant to applicable law, or by order or request of any court or government agency; provided, that prior to such disclosure the receiving Party shall (a) immediately give notice to the disclosing Party, (b) cooperate with the disclosing Party in challenging the right to such access and (c) only provide such information as is required by law, such order or a final, non-appealable ruling of a court of proper jurisdiction Confidential Information of a Party will not be afforded the protection of this Article VIII if such Confidential Information was (A) developed by the other Party independently as shown by its written business records regularly kept, (B) rightfully obtained by the other Party without restriction from a third party, (C) publicly available other than through the fault or negligence of the other Party or (D) released by the disclosing Party without restriction to anyone.

8.2 Work Product Privilege. RECEIVING PARTY represents and PROVIDING PARTY acknowledges that, in the course of providing Corporate Services pursuant to this Agreement, PROVIDING PARTY may have access to (a) documents, data, databases or communications that are subject to attorney client privilege and/or (b) privileged work product prepared by or on behalf of the affiliates of RECEIVING PARTY in anticipation of litigation with third parties (collectively, the "Privileged Work Product") and RECEIVING PARTY represents and PROVIDING PARTY understands that all Privileged Work Product is protected from disclosure by Rule 26 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the equivalent rules and regulations under the law chosen to govern the construction of this Agreement.

RECEIVING

PARTY represents and PROVIDING PARTY understands the importance of maintaining the strict confidentiality of the Privileged Work Product to protect the attorney client privilege, work product doctrine and other privileges and rights associated with such Privileged Work Product pursuant to such Rule 26 and the equivalent rules and regulations under the law chosen to govern the construction of this Agreement. After PROVIDING PARTY is notified or otherwise becomes aware that documents, data, database, or communications are Privileged Work Product, only PROVIDING PARTY personnel for whom such access is necessary for the purposes of providing Services to RECEIVING PARTY as provided in this Agreement shall have access to such Privileged Work Product. Should PROVIDING PARTY ever be notified of any judicial or other proceeding seeking to obtain access to Privileged Work Product, PROVIDING PARTY shall (A) immediately give notice to RECEIVING PARTY, (B) cooperate with RECEIVING PARTY in challenging the right to such access and (C) only provide such information as is required by a final, non-appealable ruling of a court of proper jurisdiction. RECEIVING PARTY shall pay all of the cost incurred by PROVIDING PARTY in complying with the immediately preceding sentence. RECEIVING PARTY has the right and duty to represent PROVIDING PARTY in such resistance or to select and compensate counsel to so represent PROVIDING PARTY or to reimburse PROVIDING PARTY for reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses as such fees and expenses are incurred in resisting such access. If PROVIDING PARTY is ultimately required, pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, to produce documents, disclose data, or otherwise act in contravention of the confidentiality obligations imposed in this Article VIII, or otherwise with respect to maintaining the confidentiality, proprietary nature, and secrecy of Privileged Work Product, PROVIDING PARTY is not liable for breach of such obligation to the extent such liability does not result from failure of PROVIDING PARTY to abide by the terms of this Article VIII. All Privileged Work Product is the property of RECEIVING PARTY and will be deemed Confidential Information, except as specifically authorized in this Agreement or as shall be required by law.

8.3 Unauthorized Acts. Each Party shall (a) notify the other Party promptly of any unauthorized possession, use, or knowledge of any Confidential Information by any person which shall become known to it, any attempt by any person to gain possession of Confidential Information without authorization or any attempt to use or acquire knowledge of any Confidential Information without authorization (collectively, "Unauthorized Access"), (b) promptly furnish to the other Party full details of the Unauthorized Access and use reasonable efforts to assist the other Party in investigating or preventing the reoccurrence of any Unauthorized Access, (c) cooperate with the other Party in any litigation and investigation against third parties deemed necessary by such Party to protect its proprietary rights, and (d) use commercially reasonable efforts to prevent a reoccurrence of any such Unauthorized Access.

8.4 Publicity. Except as required by law or national stock exchange rule or as allowed by any Ancillary Agreement, neither Party shall issue any press release, distribute any advertising, or make any public announcement or disclosure (a) identifying the other Party by name, trademark or otherwise or (b) concerning this Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, in the event either Party is required to issue a press release relating to this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or by the laws or regulations of any governmental authority, agency or self-regulatory agency, such Party shall (A) give notice and a copy of the proposed press release to the other Party as far in advance as reasonably possible, but in any event not less than five (5) days prior to publication of such press release and (B) make any changes to such press release reasonably requested by the other Party. In addition, RECEIVING PARTY may communicate the existence of the business relationship contemplated by the terms of this Agreement internally within PROVIDING PARTY's organization and orally and in writing communicate PROVIDING PARTY's identity as a reference with potential and existing customers.

8.5 Data Privacy. (a) Where, in connection with this Agreement, PROVIDING PARTY processes or stores information about a living individual that is held in automatically processable form (for example in a computerized database) or in a structured manual filing system ("Personal Data"), on behalf of any Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY or their clients, then PROVIDING PARTY shall implement appropriate measures to protect those personal data against accidental or unlawful destruction or accidental loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure or access and shall use such data solely for purposes of carrying out its obligations under this Agreement.

(b) RECEIVING PARTY may instruct PROVIDING PARTY, where PROVIDING PARTY processes Personal Data on behalf of Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY, to take such steps to preserve data privacy in the processing of those Personal Data as are reasonably necessary for the performance of this Agreement.

(c) Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY may, in connection with this Agreement, collect Personal Data in relation to PROVIDING PARTY and PROVIDING PARTY's employees, directors and other officers involved in providing Corporate Services hereunder. Such Personal Data may be collected from PROVIDING PARTY, its employees, its directors, its officers, or from other (for example, published) sources; and some limited personal data may be collected indirectly at RECEIVING PARTY's (or Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY's) locations from monitoring devices or by other means (e.g., telephone logs, closed circuit TV and door entry systems). Nothing in this Section 8.5(c) obligates PROVIDING PARTY or PROVIDING PARTY's employees, directors or other officers to provide Personal Data requested by RECEIVING PARTY. The Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY may use and disclose any such data disclosed by PROVIDING PARTY solely for purposes connected with this Agreement and for the relevant purposes specified in the data privacy policy of the Subsidiary of RECEIVING PARTY (a copy of which is available on request.) RECEIVING PARTY will maintain the same level of protection for Personal Data collected from PROVIDING PARTY (and PROVIDING PARTY's employees, directors and officers, as appropriate) as RECEIVING PARTY maintains with its own Personal Data, and will implement appropriate administrative, physical and technical measures to protect the personal data collected from PROVIDING PARTY and PROVIDING PARTY's employees, directors and other officers against accidental or unlawful destruction or accidental loss, alternation, unauthorized disclosure or access.

ARTICLE IX REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS

EXCEPT FOR THE REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS EXPRESSLY MADE IN THIS AGREEMENT, PROVIDING PARTY HAS NOT MADE AND DOES NOT HEREBY MAKE ANY EXPRESS OR IMPLIED REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES OR COVENANTS, STATUTORY OR OTHERWISE, OF ANY NATURE, INCLUDING WITH RESPECT TO THE WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, QUALITY, QUANTITY, SUITABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR THE RESULTS OBTAINED OF THE CONTINUING BUSINESS. ALL OTHER REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES, AND COVENANTS, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, STATUTORY, COMMON LAW OR OTHERWISE, OF ANY NATURE, INCLUDING WITH RESPECT TO THE WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, QUALITY, QUANTITY, SUITABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR THE RESULTS OBTAINED OF THE CONTINUING BUSINESS ARE HEREBY DISCLAIMED BY PROVIDING PARTY.

ARTICLE X
INDEMNIFICATION

10.1 Indemnification.

(a) Subject to Article IV, RECEIVING PARTY will indemnify, defend and hold harmless PROVIDING PARTY, each Subsidiary of PROVIDING PARTY, each of their respective past and present directors, officers, employees, agents, consultants, advisors, accountants and attorneys ("Representatives"), and each of their respective successors and assigns (collectively, the "PROVIDING PARTY Indemnified Parties") from and against any and all Damages (as defined below) incurred or suffered by the PROVIDING PARTY Indemnified Parties arising or resulting from the provision of Corporate Services hereunder, which Damages shall be reduced to the extent of:

(i) Damages caused or contributed to by PROVIDING PARTY's negligence, willful misconduct or violation of law; or

(ii) Damages caused or contributed to by a breach of this Agreement by PROVIDING PARTY.

"Damages" means, subject to Article IV hereof, all losses, claims, demands, damages, liabilities, judgments, dues, penalties, assessments, fines (civil, criminal or administrative), costs, liens, forfeitures, settlements, fees or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses and any other expenses reasonably incurred in connection with investigating, prosecuting or defending a claim or Action).

(b) Except as set forth in this Section 10.1(b), PROVIDING PARTY will have no liability to RECEIVING PARTY for or in connection with any of the Corporate Services rendered hereunder or for any actions or omissions of PROVIDING PARTY in connection with the provision of any Corporate Services hereunder. Subject to the provisions hereof and subject to Article IV, PROVIDING PARTY will indemnify, defend and hold harmless RECEIVING PARTY, each Subsidiary of RECEIVING PARTY, each of their respective past and present Representatives, and each of their respective successors and assigns (collectively, the "RECEIVING PARTY Indemnified Parties") from and against any and all Damages incurred or suffered by the RECEIVING PARTY Indemnified Parties arising or resulting from either of the following:

(i) any claim that PROVIDING PARTY's use of the software or other intellectual property used to provide the Corporate Services or Transition Assistance, or any results and proceeds of such Corporate Services or Transition Assistance, infringes, misappropriates or otherwise violates any United States patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret or other intellectual property rights; provided, that such intellectual property indemnity shall not apply to the extent that any such claim arises out of any modification to such software or other intellectual property made by RECEIVING PARTY without PROVIDING PARTY's authorization or participation, or provided, that in each of the cases described in subclauses (i) through (ii) above, the amount of Damages incurred or sustained by RECEIVING PARTY shall be reduced to the extent such Damages shall have been caused or contributed to by any action or omission of RECEIVING PARTY in amounts equal to RECEIVING PARTY's equitable share of such Damages determined in accordance with its relative culpability for such Damages or the relative fault of RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries.

10.2 Indemnification Procedures.

(a) Claim Notice. A Party that seeks indemnity under this Article X (an "Indemnified Party") will give written notice (a "Claim Notice") to the Party from whom indemnification is sought (an "Indemnifying Party"), whether the Damages sought arise from matters solely between the Parties or from Third Party Claims. The Claim Notice must contain (i) a description and, if known, estimated amount (the "Claimed Amount") of any Damages incurred or reasonably expected to be incurred by the Indemnified Party, (ii) a reasonable explanation of the basis for the Claim Notice to the extent of facts then known by the Indemnified Party, and (iii) a demand for payment of those Damages. No delay or deficiency on the part of the Indemnified Party in so notifying the Indemnifying Party will relieve the Indemnifying Party of any liability for Damages or obligation hereunder except to the extent of any Damages caused by or arising out of such failure.

(b) Response to Notice of Claim. Within thirty (30) days after delivery of a Claim Notice, the Indemnifying Party will deliver to the Indemnified Party a written response in which the Indemnifying Party will either: (i) agree that the Indemnified Party is entitled to receive all of the Claimed Amount and, in which case, the Indemnifying Party will pay the Claimed Amount in accordance with a payment and distribution method reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party; or (ii) dispute that the Indemnified Party is entitled to receive all or any portion of the Claimed Amount, in which case, the Parties will resort to the dispute resolution procedures set forth in Section 1.4.

(c) Contested Claims. In the event that the Indemnifying Party disputes the Claimed Amount, as soon as practicable but in no event later than ten (10) days after the receipt of the notice referenced in Section 10.2(b)(ii) hereof, the Parties will begin the process to resolve the matter in accordance with the dispute resolution provisions of Section 1.4 hereof. Upon ultimate resolution thereof, the Parties will take such actions as are reasonably necessary to comply with such agreement or instructions.

(d) Third Party Claims.

(i) In the event that the Indemnified Party receives notice or otherwise learns of the assertion by a person or entity who is not a Party hereto or a Subsidiary of a Party hereto of any claim or the commencement of any action (a "Third-Party Claim") with respect to which the Indemnifying Party may be obligated to provide indemnification under this Article X, the Indemnified Party will give written notification to the Indemnifying Party of the Third-Party Claim. Such notification will be given within fifteen (15) days after receipt by the Indemnified Party of notice of such Third-Party Claim, will be accompanied by reasonable supporting documentation submitted by such third party (to the extent then in the possession of the Indemnified Party) and will describe in reasonable detail (to the extent known by the Indemnified Party) the facts constituting the basis for such Third-Party Claim and the amount of the claimed Damages; provided, however, that no delay or deficiency on the part of the Indemnified Party in so notifying the Indemnifying Party will relieve the Indemnifying Party of any liability for Damages or obligation hereunder except to the extent of any Damages caused by or arising out of such failure. Within twenty (20) days after delivery of such notification, the Indemnifying Party may, upon written notice thereof to the Indemnified Party, assume control of the defense of such Third-Party Claim with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party. During any period in which the Indemnifying Party has not so assumed control of such defense, the Indemnified Party will control such defense.

(ii) The Party not controlling such defense (the "Non-controlling Party") may participate therein at its own expense.

(iii) The Party controlling such defense (the "Controlling Party") will keep the Non-controlling Party reasonably advised of the status of such Third-Party Claim and the defense thereof and will consider in good faith recommendations made by the Non-controlling Party with respect thereto. The Non-controlling Party will furnish the Controlling Party with such Information as it may have with respect to such Third-Party Claim (including copies of any summons, complaint or other pleading which may have been served on such Party and any written claim, demand, invoice, billing or other document evidencing or asserting the same) and will otherwise cooperate with and assist the Controlling Party in the defense of such Third-Party Claim.

(iv) The Indemnifying Party will not agree to any settlement of, or the entry of any judgment arising from, any such Third-Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided, however, that the consent of the Indemnified Party will not be required if (A) the Indemnifying Party agrees in writing to pay any amounts payable pursuant to such settlement or judgment, and (B) such settlement or judgment includes a full, complete and unconditional release of the Indemnified Party from further Liability. The Indemnified Party will not agree to any settlement of, or the entry of any judgment arising from, any such Third-Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

ARTICLE XI
MISCELLANEOUS

11.1 Relationship of the Parties. The Parties declare and agree that each Party is engaged in a business that is independent from that of the other Party and each Party shall perform its obligations as an independent contractor. It is expressly understood and agreed that RECEIVING PARTY and PROVIDING PARTY are not partners, and nothing contained herein is intended to create an agency relationship or a partnership or joint venture with respect to the Corporate Services. Neither Party is an agent of the other and neither Party has any authority to represent or bind the other Party as to any matters, except as authorized herein or in writing by such other Party from time to time.

11.2 Employees. (a) PROVIDING PARTY shall be solely responsible for payment of compensation to its employees and, as between the Parties, for its Subsidiaries' employees and for any injury to them in the course of their employment. PROVIDING PARTY shall assume full responsibility for payment of all federal, state and local taxes or contributions imposed or required under unemployment insurance, social security and income tax laws with respect to such persons.

(b) RECEIVING PARTY shall be solely responsible for payment of compensation to its employees and, as between the Parties, for its Subsidiaries' employees and for any injury to them in the course of their employment. RECEIVING PARTY shall assume full responsibility for payment of all federal, state and local taxes or contributions imposed or required under unemployment insurance, social security and income tax laws with respect to such persons.

11.3 Assignment. Neither Party may, in connection with a sale of an asset to which one or more of the Corporate Services relate, assign, transfer or convey any right, obligation or duty, in whole or in part, or of any other interest under this Agreement relating to such Corporate Services without the prior written consent of the other Party. All obligations and duties of a Party under this Agreement shall be binding on all successors in interest and permitted assigns of such Party. Each Party may use its Subsidiaries or subcontractors to perform the Corporate Services; provided that such use shall not relieve such assigning Party of liability for its responsibilities and obligations.

11.4 Severability. In the event that any one or more of the provisions contained herein shall for any reason be held to be unenforceable in any respect under law, such unenforceability shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement, and this Agreement shall be construed as if such unenforceable provision or provisions had never been contained herein.

11.5 Third Party Beneficiaries. The provisions of this Agreement are for the benefit of the Parties and their affiliates and not for any other person. However, should any third party institute proceedings, this Agreement shall not provide any such person with any remedy, claim, liability, reimbursement, cause of action, or other right.

11.6 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida, without giving effect to such State's laws and principles regarding the conflict of laws. Subject to Section 1.4, if any Dispute arises out of or in connection with this Agreement, except as expressly contemplated by another provision of this Agreement, the Parties irrevocably (a) consent and submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of federal and state courts located in Jacksonville, Florida, (b) waive any objection to that choice of forum based on venue or to the effect that the forum is not convenient and (c) WAIVE TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL OR ADJUDICATION BY JURY.

11.7 Executed in Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same document.

11.8 Construction. The headings and numbering of articles, sections and paragraphs in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not be construed to define or limit any of the terms or affect the scope, meaning, or interpretation of this Agreement or the particular Article or Section to which they relate. This Agreement and the provisions contained herein shall not be construed or interpreted for or against any Party because that Party drafted or caused its legal representative to draft any of its provisions.

11.9 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including all attachments, constitutes the entire Agreement between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior oral or written agreements, representations, statements, negotiations, understandings, proposals and undertakings, with respect to the subject matter hereof.

11.10 Amendments and Waivers. The Parties may amend this Agreement only by a written agreement signed by each Party and that identifies itself as an amendment to this Agreement. No waiver of any provisions of this Agreement and no consent to any default under this Agreement shall be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by or on behalf of the Party against whom such waiver or consent is claimed. No course of dealing or failure of any Party to strictly enforce any term, right or condition of this Agreement shall be construed as a waiver of such term, right or condition. Waiver by either Party of any default by the other Party shall not be deemed a waiver of any other default.

11.11 Remedies Cumulative. Unless otherwise provided for under this Agreement, all rights of termination or cancellation, or other remedies set forth in this Agreement, are cumulative and are not intended to be exclusive of other remedies to which the injured Party may be entitled by law or equity in case of any breach or threatened breach by the other Party of any provision in this Agreement. Unless otherwise provided for under this Agreement, use of one or more remedies shall not bar use of any other remedy for the purpose of enforcing any provision of this Agreement.

11.12 Taxes. All charges and fees to be paid to PROVIDING PARTY under this Agreement are exclusive of any applicable taxes required by law to be collected from the RECEIVING PARTY (including, without limitation, withholding, sales, use, excise, or services tax, which may be assessed on the provision of Corporate Services). In the event that a withholding, sales, use, excise, or services tax is assessed on the provision of any of the Corporate Services under this Agreement, RECEIVING PARTY will pay directly, reimburse or indemnify PROVIDING PARTY for such tax, plus any applicable interest and penalties. The Parties will cooperate with each other in determining the extent to which any tax is due and owing under the circumstances, and shall provide and make available to each other any resale certificate, information regarding out-of-state use of materials, services or sale, and other exemption certificates or information reasonably requested by either Party.

11.13 Changes in Law. PROVIDING PARTY's obligations to provide Corporate Services hereunder are to provide such Corporate Services in accordance with applicable laws as in effect on the date of this Agreement. Each Party reserves the right to take all actions in order to ensure that the Corporate Services and Transition Assistance are provided in accordance with any applicable laws.

DEFINITIONS AND FORMULAS

FOR PURPOSES OF CALCULATING COST ALLOCATION

For purposes of this Agreement and the Corporate Service Schedules:

"Direct Employee Compensation" of an employee means the aggregate of such employee's salary, overtime, cash bonus and commission compensation and payroll taxes attributable thereto.

"Departmental Costs" of a department/cost center means any and all costs incurred by or allocated to that department/cost center other than Direct Employee Compensation of the employees in the department/cost center, such as office furniture and equipment, office space and facilities expenses, repairs & maintenance expenses, rent and leasehold improvements, utilities, telecommunications and IT equipment, insurance costs, employee benefits costs (attributable to RECEIVING PARTY's employees' participation in PROVIDING PARTY's benefit plans and programs and/or any benefit plans and programs established by PROVIDING PARTY from time to time), depreciation, amortization, real property and personal property taxes, advertising and promotional expenses (if any), postage, courier and shipping expenses, printing, reproduction, stationary, and office supplies, travel and entertainment expenses, educational, training and recruiting expenses, professional dues and subscriptions, fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Services that are included in Administrative Overhead, and the other similar costs that are generally characterized as "overhead", in each case as allocated to the department/cost center in accordance with PROVIDING PARTY's current overhead cost allocation policy.

"Servicing Employee" means an employee of PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries who provides services to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries under this Agreement.

"Standard Allocation", for purposes of the Services provided under this Agreement and the Schedules hereto, including the Cost Allocation section of the Schedules, shall be calculated as follows:

1. Out of Pocket Costs incurred by or on behalf of RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiary(s) are charged directly to it and are not part of the Services under this Agreement or the payments to be made therefor.
2. The Direct Employee Compensation of the PROVIDING PARTY Servicing Employees shall be allocated to RECEIVING PARTY based on the percentage of work time that each such Servicing Employee spends in providing the applicable Services to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries. These allocations shall be determined as of the Closing Date, based on data and result of June 2005, and shall be applied to determine the allocations hereunder on a monthly basis, with each work time percentage and corresponding Departmental Cost percentage to be re-examined and updated (if appropriate) at the end of each 6-month period following the Closing Date, it being understood that any changes in the allocations must be pre-approved by the Chief Accounting Officer of FNF.

By way of example, for a Servicing Employee of PROVIDING PARTY who has an annual salary of $50,000, a cash bonus of $20,000, and payroll taxes of $10,000 and who spends 40% of his work time on providing Services under this Agreement, RECEIVING PARTY would be allocated a Direct Employee Compensation cost of $32,000 calculated as follows:

$$($50,000 + $20,000 + $10,000) \times 40\% = $32,000.$$

3. In addition to the Direct Employee Compensation, Departmental Costs of each department/cost center of PROVIDING PARTY that has Servicing Employees shall be allocated to RECEIVING PARTY based on a percentage reflecting the aggregate regular salaries of all of the Servicing Employees in that department/cost center, in relation to the aggregate regular salaries of all employees in the department/cost center, taking into account the percentage of work time that each Servicing Employee in the department/cost center spends in providing services to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries hereunder.

By way of example, assume that in a PROVIDING PARTY department/cost center, there are 20 employees, 5 of whom are Servicing Employees who each spend 40% of the work time providing services to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries. If the aggregate regular salaries of the 20 employees is $500,000, and the aggregate regular salaries of the 5 Servicing Employees is $300,000, then we determine the portion of the Departmental Costs that will be allocated to RECEIVING PARTY as follows:

$$$300,000 \times 40\% = $120,000.$$

Then, determine the portion of the Departmental Costs to be allocated to RECEIVING PARTY based on the aggregate regular salaries percentage:

$$$120,000 / $500,000 = 24\%.$$

In this example, 24% of the Departmental Costs of this department/cost center will be allocated to RECEIVING PARTY.

4. Except to the extent otherwise expressly provided herein, for any given 6-month period, all Direct Employee Compensation to be allocated shall be determined on the basis of the applicable work time percentages for the immediately preceding 6-month period, except that the Direct Employee Compensation allocations applicable on the Closing Date shall be based on the work time percentages applicable for the calendar month June 2005. At the end of each 6-month period, the work time percentages shall be re-examined and the Direct Employee Compensation will be re-allocated based on the revised work time percentages, if any. For any given 6-month, all Departmental Costs to be allocated shall be determined on the basis of the applicable aggregate salaries and related percentages for the immediately preceding 6-month period, except that the aggregate salaries and related percentages applicable on the Closing Date shall be based on the work time percentages and aggregate salaries applicable for the calendar month June 2005.

5. If at any time during the Term of this Agreement RECEIVING PARTY terminates or discontinues all or any portion of a Corporate Service prior to the end of the Term or if any Corporate Service (or portion thereof) automatically terminates, pursuant to Section 2.2(b) (hereinafter referred to as a "Discontinued Service"), then effective as of the last day of the calendar month in which such termination or discontinuation is effective, Corporate Services Fees related to the Discontinued Service shall no longer be owing under this Agreement.

FNF and FNT shall be referred to together in this Agreement as the "Parties" and individually as a "Party."

WHEREAS, FNF has undertaken a strategic restructuring plan, pursuant to which FNT has been formed and will be the holding company for all of FNF's title insurance subsidiaries and operations; and

ARTICLE I
CORPORATE SERVICES

1.1 Corporate Services. This Agreement sets forth the terms and conditions for the provision by PROVIDING PARTY to RECEIVING PARTY of various corporate services and products, as more fully described below and in Schedule 1.1(a) attached hereto (the Scheduled Services, the Omitted Services, the Resumed Services and Special Projects (as defined below), collectively, the "Corporate Services").

(a) PROVIDING PARTY, through its Subsidiaries (as defined below) and their respective employees, agents or contractors, shall provide or cause to be provided to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries (and, at the request of RECEIVING PARTY, to Affiliates (as defined below) of RECEIVING PARTY) all services set forth on Schedule 1.1(a) (the "Scheduled Services") on and after the Effective Date (with such services to be provided to the RECEIVING PARTY's Subsidiaries as they become Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY, subject to the exception in clause (ii) of Section 1.2(a)). RECEIVING PARTY shall pay fees to PROVIDING PARTY for providing the Scheduled Services or causing the Scheduled Services to be provided as set forth in Schedule 1.1(a). For purposes of this Agreement, "Subsidiary" means, with respect to any Party, any corporation, partnership, company or other entity of which such Party controls or owns, directly or indirectly, more than fifty percent (50%) of the stock or other equity interest entitled to vote on the election of the members to the board of directors or similar governing body, provided, however, that with respect to the PROVIDING PARTY, "Subsidiary" shall not include Fidelity National Information Services, Inc. or any of its Subsidiaries and shall not include RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries; and "Affiliate" means, with respect to either Party, any corporation, partnership, company, or other entity that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, such specified Party, except that (i) in the case of RECEIVING PARTY, "Affiliate" shall not include FNF, and (ii) in the case of PROVIDING PARTY, "Affiliate" shall include not include Fidelity National Information Services, Inc. and its Subsidiaries. As used herein, "control" means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of such entity, whether through ownership of voting securities or other interests, by contract or otherwise.

(b) PROVIDING PARTY, through its Subsidiaries and their respective employees, agents or contractors, shall provide or cause to be provided to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries (and, at the request of RECEIVING PARTY, to Affiliates (as defined below) of RECEIVING PARTY) all services that PROVIDING PARTY was performing for RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries as of the Effective Date that pertain to and are a part of Scheduled Services under Section 1.1(a) (with such services to be provided to the RECEIVING PARTY's Subsidiaries as they become Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY, subject to the exception in clause (ii) of Section 1.2(a)), which are not expressly included in the list of Scheduled Services in Schedule 1.1(a), but are required to conduct the business of RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries (the "Omitted Services"), unless RECEIVING PARTY consents in writing to the termination of such services. Such Omitted Services shall be added to Schedule 1.1(a) and thereby become Scheduled Services, as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date by the Parties. In the event that RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries had been allocated charges or otherwise paid PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries for such Omitted Services immediately prior to the Effective Date, RECEIVING PARTY shall pay to PROVIDING PARTY for providing the Omitted Services or causing the Omitted Services to be provided hereunder fees equal to the actual fees paid for such Omitted Services immediately preceding the Effective Date; provided, that payment of such fees by the RECEIVING PARTY for the Omitted Services provided hereunder shall be retroactive to the first day of the calendar quarter in which either Party identifies such services as Omitted Services, but in no event shall RECEIVING PARTY be required to pay for any Omitted Services provided hereunder by the PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Date. In the event that RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries had not been allocated charges or otherwise paid PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries for such Omitted Services immediately prior to the Effective Date, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith a fee to be based on the cost of providing such Omitted Services, which shall in no event be less than the Default Fee (as defined below); provided, that payment of such fees by the RECEIVING PARTY for the Omitted Services provided hereunder by the RECEIVING PARTY shall be retroactive to the first day of the calendar quarter in which either the Party identifies such services as Omitted Services, but in no event shall RECEIVING PARTY be required to pay for any such Omitted Services provided hereunder by the PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Date. The "Default Fee" means an amount equal to one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the salary of each full-time employee, on an hourly basis, who provides the applicable Corporate Service or Transition Assistance (as defined in Section 2.3).

(c) At RECEIVING PARTY's written request, PROVIDING PARTY, through its Subsidiaries and their respective employees, agents or contractors, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide or cause to be provided to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries (and, at the request of RECEIVING PARTY, to Affiliates (as defined below) of RECEIVING PARTY) any Scheduled Service that has been terminated at RECEIVING PARTY's request pursuant to Section 2.2 (the "Resumed Services"); provided, that PROVIDING PARTY shall have no obligation to provide a Resumed Service if providing such Resumed Service will have a material adverse impact on the other Corporate Services. Schedule 1.1(a) shall from time to time be amended to reflect the resumption of a Resumed Service and the Resumed Service shall be set forth thereon as a Scheduled Service.

(d) At RECEIVING PARTY's written request, PROVIDING PARTY, through its Subsidiaries and their respective employees, agents or contractors, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide additional corporate services that are not described in the Schedule 1.1(a) and that are neither Omitted Services nor Resumed Services ("Special Projects"). RECEIVING PARTY shall submit a written request to PROVIDING PARTY specifying the nature of the Special Project and requesting an estimate of the costs applicable for such Special Project and the expected time frame for completion. PROVIDING PARTY shall respond promptly to such written request, but in no event later than twenty (20) days, with a written estimate of the cost of providing such Special Project and the expected time frame for completion (the "Cost Estimate"). If RECEIVING PARTY provides written approval of the Cost Estimate within ten (10) days after PROVIDING PARTY delivers the Cost Estimate, then within a commercially reasonable time after receipt of RECEIVING PARTY's written request, PROVIDING PARTY shall begin providing the Special Project; provided, that PROVIDING PARTY shall have no obligation to provide a Special Project where, in its reasonable discretion and prior to providing the Cost Estimate, it has determined and notified RECEIVING PARTY in writing that (i) it would not be feasible to provide such Special Project, given reasonable priority to other demands on its resources and capacity both under this Agreement or otherwise or (ii) it lacks the experience or qualifications to provide such Special Project.

1.2 Provision of Corporate Services; Excused Performance. To the extent commercially reasonable, the Parties will work together and begin the process of migrating the Corporate Services from PROVIDING PARTY to RECEIVING PARTY, one or more of its Subsidiaries or a third party (at RECEIVING PARTY's direction) such that the completion of the migration of the Corporate Services from PROVIDING PARTY to RECEIVING PARTY, one or more of its Subsidiaries or a third party, as the case may be, shall occur prior to the end of the Term. PROVIDING PARTY shall provide or cause to be provided each of the Corporate Services through the expiration of the Term, except (i) as automatically modified by earlier termination of a Corporate Service by RECEIVING PARTY in accordance with this Agreement, (ii) for Corporate Services to or for the benefit of any entity which ceases to be a Subsidiary of RECEIVING PARTY prior to the end of the Term, or (iii) as otherwise agreed to by the Parties in writing.

1.3 Third Party Vendors; Consents.

(a) PROVIDING PARTY shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to keep and maintain in effect its relationships with its vendors that are integral to the provision of the Corporate Services. PROVIDING PARTY shall use commercially reasonable efforts to procure any waivers, permits, consents or sublicenses required by third party licensors, vendors or service providers under existing agreements with such third parties in order to provide any Corporate Services hereunder ("Third Party Consents"). In the event that PROVIDING PARTY is unable to procure such Third Party Consents on commercially reasonable terms, PROVIDING PARTY agrees to so notify RECEIVING PARTY, and to assist RECEIVING PARTY with the transition to another vendor. If, after the Effective Date, any one or more vendors (i) terminates its contractual relationship with PROVIDING PARTY or ceases to provide the products or services associated with the Corporate Services or (ii) notifies PROVIDING PARTY of its desire or plan to terminate its contractual relationship with PROVIDING PARTY or (iii) ceases providing the products or services associated with the Corporate Services, then, in either case, PROVIDING PARTY agrees to so notify RECEIVING PARTY, and to assist RECEIVING PARTY with the transition to another vendor so that RECEIVING PARTY may continue to receive similar products and services.

(b) PROVIDING PARTY shall not be required to transfer or assign to RECEIVING PARTY any third party software licenses or any hardware owned by PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries in connection with the provision of the Corporate Services or at the conclusion of the Term.

1.4 Dispute Resolution.

(a) Amicable Resolution. PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY mutually desire that friendly collaboration will continue between them. Accordingly, they will try to resolve in an amicable manner all disagreements and misunderstandings connected with their respective rights and obligations under this Agreement, including any amendments hereto. In furtherance thereof, in the event of any dispute or disagreement (a "Dispute") between PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY in connection with this Agreement (including, without limitation, the standards of performance, delay of performance or non-performance of obligations, or payment or non-payment of fees hereunder), then the Dispute, upon written request of either Party, will be referred for resolution to the president (or similar position) of the division implicated by the matter for each of PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY, which presidents will have fifteen (15) days to resolve such Dispute. If the presidents of the relevant divisions for each of PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY do not agree to a resolution of such Dispute within fifteen (15) days after the reference of the matter to them, such presidents of the relevant divisions will refer such matter to the president of each of PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY for final resolution. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 1.4, any amendment to the terms of this Agreement may only be effected in accordance with Section 11.10.

(b) Arbitration. In the event that the Dispute is not resolved in a friendly manner as set forth in Section 1.4(a), either Party involved in the Dispute may submit the dispute to binding arbitration pursuant to this Section 1.4(b). All Disputes submitted to arbitration pursuant to this Section 1.4(b) shall be resolved in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association, unless the Parties involved mutually agree to utilize an alternate set of rules, in which event all references herein to the American Arbitration Association shall be deemed modified accordingly. Expedited rules shall apply regardless of the amount at issue. Arbitration proceedings hereunder may be initiated by either Party making a written request to the American Arbitration Association, together with any appropriate filing fee, at the office of the American Arbitration Association in Orlando, Florida. All arbitration proceedings shall be held in the city of Jacksonville, Florida in a location to be specified by the arbitrators (or any place agreed to by the Parties and the arbitrators). The arbitration shall be by a single qualified arbitrator experienced in the matters at issue, such arbitrator to be mutually agreed upon by PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY. If PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY fail to agree on an arbitrator within thirty (30) days after notice of commencement of arbitration, the American Arbitration Association shall, upon the request of any Party to the Dispute, appoint the arbitrator. Any order or determination of the arbitral tribunal shall be final and binding upon the Parties to the arbitration as to matters submitted and may be enforced by any Party to the Dispute in any court having jurisdiction over the subject matter or over any of the Parties. All costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such arbitration proceeding (including reasonable attorneys' fees) shall be borne by the Party incurring such costs. The use of any alternative dispute resolution procedures hereunder will not be construed under the doctrines of laches, waiver or estoppel to affect adversely the rights of either Party.

(c) Non-Exclusive Remedy. Nothing in this Section 1.4 will prevent either PROVIDING PARTY or RECEIVING PARTY from immediately seeking injunctive or interim relief in the event (i) of any actual or threatened breach of any of the provisions of Article VIII or (ii) that the Dispute relates to, or involves a claim of, actual or threatened infringement of intellectual property. All such actions for injunctive or interim relief shall be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction in accordance with Section 11.6. Such remedy shall not be deemed to be the exclusive remedy for breach of this Agreement, and further remedies may be pursued in accordance with Section 1.4(a) and Section 1.4(b) above.

(d) Commencement of Dispute Resolution Procedure. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY, but none of their respective Subsidiaries, are entitled to commence a dispute resolution procedure under this Agreement, whether pursuant to Article XI, this Section 1.4 or otherwise, and each Party will cause its respective affiliates not to commence any dispute resolution procedure other than through such Party as provided in this Section 1.4(d).

(e) Compensation. RECEIVING PARTY shall continue to make all payments due and owing under Article III for Corporate Services not the subject of a Dispute and shall not off-set such fees by the amount of fees for Corporate Services that are the subject of the Dispute.

1.5 Standard of Services.

(a) PROVIDING PARTY shall perform the Corporate Services for RECEIVING PARTY in a professional and competent manner, using standards of performance consistent with its performance of such services for itself.

(b) During the Term, PROVIDING PARTY shall maintain a disaster recovery program for the Corporate Services substantially consistent with the disaster recovery program in place for such Corporate Services as of the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the disaster recovery program maintained by PROVIDING PARTY will not include a business continuity program.

(c) If RECEIVING PARTY provides PROVIDING PARTY with written notice ("Shortfall Notice") of the occurrence of any Significant Service Shortfall (as defined below), as determined by RECEIVING PARTY in good faith, PROVIDING PARTY shall rectify such Significant Service Shortfall as soon as reasonably possible. For purposes of this Section 1.5(c), a "Significant Service Shortfall" shall be deemed to have occurred if the timing or quality of performance of Corporate Services provided by PROVIDING PARTY hereunder falls below the standard required by Section 1.5(a) hereof; provided that PROVIDING PARTY's obligations under this Agreement shall be relieved to the extent, and for the duration of, any force majeure event as set forth in Article V.

1.6 Response Time. PROVIDING PARTY shall respond to and resolve any problems in connection with the Corporate Services for RECEIVING PARTY within a commercially reasonable period of time, using response and proposed resolution times consistent with its response and resolution of such problems for itself.

1.7 Ownership of Materials; Results and Proceeds. All data and information submitted to PROVIDING PARTY by RECEIVING PARTY, in connection with the Corporate Services or the Transition Assistance (as defined in Section 2.3) (the "RECEIVING PARTY Data"), and all results and proceeds of the Corporate Services and the Transition Assistance with regard to the RECEIVING PARTY Data, is and will remain, as between the Parties, the property of the RECEIVING PARTY. The PROVIDING PARTY shall not and shall not permit its Subsidiaries to use the RECEIVING PARTY Data for any purpose other than to provide the Corporate Services or Transition Assistance.

ARTICLE II TERM AND TRANSITION ASSISTANCE

2.1 Term. The term (the "Term") of this Agreement shall commence as of the date hereof and shall continue until the date on which the last of the Scheduled Services under this Agreement is terminated or the date on which this Agreement is terminated by mutual agreement of the Parties, whichever is earlier (in either case, the "Termination Date"); provided, however, that in no event shall the Term:

(a) expire later than the date that is six (6) months after any event or circumstance causing FNT to own or control, directly or indirectly, fifty percent (50%) or less of the stock, or other equity interest entitled to vote on the election of the members to the board of directors or similar governing body, of FNT, and

2.2 Termination.

(a) If RECEIVING PARTY is not able to complete its transition of the Corporate Services by the Termination Date, then upon written notice provided to PROVIDING PARTY at least thirty (30) days prior to the Termination Date, RECEIVING PARTY shall have the right to request and cause PROVIDING PARTY to provide up to thirty (30) days of additional Corporate Services to RECEIVING PARTY; provided, that RECEIVING PARTY shall pay for all such additional Corporate Services.

(b) If RECEIVING PARTY wishes to terminate a Corporate Service (or a portion thereof) on a date that is earlier than the Termination Date, RECEIVING PARTY shall provide written notice (the "Termination Notice") to PROVIDING PARTY of a proposed termination date for such Corporate Service (or portion thereof), at least ninety (90) days prior to such proposed termination date. Upon receipt of such notice, PROVIDING PARTY shall promptly provide notice to RECEIVING PARTY (the "Termination Dispute Notice") in the event that the PROVIDING PARTY believes in good faith that, notwithstanding the PROVIDING PARTY using its commercially reasonable efforts, the requested termination will have a material adverse impact on other Corporate Services and the scope of such adverse impact. In such event, the Parties will resolve the dispute in accordance with Section 1.4. If PROVIDING PARTY does not provide the Termination Dispute Notice, based on the standards set forth above, within ten (10) days of the date on which the Termination Notice was received, then, effective on the termination date proposed by RECEIVING PARTY in its Termination Notice, such Corporate Service (or portion thereof) shall be discontinued (thereafter, a "Discontinued Corporate Service") and deemed deleted from the Scheduled Services to be provided hereunder and thereafter, this Agreement shall be of no further force and effect with respect to the Discontinued Corporate Service (or portion thereof), except as to obligations accrued prior to the date of discontinuation of such Corporate Service (or portion thereof). Upon the occurrence of any Discontinued Corporate Service, the Parties shall promptly update Schedule 1.1(a) to reflect the discontinuation, and the Corporate Service Fees shall be adjusted in accordance therewith and the provisions of Article III. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, at any time that employees of PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries move to a department within RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries (an "Employee Shift"), a proportional portion of the relevant Corporate Service shall be deemed automatically terminated. If a Corporate Service, or portion thereof, is terminated as a result of an Employee Shift, then such termination shall take effect as of the date of the Employee Shift, and the adjustment in Corporate Service Fees shall also take effect as of the date of the Employee Shift.

(c) If all Corporate Services shall have been terminated under this Section 2.2 prior to the expiration of the Term, then either Party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement by giving written notice to the other Party, which termination shall be effective upon delivery as provided in Section 6.1.

2.3 Transition Assistance. In preparation for the discontinuation of any Corporate Service provided under this Agreement, PROVIDING PARTY shall, consistent with its obligations to provide Corporate Services hereunder and with the cooperation and assistance of RECEIVING PARTY, use commercially reasonable efforts to provide such knowledge transfer services and to take such steps as are reasonably required in order to facilitate a smooth and efficient transition and/or migration of records to the RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries (or at RECEIVING PARTY's direction, to a third party) and responsibilities so as to minimize any disruption of services ("Transition Assistance"). RECEIVING PARTY shall cooperate with PROVIDING PARTY to allow PROVIDING PARTY to complete the Transition Assistance as early as is commercially reasonable to do so. Fees for any Transition Assistance shall be determined in accordance with the calculation formula and methods applicable to the Scheduled Services that are most similar in nature to the Transition Assistance being so provided, as set forth on the applicable section of Schedule 1.1(a).

2.4 Return of Materials. As a Corporate Service or Transition Assistance is terminated, each Party will return all materials and property owned by the other Party, including, without limitation, all RECEIVING PARTY Data, if any, and materials and property of a proprietary nature involving a Party or its Subsidiaries relevant to the provision or receipt of that Corporate Service or Transition Assistance and no longer needed regarding the performance of other Corporate Services or other Transition Assistance under this Agreement, and will do so (and will cause its Subsidiaries to do so) within thirty (30) days after the applicable termination. Upon the end of the Term, each Party will return all material and property of a proprietary nature involving the other Party or its Subsidiaries, in its possession or control (or the possession or control of an affiliate) within thirty (30) days after the end of the Term. In addition, upon RECEIVING PARTY's request, PROVIDING PARTY agrees to provide to RECEIVING PARTY copies of RECEIVING PARTY's Data, files and records on magnetic media, or such other media as the Parties shall agree upon, to the extent practicable. PROVIDING PARTY may retain archival copies of RECEIVING PARTY's Data, files and records.

ARTICLE III
COMPENSATION AND PAYMENT ARRANGEMENTS FOR CORPORATE
SERVICES AND CORPORATE MARKS

3.1 Compensation for Corporate Services.

(a) In accordance with the payment terms described in Section 3.2 below, RECEIVING PARTY agrees to timely pay PROVIDING PARTY, as compensation for the Corporate Services provided hereunder, all fees as contemplated in Section 1.1 (the "Corporate Service Fees") and in Section 2.3 (the "Transition Assistance Fees").

(b) Without limiting the foregoing, the parties acknowledge that RECEIVING PARTY is also obligated to pay, or reimburse PROVIDING PARTY for its payment of, all Out of Pocket Costs (as defined below); provided, however, that the incurrence of any liability by RECEIVING PARTY or any of its Subsidiaries for any New Out of Pocket Cost (as defined below) that requires the payment by RECEIVING PARTY or one of its Subsidiaries of more than $50,000, on an annualized basis, shall require the prior written approval of a full-time employee of RECEIVING PARTY or one of its Subsidiaries. For purposes hereof, the term "Out of Pocket Costs" means all fees, costs or other expenses payable by RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries to third parties that are not affiliates of PROVIDING PARTY in connection with Services provided hereunder; and the term "New Out of Pocket Cost" means any Out of Pocket Cost incurred after the Effective Date that is not a continuation of services provided to FNT or one of its Subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practices and for which FNT had paid or reimbursed a portion thereof prior to the Effective Date.

3.2 Payment Terms. The PROVIDING PARTY shall invoice the RECEIVING PARTY on a monthly basis in arrears for Corporate Service Fees plus Transition Assistance Fees, as calculated in accordance with Section 3.1 and Schedule 1.1(a). In addition, the PROVIDING PARTY shall promptly notify the RECEIVING PARTY, no more frequently than monthly, of the aggregate amount of Out of Pocket Costs to be reimbursed or paid. The RECEIVING PARTY shall pay by electronic funds transfer or other method satisfactory to PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY, in full, the monthly amount so invoiced and the Out of Pocket Costs incurred, within thirty (30) days after the date on which the PROVIDING PARTY's monthly invoice or notification of Out of Pocket Costs, as the case may be, was received. All invoices shall include, without limitation, the category of applicable Corporate Service or Transition Assistance Service (as the case may be), a brief description of the Out of Pocket Costs (if applicable), the billing period, and such other information as RECEIVING PARTY may reasonably request. Should RECEIVING PARTY dispute any portion of the amount due on any invoice or require any adjustment to an invoiced amount, or dispute any Out of Pocket Costs for which it received notification, then RECEIVING PARTY shall notify PROVIDING PARTY in writing of the nature and basis of the dispute and/or adjustment as soon as reasonably possible using, if necessary, the dispute resolution procedures set forth in Section 1.4. The Parties shall use their reasonable best efforts to resolve the dispute prior to the payment due date.

3.3 Audit Rights. Upon reasonable advance notice from RECEIVING PARTY, PROVIDING PARTY shall permit RECEIVING PARTY to perform annual audits of PROVIDING PARTY's records only with respect to amounts invoiced and Out-of-Pocket Costs invoiced pursuant to this Article III. Such audits shall be conducted during PROVIDING PARTY's regular office hours and without disruption to PROVIDING PARTY's business operations and shall be performed at RECEIVING PARTY's sole expense.

ARTICLE IV LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

4.1 LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. THE LIABILITY OF EITHER PARTY FOR A CLAIM ASSERTED BY THE OTHER PARTY BASED ON BREACH OF ANY COVENANT, AGREEMENT OR UNDERTAKING REQUIRED BY THIS AGREEMENT SHALL NOT EXCEED, IN THE AGGREGATE, THE FEES PAYABLE BY RECEIVING PARTY TO PROVIDING PARTY DURING THE ONE (1) YEAR PERIOD PRECEDING THE BREACH FOR THE PARTICULAR CORPORATE SERVICE AFFECTED BY SUCH BREACH UNDER THIS AGREEMENT; PROVIDED THAT SUCH LIMITATION SHALL NOT APPLY IN RESPECT OF ANY CLAIMS BASED ON A PARTY'S (i) GROSS NEGLIGENCE, (ii) WILLFUL MISCONDUCT, (iii) IMPROPER USE OR DISCLOSURE OF CUSTOMER INFORMATION, (iv) VIOLATIONS OF LAW, OR (v) INFRINGEMENT OF THE INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS OF A PERSON OR ENTITY WHO IS NOT A PARTY HERETO OR THE SUBSIDIARY OF A PARTY HERETO.

ARTICLE V
FORCE MAJEURE

Neither Party shall be held liable for any delay or failure in performance of any part of this Agreement from any cause beyond its reasonable control and without its fault or negligence, including, but not limited to, acts of God, acts of civil or military authority, embargoes, epidemics, war, terrorist acts, riots, insurrections, fires, explosions, earthquakes, hurricanes, tornadoes, nuclear accidents, floods, strikes, terrorism and power blackouts. Upon the occurrence of a condition described in this Article, the Party whose performance is prevented shall give written notice to the other Party, and the Parties shall promptly confer, in good faith, to agree upon equitable, reasonable action to minimize the impact, on both Parties, of such conditions.

NOTICES AND DEMANDS

6.1 Notices. Except as otherwise provided under this Agreement (including Schedule 1.1(a)), all notices, demands or requests which may be given by any Party to the other Party shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given on the date delivered in person, or sent via telefax, or on the next business day if sent by overnight courier, or on the date of the third business day after deposit, postage prepaid, in the United States Mail via Certified Mail return receipt requested, and addressed as set forth below:

Attention: General Counsel

The address to which such notices, demands, requests, elections or other communications are to be given by either Party may be changed by written notice given by such Party to the other Party pursuant to Section 6.1 and this Section 6.2.

ARTICLE VII REMEDIES

7.1 Remedies Upon Material Breach. In the event of material breach of any provision of this Agreement by a Party, the non-defaulting Party shall give the defaulting Party written notice, and:

(a) If such breach is for RECEIVING PARTY's non-payment of an amount that is not in dispute, the defaulting Party shall cure the breach within thirty (30) calendar days of such notice. If the defaulting Party does not cure such breach by such date, then the defaulting Party shall pay the non-defaulting Party the undisputed amount, any interest that has accrued hereunder through the expiration of the cure period plus an additional amount of interest equal to four percent (4%) per annum above the "prime rate" as announced in the most recent edition of the Wall Street Journal. The Parties agree that this rate of interest constitutes reasonable liquidated damages and not an unenforceable penalty.

(b) If such breach is for any other material failure to perform in accordance with this Agreement, the defaulting Party shall cure such breach within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of such notice. If the defaulting Party does not cure such breach within such period, then the defaulting Party shall pay the non-defaulting Party all of the non-defaulting Party's actual damages, subject to Article IV above.

7.2 Survival Upon Expiration or Termination. The provisions of Section 1.4 (Dispute Resolution), Section 2.4 (Return of Materials), Article IV (Limitation of Liability), Article VI (Notices and Demands), this Section 7.2, Article VIII (Confidentiality), Article X (Indemnification) and Article XI (Miscellaneous) shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement unless otherwise agreed to in writing by both Parties.

ARTICLE VIII CONFIDENTIALITY

8.1 Confidential Information. Each Party shall use at least the same standard of care in the protection of Confidential Information of the other Party as it uses to protect its own confidential or proprietary information; provided that such Confidential Information shall be protected in at least a reasonable manner. For purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" includes all confidential or proprietary information and documentation of either Party, including the terms of this Agreement, including with respect to each Party, all of its software, data, financial information all reports, exhibits and other documentation prepared by any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates. Each Party shall use the Confidential Information of the other Party only in connection with the purposes of this Agreement and shall make such Confidential Information available only to its employees, subcontractors, or agents having a "need to know" with respect to such purpose. Each Party shall advise its respective employees, subcontractors, and agents of such Party's obligations under this Agreement. The obligations in this Section 8.1 will not restrict disclosure by a Party pursuant to applicable law, or by order or request of any court or government agency; provided, that prior to such disclosure the receiving Party shall (a) immediately give notice to the disclosing Party, (b) cooperate with the disclosing Party in challenging the right to such access and (c) only provide such information as is required by law, such order or a final, non-appealable ruling of a court of proper jurisdiction Confidential Information of a Party will not be afforded the protection of this Article VIII if such Confidential Information was (A) developed by the other Party independently as shown by its written business records regularly kept, (B) rightfully obtained by the other Party without restriction from a third party, (C) publicly available other than through the fault or negligence of the other Party or (D) released by the disclosing Party without restriction to anyone.

8.2 Work Product Privilege. RECEIVING PARTY represents and PROVIDING PARTY acknowledges that, in the course of providing Corporate Services pursuant to this Agreement, PROVIDING PARTY may have access to (a) documents, data, databases or communications that are subject to attorney client privilege and/or (b) privileged work product prepared by or on behalf of the affiliates of RECEIVING PARTY in anticipation of litigation with third parties (collectively, the "Privileged Work Product") and RECEIVING PARTY represents and PROVIDING PARTY understands that all Privileged Work Product is protected from disclosure by Rule 26 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the equivalent rules and regulations under the law chosen to govern the construction of this Agreement. RECEIVING PARTY represents and PROVIDING PARTY understands the importance of maintaining the strict confidentiality of the Privileged Work Product to protect the attorney client privilege, work product doctrine and other privileges and rights associated with such Privileged Work Product pursuant to such Rule 26 and the equivalent rules and regulations under the law chosen to govern the construction of this Agreement. After PROVIDING PARTY is notified or otherwise becomes aware that documents, data, database, or communications are Privileged Work Product, only PROVIDING PARTY personnel for whom such access is necessary for the purposes of providing Services to RECEIVING PARTY as provided in this Agreement shall have access to such Privileged Work Product. Should PROVIDING PARTY ever be notified of any judicial or other proceeding seeking to obtain access to Privileged Work Product, PROVIDING PARTY shall (A) immediately give notice to RECEIVING PARTY, (B) cooperate with RECEIVING PARTY in challenging the right to such access and (C) only provide such information as is required by a final, non-appealable ruling of a court of proper jurisdiction. RECEIVING PARTY shall pay all of the cost incurred by PROVIDING PARTY in complying with the immediately preceding sentence. RECEIVING PARTY has the right and duty to represent PROVIDING PARTY in such resistance or to select and compensate counsel to so represent PROVIDING PARTY or to reimburse PROVIDING PARTY for reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses as such fees and expenses are incurred in resisting such access. If PROVIDING PARTY is ultimately required, pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, to produce documents, disclose data, or otherwise act in contravention of the confidentiality obligations imposed in this Article VIII, or otherwise with respect to maintaining the confidentiality, proprietary nature, and secrecy of Privileged Work Product, PROVIDING PARTY is not liable for breach of such obligation to the extent such liability does not result from failure of PROVIDING PARTY to abide by the terms of this Article VIII. All Privileged Work Product is the property of RECEIVING PARTY and will be deemed Confidential Information, except as specifically authorized in this Agreement or as shall be required by law.

8.3 Unauthorized Acts. Each Party shall (a) notify the other Party promptly of any unauthorized possession, use, or knowledge of any Confidential Information by any person which shall become known to it, any attempt by any person to gain possession of Confidential Information without authorization or any attempt to use or acquire knowledge of any Confidential Information without authorization (collectively, "Unauthorized Access"), (b) promptly furnish to the other Party full details of the Unauthorized Access and use reasonable efforts to assist the other Party in investigating or preventing the reoccurrence of any Unauthorized Access, (c) cooperate with the other Party in any litigation and investigation against third parties deemed necessary by such Party to protect its proprietary rights, and (d) use commercially reasonable efforts to prevent a reoccurrence of any such Unauthorized Access.

8.4 Publicity. Except as required by law or national stock exchange rule or as allowed by any Ancillary Agreement, neither Party shall issue any press release, distribute any advertising, or make any public announcement or disclosure (a) identifying the other Party by name, trademark or otherwise or (b) concerning this Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, in the event either Party is required to issue a press release relating to this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or by the laws or regulations of any governmental authority, agency or self-regulatory agency, such Party shall (A) give notice and a copy of the proposed press release to the other Party as far in advance as reasonably possible, but in any event not less than five (5) days prior to publication of such press release and (B) make any changes to such press release reasonably requested by the other Party. In addition, RECEIVING PARTY may communicate the existence of the business relationship contemplated by the terms of this Agreement internally within PROVIDING PARTY's organization and orally and in writing communicate PROVIDING PARTY's identity as a reference with potential and existing customers.

8.5 Data Privacy. (a) Where, in connection with this Agreement, PROVIDING PARTY processes or stores information about a living individual that is held in automatically processable form (for example in a computerized database) or in a structured manual filing system ("Personal Data"), on behalf of any Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY or their clients, then PROVIDING PARTY shall implement appropriate measures to protect those personal data against accidental or unlawful destruction or accidental loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure or access and shall use such data solely for purposes of carrying out its obligations under this Agreement.

(b) RECEIVING PARTY may instruct PROVIDING PARTY, where PROVIDING PARTY processes Personal Data on behalf of Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY, to take such steps to preserve data privacy in the processing of those Personal Data as are reasonably necessary for the performance of this Agreement.

(c) Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY may, in connection with this Agreement, collect Personal Data in relation to PROVIDING PARTY and PROVIDING PARTY's employees, directors and other officers involved in providing Corporate Services hereunder. Such Personal Data may be collected from PROVIDING PARTY, its employees, its directors, its officers, or from other (for example, published) sources; and some limited personal data may be collected indirectly at RECEIVING PARTY's (or Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY's) locations from monitoring devices or by other means (e.g., telephone logs, closed circuit TV and door entry systems). Nothing in this Section 8.5(c) obligates PROVIDING PARTY or PROVIDING PARTY's employees, directors or other officers to provide Personal Data requested by RECEIVING PARTY. The Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY may use and disclose any such data disclosed by PROVIDING PARTY solely for purposes connected with this Agreement and for the relevant purposes specified in the data privacy policy of the Subsidiary of RECEIVING PARTY (a copy of which is available on request.) RECEIVING PARTY will maintain the same level of protection for Personal Data collected from PROVIDING PARTY (and PROVIDING PARTY's employees, directors and officers, as appropriate) as RECEIVING PARTY maintains with its own Personal Data, and will implement appropriate administrative, physical and technical measures to protect the personal data collected from PROVIDING PARTY and PROVIDING PARTY's employees, directors and other officers against accidental or unlawful destruction or accidental loss, alternation, unauthorized disclosure or access.

ARTICLE IX REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS

EXCEPT FOR THE REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS EXPRESSLY MADE IN THIS AGREEMENT, PROVIDING PARTY HAS NOT MADE AND DOES NOT HEREBY MAKE ANY EXPRESS OR IMPLIED REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES OR COVENANTS, STATUTORY OR OTHERWISE, OF ANY NATURE, INCLUDING WITH RESPECT TO THE WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, QUALITY, QUANTITY, SUITABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR THE RESULTS OBTAINED OF THE CONTINUING BUSINESS. ALL OTHER REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES, AND COVENANTS, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, STATUTORY, COMMON LAW OR OTHERWISE, OF ANY NATURE, INCLUDING WITH RESPECT TO THE WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, QUALITY, QUANTITY, SUITABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR THE RESULTS OBTAINED OF THE CONTINUING BUSINESS ARE HEREBY DISCLAIMED BY PROVIDING PARTY.

ARTICLE X INDEMNIFICATION

10.1 Indemnification.

(a) Subject to Article IV, RECEIVING PARTY will indemnify, defend and hold harmless PROVIDING PARTY, each Subsidiary of PROVIDING PARTY, each of their respective past and present directors, officers, employees, agents, consultants, advisors, accountants and attorneys ("Representatives"), and each of their respective successors and assigns (collectively, the "PROVIDING PARTY Indemnified Parties") from and against any and all Damages (as defined below) incurred or suffered by the PROVIDING PARTY Indemnified Parties arising or resulting from the provision of Corporate Services hereunder, which Damages shall be reduced to the extent of:

(i) Damages caused or contributed to by PROVIDING PARTY's negligence, willful misconduct or violation of law; or

(ii) Damages caused or contributed to by a breach of this Agreement by PROVIDING PARTY.

"Damages" means, subject to Article IV hereof, all losses, claims, demands, damages, liabilities, judgments, dues, penalties, assessments, fines (civil, criminal or administrative), costs, liens, forfeitures, settlements, fees or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses and any other expenses reasonably incurred in connection with investigating, prosecuting or defending a claim or Action).

(b) Except as set forth in this Section 10.1(b), PROVIDING PARTY will have no liability to RECEIVING PARTY for or in connection with any of the Corporate Services rendered hereunder or for any actions or omissions of PROVIDING PARTY in connection with the provision of any Corporate Services hereunder. Subject to the provisions hereof and subject to Article IV, PROVIDING PARTY will indemnify, defend and hold harmless RECEIVING PARTY, each Subsidiary of RECEIVING PARTY, each of their respective past and present Representatives, and each of their respective successors and assigns (collectively, the "RECEIVING PARTY Indemnified Parties") from and against any and all Damages incurred or suffered by the RECEIVING PARTY Indemnified Parties arising or resulting from either of the following:

(i) any claim that PROVIDING PARTY's use of the software or other intellectual property used to provide the Corporate Services or Transition Assistance, or any results and proceeds of such Corporate Services or Transition Assistance, infringes, misappropriates or otherwise violates any United States patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret or other intellectual property rights; provided, that such intellectual property indemnity shall not apply to the extent that any such claim arises out of any modification to such software or other intellectual property made by RECEIVING PARTY without PROVIDING PARTY's authorization or participation, or provided, that in each of the cases described in subclauses (i) through (ii) above, the amount of Damages incurred or sustained by RECEIVING PARTY shall be reduced to the extent such Damages shall have been caused or contributed to by any action or omission of RECEIVING PARTY in amounts equal to RECEIVING PARTY's equitable share of such Damages determined in accordance with its relative culpability for such Damages or the relative fault of RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries.

10.2 Indemnification Procedures.

(a) Claim Notice. A Party that seeks indemnity under this Article X (an "Indemnified Party") will give written notice (a "Claim Notice") to the Party from whom indemnification is sought (an "Indemnifying Party"), whether the Damages sought arise from matters solely between the Parties or from Third Party Claims. The Claim Notice must contain (i) a description and, if known, estimated amount (the "Claimed Amount") of any Damages incurred or reasonably expected to be incurred by the Indemnified Party, (ii) a reasonable explanation of the basis for the Claim Notice to the extent of facts then known by the Indemnified Party, and (iii) a demand for payment of those Damages. No delay or deficiency on the part of the Indemnified Party in so notifying the Indemnifying Party will relieve the Indemnifying Party of any liability for Damages or obligation hereunder except to the extent of any Damages caused by or arising out of such failure.

(b) Response to Notice of Claim. Within thirty (30) days after delivery of a Claim Notice, the Indemnifying Party will deliver to the Indemnified Party a written response in which the Indemnifying Party will either: (i) agree that the Indemnified Party is entitled to receive all of the Claimed Amount and, in which case, the Indemnifying Party will pay the Claimed Amount in accordance with a payment and distribution method reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party; or (ii) dispute that the Indemnified Party is entitled to receive all or any portion of the Claimed Amount, in which case, the Parties will resort to the dispute resolution procedures set forth in Section 1.4.

(c) Contested Claims. In the event that the Indemnifying Party disputes the Claimed Amount, as soon as practicable but in no event later than ten (10) days after the receipt of the notice referenced in Section 10.2(b)(ii) hereof, the Parties will begin the process to resolve the matter in accordance with the dispute resolution provisions of Section 1.4 hereof. Upon ultimate resolution thereof, the Parties will take such actions as are reasonably necessary to comply with such agreement or instructions.

(d) Third Party Claims.

(i) In the event that the Indemnified Party receives notice or otherwise learns of the assertion by a person or entity who is not a Party hereto or a Subsidiary of a Party hereto of any claim or the commencement of any action (a "Third-Party Claim") with respect to which the Indemnifying Party may be obligated to provide indemnification under this Article X, the Indemnified Party will give written notification to the Indemnifying Party of the Third-Party Claim. Such notification will be given within fifteen (15) days after receipt by the Indemnified Party of notice of such Third-Party Claim, will be accompanied by reasonable supporting documentation submitted by such third party (to the extent then in the possession of the Indemnified Party) and will describe in reasonable detail (to the extent known by the Indemnified Party) the facts constituting the basis for such Third-Party Claim and the amount of the claimed Damages; provided, however, that no delay or deficiency on the part of the Indemnified Party in so notifying the Indemnifying Party will relieve the Indemnifying Party of any liability for Damages or obligation hereunder except to the extent of any Damages caused by or arising out of such failure. Within twenty (20) days after delivery of such notification, the Indemnifying Party may, upon written notice thereof to the Indemnified Party, assume control of the defense of such Third-Party Claim with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party. During any period in which the Indemnifying Party has not so assumed control of such defense, the Indemnified Party will control such defense.

(ii) The Party not controlling such defense (the "Non-controlling Party") may participate therein at its own expense.

(iii) The Party controlling such defense (the "Controlling Party") will keep the Non-controlling Party reasonably advised of the status of such Third-Party Claim and the defense thereof and will consider in good faith recommendations made by the Non-controlling Party with respect thereto. The Non-controlling Party will furnish the Controlling Party with such Information as it may have with respect to such Third-Party Claim (including copies of any summons, complaint or other pleading which may have been served on such Party and any written claim, demand, invoice, billing or other document evidencing or asserting the same) and will otherwise cooperate with and assist the Controlling Party in the defense of such Third-Party Claim.

(iv) The Indemnifying Party will not agree to any settlement of, or the entry of any judgment arising from, any such Third-Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided, however, that the consent of the Indemnified Party will not be required if (A) the Indemnifying Party agrees in writing to pay any amounts payable pursuant to such settlement or judgment, and (B) such settlement or judgment includes a full, complete and unconditional release of the Indemnified Party from further Liability. The Indemnified Party will not agree to any settlement of, or the entry of any judgment arising from, any such Third-Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

ARTICLE XI MISCELLANEOUS

11.1 Relationship of the Parties. The Parties declare and agree that each Party is engaged in a business that is independent from that of the other Party and each Party shall perform its obligations as an independent contractor. It is expressly understood and agreed that RECEIVING PARTY and PROVIDING PARTY are not partners, and nothing contained herein is intended to create an agency relationship or a partnership or joint venture with respect to the Corporate Services. Neither Party is an agent of the other and neither Party has any authority to represent or bind the other Party as to any matters, except as authorized herein or in writing by such other Party from time to time.

11.2 Employees. (a) PROVIDING PARTY shall be solely responsible for payment of compensation to its employees and, as between the Parties, for its Subsidiaries' employees and for any injury to them in the course of their employment. PROVIDING PARTY shall assume full responsibility for payment of all federal, state and local taxes or contributions imposed or required under unemployment insurance, social security and income tax laws with respect to such persons.

(b) RECEIVING PARTY shall be solely responsible for payment of compensation to its employees and, as between the Parties, for its Subsidiaries' employees and for any injury to them in the course of their employment. RECEIVING PARTY shall assume full responsibility for payment of all federal, state and local taxes or contributions imposed or required under unemployment insurance, social security and income tax laws with respect to such persons.

11.3 Assignment. Neither Party may, in connection with a sale of an asset to which one or more of the Corporate Services relate, assign, transfer or convey any right, obligation or duty, in whole or in part, or of any other interest under this Agreement relating to such Corporate Services without the prior written consent of the other Party. All obligations and duties of a Party under this Agreement shall be binding on all successors in interest and permitted assigns of such Party. Each Party may use its Subsidiaries or subcontractors to perform the Corporate Services; provided that such use shall not relieve such assigning Party of liability for its responsibilities and obligations.

11.4 Severability. In the event that any one or more of the provisions contained herein shall for any reason be held to be unenforceable in any respect under law, such unenforceability shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement, and this Agreement shall be construed as if such unenforceable provision or provisions had never been contained herein.

11.5 Third Party Beneficiaries. The provisions of this Agreement are for the benefit of the Parties and their affiliates and not for any other person. However, should any third party institute proceedings, this Agreement shall not provide any such person with any remedy, claim, liability, reimbursement, cause of action, or other right.

11.6 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida, without giving effect to such State's laws and principles regarding the conflict of laws. Subject to Section 1.4, if any Dispute arises out of or in connection with this Agreement, except as expressly contemplated by another provision of this Agreement, the Parties irrevocably (a) consent and submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of federal and state courts located in Jacksonville, Florida, (b) waive any objection to that choice of forum based on venue or to the effect that the forum is not convenient and (c) WAIVE TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL OR ADJUDICATION BY JURY.

11.7 Executed in Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same document.

11.8 Construction. The headings and numbering of articles, sections and paragraphs in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not be construed to define or limit any of the terms or affect the scope, meaning, or interpretation of this Agreement or the particular Article or Section to which they relate. This Agreement and the provisions contained herein shall not be construed or interpreted for or against any Party because that Party drafted or caused its legal representative to draft any of its provisions.

11.9 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including all attachments, constitutes the entire Agreement between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior oral or written agreements, representations, statements, negotiations, understandings, proposals and undertakings, with respect to the subject matter hereof.

11.10 Amendments and Waivers. The Parties may amend this Agreement only by a written agreement signed by each Party and that identifies itself as an amendment to this Agreement. No waiver of any provisions of this Agreement and no consent to any default under this Agreement shall be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by or on behalf of the Party against whom such waiver or consent is claimed. No course of dealing or failure of any Party to strictly enforce any term, right or condition of this Agreement shall be construed as a waiver of such term, right or condition. Waiver by either Party of any default by the other Party shall not be deemed a waiver of any other default.

11.11 Remedies Cumulative. Unless otherwise provided for under this Agreement, all rights of termination or cancellation, or other remedies set forth in this Agreement, are cumulative and are not intended to be exclusive of other remedies to which the injured Party may be entitled by law or equity in case of any breach or threatened breach by the other Party of any provision in this Agreement. Unless otherwise provided for under this Agreement, use of one or more remedies shall not bar use of any other remedy for the purpose of enforcing any provision of this Agreement.

11.12 Taxes. All charges and fees to be paid to PROVIDING PARTY under this Agreement are exclusive of any applicable taxes required by law to be collected from the RECEIVING PARTY (including, without limitation, withholding, sales, use, excise, or services tax, which may be assessed on the provision of Corporate Services). In the event that a withholding, sales, use, excise, or services tax is assessed on the provision of any of the Corporate Services under this Agreement, RECEIVING PARTY will pay directly, reimburse or indemnify PROVIDING PARTY for such tax, plus any applicable interest and penalties. The Parties will cooperate with each other in determining the extent to which any tax is due and owing under the circumstances, and shall provide and make available to each other any resale certificate, information regarding out-of-state use of materials, services or sale, and other exemption certificates or information reasonably requested by either Party.

11.13 Changes in Law. PROVIDING PARTY's obligations to provide Corporate Services hereunder are to provide such Corporate Services in accordance with applicable laws as in effect on the date of this Agreement. Each Party reserves the right to take all actions in order to ensure that the Corporate Services and Transition Assistance are provided in accordance with any applicable laws.

DEFINITIONS AND FORMULAS

FOR PURPOSES OF CALCULATING COST ALLOCATION

For purposes of this Agreement and the Corporate Service Schedules:

"Direct Employee Compensation" of an employee means the aggregate of such employee's salary, overtime, cash bonus and commission compensation and payroll taxes attributable thereto.

"Departmental Costs" of a department/cost center means any and all costs incurred by or allocated to that department/cost center other than Direct Employee Compensation of the employees in the department/cost center, such as office furniture and equipment, office space and facilities expenses, repairs & maintenance expenses, rent and leasehold improvements, utilities, telecommunications and IT equipment, insurance costs, employee benefits costs, depreciation, amortization, real property and personal property taxes, advertising and promotional expenses (if any), postage, courier and shipping expenses, printing, reproduction, stationary, and office supplies, travel and entertainment expenses, educational, training and recruiting expenses, professional dues and subscriptions, fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Services that are included in Administrative Overhead, and the other similar costs that are generally characterized as "overhead", in each case as allocated to the department/cost center in accordance with PROVIDING PARTY's current overhead cost allocation policy.

"Servicing Employee" means an employee of PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries who provides services to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries under this Agreement.

"Standard Allocation", for purposes of the Services provided under this Agreement and the Schedules hereto, including the Cost Allocation section of the Schedules, shall be calculated as follows:

1. Out of Pocket Costs incurred by or on behalf of RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiary(s) are charged directly to it and are not part of the Services under this Agreement or the payments to be made therefor.
2. The Direct Employee Compensation of the PROVIDING PARTY Servicing Employees shall be allocated to RECEIVING PARTY based on the percentage of work time that each such Servicing Employee spends in providing the applicable Services to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries. These allocations shall be determined as of the Closing Date, based on data and result of June 2005, and shall be applied to determine the allocations hereunder on a monthly basis, with each work time percentage and corresponding Departmental Cost percentage to be re-examined and updated (if appropriate) at the end of each 1-month period following the Closing Date, it being understood that all changes in the allocations must be pre-approved by the Chief Accounting Officer of FNT.

By way of example, for a Servicing Employee of PROVIDING PARTY who has an annual salary of $50,000, a cash bonus of $20,000, and payroll taxes of $10,000 and who spends 40% of his work time on providing Services under this Agreement, RECEIVING PARTY would be allocated a Direct Employee Compensation cost of $32,000 calculated as follows:

3. In addition to the Direct Employee Compensation, Departmental Costs of each department/cost center of PROVIDING PARTY that has Servicing Employees shall be allocated to RECEIVING PARTY based on a percentage reflecting the aggregate regular salaries of all of the Servicing Employees in that department/cost center, in relation to the aggregate regular salaries of all employees in the department/cost center, taking into account the percentage of work time that each Servicing Employee in the department/cost center spends in providing services to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries hereunder.

By way of example, assume that in a PROVIDING PARTY department/cost center, there are 20 employees, 5 of whom are Servicing Employees who each spend 40% of the work time providing services to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries. If the aggregate regular salaries of the 20 employees is $500,000, and the aggregate regular salaries of the 5 Servicing Employees is $300,000, then we determine the portion of the Departmental Costs that will be allocated to RECEIVING PARTY as follows:

$$$300,000 \times 40\% = $120,000.$$

Then, determine the portion of the Departmental Costs to be allocated to RECEIVING PARTY based on the aggregate regular salaries percentage:

$$$120,000 / $500,000 = 24\%.$$

In this example, 24% of the Departmental Costs of this department/cost center will be allocated to RECEIVING PARTY.

4. Except to the extent otherwise expressly provided herein, for any given 1-month period, all Direct Employee Compensation to be allocated shall be determined on the basis of the applicable work time percentages for the immediately preceding 1-month period, except that the Direct Employee Compensation allocations applicable on the Closing Date shall be based on the work time percentages applicable for the calendar month June 2005. At the end of each 1-month period, the work time percentages shall be re-examined and the Direct Employee Compensation will be re-allocated based on the revised work time percentages, if any. For any given 1-month, all Departmental Costs to be allocated shall be determined on the basis of the applicable aggregate salaries and related percentages for the immediately preceding 1-month period, except that the aggregate salaries and related percentages applicable on the Closing Date shall be based on the work time percentages and aggregate salaries applicable for the calendar month June 2005.

5. If at any time during the Term of this Agreement RECEIVING PARTY terminates or discontinues all or any portion of a Corporate Service prior to the end of the Term or if any Corporate Service (or portion thereof) automatically terminates, pursuant to Section 2.2(b) (hereinafter referred to as a "Discontinued Service"), then effective as of the last day of the calendar month in which such termination or discontinuation is effective, Corporate Services Fees related to the Discontinued Service shall no longer be owing under this Agreement.

2.2 Payment of Taxes.

(a) For all Taxable Years commencing after the Distribution Date, FNF shall pay (or cause to be paid) to the appropriate Tax Authority all Taxes, if any, shown on any Tax Return prepared pursuant to section 2.1.

(b) With respect to any required payment of estimated Federal Income Taxes (determined under section 6655 of the Code), FNT shall pay to FNF the sum of all of the hypothetical estimated tax payments that would have been payable if each of the FNT Subsidiaries had filed its own separate Tax Return for such Taxable Year, EXCEPT that in computing the sum of all estimated hypothetical tax liabilities, the hypothetical tax liabilities of all Covered Insurance Companies shall be excluded. In computing each FNT Subsidiary's hypothetical estimated tax payment, each payment shall be sufficient to avoid incurring any addition to tax by FNF under Section 6655 of the Code by reason of an underpayment by a "large corporation" within the meaning of Section 6655(g)(2) of the Code and shall be consistent with the elections permitted to be made under Section 6655(d) and (e) of the Code as actually made by FNT, in its sole discretion, for such Taxable Year.

(c) FNT shall pay to FNF, or FNF shall pay to FNT, as the case may be, the difference between the FNT Sum of Hypothetical Tax Liabilities for such Taxable Year and the amount paid by FNT to FNF pursuant to section 2.2(b) hereof for such Taxable Year.

(d) If any FNT Subsidiary has a loss or credit on a Federal Income Tax Return or a Combined Return which could be carried back to and which would reduce that FNT Subsidiary's Hypothetical Tax Liability for any earlier year for which it was included in the Affiliated Group, then (i) if, and to the extent that such loss or credit is utilized to actually reduce the Affiliated Group's Consolidated Tax Liability for such Taxable Year, FNF shall pay to FNT on the date the Affiliated Group Federal Consolidated Return is actually filed for such Taxable Year the amount by which the Hypothetical Tax Liability in such earlier year is reduced by reason of the carryback or (ii) if, and to the extent that such loss or credit is actually carried back to an earlier taxable year of the Affiliated Group, FNF shall pay to FNT on the date any refund of tax is actually received the amount by which the FNT Subsidiary's Hypothetical Tax Liability in such earlier year is reduced by reason of such carryback, together with any applicable interest.

(e) FNT shall pay to FNF the FNT Combined State Tax Liability if the FNT Combined State Tax Liability is a positive number. FNF shall pay to FNT the absolute value of the FNT Combined State Tax Liability if the FNT Combined State Tax Liability is a negative number.

(f) All settlements under this Agreement shall be made within 30 days of the filing of the applicable estimated or actual consolidated federal income tax return with the Internal Revenue Service, except where a refund is due FNF, in which case, it may defer payment to FNT to within 30 days of receipt of such refund.

2.3 Agent. In all matters relating to the Affiliated Group's Consolidated Tax Liability, FNF is the agent for FNT and each FNT Subsidiary. As said agent, FNF has the sole authority and discretion to make any election for each Subsidiary, including any election that must be made to determine each Subsidiary's separate taxable income for purposes of computing the Consolidated Tax Liability of the Affiliated Group.

2.4 Adjustments. FNT agrees that FNF alone shall be responsible for, and shall have sole and absolute discretion with respect to, claiming any deductions or credits not claimed on the Affiliated Group consolidated return as filed, the filing of any amended returns, agreeing to, contesting, or settling any adjustments to the Affiliated Group's Consolidated Tax Liability or Combined State Tax Liability for any Taxable Year covered by this Agreement, and FNF shall pay any deficiencies in, or receive any refunds of, the Affiliated Group's Consolidated Tax Liability or Combined State Tax Liability for any such Taxable Year resulting from a Final Determination. If Consolidated Tax Liability or Combined State Tax Liability reported on a federal Tax Return is revised by the Service or other appropriate authority, the Parties to this Agreement shall recalculate the FNT Sum of Hypothetical Tax Liabilities, FNT shall pay to FNF or FNF shall pay to FNT, as the case may be, the amount necessary to reflect all adjustments for any Taxable Year, together with any interest and penalties fairly attributable thereto.

2.5 Resolution of Disputes as to FNT Sum of Hypothetical Tax Liabilities and Combined State Taxes. In the event of a disagreement between the parties hereto as to the amount of the FNT Sum of Hypothetical Tax Liabilities or FNT Combined State Tax Liability for any Taxable Year, such amount shall be determined by the independent certified public accountants who audit FNF's certified financial statements at the time such dispute arises, and the determination of such accountants shall be final and binding on the parties hereto.

ARTICLE 3. MISCELLANEOUS.

3.2 Notices. All notices and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and hand delivered or mailed by registered or certified mail (return receipt requested) or sent by any means

3.11 Waivers. The failure of any party to require strict performance by any other party of any provision in this Agreement will not waive or diminish that party's right to demand strict performance thereafter of that or any other provision hereof.

3.12 Setoff. All payments to be made by any party under this Agreement may be netted against payments due to such party under this Agreement, but otherwise shall be made without setoff, counterclaim or withholding, all of which are hereby expressly waived.

This Agreement shall not be deemed to change that at-will status of any employee.

ARTICLE II. DEMAND REGISTRATION

Section 2.1. Demand Registration.

(i) Request for Registration.

(a) Commencing on, any Holder or Holders of Registrable Shares shall have the right to require the Company to file a registration statement on Form S-1, S-2 or S-3, or any similar or successor to such forms under the Securities Act, for a public offering of all or part of its or their Registrable Shares (a "Demand Registration"), by delivering to the Company written notice stating that such right is being exercised, naming, if applicable, the Holders whose Registrable Shares are to be included in such registration (collectively, the "Demanding Shareholders"), specifying the number of each such Demanding Shareholder's Registrable Shares to be included in such registration and, subject to Section 2.1(iii) hereof, describing the intended method of distribution thereof (a "Demand Request"). The Initial Registration Statement shall not constitute a Demand Registration for any purpose under this Agreement.

(b) Each Demand Request shall specify the aggregate number of Registrable Shares proposed to be sold. Subject to Section 2.1(vi), the Company shall file the registration statement in respect of a Demand Registration as soon as practicable and, in any event, within forty-five (45) days after receiving a Demand Request (the "Required Filing Date") and shall use reasonable best efforts to cause the same to be declared effective by the SEC as promptly as practicable after such filing; provided, however, that:

(A) the Company shall not be obligated to effect a Demand Registration pursuant to Section 2.1(i)(a) within 90 days after the effective date of a previous Demand Registration, other than a Shelf Registration pursuant to this Article 2;

(B) the Company shall not be obligated to effect a Demand Registration pursuant to Section 2.1(i)(a) unless the Demand Request is for a number of Registrable Shares with a market value that is equal to at least US$25 million as of the date of such Demand Request; and

(C) the Company shall not be obligated to effect pursuant to Section 2.1(i)(a) more than two (2) Demand Registrations during any rolling twelve (12) months period following the date hereof.

(ii) Shelf Registration. With respect to any Demand Registration, the Requesting Holders may request the Company to effect a registration of the Common Stock under a registration statement pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act (or any successor rule) (a "Shelf Registration").

(iii) Selection of Underwriters. At the request of a majority of the Requesting Holders, the offering of Registrable Shares pursuant to a Demand Registration shall be in the form of a "firm commitment" Underwritten Offering. The Holders of a majority of the Registrable Shares to be registered in a Demand Registration shall select the investment banking firm or firms to manage the Underwritten Offering, provided, however, that such selection shall be subject to the consent of the Company, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. No Holder may participate in any registration pursuant to Section 2.1(i) unless such Holder (x) agrees to sell such Holder's Registrable Shares on the basis provided in any underwriting arrangements described above and (y) completes and executes all questionnaires, powers of attorney, indemnities, underwriting agreements and other documents reasonably required under the terms of such underwriting arrangements; provided, however, that no such Holder shall be required to make any representations or warranties in connection with any such registration other than representations and warranties as to (i) such Holder's ownership of its or its Registrable Shares to be transferred free and clear of all liens, claims, and encumbrances, (ii) such Holder's power and authority to effect such transfer, and (iii) such matters pertaining to compliance with securities laws as may be reasonably requested; provided, further, however, that the obligation of such Holder to indemnify pursuant to any such underwriting arrangements shall be several, not joint and several, among such Holders selling Registrable Shares, and the liability of each such Holder will be in proportion thereto, and provided, further, however, that such liability will be limited to the net amount received by such Holder from the sale of its Registrable Shares pursuant to such registration.

(iv) Rights of Nonrequesting Holders. Upon receipt of any Demand Request, the Company shall promptly (but in any event within ten (10) days) give written notice of such proposed Demand Registration to all other Holders, who shall have the right, exercisable by written notice to the Company within twenty (20) days of their receipt of the Company's notice, to elect to include in such Demand Registration such portion of their Registrable Shares as they may request. All Holders requesting to have their Registrable Shares included in a Demand Registration in accordance with the preceding sentence shall be deemed to be "Requesting Holders" for purposes of this Section 2.1.

(v) Priority on Demand Registrations. No securities to be sold for the account of any Person (including the Company) other than a Requesting Holder shall be included in a Demand Registration unless the managing underwriter or underwriters shall advise the Requesting Holders in writing that the inclusion of such securities will not adversely affect the price, timing or distribution of the offering or otherwise adversely affect its success (an "Adverse Effect"). Furthermore, if the managing underwriter or underwriters shall advise the Requesting Holders that, even after exclusion of all securities of other Persons pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence, the amount of Registrable Shares proposed to be included in such Demand Registration by Requesting Holders is sufficiently large to cause an Adverse Effect, the Registrable Shares of the Requesting Holders to be included in such Demand Registration shall equal the number of shares which the Requesting Holders are so advised can be sold in such offering without an Adverse Effect and such shares shall be allocated pro rata among the Requesting Holders on the basis of the number of Registrable Shares requested to be included in such registration by each such Requesting Holder.

(vi) Deferral of Filing. The Company may defer the filing (but not the preparation) of a registration statement required by this Section 2.1 until a date not later than ninety (90) days after the Required Filing Date if (i) a Material Transaction exists at the time of such Required Filing Date; (ii) at the time the Company receives the Demand Request, the Company or any of its Subsidiaries are engaged in confidential negotiations or other confidential business activities, disclosure of which would be required in such registration statement (but would not be required if such registration statement were not filed), and the Board of Directors of the Company or a committee of the Board of Directors of the Company determines in good faith that such disclosure would be materially detrimental to the Company and its stockholders, or (iii) prior to receiving the Demand Request, the Company had determined to effect a registered underwritten public offering of the Company's securities for the Company's account and the Company had taken substantial steps (including, but not limited to, selecting a managing underwriter for such offering) and is proceeding with reasonable diligence to effect such offering. A deferral of the filing of a registration statement pursuant to this Section 2.1(vi) shall be lifted, and the requested registration statement shall be filed forthwith, if, in the case of a deferral pursuant to clause (ii) of the preceding sentence, the negotiations or other activities are disclosed or terminated, or, in the case of a deferral pursuant to clause (iii) of the preceding sentence, the proposed registration for the Company's account is abandoned. In order to defer the filing of a registration statement pursuant to this Section 2.1(vi), the Company shall promptly (but in any event within ten (10) days), upon determining to seek such deferral, deliver to each Requesting Holder a certificate signed by an executive officer of the Company stating that the Company is deferring such filing pursuant to this Section 2.1(vi) and a general statement of the reason for such deferral and an approximation of the anticipated delay. Within twenty (20) days after receiving such certificate, the holders of a majority of the Registrable Shares held by the Requesting Holders and for which registration was previously requested may withdraw such Demand Request by giving notice to the Company; if withdrawn, the Demand Request shall be deemed not to have been made for all purposes of this Agreement. The Company may defer the filing of a particular registration statement pursuant to this Section 2.1(vi)(a) once in any twelve (12) month rolling period.

Section 2.2. Piggyback Registrations.

(i) Right to Piggyback. Each time the Company proposes to register any of its equity securities (other than pursuant to an Excluded Registration) under the Securities Act for sale to the public (whether for the account of the Company or the account of any securityholder of the Company) (a "Piggyback Registration"), the Company shall give prompt written notice to each Holder of Registrable Shares (which notice shall be given not less than twenty (20) days prior to the anticipated filing date of the Company's registration statement), which notice shall offer each such Holder the opportunity to include any or all of its Registrable Shares in such registration statement, subject to the limitations contained in Section 2.2(ii) hereof. Each Holder who desires to have its Registrable Shares included in such registration statement shall so advise the Company in writing (stating the number of shares desired to be registered) within ten (10) days after the date of such notice from the Company. Any Holder shall have the right to withdraw such Holder's request for inclusion of such Holder's Registrable Shares in any registration statement pursuant to this Section 2.2(i) by giving written notice to the Company of such withdrawal. Subject to Section 2.2(ii) below, the Company shall include in such registration statement all such Registrable Shares so requested to be included therein; provided, however, that the Company may at any time withdraw or cease proceeding with any such registration if it shall at the same time withdraw or cease proceeding with the registration of all other equity securities originally proposed to be registered.

(ii) Priority on Piggyback Registrations.

(a) If a Piggyback Registration is an Underwritten Offering and was initiated by the Company, and if the managing underwriter advises the Company that the inclusion of Registrable Shares requested to be included in the Registration Statement would cause an Adverse Effect, the Company shall include in such registration statement (i) first, the securities the Company proposes to sell, (ii) second, the Registrable Shares requested to be included in such registration, pro rata among the Holders of such Registrable Shares on the basis of the number of Registrable Shares owned by each such Holder, and (iii) third, any other securities requested to be included in such registration. If as a result of the provisions of this Section 2.2(ii)(a) any Holder shall not be entitled to include all Registrable Shares in a registration that such Holder has requested to be so included, such Holder may withdraw such Holder's request to include Registrable Shares in such registration statement.

(b) If a Piggyback Registration is an Underwritten Offering and was initiated by a security holder of the Company, and if the managing underwriter advises the Company that the inclusion of Registrable Shares requested to be included in the Registration Statement would cause an Adverse Effect, the Company shall include in such registration statement (i) first, the securities requested to be included therein by the security holders requesting such registration and the Registrable Shares requested to be included in such registration, pro rata among the holders of such securities on the basis of the number of securities owned by each such holder, and (ii) second, any other securities requested to be included in such registration (including securities to be sold for the account of the Company). If as a result of the provisions of this Section 2.2(ii)(b) any Holder shall not be entitled to include all Registrable Shares in a registration that such Holder has requested to be so included, such Holder may withdraw such Holder's request to include Registrable Shares in such registration statement.

(c) No Holder may participate in any registration statement in respect of a Piggyback Registration hereunder unless such Holder (x) agrees to sell such Holder's Registrable Shares on the basis provided in any underwriting arrangements approved by the Company and (y) completes and executes all questionnaires, powers of attorney, indemnities, underwriting agreements and other documents, each in customary form, reasonably required under the terms of such underwriting arrangements; provided, however, that no such Holder shall be required to make any representations or warranties in connection with any such registration other than representations and warranties as to (i) such Holder's ownership of its Registrable Shares to be sold or transferred free and clear of all liens, claims, and encumbrances, (ii) such Holder's power and authority to effect such transfer, and (iii) such matters pertaining to compliance with securities laws as may be reasonably requested; provided, further, however, that the obligation of such Holder to indemnify pursuant to any such underwriting arrangements shall be several, not joint and several, among such Holders selling Registrable Shares, and the liability of each such Holder will be in proportion to, and provided, further, that such liability will be limited to, the net amount received by such Holder from the sale of its Registrable Shares pursuant to such registration.

(iii) Selection of Underwriters. If any Piggyback Registration is an Underwritten Offering and any Registrable Shares will be included in such offering, then the investment banking firm(s) selected to manage the offering shall be selected with the prior consent of the Holders of a majority of the Registrable Shares to be included in such Piggyback Registration, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, provided that if FNF or Affiliates thereof are included among the Holders whose Registrable Shares will be included in the Piggyback Registration, then such selection shall also be with the prior consent of FNF (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld).

Section 2.3. SEC Form S-3. The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause Demand Registrations to be registered on Form S-3 (or any successor form) once the Company becomes eligible to use Form S-3, and if the Company is not then eligible under the Securities Act to use Form S-3, Demand Registrations shall be registered on the form for which the Company then qualifies. The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to become eligible to use Form S-3 and, after becoming eligible to use Form S-3, shall use its reasonable best efforts to remain so eligible.

Section 2.4. Holdback Agreements.

(i) The Company shall not effect any public sale or distribution of its equity securities, or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for such securities, during the seven days prior to and during the 90-day period beginning on the effective date of any registration statement in connection with a Demand Registration (other than a Shelf Registration) or a Piggyback Registration, except pursuant to registrations on Form S-4 or Form S-8 or any successor form or unless the underwriters managing any such public offering otherwise agree.

(ii) If any Holders of Registrable Shares notify the Company in writing that they intend to effect an underwritten sale of Common Stock registered pursuant to a Shelf Registration pursuant to Article 2 hereof, the Company shall not effect any public sale or distribution of its equity securities, or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for its equity securities, during the seven days prior to and during the 90-day period beginning on the date such notice is received, except pursuant to registrations on Form S-4 or Form S-8 or any successor form or unless the underwriters managing any such public offering otherwise agree.

(iii) Each Holder agrees, in the event of an Underwritten Offering by the Company (whether for the account of the Company or otherwise), not to offer, sell, contract to sell or otherwise dispose of any Registrable Securities, or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for such securities, including any sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act (except as part of such Underwritten Offering), during the 7 days prior to, and during the 90-day period (or such lesser period as the lead or managing underwriters may require) beginning on, the effective date of the registration statement for such Underwritten Offering (or, in the case of an offering pursuant to an effective shelf registration statement pursuant to Rule 415, the pricing date for such Underwritten Offering).

Section 2.5. Registration Procedures. Whenever any Holder has requested that any Registrable Shares be registered pursuant to this Agreement, the Company will use its reasonable best efforts to effect the registration and the sale of such Registrable Shares in accordance with the intended method of disposition thereof as promptly as is practicable, and pursuant thereto the Company will as expeditiously as possible:

(i) prepare and file with the SEC, pursuant to Section 2.1(i)(b) with respect to any Demand Registration, a registration statement on any appropriate form under the Securities Act with respect to such Registrable Shares and use its reasonable best efforts to cause such registration statement to become effective, provided that as far in advance as practicable before filing such registration statement or any amendment thereto, the Company will furnish to the selling Holders copies of reasonably complete drafts of all such documents prepared to be filed (including exhibits), and any such Holder shall have the opportunity to object to any information contained therein and the Company will make corrections reasonably requested by such Holder with respect to such information prior to filing any such registration statement or amendment;

(ii) except in the case of a Shelf Registration, prepare and file with the SEC such amendments, post-effective amendments, and supplements to such registration statement and the Prospectus used in connection therewith as may be necessary to keep such registration statement effective for a period of not less than one hundred eighty (180) days (or such lesser period as is necessary for the underwriters in an Underwritten Offering to sell unsold allotments) and comply with the provisions of the Securities Act with respect to the disposition of all securities covered by such registration statement during such period in accordance with the intended methods of disposition by the sellers thereof set forth in such registration statement;

(iii) in the case of a Shelf Registration, prepare and file with the SEC such amendments and supplements to such registration statement and the Prospectus used in connection therewith as may be necessary to keep such registration statement effective and to comply with the provisions of the Securities Act with respect to the disposition of all Registrable Shares subject thereto for a period ending on the earlier of (x) 24 months after the effective date of such registration statement and (y) the date on which all the Registrable Shares subject thereto have been sold pursuant to such registration statement;

(iv) furnish to each seller of Registrable Shares and the underwriters of the securities being registered such number of copies of such registration statement, each amendment and supplement thereto, the Prospectus included in such registration statement (including each preliminary Prospectus), any documents incorporated by reference therein and such other documents as such seller or underwriters may reasonably request in order to facilitate the disposition of the Registrable Shares owned by such seller or the sale of such securities by such underwriters (it being understood that, subject to Section 2.6 and the requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws, the Company consents to the use of the Prospectus and any amendment or supplement thereto by each seller and the underwriters in connection with the offering and sale of the Registrable Shares covered by the registration statement of which such Prospectus, amendment or supplement is a part));

(v) use its reasonable best efforts to register or qualify such Registrable Shares under such other securities or blue sky laws of such jurisdictions as the managing underwriter reasonably requests (or, in the event the registration statement does not relate to an Underwritten Offering, as the holders of a majority of such Registrable Shares may reasonably request); use its reasonable best efforts to keep each such registration or qualification (or exemption therefrom) effective during the period in which such registration statement is required to be kept effective; and do any and all other acts and things which may be reasonably necessary or advisable to enable each seller to consummate the disposition of the Registrable Shares owned by such seller in such jurisdictions (provided, however, that the Company will not be required to (A) qualify generally to do business in any jurisdiction where it would not otherwise be required to qualify but for this subparagraph or (B) consent to general service of process in any such jurisdiction);

(vi) promptly notify each seller and each underwriter and (if requested by any such Person) confirm such notice in writing (A) when a Prospectus or any Prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment has been filed and, with respect to a registration statement or any post-effective amendment, when the same has become effective, (B) of the issuance by any state securities or other regulatory authority of any order suspending the qualification or exemption from qualification of any of the Registrable Shares under state securities or "blue sky" laws or the initiation of any proceedings for that purpose, and (C) of the happening of any event which makes any statement made in a registration statement or related Prospectus untrue or which requires the making of any changes in such registration statement, Prospectus or documents so that they will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, and, as promptly as practicable thereafter, prepare and file with the SEC and furnish a supplement or amendment to such Prospectus so that, as thereafter deliverable to the purchasers of such Registrable Shares, such Prospectus will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading;

(vii) permit any selling Holder, which in such Holder's sole and exclusive judgment, might reasonably be deemed to be an underwriter or a controlling Person of the Company, to participate in the preparation of such registration or comparable statement and to require the insertion therein of material, furnished to the Company in writing, which in the reasonable judgment of such Holder and its counsel should be included;

(viii) make reasonably available members of management of the Company, as selected by the Holders of a majority of the Registrable Shares included in such registration, for assistance in the selling effort relating to the Registrable Shares covered by such registration, including, but not limited to, the participation of such members of the Company's management in road show presentations;

(ix) otherwise use its reasonable best efforts to comply with all applicable rules and regulations of the SEC, including the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, and make generally available to the Company's securityholders an earnings statement satisfying the provisions of Section 11(a) of the Securities Act no later than thirty (30) days after the end of the twelve (12) month period beginning with the first day of the Company's first fiscal quarter commencing after the effective date of a registration statement, which earnings statement shall cover said twelve (12) month period, and which requirement will be deemed to be satisfied if the Company timely files complete and accurate information on Forms 10-Q, 10-K and 8-K under the Exchange Act and otherwise complies with Rule 158 under the Securities Act;

(x) if requested by the managing underwriter or any seller promptly incorporate in a Prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment such information as the managing underwriter or any seller reasonably requests to be included therein, including, without limitation, with respect to the Registrable Shares being sold by such seller, the purchase price being paid therefor by the underwriters and with respect to any other terms of the Underwritten Offering of the Registrable Shares to be sold in such offering, and promptly make all required filings of such Prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment;

(xi) as promptly as practicable after filing with the SEC of any document which is incorporated by reference into a registration statement (in the form in which it was incorporated), deliver a copy of each such document to each seller;

(xii) cooperate with the sellers and the managing underwriter to facilitate the timely preparation and delivery of certificates (which shall not bear any restrictive legends unless required under applicable law) representing securities sold under any registration statement, and enable such securities to be in such denominations and registered in such names as the managing underwriter or such sellers may request and keep available and make available to the Company's transfer agent prior to the effectiveness of such registration statement a supply of such certificates;

(xiii) promptly make available for inspection by any seller, any underwriter participating in any disposition pursuant to any registration statement, and any attorney, accountant or other agent or representative retained by any such seller or underwriter (collectively, the "Inspectors"), all financial and other records, pertinent corporate documents and properties of the Company (collectively, the "Records"), as shall be reasonably necessary to enable them to exercise their due diligence responsibility, and cause the Company's officers, directors and employees to supply all information requested by any such Inspector in connection with such registration statement; provided, however, that, unless the disclosure of such Records is necessary to avoid or correct a misstatement or omission in the registration statement or the release of such Records is ordered pursuant to a subpoena or other order from a court of competent jurisdiction, the Company shall not be required to provide any information under this subparagraph (x) if (A) the Company believes, after consultation with counsel for the Company, that to do so would cause the Company to forfeit an attorney-client privilege that was applicable to such information or (B) if either (1) the Company has requested and been granted from the SEC confidential treatment of such information contained in any filing with the SEC or documents provided supplementally or otherwise or (2) the Company reasonably determines in good faith that such Records are confidential and so notifies the Inspectors in writing, unless prior to furnishing any such information with respect to clause (B), such Holder of Registrable Shares requesting such information agrees to enter into a confidentiality agreement in customary form and subject to customary exceptions; and provided, further, that each Holder of Registrable Shares agrees that it will, upon learning that disclosure of such Records is sought in a court of competent jurisdiction, give notice to the Company and allow the Company, at its expense, to undertake appropriate action and to prevent disclosure of the Records deemed confidential;

(xiv) furnish to each seller and underwriter a signed counterpart of (A) an opinion or opinions of counsel to the Company, and (B) a comfort letter or comfort letters from the Company's independent public accountants, each in customary form and covering such matters of the type customarily covered by opinions or comfort letters, as the case may be, as the sellers or managing underwriter reasonably requests;

(xv) cause the Registrable Shares included in any registration statement to be (A) listed on each securities exchange, if any, on which similar securities issued by the Company are then listed, or (B) quoted on the NASD Automated Quotation System or the Nasdaq National Market if similar securities issued by the Company are quoted thereon;

(xvi) provide a transfer agent and registrar for all Registrable Securities registered hereunder;

(xvii) cooperate with each seller and each underwriter participating in the disposition of such Registrable Shares and their respective counsel in connection with any filings required to be made with the NASD;

(xviii) during the period when the Prospectus is required to be delivered under the Securities Act, promptly file all documents required to be filed with the SEC pursuant to Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act;

(xix) notify each seller of Registrable Shares promptly of any request by the SEC for the amending or supplementing of such registration statement or Prospectus or for additional information;

(xx) enter into such agreements (including underwriting agreements in the managing underwriter's customary form) as are customary in connection with an Underwritten Registration; and

(xxi) advise each seller of such Registrable Shares, promptly after it shall receive notice or obtain knowledge thereof, of the issuance of any stop order by the SEC suspending the effectiveness of such registration statement or the initiation or threatening of any proceeding for such purpose and promptly use its reasonable best efforts to prevent the issuance of any stop order or to obtain its withdrawal at the earliest possible moment if such stop order should be issued.

Section 2.6. Suspension of Dispositions. Each Holder agrees by acquisition of any Registrable Shares that, upon receipt of any notice (a "Suspension Notice") from the Company of the happening of any event of the kind described in Section 2.5(vi)(C), such Holder will forthwith discontinue disposition of Registrable Shares until such Holder's receipt of the copies of the supplemented or amended Prospectus, or until it is advised in writing (the "Advice") by the Company that the use of the Prospectus may be resumed, and has received copies of any additional or supplemental filings which are incorporated by reference in the Prospectus, and, if so directed by the Company, such Holder will deliver to the Company all copies, other than permanent file copies then in such Holder's possession, of the Prospectus covering such Registrable Shares current at the time of receipt of such notice. In the event the Company shall give any such notice, the time period regarding the effectiveness of registration statements set forth in Sections 2.5(ii) and 2.5(iii) shall be extended by the number of days during the period from and including the date of the giving of the Suspension Notice to and including the date when each seller of Registrable Shares covered by such registration statement shall have received the copies of the supplemented or amended Prospectus or the Advice. The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts and take such actions as are reasonably necessary to render the Advice as promptly as practicable.

Section 2.7. Registration Expenses. All Company Expenses incident to any Registration shall be borne by the Company, (unless paid by a security holder that is not a Holder for whose account the registration is being effected). All Holder Expenses incident to any Registration shall be borne by the Holders pro rata on the basis of the number of shares so registered whether or not any registration statement becomes effective. The fees and expenses of any counsel, accountants, or other Persons retained or employed by any Holder shall borne solely by such Holder.

Section 2.8. Indemnification.

(i) The Company agrees to indemnify and reimburse, to the fullest extent permitted by law, each seller of Registrable Shares, and each of its employees, advisors, agents, representatives, partners, officers, and directors and each Person who controls such seller (within the meaning of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act) and any agent or investment advisor thereof (collectively, the "Seller Affiliates") (A) against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, and expenses, joint or several (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and disbursements except as limited by Section 2.8(iii)) based upon, arising out of, related to or resulting from any untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any registration statement, Prospectus, or preliminary Prospectus or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto, or any omission or alleged omission of a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, (B) against any and all loss, liability, claim, damage, and expense whatsoever, as incurred, to the extent of the aggregate amount paid in settlement of any litigation or investigation or proceeding by any governmental agency or body, commenced or threatened, or of any claim whatsoever based upon, arising out of, related to or resulting from any such untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission, and (C) against any and all costs and expenses (including reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel) as may be reasonably incurred in investigating, preparing, or defending against any litigation, or investigation or proceeding by any governmental agency or body, commenced or threatened, or any claim whatsoever based upon, arising out of, related to or resulting from any such untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission, or such violation of the Securities Act or Exchange Act, to the extent that any such expense or cost is not paid under subparagraph (A) or (B) above; except insofar as any such statements are made in reliance upon and in strict conformity with information furnished in writing to the Company by such seller or any Seller Affiliate for use therein or arise from such seller's or any Seller Affiliate's failure to deliver a copy of the registration statement or Prospectus or any amendments or supplements thereto after the Company has furnished such seller or Seller Affiliate with a sufficient number of copies of the same. The reimbursements required by this Section 2.8(i) will be made by periodic payments during the course of the investigation or defense, as and when bills are received or expenses incurred.

(ii) In connection with any registration statement in which a seller of Registrable Shares is participating, each such seller will furnish to the Company in writing such information and affidavits as the Company reasonably requests for use in connection with any such registration statement or Prospectus and, to the fullest extent permitted by law, each such seller will indemnify the Company and each of its employees, advisors, agents, representatives, partners, officers and directors and each Person who controls the Company (within the meaning of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act) and any agent or investment advisor thereof against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements except as limited by Section 2.8(iii)) resulting from any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in the registration statement, Prospectus, or any preliminary Prospectus or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any omission or alleged omission of a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, but only to the extent that such untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission is contained in any information or affidavit so furnished in writing by such seller or any of its Seller Affiliates specifically for inclusion in the registration statement; provided that the obligation to indemnify will be several, not joint and several, among such sellers of Registrable Shares, and the liability of each such seller of Registrable Shares will be in proportion to, and will be limited to, the net amount received by such seller from the sale of Registrable Shares pursuant to such registration statement; provided, however, that such seller of Registrable Shares shall not be liable in any such case to the extent that prior to the filing of any such registration statement or Prospectus or amendment thereof or supplement thereto, such seller has furnished in writing to the Company information expressly for use in such registration statement or Prospectus or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto which corrected or made not misleading information previously furnished to the Company.

(iii) Any Person entitled to indemnification hereunder will (A) give prompt written notice to the indemnifying party of any claim with respect to which it seeks indemnification (provided that the failure to give such notice shall not limit the rights of such Person) and (B) unless in such indemnified party's reasonable judgment a conflict of interest between such indemnified and indemnifying parties may exist with respect to such claim, permit such indemnifying party to assume the defense of such claim with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the indemnified party; provided, however, that any Person entitled to indemnification hereunder shall have the right to employ separate counsel and to participate in the defense of such claim, but the fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at the expense of such Person unless (X) the indemnifying party has agreed to pay such fees or expenses, or (Y) the indemnifying party shall have failed to assume the defense of such claim and employ counsel reasonably satisfactory to such Person. If such defense is not assumed by the indemnifying party as permitted hereunder, the indemnifying party will not be subject to any liability for any settlement made by the indemnified party without its consent (but such consent will not be unreasonably withheld). If such defense is assumed by the indemnifying party pursuant to the provisions hereof, such indemnifying party shall not settle or otherwise compromise the applicable claim unless (1) such settlement or compromise contains a full and unconditional release of the indemnified party or (2) the indemnified party otherwise consents in writing. An indemnifying party who is not entitled to, or elects not to, assume the defense of a claim will not be obligated to pay the fees and expenses of more than one counsel for all parties indemnified by such indemnifying party with respect to such claim, unless in the reasonable judgment of any indemnified party, a conflict of interest may exist between such indemnified party and any other of such indemnified parties with respect to such claim, in which event the indemnifying party shall be obligated to pay the reasonable fees and disbursements of such additional counsel or counsels.

(iv) Each party hereto agrees that, if for any reason the indemnification provisions contemplated by Section 2.8(i) or Section 2.8(ii) are unavailable to or insufficient to hold harmless an indemnified party in respect of any losses, claims, damages, liabilities, or expenses (or actions in respect thereof) referred to therein, then each indemnifying party shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such indemnified party as a result of such losses, claims, liabilities, or expenses (or actions in respect thereof) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of the indemnifying party and the indemnified party in connection with the actions which resulted in the losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative fault of such indemnifying party and indemnified party shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by such indemnifying party or indemnified party, and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission. The parties hereto agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section 2.8(iv) were determined by pro rata allocation (even if the Holders or any underwriters or all of them were treated as one entity for such purpose) or by any other method of allocation which does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to in this Section 2.8(iv). The amount paid or payable by an indemnified party as a result of the losses, claims, damages, liabilities, or expenses (or actions in respect thereof) referred to above shall be deemed to include any legal or other fees or expenses reasonably incurred by such indemnified party in connection with investigating or, except as provided in Section 2.8(iii), defending any such action or claim. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 2.8(iv), no Holder shall be required to contribute an amount greater than the dollar amount by which the net proceeds received by such Holder with respect to the sale of any Registrable Shares exceeds the amount of damages which such Holder has otherwise been required to pay by reason of any and all untrue or alleged untrue statements of material fact or omissions or alleged omissions of material fact made in any registration statement, Prospectus or preliminary Prospectus or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto related to such sale of Registrable Shares. No Person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any Person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation. The Holders' obligations in this Section 2.8(iv) to contribute shall be several in proportion to the amount of Registrable Shares registered by them and not joint. If indemnification is available under this Section 2.8, the indemnifying parties shall indemnify each indemnified party to the full extent provided in Section 2.8(i) and Section 2.8(ii) without regard to the relative fault of said indemnifying party or indemnified party or any other equitable consideration provided for in this Section 2.8(iv) subject, in the case of the Holders, to the limited dollar amounts set forth in Section 2.8(ii).

(v) The indemnification and contribution provided for under this Agreement will remain in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of the indemnified party or any officer, director, or controlling Person of such indemnified party and will survive the transfer of securities.

Section 2.9. Transfer of Registration Rights. The rights of each Holder under this Agreement may be assigned to any direct or indirect transferee of a Holder who agrees in writing to be subject to and bound by all the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

Section 2.10. Rule 144. The Company will file the reports required to be filed by it under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations adopted by the SEC thereunder (or, if the Company is not required to file such reports, will, upon the request of the Holders, make publicly available other information) and will take such further action as the Holders may reasonably request, all to the extent required from time to time to enable the Holders to sell Common Stock without registration under the Securities Act within the limitation of the exemptions provided by (i) Rule 144 under the Securities Act, as such rule may be amended from time to time or (ii) any similar rule or regulation hereafter adopted by the SEC. Upon the reasonable request of any Holder, the Company will deliver to such parties a written statement as to whether it has complied with such requirements and will, at its expense, forthwith upon the request of any such Holder, deliver to such Holder a certificate, signed by the Company's principal financial officer, stating (a) the Company's name, address and telephone number (including area code), (b) the Company's Internal Revenue Service identification number, (c) the Company's SEC file number, (d) the number of shares of each class of capital stock outstanding as shown by the most recent report or statement published by the Company, and (e) whether the Company has filed the reports required to be filed under the Exchange Act for a period of at least ninety (90) days prior to the date of such certificate and in addition has filed the most recent annual report required to be filed thereunder.

Section 2.11. Preservation of Rights. The Company will not (i) grant any registration rights to third parties which are more favorable than or inconsistent with the rights granted hereunder or (ii) enter into any agreement, take any action, or permit any change to occur, with respect to its securities that violates or subordinates the rights expressly granted to the Holders in this Agreement.

ARTICLE III. TERMINATION

Section 3.1. Termination. The Holders may exercise the registration rights granted hereunder in such manner and proportions as they shall agree among themselves. The registration rights hereunder shall cease to apply to any particular Registrable Share when: (a) a registration statement with respect to the sale of such shares of Common Stock shall have become effective under the Securities Act and such shares of Common Stock shall have been disposed of in accordance with such registration statement; (b) such shares of Common Stock shall have been sold to the public pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act (or any successor provision); (c) such shares of Common Stock shall have been otherwise transferred, new certificates for them not bearing a legend restricting further transfer shall have been delivered by the Company and subsequent public distribution of them shall not require registration or qualification of them under the Securities Act or any similar state law then in force; (d) such shares shall have ceased to be outstanding or (e) in the case of Registrable Shares held by a Holder that is not FNF or any Affiliate thereof, when such Registrable Shares are eligible for sale pursuant to Rule 144(k) under the Securities Act (or any successor provision). The Company shall promptly upon the request of any Holder furnish to such Holder evidence of the number of Registrable Shares then outstanding.

Failure to mail a notice or communication to a Holder or any defect in it shall not affect its sufficiency with respect to other Holders. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties to this Agreement shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

Section 4.6. Remedies. Each party hereto shall be entitled to enforce its rights under this Agreement specifically to recover damages by reason of any breach of any provision of this Agreement and to exercise all other rights existing in its favor. The parties hereto agree and acknowledge that money damages may not be an adequate remedy for any breach of the provisions of this Agreement and that each party may in its sole discretion apply to any court of law or equity of competent jurisdiction for specific performance and/or injunctive relief (without posting a bond or other security) in order to enforce or prevent any violation of the provisions of this Agreement.

Section 4.7. Waivers. The observance of any term of this Agreement may be waived (either generally or in a particular instance and either retroactively or prospectively) by the party entitled to enforce such term, but such waiver shall be effective only if it is in a writing signed by the party against whom the existence of such waiver is asserted. Unless otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, no delay or omission on the part of any party in exercising any right or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any waiver on the part of any party of any right or privilege under this Agreement operate as a waiver of any other right or privilege under this Agreement nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right or privilege preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or privilege under this Agreement. No failure by either party to take any action or assert any right or privilege hereunder shall be deemed to be a waiver of such right or privilege in the event of the continuation or repetition of the circumstances giving rise to such right unless expressly waived in writing by the party against whom the existence of such waiver is asserted.

Section 4.8. Amendment. This Agreement may not be amended or modified in any respect except by a written agreement signed by the Company, FNF (so long as FNF owns any Common Stock) and the Holders of a majority of the then outstanding Registrable Shares.

Section 4.9. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and by the different parties to each such agreement in separate counterparts, each of which when executed shall be deemed to be an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement by facsimile shall be as effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of any such Agreement.

If the parties fail to choose an Arbitrator within 30 days after notice of commencement of arbitration or if the two Arbitrators fail to choose a third Arbitrator within 30 days after their appointment, the American Arbitration Association shall, upon the request of any party to the dispute or difference, appoint the Arbitrator or Arbitrators to constitute or complete the panel, as the case may be. Any order or determination of the arbitral tribunal shall be final and binding upon the parties to the arbitration as to matters submitted and may be enforced by either party in any court having jurisdiction over the subject matter or over any of the parties. (i) FNT hereby grants to FNF an irrevocable, non-terminable, non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free license, to use, sublicense, make, create improvements of, market, sell, offer for sale, and exploit any other rights of ownership now existing or hereafter created with respect to goods and services using or arising from processes or inventions subject to patents owned by a member of the FNT Group and listed on Schedule 2(d) hereto (the "FNT Patents") subject to the terms and conditions hereof.

(ii) FNF hereby grants to FNT an irrevocable, non-terminable, non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free license, to use, sublicense, make, create improvements of, market, sell and exploit any other rights of ownership now existing or hereafter created with respect to goods and services using or arising from processes subject to patents owned by a member of the FNF Group and listed on Schedule 2(d) hereto (the "FNF Patents") subject to the terms and conditions hereof.

(e) Trade Secrets/Know-How. (i) FNT hereby grants to FNF an irrevocable, non-terminable (except as set forth herein), non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free license, to use, sublicense, make, create improvements of, market, sell and exploit any other rights of ownership now existing or hereafter created with respect to goods and services using or arising from know-how or trade secrets owned by a member of the FNT Group and used by a member of the FNF Group prior to the Effective Date (the "FNT Trade Secrets"), subject to the terms and conditions hereof.

(ii) FNF hereby grants to FNT an irrevocable, non-terminable (except as set forth herein), non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free license, to use, sublicense, make, create improvements of, market, sell and exploit any other rights of ownership now existing or hereafter created with respect to goods and services using or arising from trade secrets or know-how owned by a member of the FNF Group and used by a member of the FNT Group prior to the Effective Date (the "FNF Trade Secrets"), subject to the terms and conditions hereof.

(f) Intellectual Property. The Patents, Marks and Copyrights shall be collectively termed the "Intellectual Property" and the Intellectual Property owned by FNF or FNT shall be termed, respectively, the "FNF Intellectual Property" and the "FNT Intellectual Property."

(g) Sublicense Limitations. Each grant hereunder is subject to the right of sublicense (without further consent from the Granting Party) in accordance with the following limitations:

(i) Sublicenses may be granted hereunder by a Licensee Party solely to members of the Licensee Party Group, effective upon written notice to the Granting Party, which notice discloses the specific Intellectual Property or Trade Secret that has been sublicensed and the name and address of the sublicensee. A Licensee Party, who prior to the Effective Date, granted or whose members of the Licensee Party Group granted sublicenses of Intellectual Property outside of the Licensee Party Group to their respective end-user customers and/or resellers (which resellers are not Competitors of the Granting Party) as part of the normal conduct of their respective businesses or who can show that it or members of the Licensee Party Group were planning within the first year after the Effective Date to grant sublicenses of Intellectual Property to their respective end-user customers and/or resellers (which resellers are not Competitors of the Granting Party) as part of the normal conduct of their respective businesses (all such end-users and resellers are, collectively, the "Permitted Sublicensees"), may grant or permit sublicenses within the Licensee Party Group to grant further sublicenses of such Intellectual Property as had previously been so granted or as had been planned to be so granted within the first year after the Effective Date as part of such normal conduct of business to Permitted Sublicensees upon written notice to the Granting Party, which notice shall disclose the specific Intellectual Property that has been sublicensed and the name and address of the Permitted Sublicensee. A Licensee Party shall not grant sublicenses, directly or indirectly, of the Intellectual Property of the Granting Party to a Competitor of the Granting Party; provided that the Licensee Party can grant a sublicense to a Competitor of a Granting Party for Copyrights or Patents of the Granting Party solely for the benefit of Licensee Party's internal business or the business of the members of the Licensee Party Group. In no event shall a Licensee Party grant sublicenses, directly or indirectly, of the Trade Secrets of the Granting Party to a Competitor of the Granting Party or otherwise provide access to the Trade Secrets of the Granting Party to a Competitor of the Granting Party.

(ii) Except as otherwise set forth in Schedule 2(b), (c), or (d) hereto, which may be amended in accordance with Section 2(h), or as permitted by Section 2(g)(i), a Licensee Party may grant sublicenses to any Person who is not in the Licensee Party Group only upon prior written consent of the Granting Party. Except as otherwise set forth in Schedule 2(b), (c) or (d) hereto, which may be amended in accordance with Section 2(h), or as permitted by Section 2(g)(i), if a Licensee Party proposes to sublicense any Intellectual Property licensed to it hereunder to a Person outside its Group and who is a Permitted Sublicensee, the Granting Party shall consider such proposal in good faith and may approve same on such conditions as it deems appropriate in its reasonable business judgment.

(iii) The Licensee Party agrees to impose, on each of its sublicensees, obligations to comply with the terms of this Agreement, including without limitation, obligations regarding confidentiality and the return and/or destruction of Trade Secrets and related documents and materials pursuant to Section 8 hereof and shall not permit any sublicensee to grant further sublicenses without the prior written approval of the Granting Party.

(iv) Any sublicense of a Copyright or Patent shall include provisions to enable the sublicensee's compliance with Section 3(d) below.

(v) A Licensee Party (A) shall be and remain liable to the Granting Party for each sublicensee of the Licensee Party and any breach of the terms of the applicable sublicense and this Agreement and (B) shall use its commercially reasonable best efforts to minimize any damage (current and prospective) done to the Granting Party as a result of any such breach.

(vi) Any other limitations set forth in Schedule 2(b), (c) and (d) shall apply with respect to all sublicenses.

(h) Schedule Changes. At any time prior to six months after the Change of Control of FNT, Schedules 2(b), (c) and (d) shall be amended from time to time, by one party giving written notice to the other, to add, modify or delete (i) any FNF Intellectual Property that is a Patent or Copyright (other than data and software with substantial commercial value) that any member of the FNT Group was using prior to becoming an FNT Subsidiary and which is necessary to the business of such member unless such addition would be prohibited by any enforceable obligation of FNF prior to the date hereof, in which event the parties will take all commercially reasonable efforts to enable the addition, in each case with such addition having retroactive effect to the Effective Date, and (ii) any FNT Intellectual Property that is a Patent or Copyright (other than data and software with substantial commercial value) that any member of the FNF Group was using prior to the Effective Date which is necessary to the business of such member, unless such addition would be prohibited by any other enforceable obligation of FNT prior to the date hereof, in which event the parties will take all commercially reasonable efforts to enable the addition, in each case with such addition having retroactive effect to the Effective Date.

- (i) If, within one year from the Effective Date, a Party identifies a copyright, patent or mark owned by a member of the other Party's Group prior to the Effective Date and not scheduled hereunder which would otherwise qualify as Intellectual Property, but which such Party was not using before the Effective Date, which it (or a member of its Group) deems useful in its business, the Party which owns (or a member of whose Group owns) such item of intellectual property agrees to negotiate in good faith to arrive at reasonable commercial terms of a license but, for the avoidance of doubt, is not bound to conclude a license.
- (j) In the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the terms of this Agreement and any other Intercompany Agreement concerning or implicating the licensing of Patents, Copyrights or Trade Secrets, the terms of such Intercompany Agreement will govern. In the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the terms of this Agreement and any other Intercompany Agreement entered between a member of FNF Group and FNT Group as of or within six months following the Effective Date concerning the licensing of Marks, the terms of this Agreement will govern.

3. COPIES; DERIVATIVE WORKS; IMPROVEMENTS

- (a) In addition to any copies of Intellectual Property that a Licensee Party or its sublicensee may make as otherwise permitted hereunder, a Licensee Party or its sublicensee may make such number of copies of Intellectual Property as reasonably deemed necessary by it for backup or disaster recovery. No Licensee Party shall remove, obscure or materially vary (or permit its sublicensee to remove, obscure or materially vary) any notice of copyright, trademark, patent or other intellectual property right from any Intellectual Property and/or copies made by a Licensee Party or its sublicensee, and each Licensee Party shall reproduce (or cause its sublicensee to reproduce) on each whole or partial copy of Intellectual Property (and on containers or wrappers thereof) such notices as have been placed on such Intellectual Property by the entity owning such Intellectual Property (or otherwise). Copies of Intellectual Property shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- (b) Except as expressly provided herein to the contrary, in no event shall a Licensee Party or its sublicensee create, register or use, as a trademark, any alteration or variation of any Granting Party Mark without the prior written approval of the Granting Party, not to be unreasonably withheld.

- (c) Title to a derivative work created pursuant to the Master IT Services Agreement shall be determined solely pursuant to the Master IT Services Agreement and shall not be deemed a derivative work under this Agreement. Except pursuant to the foregoing, if a Licensee Party or its sublicensee of any Granting Party Copyright creates a derivative work of the work subject to such Granting Party Copyright, then the Licensee Party or its sublicensee shall be the owner of the derivative work (but not the owner of the underlying Granting Party Copyright).
- (d) Except to the extent set forth in the Master IT Services Agreement (in which case the Master IT Services Agreement shall be determinative), if a Licensee Party (or its sublicensee hereunder) of a Patent invents an improvement thereon, whether patented, patent pending or maintained as a trade secret, then such Licensee Party or its sublicensee shall be the owner of such improvement (but not the owner of the underlying Patent). However, each Party shall provide and assure (by appropriate terms in any sublicense) that patents which are improvements on any Patent licensed hereunder, having a filing date in any jurisdiction on or before the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date, shall not be asserted against either Party hereto or members of its Group. Such Licensee Party or its sublicensee, as the case may be, shall have no duty to prosecute a patent or patents on any such improvements, nor shall it have any claim for reimbursement from any Granting Party or Granting Party licensor for costs it may have incurred in investigating or pursuing patent protection for such improvement.
- (e) If FNT wishes to use a trademark or service mark containing the words "Fidelity" or "Fidelity National" (each, a "Fidelity Mark"), it may do so pursuant to the grant in Section 2(c) of this Agreement; provided that FNF has not filed an intent to use application on the FNT-proposed mark. If FNT wishes to register a Fidelity Mark, it shall request FNF, in writing, to prosecute and maintain such registration, in FNF's name, and FNT shall reimburse FNF for all reasonable out of pocket expenses incurred by FNF in connection therewith. FNF shall expeditiously prosecute such Fidelity Mark in FNF's name, provided that FNF has neither filed an intent to use registration on the proposed mark nor uses the proposed mark in commerce. To the extent that, in any jurisdiction outside the United States, FNT, as a licensee, may prosecute its own trademark or service mark application for any Fidelity Mark, it may do so upon written notice to FNF.
- (f) Subject to the limitations set forth in Section 3(b) above, to minimize dilution of the Fidelity Marks, if FNT elects to use a Fidelity Mark together with a logo similar to a house silhouetted against a cityscape, then FNT shall use such mark in a manner as similar to that in which FNF uses its comparable mark as possible including without limitation, the color scheme, type face and relative sizes.

4. OWNERSHIP

- (a) For clarification purposes, all FNF Intellectual Property and any FNF Trade Secret shall at all times be exclusively owned, as between the Parties, by FNF, and the entities within the FNT Group shall have no rights, title or interest therein, other than the rights set forth in this Agreement.

- (b) For clarification purposes, all FNT Intellectual Property and any FNT Trade Secret shall at all times be exclusively owned, as between the Parties, by FNT, and the entities within the FNF Group shall have no rights, title or interest therein, other than the rights set forth in this Agreement.
- (c) For clarification purposes, a Party may sell or otherwise encumber or cause to sell or be encumbered (i) the Intellectual Property that it or a member of its Group (FNF Group or FNT Group, as applicable) owns or (ii) any Trade Secret that it or a member of its Group (FNF Group or FNT Group, as applicable) owns; subject, however, to the licenses granted hereunder.

5. DELIVERY

- (a) Upon the Effective Date, or as promptly as practicable thereafter, FNF shall deliver or cause to be delivered to FNT copies of the FNF Intellectual Property in such numbers and forms or formats as reasonably requested by FNT.
- (b) Upon the Effective Date, or as promptly as practicable thereafter, FNT shall deliver to FNF the FNT copies of the FNT Intellectual Property in such numbers and forms or formats as agreed by the Parties reasonably requested by FNF.

6. ENFORCEMENT; INFRINGEMENT

- (a) Each Party will notify the other Party promptly of any acts of infringement or unfair competition with respect to Granting Party's Intellectual Property or Trade Secrets of which a Party or any sublicensee of that Party becomes aware or obtains actual knowledge alleging in writing that the Granting Party's Intellectual Property or Trade Secrets or its use infringes the rights of a third party or constitutes unfair competition. In such event, the Parties will cooperate and cause their applicable sublicensees to cooperate, at each Party's own expense, with the other Party to defend or prosecute the claim. All costs and expenses of defending or prosecuting any such action or proceeding, together with any recovery therefrom, will be borne by and accrue to the applicable Party or sublicensee that is party to the action or proceeding. FNF shall not initiate any litigation or proceeding with regard to infringement of or unfair competition with respect to the Fidelity Marks without the consent of FNT, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld.
- (b) Each of FNF and FNT, as the case may be, will enforce any applicable contract rights relating to breach of a sublicense issued pursuant hereto relating to the Intellectual Property rights or Trade Secrets of the other Party. In the event that either FNF or FNT commences a proceeding or any other form of action for such purposes, FNF or FNT, as applicable, will cause the entities within the FNT Group or the FNF Group, respectively, to reasonably cooperate, at their own expense, with such entity to prosecute such action or proceeding. All costs and expenses of any such action or proceeding, together with any recovery therefrom, will be borne by and accrue to the applicable entity within the proceeding Party.

7. LIMITATIONS

- (a) EXCEPT AS MAY BE EXPRESSLY SET FORTH HEREIN, ANY LICENSE GRANTED HEREUNDER IS "AS IS"; NEITHER PARTY (NOR ANY PERSON WITHIN THE FNF GROUP OR THE FNT GROUP), NOR ANY OF THEIR RESPECTIVE OFFICERS, DIRECTORS EMPLOYEES OR AGENTS MAKES ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY, EXCEPT AS MAY BE EXPRESSLY SET FORTH HEREIN, WITH RESPECT TO INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY, TRADE SECRETS OR THE LICENSES GRANTED OR MADE HEREUNDER, INCLUDING ANY REPRESENTATION AS TO: (i) A PARTY'S RIGHT TO GRANT LICENSES, (ii) THE SCOPE OF MARKS FOR ANY SPECIFIC GOODS OR SERVICES OR RIGHTS IN INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY OR TRADE SECRETS IN ANY SPECIFIC JURISDICTIONS, OR (iii) THE TITLE OF SUCH INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY OR TRADE SECRET OR ABSENCE OF ANY THIRD PARTY INFRINGEMENT OF SUCH INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY OR TRADE SECRET. NEITHER PARTY UNDERTAKES ANY COMMITMENT TO MAINTAIN OR DEFEND ITS INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY OR TRADE SECRET.
- (b) IN NO EVENT WILL EITHER PARTY HEREUNDER BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY HEREUNDER FOR DAMAGES IN THE FORM OF SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, PUNITIVE, INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES, LOST PROFITS, LOST SAVINGS, LOSS OF BUSINESS, DATA, GOODWILL OR OTHERWISE, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE, ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, EVEN IF SUCH PARTY SHALL HAVE BEEN ADVISED IN ADVANCE OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

8. CONFIDENTIALITY

- (a) Confidential Information. Each Party shall use, and shall cause its sublicensees to use, at least the same standard of care in the protection of Confidential Information of the other Party as it uses to protect its own confidential or proprietary information of a similar nature (provided that such Confidential Information shall be protected in at least a reasonable manner). For purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" includes (1) all confidential or proprietary information and documentation of either Party, all reports, exhibits and other documentation, any financial information and (2) any FNT Trade Secrets and FNF Trade Secrets. Each Party shall use the Confidential Information of the other Party only in connection with the purposes of this Agreement, including resolution of any Disputes in accordance with Section 9, and shall make such Confidential Information available, and shall cause its sublicensees to make such Confidential Information available, only to their respective employees, subcontractors, or agents having a "need to know" with respect to such purpose. Each Party shall advise, and shall cause its sublicensees to advise, their respective employees, subcontractors, and agents of such Party's obligations under this Agreement. Except as otherwise required by the terms of this Agreement (including Section 10) or applicable law or national stock exchange rule, in the event of the expiration of this Agreement or termination of this Agreement for any reason all Confidential Information of a Party disclosed to, and all copies thereof made by, the other Party or the other Party's sublicensees shall be returned to the disclosing Party or, at the disclosing Party's option, erased or destroyed. The Party receiving the Confidential Information (or its sublicensee that received the Confidential Information) shall provide to the disclosing Party certificates evidencing such destruction. The obligations in this Section 8(a) will not restrict disclosure by a Party or its sublicensee pursuant to applicable law, or by order or request of any court or government agency; provided that, prior to such disclosure the receiving Party or its sublicensee shall (i) immediately give notice to the disclosing Party and (ii) cooperate with the disclosing Party in challenging the right to such access and (iii) only provide such information as is required by law, such order or a final, non-appealable ruling of a court of proper jurisdiction or with the written consent of the disclosing Party. Confidential Information of a Party will not be afforded the protection of this Agreement if such Confidential Information was (A) developed by the other Party or its sublicensees independently as shown by its written business records regularly kept, (B) rightfully obtained by the other Party or its sublicensees without restriction from a third party, (C) publicly available other than through the fault or negligence of the other Party or its sublicensees, or (D) released by the disclosing Party without restriction to anyone.

- (b) Unauthorized Acts. Each Party shall and shall cause its sublicensees to: (1) notify the other Party promptly of any unauthorized possession, use, or knowledge of any Confidential Information of the other Party by any Person which shall become known to it, any attempt by any Person to gain possession of Confidential Information of the other Party without authorization or any attempt to use or acquire knowledge of any Confidential Information without authorization (collectively, "Unauthorized Access"), (2) promptly furnish to the other Party full details of the Unauthorized Access and use reasonable efforts to assist the other Party in investigating or preventing the reoccurrence of any Unauthorized Access, (3) cooperate with the other Party in any litigation and investigation against third parties deemed necessary by such Party to protect its proprietary rights, and (4) promptly take affirmative action to prevent a reoccurrence of any such Unauthorized Access.

9. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- (a) Amicable Resolution. The Parties mutually desire that friendly collaboration will continue between them. Accordingly, they will try to resolve in an amicable manner all disagreements and misunderstandings connected with their respective rights and obligations under this Agreement, including any amendments hereto. In furtherance thereof, in the event of any dispute or disagreement (a "Dispute") between the Parties in connection with this Agreement (including, without limitation, any use of a Granting Party's Intellectual Property or Trade Secret by the Licensee Party Group or the compliance of the Licensee Party Group with terms of Section 2(c)(iii)), then the Dispute, upon written request of either Party, will be referred for resolution to the General Counsels of the Parties, which General Counsels will have ten (10) days to resolve such Dispute.
- (b) Mediation. In the event any Dispute cannot be resolved in a friendly manner as set forth in Section 9(a), the Parties intend that such Dispute be resolved by mediation. If the General Counsels of the Parties are unable to resolve the Dispute as contemplated by Section 9(a), either Party may demand mediation of the Dispute by written notice to the other in which case the two Parties will select a single mediator within ten (10) days after the demand. Neither Party may unreasonably withhold consent to the selection of the mediator. Each Party will bear its own costs of mediation but both Parties will share the costs of the mediator equally.

- (c) Arbitration. In the event that the Dispute is not resolved pursuant to Section 9(a) or through mediation pursuant to Section 9(b), the latter within thirty (30) days of the submission of the Dispute to mediation, either Party involved in the Dispute may submit the dispute to binding arbitration pursuant to this Section 9(c). All Disputes submitted to arbitration pursuant to this Section 9(c) shall be resolved in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association, unless the Parties involved mutually agree to utilize an alternate set of rules, in which event all references herein to the American Arbitration Association shall be deemed modified accordingly. Expedited rules shall apply regardless of the amount at issue. Arbitration proceedings hereunder may be initiated by either Party making a written request to the American Arbitration Association, together with any appropriate filing fee, at the office of the American Arbitration Association in Orlando, Florida. All arbitration proceedings shall be held in the city of Jacksonville, Florida in a location to be specified by the arbitrators (or any place agreed to by the Parties and the Arbitrator). The arbitration shall be by a single qualified arbitrator experienced in the matters at issue, such arbitrator to be mutually agreed upon by the Parties. If the Parties fail to agree on an arbitrator thirty (30) days after notice of commencement of arbitration, the American Arbitration Association shall, upon the request of any Party to the dispute or difference, appoint the arbitrator. Any order or determination of the arbitral tribunal shall be final and binding upon the Parties to the arbitration as to matters submitted and may be enforced by any Party to the Dispute in any court having jurisdiction over the subject matter or over any of the Parties. All costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such arbitration proceeding (including reasonable attorneys' fees) shall be borne by the Party incurring such costs. The use of any alternative dispute resolution procedures hereunder will not be construed under the doctrines of laches, waiver or estoppel to affect adversely the rights of either Party.
- (d) Non-Exclusive Remedy. FNF and FNT acknowledge and agree that money damages would not be a sufficient remedy for any breach of this Agreement by either Party or misuse of FNF Intellectual Property or FNF Trade Secret or FNT Intellectual Property or FNT Trade Secret within the FNF Group or the FNT Group, as the case may be, or the Confidential Information of FNF or FNT, as the case may be. Accordingly, nothing in this Section 9 will prevent either Party from immediately seeking injunctive or interim relief in the event (A) of any actual or threatened breach of any confidentiality provisions of this Agreement or (B) that the Dispute relates to, or involves a claim of, actual or threatened infringement of intellectual property. All actions for such injunctive or interim relief shall be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction in accordance with Section 11(f). Such remedy shall not be deemed to be the exclusive remedy for breach of this Agreement.

- (e) Commencement of Dispute Resolution Procedure. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Parties, but none of their respective Subsidiaries, are entitled to commence a dispute resolution procedure under this Agreement, whether pursuant to this Section 9 or otherwise, and each Party will cause its respective Subsidiaries not to commence any dispute resolution procedure other than through such Party as provided in this Section 9.

10. TERM AND TERMINATION

- (a) Individual Terminations. This Agreement shall be construed as a separate and independent agreement for each and every Copyright, Mark or Patent provided for hereunder. Any termination of a license or sublicense for any particular Mark shall not terminate any licenses or sublicenses hereunder with regard to other Marks. Termination of a sublicense of a Mark shall not terminate sublicenses to other sublicensees or to other Marks.
- (b) Automatic Renewals of Marks Licenses; Termination for Sale. Subject to termination rights set forth in Section 2(c), the license of Marks hereunder shall continue for successive twenty (20) year terms, renewing automatically unless all of the Marks have been abandoned. Notwithstanding the foregoing, all licenses of Marks hereunder from FNF to FNT shall terminate automatically upon a Change of Control of FNT, subject to the transition period described in Section 10(e).
- (c) Termination as a result of Disaffiliation. If a member of a Licensee Party Group ceases to be a member of the Licensee Party Group, then all sublicenses from the Licensee Party to such member granted pursuant to the Licensee Party's rights under Section 2 shall terminate, subject to the transition period described in Section 10(e).
- (d) Termination for Insolvency. (i) In the event that either Party or, if applicable, the subsidiary of such Party to which a sublicense hereunder has been granted:
- A) shall admit in writing its inability to, or be generally unable to, pay its debts as such debts become due; or
 - B) shall (1) apply for or consent to the appointment of, or the taking of possession by, a receiver, custodian, trustee, examiner or liquidator of itself or of all or a substantial part of its property or assets, (2) make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors, (3) commence a voluntary case under the Bankruptcy Code, (4) file a petition seeking to take advantage of any other law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, liquidation, dissolution, arrangement or winding-up, or composition or readjustment of debts, (5) fail to controvert in a timely and appropriate manner, or acquiesce in writing to, any petition filed against it in an involuntary case under the Bankruptcy Code or (6) take any corporate, partnership or other action for the purpose of effecting any of the foregoing;

then the other Party may, by giving notice thereof to such Party, exercise any termination right, and such termination shall become effective as of the date specified in such termination notice; provided that where the conditions of this subsection 10(d)(i) are met only as to a subsidiary of such Party to which a sublicense hereunder has been granted, then the other Party's rights of termination are limited only to such subsidiary.

(ii) In the event that:

- A) a proceeding or case shall be commenced, without the application or consent of a Party or, if applicable, the subsidiary of such Party to which a sublicense hereunder has been granted, in any court of competent jurisdiction, seeking (i) its reorganization, liquidation, dissolution, arrangement or winding-up, or the composition or readjustment of its debts under the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) the appointment of a receiver, custodian, trustee, examiner, liquidator or the like of such Party, or, if applicable, of such subsidiary, or of all or any substantial part of its property or assets under the Bankruptcy Code or (iii) similar relief in respect of such Party or, if applicable, such subsidiary under any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, winding-up, or composition or adjustment of debts, and such proceeding or case shall continue undismissed, or an order, judgment or decree approving or ordering any of the foregoing shall be entered and continue unstayed and in effect, for a period of sixty (60) days or more days; or
- B) an order for relief against such Party shall be entered in an involuntary case under the Bankruptcy Code, which shall continue in effect for a period of sixty (60) days or more;

then the other Party may, by giving notice thereof to such Party, exercise any termination right, and such termination shall become effective as of the date specified in such termination notice; provided that where the conditions of this subsection 10(d)(ii) are met only as to a subsidiary of such Party to which a sublicense hereunder has been granted, then the other Party's rights of termination are limited only to such subsidiary.

(e) Events on Termination.

(i) Upon any termination or expiration of any licenses or sublicenses for Marks granted under this Agreement: (A) where FNF is the Granting Party, FNT shall, and shall cause its applicable sublicensees to, promptly cease all use of the applicable Marks; provided that in the event of such termination by reason of a Change in Control pursuant to Section 10(b), FNF shall provide written notice to FNT of the termination of all licenses and sublicenses of Marks hereunder, with such termination to be effective at the end of a transition period of one (1) year from the date of such notice, and upon such termination, FNT shall have ceased and shall have caused its sublicensees to cease, all use of the applicable Marks; and (B) where FNT is the Granting Party, FNF shall, and shall cause its applicable sublicensees, to promptly cease, all use of the applicable Marks.

(ii) The termination of licenses and sublicenses of Patents and Copyrights pursuant to Section 10(c) shall be effective at the end of a transition period of one (1) year from the date that the former member of a Licensee Party Group ceased to be a member of the Licensee Party Group, and upon such termination, the Licensee Party shall have caused the former member of the Licensee Party Group to cease all use of the Patents and Copyrights.

- (f) Abandonment. If FNF or a transferee intends to abandon all use of all marks containing the word "Fidelity," then FNF or such transferee shall provide written notice to FNT of its intention to abandon such marks simultaneously with its providing of a similar written notice to Fidelity National Information Services, Inc. ("FIS") pursuant to the terms of that certain Intellectual Property Cross License Agreement dated as of March 4, 2005 (the "FIS Cross License"), whereupon, subject to the superseding rights of FIS under the FIS Cross License, FNT will have a right to make an offer for the assignment of such marks and FNF will negotiate in good faith, solely with FNT, for the subsequent thirty (30) days, to conclude a mutually satisfactory transaction with respect to such assignment. If, at any time after providing such notice of its intention to abandon such marks, FNF or a transferee proposes to assign such marks, or any significant subset thereof, to a Person not affiliated with FNF or such transferee, FNT shall be extended a right of first refusal to acquire any transferable rights that FNF may have in such marks, which right shall be for a thirty (30) day period from the date of receipt of written notice of such proposal to assign such marks. If prior to expiration of the 30 day period, FNT has not provided written notice to FNF of its agreement to exercise such right, FNF or a transferee may offer or assign such Marks to any other Person.

- (g) Termination of Trade Secret Licenses.

(i) If, upon a Change of Control of FNT, FNF reasonably believes that any FNF Trade Secrets primarily related to the business of FNF may become available to a Competitor of FNF, FNF may withdraw from the license granted hereunder such FNF Trade Secrets upon a reasonable transition period for FNT to develop or acquire replacement know-how or trade secrets, provided that FNF compensates FNT in full for any loss or expenses that FNT bears in connection with such withdrawal.

(ii) If, upon a Change of Control of FNT, FNT reasonably believes that any FNT Trade Secrets primarily related to the business of FNT may become available to a Competitor of FNT, FNT may withdraw from the license granted hereunder such FNT Trade Secrets upon a reasonable transition period for FNF to develop or acquire replacement know-how or trade secrets, provided that FNT compensates FNF in full for any loss or expenses that FNT bears in connection with such withdrawal.

- (h) Survival. The terms of the last sentence of 2(g)(i) and all of Sections 4, 7, 8, 9, 10(e), 10(g), 10(h) and 11 shall survive termination of this Agreement or any licenses or sublicenses granted hereunder.

11. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

- (a) Relationship of the Parties. It is expressly understood and agreed that FNF and FNT are not partners or joint venturers, and nothing contained herein is intended to create an agency relationship or a partnership or joint venture with respect to rights granted herein. With respect to this Agreement, neither Party is an agent of the other and neither Party has any authority to represent or bind the other Party as to any matters, except as authorized herein or in writing by such other Party from time to time.

- (b) Employees. As between the Parties, each Party shall be responsible for payment of compensation to its employees those of its subsidiaries, for any injury to them in the course of their employment, and for withholding or payment of all federal, state and local taxes or contributions imposed or required under unemployment insurance, social security and income tax laws with respect to such persons.
- (c) Assignment. Neither Party may assign, transfer or convey any right, obligation or duty, under this Agreement (other than those rights as between the Parties explicitly set forth herein) without the prior written consent of the other Party.
- (d) Severability. In the event that any one or more of the provisions contained herein shall for any reason be held to be unenforceable in any respect under law, such unenforceability shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement, and this Agreement shall be construed as if such unenforceable provision or provisions had never been contained herein.
- (e) Third Party Beneficiaries. Subject to the final sentence of Section 11(j), the provisions of this Agreement are for the benefit of the Parties and their affiliates and not for any other Person. However, subject to the final sentence of Section 11(j), should any third party institute proceedings, this Agreement shall not provide any such Person with any remedy, claim, liability, reimbursement, cause of action, or other right.
- (f) Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida, without giving effect to such State's laws and principles regarding the conflict of laws. R E C I T A L S :

A. Pursuant to that certain Assignment and Assumption Agreement dated as of August 1st, 2005, Sublandlord assumed the rights and obligations of Subtenant, as tenant, under that certain Lease Agreement dated as of January 1, 2005 (the "Initial Lease") with Fidelity Information Services, Inc., an Arkansas corporation ("Master Landlord"), for 121,076 rentable square feet of office space located on the ground floor, 4th, 10th, 11th, and 12th floors of the 13-story office building located at 601 Riverside Avenue, Jacksonville, Florida, and 281 rentable square feet of space in the building designated as Building 2 located at 601 Riverside Avenue, Jacksonville, Florida (the "Premises"). The assumed and assigned obligations under the Initial Lease have been novated pursuant to a Lease Agreement of even date herewith (the "Master Lease") between the Master Landlord and Sublandlord, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A and incorporated herein by this reference.

B. Subtenant desires to sublease from Sublandlord a portion of the Premises consisting of approximately _____ rentable square feet of space located on floors _____ (which portion shall be hereafter referred to as the "Subleased Premises" and depicted on Exhibit B attached hereto, and incorporated herein by this reference).

C. Sublandlord has agreed to sublease the Subleased Premises to Subtenant upon the terms, covenants and conditions herein set forth.

A G R E E M E N T :

In consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Sublease. The foregoing recitals are incorporated herein by this reference. Sublandlord hereby subleases and demises to Subtenant and Subtenant hereby hires and takes from Sublandlord the Subleased Premises, subject to the terms, covenants and conditions contained in this Sublease.

2. Term. The term of the Sublease ("Sublease Term") shall commence on the date hereof (the "Commencement Date") and shall end on the date of the expiration of the initial term of the Master Lease, namely December 31, 2007, unless sooner terminated as otherwise provided herein.

3. Base Rent. Upon execution of this Sublease, and effective on the Commencement Date, Subtenant shall pay monthly Base Rent for the Subleased Premises of $_____, which is the same base rental rate of $23.05 per rentable square foot as set forth in the Master Lease.

4. Additional Rent. Subtenant acknowledges and understands that pursuant to the terms of the Master Lease, Sublandlord is obligated to pay as tenant thereunder certain other costs and expenses which are considered Additional Rent. Subtenant agrees that in addition to the Base Rent due as set forth above, Subtenant shall also pay to Sublandlord, as Additional Rent, Subtenant's Share (as defined below and without any mark-up or additional cost imposed by Sublandlord) of the additional costs and expenses payable by the Sublandlord pursuant to the terms of the Master Lease, as well as all other expenses attributable to Subtenant and/or the Subleased Premises. Subtenant's Share is _____ %, which has been determined by dividing the rentable square feet of the Subleased Premises by the rentable square feet of the Premises.

5. Security Deposit. Subtenant shall not be required to provide a security deposit.

6. Use. Subtenant covenants and agrees to use the Subleased Premises in accordance with the provisions of the Master Lease and for no other purpose except in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Master Lease and this Sublease.

7. Parking. Throughout the Sublease Term, Sublandlord shall provide Subtenant with parking allocated to Sublandlord as tenant under the Master Lease at the prevailing rates.

8. Installation of a Satellite Dish. Subject to Master Landlord's consent and compliance with the terms of the Master Lease, Subtenant shall be permitted to install a satellite dish for Subtenant's use only, on the roof of the Building.

9. Additional Tenant Improvements to Subleased Premises. Throughout the Sublease Term, Subtenant shall have the right at its sole expense, to construct additional tenant improvements ("Additional Tenant Improvements") in the Subleased Premises. All such Additional Tenant Improvements (including timing, design, finish, grade, etc.,) shall be subject to Master Landlord and Sublandlord's prior written approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

10. Master Lease. As applied to this Sublease, the words "Landlord" and "Tenant" as used in the Master Lease shall be deemed to refer to Sublandlord and Subtenant hereunder, respectively. Subtenant and this Sublease shall be subject in all respects to the terms of, and the rights of the Landlord under, the Master Lease. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, and without limitation, all of the sections of the Master Lease insofar as they relate to the Subleased Premises and insofar as they are not inconsistent with the terms of this Sublease are made a part of and incorporated into this Sublease as if recited herein in full, and the rights and obligations of the Landlord and the Tenant under such sections of the Master Lease shall be deemed the rights and obligations of Sublandlord and Subtenant respectively hereunder and shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of Sublandlord and Subtenant respectively. Subtenant further covenants and warrants that in addition to the specific sections of the Master Lease referenced above (1) it fully understands and agrees to be subject to, and bound by all other covenants, agreements, terms, provisions, and conditions of the Master Lease to the extent they apply to the Subleased Premises; and (2) that Subtenant shall fully perform all of Sublandlord's obligations under the Master Lease to the extent they apply to the Subleased Premises. Furthermore, Subtenant and Sublandlord further covenant not to take any action or do or perform any act or fail to perform any act which would result in the failure or breach of any of the covenants, agreements, terms, provisions or conditions of the Master Lease on the part of the Tenant thereunder. As between the parties hereto only, in the event of a conflict between the terms of the Master Lease and the terms of this Sublease, the terms of this Sublease shall control.

11. Master Landlord's Performance Under Master Lease. Subtenant recognizes that Sublandlord is not in a position to render any of the services or to perform any of the obligations required of the Master Landlord by the terms of the Master Lease. Therefore, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Sublease, Subtenant agrees that performance by Sublandlord of its obligations hereunder are conditional upon due performance by Master Landlord of its corresponding obligations under the Master Lease, Sublandlord shall have no obligation to perform Master Landlord's obligations under the Master Lease, and Sublandlord shall not be liable to Subtenant for any default of Master Landlord under the Master Lease. Subtenant shall not have any claim against Sublandlord by reason of the Master Landlord's failure or refusal to comply with any of the provisions of the Master Lease unless such failure or refusal is a result of Sublandlord's breach of the Master Lease. The Sublease shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding Master Landlord's failure or refusal to comply with any such provisions of the Master Lease and Subtenant shall pay the Base Rent and Additional Rent and all other charges provided for herein without any abatement, deduction or setoff whatsoever.

11.1 Whenever the consent of Master Landlord shall be required by, or Master Landlord shall fail to perform its obligations under the Master Lease, Sublandlord agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain, at Subtenant's sole cost and expense, such consent and/or performance on behalf of Subtenant.

11.2 To its actual knowledge, Sublandlord represents and warrants to Subtenant that the Master Lease is in full force and effect, and Sublandlord has neither given nor received a notice of default pursuant to the Master Lease.

11.3 Sublandlord agrees not to terminate the Master Lease voluntarily, or modify the Master Lease in a manner that materially and adversely affects Subtenant's rights under this Sublease. Sublandlord further agrees to take all reasonable measures to cause the Master Lease to remain in full force and effect with respect to the Subleased Premises so as to provide Subtenant with the quiet and peaceable enjoyment of the Subleased Premises. Sublandlord further agrees to indemnify Subtenant from and against loss or damage suffered by Subtenant as result of Sublandlord's failure to perform the obligations of this Section. Subtenant shall refrain from any act or omission that would result in the failure or breach of any of the covenants, provisions or conditions of the Master Lease on the part of the Tenant under the Master Lease.

11.4 In the event of a default by the Master Landlord under the Master Lease during the term of the Sublease which materially and adversely affects Subtenant's rights under the Sublease, Sublandlord shall elect to either: (1) pursue its claims against Master Landlord, if any, in a timely and reasonable manner; or (2) assign its claims against Master Landlord, if any, to Subtenant, who may then pursue such claims at its sole expense. In either event, the party pursuing such claims shall consult with and keep the other fully informed during the prosecution of the claims.

12. Variations from Master Lease. The following covenants, agreements, terms, provisions and conditions of the Master Lease are hereby modified or not incorporated herein:

12.1 The amount of Base Rent and Additional Rent payable under this Sublease shall be as set forth herein.

12.2 Any options of Sublandlord as tenant under the Master Lease to extend the term set forth therein shall not be extended to Subtenant under this Sublease.

12.3 The parties hereto represent and warrant to each other that neither party dealt with any broker or finder in connection with the consummation of this Sublease and each party agrees to protect, defend, indemnify, hold and save the other party harmless from and against any and all claims or liabilities for brokerage commissions or finder's fees arising out of either of their acts in connection with this Sublease to anyone other than the Brokers. The provisions of this Section shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Sublease.

12.4 Notwithstanding anything contained in the Master Lease to the contrary, as between Sublandlord and Subtenant only, all insurance proceeds or condemnation awards received by Sublandlord under the Master Lease or otherwise, shall be deemed to be the property of Sublandlord, and Sublandlord shall have no obligation to rebuild or restore the Subleased Premises.

12.5 All written notices, requests, demands and other communications provided for hereunder shall be in writing; shall be delivered or communicated personally or by first class letter, overnight delivery service or facsimile transmission confirmed (provided a successful transmission report has been received by the sender); and shall be mailed or delivered to the applicable party at the address indicated below next to their name or at such other address as shall be designated by such party in a written notice delivered in accordance with this Section. All notices mailed shall be deemed received as of (i) receipt or refusal in the event of delivery, or (ii) within two (2) business days after deposit into the U. S. mail.

12.6 Condition of Subleased Premises. Sublandlord shall deliver the Premises in "as is" condition and in accordance with the applicable possession dates as set forth in Section 3.

12.7 Termination of Master Lease by Sublandlord. Throughout the term of the Sublease, Sublandlord agrees not to exercise its rights under the Master Lease, now existing or hereafter acquired, to terminate the Master Lease with respect to any portion of the Subleased Premises.

13. Indemnification by Subtenant. Subtenant hereby agrees to protect, defend, indemnify and hold Sublandlord harmless from and against any and all liabilities, claims, expenses, losses and damages, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and disbursements, that may at any time be asserted against Sublandlord by Master Landlord for failure of Subtenant to perform any of the covenants, agreements, terms, provisions or conditions contained in the Master Lease or Sublease that Subtenant is obligated to perform, and as a result of Subtenant's and/or any persons use and/or occupancy of the Subleased Premises, except to the extent any of the foregoing is caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of Sublandlord or the breach of the Sublease by Sublandlord. The provisions of this Section shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of the Master Lease and/or this Sublease.

14. Indemnification by Sublandlord. Sublandlord hereby agrees to protect, defend, indemnify and hold Subtenant harmless from and against any and all liabilities, claims, expenses, losses and damages, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and disbursements, that may at any time be asserted against Subtenant by Master Landlord for failure of Sublandlord to perform any of the covenants, agreements, terms, provisions or conditions contained in the Master Lease or Sublease that Sublandlord is obligated to perform, and as a result of Sublandlord's and/or any persons use and/or occupancy of the Subleased Premises, except to the extent any of the foregoing is caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of Subtenant or the breach of the Sublease by Subtenant. The provisions of this Section shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of the Master Lease and/or this Sublease.

15. Cancellation of Master Lease. In the event of the cancellation or termination of the Master Lease for any reason whatsoever or due to the involuntary surrender of the Master Lease by operation of law prior to the expiration date of this Sublease, Subtenant agrees, at the sole option of Master Landlord, to make full and complete attornment to Master Landlord under the Master Lease for the balance of the Sublease Term upon the then executory terms of this Sublease, provided Master Landlord agrees in writing not to disturb the possession of the Subleased Premises by Subtenant or the rights of Subtenant under this Sublease so long as Subtenant is not in material default (subject to applicable notice and cure rights in favor of Subtenant) in the performance of its obligations thereunder. Such attornment shall be evidenced by an agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Master Landlord. Subtenant agrees to execute and deliver such an agreement at any time within ten (10) business days after request by Master Landlord. Subtenant waives the provisions of any law now or hereafter in effect that may provide Subtenant any right to terminate this Sublease or to surrender possession of the Subleased Premises in the event any proceeding is brought by Master Landlord under the Master Lease to terminate the Master Lease. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if the Master Lease is cancelled through no fault of Subtenant and Subtenant is not then in default under the terms of this Sublease, Master Landlord shall provide Subtenant a minimum ninety (90) days notice before requiring Subtenant to surrender the Subleased Premises ("Permissive Holdover Period"). During the Permissive Holdover Period (which may be more or less than ninety (90) days as determined by mutual agreement of Subtenant and Landlord), Subtenant shall pay rent for the Subleased Premises in accordance with either the amount set forth in the Sublease or the amount set forth in the Master Lease (i.e., the amount which Sublandlord is responsible for), whichever is greater, and perform all obligations required under the Sublease directly to Master Landlord.

16. Subordination and Non-Disturbance. This Sublease shall be subordinate and subject to all mortgages, deeds of trust on the Premises, whether recorded before or after this Sublease. To the best of Sublandlord's knowledge, the Premises are not currently encumbered by a mortgage lien. In the event that the Premises are hereafter encumbered by a mortgage lien, and provided Subtenant is not in default, and subject to the Master Lease and Master Landlord's consent to this Sublease, Sublandlord shall obtain a customary non-disturbance agreement from each mortgagee and or beneficiary, as the case may be prior to agreeing to subordinate its interest in the Premises.

17. Certificates. Each party to this Sublease shall, from time to time as requested by the other party, on not less than fifteen (15) business days' prior written notice, execute, acknowledge and deliver to the other party a statement in writing ("Estoppel Certificate") certifying that this Sublease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if there have been modifications that this Sublease is in full force and effect as modified and stating the modifications). The Estoppel Certificate shall certify the dates to which Base Rent, Additional Rent and any other charges have been paid. The Estoppel Certificate shall also state whether, to the knowledge of the person signing the Estoppel Certificate, the other party is in default beyond any applicable grace period provided in this Sublease in the performance of any of its obligations under this Sublease. If the other party is in default beyond any applicable grace period, the Estoppel Certificate shall specify each default of which the signer then has knowledge. It is intended that the Estoppel Certificate shall be reasonably acceptable to the recipient and that it may be relied on by others with whom the party requesting the Estoppel Certificate may be dealing. Unless requested by the Master Landlord, neither party shall be required to deliver more than two Estoppel Certificates in any calendar year.

18. Assignment or Subleasing. All assignments or subleases shall require the prior written consent of the Sublandlord and the Master Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, unless the assignment of sublease is a "Permitted Transfer" as set forth in the Master Lease.

19. Quiet Enjoyment. The Sublandlord covenants and agrees that Subtenant, on paying the Base Rent, Additional Rent, charges, payments and all other obligations herein required, and, on keeping, observing and performing all other terms, covenants, conditions, provisions and agreements herein contained on the part of Subtenant to be kept, observed and performed, shall, during the Sublease Term, peaceably and quietly have, hold and enjoy the Subleased Premises subject however to: (a) the terms and conditions of the Master Lease, (b) the terms and conditions of the Master Landlord's Consent; (c) all other terms and conditions of the Sublease; and (d) all mortgages, deeds of trust, liens, ground leases, agreements, and/or all other encumbrances to which this Sublease is now currently, or subsequently becomes subordinate to.

20. Severability. If any term or provision of this Sublease or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall, to any extent, be invalid and unenforceable, the remainder of this Sublease or the application of such term or provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby and each term or provision of this Sublease shall be valid and be enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

21. Entire Agreement; Waiver. This Sublease constitutes the final, complete and exclusive statement between the parties to this Sublease pertaining to the Subleased Premises, supersedes all prior and contemporaneous understandings or agreements of the parties, and is binding on and inures to the benefit of their respective heirs, representatives, successors, and assigns. No party has been induced to enter into this Sublease by, nor is any party relying on, any representation or warranty outside those expressly set forth in this Sublease. Any agreement made after the date of this Sublease is ineffective to modify, waive, release, terminate or effect an abandonment of this Sublease, in whole or in part, unless that agreement is in writing, is signed by the parties to this Sublease, and specifically states that such agreement modifies this Sublease.

22. Captions and Definitions. Captions to the Sections in this Sublease are included for convenience only and are not intended and shall not be deemed to modify or explain any of the terms of this Sublease.

23. Further Assurances. The parties hereto agree that each of them, upon the request of the other party, shall execute and deliver, in recordable form if necessary, such further documents, instruments or agreements and shall take such further action that may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to effectuate the purposes of this Sublease.

24. Governing Law. This Sublease was made in and is to be performed entirely within the State of Florida and its interpretation, its construction and the remedies for its enforcement or breach are to be applied pursuant to, and in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida for contracts made and to be performed therein.

25. Authority. Each individual executing this Sublease represents that he or she is duly authorized to execute and deliver this Sublease on behalf of the party for which he or she is signing, and that this Sublease is binding upon the party for which he or she is signing in accordance with its terms.

26. Attorneys' Fees. If any dispute, action, lawsuit or proceeding relating to this Sublease, or any default thereunder, whether or not any action, lawsuit or proceeding is commenced, the non-prevailing party shall reimburse the prevailing party for its attorneys' fees and costs and all fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with such dispute, action, lawsuit or proceeding, including, without limitation, any post-judgment fees, costs or expenses incurred on any appeal, in collection of any judgment or in appearing in any bankruptcy proceeding.

27. Counterparts. This Sublease may be executed in facsimile and in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original and all of which together shall be deemed to be one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Sublease to be executed as of the day and year first above written.

CORPORATE SERVICES AGREEMENT

This Corporate Services Agreement (this "Agreement") is effective as of _____, 2005 (the "Effective Date"), by and between FIDELITY NATIONAL TITLE GROUP, INC., a Delaware corporation ("FNT" or "PROVIDING PARTY"), and FIDELITY NATIONAL INFORMATION SERVICES, INC., a Delaware corporation ("FIS" or "RECEIVING PARTY"). FNT and FIS shall be referred to together in this Agreement as the "Parties" and individually as a "Party."

WHEREAS, FIS previously entered into a certain Stock Purchase Agreement, dated as of December 23, 2004 (the "Stock Purchase Agreement"), with Fidelity National Financial, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("FNF"), pursuant to which certain purchasers (the "Purchasers") purchased from FIS 50,000,000 shares of FIS' common stock, subject to the terms and conditions of the Stock Purchase Agreement; and

WHEREAS, a condition to the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement required that FIS and FNF enter into certain Intercompany Agreements (as defined in the Stock Purchase Agreement), and that the form and substance of such Intercompany Agreements be satisfactory to the Parties and the representatives of the Purchasers; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the requirements in the Stock Purchase Agreement, FIS previously entered into a Corporate Services Agreement dated as of March 4, 2005 (the "FNF Agreement") with FNF, as the parent company of FNT and its subsidiaries, for the provision of certain corporate services, as more fully described herein; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to an Assignment and Assumption Agreement of even date herewith between FNF and FNT, FNT has assumed, with the consent of FIS, all of FNF's rights and obligations under the FNF Agreement; and

WHEREAS, FIS and FNT wish to enter into a novation of the rights and obligations under the FNF Agreement, as assumed by and assigned to FNT, so that FNT is the clear party in interest with respect to the corporate services to be provided to FIS, as more particularly described herein;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, and of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements set forth herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I
CORPORATE SERVICES

1.1 Corporate Services. This Agreement sets forth the terms and conditions for the provision by PROVIDING PARTY to RECEIVING PARTY of various corporate services and products, as more fully described below and in Schedule 1.1(a) attached hereto (the Scheduled Services, the Omitted Services, the Resumed Services and Special Projects (as defined below), collectively, the "Corporate Services").

(a) PROVIDING PARTY, through its Subsidiaries and Affiliates (each as defined below), and their respective employees, agents or contractors, shall provide or cause to be provided to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries all services set forth on Schedule 1.1(a) (the "Scheduled Services") on and after the Effective Date (with such services to be provided to the RECEIVING PARTY's Subsidiaries as they become Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY, subject to the exception in clause (ii) of Section 1.2(a)). RECEIVING PARTY shall pay fees to PROVIDING PARTY for providing the Scheduled Services or causing the Scheduled Services to be provided as set forth in Schedule 1.1(a). For purposes of this Agreement, "Subsidiary" means, with respect to either Party, any corporation, partnership, company or other entity of which such Party controls or owns, directly or indirectly, more than fifty percent (50%) of the stock or other equity interest entitled to vote on the election of the members to the board of directors or similar governing body; and "Affiliate" means, with respect to either Party, any corporation, partnership, company, or other entity that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, such specified Party, except that (i) in the case of RECEIVING PARTY, "Affiliate" shall not include FNF and any Subsidiary of FNF that is not a Subsidiary (directly or indirectly) of FIS, and (ii) in the case of PROVIDING PARTY, "Affiliate" shall include FNF and its Subsidiaries, excluding FIS and its Subsidiaries. As used herein, "control" means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of such entity, whether through ownership of voting securities or other interests, by contract or otherwise.

(b) PROVIDING PARTY, through its Subsidiaries and Affiliates, and their respective employees, agents or contractors, shall provide or cause to be provided to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries all services that PROVIDING PARTY was performing for RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries as of the Effective Date that pertain to and are a part of Scheduled Services under Section 1.1(a) (with such services to be provided to the RECEIVING PARTY's Subsidiaries as they become Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY, subject to the exception in clause (ii) of Section 1.2(a)), which are not expressly included in the list of Scheduled Services in Schedule 1.1(a), but are required to conduct the business of RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries (the "Omitted Services"), unless RECEIVING PARTY consents in writing to the termination of such services. Such Omitted Services shall be added to Schedule 1.1(a) and thereby become Scheduled Services, as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date by the Parties. In the event that RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries had been allocated charges or otherwise paid PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries for such Omitted Services immediately prior to the Effective Date, RECEIVING PARTY shall pay to PROVIDING PARTY for providing the Omitted Services or causing the Omitted Services to be provided hereunder fees equal to the actual fees paid for such Omitted Services immediately preceding the Effective Date; provided, that payment of such fees by the RECEIVING PARTY for the Omitted Services provided hereunder shall be retroactive to the first day of the calendar quarter in which either Party identifies such services as Omitted Services, but in no event shall RECEIVING PARTY be required to pay for any Omitted Services provided hereunder by the PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates prior to the Effective Date. In the event that RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries had not been allocated charges or otherwise paid PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates for such Omitted Services immediately prior to the Effective Date, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith a fee to be based on the cost of providing such Omitted Services, which shall in no event be less than the Default Fee (as defined below); provided, that payment of such fees by the RECEIVING PARTY for the Omitted Services provided hereunder by the RECEIVING PARTY shall be retroactive to the first day of the calendar quarter in which either the Party identifies such services as Omitted Services, but in no event shall RECEIVING PARTY be required to pay for any such Omitted Services provided hereunder by the PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates prior to the Effective Date. The "Default Fee" means an amount equal to one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the salary of each full-time employee, on an hourly basis, who provides the applicable Corporate Service or Transition Assistance (as defined in Section 2.3).

(c) At RECEIVING PARTY's written request, PROVIDING PARTY, through its Subsidiaries and Affiliates, and their respective employees, agents or contractors, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide or cause to be provided to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries any Scheduled Service that has been terminated at RECEIVING PARTY's request pursuant to Section 2.2 (the "Resumed Services"); provided, that PROVIDING PARTY shall have no obligation to provide a Resumed Service if providing such Resumed Service will have a material adverse impact on the other Corporate Services. Schedule 1.1(a) shall from time to time be amended to reflect the resumption of a Resumed Service and the Resumed Service shall be set forth thereon as a Scheduled Service.

(d) At RECEIVING PARTY's written request, PROVIDING PARTY, through its Subsidiaries and Affiliates, and their respective employees, agents or contractors, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide additional corporate services that are not described in the Schedule 1.1(a) and that are neither Omitted Services nor Resumed Services ("Special Projects"). RECEIVING PARTY shall submit a written request to PROVIDING PARTY specifying the nature of the Special Project and requesting an estimate of the costs applicable for such Special Project and the expected time frame for completion. PROVIDING PARTY shall respond promptly to such written request, but in no event later than twenty (20) days, with a written estimate of the cost of providing such Special Project and the expected time frame for completion (the "Cost Estimate"). If RECEIVING PARTY provides written approval of the Cost Estimate within ten (10) days after PROVIDING PARTY delivers the Cost Estimate, then within a commercially reasonable time after receipt of RECEIVING PARTY's written request, PROVIDING PARTY shall begin providing the Special Project; provided, that PROVIDING PARTY shall have no obligation to provide a Special Project where, in its reasonable discretion and prior to providing the Cost Estimate, it has determined and notified RECEIVING PARTY in writing that (i) it would not be feasible to provide such Special Project, given reasonable priority to other demands on its resources and capacity both under this Agreement or otherwise or (ii) it lacks the experience or qualifications to provide such Special Project.

1.2 Provision of Corporate Services; Excused Performance.

(a) To the extent commercially reasonable, the Parties will work together and begin the process of migrating the Corporate Services from PROVIDING PARTY to RECEIVING PARTY, one or more of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates or a third party (at RECEIVING PARTY's direction) such that the completion of the migration of the Corporate Services from PROVIDING PARTY to RECEIVING PARTY, one or more of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates or a third party, as the case may be, shall occur prior to the end of the Term. PROVIDING PARTY shall provide or cause to be provided each of the Corporate Services through the expiration of the Term, except (i) as automatically modified by earlier termination of a Corporate Service by RECEIVING PARTY in accordance with this Agreement, (ii) for Corporate Services to or for the benefit of any entity which ceases to be a Subsidiary of RECEIVING PARTY prior to the end of the Term, or (iii) as otherwise agreed to by the Parties in writing.

(b) All obligations of PROVIDING PARTY with respect to any one or more individual Corporate Services or Transition Assistance under this Agreement shall be excused to the extent and only for so long as a failure by PROVIDING PARTY with respect thereto is directly attributable to and caused specifically by a failure by RECEIVING PARTY or any of its Subsidiaries to meet their obligations (including any performance) under any other Intercompany Agreement (as defined in the Stock Purchase Agreement) or under the Master Information Technology Services Agreement dated as of _____, 2005 by and between Fidelity Information Services, Inc. and FNT (as novated pursuant to the Assignment and Assumption Agreement dated as of _____, 2005 between FNT and FNF).

1.3 Third Party Vendors; Consents.

(a) PROVIDING PARTY shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to keep and maintain in effect its relationships with its vendors that are integral to the provision of the Corporate Services. PROVIDING PARTY shall use commercially reasonable efforts to procure any waivers, permits, consents or sublicenses required by third party licensors, vendors or service providers under existing agreements with such third parties in order to provide any Corporate Services hereunder ("Third Party Consents"). In the event that PROVIDING PARTY is unable to procure such Third Party Consents on commercially reasonable terms, PROVIDING PARTY agrees to so notify RECEIVING PARTY, and to assist RECEIVING PARTY with the transition to another vendor. If, after the Effective Date, any one or more vendors (i) terminates its contractual relationship with PROVIDING PARTY or ceases to provide the products or services associated with the Corporate Services or (ii) notifies PROVIDING PARTY of its desire or plan to terminate its contractual relationship with PROVIDING PARTY or (iii) ceases providing the products or services associated with the Corporate Services, then, in either case, PROVIDING PARTY agrees to so notify RECEIVING PARTY, and to assist RECEIVING PARTY with the transition to another vendor so that RECEIVING PARTY may continue to receive similar products and services.

(b) PROVIDING PARTY shall not be required to transfer or assign to RECEIVING PARTY any third party software licenses or any hardware owned by PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates in connection with the provision of the Corporate Services or at the conclusion of the Term.

1.4 Dispute Resolution.

(a) Amicable Resolution. PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY mutually desire that friendly collaboration will continue between them. Accordingly, they will try to resolve in an amicable manner all disagreements and misunderstandings connected with their respective rights and obligations under this Agreement, including any amendments hereto. In furtherance thereof, in the event of any dispute or disagreement (a "Dispute") between PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY in connection with this Agreement (including, without limitation, the standards of performance, delay of performance or non-performance of obligations, or payment or non-payment of fees hereunder), then the Dispute, upon written request of either Party, will be referred for resolution to the president (or similar position) of the division implicated by the matter for each of PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY, which presidents will have fifteen (15) days to resolve such Dispute. If the presidents of the relevant divisions for each of PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY do not agree to a resolution of such Dispute within fifteen (15) days after the reference of the matter to them, such presidents of the relevant divisions will refer such matter to the president of each of PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY for final resolution. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 1.4, any amendment to the terms of this Agreement may only be effected in accordance with Section 11.10.

(b) Arbitration. In the event that the Dispute is not resolved in a friendly manner as set forth in Section 1.4(a), either Party involved in the Dispute may submit the dispute to binding arbitration pursuant to this Section 1.4(b). All Disputes submitted to arbitration pursuant to this Section 1.4(b) shall be resolved in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association, unless the Parties involved mutually agree to utilize an alternate set of rules, in which event all references herein to the American Arbitration Association shall be deemed modified accordingly. Expedited rules shall apply regardless of the amount at issue. Arbitration proceedings hereunder may be initiated by either Party making a written request to the American Arbitration Association, together with any appropriate filing fee, at the office of the American Arbitration Association in Orlando, Florida. All arbitration proceedings shall be held in the city of Jacksonville, Florida in a location to be specified by the arbitrators (or any place agreed to by the Parties and the arbitrators). The arbitration shall be by a single qualified arbitrator experienced in the matters at issue, such arbitrator to be mutually agreed upon by PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY. If PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY fail to agree on an arbitrator within thirty (30) days after notice of commencement of arbitration, the American Arbitration Association shall, upon the request of any Party to the Dispute, appoint the arbitrator. Any order or determination of the arbitral tribunal shall be final and binding upon the Parties to the arbitration as to matters submitted and may be enforced by any Party to the Dispute in any court having jurisdiction over the subject matter or over any of the Parties. All costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such arbitration proceeding (including reasonable attorneys' fees) shall be borne by the Party incurring such costs. The use of any alternative dispute resolution procedures hereunder will not be construed under the doctrines of laches, waiver or estoppel to affect adversely the rights of either Party.

(c) Non-Exclusive Remedy. Nothing in this Section 1.4 will prevent either PROVIDING PARTY or RECEIVING PARTY from immediately seeking injunctive or interim relief in the event (i) of any actual or threatened breach of any of the provisions of Article VIII or (ii) that the Dispute relates to, or involves a claim of, actual or threatened infringement of intellectual property. All such actions for injunctive or interim relief shall be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction in accordance with Section 11.6. Such remedy shall not be deemed to be the exclusive remedy for breach of this Agreement, and further remedies may be pursued in accordance with Section 1.4(a) and Section 1.4(b) above.

(d) Commencement of Dispute Resolution Procedure. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY, but none of their respective Subsidiaries or Affiliates, are entitled to commence a dispute resolution procedure under this Agreement, whether pursuant to Article XI, this Section 1.4 or otherwise, and each Party will cause its respective Affiliates not to commence any dispute resolution procedure other than through such Party as provided in this Section 1.4(d).

(e) Compensation. RECEIVING PARTY shall continue to make all payments due and owing under Article III for Corporate Services not the subject of a Dispute and shall not off-set such fees by the amount of fees for Corporate Services that are the subject of the Dispute.

1.5 Standard of Services.

(a) PROVIDING PARTY shall perform the Corporate Services for RECEIVING PARTY in a professional and competent manner, using standards of performance consistent with its performance of such services for itself.

(b) During the Term, PROVIDING PARTY shall maintain a disaster recovery program for the Corporate Services substantially consistent with the disaster recovery program in place for such Corporate Services as of the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the disaster recovery program maintained by PROVIDING PARTY will not include a business continuity program.

(c) If RECEIVING PARTY provides PROVIDING PARTY with written notice ("Shortfall Notice") of the occurrence of any Significant Service Shortfall (as defined below), as determined by RECEIVING PARTY in good faith, PROVIDING PARTY shall rectify such Significant Service Shortfall as soon as reasonably possible. For purposes of this Section 1.5(c), a "Significant Service Shortfall" shall be deemed to have occurred if the timing or quality of performance of Corporate Services provided by PROVIDING PARTY hereunder falls below the standard required by Section 1.5(a) hereof; provided that PROVIDING PARTY's obligations under this Agreement shall be relieved to the extent, and for the duration of, any force majeure event as set forth in Article V.

1.6 Response Time. PROVIDING PARTY shall respond to and resolve any problems in connection with the Corporate Services for RECEIVING PARTY within a commercially reasonable period of time, using response and proposed resolution times consistent with its response and resolution of such problems for itself.

1.7 Ownership of Materials; Results and Proceeds. All data and information submitted to PROVIDING PARTY by RECEIVING PARTY, in connection with the Corporate Services or the Transition Assistance (as defined in Section 2.3) (the "RECEIVING PARTY Data"), and all results and proceeds of the Corporate Services and the Transition Assistance with regard to the RECEIVING PARTY Data, is and will remain, as between the Parties, the property of the RECEIVING PARTY. The PROVIDING PARTY shall not and shall not permit its Subsidiaries or Affiliates to use the RECEIVING PARTY Data for any purpose other than to provide the Corporate Services or Transition Assistance.

ARTICLE II TERM AND TRANSITION ASSISTANCE

2.1 Term. The term (the "Term") of this Agreement shall commence as of the date hereof and shall continue until the date on which the last of the Scheduled Services under this Agreement is terminated or the date on which this Agreement is terminated by mutual agreement of the Parties, whichever is earlier (in either case, the "Termination Date"); provided, however, that in no event shall the Term:

(a) expire later than the date that is six (6) months after (i) any Sale of FIS (as defined below) or any IPO (as defined below) or (ii) the exercise by the Sponsor Group (as defined in the Stockholders Agreement hereinafter defined) of exchange rights under Section 4.2 of the Stockholders Agreement, or

(b) continue, with respect to any entity that ceases to be a Subsidiary of RECEIVING PARTY prior to the end of the Term, from and after the date that such entity ceases to be a Subsidiary of RECEIVING PARTY.

For purposes of this Agreement, (i) the term "Sale of FIS" means an acquisition by any Person (within the meaning of Section 3(a)(9) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") and used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) thereof ("Person")) of Beneficial Ownership (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act ("Beneficial Ownership")) of 50% or more of either the then outstanding shares of FIS common stock (the "Outstanding FIS Common Stock") or the combined voting power of the then outstanding voting securities of FIS entitled to vote generally in the election of directors (the "Outstanding FIS Voting Securities"); excluding, however, the following: (A) any acquisition directly from FIS, other than an acquisition by virtue of the exercise of a conversion privilege unless the security being so converted was itself acquired directly from FIS, (B) any acquisition by any employee benefit plan (or related trust) sponsored or maintained by FIS or a member of the FIS Group, or (C) any acquisition of Outstanding FIS Common Stock by one or more Subsidiaries or Affiliates of PROVIDING PARTY; (ii) the term "IPO" means an offering and sale to the public of any shares or equity securities of FIS or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to a registration statement in the United States; and (iii) the term "Stockholders Agreement" means that certain Stockholders Agreement to be dated on or about March 9, 2005 by and among RECEIVING PARTY and the holders of its common stock.

2.2 Termination.

(a) If RECEIVING PARTY is not able to complete its transition of the Corporate Services by the Termination Date, then upon written notice provided to PROVIDING PARTY at least thirty (30) days prior to the Termination Date, RECEIVING PARTY shall have the right to request and cause PROVIDING PARTY to provide up to thirty (30) days of additional Corporate Services to RECEIVING PARTY; provided, that RECEIVING PARTY shall pay for all such additional Corporate Services.

(b) If RECEIVING PARTY wishes to terminate a Corporate Service (or a portion thereof) on a date that is earlier than the Termination Date, RECEIVING PARTY shall provide written notice (the "Termination Notice") to PROVIDING PARTY of a proposed termination date for such Corporate Service (or portion thereof), at least ninety (90) days prior to such proposed termination date. Upon receipt of such notice, PROVIDING PARTY shall promptly provide notice to RECEIVING PARTY (the "Termination Dispute Notice") in the event that the PROVIDING PARTY believes in good faith that, notwithstanding the PROVIDING PARTY using its commercially reasonable efforts, the requested termination will have a material adverse impact on other Corporate Services and the scope of such adverse impact. In such event, the Parties will resolve the dispute in accordance with Section 1.4. If PROVIDING PARTY does not provide the Termination Dispute Notice, based on the standards set forth above, within ten (10) days of the date on which the Termination Notice was received, then, effective on the termination date proposed by RECEIVING PARTY in its Termination Notice, such Corporate Service (or portion thereof) shall be discontinued (thereafter, a "Discontinued Corporate Service") and deemed deleted from the Scheduled Services to be provided hereunder and thereafter, this Agreement shall be of no further force and effect with respect to the Discontinued Corporate Service (or portion thereof), except as to obligations accrued prior to the date of discontinuation of such Corporate Service (or portion thereof). Upon the occurrence of any Discontinued Corporate Service, the Parties shall promptly update Schedule 1.1(a) to reflect the discontinuation, and the Corporate Service Fees and FIS Costs Cap shall be adjusted in accordance therewith and the provisions of Article III. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, at any time that employees of PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates move to a department within RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates (an "Employee Shift"), a proportional portion of the relevant Corporate Service shall be deemed automatically terminated. If a Corporate Service, or portion thereof, is terminated as a result of an Employee Shift, then such termination shall take effect as of the date of the Employee Shift, and the adjustment in Corporate Service Fees and FIS Costs Cap shall also take effect as of the date of the Employee Shift.

(c) If all Corporate Services shall have been terminated under this Section 2.2 prior to the expiration of the Term, then either Party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement by giving written notice to the other Party, which termination shall be effective upon delivery as provided in Section 6.1.

2.3 Transition Assistance. In preparation for the discontinuation of any Corporate Service provided under this Agreement, PROVIDING PARTY shall, consistent with its obligations to provide Corporate Services hereunder and with the cooperation and assistance of RECEIVING PARTY, use commercially reasonable efforts to provide such knowledge transfer services and to take such steps as are reasonably required in order to facilitate a smooth and efficient transition and/or migration of records to the RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates (or at RECEIVING PARTY's direction, to a third party) and responsibilities so as to minimize any disruption of services ("Transition Assistance"). RECEIVING PARTY shall cooperate with PROVIDING PARTY to allow PROVIDING PARTY to complete the Transition Assistance as early as is commercially reasonable to do so. Fees for any Transition Assistance shall be determined in accordance with the calculation formula and methods applicable to the Scheduled Services that are most similar in nature to the Transition Assistance being so provided, as set forth on the applicable section of Schedule 1.1(a).

2.4 Return of Materials. As a Corporate Service or Transition Assistance is terminated, each Party will return all materials and property owned by the other Party, including, without limitation, all RECEIVING PARTY Data, if any, and materials and property of a proprietary nature involving a Party or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates relevant to the provision or receipt of that Corporate Service or Transition Assistance and no longer needed regarding the performance of other Corporate Services or other Transition Assistance under this Agreement, and will do so (and will cause its Subsidiaries and Affiliates to do so) within thirty (30) days after the applicable termination. Upon the end of the Term, each Party will return all material and property of a proprietary nature involving the other Party or its Subsidiaries, in its possession or control (or the possession or control of an Affiliate as a result of the Services provided hereunder) within thirty (30) days after the end of the Term. In addition, upon RECEIVING PARTY's request, PROVIDING PARTY agrees to provide to RECEIVING PARTY copies of RECEIVING PARTY's Data, files and records on magnetic media, or such other media as the Parties shall agree upon, to the extent practicable. PROVIDING PARTY may retain archival copies of RECEIVING PARTY's Data, files and records.

ARTICLE III COMPENSATION AND PAYMENT ARRANGEMENTS FOR CORPORATE SERVICES AND CORPORATE MARKS

3.1 Compensation for Corporate Services.

(a) In accordance with the payment terms described in Section 3.2 below, RECEIVING PARTY agrees to timely pay PROVIDING PARTY, as compensation for the Corporate Services provided hereunder, all fees as contemplated in Section 1.1 (the "Corporate Service Fees") and in Section 2.3 (the "Transition Assistance Fees").

(b) Without limiting the foregoing, the parties acknowledge that RECEIVING PARTY is also obligated to pay, or reimburse PROVIDING PARTY for its payment of, all Out of Pocket Costs (as defined below); provided, however, that the incurrence of any liability by RECEIVING PARTY or any of its Subsidiaries for any New Out of Pocket Cost (as defined below) that requires the payment by RECEIVING PARTY or one of its Subsidiaries of more than $50,000, on an annualized basis, shall require the prior written approval of a full-time employee of RECEIVING PARTY or one of its Subsidiaries. For purposes hereof, the term "Out of Pocket Costs" means all fees, costs or other expenses payable by RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries to third parties that are not Affiliates of PROVIDING PARTY in connection with Services provided hereunder, solely to the extent that such fees, costs and other expenses have not historically been included in FNF Administrative Overhead (as defined below) because such fees, costs or other expenses have historically been billed directly to a department/cost center or division of FIS or one of its Subsidiaries. For purposes hereof, the term "New Out of Pocket Cost" means any Out of Pocket Cost incurred after the Effective Date that is not a continuation of services provided to FIS or one of its Subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practices and for which FIS had paid or reimbursed a portion thereof prior to the Effective Date.

(c) Test Period FIS Costs.

(i) Attached hereto as Schedule 3.1(e) is a statement (the "January Statement"), prepared by PROVIDING PARTY, of RECEIVING PARTY's allocated and direct costs (collectively, the "FIS Costs") that are part of PROVIDING PARTY's administrative corporate overhead ("FNF Administrative Overhead") (as opposed to being billed directly to a department/cost center or division of RECEIVING PARTY) for the one-month period ended January 31, 2005. All Corporate Service Fees and Total Allocated FAS 123 Charges for the month of January 31, 2005 are listed under "Allocated" on Schedule 3.1(e) and total $3,073,805 (equivalent on an annualized basis to $36,885,660). All direct costs of FIS within FNF Administrative Overhead (referred to herein as "Direct Costs"), including direct FAS 123 Charges, for the month of January 31, 2005 are listed under "Direct" on Schedule 3.1(e) and total $1,164,187 (equivalent on an annualized basis to $13,970,244). All Allocated FAS 123 Charges and Direct FAS 123 Charges are referred to herein as "Total FAS 123 Charges."

(ii) After delivery of Q2 2005 financials, both parties will review the FNF Administrative Overhead charges to RECEIVING PARTY over the six-month period ending June 30, 2005 (the "Test Period"). For purposes hereof, during the Test Period, all FIS Costs charges related to RECEIVING PARTY shall be classified in a manner consistent with the methodology of the January Statement; provided, however, that if the January Statement failed to reflect charges of a category that have historically been billed through FNF Administrative Overhead, then such charges shall be reflected in all statements of FNF Administrative Overhead going forward to the extent that such charges continue to be billed through FNF Administrative Overhead, including, but not limited to, any FAS 123 charges related to grants of options or restricted stock by Fidelity National Financial, Inc. prior to 2005 (such as those charges related to the Fidelity National Information Solutions and Sanchez acquisitions). For purposes of this Agreement, the FIS Costs incurred during the Test Period shall be referred to as the "Test Period FIS Costs".

(iii) If the annualized Test Period FIS Costs are greater than $50,000,000, then the parties will use their reasonable best efforts to promptly agree on a reduction in administrative and overhead costs that would result in all FIS Costs being equal to or less than $50,000,000 on an annualized basis going forward. In addition, notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provision contained herein, in no event shall RECEIVING PARTY be responsible for any FIS Costs that, for any given fiscal year, exceed (A) in fiscal year 2005, $50,000,000 and (B) in any fiscal year subsequent to 2005, the sum of (I) $50,000,000, plus (II) the product of (x) $50,000,000 multiplied by (y) a percentage equal to one-half of the percentage by which RECEIVING PARTY's consolidated annual revenues (determined in accordance with GAAP consistently applied), increased over the prior fiscal year, minus (III) the Adjustment Amount (as defined in Schedule 1.1(a)) for any Discontinued Corporate Services (such sum or amount as so calculated being, the "FIS Costs Cap"). Without limiting the foregoing, the Parties agree that in calculating the Test Period FIS Costs as well as the annual FIS Costs described in the preceding sentence, all SFAS 123 and SFAS 123(R) charges related to (1) options to purchase common stock of RECEIVING PARTY or (2) restricted common stock of RECEIVING PARTY (which are excluded from the Total FAS 123 Charges) shall be excluded from the calculation. The Parties agree to consider any extraordinary direct corporate litigation charges in analyzing the FIS Costs during the Test Period.

(d) The parties acknowledge that in calculating the FIS Costs Cap, (i) Out of Pocket Costs are not considered Corporate Service Fees and are excluded from the calculation, and (ii) Transition Assistance Fees are excluded from the calculation of the FIS Costs Cap. The Parties further acknowledge and agree that the Total FAS 123 Charges are included in the calculation of the FIS Costs Cap but are non-cash items that shall be treated by the Parties as a contribution to capital by PROVIDING PARTY, but with no commensurate issuance of additional equity in connection with such contribution to capital.

(e) After the Test Period, the Parties agree to consider charging all FIS Direct Costs directly to a department/cost center or division of FIS or one of its Subsidiaries, and reduce the FIS Costs Cap accordingly.

3.2 Payment Terms. The PROVIDING PARTY shall invoice the RECEIVING PARTY on a monthly basis in arrears for Corporate Service Fees, Transition Assistance Fees, and Total Allocated FAS 123 Charges, as calculated in accordance with Section 3.1 and Schedule 1.1(a) (it being understood that the Total Allocated FAS 123 Charges are non-cash items treated by RECEIVING PARTY as a contribution to capital by PROVIDING PARTY with no commensurate issuance of any equity in connection therewith). Each monthly invoice shall list all Corporate Services and FIS Costs in the format of Schedule 3.1(e) and shall state the then current FIS Costs Cap, any changes made thereto and brief explanation thereof. In addition, the PROVIDING PARTY shall promptly notify the RECEIVING PARTY, no more frequently than monthly, of the aggregate amount of Out of Pocket Costs to be reimbursed or paid. The RECEIVING PARTY shall pay by electronic funds transfer or other method satisfactory to PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY, in full, the monthly amount so invoiced and the Out of Pocket Costs incurred, within thirty (30) days after the date on which the PROVIDING PARTY's monthly invoice or notification of Out of Pocket Costs, as the case may be, was received. All invoices shall include, without limitation, the category of applicable Corporate Service or Transition Assistance Service (as the case may be), a brief description of the Out of Pocket Costs (if applicable), the billing period, and such other information as RECEIVING PARTY may reasonably request. Should RECEIVING PARTY dispute any portion of the amount due on any invoice or require any adjustment to an invoiced amount, or dispute any Out of Pocket Costs for which it received notification, then RECEIVING PARTY shall notify PROVIDING PARTY in writing of the nature and basis of the dispute and/or adjustment as soon as reasonably possible using, if necessary, the dispute resolution procedures set forth in Section 1.4. The Parties shall use their reasonable best efforts to resolve the dispute prior to the payment due date.

3.3 Audit Rights. Upon reasonable advance notice from RECEIVING PARTY, PROVIDING PARTY shall permit RECEIVING PARTY to perform annual audits of PROVIDING PARTY's records only with respect to amounts invoiced and Out of Pocket Costs invoiced pursuant to this Article III. Such audits shall be conducted during PROVIDING PARTY's regular office hours and without disruption to PROVIDING PARTY's business operations and shall be performed at RECEIVING PARTY's sole expense.

ARTICLE IV LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

4.1 LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. THE LIABILITY OF EITHER PARTY FOR A CLAIM ASSERTED BY THE OTHER PARTY BASED ON BREACH OF ANY COVENANT, AGREEMENT OR UNDERTAKING REQUIRED BY THIS AGREEMENT SHALL NOT EXCEED, IN THE AGGREGATE, THE FEES PAYABLE BY RECEIVING PARTY TO PROVIDING PARTY DURING THE ONE (1) YEAR PERIOD PRECEDING THE BREACH FOR THE PARTICULAR CORPORATE SERVICE AFFECTED BY SUCH BREACH UNDER THIS AGREEMENT; PROVIDED THAT SUCH LIMITATION SHALL NOT APPLY IN RESPECT OF ANY CLAIMS BASED ON A PARTY'S (i) GROSS NEGLIGENCE, (ii) WILLFUL MISCONDUCT, (iii) IMPROPER USE OR DISCLOSURE OF CUSTOMER INFORMATION, (iv) VIOLATIONS OF LAW, OR (v) INFRINGEMENT OF THE INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS OF A PERSON OR ENTITY WHO IS NOT A PARTY HERETO OR THE SUBSIDIARY OR AFFILIATE OF A PARTY HERETO.

ARTICLE V FORCE MAJEURE

Neither Party shall be held liable for any delay or failure in performance of any part of this Agreement from any cause beyond its reasonable control and without its fault or negligence, including, but not limited to, acts of God, acts of civil or military authority, embargoes, epidemics, war, terrorist acts, riots, insurrections, fires, explosions, earthquakes, hurricanes, tornadoes, nuclear accidents, floods, strikes, terrorism and power blackouts. Upon the occurrence of a condition described in this Article, the Party whose performance is prevented shall give written notice to the other Party, and the Parties shall promptly confer, in good faith, to agree upon equitable, reasonable action to minimize the impact, on both Parties, of such conditions.

ARTICLE VI

REMEDIES

7.1 Remedies Upon Material Breach. In the event of material breach of any provision of this Agreement by a Party, the non-defaulting Party shall give the defaulting Party written notice, and:

(a) If such breach is for RECEIVING PARTY's non-payment of an amount that is not in dispute, the defaulting Party shall cure the breach within thirty (30) calendar days of such notice. If the defaulting Party does not cure such breach by such date, then the defaulting Party shall pay the non-defaulting Party the undisputed amount, any interest that has accrued hereunder through the expiration of the cure period plus an additional amount of interest equal to four percent (4%) per annum above the "prime rate" as announced in the most recent edition of the Wall Street Journal. The Parties agree that this rate of interest constitutes reasonable liquidated damages and not an unenforceable penalty.

(b) If such breach is for any other material failure to perform in accordance with this Agreement, the defaulting Party shall cure such breach within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of such notice. If the defaulting Party does not cure such breach within such period, then the defaulting Party shall pay the non-defaulting Party all of the non-defaulting Party's actual damages, subject to Article IV above.

7.2 Survival Upon Expiration or Termination. The provisions of Section 1.4 (Dispute Resolution), Section 2.4 (Return of Materials), Article IV (Limitation of Liability), Article VI (Notices and Demands), this Section 7.2, Article VIII (Confidentiality), Article X (Indemnification) and Article XI (Miscellaneous) shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement unless otherwise agreed to in writing by both Parties.

ARTICLE VIII
CONFIDENTIALITY

8.1 Confidential Information. Each Party shall use at least the same standard of care in the protection of Confidential Information of the other Party as it uses to protect its own confidential or proprietary information; provided that such Confidential Information shall be protected in at least a reasonable manner. For purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" includes all confidential or proprietary information and documentation of either Party, including the terms of this Agreement, including with respect to each Party, all of its software, data, financial information all reports, exhibits and other documentation prepared by any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates. Each Party shall use the Confidential Information of the other Party only in connection with the purposes of this Agreement and shall make such Confidential Information available only to its employees, subcontractors, or agents having a "need to know" with respect to such purpose. Each Party shall advise its respective employees, subcontractors, and agents of such Party's obligations under this Agreement. The obligations in this Section 8.1 will not restrict disclosure by a Party pursuant to applicable law, or by order or request of any court or government agency; provided, that prior to such disclosure the receiving Party shall (a) immediately give notice to the disclosing Party, (b) cooperate with the disclosing Party in challenging the right to such access and (c) only provide such information as is required by law, such order or a final, non-appealable ruling of a court of proper jurisdiction Confidential Information of a Party will not be afforded the protection of this Article VIII if such Confidential Information was (A) developed by the other Party independently as shown by its written business records regularly kept, (B) rightfully obtained by the other Party without restriction from a third party, (C) publicly available other than through the fault or negligence of the other Party or (D) released by the disclosing Party without restriction to anyone.

8.2 Work Product Privilege. RECEIVING PARTY represents and PROVIDING PARTY acknowledges that, in the course of providing Corporate Services pursuant to this Agreement, PROVIDING PARTY may have access to (a) documents, data, databases or communications that are subject to attorney client privilege and/or (b) privileged work product prepared by or on behalf of the Affiliates of RECEIVING PARTY in anticipation of litigation with third parties (collectively, the "Privileged Work Product") and RECEIVING PARTY represents and PROVIDING PARTY understands that all Privileged Work Product is protected from disclosure by Rule 26 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the equivalent rules and regulations under the law chosen to govern the construction of this Agreement. RECEIVING PARTY represents and PROVIDING PARTY understands the importance of maintaining the strict confidentiality of the Privileged Work Product to protect the attorney client privilege, work product doctrine and other privileges and rights associated with such Privileged Work Product pursuant to such Rule 26 and the equivalent rules and regulations under the law chosen to govern the construction of this Agreement. After PROVIDING PARTY is notified or otherwise becomes aware that documents, data, database, or communications are Privileged Work Product, only PROVIDING PARTY personnel for whom such access is necessary for the purposes of providing Services to RECEIVING PARTY as provided in this Agreement shall have access to such Privileged Work Product. Should PROVIDING PARTY ever be notified of any judicial or other proceeding seeking to obtain access to Privileged Work Product, PROVIDING PARTY shall (A) immediately give notice to RECEIVING PARTY, (B) cooperate with RECEIVING PARTY in challenging the right to such access and (C) only provide such information as is required by a final, non-appealable ruling of a court of proper jurisdiction. RECEIVING PARTY shall pay all of the cost incurred by PROVIDING PARTY in complying with the immediately preceding sentence. RECEIVING PARTY has the right and duty to represent PROVIDING PARTY in such resistance or to select and compensate counsel to so represent PROVIDING PARTY or to reimburse PROVIDING PARTY for reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses as such fees and expenses are incurred in resisting such access. If PROVIDING PARTY is ultimately required, pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, to produce documents, disclose data, or otherwise act in contravention of the confidentiality obligations imposed in this Article VIII, or otherwise with respect to maintaining the confidentiality, proprietary nature, and secrecy of Privileged Work Product, PROVIDING PARTY is not liable for breach of such obligation to the extent such liability does not result from failure of PROVIDING PARTY to abide by the terms of this Article VIII. All Privileged Work Product is the property of RECEIVING PARTY and will be deemed Confidential Information, except as specifically authorized in this Agreement or as shall be required by law.

8.3 Unauthorized Acts. Each Party shall (a) notify the other Party promptly of any unauthorized possession, use, or knowledge of any Confidential Information by any person which shall become known to it, any attempt by any person to gain possession of Confidential Information without authorization or any attempt to use or acquire knowledge of any Confidential Information without authorization (collectively, "Unauthorized Access"), (b) promptly furnish to the other Party full details of the Unauthorized Access and use reasonable efforts to assist the other Party in investigating or preventing the reoccurrence of any Unauthorized Access, (c) cooperate with the other Party in any litigation and investigation against third parties deemed necessary by such Party to protect its proprietary rights, and (d) use commercially reasonable efforts to prevent a reoccurrence of any such Unauthorized Access.

8.4 Publicity. Except as required by law or national stock exchange rule or as allowed by any Ancillary Agreement, neither Party shall issue any press release, distribute any advertising, or make any public announcement or disclosure (a) identifying the other Party by name, trademark or otherwise or (b) concerning this Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, in the event either Party is required to issue a press release relating to this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or by the laws or regulations of any governmental authority, agency or self-regulatory agency, such Party shall (A) give notice and a copy of the proposed press release to the other Party as far in advance as reasonably possible, but in any event not less than five (5) days prior to publication of such press release and (B) make any changes to such press release reasonably requested by the other Party. In addition, RECEIVING PARTY may communicate the existence of the business relationship contemplated by the terms of this Agreement internally within PROVIDING PARTY's organization and orally and in writing communicate PROVIDING PARTY's identity as a reference with potential and existing customers.

8.5 Data Privacy. (a) Where, in connection with this Agreement, PROVIDING PARTY processes or stores information about a living individual that is held in automatically processable form (for example in a computerized database) or in a structured manual filing system ("Personal Data"), on behalf of any Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY or their clients, then PROVIDING PARTY shall implement appropriate measures to protect those personal data against accidental or unlawful destruction or accidental loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure or access and shall use such data solely for purposes of carrying out its obligations under this Agreement.

(b) RECEIVING PARTY may instruct PROVIDING PARTY, where PROVIDING PARTY processes Personal Data on behalf of Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY, to take such steps to preserve data privacy in the processing of those Personal Data as are reasonably necessary for the performance of this Agreement.

(c) Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY may, in connection with this Agreement, collect Personal Data in relation to PROVIDING PARTY and PROVIDING PARTY's employees, directors and other officers involved in providing Corporate Services hereunder. Such Personal Data may be collected from PROVIDING PARTY, its employees, its directors, its officers, or from other (for example, published) sources; and some limited personal data may be collected indirectly at RECEIVING PARTY's (or Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY's) locations from monitoring devices or by other means (e.g., telephone logs, closed circuit TV and door entry systems). Nothing in this Section 8.5(c) obligates PROVIDING PARTY or PROVIDING PARTY's employees, directors or other officers to provide Personal Data requested by RECEIVING PARTY. The Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY may use and disclose any such data disclosed by PROVIDING PARTY solely for purposes connected with this Agreement and for the relevant purposes specified in the data privacy policy of the Subsidiary of RECEIVING PARTY (a copy of which is available on request.) RECEIVING PARTY will maintain the same level of protection for Personal Data collected from PROVIDING PARTY (and PROVIDING PARTY's employees, directors and officers, as appropriate) as RECEIVING PARTY maintains with its own Personal Data, and will implement appropriate administrative, physical and technical measures to protect the personal data collected from PROVIDING PARTY and PROVIDING PARTY's employees, directors and other officers against accidental or unlawful destruction or accidental loss, alternation, unauthorized disclosure or access.

ARTICLE IX
REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS

EXCEPT FOR THE REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS EXPRESSLY MADE IN THIS AGREEMENT, PROVIDING PARTY HAS NOT MADE AND DOES NOT HEREBY MAKE ANY EXPRESS OR IMPLIED REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES OR COVENANTS, STATUTORY OR OTHERWISE, OF ANY NATURE, INCLUDING WITH RESPECT TO THE WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, QUALITY, QUANTITY, SUITABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR THE RESULTS OBTAINED OF THE CONTINUING BUSINESS. ALL OTHER REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES, AND COVENANTS, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, STATUTORY, COMMON LAW OR OTHERWISE, OF ANY NATURE, INCLUDING WITH RESPECT TO THE WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, QUALITY, QUANTITY, SUITABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR THE RESULTS OBTAINED OF THE CONTINUING BUSINESS ARE HEREBY DISCLAIMED BY PROVIDING PARTY.

INDEMNIFICATION

10.1 Indemnification.

(a) Subject to Article IV, RECEIVING PARTY will indemnify, defend and hold harmless PROVIDING PARTY, each Subsidiary and Affiliate of PROVIDING PARTY, each of their respective past and present directors, officers, employees, agents, consultants, advisors, accountants and attorneys ("Representatives"), and each of their respective successors and assigns (collectively, the "PROVIDING PARTY Indemnified Parties") from and against any and all Damages (as defined below) incurred or suffered by the PROVIDING PARTY Indemnified Parties arising or resulting from the provision of Corporate Services hereunder, which Damages shall be reduced to the extent of:

(i) Damages caused or contributed to by PROVIDING PARTY's negligence, willful misconduct or violation of law; or

(ii) Damages caused or contributed to by a breach of this Agreement by PROVIDING PARTY.

"Damages" means, subject to Article IV hereof, all losses, claims, demands, damages, liabilities, judgments, dues, penalties, assessments, fines (civil, criminal or administrative), costs, liens, forfeitures, settlements, fees or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses and any other expenses reasonably incurred in connection with investigating, prosecuting or defending a claim or Action).

(b) Except as set forth in this Section 10.1(b), PROVIDING PARTY will have no liability to RECEIVING PARTY for or in connection with any of the Corporate Services rendered hereunder or for any actions or omissions of PROVIDING PARTY in connection with the provision of any Corporate Services hereunder. Subject to the provisions hereof and subject to Article IV, PROVIDING PARTY will indemnify, defend and hold harmless RECEIVING PARTY, each Subsidiary and Affiliate of RECEIVING PARTY, each of their respective past and present Representatives, and each of their respective successors and assigns (collectively, the "RECEIVING PARTY Indemnified Parties") from and against any and all Damages incurred or suffered by the RECEIVING PARTY Indemnified Parties arising or resulting from either of the following:

(i) any claim that PROVIDING PARTY's use of the software or other intellectual property used to provide the Corporate Services or Transition Assistance, or any results and proceeds of such Corporate Services or Transition Assistance, infringes, misappropriates or otherwise violates any United States patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret or other intellectual property rights; provided, that such intellectual property indemnity shall not apply to the extent that any such claim arises out of any modification to such software or other intellectual property made by RECEIVING PARTY without PROVIDING PARTY's authorization or participation, or provided, that in each of the cases described in subclauses (i) through (ii) above, the amount of Damages incurred or sustained by RECEIVING PARTY shall be reduced to the extent such Damages shall have been caused or contributed to by any action or omission of RECEIVING PARTY in amounts equal to RECEIVING PARTY's equitable share of such Damages determined in accordance with its relative culpability for such Damages or the relative fault of RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries.

10.2 Indemnification Procedures.

(a) Claim Notice. A Party that seeks indemnity under this Article X (an "Indemnified Party") will give written notice (a "Claim Notice") to the Party from whom indemnification is sought (an "Indemnifying Party"), whether the Damages sought arise from matters solely between the Parties or from Third Party Claims. The Claim Notice must contain (i) a description and, if known, estimated amount (the "Claimed Amount") of any Damages incurred or reasonably expected to be incurred by the Indemnified Party, (ii) a reasonable explanation of the basis for the Claim Notice to the extent of facts then known by the Indemnified Party, and (iii) a demand for payment of those Damages. No delay or deficiency on the part of the Indemnified Party in so notifying the Indemnifying Party will relieve the Indemnifying Party of any liability for Damages or obligation hereunder except to the extent of any Damages caused by or arising out of such failure.

(b) Response to Notice of Claim. Within thirty (30) days after delivery of a Claim Notice, the Indemnifying Party will deliver to the Indemnified Party a written response in which the Indemnifying Party will either: (i) agree that the Indemnified Party is entitled to receive all of the Claimed Amount and, in which case, the Indemnifying Party will pay the Claimed Amount in accordance with a payment and distribution method reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party; or (ii) dispute that the Indemnified Party is entitled to receive all or any portion of the Claimed Amount, in which case, the Parties will resort to the dispute resolution procedures set forth in Section 1.4.

(c) Contested Claims. In the event that the Indemnifying Party disputes the Claimed Amount, as soon as practicable but in no event later than ten (10) days after the receipt of the notice referenced in Section 10.2(b)(ii) hereof, the Parties will begin the process to resolve the matter in accordance with the dispute resolution provisions of Section 1.4 hereof. Upon ultimate resolution thereof, the Parties will take such actions as are reasonably necessary to comply with such agreement or instructions.

(d) Third Party Claims.

(i) In the event that the Indemnified Party receives notice or otherwise learns of the assertion by a person or entity who is not a Party hereto or a Subsidiary or Affiliate of a Party hereto of any claim or the commencement of any action (a "Third-Party Claim") with respect to which the Indemnifying Party may be obligated to provide indemnification under this Article X, the Indemnified Party will give written notification to the Indemnifying Party of the Third-Party Claim. Such notification will be given within fifteen (15) days after receipt by the Indemnified Party of notice of such Third-Party Claim, will be accompanied by reasonable supporting documentation submitted by such third party (to the extent then in the possession of the Indemnified Party) and will describe in reasonable detail (to the extent known by the Indemnified Party) the facts constituting the basis for such Third-Party Claim and the amount of the claimed Damages; provided, however, that no delay or deficiency on the part of the Indemnified Party in so notifying the Indemnifying Party will relieve the Indemnifying Party of any liability for Damages or obligation hereunder except to the extent of any Damages caused by or arising out of such failure. Within twenty (20) days after delivery of such notification, the Indemnifying Party may, upon written notice thereof to the Indemnified Party, assume control of the defense of such Third-Party Claim with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party. During any period in which the Indemnifying Party has not so assumed control of such defense, the Indemnified Party will control such defense.

(ii) The Party not controlling such defense (the "Non-controlling Party") may participate therein at its own expense.

(iii) The Party controlling such defense (the "Controlling Party") will keep the Non-controlling Party reasonably advised of the status of such Third-Party Claim and the defense thereof and will consider in good faith recommendations made by the Non-controlling Party with respect thereto. The Non-controlling Party will furnish the Controlling Party with such Information as it may have with respect to such Third-Party Claim (including copies of any summons, complaint or other pleading which may have been served on such Party and any written claim, demand, invoice, billing or other document evidencing or asserting the same) and will otherwise cooperate with and assist the Controlling Party in the defense of such Third-Party Claim.

(iv) The Indemnifying Party will not agree to any settlement of, or the entry of any judgment arising from, any such Third-Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided, however, that the consent of the Indemnified Party will not be required if (A) the Indemnifying Party agrees in writing to pay any amounts payable pursuant to such settlement or judgment, and (B) such settlement or judgment includes a full, complete and unconditional release of the Indemnified Party from further Liability. The Indemnified Party will not agree to any settlement of, or the entry of any judgment arising from, any such Third-Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

ARTICLE XI MISCELLANEOUS

11.1 Relationship of the Parties. The Parties declare and agree that each Party is engaged in a business that is independent from that of the other Party and each Party shall perform its obligations as an independent contractor. It is expressly understood and agreed that RECEIVING PARTY and PROVIDING PARTY are not partners, and nothing contained herein is intended to create an agency relationship or a partnership or joint venture with respect to the Corporate Services. Neither Party is an agent of the other and neither Party has any authority to represent or bind the other Party as to any matters, except as authorized herein or in writing by such other Party from time to time.

11.2 Employees. (a) PROVIDING PARTY shall be solely responsible for payment of compensation to its employees and, as between the Parties, for its Subsidiaries' employees and its Affiliates' employees, and for any injury to them in the course of their employment. PROVIDING PARTY shall assume full responsibility for payment of all federal, state and local taxes or contributions imposed or required under unemployment insurance, social security and income tax laws with respect to such persons.

(b) RECEIVING PARTY shall be solely responsible for payment of compensation to its employees and, as between the Parties, for its Subsidiaries' employees and for any injury to them in the course of their employment. RECEIVING PARTY shall assume full responsibility for payment of all federal, state and local taxes or contributions imposed or required under unemployment insurance, social security and income tax laws with respect to such persons.

11.3 Assignment. Neither Party may, in connection with a sale of an asset to which one or more of the Corporate Services relate, assign, transfer or convey any right, obligation or duty, in whole or in part, or of any other interest under this Agreement relating to such Corporate Services without the prior written consent of the other Party, provided, however, that in the event of a Sale of FIS (as defined in Section 2.1), FIS may assign its interest in this Agreement without the prior written consent of FNT. All obligations and duties of a Party under this Agreement shall be binding on all successors in interest and permitted assigns of such Party. Each Party may use its Subsidiaries or Affiliates or subcontractors to perform the Corporate Services; provided that such use shall not relieve such assigning Party of liability for its responsibilities and obligations.

11.4 Severability. In the event that any one or more of the provisions contained herein shall for any reason be held to be unenforceable in any respect under law, such unenforceability shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement, and this Agreement shall be construed as if such unenforceable provision or provisions had never been contained herein.

11.5 Third Party Beneficiaries. The provisions of this Agreement are for the benefit of the Parties and their Affiliates and not for any other person. However, should any third party institute proceedings, this Agreement shall not provide any such person with any remedy, claim, liability, reimbursement, cause of action, or other right.

11.6 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida, without giving effect to such State's laws and principles regarding the conflict of laws. Subject to Section 1.4, if any Dispute arises out of or in connection with this Agreement, except as expressly contemplated by another provision of this Agreement, the Parties irrevocably (a) consent and submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of federal and state courts located in Jacksonville, Florida, (b) waive any objection to that choice of forum based on venue or to the effect that the forum is not convenient and (c) WAIVE TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL OR ADJUDICATION BY JURY.

11.7 Executed in Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same document.

11.8 Construction. The headings and numbering of articles, sections and paragraphs in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not be construed to define or limit any of the terms or affect the scope, meaning, or interpretation of this Agreement or the particular Article or Section to which they relate. This Agreement and the provisions contained herein shall not be construed or interpreted for or against any Party because that Party drafted or caused its legal representative to draft any of its provisions.

11.9 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including all attachments, constitutes the entire Agreement between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior oral or written agreements, representations, statements, negotiations, understandings, proposals and undertakings, with respect to the subject matter hereof.

11.10 Amendments and Waivers. (a) The Parties may amend this Agreement only by a written agreement signed by each Party and that identifies itself as an amendment to this Agreement. No waiver of any provisions of this Agreement and no consent to any default under this Agreement shall be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by or on behalf of the Party against whom such waiver or consent is claimed. No course of dealing or failure of any Party to strictly enforce any term, right or condition of this Agreement shall be construed as a waiver of such term, right or condition. Waiver by either Party of any default by the other Party shall not be deemed a waiver of any other default.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time prior to the Sale of FIS or any IPO, this Agreement may not be amended without the prior written consent of THL and TPG if such amendment would: (i) change the methodology of calculating the cost of any services provided hereunder (e.g., change from a "cost" method to a "cost plus X" method), (ii) add any service that is not contemplated as of the date hereof, if the cost of such additional service is expected to be more than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) annually, (iii) affect the Term of the Agreement, (iv) affect RECEIVING PARTY's ability to terminate any Corporate Services pursuant to Section 2.2, (v) affect Sections 1.5 (Standard of Services), 1.6 (Response Time), or 1.7 (Ownership of Materials) in any manner adverse to RECEIVING PARTY, (vi) affect Section 3.1 (Compensation for Corporate Services) in any manner, (vii) affect PROVIDING PARTY's limitation of liability under Article IV (Limitation of Liability) in any manner adverse to RECEIVING PARTY, (viii) affect PROVIDING PARTY's rights under Article VII (Remedies) upon default by RECEIVING PARTY in any manner adverse to RECEIVING PARTY, (ix) affect Article X (Indemnification) in any manner adverse to RECEIVING PARTY, or (x) affect this Section 11.10 (Amendment). For purposes hereof, the term "THL" means Thomas H. Lee Equity Fund V, L.P. and the term "TPG" means TPG Partners III, L.P. THL and TPG are intended third party beneficiaries of this Agreement solely with respect to this Section 11.10(b).

11.11 Remedies Cumulative. Unless otherwise provided for under this Agreement, all rights of termination or cancellation, or other remedies set forth in this Agreement, are cumulative and are not intended to be exclusive of other remedies to which the injured Party may be entitled by law or equity in case of any breach or threatened breach by the other Party of any provision in this Agreement. Unless otherwise provided for under this Agreement, use of one or more remedies shall not bar use of any other remedy for the purpose of enforcing any provision of this Agreement.

11.12 Taxes. All charges and fees to be paid to PROVIDING PARTY under this Agreement are exclusive of any applicable taxes required by law to be collected from the RECEIVING PARTY (including, without limitation, withholding, sales, use, excise, or services tax, which may be assessed on the provision of Corporate Services). In the event that a withholding, sales, use, excise, or services tax is assessed on the provision of any of the Corporate Services under this Agreement, RECEIVING PARTY will pay directly, reimburse or indemnify PROVIDING PARTY for such tax, plus any applicable interest and penalties. The Parties will cooperate with each other in determining the extent to which any tax is due and owing under the circumstances, and shall provide and make available to each other any resale certificate, information regarding out-of-state use of materials, services or sale, and other exemption certificates or information reasonably requested by either Party.

Each Party reserves the right to take all actions in order to ensure that the Corporate Services and Transition Assistance are provided in accordance with any applicable laws.

For purposes of this Agreement and the Corporate Service Schedules:

"Direct Employee Compensation" of an employee means the aggregate of such employee's salary, overtime, cash bonus and commission compensation and payroll taxes attributable thereto.

"Departmental Costs" of a department/cost center means any and all costs incurred by or allocated to that department/cost center other than Direct Employee Compensation of the employees in the department/cost center, such as office furniture and equipment, office space and facilities expenses, repairs & maintenance expenses, rent and leasehold improvements, utilities, telecommunications and IT equipment, insurance costs, employee benefits costs, depreciation, amortization, real property and personal property taxes, advertising and promotional expenses (if any), postage, courier and shipping expenses, printing, reproduction, stationary, and office supplies, travel and entertainment expenses, educational, training and recruiting expenses, professional dues and subscriptions, fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Services that are included in FNF Administrative Overhead, and the other similar costs that are generally characterized as "overhead", in each case as allocated to the department/cost center in accordance with PROVIDING PARTY's current overhead cost allocation policy.

"Servicing Employee" means an employee of PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries or its Affiliates who provides services to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries under this Agreement.

"Standard Allocation", for purposes of the Services provided under this Agreement and the Schedules hereto, including the Cost Allocation section of the Schedules, shall be calculated as follows:

1. Out of Pocket Costs incurred by or on behalf of RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiary(s) are charged directly to it and are not part of the Services under this Agreement or the payments to be made therefor, and are not included in the FIS Costs Cap described in Section 3.1.
2. The Direct Employee Compensation of the PROVIDING PARTY Servicing Employees shall be allocated to RECEIVING PARTY based on the percentage of work time that each such Servicing Employee spends in providing the applicable Services to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries. Allocations as of the Closing Date will be those reflected in the data and results of January 2005, and shall be applied to determine the allocations hereunder on a monthly basis, with each work time percentage and corresponding Departmental Cost percentage to be re-examined and updated (if appropriate) at the end of each 6-month period following the Closing Date, it being understood that any changes in the allocations (a) must be pre-approved by a full-time FIS employee and (b) shall not affect the FIS Costs Cap.

By way of example, for a Servicing Employee of PROVIDING PARTY who has an annual salary of $50,000, a cash bonus of $20,000, and payroll taxes of $10,000 and who spends 40% of his work time on providing Services under this Agreement, RECEIVING PARTY would be allocated a Direct Employee Compensation cost of $32,000 calculated as follows:

$$($50,000 + $20,000 + $10,000) \times 40\% = $32,000.$$

3. In addition to the Direct Employee Compensation, Departmental Costs of each department/cost center of PROVIDING PARTY that has Servicing Employees shall be allocated to RECEIVING PARTY based on a percentage reflecting the aggregate regular salaries of all of the Servicing Employees in that department/cost center, in relation to the aggregate regular salaries of all employees in the department/cost center, taking into account the percentage of work time that each Servicing Employee in the department/cost center spends in providing services to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries hereunder.

By way of example, assume that in a PROVIDING PARTY department/cost center, there are 20 employees, 5 of whom are Servicing Employees who each spend 40% of the work time providing services to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries. If the aggregate regular salaries of the 20 employees is $500,000, and the aggregate regular salaries of the 5 Servicing Employees is $300,000, then we determine the portion of the Departmental Costs that will be allocated to RECEIVING PARTY as follows:

First, determine the aggregate regular salaries allocable to RECEIVING PARTY:

$$$300,000 \times 40\% = $120,000.$$

Then, determine the portion of the Departmental Costs to be allocated to RECEIVING PARTY based on the aggregate regular salaries percentage:

$$$120,000 / $500,000 = 24\%.$$

In this example, 24% of the Departmental Costs of this department/cost center will be allocated to RECEIVING PARTY.

4. Except to the extent otherwise expressly provided herein, for any given 6-month period, all Direct Employee Compensation to be allocated shall be determined on the basis of the applicable work time percentages for the immediately preceding 6-month period, except that the Direct Employee Compensation allocations applicable on the Closing Date shall be based on the work time percentages applicable for the calendar month June 2005. At the end of each 6-month period, the work time percentages shall be re-examined and the Direct Employee Compensation will be re-allocated based on the revised work time percentages, if any. For any given 6-month, all Departmental Costs to be allocated shall be determined on the basis of the applicable aggregate salaries and related percentages for the immediately preceding 6-month period, except that the aggregate salaries and related percentages applicable on the Closing Date shall be based on the work time percentages and aggregate salaries applicable for the calendar month January 2005. Without limiting the foregoing, the parties acknowledge that although the work time percentages and Departmental Cost percentages will be re-examined every 6 months, no such re-examination shall increase or decrease the FIS Costs Cap, as defined in Section 3.1(c).

5. If at any time during the Term of this Agreement RECEIVING PARTY terminates or discontinues all or any portion of a Corporate Service prior to the end of the Term or if any Corporate Service (or portion thereof) automatically terminates, pursuant to Section 2.2(b) (hereinafter referred to as a "Discontinued Service"), then effective as of the last day of the calendar month in which such termination or discontinuation is effective, an amount equal to the Adjustment Amount (as herein defined) for the Discontinued Service shall be deducted from the FIS Costs Cap and such amount shall no longer be owing under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, the "Adjustment Amount" for a Discontinued Service shall be calculated as follows:

(i) if the Discontinued Service is terminated or discontinued during fiscal 2005, then the Adjustment Amount for 2005 shall equal the annualized actual Allocated Costs and actual Direct Costs (determined on the basis of the average monthly costs) attributable to such Discontinued Service from January through the calendar month immediately preceding the date of such termination or discontinuation (hereinafter referred to as the "Annualized 2005 Cost") less the aggregate amount of actual Allocated Costs and actual Direct Costs attributable to such Discontinued Service that have been allocated or billed to RECEIVING PARTY through the calendar month immediately preceding the date of such termination or discontinuation; and, for all subsequent years, shall equal the Annualized 2005 Cost; and

(ii) if the Discontinued Service is terminated or discontinued after fiscal year 2005, then the Adjustment Amount for the fiscal year in which the service is terminated or discontinued shall equal the aggregate actual Allocated Costs and actual Direct Costs attributable to such Discontinued Service for the 12-month period (determined on a rolling basis) immediately preceding the date of such termination or discontinuation (hereinafter referred to as the "Annualized Cost") less (I) the aggregate amount of actual Allocated Costs and actual Direct Costs attributable to such Discontinued Service that have been allocated or billed to RECEIVING PARTY from January of the fiscal year in which the service is terminated or discontinued through the calendar month immediately preceding the date of such termination or discontinuation, plus (II) the pro rata portion of any increase that would be attributable to the Discontinued Service and related Adjustment Amount from any increase in FIS' consolidated annual revenues pursuant to Section 3.1(c)(iii)(B)(II) of this Agreement; and, for all subsequent years, shall equal the Annualized Cost plus the pro rata portion of any increase that would be attributable to the Discontinued Service and related Adjustment Amount from any increase in FIS' consolidated annual revenues pursuant to Section 3.1(c)(iii)(B)(II) of this Agreement; it being understood that the parties will jointly review the proposed Adjustment Amount so calculated and, in the event that either party believes such Adjustment Amount is not appropriate, make reasonable best efforts to agree upon an appropriate Adjustment Amount. In the event that no agreement can be reached, the Adjustment Amount calculated pursuant to subparagraphs (i) or (ii) above will stand.

REVERSE CORPORATE SERVICES AGREEMENT

This Corporate Services Agreement (this "Agreement") is effective as of _____, 2005 (the "Effective Date"), by and between FIDELITY NATIONAL TITLE GROUP, INC., a Delaware corporation ("FNT" or "RECEIVING PARTY"), and FIDELITY NATIONAL INFORMATION SERVICES, INC., a Delaware corporation ("FIS" or "PROVIDING PARTY"). FNT and FIS shall be referred to together in this Agreement as the "Parties" and individually as a "Party."

WHEREAS, FIS previously entered into a certain Stock Purchase Agreement, dated as of December 23, 2004 (the "Stock Purchase Agreement"), with Fidelity National Financial, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("FNF"), pursuant to which certain purchasers (the "Purchasers") purchased from FIS 50,000,000 shares of FIS' common stock, subject to the terms and conditions of the Stock Purchase Agreement; and

WHEREAS, a condition to the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement required that FIS and FNF enter into certain Intercompany Agreements (as defined in the Stock Purchase Agreement), and that the form and substance of such Intercompany Agreements be satisfactory to the Parties and the representatives of the Purchasers; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the requirements in the Stock Purchase Agreement, FIS previously entered into a Reverse Corporate Services Agreement dated as of March 4, 2005 (the "FNF Agreement") with FNF, as the parent company of FNT and its subsidiaries, for the provision of certain corporate services, as more fully described herein; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to an Assignment and Assumption Agreement of even date herewith between FNF and FNT, FNT has assumed, with the consent of FIS, all of FNF's rights and obligations under the FNF Agreement; and

WHEREAS, FIS and FNT wish to enter into a novation of the rights and obligations under the FNF Agreement, as assumed by and assigned to FNT, so that FNT is the clear party in interest with respect to the corporate services to be provided by FIS, as more particularly described herein;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, and of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements set forth herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I
CORPORATE SERVICES

1.1 Corporate Services. This Agreement sets forth the terms and conditions for the provision by PROVIDING PARTY to RECEIVING PARTY of various corporate services and products, as more fully described below and in Schedule 1.1(a) attached hereto (the Scheduled Services, the Omitted Services, the Resumed Services and Special Projects (as defined below), collectively, the "Corporate Services").

(a) PROVIDING PARTY, through its Subsidiaries (as defined below) and their respective employees, agents or contractors, shall provide or cause to be provided to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries, and at the request of RECEIVING PARTY, to FNF and its Subsidiaries (excluding for these purposes FIS and all of its Subsidiaries), all services set forth on Schedule 1.1(a) (the "Scheduled Services") on and after the Effective Date (with such services to be provided to the RECEIVING PARTY's Subsidiaries as they become Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY, and to FNF's Subsidiaries as they become Subsidiaries of FNF, in each case subject to the exception in clause (ii) of Section 1.2(a)). RECEIVING PARTY shall pay fees to PROVIDING PARTY for providing the Scheduled Services or causing the Scheduled Services to be provided as set forth in Schedule 1.1(a). "Subsidiary" means, with respect to any person, any corporation or other legal entity of which such person controls or owns, directly or indirectly, more than fifty percent (50%) of the stock or other equity interest entitled to vote on the election of the members to the board of directors or similar governing body. For purposes of this Agreement, the use of the term "RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries" or "RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries", and terms of similar import, shall be deemed to include FNF and its Subsidiaries (excluding for these purposes FIS and all of its Subsidiaries), so that FNF and its Subsidiaries (other than FIS and its Subsidiaries) are able to receive services hereunder from PROVIDING PARTY, as requested by FNF and the RECEIVING PARTY.

(b) PROVIDING PARTY, through its Subsidiaries and their respective employees, agents or contractors, shall provide or cause to be provided to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries all services that PROVIDING PARTY was performing for RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries as of the Effective Date that pertain to and are a part of Scheduled Services under Section 1.1(a) (with such services to be provided to the RECEIVING PARTY's Subsidiaries as they become Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY, and to FNF's Subsidiaries as they become Subsidiaries of FNF, subject to the exception in clause (ii) of Section 1.2(a)), which are not expressly included in the list of Scheduled Services in Schedule 1.1(a), but are required to conduct the business of RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries (the "Omitted Services"), unless RECEIVING PARTY consents in writing to the termination of such services. Such Omitted Services shall be added to Schedule 1.1(a) and thereby become Scheduled Services, as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date by the Parties. In the event that RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries had been allocated charges or otherwise paid PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries for such Omitted Services immediately prior to the Effective Date, RECEIVING PARTY shall pay to PROVIDING PARTY for providing the Omitted Services or causing the Omitted Services to be provided hereunder fees equal to the actual fees paid for such Omitted Services immediately preceding the Effective Date; provided, that payment of such fees by the RECEIVING PARTY for the Omitted Services provided hereunder shall be retroactive to the first day of the calendar quarter in which either Party identifies such services as Omitted Services, but in no event shall RECEIVING PARTY be required to pay for any Omitted Services provided hereunder by the PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Date. In the event that RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries had not been allocated charges or otherwise paid PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries for such Omitted Services immediately prior to the Effective Date, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith a fee to be based on the cost of providing such Omitted Services, which shall in no event be less than the Default Fee (as defined below); provided, that payment of such fees by the RECEIVING PARTY for the Omitted Services provided hereunder by the RECEIVING PARTY shall be retroactive to the first day of the calendar quarter in which either the Party identifies such services as Omitted Services, but in no event shall RECEIVING PARTY be required to pay for any such Omitted Services provided hereunder by the PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Date. The "Default Fee" means an amount equal to one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the salary of each full-time employee, on an hourly basis, who provides the applicable Corporate Service or Transition Assistance (as defined in Section 2.3).

(c) At RECEIVING PARTY's written request, PROVIDING PARTY, through its Subsidiaries and their respective employees, agents or contractors, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide or cause to be provided to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries any Scheduled Service that has been terminated at RECEIVING PARTY's request pursuant to Section 2.2 (the "Resumed Services"); provided, that PROVIDING PARTY shall have no obligation to provide a Resumed Service if providing such Resumed Service will have a material adverse impact on the other Corporate Services. Schedule 1.1(a) shall from time to time be amended to reflect the resumption of a Resumed Service and the Resumed Service shall be set forth thereon as a Scheduled Service.

(d) At RECEIVING PARTY's written request, PROVIDING PARTY, through its Subsidiaries and their respective employees, agents or contractors, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide additional corporate services that are not described in the Schedule 1.1(a) and that are neither Omitted Services nor Resumed Services ("Special Projects"). RECEIVING PARTY shall submit a written request to PROVIDING PARTY specifying the nature of the Special Project and requesting an estimate of the costs applicable for such Special Project and the expected time frame for completion. PROVIDING PARTY shall respond promptly to such written request, but in no event later than twenty (20) days, with a written estimate of the cost of providing such Special Project and the expected time frame for completion (the "Cost Estimate"). If RECEIVING PARTY provides written approval of the Cost Estimate within ten (10) days after PROVIDING PARTY delivers the Cost Estimate, then within a commercially reasonable time after receipt of RECEIVING PARTY's written request, PROVIDING PARTY shall begin providing the Special Project; provided, that PROVIDING PARTY shall have no obligation to provide a Special Project where, in its reasonable discretion and prior to providing the Cost Estimate, it has determined and notified RECEIVING PARTY in writing that (i) it would not be feasible to provide such Special Project, given reasonable priority to other demands on its resources and capacity both under this Agreement or otherwise or (ii) it lacks the experience or qualifications to provide such Special Project.

1.2 Provision of Corporate Services; Excused Performance.

(a) To the extent commercially reasonable, the Parties will work together and begin the process of migrating the Corporate Services from PROVIDING PARTY to RECEIVING PARTY or one or more of its Subsidiaries or a third party (at RECEIVING PARTY's direction) such that the completion of the migration of the Corporate Services from PROVIDING PARTY to RECEIVING PARTY or one or more of its Subsidiaries or a third party, as the case may be, shall occur prior to the end of the Term. PROVIDING PARTY shall provide or cause to be provided each of the Corporate Services through the expiration of the Term, except (i) as automatically modified by earlier termination of a Corporate Service by RECEIVING PARTY in accordance with this Agreement, (ii) for Corporate Services to or for the benefit of any entity which ceases to be a Subsidiary of RECEIVING PARTY (or, if applicable, a Subsidiary of FNF (other than FIS and its Subsidiaries) prior to the end of the Term, or (iii) as otherwise agreed to by the Parties in writing.

(b) All obligations of PROVIDING PARTY with respect to any one or more individual Corporate Services or Transition Assistance under this Agreement shall be excused to the extent and only for so long as a failure by PROVIDING PARTY with respect thereto is directly attributable to and caused specifically by a failure by RECEIVING PARTY or any of its Subsidiaries to meet their obligations (including any performance) under any other Intercompany Agreement (as defined in the Stock Purchase Agreement) or under the Master Information Technology Services Agreement dated as of _____, 2005 by and between Fidelity Information Services, Inc. and FNT (as novated pursuant to the Assignment and Assumption Agreement dated as of _____, 2005 between FNT and Fidelity National Financial, Inc.).

1.3 Third Party Vendors; Consents.

(a) PROVIDING PARTY shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to keep and maintain in effect its relationships with its vendors that are integral to the provision of the Corporate Services. PROVIDING PARTY shall use commercially reasonable efforts to procure any waivers, permits, consents or sublicenses required by third party licensors, vendors or service providers under existing agreements with such third parties in order to provide any Corporate Services hereunder ("Third Party Consents"). In the event that PROVIDING PARTY is unable to procure such Third Party Consents on commercially reasonable terms, PROVIDING PARTY agrees to so notify RECEIVING PARTY, and to assist RECEIVING PARTY with the transition to another vendor. If, after the Effective Date, any one or more vendors (i) terminates its contractual relationship with PROVIDING PARTY or ceases to provide the products or services associated with the Corporate Services or (ii) notifies PROVIDING PARTY of its desire or plan to terminate its contractual relationship with PROVIDING PARTY or (iii) ceases providing the products or services associated with the Corporate Services, then, in either case, PROVIDING PARTY agrees to so notify RECEIVING PARTY, and to assist RECEIVING PARTY with the transition to another vendor so that RECEIVING PARTY may continue to receive similar products and services.

(b) PROVIDING PARTY shall not be required to transfer or assign to RECEIVING PARTY any third party software licenses or any hardware owned by PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries in connection with the provision of the Corporate Services or at the conclusion of the Term.

1.4 Dispute Resolution.

(a) Amicable Resolution. PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY mutually desire that friendly collaboration will continue between them. Accordingly, they will try to resolve in an amicable manner all disagreements and misunderstandings connected with their respective rights and obligations under this Agreement, including any amendments hereto.

In furtherance thereof, in the event of any dispute or disagreement (a "Dispute") between PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY in connection with this Agreement (including, without limitation, the standards of performance, delay of performance or non-performance of obligations, or payment or non-payment of fees hereunder), then the Dispute, upon written request of either Party, will be referred for resolution to the president (or similar position) of the division implicated by the matter for each of PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY, which presidents will have fifteen (15) days to resolve such Dispute. If the presidents of the relevant divisions for each of PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY do not agree to a resolution of such Dispute within fifteen (15) days after the reference of the matter to them, such presidents of the relevant divisions will refer such matter to the president of each of PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY for final resolution. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 1.4, any amendment to the terms of this Agreement may only be effected in accordance with Section 11.10.

(b) Arbitration. In the event that the Dispute is not resolved in a friendly manner as set forth in Section 1.4(a), either Party involved in the Dispute may submit the dispute to binding arbitration pursuant to this Section 1.4(b). All Disputes submitted to arbitration pursuant to this Section 1.4(b) shall be resolved in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association, unless the Parties involved mutually agree to utilize an alternate set of rules, in which event all references herein to the American Arbitration Association shall be deemed modified accordingly. Expedited rules shall apply regardless of the amount at issue. Arbitration proceedings hereunder may be initiated by either Party making a written request to the American Arbitration Association, together with any appropriate filing fee, at the office of the American Arbitration Association in Orlando, Florida. All arbitration proceedings shall be held in the city of Jacksonville, Florida in a location to be specified by the arbitrators (or any place agreed to by the Parties and the arbitrators). The arbitration shall be by a single qualified arbitrator experienced in the matters at issue, such arbitrator to be mutually agreed upon by PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY. If PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY fail to agree on an arbitrator within thirty (30) days after notice of commencement of arbitration, the American Arbitration Association shall, upon the request of any Party to the Dispute, appoint the arbitrator. Any order or determination of the arbitral tribunal shall be final and binding upon the Parties to the arbitration as to matters submitted and may be enforced by any Party to the Dispute in any court having jurisdiction over the subject matter or over any of the Parties. All costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such arbitration proceeding (including reasonable attorneys' fees) shall be borne by the Party incurring such costs. The use of any alternative dispute resolution procedures hereunder will not be construed under the doctrines of laches, waiver or estoppel to affect adversely the rights of either Party.

(c) Non-Exclusive Remedy. Nothing in this Section 1.4 will prevent either PROVIDING PARTY or RECEIVING PARTY from immediately seeking injunctive or interim relief in the event (i) of any actual or threatened breach of any of the provisions of Article VIII or (ii) that the Dispute relates to, or involves a claim of, actual or threatened infringement of intellectual property. All such actions for injunctive or interim relief shall be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction in accordance with Section 11.6. Such remedy shall not be deemed to be the exclusive remedy for breach of this Agreement, and further remedies may be pursued in accordance with Section 1.4(a) and Section 1.4(b) above.

(d) Commencement of Dispute Resolution Procedure. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY, but none of their respective Subsidiaries or affiliates, are entitled to commence a dispute resolution procedure under this Agreement, whether pursuant to Article XI, this Section 1.4 or otherwise, and each Party will cause its respective affiliates not to commence any dispute resolution procedure other than through such Party as provided in this Section 1.4(d).

(e) Compensation. RECEIVING PARTY shall continue to make all payments due and owing under Article III for Corporate Services not the subject of a Dispute and shall not off-set such fees by the amount of fees for Corporate Services that are the subject of the Dispute.

1.5 Standard of Services.

(a) PROVIDING PARTY shall perform the Corporate Services for RECEIVING PARTY in a professional and competent manner, using standards of performance consistent with its performance of such services for itself.

(b) During the Term, PROVIDING PARTY shall maintain a disaster recovery program for the Corporate Services substantially consistent with the disaster recovery program in place for such Corporate Services as of the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the disaster recovery program maintained by PROVIDING PARTY will not include a business continuity program.

(c) If RECEIVING PARTY provides PROVIDING PARTY with written notice ("Shortfall Notice") of the occurrence of any Significant Service Shortfall (as defined below), as determined by RECEIVING PARTY in good faith, PROVIDING PARTY shall rectify such Significant Service Shortfall as soon as reasonably possible. For purposes of this Section 1.5(c), a "Significant Service Shortfall" shall be deemed to have occurred if the timing or quality of performance of Corporate Services provided by PROVIDING PARTY hereunder falls below the standard required by Section 1.5(a) hereof; provided that PROVIDING PARTY's obligations under this Agreement shall be relieved to the extent, and for the duration of, any force majeure event as set forth in Article V.

1.6 Response Time. PROVIDING PARTY shall respond to and resolve any problems in connection with the Corporate Services for RECEIVING PARTY within a commercially reasonable period of time, using response and proposed resolution times consistent with its response and resolution of such problems for itself.

1.7 Ownership of Materials; Results and Proceeds. All data and information submitted to PROVIDING PARTY by RECEIVING PARTY, in connection with the Corporate Services or the Transition Assistance (as defined in Section 2.3) (the "RECEIVING PARTY Data"), and all results and proceeds of the Corporate Services and the Transition Assistance with regard to the RECEIVING PARTY Data, is and will remain, as between the Parties, the property of the RECEIVING PARTY. The PROVIDING PARTY shall not and shall not permit its Subsidiaries to use the RECEIVING PARTY Data for any purpose other than to provide the Corporate Services or Transition Assistance.

ARTICLE II
TERM AND TRANSITION ASSISTANCE

2.1 Term. The term (the "Term") of this Agreement shall commence as of the date hereof and shall continue until the date on which the last of the Scheduled Services under this Agreement is terminated or the date on which this Agreement is terminated by mutual agreement of the Parties, whichever is earlier (in either case, the "Termination Date"); provided, however, that in no event shall the Term:

(a) expire later than the date that is six (6) months after (i) any Sale of FIS (as defined below) or any IPO (as defined below) or (ii) the exercise by the Sponsor Group (as defined in the Stockholders Agreement hereinafter defined) of exchange rights under Section 4.2 of the Stockholders Agreement, or

(b) continue, with respect to any entity that ceases to be a Subsidiary of RECEIVING PARTY (or in the case of FNF, a Subsidiary of FNF) prior to the end of the Term, from and after the date that such entity ceases to be a Subsidiary of RECEIVING PARTY (or in the case of FNF, a Subsidiary of FNF).

For purposes of this Agreement, (i) the term "Sale of FIS" means an acquisition by any Person (within the meaning of Section 3(a)(9) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") and used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) thereof ("Person")) of Beneficial Ownership (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act ("Beneficial Ownership")) of 50% or more of either the then outstanding shares of FIS common stock (the "Outstanding FIS Common Stock") or the combined voting power of the then outstanding voting securities of FIS entitled to vote generally in the election of directors (the "Outstanding FIS Voting Securities"); excluding, however, the following: (A) any acquisition directly from FIS, other than an acquisition by virtue of the exercise of a conversion privilege unless the security being so converted was itself acquired directly from FIS, (B) any acquisition by any employee benefit plan (or related trust) sponsored or maintained by FIS or a member of the FIS Group, or (C) any acquisition of Outstanding FIS Common Stock by one or more Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY or of FNF; (ii) the term "IPO" means an offering and sale to the public of any shares or equity securities of FIS or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to a registration statement in the United States; and (iii) the term "Stockholders Agreement" means that certain Stockholders Agreement to be dated on or about March 9, 2005 by and among RECEIVING PARTY and the holders of its common stock.

2.2 Termination.

(a) If RECEIVING PARTY is not able to complete its transition of the Corporate Services by the Termination Date, then upon written notice provided to PROVIDING PARTY at least thirty (30) days prior to the Termination Date, RECEIVING PARTY shall have the right to request and cause PROVIDING PARTY to provide up to thirty (30) days of additional Corporate Services to RECEIVING PARTY; provided, that RECEIVING PARTY shall pay for all such additional Corporate Services.

(b) If RECEIVING PARTY wishes to terminate a Corporate Service (or a portion thereof) on a date that is earlier than the Termination Date, RECEIVING PARTY shall provide written notice (the "Termination Notice") to PROVIDING PARTY of a proposed termination date for such Corporate Service (or portion thereof), at least ninety (90) days prior to such proposed termination date. Upon receipt of such notice, PROVIDING PARTY shall promptly provide notice to RECEIVING PARTY (the "Termination Dispute Notice") in the event that the PROVIDING PARTY believes in good faith that, notwithstanding the PROVIDING PARTY using its commercially reasonable efforts, the requested termination will have a material adverse impact on other Corporate Services and the scope of such adverse impact. In such event, the Parties will resolve the dispute in accordance with Section 1.4. If PROVIDING PARTY does not provide the Termination Dispute Notice, based on the standards set forth above, within ten (10) days of the date on which the Termination Notice was received, then, effective on the termination date proposed by RECEIVING PARTY in its Termination Notice, such Corporate Service (or portion thereof) shall be discontinued (thereafter, a "Discontinued Corporate Service") and deemed deleted from the Scheduled Services to be provided hereunder and thereafter, this Agreement shall be of no further force and effect with respect to the Discontinued Corporate Service (or portion thereof), except as to obligations accrued prior to the date of discontinuation of such Corporate Service (or portion thereof). Upon the occurrence of any Discontinued Corporate Service, the Parties shall promptly update Schedule 1.1(a) to reflect the discontinuation, and the Corporate Service Fees shall be adjusted in accordance therewith and the provisions of Article III. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, at any time that employees of FIS move to a department within FNT or FNF (an "Employee Shift"), a proportional portion of the relevant Corporate Service shall be deemed automatically terminated. If a Corporate Service, or portion thereof, is terminated as a result of an Employee Shift, then such termination shall take effect as of the date of the Employee Shift, and the adjustment in Corporate Service Fees shall also take effect as of the date of the Employee Shift.

(c) If all Corporate Services shall have been terminated under this Section 2.2 prior to the expiration of the Term, then either Party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement by giving written notice to the other Party, which termination shall be effective upon delivery as provided in Section 6.1.

2.3 Transition Assistance. In preparation for the discontinuation of any Corporate Service provided under this Agreement, PROVIDING PARTY shall, consistent with its obligations to provide Corporate Services hereunder and with the cooperation and assistance of RECEIVING PARTY, use commercially reasonable efforts to provide such knowledge transfer services and to take such steps as are reasonably required in order to facilitate a smooth and efficient transition and/or migration of records to the RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries (or at RECEIVING PARTY's direction, to a third party) and responsibilities so as to minimize any disruption of services ("Transition Assistance"). RECEIVING PARTY shall cooperate with PROVIDING PARTY to allow PROVIDING PARTY to complete the Transition Assistance as early as is commercially reasonable to do so. Fees for any Transition Assistance shall be determined in accordance with the calculation formula and methods applicable to the Scheduled Services that are most similar in nature to the Transition Assistance being so provided, as set forth on the applicable section of Schedule 1.1(a).

2.4 Return of Materials. As a Corporate Service or Transition Assistance is terminated, each Party will return all materials and property owned by the other Party, including, without limitation, all RECEIVING PARTY Data, if any, and materials and property of a proprietary nature involving a Party or its Subsidiaries (or, if applicable, in the case of RECEIVING PARTY, FNF or its Subsidiaries) relevant to the provision or receipt of that Corporate Service or Transition Assistance and no longer needed regarding the performance of other Corporate Services or other Transition Assistance under this Agreement, and will do so (and will cause its Subsidiaries and if applicable, its affiliates to do so) within thirty (30) days after the applicable termination. Upon the end of the Term, each Party will return all material and property of a proprietary nature involving the other Party or its Subsidiaries (or, if applicable, its affiliates), in its possession or control (or the possession or control of an affiliate) within thirty (30) days after the end of the Term. In addition, upon RECEIVING PARTY's request, PROVIDING PARTY agrees to provide to RECEIVING PARTY copies of RECEIVING PARTY's Data, files and records on magnetic media, or such other media as the Parties shall agree upon, to the extent practicable. PROVIDING PARTY may retain archival copies of RECEIVING PARTY's Data, files and records.

ARTICLE III
COMPENSATION AND PAYMENT ARRANGEMENTS FOR CORPORATE
SERVICES AND CORPORATE MARKS

3.1 Compensation for Corporate Services.

(a) In accordance with the payment terms described in Section 3.2 below, RECEIVING PARTY agrees to timely pay PROVIDING PARTY, as compensation for the Corporate Services provided hereunder, all fees as contemplated in Section 1.1 (the "Corporate Service Fees") and in Section 2.3 (the "Transition Assistance Fees").

(b) Without limiting the foregoing, the parties acknowledge that RECEIVING PARTY is also obligated to pay, or reimburse PROVIDING PARTY for its payment of, all Out of Pocket Costs (as defined below); provided, however, that the incurrence of any liability by RECEIVING PARTY or any of its Subsidiaries for any New Out of Pocket Cost (as defined below) that requires the payment by RECEIVING PARTY or one of its Subsidiaries of more than $50,000, on an annualized basis, shall require the prior written approval of a full-time employee of RECEIVING PARTY or one of its Subsidiaries. For purposes hereof, the term "Out of Pocket Costs" means all fees, costs or other expenses payable by RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries to third parties that are not affiliates of PROVIDING PARTY in connection with Services provided hereunder; and "New Out of Pocket Cost" means any Out of Pocket Cost incurred after the Effective Date that is not a continuation of services provided to FNT or its Subsidiaries, or to FNF or its Subsidiaries, in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practices and for which RECEIVING PARTY had paid or reimbursed a portion thereof prior to the Effective Date.

3.2 Payment Terms. The PROVIDING PARTY shall invoice the RECEIVING PARTY on a monthly basis in arrears for Corporate Service Fees, plus the Transition Assistance Fees, as calculated in accordance with Section 3.1 and Schedule 1.1(a). In addition, the PROVIDING PARTY shall promptly notify the RECEIVING PARTY, no more frequently than monthly, of the aggregate amount of Out of Pocket Costs to be reimbursed or paid. The RECEIVING PARTY shall pay by electronic funds transfer or other method satisfactory to PROVIDING PARTY and RECEIVING PARTY, in full, the monthly amount so invoiced and the Out of Pocket Costs incurred, within thirty (30) days after the date on which the PROVIDING PARTY's monthly invoice or notification of Out of Pocket Costs, as the case may be, was received. All invoices shall include, without limitation, the category of applicable Corporate Service or Transition Assistance Service (as the case may be), a brief description of the Out of Pocket Costs (if applicable), the billing period, and such other information as RECEIVING PARTY may reasonably request. Should RECEIVING PARTY dispute any portion of the amount due on any invoice or require any adjustment to an invoiced amount, or dispute any Out of Pocket Costs for which it received notification, then RECEIVING PARTY shall notify PROVIDING PARTY in writing of the nature and basis of the dispute and/or adjustment as soon as reasonably possible using, if necessary, the dispute resolution procedures set forth in Section 1.4. The Parties shall use their reasonable best efforts to resolve the dispute prior to the payment due date.

3.3 Audit Rights. Upon reasonable advance notice from RECEIVING PARTY, PROVIDING PARTY shall permit RECEIVING PARTY to perform annual audits of PROVIDING PARTY's records only with respect to amounts invoiced and Out of Pocket Costs invoiced pursuant to this Article III. Such audits shall be conducted during PROVIDING PARTY's regular office hours and without disruption to PROVIDING PARTY's business operations and shall be performed at RECEIVING PARTY's sole expense.

ARTICLE IV LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

4.1 LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. THE LIABILITY OF EITHER PARTY FOR A CLAIM ASSERTED BY THE OTHER PARTY BASED ON BREACH OF ANY COVENANT, AGREEMENT OR UNDERTAKING REQUIRED BY THIS AGREEMENT SHALL NOT EXCEED, IN THE AGGREGATE, THE FEES PAYABLE BY RECEIVING PARTY TO PROVIDING PARTY DURING THE ONE (1) YEAR PERIOD PRECEDING THE BREACH FOR THE PARTICULAR CORPORATE SERVICE AFFECTED BY SUCH BREACH UNDER THIS AGREEMENT; PROVIDED, THAT SUCH LIMITATION SHALL NOT APPLY IN RESPECT OF ANY CLAIMS BASED ON A PARTY'S (i) GROSS NEGLIGENCE, (ii) WILLFUL MISCONDUCT, (iii) IMPROPER USE OR DISCLOSURE OF CUSTOMER INFORMATION, (iv) VIOLATIONS OF LAW OR (v) INFRINGEMENT OF THE INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS OF A PERSON OR ENTITY WHO IS NOT A PARTY HERETO OR THE SUBSIDIARY OF A PARTY HERETO (OR, IN THE CASE OF THE RECEIVING PARTY, FNF OR A SUBSIDIARY OF FNF).

4.2 DAMAGES. NEITHER PARTY SHALL BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER FOR ANY INDIRECT, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGE OF ANY KIND WHATSOEVER; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT TO THE EXTENT AN INDEMNIFIED PARTY UNDER ARTICLE X IS REQUIRED TO PAY ANY SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, INDIRECT, COLLATERAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES OR LOST PROFITS TO A PERSON OR ENTITY WHO IS NOT A PARTY OR A SUBSIDIARY OF THE INDEMNIFIED PARTY (OR IN THE CASE OF THE RECEIVING PARTY, FNF OR A SUBSIDIARY OF FNF) IN CONNECTION WITH A THIRD PARTY CLAIM, SUCH DAMAGES WILL CONSTITUTE DIRECT DAMAGES AND WILL NOT BE SUBJECT TO THE LIMITATION SET FORTH IN THIS ARTICLE IV.

ARTICLE V
FORCE MAJEURE

Neither Party shall be held liable for any delay or failure in performance of any part of this Agreement from any cause beyond its reasonable control and without its fault or negligence, including, but not limited to, acts of God, acts of civil or military authority, embargoes, epidemics, war, terrorist acts, riots, insurrections, fires, explosions, earthquakes, hurricanes, tornadoes, nuclear accidents, floods, strikes, terrorism and power blackouts. Upon the occurrence of a condition described in this Article, the Party whose performance is prevented shall give written notice to the other Party, and the Parties shall promptly confer, in good faith, to agree upon equitable, reasonable action to minimize the impact, on both Parties, of such conditions.

ARTICLE VI

ARTICLE VII REMEDIES

7.1 Remedies Upon Material Breach. In the event of material breach of any provision of this Agreement by a Party, the non-defaulting Party shall give the defaulting Party written notice, and:

(a) If such breach is for RECEIVING PARTY's non-payment of an amount that is not in dispute, the defaulting Party shall cure the breach within thirty (30) calendar days of such notice. If the defaulting Party does not cure such breach by such date, then the defaulting Party shall pay the non-defaulting Party the undisputed amount, any interest that has accrued hereunder through the expiration of the cure period plus an additional amount of interest equal to four percent (4%) per annum above the "prime rate" as announced in the most recent edition of the Wall Street Journal. The Parties agree that this rate of interest constitutes reasonable liquidated damages and not an unenforceable penalty.

(b) If such breach is for any other material failure to perform in accordance with this Agreement, the defaulting Party shall cure such breach within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of such notice. If the defaulting Party does not cure such breach within such period, then the defaulting Party shall pay the non-defaulting Party all of the non-defaulting Party's actual damages, subject to Article IV above.

7.2 Survival Upon Expiration or Termination. The provisions of Section 1.4 (Dispute Resolution), Section 2.4 (Return of Materials), Article IV (Limitation of Liability), Article VI (Notices and Demands), this Section 7.2, Article VIII (Confidentiality), Article X (Indemnification) and Article XI (Miscellaneous) shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement unless otherwise agreed to in writing by both Parties.

ARTICLE VIII
CONFIDENTIALITY

8.1 Confidential Information. Each Party shall use at least the same standard of care in the protection of Confidential Information of the other Party as it uses to protect its own confidential or proprietary information; provided that such Confidential Information shall be protected in at least a reasonable manner. For purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" includes all confidential or proprietary information and documentation of either Party, including the terms of this Agreement, including with respect to each Party, all of its software, data, financial information all reports, exhibits and other documentation prepared by any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates. Each Party shall use the Confidential Information of the other Party only in connection with the purposes of this Agreement and shall make such Confidential Information available only to its employees, subcontractors, or agents having a "need to know" with respect to such purpose. Each Party shall advise its respective employees, subcontractors, and agents of such Party's obligations under this Agreement. The obligations in this Section 8.1 will not restrict disclosure by a Party pursuant to applicable law, or by order or request of any court or government agency; provided, that prior to such disclosure the receiving Party shall (a) immediately give notice to the disclosing Party, (b) cooperate with the disclosing Party in challenging the right to such access and (c) only provide such information as is required by law, such order or a final, non-appealable ruling of a court of proper jurisdiction Confidential Information of a Party will not be afforded the protection of this Article VIII if such Confidential Information was (A) developed by the other Party independently as shown by its written business records regularly kept, (B) rightfully obtained by the other Party without restriction from a third party, (C) publicly available other than through the fault or negligence of the other Party or (D) released by the disclosing Party without restriction to anyone.

8.2 Work Product Privilege. RECEIVING PARTY represents and PROVIDING PARTY acknowledges that, in the course of providing Corporate Services pursuant to this Agreement, PROVIDING PARTY may have access to (a) documents, data, databases or communications that are subject to attorney client privilege and/or (b) privileged work product prepared by or on behalf of the affiliates of RECEIVING PARTY in anticipation of litigation with third parties (collectively, the "Privileged Work Product") and RECEIVING PARTY represents and PROVIDING PARTY understands that all Privileged Work Product is protected from disclosure by Rule 26 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the equivalent rules and regulations under the law chosen to govern the construction of this Agreement. RECEIVING PARTY represents and PROVIDING PARTY understands the importance of maintaining the strict confidentiality of the Privileged Work Product to protect the attorney client privilege, work product doctrine and other privileges and rights associated with such Privileged Work Product pursuant to such Rule 26 and the equivalent rules and regulations under the law chosen to govern the construction of this Agreement. After PROVIDING PARTY is notified or otherwise becomes aware that documents, data, database, or communications are Privileged Work Product, only PROVIDING PARTY personnel for whom such access is necessary for the purposes of providing Services to RECEIVING PARTY as provided in this Agreement shall have access to such Privileged Work Product. Should PROVIDING PARTY ever be notified of any judicial or other proceeding seeking to obtain access to Privileged Work Product, PROVIDING PARTY shall (A) immediately give notice to RECEIVING PARTY, (B) cooperate with RECEIVING PARTY in challenging the right to such access and (C) only provide such information as is required by a final, non-appealable ruling of a court of proper jurisdiction. RECEIVING PARTY shall pay all of the cost incurred by PROVIDING PARTY in complying with the immediately preceding sentence. RECEIVING PARTY has the right and duty to represent PROVIDING PARTY in such resistance or to select and compensate counsel to so represent PROVIDING PARTY or to reimburse PROVIDING PARTY for reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses as such fees and expenses are incurred in resisting such access. If PROVIDING PARTY is ultimately required, pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, to produce documents, disclose data, or otherwise act in contravention of the confidentiality obligations imposed in this Article VIII, or otherwise with respect to maintaining the confidentiality, proprietary nature, and secrecy of Privileged Work Product, PROVIDING PARTY is not liable for breach of such obligation to the extent such liability does not result from failure of PROVIDING PARTY to abide by the terms of this Article VIII. All Privileged Work Product is the property of RECEIVING PARTY and will be deemed Confidential Information, except as specifically authorized in this Agreement or as shall be required by law.

8.3 Unauthorized Acts. Each Party shall (a) notify the other Party promptly of any unauthorized possession, use, or knowledge of any Confidential Information by any person which shall become known to it, any attempt by any person to gain possession of Confidential Information without authorization or any attempt to use or acquire knowledge of any Confidential Information without authorization (collectively, "Unauthorized Access"), (b) promptly furnish to the other Party full details of the Unauthorized Access and use reasonable efforts to assist the other Party in investigating or preventing the reoccurrence of any Unauthorized Access, (c) cooperate with the other Party in any litigation and investigation against third parties deemed necessary by such Party to protect its proprietary rights, and (d) use commercially reasonable efforts to prevent a reoccurrence of any such Unauthorized Access.

8.4 Publicity. Except as required by law or national stock exchange rule or as allowed by any Ancillary Agreement, neither Party shall issue any press release, distribute any advertising, or make any public announcement or disclosure (a) identifying the other Party by name, trademark or otherwise or (b) concerning this Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, in the event either Party is required to issue a press release relating to this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or by the laws or regulations of any governmental authority, agency or self-regulatory agency, such Party shall (A) give notice and a copy of the proposed press release to the other Party as far in advance as reasonably possible, but in any event not less than five (5) days prior to publication of such press release and (B) make any changes to such press release reasonably requested by the other Party. In addition, RECEIVING PARTY may communicate the existence of the business relationship contemplated by the terms of this Agreement internally within PROVIDING PARTY's organization and orally and in writing communicate PROVIDING PARTY's identity as a reference with potential and existing customers.

8.5 Data Privacy. (a) Where, in connection with this Agreement, PROVIDING PARTY processes or stores information about a living individual that is held in automatically processable form (for example in a computerized database) or in a structured manual filing system ("Personal Data"), on behalf of any Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY (or FNF or its Subsidiaries) or their clients, then PROVIDING PARTY shall implement appropriate measures to protect those personal data against accidental or unlawful destruction or accidental loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure or access and shall use such data solely for purposes of carrying out its obligations under this Agreement.

(b) RECEIVING PARTY may instruct PROVIDING PARTY, where PROVIDING PARTY processes Personal Data on behalf of Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY (or FNF or its Subsidiaries), to take such steps to preserve data privacy in the processing of those Personal Data as are reasonably necessary for the performance of this Agreement.

(c) Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY (or FNF or its Subsidiaries) may, in connection with this Agreement, collect Personal Data in relation to PROVIDING PARTY and PROVIDING PARTY's employees, directors and other officers involved in providing Corporate Services hereunder. Such Personal Data may be collected from PROVIDING PARTY, its employees, its directors, its officers, or from other (for example, published) sources; and some limited personal data may be collected indirectly at RECEIVING PARTY's, or Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY's (or FNF's or its Subsidiaries'), locations from monitoring devices or by other means (e.g., telephone logs, closed circuit TV and door entry systems). Nothing in this Section 8.5(c) obligates PROVIDING PARTY or PROVIDING PARTY's employees, directors or other officers to provide Personal Data requested by RECEIVING PARTY. The Subsidiaries of RECEIVING PARTY (or FNF or its Subsidiaries, as applicable) may use and disclose any such data disclosed by PROVIDING PARTY solely for purposes connected with this Agreement and for the relevant purposes specified in the data privacy policy of the Subsidiary of RECEIVING PARTY (or of FNF or one of its Subsidiaries, as applicable), a copy of which is available on request. RECEIVING PARTY will maintain the same level of protection for Personal Data collected from PROVIDING PARTY (and PROVIDING PARTY's employees, directors and officers, as appropriate) as RECEIVING PARTY maintains with its own Personal Data, and will implement appropriate administrative, physical and technical measures to protect the personal data collected from PROVIDING PARTY and PROVIDING PARTY's employees, directors and other officers against accidental or unlawful destruction or accidental loss, alternation, unauthorized disclosure or access.

ARTICLE IX REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS

EXCEPT FOR THE REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS EXPRESSLY MADE IN THIS AGREEMENT, PROVIDING PARTY HAS NOT MADE AND DOES NOT HEREBY MAKE ANY EXPRESS OR IMPLIED REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES OR COVENANTS, STATUTORY OR OTHERWISE, OF ANY NATURE, INCLUDING WITH RESPECT TO THE WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, QUALITY, QUANTITY, SUITABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR THE RESULTS OBTAINED OF THE CONTINUING BUSINESS. ALL OTHER REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES, AND COVENANTS, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, STATUTORY, COMMON LAW OR OTHERWISE, OF ANY NATURE, INCLUDING WITH RESPECT TO THE WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, QUALITY, QUANTITY, SUITABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR THE RESULTS OBTAINED OF THE CONTINUING BUSINESS ARE HEREBY DISCLAIMED BY PROVIDING PARTY.

INDEMNIFICATION

10.1 Indemnification.

(a) Subject to Article IV, RECEIVING PARTY will indemnify, defend and hold harmless PROVIDING PARTY, each Subsidiary of PROVIDING PARTY, each of their respective past and present directors, officers, employees, agents, consultants, advisors, accountants and attorneys ("Representatives"), and each of their respective successors and assigns (collectively, the "PROVIDING PARTY Indemnified Parties") from and against any and all Damages (as defined below) incurred or suffered by the PROVIDING PARTY Indemnified Parties arising or resulting from the provision of Corporate Services hereunder, which Damages shall be reduced to the extent of:

(i) Damages caused or contributed to by PROVIDING PARTY's negligence, willful misconduct or violation of law; or

(ii) Damages caused or contributed to by a breach of this Agreement by PROVIDING PARTY.

"Damages" means, subject to Article IV hereof, all losses, claims, demands, damages, liabilities, judgments, dues, penalties, assessments, fines (civil, criminal or administrative), costs, liens, forfeitures, settlements, fees or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses and any other expenses reasonably incurred in connection with investigating, prosecuting or defending a claim or Action).

(b) Except as set forth in this Section 10.1(b), PROVIDING PARTY will have no liability to RECEIVING PARTY for or in connection with any of the Corporate Services rendered hereunder or for any actions or omissions of PROVIDING PARTY in connection with the provision of any Corporate Services hereunder. Subject to the provisions hereof and subject to Article IV, PROVIDING PARTY will indemnify, defend and hold harmless RECEIVING PARTY, each Subsidiary of RECEIVING PARTY, FNF, each Subsidiary of FNF (other than FIS and its Subsidiaries), each of their respective past and present Representatives, and each of their respective successors and assigns (collectively, the "RECEIVING PARTY Indemnified Parties") from and against any and all Damages incurred or suffered by the RECEIVING PARTY Indemnified Parties arising or resulting from either of the following:

(i) any claim that PROVIDING PARTY's use of the software or other intellectual property used to provide the Corporate Services or Transition Assistance, or any results and proceeds of such Corporate Services or Transition Assistance, infringes, misappropriates or otherwise violates any United States patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret or other intellectual property rights; provided, that such intellectual property indemnity shall not apply to the extent that any such claim arises out of any modification to such software or other intellectual property made by RECEIVING PARTY without PROVIDING PARTY's authorization or participation, or provided, that in each of the cases described in subclauses (i) through (ii) above, the amount of Damages incurred or sustained by RECEIVING PARTY shall be reduced to the extent such Damages shall have been caused or contributed to by any action or omission of RECEIVING PARTY in amounts equal to RECEIVING PARTY's equitable share of such Damages determined in accordance with its relative culpability for such Damages or the relative fault of RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiaries.

10.2 Indemnification Procedures.

(a) Claim Notice. A Party that seeks indemnity under this Article X (an "Indemnified Party") will give written notice (a "Claim Notice") to the Party from whom indemnification is sought (an "Indemnifying Party"), whether the Damages sought arise from matters solely between the Parties or from Third Party Claims. The Claim Notice must contain (i) a description and, if known, estimated amount (the "Claimed Amount") of any Damages incurred or reasonably expected to be incurred by the Indemnified Party, (ii) a reasonable explanation of the basis for the Claim Notice to the extent of facts then known by the Indemnified Party, and (iii) a demand for payment of those Damages. No delay or deficiency on the part of the Indemnified Party in so notifying the Indemnifying Party will relieve the Indemnifying Party of any liability for Damages or obligation hereunder except to the extent of any Damages caused by or arising out of such failure.

(b) Response to Notice of Claim. Within thirty (30) days after delivery of a Claim Notice, the Indemnifying Party will deliver to the Indemnified Party a written response in which the Indemnifying Party will either: (i) agree that the Indemnified Party is entitled to receive all of the Claimed Amount and, in which case, the Indemnifying Party will pay the Claimed Amount in accordance with a payment and distribution method reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party; or (ii) dispute that the Indemnified Party is entitled to receive all or any portion of the Claimed Amount, in which case, the Parties will resort to the dispute resolution procedures set forth in Section 1.4.

(c) Contested Claims. In the event that the Indemnifying Party disputes the Claimed Amount, as soon as practicable but in no event later than ten (10) days after the receipt of the notice referenced in Section 10.2(b)(ii) hereof, the Parties will begin the process to resolve the matter in accordance with the dispute resolution provisions of Section 1.4 hereof. Upon ultimate resolution thereof, the Parties will take such actions as are reasonably necessary to comply with such agreement or instructions.

(d) Third Party Claims.

(i) In the event that the Indemnified Party receives notice or otherwise learns of the assertion by a person or entity who is not a Party hereto or a Subsidiary of a Party hereto (or, in the case of RECEIVING PARTY, FNF or one of its Subsidiaries) of any claim or the commencement of any action (a "Third-Party Claim") with respect to which the Indemnifying Party may be obligated to provide indemnification under this Article X, the Indemnified Party will give written notification to the Indemnifying Party of the Third-Party Claim. Such notification will be given within fifteen (15) days after receipt by the Indemnified Party of notice of such Third-Party Claim, will be accompanied by reasonable supporting documentation submitted by such third party (to the extent then in the possession of the Indemnified Party) and will describe in reasonable detail (to the extent known by the Indemnified Party) the facts constituting the basis for such Third-Party Claim and the amount of the claimed Damages; provided, however, that no delay or deficiency on the part of the Indemnified Party in so notifying the Indemnifying Party will relieve the Indemnifying Party of any liability for Damages or obligation hereunder except to the extent of any Damages caused by or arising out of such failure. Within twenty (20) days after delivery of such notification, the Indemnifying Party may, upon written notice thereof to the Indemnified Party, assume control of the defense of such Third-Party Claim with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party. During any period in which the Indemnifying Party has not so assumed control of such defense, the Indemnified Party will control such defense.

(ii) The Party not controlling such defense (the "Non-controlling Party") may participate therein at its own expense.

(iii) The Party controlling such defense (the "Controlling Party") will keep the Non-controlling Party reasonably advised of the status of such Third-Party Claim and the defense thereof and will consider in good faith recommendations made by the Non-controlling Party with respect thereto. The Non-controlling Party will furnish the Controlling Party with such Information as it may have with respect to such Third-Party Claim (including copies of any summons, complaint or other pleading which may have been served on such Party and any written claim, demand, invoice, billing or other document evidencing or asserting the same) and will otherwise cooperate with and assist the Controlling Party in the defense of such Third-Party Claim.

(iv) The Indemnifying Party will not agree to any settlement of, or the entry of any judgment arising from, any such Third-Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided, however, that the consent of the Indemnified Party will not be required if (A) the Indemnifying Party agrees in writing to pay any amounts payable pursuant to such settlement or judgment, and (B) such settlement or judgment includes a full, complete and unconditional release of the Indemnified Party from further Liability. The Indemnified Party will not agree to any settlement of, or the entry of any judgment arising from, any such Third-Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

MISCELLANEOUS

11.1 Relationship of the Parties. The Parties declare and agree that each Party is engaged in a business that is independent from that of the other Party and each Party shall perform its obligations as an independent contractor. It is expressly understood and agreed that RECEIVING PARTY and PROVIDING PARTY are not partners, and nothing contained herein is intended to create an agency relationship or a partnership or joint venture with respect to the Corporate Services. Neither Party is an agent of the other and neither Party has any authority to represent or bind the other Party as to any matters, except as authorized herein or in writing by such other Party from time to time.

11.2 Employees. (a) PROVIDING PARTY shall be solely responsible for payment of compensation to its employees and, as between the Parties, for its Subsidiaries' employees and for any injury to them in the course of their employment. PROVIDING PARTY shall assume full responsibility for payment of all federal, state and local taxes or contributions imposed or required under unemployment insurance, social security and income tax laws with respect to such persons.

(b) RECEIVING PARTY shall be solely responsible for payment of compensation to its employees and, as between the Parties, for its Subsidiaries' employees and for any injury to them in the course of their employment. RECEIVING PARTY shall assume full responsibility for payment of all federal, state and local taxes or contributions imposed or required under unemployment insurance, social security and income tax laws with respect to such persons. FNF shall be solely responsible for payment of compensation to its employees and, as between the Parties, for its Subsidiaries' employees and for any injury to them in the course of their employment. FNF shall assume full responsibility for payment of all federal, state and local taxes or contributions imposed or required under unemployment insurance, social security and income tax laws with respect to such persons. Without limiting the foregoing, RECEIVING PARTY acknowledges and agrees that, as between the Parties, RECEIVING PARTY shall be obligated to cause FNF to abide by the terms of this Section 11.2(b) and shall be liable for any failure by FNF to comply with therewith.

11.3 Assignment. Neither Party may, in connection with a sale of an asset to which one or more of the Corporate Services relate, assign, transfer or convey any right, obligation or duty, in whole or in part, or of any other interest under this Agreement relating to such Corporate Services without the prior written consent of the other Party, provided, however, that in the event of a Sale of FIS (as defined in Section 2.1), FIS may assign its interest in this Agreement without the prior written consent of FNT. All obligations and duties of a Party under this Agreement shall be binding on all successors in interest and permitted assigns of such Party. Each Party may use its Subsidiaries (and in the case of RECEIVING PARTY, may use FNF or its Subsidiaries) or subcontractors to perform the Corporate Services; provided that such use shall not relieve such assigning Party of liability for its responsibilities and obligations.

11.4 Severability. In the event that any one or more of the provisions contained herein shall for any reason be held to be unenforceable in any respect under law, such unenforceability shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement, and this Agreement shall be construed as if such unenforceable provision or provisions had never been contained herein.

11.5 Third Party Beneficiaries. The provisions of this Agreement are for the benefit of the Parties and their affiliates and not for any other person. However, should any third party institute proceedings, this Agreement shall not provide any such person with any remedy, claim, liability, reimbursement, cause of action, or other right.

11.6 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida, without giving effect to such State's laws and principles regarding the conflict of laws. Subject to Section 1.4, if any Dispute arises out of or in connection with this Agreement, except as expressly contemplated by another provision of this Agreement, the Parties irrevocably (a) consent and submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of federal and state courts located in Jacksonville, Florida, (b) waive any objection to that choice of forum based on venue or to the effect that the forum is not convenient and (c) WAIVE TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL OR ADJUDICATION BY JURY.

11.7 Executed in Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same document.

11.8 Construction. The headings and numbering of articles, sections and paragraphs in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not be construed to define or limit any of the terms or affect the scope, meaning, or interpretation of this Agreement or the particular Article or Section to which they relate. This Agreement and the provisions contained herein shall not be construed or interpreted for or against any Party because that Party drafted or caused its legal representative to draft any of its provisions.

11.9 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including all attachments, constitutes the entire Agreement between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior oral or written agreements, representations, statements, negotiations, understandings, proposals and undertakings, with respect to the subject matter hereof.

11.10 Amendments and Waivers. (a) The Parties may amend this Agreement only by a written agreement signed by each Party and that identifies itself as an amendment to this Agreement. No waiver of any provisions of this Agreement and no consent to any default under this Agreement shall be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by or on behalf of the Party against whom such waiver or consent is claimed. No course of dealing or failure of any Party to strictly enforce any term, right or condition of this Agreement shall be construed as a waiver of such term, right or condition. Waiver by either Party of any default by the other Party shall not be deemed a waiver of any other default.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time prior to the Sale of FIS or any IPO, this Agreement may not be amended without the prior written consent of THL and TPG if such amendment would: (i) affect the Term of the Agreement, (ii) affect Section 1.5 (Standard of Services) in any manner adverse to PROVIDING PARTY, (iii) affect Section 3.1 (Compensation for Corporate Services) in any manner adverse to PROVIDING PARTY, (iv) affect PROVIDING PARTY's limitation of liability under Article IV (Limitation of Liability) in any manner adverse to PROVIDING PARTY, (v) affect PROVIDING PARTY's rights under Article VII (Remedies) upon default by RECEIVING PARTY in any manner adverse to PROVIDING PARTY, (vi) affect Article X (Indemnification) in any manner adverse to PROVIDING PARTY, or (x) affect this Section 11.10 (Amendment). For purposes hereof, the term "THL" means Thomas H. Lee Equity Fund V, L.P. and the term "TPG" means TPG Partners III, L.P. THL and TPG are intended third party beneficiaries of this Agreement solely with respect to this Section 11.10(b).

11.11 Remedies Cumulative. Unless otherwise provided for under this Agreement, all rights of termination or cancellation, or other remedies set forth in this Agreement, are cumulative and are not intended to be exclusive of other remedies to which the injured Party may be entitled by law or equity in case of any breach or threatened breach by the other Party of any provision in this Agreement. Unless otherwise provided for under this Agreement, use of one or more remedies shall not bar use of any other remedy for the purpose of enforcing any provision of this Agreement.

11.12 Taxes. All charges and fees to be paid to PROVIDING PARTY under this Agreement are exclusive of any applicable taxes required by law to be collected from the RECEIVING PARTY (including, without limitation, withholding, sales, use, excise, or services tax, which may be assessed on the provision of Corporate Services). In the event that a withholding, sales, use, excise, or services tax is assessed on the provision of any of the Corporate Services under this Agreement, RECEIVING PARTY will pay directly, reimburse or indemnify PROVIDING PARTY for such tax, plus any applicable interest and penalties. The Parties will cooperate with each other in determining the extent to which any tax is due and owing under the circumstances, and shall provide and make available to each other any resale certificate, information regarding out-of-state use of materials, services or sale, and other exemption certificates or information reasonably requested by either Party.

11.13 Changes in Law. PROVIDING PARTY's obligations to provide Corporate Services hereunder are to provide such Corporate Services in accordance with applicable laws as in effect on the date of this Agreement. Each Party reserves the right to take all actions in order to ensure that the Corporate Services and Transition Assistance are provided in accordance with any applicable laws.

DEFINITIONS AND FORMULAS

FOR PURPOSES OF CALCULATING COST ALLOCATION

For purposes of this Agreement and the Reverse Corporate Service Schedules:

"Direct Employee Compensation" of an employee means the aggregate of such employee's salary, overtime, cash bonus and commission compensation and payroll taxes attributable thereto.

"Departmental Costs" of a department/cost center means any and all costs incurred by or allocated to that department/cost center other than Direct Employee Compensation of the employees in the department/cost center, such as office furniture and equipment, office space and facilities expenses, repairs & maintenance expenses, rent and leasehold improvements, utilities, telecommunications and IT equipment, insurance costs, employee benefits costs, depreciation, amortization, real property and personal property taxes, advertising and promotional expenses (if any), postage, courier and shipping expenses, printing, reproduction, stationary, and office supplies, travel and entertainment expenses, educational, training and recruiting expenses, professional dues and subscriptions, fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Services that are included in administrative overhead, and the other similar costs that are generally characterized as "overhead", in each case as allocated to the department/cost center in accordance with PROVIDING PARTY's current overhead cost allocation policy.

"Servicing Employee" means an employee of PROVIDING PARTY or its Subsidiaries who provides services to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries under this Agreement.

"Standard Allocation", for purposes of the Services provided under this Agreement and the Schedules hereto, including the Cost Allocation section of the Schedules, shall be calculated as follows:

1. Out of Pocket Costs incurred by or on behalf of RECEIVING PARTY or its Subsidiary(s) are charged directly to it and are not part of the Services under this Agreement or the payments to be made therefor.
2. The Direct Employee Compensation of the PROVIDING PARTY Servicing Employees shall be allocated to RECEIVING PARTY based on the percentage of work time that each such Servicing Employee spends in providing the applicable Services to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries. Allocations as of the Closing Date will be those reflected in the data and results of January 2005, and shall be applied to determine the allocations hereunder on a monthly basis, with each work time percentage and corresponding Departmental Cost percentage to be re-examined and updated (if appropriate) at the end of each 6-month period following the Closing Date, it being understood that any changes in the allocations must be pre-approved by the FNT Chief Accounting Officer.

By way of example, for a Servicing Employee of PROVIDING PARTY who has an annual salary of $50,000, a cash bonus of $20,000, and payroll taxes of $10,000 and who spends 40% of his work time on providing Services under this Agreement, RECEIVING PARTY would be allocated a Direct Employee Compensation cost of $32,000 calculated as follows:

3. In addition to the Direct Employee Compensation, Departmental Costs of each department/cost center of PROVIDING PARTY that has Servicing Employees shall be allocated to RECEIVING PARTY based on a percentage reflecting the aggregate regular salaries of all of the Servicing Employees in that department/cost center, in relation to the aggregate regular salaries of all employees in the department/cost center, taking into account the percentage of work time that each Servicing Employee in the department/cost center spends in providing services to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries hereunder.

By way of example, assume that in a PROVIDING PARTY department/cost center, there are 20 employees, 5 of whom are Servicing Employees who each spend 40% of the work time providing services to RECEIVING PARTY and its Subsidiaries. If the aggregate regular salaries of the 20 employees is $500,000, and the aggregate regular salaries of the 5 Servicing Employees is $300,000, then we determine the portion of the Departmental Costs that will be allocated to RECEIVING PARTY as follows:

First, determine the aggregate regular salaries allocable to RECEIVING PARTY:

$$$300,000 \times 40\% = $120,000.$$

Then, determine the portion of the Departmental Costs to be allocated to RECEIVING PARTY based on the aggregate regular salaries percentage:

$$$120,000 / $500,000 = 24\%.$$

In this example, 24% of the Departmental Costs of this department/cost center will be allocated to RECEIVING PARTY.

4. Except to the extent otherwise expressly provided herein, for any given 6-month period, all Direct Employee Compensation to be allocated shall be determined on the basis of the applicable work time percentages for the immediately preceding 6-month period, except that the Direct Employee Compensation allocations applicable on the Closing Date shall be based on the work time percentages applicable for the calendar month June 2005. At the end of each 6-month period, the work time percentages shall be re-examined and the Direct Employee Compensation will be re-allocated based on the revised work time percentages, if any. For any given 6-month, all Departmental Costs to be allocated shall be determined on the basis of the applicable aggregate salaries and related percentages for the immediately preceding 6-month period, except that the aggregate salaries and related percentages applicable on the Closing Date shall be based on the work time percentages and aggregate salaries applicable for the calendar month January 2005.

5. If at any time during the Term of this Agreement RECEIVING PARTY terminates or discontinues all or any portion of a Corporate Service prior to the end of the Term or if any Corporate Service (or portion thereof) automatically terminates, pursuant to Section 2.2(b) (hereinafter referred to as a "Discontinued Service"), then effective as of the last day of the calendar month in which such termination or discontinuation is effective, Corporate Services Fees related to the Discontinued shall no longer be owing under this Agreement.

STARTERS REPOSITORY ACCESS AGREEMENT

This Starters Repository Access Agreement (this "Agreement"), effective as of _____, 2005 (the "Effective Date"), between FIDELITY NATIONAL TITLE GROUP, INC., a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at 601 Riverside Avenue, Jacksonville, FL 32204 ("FNT"), for itself on behalf of its direct and indirect subsidiaries; and FIDELITY NATIONAL INFORMATION SERVICES, INC., a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at 601 Riverside Avenue, Jacksonville, FL 32204 ("FIS"), on behalf of those of its direct and indirect subsidiaries as are listed on Exhibit A hereto (including any amended Exhibit A) (each a "Customer" and collectively, the "Customers"). FNT and FIS shall hereinafter be referred to as a "Party" and collectively, as the "Parties."

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Customers wish to have access to certain records and/or data (the "Starters" as defined below) owned by FNT or its subsidiaries; and

WHEREAS, FNT is willing to provide such access, subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein; and

WHEREAS, FIS previously entered into an FNF Starters Repository Agreement dated March 4, 2005 (the "FNF Agreement") with Fidelity National Financial, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("FNF"), as the parent company of FNT and its subsidiaries, for access to the Starters by the Customers; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to an Assignment and Assumption Agreement of even date herewith between FNF and FNT, FNT has assumed, with the consent of FIS, all of FNF's rights and obligations under the FNF Agreement; and

WHEREAS, FIS and FNT wish to enter into a novation of the rights and obligations under the FNF Agreement, as assumed by and assigned to FNT, so that FNT is the clear party in interest with respect to the Starters, as more particularly described herein;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties, intending to be legally bound hereby, agree as follows:

1. CERTAIN DEFINITIONS.

"Customer" means Property Insight, LLC, a California limited liability company ("PI"), and each user identified on Exhibit A so long as such user is a direct or indirect subsidiary of FIS; it being understood that, upon 30 days' prior written notice, FIS may from time to time amend Exhibit A to add one or more of its other direct or indirect subsidiaries of FIS and such added subsidiary shall become a "Customer" hereunder effective as of the 30th day after such prior notice is delivered to FNT.

"Issuing Agency Agreement" is an agreement pursuant to which an entity is designated as a title agent, authorized to write title business for a principal.

"L&Vs" consist of that portion of a Starter record related to the legal description of the real property and vesting information of the owners thereof.

"L&V Retrieval" means any instance where an L&V is selected by a Customer for viewing or data retrieval in connection with a particular Starter record. A fee is incurred, as set forth below, upon each Successful Retrieval.

"Starters" consist of electronic copies of previously issued title products, which may include policies, commitments, preliminary reports, guarantees and binders as well as some electronic data elements of the information contained in such electronic copies.

A "Starter Retrieval" means any instance when a Starter is selected by a Customer for viewing or data retrieval, which may include an image of the applicable previously issued title products or any electronic data elements from such products. A fee is incurred, as set forth below, upon each Successful Retrieval.

The "Starter Repository" is a database of certain Starters selected by FNT for inclusion.

A "Successful Retrieval" means: (1) in connection with a L&V Retrieval, the return of data containing a legal description and vesting in a format generally recognized in the geographic area where the property is located; (2) in connection with a Starter Retrieval, the return of a product image and/or data in a form and containing those elements generally contained on such product in the geographic area where the property is located.

2. ACCESS.

(a) Access. FNT hereby grants to each Customer non-exclusive access to the Starter Repository, subject to the provisions hereof. Customers may, with technical information from FNT available on request, create proprietary means of technical access to the Starter Repository (an "Access Program"), subject however to compliance with any security protocols or technology that FNT may reasonably specify. Using such Access Program, Customers may access the Starter Repository, provided, however, that FNT shall have no duty to pay for, support, or update any such Access Program. In addition, FNT may from time to time modify, update or otherwise revise the Starter Repository database structure or other means of accessing the Starter Repository, provided that in the event of any of such modification, update or revision, FNT shall provide FIS with reasonably detailed access specifications so that FIS can create and/or modify its Access Program, if any. FNT may restrict, or may be restricted from allowing, a Customer from using certain records and materials in the Starter Repository. It is understood and agreed that, during the first year of this Agreement, FNT shall provide access availability to the Starter Repository in a nature and quality reasonably comparable to the access availability provided by FNT during the year immediately prior to the execution of this Agreement.

(b) Format. The data and materials included in the Starter Repository are maintained in one or more formats or media determined from time to time by FNT and FNT reserves the right to modify any such format or medium from time to time, subject to the notification provisions contained in Section 2(d).

(c) Security. In connection with a Customer's access to the Starter Repository provided hereunder, FNT may establish identification codes and password security. In such event, a Customer shall be responsible for choosing one or more secure passwords and for keeping all passwords secret. In the event that a Customer becomes aware of a security breach or unauthorized access to the Starter Repository, such Customer agrees to contact FNT immediately upon discovering such a breach. Such Customer is responsible for the results of any unauthorized access caused by such Customer or resulting from such Customer's failure to maintain appropriate security. In addition, in the event of any such unauthorized access or security breach by such Customer, the Customer shall be liable for all costs by FNT incurred as a result thereof, until notice of such a security breach is given to FNT, unless the Customer can demonstrate that it took commercially reasonable precautions to secure and safe-keep its access to the Starter Repository. FNT reserves the right to check the security of Customer passwords, if password security is implemented. In such event, if a Customer password is found to be unsecured, FNT shall immediately notify Customer and work with Customer to implement an appropriate security password. Each Customer agrees to not (i) attempt to bypass any security mechanisms in place on any FNT system hosting the Starter Repository, or (ii) use any FNT system or service to attempt to bypass any security mechanisms in place on any other FNT system, including, but not limited to, running any password cracking software, or attempting to access a system that such Customer knows or reasonably should know it is not authorized to access in the manner or to the extent attempted.

(d) Systems Changes. It is anticipated that FNT may, during the term of this Agreement, but without obligation to do so, make certain systems enhancements in the methods of input, storage or retrieval or make other changes to the Starter Repository or its databases. It is agreed by each Customer that FNT will have the right to make enhancements, changes or additions which require the Customer's use of new methods for access or changes to the Access Program. FNT agrees to provide advance written notice of any such enhancements, changes or additions to Customer with as much lead time as possible, but in no event less than sixty (60) days. FNT will make available any such enhancements, changes or additions to Customer without additional cost.

3. FEES AND PAYMENT

(a) Fees. FIS will pay FNT a fee in the amounts set forth on Exhibit B for each Successful Retrieval in connection with a Starter Retrieval and L&V Retrieval by the Customers (the "Starter Retrieval Fee" and the "L&V Retrieval Fee", respectively, and collectively, the "Access Fees"). The Access Fees do not include taxes. FIS will pay, or reimburse, FNT for payment of, any applicable sales, use, personal property or similar taxes and any government charges based on transactions hereunder, exclusive of corporate income or franchise taxes based on FNT's net income. FNT may increase the Access Fees for each Starter Retrieval and L&V Retrieval annually, effective on the anniversary date of this Agreement, by an amount equal to the percentage amount indicated by the annual change in the Consumer Price Index for urban wage earners and clerical workers for the national average as compiled by the U.S. Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics ("Index") for the twelve (12) month period most immediately preceding the adjustment date for which such data has been compiled and (subject to compliance with the amendment provisions set forth in Section 12(g), if applicable) Exhibit B shall be deemed to have been amended as a result of each such increase.

(b) Payment. FIS shall provide to FNT, (1) on the fifteenth (15th) day of each month during the term of this Agreement, an accurate count of the number of Starter Retrievals and L&V Retrievals made by each Customer during the previous month and (2) within thirty (30) days of providing such count, payment in full for such Starter Retrievals and L&V Retrievals contained in the Customer count based on the Access Fees. FIS agrees that it shall be responsible for payment to FNT for the number of Starter Retrievals and L&V Retrievals made by each Customer. FNT shall not be responsible for notifying any Customer about unusual patterns in the frequency or duration of such access. FNT shall have the right to receive from each Customer more detailed information regarding the number of Starter Retrievals and L&V Retrievals in the event that FNT has reason to believe that the information or number of Starter Retrievals and L&V Retrievals for a particular period is inaccurate. FIS will be in breach of this Agreement whenever FIS fails to pay in full any undisputed sum on behalf of any Customer due to FNT for a period of thirty (30) days after FNT provides written notice of nonpayment to FIS. To cure that breach, the sum then due, plus a late payment fee equal to ten percent (10%) of the sum then due (or the maximum rate or amount allowed by applicable law if less), must be paid by FIS to FNT.

(c) Audit. FNT shall have the right to audit the records of each Customer, at the expense of FNT, to verify the correctness of the information provided on behalf of each Customer regarding the number of Starter Retrievals and L&V Retrievals and the sums being paid to FNT on behalf of each Customer for such Starter Retrievals and L&V Retrievals. These audits shall be conducted during normal business hours so as not to unreasonably interfere with the normal business operations of such Customer. If the audit discloses that such FIS under-reported fees to FNT, FIS shall pay promptly such under-reported amount, together with interest at the rate of ten percent (10%) (or the maximum rate or amount allowed by applicable law if less). In addition, if such under-reported amount is in excess of five percent (5%) of the reported amount for the period covered by the audit, then FIS shall promptly reimburse FNT for its reasonable audit expenses.

4. TERM AND TERMINATION

(a) Term. Unless sooner terminated in accordance with the provisions hereof, this Agreement shall continue in effect. The obligations under this Agreement may be terminated by any of the following means:

- (i) at any time by mutual agreement of the parties hereto, in which event the obligations under this Agreement shall terminate as of the date specified by the parties;
- (ii) at any time by FNT, if FIS or the Customers breach any material warranty or fails to perform any material obligation hereunder, and such breach is not remedied within 30 days after written notice thereof to FIS, in which event the obligations under this Agreement shall terminate on the 20th business day following the expiration of such 30-day cure period; provided that if the breach or default is of a nature that it cannot reasonably be cured within a 30-day period and FIS is actively pursuing a cure in good faith, then no default shall be deemed to have occurred so long as the default is cured as promptly as reasonably possible and in any event prior to the first anniversary of the occurrence of such default;

- (iii) at any time by FIS, if FNT breaches any material warranty or fails to perform any material obligation owing hereunder, and such breach is not remedied within 30 days after written notice thereof to FNT, in which event the obligations under this Agreement shall terminate on the 20th business day following the expiration of such 30-day cure period; provided that if the breach or default is of a nature that it cannot reasonably be cured within a 30-day period and FNT is actively pursuing a cure in good faith, then no default shall be deemed to have occurred so long as the default is cured as promptly as reasonably possible and in any event prior to the first anniversary of the occurrence of such default;
- (iv) at any time by FNT, if FIS shall admit in writing its inability to, or be generally unable to, pay its debts as such debts become due, or shall (1) apply for or consent to the appointment of, or the taking of possession by, a receiver, custodian, trustee, examiner or liquidator of itself or of all or a substantial part of its property or assets, (2) make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors, (3) commence a voluntary case under the federal Bankruptcy Code, (4) file a petition seeking to take advantage of any other law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, liquidation, dissolution, arrangement or winding-up, or composition or readjustment of debts, (5) fail to controvert in a timely and appropriate manner, or acquiesce in writing to, any petition filed against it in an involuntary case under the Bankruptcy Code or (6) take any company action for the purpose of effecting any of the foregoing, in which event the obligations under this Agreement shall terminate immediately;
- (v) at any time by FIS, if FNT shall admit in writing its inability to, or be generally unable to, pay its debts as such debts become due, or shall (1) apply for or consent to the appointment of, or the taking of possession by, a receiver, custodian, trustee, examiner or liquidator of itself or of all or a substantial part of its property or assets, (2) make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors, (3) commence a voluntary case under the federal Bankruptcy Code, (4) file a petition seeking to take advantage of any other law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, liquidation, dissolution, arrangement or winding-up, or composition or readjustment of debts, (5) fail to controvert in a timely and appropriate manner, or acquiesce in writing to, any petition filed against it in an involuntary case under the Bankruptcy Code or (6) take any company action for the purpose of effecting any of the foregoing, in which event the obligations under this Agreement shall terminate immediately;

- (vi) by FNT, upon 5 years' prior written notice to FIS, which notice may not be delivered prior to the 5th anniversary of the Effective Date;
- (vii) by FIS, upon 5 years' prior written notice to FNT, which notice may not be delivered prior to the 5th anniversary of the Effective Date;
- (viii) at any time by FNT if there has been a change in control of FIS; it being understood, that for purposes of this provision, "change of control" means a reorganization, merger, share (or LLC ownership interest) exchange or consolidation, or sale or other disposition of more than 50% of the LLC ownership interests in, or all or substantially all of the assets or business of, FIS, other than a transaction in which no person or entity will have beneficial ownership, directly or indirectly, of 50% or more of the ownership interests of FIS or of the power to vote in the election of directors; or
- (ix) upon 6 months prior written notice by FNT to FIS if there has been a change in control of FNT; it being understood, that for purposes of this provision, "change of control" means a reorganization, merger, share exchange or consolidation, or sale or other disposition of more than 50% of the voting capital stock in, or all or substantially all of the assets or business of, FNT, other than a transaction in which no person or entity will have beneficial ownership, directly or indirectly, of 50% or more of the voting capital stock of FNT or of the power to vote the election of directors.

(b) Termination. Notwithstanding the above termination, in the event of termination pursuant to subparagraphs (iii), (vi), (viii) or (ix), Customers shall continue to receive access to the Starter Repository until such time as they have found a reasonably acceptable alternative to obtain the same or substantially similar benefit, but in no event longer than ninety (90) days after the initial occurrence of an uncured breach, it being understood that during such period (i) FIS shall continue to pay for such access in accordance with Section 3, and (ii) FIS will attempt to obtain an alternative means as quickly as reasonably possible.

5. OWNERSHIP AND USE

(a) Ownership. All data, information, images and other materials contained in the Starter Repository and all programs, databases, specifications, manuals and documentation relating thereto (including without limitation, compression, storage, and retrieval techniques and formats and any enhancements made thereto) are and shall remain the property of FNT or its providers. FIS agrees to treat and agrees to cause each Customer to treat all proprietary information of FNT as confidential and agrees to make it available solely to itself, the Customers, their employees or authorized representatives who have a need to know. Each Party further agrees not to make copies of the other Party's confidential information or the confidential information of Customers, and not to obscure or remove any notice of proprietary rights or confidentiality thereon. Upon termination of this Agreement, each Party shall return all confidential information of the other Party, and in the case of FNT, the confidential information of Customers, provided to it pursuant hereto.

FNT warrants that it is the owner of, or has full right to provide access to each Customer to, all of the records and data contained in the Starter Repository and all programs, databases, specifications, manuals and documentation relating thereto (including without limitation, compression, storage, and retrieval techniques and formats and any enhancements made thereto) on the terms herein.

(b) Customer Use. Records and data in the Starter Repository made available to any Customer under this Agreement are to be used by such Customer solely in accordance with the terms hereof.

(c) Use of Information. Except for PI, each Customer shall use records and data in the Starter Repository only for the purpose of issuing title insurance and other products in its ordinary course of business. Each Customer (including PI) shall make no further distribution, by sale, lease or otherwise, of any access to records and data in the Starter Repository, nor enable any third party to access or to make use of any such records or data in the Starter Repository provided to, or accessible by, Customer under this Agreement except in accordance with Customer's ordinary course of business. For the avoidance of doubt, PI, from time to time and as part of its ordinary course of business (a) distributes, sells, and leases individual Starters in connection with individual real estate search transactions, but does not and will not distribute, sell or lease Starters in bulk to third parties, and (b) provides access to and makes use of the records and data in the Starter Repository for third parties as part of its Titlepoint service framework. FNT shall make no distribution, by sale, lease or otherwise, of Customer confidential information, if any, nor enable any third party to access or to make use of any such Customer confidential information provided to, or accessible by, FNT under this Agreement.

(d) Nonexclusive Use. The Parties recognize that FNT shall continue to use the Starters and L&Vs in the usual and ordinary course of business and may furnish access to Starters and L&Vs, including the same Starters and L&Vs, to other customers.

(e) Advertisement of Use or Ownership. During the term of this Agreement, none of the Customers shall publicize that such Customer owns, possesses or controls any Starters or L&Vs or has any interest therein except such rights as are specifically granted to Customer by this Agreement.

(f) Due Care. Each Customer agrees to exercise due care in accessing the Starter Repository hereunder so as to prevent the alteration or destruction of records or data therein. Each Customer agrees that it shall be liable to FNT (or, if applicable, its providers) for loss or damage related to such alteration or destruction arising out of (i) a failure to exercise due care or (ii) an intentional, dishonest or fraudulent act of an employee of Customer.

(g) Remedy. In the event that a Customer makes any unauthorized copy or copies of records or data in the Starter Repository, or FNT ceases to provide access to the Starter Repository or the records and data in the Starter Repository in accordance with this Agreement, the Parties acknowledge and agree that: (A) remedies at law will not adequately compensate

FNT or FIS, as the case may be; (B) FNT or FIS, as the case may be, may suffer irreparable harm; and (C) FNT or FIS, as the case may be, shall be entitled, not only to its damages, but also to seek injunctive relief, without the necessity of posting bond.

6. WARRANTY EXCLUSION; DISCLAIMERS; LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

THE INPUT AND RETRIEVAL OF THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN ANY FNT COMPUTER SYSTEM IS SUBJECT TO THE RISKS OF TEMPORARY INTERRUPTION BY REASON OF EQUIPMENT OR COMMUNICATIONS FAILURE ARISING OUT OF NUMEROUS CAUSES NOT WHOLLY WITHIN THE CONTROL OF FNT; FNT IS NOT A GUARANTOR OF AND DOES NOT WARRANT UNINTERRUPTED ACCESS TO THE STARTERS, THE L&VS, THE STARTER REPOSITORY, THEIR CONTINUITY, OR SUITABILITY FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE, FREEDOM FROM ERROR OR CONVEYANCE OF MALICIOUS COMPUTER CODE.

NOTWITHSTANDING ANY PROVISION OF THIS AGREEMENT TO THE CONTRARY, FIS AGREES AND WILL CAUSE EACH CUSTOMER TO AGREE THAT FNT SHALL INCUR NO LIABILITY TO ANY CUSTOMER IN THE EVENT OF ANY DAMAGE OR DESTRUCTION TO ANY CUSTOMER COMPUTER SYSTEM OR THE COMMUNICATIONS NETWORK THROUGH WHICH SUCH CUSTOMER ACCESSES SUCH COMPUTER SYSTEM, EXCEPT ARISING OUT OF ANY FNT (i) GROSS NEGLIGENCE, (ii) WILLFUL MISCONDUCT, (iii) IMPROPER USE OR DISCLOSURE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, IF ANY, (iv) VIOLATIONS OF LAW, OR (v) INFRINGEMENT OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS OF A PERSON OR ENTITY WHO IS NOT A PARTY HERETO OR THE SUBSIDIARY OF A PARTY HERETO. FNT SHALL NOT BE REQUIRED TO RECONSTITUTE, RESTORE OR RECONSTRUCT ANY COMPUTER SYSTEM DAMAGED BY REASON OF ITS USE IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE ACCESS PROVIDED HEREUNDER, EXCEPT ARISING OUT OF ANY FNT GROSS NEGLIGENCE OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT.

ACCESS TO THE STARTER REPOSITORY AND ALL INFORMATION OBTAINED THROUGH IT, WHETHER GENERATED BY FNT OR A PROVIDER, ARE LICENSED TO EACH CUSTOMER "AS IS". FNT ASSUMES NO DUTY TO CONTINUE TO AUGMENT, CORRECT OR REMOVE ANY INACCURATE INFORMATION OR NOTIFY CUSTOMERS OF ERRORS IN THE STARTER REPOSITORY. EACH CUSTOMER ASSUMES FULL RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE TANGIBLE AND BUSINESS RESULTS OF USE AND/OR RELIANCE UPON THE STARTER REPOSITORY AND ANY OTHER FNT PROPERTY. NEITHER FNT NOR ITS PROVIDERS MAKE ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OR REPRESENTATION, INCLUDING WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF STARTERS, L&VS, STARTER REPOSITORY OR ANY OTHER FNT PROPERTY MADE AVAILABLE TO ANY CUSTOMER IN TANGIBLE, ELECTRONIC OR OTHER FORM.

DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITIES. EACH PARTY AGREES THAT IN NO EVENT SHALL THE OTHER PARTY BE LIABLE FOR ANY SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES, EVEN IF THE OTHER PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. NEITHER FNT NOR ANY PROVIDER ASSUMES LIABILITY, AND SHALL NOT BE HELD LIABLE, TO ANY CUSTOMER OR TO ANY CUSTOMER'S CUSTOMERS OR INSUREDS, OR TO ANY OTHER PERSON, WHO MAY RELY UPON ANY TITLE POLICY, BINDER, GUARANTEE, ENDORSEMENT OR OTHER TITLE ASSURANCE, OR ANY STARTERS, ANY L&VS, OR OTHER FNT PROPERTY PROVIDED OR ACCESSED HEREUNDER (INCLUDING BY REASON OF ERROR OR OMISSION IN ANY INFORMATION OR RESULTING FROM THE USE OF ANY FNT PROPERTY).

7. INDEMNITY

FIS shall indemnify and cause each Customer to indemnify and hold FNT harmless from claims, liability, loss, damage or expense of whatever nature, including attorney's fees, arising as a result of any claims by third parties alleging or founded in any manner on any errors or omissions in the records or data contained in the Starter Repository. If such a claim is asserted, FNT shall promptly notify FIS and the applicable Customer and, in the event of such notification, FIS and such Customer may elect to defend FNT in any resulting action or litigation. FIS and such applicable Customer may use for such purpose counsel of such FIS' or Customer's choosing, approved in writing by FNT, at FIS' or the Customer's expense. FIS and such Customer shall also have the right, whether or not any action or litigation results, to compromise or settle any monetary claim on behalf of FNT, but at the sole cost of FIS or such Customer.

FNT shall indemnify and hold each Customer harmless from claims, liability, loss, damage or expense of whatever nature, including attorney's fees, arising as a result of any claims by third parties alleging or founded in any manner on the warranties contained in Section 5(a). If such a claim is asserted, such Customer shall promptly notify FNT and, in the event of such notification, FNT may elect to defend such Customer in any resulting action or litigation. FNT may use for such purpose counsel of FNT's choosing, approved in writing by such Customer, at FNT's expense. FNT shall also have the right, whether or not any action or litigation results, to compromise or settle any monetary claim on behalf of such Customer, but at the sole cost of FNT.

In the event that any provider of records or data to the Starter Repository or other information to FNT fails to deliver (or delays the delivery of) such material or information, or if any provider materially and adversely modifies the conditions or cost to FNT of obtaining such material or information, then FNT, at its option, may suspend or terminate its relationship with such provider and any obligations to any Customer under this Agreement, upon no less than thirty (30) days written notice. FNT may contract for an alternate source of the same or similar records or data for the Starter Repository and, notwithstanding any contrary provision of this Agreement, increase the applicable fees or charges upon no less than thirty (30) days written notice, or a combination of the foregoing. FNT will incur no liability to any Customer with respect to any action or omission under this Section. In the event that a Customer receives a notice pursuant to this Section substituting records or data or access thereto or increasing the price thereof, then FIS may terminate such access if it notifies FNT within thirty (30) days after receipt of notice from FNT regarding such data or access thereto.

8. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

(a) Dispute Resolution. If any Party institutes an action against the other for breach of this Agreement, either Party may, within sixty (60) days of service of the complaint in such action upon it, institute arbitration and the other Party shall cooperate to stay any other proceedings. Any such arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the Rules of Commercial Arbitration of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"). The arbitration shall be conducted in Jacksonville, Florida by a single arbitrator knowledgeable about title insurance and contracts. If the Parties have not agreed to a mutually acceptable arbitrator within thirty (30) days of the date of the notice to arbitrate, the arbitrator shall be selected by the AAA from its regularly maintained list of commercial arbitrators familiar with matters similar to the subject of this Agreement. The arbitrator shall conduct a single hearing for the purpose of receiving evidence and shall render a decision within thirty (30) days of the conclusion of the hearing. The Parties shall be entitled to require production of documents prior to the hearing in accordance with the procedures of the Federal Rule of Civil Procedure, shall exchange a list of witnesses, and shall be entitled to conduct up to five (5) depositions in accordance with the procedures of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The decision of the arbitrator shall be binding and final. The arbitrator may award only compensatory damages, and not exemplary or punitive damages. In the event a Party asserts multiple claims or causes of action, some but not all of which are subject to arbitration under law, any and all claims subject to arbitration shall be submitted to arbitration in accordance with this provision.

(b) Attorneys' Fees and Costs. Each Party shall bear its own costs, expenses and attorneys' fees and shall equally bear the costs of the arbitrator.

(c) Parties to the Dispute. FIS agrees that it alone shall, to the extent it is legally and reasonably able to do so, institute an action for breach of this Agreement against FNT on behalf of itself or on behalf of Customers. FIS shall cause each Customer to agree that FIS shall be the sole entity to institute an action for breach of this Agreement by FNT.

9. DISASTER OR OTHER INTERRUPTION OF SERVICE

FNT shall not be held liable for any delay or failure in performance of any part of this Agreement from any cause beyond its reasonable control and without its fault or negligence, including, but not limited to, acts of God, acts of civil or military authority, embargoes, epidemics, war, terrorist acts, riots, insurrections, fires, explosions, earthquakes, nuclear accidents, floods, strikes, terrorism and power blackouts. Upon the occurrence of a condition described in this Article that prevents FNT's performance, FNT shall give written notice to FIS, and the Parties shall promptly confer, in good faith, to agree upon equitable, reasonable action to minimize the impact, on both Parties, of such conditions.

10. COMPETITION

This Agreement shall not operate to deny either Party or the Customers the right and opportunity to compete with each other, or to compete on an equal basis on the open market. Nothing contained in this Agreement is to be deemed to make any Party the agent of the other or to constitute an association, partnership or joint liability between the Parties. The Parties have no intention or thought to agree between themselves, or even to confer together, as to underwriting methods, as to fees or premiums to be charged by them to their customers, or as to any other processes or practices of either Party except as otherwise stated or prescribed by any Issuing Agency Agreement entered into between the Parties or, if applicable, their affiliates.

11. COMPLIANCE BY CUSTOMERS

FIS has the authority to cause and shall cause each other Customer to comply with the terms of this Agreement.

12. MISCELLANEOUS

(a) Interpretation. This Agreement is to be construed under the laws of the State of Florida. If any one or more of the terms, provisions, promises, covenants or conditions of this Agreement, or their application to any person, corporation, other business entity, or circumstance is to any extent adjudged invalid, unenforceable, void or voidable for any reason by a court of competent jurisdiction, each and all of the remaining terms, provisions, promises, covenants and conditions of this Agreement and their application to other persons, corporations, business entities, or circumstances shall not be affected and shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law. This Agreement shall not be construed against the Party preparing it, but shall be construed as if both Parties prepared this Agreement. The headings of each section and paragraph are to assist in reference only and are not to be used in the interpretation of this Agreement. Nothing contained in this Agreement is to be deemed to constitute an association, partnership or joint liability between the Parties.

(b) No Assignment or Transfer. This Agreement cannot be assigned, in whole or in part, by either Party by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the other Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Any assignment in contravention of this Section shall be void.

(c) Benefit. This Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. This Agreement is solely for the benefit of the Parties hereto and no third party will have the right or claim to the benefits afforded either Party hereunder.

(d) Compliance with Laws and Regulations. FIS agrees to use and agrees to cause each Customer to use information received from FNT in compliance with all applicable Federal, State and local laws and regulations, including without limitation, Fair Credit Reporting Act (U.S.C.A. Title 15, Chapter 41, Subchapter III), as amended from time to time.

(e) Survival. Following the expiration or termination of this Agreement, whether by its terms, operation of law or otherwise, all terms, provisions or conditions required for the interpretation of this Agreement or necessary for the full observation and performance by each Party hereto of all rights and obligations arising prior to the date of expiration or termination, shall survive such expiration or termination.

(f) Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties pertaining to the subject matter hereof and supersedes and integrates all prior and contemporaneous agreements, representations and understandings of the Parties, oral and written, pertaining to the subject matter hereof. No waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement is to be considered a waiver of any other provision, whether or not similar, nor is any waiver to constitute a continuing waiver. No waiver shall be binding unless set forth in a writing executed by the Party making the waiver. This Agreement may be executed simultaneously in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

(g) Amendments. Except for (x) any deletion of a Customer from Exhibit A because the Customer is no longer a direct or indirect subsidiary of FIS (which deletion and the termination of rights under this Agreement as to that Customer shall be automatic upon the change of ownership of such Customer), (y) any annual increases in the fees described in Exhibit B, as expressly permitted pursuant to Section 3(a), no supplement, modification, or amendment of this Agreement or any Schedules or Exhibits hereto shall be binding unless executed in writing by the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time prior to the Sale of FIS or any IPO (as herein defined), this Agreement may not be amended without the prior written consent of THL and TPG (as herein defined) if such amendment would affect the term of this Agreement under Section 4 or FNT's right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 4, or the rights upon default by FIS or Customer(s) pursuant to Section 4, or Sections 2, 5 or 7, or Section 3 or Exhibit B (except for the annual increases expressly authorized by Section 3), in each case in any manner materially adverse to consolidated business activities of FIS and its Subsidiaries, on a consolidated basis (the "FIS Group"), taken as a whole, or FIS Group's costs of doing business, viewed on a consolidated basis, provided that in no event shall any change to the exhibits and schedules require such prior written consent unless such change would materially and adversely affect in any manner FIS Group's consolidated business activities, taken as a whole, or FIS Group's costs of doing business, viewed on a consolidated basis, and provided, further, that in no event shall the amendment provisions set forth in this Section 12(g) be amended or modified without the consent of THL and TPG. THL and TPG are intended third party beneficiaries of this Agreement solely with respect to this Section 12(g). For purposes of this Agreement, (i) "THL" means Thomas H. Lee Equity Fund V, L.P. and "TPG" means TPG Partners III, L.P.; and (ii) "Sale of FIS or any IPO" means any of the following: (A) an acquisition by any Person (within the meaning of Section 3(a)(9) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") and used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) thereof ("Person")) of Beneficial Ownership (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act ("Beneficial Ownership")) of 50% or more of either the then outstanding shares of FIS common stock or the combined voting power of the then outstanding voting securities of FIS entitled to vote generally in the election of directors; excluding, however, the following: (I) any acquisition directly from FIS, other than an acquisition by virtue of the exercise of a conversion privilege unless the security being so converted was itself acquired directly from FIS or (II) any acquisition by any employee benefit plan (or related trust) sponsored or maintained by FIS or a member of the FIS Group, or (B) an offering and sale to the public of any shares or equity securities of FIS or any of its subsidiaries pursuant to a registration statement in the United States.

(h) Schedules. Each of the Schedules, Addenda and Exhibits attached to this Agreement (initially or by way of amendment) is incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.

(i) Notices. All written notices permitted or required to be given under this Agreement may be personally delivered to the office of the other Party, or shipped via a nationally recognized overnight courier service, or mailed to the office of the other Party by Certified United States Mail, or sent by electronic mail. Each notice shall be addressed to the address set forth under the Party's signature. Any notice delivered hereunder will be effective on the date delivered when delivered personally or by overnight courier, or on the third business day after mailing if mailed by Certified United States Mail, or on the date delivered when sent by electronic mail. Either Party may, by written notice to the other via first class mail, change its address for notices.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have executed this Agreement as of the Effective Date.

BACK PLANT REPOSITORY ACCESS AGREEMENT

This Back Plant Repository Access Agreement (this "Agreement"), effective as of _____, 2005 (the "Effective Date"), between FIDELITY NATIONAL TITLE GROUP, INC., a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at 601 Riverside Avenue, Jacksonville, FL 32204 ("FNT"), for itself on behalf of its direct and indirect subsidiaries; and FIDELITY NATIONAL INFORMATION SERVICES, INC., a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at 601 Riverside Avenue, Jacksonville, FL 32204 ("FIS"), for itself on behalf of those of its direct and indirect subsidiaries as are listed on Exhibit A hereto (each a "Customer" and collectively, the "Customers"). FNT and FIS shall hereinafter be referred to as a "Party" and collectively, as the "Parties."

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, FNT and its subsidiaries own and maintain a collection (collectively hereinafter referred to as the "Back Plants") of non-electronic records, indexes and data, and copies of documents, affecting or purporting to affect title to real property and other material which are recorded or filed in the offices of various county recorders and county clerks in the states indicated on Exhibit B; and

WHEREAS, the Customers wish to have access, and FNT is willing to provide such access, to the Back Plants, subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein; and

WHEREAS, FIS previously entered into a Back Plant Repository Agreement dated March 4, 2005 (the "FNF Agreement") with Fidelity National Financial, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("FNF"), as the parent company of FNT and its subsidiaries, for access to the Back Plants by the Customers; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to an Assignment and Assumption Agreement of even date herewith between FNF and FNT, FNT has assumed, with the consent of FIS, all of FNF's rights and obligations under the FNF Agreement; and

WHEREAS, FIS and FNT wish to enter into a novation of the rights and obligations under the FNF Agreement, as assumed by and assigned to FNT, so that FNT is the clear party in interest with respect to the Back Plants, as more particularly described herein;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties, intending to be legally bound hereby, agree as follows:

1. CERTAIN DEFINITIONS.

A "Back Plant" or collectively, the "Back Plants" has the meaning set forth above.

A "Customer" means each of FIS and each user identified on Exhibit A hereto so long as such user is a direct or indirect subsidiary of FIS; it being understood that, upon 30 days' prior written notice, FIS may from time to time amend Exhibit A to add one or more of its other direct or indirect subsidiaries of FIS and such added subsidiary shall become a "Customer" hereunder effective as of the 30th day after such prior notice is delivered to FNT.

A "Customer Back Plant Retrieval" means any instance when a Back Plant is accessed by a Customer for viewing, data retrieval and/or copying, which may include the physical retrieval of microfiche, microfilm, index cards, paper documents or other media containing information within the Back Plant Documents as well as the copying thereof.

A "FNT Back Plant Retrieval" means any instance when a Back Plant is accessed by representatives of FNT or any of its subsidiaries based upon a request by Customer for data retrieval and/or copying, which may include the physical retrieval of microfiche, microfilm, index cards, paper documents or other media containing information within the Back Plant Documents as well as the copying and forwarding thereof.

An "Issuing Agency Agreement" is an agreement pursuant to which an entity is designated as a title agent, authorized to write title business for a principal.

2. ACCESS.

(a) Access. FNT hereby grants to each Customer non-exclusive access to the Back Plants of FNT and its subsidiaries in the states indicated on Exhibit B, subject to the provisions hereof. It is understood and agreed that, during the first year of this Agreement, FNT shall provide access availability to the Back Plant Repositories in a nature and quality reasonably comparable to the access availability provided by FNT on or about the date of this Agreement.

(b) Format. The data and materials included in the Back Plant Repositories are generally maintained in non-electronic physical (i.e., "hard copy") formats or older media systems (such as microfiche). FNT will maintain the Back Plant Repositories in the same or similar format as is used as of the date of this Agreement, as modified or updated as determined from time to time by FNT. FNT reserves the right to modify any such format or medium, or update or replace the format or medium, from time to time, subject to the reasonable notification contemporaneous with the implementation of the modification or update.

(c) Security. In connection with a Customer Back Plant Retrieval hereunder, FNT may establish security systems, key cards, locks and keys and other means for securing each of the Back Plants. In such event, a Customer shall be responsible for (i) maintaining securely the codes, passwords, keys or other means of access to each Back Plant. In the event of a security breach or unauthorized access to any Back Plant discovered by a Customer, such Customer agrees to contact FNT immediately upon discovering such a breach. If the breach or unauthorized access is caused by, or is the result of security lapses on the part of, a Customer, such Customer shall be responsible for the results of (and any costs incurred as a result of) any such unauthorized access until notice of such a security breach is given to FNT unless the Customer can demonstrate that it took commercially reasonable precautions to secure and safe-keep its access to the Back Plant. FNT reserves the right to check the security of Customer access from time to time and if FNT finds that Customer access is unsecure or could become unsecure, FNT shall immediately notify Customer(s) and work with Customer(s) to implement an appropriate security access procedure. Each Customer agrees to not (i) attempt to bypass any security mechanisms in place for any Back Plant, or (ii) use any FNT system or service to attempt to bypass any security mechanisms in place on any other FNT system, including, but not limited to, attempting to access a system that such Customer knows or reasonably should know it is not authorized to access in the manner or to the extent attempted.

FNT or any applicable Subsidiary may refuse Back Plant access to a representative of FIS or any Customer for reasonable cause including, without limitation, use of the Back Plant for purposes not covered by the Agreement, destroying or vandalizing records, or abuse of personnel or facilities of FNT or its subsidiaries.

3. FEES AND PAYMENT

There shall be no fees payable by FIS to FNT for any Customer Back Plant Retrieval or FNT Back Plant Retrieval by the Customers; provided, however, that FIS shall pay, or reimburse FNT for the payment of, all out of pocket charges, costs or expenses that FNT may incur in connection with granting the access to the FNT Back Plants as contemplated hereby or performing its obligations under Section 2, including assisting in any Customer Back Plant Retrieval or FNT Back Plant Retrieval, such as fees payable to local land recording offices or other search services, and reproduction and transmittal and shipping costs; and provided, further that FIS shall pay, or reimburse FNT for the payment of, all sales, use, personal property or other similar taxes or any government charges imposed on the transactions hereunder, exclusive of corporate income or franchise taxes based on FNT's net income. All such payments and reimbursements shall be paid by FIS promptly upon demand from FNT.

4. TERM AND TERMINATION

(a) Term. Unless sooner terminated in accordance with the provisions hereof, this Agreement shall continue in effect. Subject to Section 5(c), the obligations under this Agreement may be terminated by any of the following means (each a "Termination Event"):

- (i) at any time by mutual agreement of the parties hereto, in which event the obligations under this Agreement shall terminate as of the date specified by the parties;
- (ii) at any time by FNT, if FIS or the Customers breach any material warranty or fails to perform any material obligation hereunder, and such breach is not remedied within 30 days after written notice thereof to FIS that is in default, in which event the obligations under this Agreement shall terminate on the 20th business day following the expiration of such 30-day cure period; provided that if the breach or default is of a nature that it cannot reasonably be cured within a 30-day period and FIS is actively pursuing a cure in good faith, then no default shall be deemed to have occurred so long as the default is cured as promptly as reasonably possible and in any event prior to the first anniversary of the occurrence of such default;

- (iii) at any time by FIS, if FNT breaches any material warranty or fails to perform any material obligation owing hereunder, and such breach is not remedied within 30 days after written notice thereof to FNT, in which event the obligations under this Agreement shall terminate on the 20th business day following the expiration of such 30-day cure period; provided that if the breach or default is of a nature that it cannot reasonably be cured within a 30-day period and FNT is actively pursuing a cure in good faith, then no default shall be deemed to have occurred so long as the default is cured as promptly as reasonably possible and in any event prior to the first anniversary of the occurrence of such default;
- (iv) at any time by FNT, if FIS shall admit in writing its inability to, or be generally unable to, pay its debts as such debts become due, or shall (1) apply for or consent to the appointment of, or the taking of possession by, a receiver, custodian, trustee, examiner or liquidator of itself or of all or a substantial part of its property or assets, (2) make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors, (3) commence a voluntary case under the federal Bankruptcy Code, (4) file a petition seeking to take advantage of any other law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, liquidation, dissolution, arrangement or winding-up, or composition or readjustment of debts, (5) fail to controvert in a timely and appropriate manner, or acquiesce in writing to, any petition filed against it in an involuntary case under the Bankruptcy Code or (6) take any company action for the purpose of effecting any of the foregoing, in which event the obligations under this Agreement shall terminate immediately;
- (v) at any time by FIS, if FNT shall admit in writing its inability to, or be generally unable to, pay its debts as such debts become due, or shall (1) apply for or consent to the appointment of, or the taking of possession by, a receiver, custodian, trustee, examiner or liquidator of itself or of all or a substantial part of its property or assets, (2) make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors, (3) commence a voluntary case under the federal Bankruptcy Code, (4) file a petition seeking to take advantage of any other law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, liquidation, dissolution, arrangement or winding-up, or composition or readjustment of debts, (5) fail to controvert in a timely and appropriate manner, or acquiesce in writing to, any petition filed against it in an involuntary case under the Bankruptcy Code or (6) take any company action for the purpose of effecting any of the foregoing, in which event the obligations under this Agreement shall terminate immediately;
- (vi) (vi) by FNT, upon 5 years' prior written notice to FIS given at any time on or after the 5th anniversary of the Effective Date;

- (vii) by FIS, upon 5 years' prior written notice to FNT given at any time on or after the 5th anniversary of the Effective Date;
- (viii) at any time by FNT if there has been a change in control of FIS; it being understood, that for purposes of this provision, "change of control" means a reorganization, merger, share (or LLC ownership interest) exchange or consolidation, or sale or other disposition of more than 50% of the LLC ownership interests in, or all or substantially all of the assets or business of, FIS, other than a transaction in which no person or entity will have beneficial ownership, directly or indirectly, of 50% or more of the ownership interests of FIS or of the power to vote in the election of directors; or
- (ix) upon 6 months prior written notice by FNT to FIS if there has been a change in control of FNT; it being understood, that for purposes of this provision, "change of control" means a reorganization, merger, share exchange or consolidation, or sale or other disposition of more than 50% of the voting capital stock in, or all or substantially all of the assets or business of, FNT, other than a transaction in which no person or entity will have beneficial ownership, directly or indirectly, of 50% or more of the voting capital stock of FNT or of the power to vote the election of directors.

(b) Termination. Notwithstanding the above termination, in the event of a Termination Event pursuant to subparagraphs (iii), (vi), (viii) or (ix), Customers shall continue to receive access to the Back Plants until such time as they have found a reasonably acceptable alternative to obtain the same or substantially similar benefit, but in no event longer than ninety (90) days after the later of (x) the date on which the Termination Event occurs or (y) the date on which the termination is effective (after giving effect to all notice periods, waiting periods and grace periods expressly provided for herein), it being understood that during such period (i) FIS shall continue to pay for, or reimburse FNT its payment of, out of pocket costs and government charges in accordance with Section 3, and (ii) FIS will attempt to obtain an alternative means as quickly as reasonably possible.

5. OWNERSHIP AND USE

(a) Ownership. All data, information, images and other materials contained in the Back Plants and all documentation relating thereto are and shall remain the property of FNT. FIS agrees to treat and agrees to cause each Customer to treat all proprietary information of FNT as confidential and agrees to make it available solely to itself, the Customers, their employees or authorized representatives who have a need to know. Each Party further agrees not to make copies of the other Party's confidential information or the confidential information of Customers, and not to obscure or remove any notice of proprietary rights or confidentiality thereon. Upon termination of this Agreement, each Party shall return all confidential information of the other Party, and in the case of FNT, the confidential information of Customers, provided to it pursuant hereto. FNT warrants that it is the owner of, or has full right to provide access to each Customer to, all of the records and data contained in the Back Plants and documentation relating thereto on the terms herein.

(b) Customer Use of Back Plant and Back Plant Information. Access to the Back Plants hereunder, and the records and data in the Back Plants made available to any Customer under this Agreement, are to be used by such Customer solely in accordance with the terms hereof. Each Customer shall use records and data in the Back Plants only for the purpose of issuing title insurance and other products in its ordinary course of business. Each Customer shall make no further distribution, by sale, lease or otherwise, of any access to records and data in the Back Plants, nor enable any third party to access or to make use of any such records or data in the Back Plants provided to, or accessible by, Customer under this Agreement except in accordance with Customer's ordinary course of business. FNT shall make no distribution, by sale, lease or otherwise, of Customer confidential information, if any, nor enable any third party to access or to make use of any such Customer confidential information provided to, or accessible by, FNT under this Agreement except in accordance with FNT's ordinary course of business.

(c) Closing or Sale of Back Plants. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall obligate FNT to maintain any Back Plant for any length of time. Without limiting the foregoing, the parties agree as follows:

- (i) in the event that FNT (or its applicable subsidiary) has determined (for reasons unrelated to the Back Plants and this Agreement) to close an office of FNT (or its subsidiary) that has a Back Plant located on the premises thereof or as part of such office, and as part of such closing the related Back Plant will also be closed and no longer available, then, to the extent reasonably possible without incurring significant additional expenditures, the parties will work together to cause FIS and the Customers to obtain access to another FNT Back Plant that can provide substantially similar information to that available under the closing Back Plant Repository.
- (ii) in the event that FNT (or its applicable subsidiary) has determined (for reasons unrelated to the Back Plants and this Agreement) to close an office of FNT (or its subsidiary) that has a Back Plant located on the premises thereof or as part of such office, and that it is either (1) not possible, without incurring significant additional expenditures for FIS and the Customers, to obtain access to another FNT Back Plant that can provide substantially similar information to that available under the closing Back Plant or (2) not available from FNT (or any of its applicable subsidiaries), then at the time of the closure of such office, FNT shall allow FIS (or its designee) to physically transfer such Back Plant to a location of FIS or a Customer. During the time such Back Plant is maintained on the premises FIS or a Customer (a) no Access Fees shall be due or payable for retrievals therefrom; and (b) FIS or a Customer shall maintain such Back Plant in the condition existing at the time of the physical transfer. Upon six (6) months written notice, FNT may obtain, at FNT's sole cost and expense, the physical return of such Back Plant and thereafter for any remaining term of this Agreement, shall be entitled to any applicable Access Fees hereunder.

- (iii) in the event that FNT (or its applicable subsidiary) has determined to sell an office of FNT (or its subsidiary) that has a Back Plant located on the premises thereof or as part of such office, then prior to the consummation of such sale, FIS (or its Customer designee) shall be entitled, at its sole cost and expense, to receive from FNT a true, correct and complete copy of the Back Plant being so sold; provided, however, that FIS hereby agrees that it shall not sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of such Back Plant for a period of two years following the date on which the copy was received (other than transfers to wholly-owned subsidiaries of FIS).

(d) Nonexclusive Use. The Parties recognize that FNT shall continue to use the Back Plants in the usual and ordinary course of business and may furnish access to Back Plants, including the same Back Plants, to other customers.

(e) Advertisement of Use or Ownership. During the term of this Agreement, none of the Customers shall publicize that such Customer owns, possesses or controls any Back Plants or has any interest therein except such rights as are specifically granted to Customer by this Agreement.

(f) Due Care. Each Customer agrees to exercise due care in accessing the Back Plants hereunder so as to prevent the alteration or destruction of records or data therein. Each Customer agrees that it shall be liable to FNT (or, if applicable, its providers) for loss or damage related to such alteration or destruction arising out of (i) a failure to exercise due care or (ii) an intentional, dishonest or fraudulent act of an employee of Customer.

(g) Remedy. In the event that a Customer makes any unauthorized copy or copies of records or data in any Back Plant, or FNT ceases to provide access to the Back Plants or the records and data in the Back Plants in accordance with this Agreement, the Parties acknowledge and agree that: (A) remedies at law will not adequately compensate FNT or FIS, as the case may be; (B) FNT or FIS, as the case may be, may suffer irreparable harm; and (C) FNT or FIS, as the case may be, shall be entitled, not only to its damages, but also to seek injunctive relief, without the necessity of posting bond.

6. WARRANTY EXCLUSION; DISCLAIMERS; LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

(a) WARRANTY EXCLUSION. ACCESS TO THE BACK PLANTS AND ALL INFORMATION OBTAINED THROUGH THEM, WHETHER GENERATED BY FNT OR A PROVIDER, ARE LICENSED TO EACH CUSTOMER "AS IS". FNT ASSUMES NO DUTY TO CONTINUE TO AUGMENT, CORRECT OR REMOVE ANY INACCURATE INFORMATION OR NOTIFY CUSTOMERS OF ERRORS IN THE BACK PLANTS. EACH CUSTOMER ASSUMES FULL RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE TANGIBLE AND BUSINESS RESULTS OF USE AND/OR RELIANCE UPON THE BACK PLANTS AND ANY OTHER FNT PROPERTY. NEITHER FNT NOR ITS PROVIDERS MAKE ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OR REPRESENTATION, INCLUDING WARRANTIES OF

MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF BACK PLANTS, OR ANY OTHER FNT PROPERTY MADE AVAILABLE TO ANY CUSTOMER.

(b) DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITIES. EACH PARTY AGREES THAT IN NO EVENT SHALL THE OTHER PARTY BE LIABLE FOR ANY SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES, EVEN IF THE OTHER PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. NEITHER FNT NOR ANY PROVIDER ASSUMES LIABILITY, AND SHALL NOT BE HELD LIABLE, TO ANY CUSTOMER OR TO ANY CUSTOMER'S CUSTOMERS OR INSUREDS, OR TO ANY OTHER PERSON, WHO MAY RELY UPON ANY TITLE POLICY, BINDER, GUARANTEE, ENDORSEMENT OR OTHER TITLE ASSURANCE, OR ANY BACK PLANTS OR OTHER FNT PROPERTY PROVIDED OR ACCESSED HEREUNDER (INCLUDING BY REASON OF ERROR OR OMISSION IN ANY INFORMATION OR RESULTING FROM THE USE OF ANY FNT PROPERTY).

7. INDEMNITY

FIS shall indemnify and cause each Customer to indemnify and hold FNT harmless from claims, liability, loss, damage or expense of whatever nature, including attorney's fees, arising as a result of any claims by third parties alleging or founded in any manner on any errors or omissions in the records or data contained in the Back Plants. If such a claim is asserted, FNT shall promptly notify FIS and the applicable Customer and, in the event of such notification, FIS and such Customer may elect to defend FNT in any resulting action or litigation. FIS and such applicable Customer may use for such purpose counsel of such FIS' or Customer's choosing, approved in writing by FNT, at FIS' or the Customer's expense. FIS and such Customer shall also have the right, whether or not any action or litigation results, to compromise or settle any monetary claim on behalf of FNT, but at the sole cost of FIS or such Customer.

FNT shall indemnify and hold each Customer harmless from claims, liability, loss, damage or expense of whatever nature, including attorney's fees, arising as a result of any claims by third parties alleging or founded in any manner on the warranties contained in Section 5(a). If such a claim is asserted, such Customer shall promptly notify FNT and, in the event of such notification, FNT may elect to defend such Customer in any resulting action or litigation. FNT may use for such purpose counsel of FNT's choosing, approved in writing by such Customer, at FNT's expense. FNT shall also have the right, whether or not any action or litigation results, to compromise or settle any monetary claim on behalf of such Customer, but at the sole cost of FNT.

8. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

(a) Dispute Resolution. If any Party institutes an action against the other for breach of this Agreement, either Party may, within sixty (60) days of service of the complaint in such action upon it, institute arbitration and the other Party shall cooperate to stay any other proceedings. Any such arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the Rules of Commercial Arbitration of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"). The arbitration shall be conducted in Jacksonville, Florida by a single arbitrator knowledgeable about title insurance and contracts. If the Parties have not agreed to a mutually acceptable arbitrator within thirty (30) days of the date of the notice to arbitrate, the arbitrator shall be selected by the AAA from its regularly maintained list of commercial arbitrators familiar with matters similar to the subject of this Agreement. The arbitrator shall conduct a single hearing for the purpose of receiving evidence and shall render a decision within thirty (30) days of the conclusion of the hearing. The Parties shall be entitled to require production of documents prior to the hearing in accordance with the procedures of the Federal Rule of Civil Procedure, shall exchange a list of witnesses, and shall be entitled to conduct up to five (5) depositions in accordance with the procedures of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The decision of the arbitrator shall be binding and final. The arbitrator may award only compensatory damages, and not exemplary or punitive damages. In the event a Party asserts multiple claims or causes of action, some but not all of which are subject to arbitration under law, any and all claims subject to arbitration shall be submitted to arbitration in accordance with this provision.

(b) Attorneys' Fees and Costs. Each Party shall bear its own costs, expenses and attorneys' fees and shall equally bear the costs of the arbitrator.

(c) Parties to the Dispute. FIS agrees that it alone shall, to the extent it is legally and reasonably able to do so, institute an action for breach of this Agreement against FNT on behalf of itself or on behalf of Customers. FIS shall cause each Customer to agree that FIS shall be the sole entity to institute an action for breach of this Agreement by FNT.

9. DISASTER OR OTHER INTERRUPTION OF SERVICE

FNT shall not be held liable for any delay or failure in performance of any part of this Agreement from any cause beyond its reasonable control and without its fault or negligence, including, but not limited to, acts of God, acts of civil or military authority, embargoes, epidemics, war, terrorist acts, riots, insurrections, fires, explosions, earthquakes, nuclear accidents, floods, strikes, terrorism and power blackouts. Upon the occurrence of a condition described in this Article that prevents FNT's performance, FNT shall give written notice to FIS, and the Parties shall promptly confer, in good faith, to agree upon equitable, reasonable action to minimize the impact, on both Parties, of such conditions.

10. COMPETITION

This Agreement shall not operate to deny either Party or the Customers the right and opportunity to compete with each other, or to compete on an equal basis on the open market. Nothing contained in this Agreement is to be deemed to make any Party the agent of the other or to constitute an association, partnership or joint liability between the Parties. The Parties have no intention or thought to agree between themselves, or even to confer together, as to underwriting methods, as to fees or premiums to be charged by them to their customers, or as to any other processes or practices of either Party except as otherwise stated or prescribed by any Issuing Agency Agreement entered into between the Parties or, if applicable, their affiliates.

11. COMPLIANCE BY CUSTOMERS

FIS has the authority to cause and shall cause each other Customer to comply with the terms of this Agreement.

12. MISCELLANEOUS

(a) Interpretation. This Agreement is to be construed under the laws of the State of Florida. If any one or more of the terms, provisions, promises, covenants or conditions of this Agreement, or their application to any person, corporation, other business entity, or circumstance is to any extent adjudged invalid, unenforceable, void or voidable for any reason by a court of competent jurisdiction, each and all of the remaining terms, provisions, promises, covenants and conditions of this Agreement and their application to other persons, corporations, business entities, or circumstances shall not be affected and shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law. This Agreement shall not be construed against the Party preparing it, but shall be construed as if both Parties prepared this Agreement. The headings of each section and paragraph are to assist in reference only and are not to be used in the interpretation of this Agreement. Nothing contained in this Agreement is to be deemed to constitute an association, partnership or joint liability between the Parties.

(b) No Assignment or Transfer. This Agreement cannot be assigned, in whole or in part, by either Party by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the other Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Any assignment in contravention of this Section shall be void.

(c) Benefit. This Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. This Agreement is solely for the benefit of the Parties hereto and no third party will have the right or claim to the benefits afforded either Party hereunder.

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties pertaining to the subject matter hereof and supersedes and integrates all prior and contemporaneous agreements, representations and understandings of the Parties, oral and written, pertaining to the subject matter hereof. No waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement is to be considered a waiver of any other provision, whether or not similar, nor is any waiver to constitute a continuing waiver. No waiver shall be binding unless set forth in a writing executed by the Party making the waiver. This Agreement may be executed simultaneously in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

(g) Amendments. Except for any deletion of a Customer from Exhibit A because the Customer is no longer a direct or indirect subsidiary of FIS (which deletion and the termination of rights under this Agreement as to that Customer shall be automatic upon the change of ownership of such Customer), no supplement, modification, or amendment of this Agreement or any Schedules or Exhibits hereto shall be binding unless executed in writing by the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time prior to the Sale of FIS or any IPO (as herein defined), this Agreement may not be amended without the prior written consent of THL and TPG (as herein defined) if such amendment would affect the term of this Agreement under Section 4 or FNT's right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 4, or the rights upon default by FIS or Customer(s) pursuant to Section 4, or Sections 2, 3, 5, 6 or 7 or Exhibit C, in each case in any manner materially adverse to FIS Group's consolidated business activities, taken as a whole, or FIS Group's costs of doing business, viewed on a consolidated basis, provided that in no event shall any change to the schedules hereto require such prior written consent unless such change would materially and adversely affect in any manner FIS Group's consolidated business activities, taken as a whole, or FIS Group's costs of doing business, viewed on a consolidated basis, and provided, further, that in no event shall the amendment provisions set forth in this Section 12(g) be amended or modified without the consent of THL and TPG. WHEREAS, a condition to the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement required that FIS and FNF enter into certain Intercompany Agreements (as defined in the Stock Purchase Agreement), and that the form and substance of such Intercompany Agreements be satisfactory to the Parties and the representatives of the Purchasers; and

8. CONFIDENTIALITY.

8.1. CONFIDENTIALITY OBLIGATION. Proprietary Information (i) shall be deemed the property of the disclosing party (or the party for whom such data was collected or processed, if any), (ii) shall be used solely for the purposes of administering and otherwise implementing the terms of this Agreement and any ancillary agreements, and (iii) shall be protected by the receiving party in accordance with the terms of this Section.

8.2. NON-DISCLOSURE COVENANT. Except as set forth in this Section, neither party shall disclose the Proprietary Information of the other party in whole or in part, including derivations, to any third party. If the parties agree to a specific nondisclosure period for a specific document, the disclosing party shall mark the document with that nondisclosure period. In the absence of a specific period, the duty of confidentiality for LSI Processes and Documentation shall extend in perpetuity. Proprietary Information shall be held in confidence by the receiving party and its employees, and shall be disclosed to only those of the receiving party's employees and professional advisors who have a need for it in connection with the administration and implementation of this Agreement. In no event shall FNT disclose FIS Proprietary Information to a Competitor of FIS. Each party shall use the same degree of care and afford the same protections to the Proprietary Information of the other party as it uses and affords to its own Proprietary Information of a similar nature.

8.3. EXCEPTIONS. Proprietary Information shall not be deemed proprietary and, subject to the carve-out below, the receiving party shall have no obligation of nondisclosure with respect to any such information which:

- (a) is or becomes publicly known through no wrongful act, fault or negligence of the receiving party;

8.4. CONFIDENTIALITY OF THIS AGREEMENT; PROTECTIVE ARRANGEMENTS.

- (a) The parties acknowledge that this Agreement contains confidential information that may be considered proprietary by one or both of the parties, and agree to limit distribution of this Agreement to those employees of FNT and FIS with a need to know the contents of this Agreement or as required by law or national stock exchange rule. In no event may this Agreement be reproduced or copies shown to any third parties (except counsel, auditors and professional advisors) without the prior written consent of the other party, except as may be necessary by reason of legal, accounting, tax or regulatory requirements, in which event FNT and FIS agree to exercise reasonable diligence in limiting such disclosure to the minimum necessary under the particular circumstances.

- (b) In addition, each party shall give notice to the other party of any demands to disclose or provide Proprietary Information of the other party under or pursuant to lawful process prior to disclosing or furnishing such Proprietary Information, and shall cooperate in seeking reasonable protective arrangements.

9. INVOICING AND PAYMENTS, PAST DUE AMOUNTS, CURRENCY.

- 9.1. INVOICING AND PAYMENT REQUIREMENTS. Within 30 days following the end of each month, FNT shall prepare and remit to FIS a schedule showing the fees which it owes FIS under Exhibit D, along with the appropriate payment. FNT shall make all payments to FIS by check, credit card or wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account or accounts designated by FIS. Payment in full shall not preclude later dispute of charges or adjustment of improper payments.
- 9.2. PAST DUE AMOUNTS. Any amount not received or disputed by FIS by the date payment is due shall be subject to interest on the overdue balance at a rate equal to the prime rate as published in the table money rates in the Wall Street Journal on the date of payment (or the prior date on which the Wall Street Journal was published if not published on the date of payment), plus one percent from the due date, until paid, applied to the outstanding balance from time to time. Any amount paid but later deemed not to have been due, will be repaid or credited with interest on the same terms.
- 9.3. CURRENCY. All fees and charges listed and referred to in this Agreement are stated in and shall be paid in U.S. Dollars.

10. DISPUTE RESOLUTION.

- 10.1. DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURES. If, prior to the termination of this Agreement or the license granted herein, and prior to notice of termination given by either party to the other, a dispute arises between FIS and FNT with respect to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, or any subject matter governed by this Agreement (other than disputes regarding a party's compliance with the provisions of Sections 3 and/or 8), such dispute shall be settled as set forth in this Section. If either party exercises its right to initiate the dispute resolution procedures under this Section, then during such procedure any time periods providing for termination of the Agreement or curing any material breach pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall be suspended automatically, except with respect to any termination or breach arising out of FNT's failure to make any undisputed timely and complete payments to FIS under this Agreement. At such time as the dispute is resolved, if such dispute involved the payment of monies, interest at a rate equal to the prime rate as published in the table money rates in the Wall Street Journal on the date the dispute is resolved (or the prior date on which the Wall Street Journal was published if not published on the date the dispute was resolved) plus one percent for the period of dispute shall be paid to the party entitled to receive the disputed monies to compensate for the lapsed time between the date such disputed amount originally was to have been paid (or was paid) through the date monies are paid (or repaid) in settlement of the dispute. Disputes arising under Sections 3 or 8 may be resolved by judicial recourse or in any other manner agreed by the parties.

10.2. Escalation Procedures.

- (a) Each of the parties shall escalate and negotiate, in good faith, any claim or dispute that has not been satisfactorily resolved between the parties at the level where the issue is discovered and has immediate impact (excluding issues of title to work product, which shall be initially addressed at the general counsel level). To this end, each party shall escalate any and all unresolved disputes or claims in accordance with this Section at any time to persons responsible for the administration of the relationship reflected in this License Agreement. The location, format, frequency, duration and conclusion of these elevated discussions shall be left to the discretion of the representatives involved. If such parties do not resolve the underlying dispute within ten (10) Days of its escalation to them, then either party may notify the other in writing that he/she desires to elevate the dispute or claim to the President of FIS and the President of FNT or their designated representative(s) for resolution.
- (b) Upon receipt by a party of a written notice escalating the dispute to the company president level, the President of FIS and the President of FNT or their designated representative(s) shall promptly communicate with his/her counter party, negotiate in good faith and use reasonable efforts to resolve such dispute or claim. The location, format, frequency, duration and conclusion of these elevated discussions shall be left to the discretion of the representatives involved. Upon agreement, such representatives may utilize other alternative dispute resolution procedures to assist in the negotiations. If the parties have not resolved the dispute within ten (10) Days after receipt of the notice elevating the dispute to this level, either may once again escalate the dispute to binding arbitration.
- (c) All discussions and correspondence among the representatives for purposes of these negotiations shall be treated as Proprietary Information developed for purposes of settlement, exempt from discovery and production, which shall not be admissible in any subsequent proceedings between the parties. Documents identified in or provided with such communications, which are not prepared for purposes of the negotiations, are not so exempted and may, if otherwise admissible, be admitted in evidence in such subsequent proceeding.

10.3. ARBITRATION PROCEDURES. If a claim, controversy or dispute between the parties with respect to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, or any subject matter governed by this Agreement (and not otherwise excepted), has not been timely resolved pursuant to the foregoing escalation process, upon notice either party may initiate binding arbitration of the issue in accordance with the following procedures.

- (a) Either party may request arbitration by giving the other party written notice to such effect, which notice shall describe, in reasonable detail, the nature of the dispute, controversy or claim. Such arbitration shall be governed by the then current version of the Commercial Arbitration Rules and Mediation Procedures of the American Arbitration Association. The Arbitration will be conducted in Jacksonville, Florida in front of one mutually agreed upon arbitrator.
- (b) Each party shall bear its own fees, costs and expenses of the arbitration and its own legal expenses, attorneys' fees and costs of all experts and witnesses. Unless the award provides otherwise, the fees and expenses of the arbitration procedures, including the fees of the arbitrator or arbitrators, will be shared equally by the involved parties.
- (c) Any award rendered pursuant to such arbitration shall be final, conclusive and binding upon the parties, and any judgment thereon may be entered and enforced in any court of competent jurisdiction.

11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

- 11.1. EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT ARISING FROM GROSS NEGLIGENCE, WILLFUL MISCONDUCT, BY REASON OF AN INDEMNITY OBLIGATION HEREUNDER OR BY REASON OF A BREACH OF WARRANTY, EITHER PARTY'S LIABILITY FOR ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION WHETHER BASED IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE WHICH ARISES UNDER OR IS RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE LIMITED TO THE OTHER PARTY'S DIRECT OUT-OF-POCKET DAMAGES, ACTUALLY INCURRED, WHICH UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES SHALL EXCEED, IN THE AGGREGATE, THE AMOUNT PAID BY FNT TO FIS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT FOR THE 12-MONTH PERIOD IMMEDIATELY PRECEDING THE DATE THE CLAIM AROSE.
- 11.2. IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE FOR INDIRECT, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES OF ANY KIND WHATSOEVER OR THE CLAIMS OR DEMANDS MADE BY ANY THIRD PARTIES, WHETHER OR NOT IT HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

12. INDEMNIFICATION.

- 12.1. PROPERTY DAMAGE. Subject to Section 11 hereof, each party agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the other and its officers, directors, employees, and affiliates (including, where applicable, the FIS Subsidiaries and FNT Subsidiaries), and agents from any and all liabilities, losses, costs, damages and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising from or in connection with the damage, loss (including theft) or destruction of any real property or tangible personal property of the indemnified party resulting from the actions or inactions of any employee, agent or subcontractor of the indemnifying party insofar as such damage arises out of or is ancillary to fulfilling its obligations under this Agreement and to the extent such damage is due to any negligence, breach of statutory duty, omission or default of the indemnifying party, its employees, agents or subcontractors.

12.2. INFRINGEMENT OF LSI PROCESSES. FIS agrees to defend at its own expense, any claim or action brought by any third party against FNT and/or against its officers, directors, and employees and affiliates, for actual or alleged infringement within the United States of any patent, copyright or other intellectual property right (including, but not limited to, misappropriation of trade secrets) based upon the LSI Processes (except to the extent such infringement claim is caused by FNT-specified Modifications to the LSI Processes which could not have been made in a non-infringing manner) or caused by the combination of LSI Processes with software or hardware provided, specified or approved by FIS ("Indemnified LSI Processes"). FNT, at its sole discretion and cost, may participate in the defense and all negotiations for its settlement or compromise. FIS further agrees to indemnify and hold FNT, its officers, directors, employees and affiliates harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, costs, damages, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) associated with any such claim or action incurred by FNT. FIS shall conduct and control the defense of any such claim or action and negotiations for its settlement or compromise, by the payment of money. FIS shall give FNT, and FNT shall give FIS, as appropriate, prompt written notice of any written threat, warning or notice of any such claim or action against FIS or FNT, as appropriate, or any other user or any supplier of components of the Indemnified LSI Processes, which could have an adverse impact on FNT's use of same, provided FIS or FNT, as appropriate, knows of such claim or action. If in any such suit so defended, all or any part of the Indemnified LSI Processes (or any component thereof) is held to constitute an infringement or violation of any other party's intellectual property rights and is enjoined, FIS shall at its sole option take one or more of the following actions at no additional cost to FNT: (i) procure the right to continue the use of the same without material interruption for FNT; (ii) replace the same with non-infringing software; (iii) modify said Indemnified LSI Processes so as to be non-infringing; or (iv) take back the infringing Indemnified LSI Processes and credit FNT with an amount equal to its prepaid but unused license fees hereunder. The foregoing represents the sole and exclusive remedy of FNT for infringement or alleged infringement.

12.3. INFRINGEMENT OF FNT OUT OF SCOPE LICENSE AND SERVICES. FNT agrees to defend at its own expense, any claim or action brought by any third party against FIS and/or against its officers, directors, and employees and affiliates, for actual or alleged infringement within the United States of any patent, copyright or other intellectual property right (including, but not limited to, misappropriation of trade secrets) based upon the FNT services on behalf of the Permitted Subsidiaries in the Geographic Area that are outside the permitted scope of the License and the Services ("Indemnified Out of Scope License and Services"). FIS, at its sole discretion and cost, may participate in the defense and all negotiations for its settlement or compromise. FNT further agrees to indemnify and hold FIS, its officers, directors, employees and affiliates harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, costs, damages, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) associated with any such claim or action incurred by FIS. FNT shall conduct and control the defense of any such claim or action and negotiations for its settlement or compromise, by the payment of money. FNT shall give FIS, and FIS shall give FNT, as appropriate, prompt written notice of any written threat, warning or notice of any such claim or action against FNT or FIS, as appropriate, or any other user or any supplier of components of the Indemnified Out of Scope License and Services, provided FNT or FIS, as appropriate, knows of such claim or action. If in any such suit so defended, all or any part of the Indemnified Out of Scope License and Services (or any component thereof) is held to constitute an infringement or violation of any other party's intellectual property rights and is enjoined, FNT shall at its sole option take one or more of the following actions at no additional cost to FIS: (i) procure the right to continue the use of the same without material interruption for FIS; (ii) replace the same with non-infringing software; or (iii) modify said Indemnified Out of Scope License and Services as to be non-infringing. The foregoing represents the sole and exclusive remedy of FNT for infringement or alleged infringement.

13. FORCE MAJEURE, TIME OF PERFORMANCE AND INCREASED COSTS.

13.1. FORCE MAJEURE.

- (a) Neither party shall be held liable for any delay or failure in performance of its obligations under this Agreement from any cause which with the observation of reasonable care, could not have been avoided - which may include, without limitation, acts of civil or military authority, government regulations, government agencies, epidemics, war, terrorist acts, riots, insurrections, fires, explosions, earthquakes, hurricanes, tornadoes, nuclear accidents, floods, power blackouts affecting facilities (the "Affected Performance").
- (b) Upon the occurrence of a condition described in Section 13.1(a), the party whose performance is affected shall give written notice to the other party describing the Affected Performance, and the parties shall promptly confer, in good faith, to agree upon equitable, reasonable action to minimize the impact on both parties of such condition, including, without limitation, implementing disaster recovery procedures. The parties agree that the party whose performance is affected shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize the delay caused by the force majeure events and recommence the Affected Performance. If the delay caused by the force majeure event lasts for more than fifteen (15) Days, the parties shall negotiate an equitable amendment to this Agreement with respect to the Affected Performance. If the parties are unable to agree upon an equitable amendment within ten (10) Days after such fifteen (15)-Day period has expired, then either party shall be entitled to serve thirty (30) Days' notice of termination on the other party with respect to only such Affected Performance. The remaining portion of the Agreement that does not involve the Affected Performance shall continue in full force and effect. FIS shall be entitled to be paid for that portion of the Affected Performance which it completed through the termination date.

13.2. TIME OF PERFORMANCE AND INCREASED COSTS. FIS' time of performance under this Agreement shall be adjusted, if and to the extent reasonably necessary, in the event and to the extent that (i) FNT fails to timely submit material data or materials in the prescribed form or in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement, (ii) FNT fails to perform on a timely basis, the material functions or other responsibilities of FNT described in this Agreement, (iii) FNT or any governmental agency authorized to regulate or supervise FNT makes any special request, which is affirmed by FNT and/or compulsory on FIS, which affects FIS' normal performance schedule, or (iv) FNT has modified the LSI Processes, Documentation or Modifications in a manner affecting FIS' burden. In addition, if any of the above events occur, and such event results in an increased cost to FIS, FIS shall estimate such increased costs in writing in advance and, upon FNT's approval, FNT shall be required to pay any and all such reasonable, increased costs to FIS upon documented expenditure, up to 110% of the estimate.

15. WARRANTIES.

15.1. PERFORMANCE OF OBLIGATIONS. Each party represents and warrants to the other that it shall perform its respective obligations under this Agreement, including Exhibits and Schedules, in a professional and workmanlike manner.

15.2. COMPLIANCE WITH LAW. FIS warrants that (i) it has the power and corporate authority to enter into and perform this Agreement, (ii) its performance of this Agreement does not and will not violate any governmental law, regulation, rule or order, contract, charter or by-law; (iii) it has sufficient right, title and interest (or another Subsidiary of FIS has or will grant it sufficient license rights) in the LSI Processes to grant the licenses herein granted, and (iv) it has received no written notice of any third party claim or threat of a claim alleging that any part of the LSI Processes infringes the rights of any third party in any of the United States. FNT warrants that (i) it has the power and corporate authority to enter into and perform this Agreement, (ii) its performance of this Agreement does not and will not violate any governmental law, regulation, rule or order, contract, charter or by-law, (iii) it has received no written notice of any third party claim or threat of a claim alleging that any part of the LSI Processes infringes the rights of any third party in the United States.

16.1. ASSIGNMENT. Except as set forth herein, neither party may sell, assign, convey, or transfer the licenses granted hereunder or any of such party's rights or interests, or delegate any of its obligations hereunder without the written consent of the other party. Any such consent shall be conditioned upon the understanding that this Agreement shall be binding upon the assigning party's successors and assigns. Either party may assign this Agreement to any Subsidiary that is not a Competitor except that the assigning party shall remain responsible for all obligations under this Agreement including the payment of fees. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, FNT may not assign this Agreement to a Competitor.

- 16.2. SEVERABILITY. Provided FNT on behalf of the Permitted Subsidiaries retains quiet enjoyment of the LSI Processes, if any one or more of the provisions contained herein shall for any reason be held to be unenforceable in any respect under law, such unenforceability shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement, but this Agreement shall be construed as if such unenforceable provision or provisions had never been contained herein, provided that the removal of such offending term or provision does not materially alter the burdens or benefits of either of the parties under this Agreement or any Exhibit or Schedule, in which case the unenforceable portion shall be replaced by one that reflects the parties original intent as closely as possible while remaining enforceable.
- 16.3. THIRD PARTY BENEFICIARIES. Except as set forth herein, the provisions of this Agreement are for the benefit of the parties and not for any other person. Should any third party institute proceedings, this Agreement shall not provide any such person with any remedy, claim, liability, reimbursement, cause of action, or other right.
- 16.4. GOVERNING LAW; FORUM SELECTION; CONSENT OF JURISDICTION. This Agreement will be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of Florida, USA, without regard to principles of conflict of laws. The parties agree that the only circumstance in which disputes between them, not otherwise excepted from the resolution process described in Section 109, will not be subject to the provisions of Section 10 is where a party makes a good faith determination that a breach of the terms of this Agreement by the other party requires prompt and equitable relief. Each of the parties submits to the personal jurisdiction of any state or federal court sitting in Jacksonville, Florida with respect to such judicial proceedings. Each of the parties waives any defense of inconvenient forum to the maintenance of any action or proceeding so brought and waives any bond, surety or to other security that might be required of any party with respect thereto. Any party may make service on the other party by sending or delivering a copy of the process to the party to be served at the address set forth in Section 14.1 above. Nothing in this Section, however, shall affect the right of any party to serve legal process in any other manner permitted by law or in equity. Each party agrees that a final judgment in any action or proceeding so brought shall be conclusive and may be enforced by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law or in equity.
- 16.5. EXECUTED IN COUNTERPARTS. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same document.
- 16.6. CONSTRUCTION. The headings and numbering of sections in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not be construed to define or limit any of the terms or affect the scope, meaning or interpretation of this Agreement or the particular section to which they relate. This Agreement and the provisions contained herein shall not be construed or interpreted for or against any party because that party drafted or caused its legal representative to draft any of its provisions.

- 16.7. ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement, including the Exhibits and Schedules attached hereto and the agreements referenced herein constitute the entire agreement between the parties, and supersedes all prior oral or written agreements, representations, statements, negotiations, understandings, proposals, marketing brochures, correspondence and undertakings related thereto.
- 16.8. AMENDMENTS AND WAIVERS. This Agreement may be amended only by written agreement signed by duly authorized representatives of each party. No waiver of any provisions of this Agreement and no consent to any default under this Agreement shall be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by or on behalf of both parties. No course of dealing or failure of any party to strictly enforce any term, right or condition of this Agreement shall be construed as a waiver of such term, right or condition. Waiver by either party of any default by the other party shall not be deemed a waiver of any other default. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time prior to the Sale of FIS or any offering and sale to the public of any shares or equity securities of FIS or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to a registration statement in the United States, this Agreement may not be amended without the prior written consent of Thomas H. Lee Equity Fund V, L.P. ("THL") and TPG Partners III, L.P. ("TPG") if such amendment would affect Sections 2.1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 12, and 16.10, Exhibit D either party's limitation of liability, FIS' right to terminate or rights upon default by FNT or a FNT Subsidiary or this Section 16.8, in any manner materially adverse to the consolidated business activities of the FIS Group (defined below), taken as a whole, or FIS Group's costs of doing business, viewed on a consolidated basis, provided that in no event shall any change to Exhibits A, B, and C hereto require such prior written consent unless such change would materially and adversely affect in any manner FIS Group's consolidated business activities, taken as a whole, or FIS Group's costs of doing business, viewed on a consolidated basis. THL and TPG are intended third party beneficiaries of this Agreement solely with respect to this Section 16.8. "FIS Group" means FIS, Subsidiaries of FIS, and each Person (defined below) that FIS directly or indirectly controls (within the meaning of the Securities Act) immediately after the Effective Date, and each other Person that becomes an Affiliate of FIS after the Effective Date. "Person" means an individual, a partnership, a corporation, a limited liability company, an association, a joint stock company, a trust, a joint venture, an unincorporated organization, a governmental entity or any department, agency, or political subdivision thereof.
- 16.9. REMEDIES CUMULATIVE. Unless otherwise provided for under this Agreement, all rights of termination or cancellation, or other remedies set forth in this Agreement, are cumulative and are not intended to be exclusive of other remedies to which the injured party may be entitled by law or equity in case of any breach or threatened breach by the other party of any provision in this Agreement. Use of one or more remedies shall not bar use of any other remedy for the purpose of enforcing any provision of this Agreement.
- 16.10. TAXES. All charges and fees to be paid under this Agreement are exclusive of any applicable sales, use, service or similar tax which may be assessed currently or in the future on the LSI Processes or related services provided under this Agreement. If a sales, use, services or a similar tax is assessed on the LSI Processes or related services provided to FNT for the benefit of the Permitted Subsidiaries under this Agreement, FNT will pay directly, reimburse or indemnify FIS for such taxes as well as any applicable interest and penalties. FNT shall pay such taxes in addition to the sums otherwise due under this Agreement. FIS shall, to the extent it is aware of taxes, itemize them on a proper VAT, GST or other invoice submitted pursuant to this Agreement. All property, employment and income taxes based on the assets, employees and net income, respectively, of FIS shall be FIS' sole responsibility. The parties will cooperate with each other in determining the extent to which any tax is due and owing under the circumstances and shall provide and make available to each other any withholding certificates, information regarding the location of use of the LSI Processes or provision of the services or sale and any other exemption certificates or information reasonably requested by either party.

- 16.11. PRESS RELEASES. The parties shall consult with each other in preparing any press release, public announcement, news media response or other form of release of information concerning this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby that is intended to provide such information to the news media or the public (a "Press Release"). Neither party shall issue or cause the publication of any such Press Release without the prior written consent of the other party; except that nothing herein will prohibit either party from issuing or causing publication of any such Press Release to the extent that such action is required by applicable law or the rules of any national stock exchange applicable to such party or its affiliates, in which case the party wishing to make such disclosure will, if practicable under the circumstances, notify the other party of the proposed time of issuance of such Press Release and consult with and allow the other party reasonable time to comment on such Press Release in advance of its issuance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement as of the Effective Date by their duly authorized representatives.

LEASE AGREEMENT

THIS LEASE AGREEMENT (this "Lease"), effective as of _____, 2005, is by and between FIDELITY INFORMATION SERVICES, INC., an Arkansas corporation ("Landlord"), and FIDELITY NATIONAL TITLE GROUP, INC., a Delaware corporation ("Tenant"), with reference to the following recitals.

WHEREAS, Landlord is the owner of certain real property and improvements comprising a corporate campus located at 601 Riverside Drive, in the city of Jacksonville, county of Duval, state of Florida; and

WHEREAS, Landlord previously entered into a Lease Agreement dated as of January 1, 2005 (the "FNF Lease") with Fidelity National Financial, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("FNF"), for the leasing to FNF of a portion of Landlord's real property and improvements; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to an Assignment and Assumption Agreement of even date herewith between FNF and Tenant, Tenant has assumed, with the consent of Landlord, all of FNF's rights and obligations under the FNF Lease; and

WHEREAS, Landlord and Tenant wish to enter into a novation of the rights and obligations under the FNF Lease, as assumed by and assigned to Tenant, so that Tenant is the clear party in interest in the leasing of the applicable portion of Landlord's real property and improvements as more particularly described herein;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants, conditions and promises set forth herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Landlord and Tenant agree as follows:

1. PREMISES. Landlord hereby leases to Tenant 121,076 rentable square feet of office space located on the ground floor, 4th, 10th, 11th and 12th floors of the 13-story office building located at 601 Riverside Avenue, Jacksonville, Florida and 218 rentable square feet of space in the building designated as Building 2 located at 601 Riverside Avenue, Jacksonville, Florida (collectively, the "Premises"). The parties acknowledge that the buildings in which the Premises are located are two of several buildings comprising a corporate campus at 601 Riverside Avenue, Jacksonville, Florida (the "Corporate Campus"). The parties further acknowledge and agree that, initially hereunder, the Premises constitutes 25% ("Tenant's Share") of the 484,586 rentable square feet of space at the corporate campus and for the purposes of this Lease, the term "Buildings" shall be deemed the entire corporate campus and not just the buildings in which the Premises are located. The parties understand and acknowledge that Tenant's Share may by mutual agreement increase or decrease from time to time during the term of this Lease, in which case the parties shall execute and deliver amendment(s) hereto memorializing corresponding changes in (i) rentable square footage of the Premises, (ii) Tenant's Share and (iii) monthly Base Rent.

2. TERM. The initial term of this Lease shall be for three (3) years commencing January 1, 2005 ("Commencement Date") and terminating on December 31, 2007 ("Initial Term").

3.1 BASE RENT. Tenant shall pay to Landlord base rent ("Base Rent"), at an annual rate of $23.05 per rentable square foot, in equal monthly installments of $232,566.81 without prior notice or demand, in advance, on the first day of each calendar month at such place as Landlord may direct, in writing. If the Term commences on a day other than the first day of a calendar month, Tenant shall pay to Landlord, on or before the Commencement Date of the Term, a pro rata portion of the monthly installment of Base Rent, such pro rata portion to be based on the actual number of calendar days remaining in such partial month after the Commencement Date of the Term. If the Term shall expire on other than the last day of a calendar month, such monthly installment of Base Rent shall be prorated for each calendar day of such partial month. If any portion of Base Rent or other sum payable to Landlord hereunder shall be due and unpaid for more than fifteen (15) days after written notice from Landlord to Tenant that such payment has not been received, it shall thereafter bear interest at a rate equal to twelve percent (12%) per annum (the "Default Rate").

3.2 ADDITIONAL RENT. In addition to paying Base Rent, for each calendar year commencing with calendar year 2005, Tenant shall pay as additional rent ("Additional Rent" and, together with Base Rent, collectively, the "Rent") Tenant's Share of Landlord's reasonable estimate of operating expenses for the entire Buildings ("Operating Expenses") that are in excess of the Operating Expenses applicable to the 2004 base year (the "Base Year"), which for the purposes of this Lease, the Tenant's Share of Operating Expenses in the Base Year are $23.05 per rentable square foot per year. Landlord reasonably estimates Tenant's Additional Rent for the calendar year 2005 is $5.44 per rentable square foot or $54,887.79 per month, which when combined with the Base Rent shall result in a monthly Rent payment of $287,454.60, which is equal to $28.49 per rentable square foot for 2005. Commencing January 1, 2005, and otherwise as set forth herein, Tenant shall pay Additional Rent at the same times and in the same manner as Base Rent. Landlord shall adjust Additional Rent on an annual basis in 2006 and 2007 based on the same above principles. Tenant shall be liable to Landlord for the entire cost (as opposed to Tenant's Share) of Landlord's costs of providing any services or materials exclusively to Tenant.

3.2.1 Calculation and Payment. Landlord shall deliver to Tenant on or before the first day of March following the end of each year following the Base Year (an "Expense Year") a statement setting forth (i) the amount Tenant paid as Rent for the applicable Expense Year, and (ii) the actual amount of Tenant's Share of Operating Expenses for the applicable Expense Year. If the amount Tenant paid as Rent for the applicable Expense Year exceeds the actual amount of Tenant's Share of Operating Expenses for the applicable Expense Year, then Landlord shall credit such difference on Tenant's next payment(s) of Rent. If the amount Tenant paid as Rent for the applicable Expense Year was less than the actual amount of Tenant's Share of Operating Expenses for the applicable Expense Year, then Tenant shall pay such difference as Additional Rent to Landlord on Tenant's next payment of Rent. Landlord's failure to furnish such statement for any Expense Year in a timely manner shall not prejudice Landlord from enforcing its rights hereunder. Even if the Lease term has expired and Tenant has vacated the Premises, if an excess or shortfall exists when the final determination is made, Tenant shall immediately pay or receive a credit of such excess or shortfall.

3.2.2 Items Included in Operating Expenses. Except as otherwise set forth herein, the term "Operating Expenses" includes all expenses, costs, and amounts of every kind that Landlord pays or incurs during any Expense Year because of or in connection with the ownership, operation, management, maintenance, or repair of the Buildings, including:

3.2.2.1 Tax expenses (except for excess profits taxes, franchise taxes, gift taxes, capital stock taxes, inheritance and succession taxes, estate taxes, federal and state income taxes, and other taxes applied or measured by Landlord's general or net income;

Should such an audit disclose a discrepancy between actual Operating Expense and what Tenant paid for Tenant's Share of such Operating Expenses and such discrepancy is equal to or greater than two percent (2%), Landlord shall not only refund the discrepancy amount to Tenant but also pay for the actual cost of such audit upon being billed therefor by Tenant.

4. USE OF PREMISES. Tenant shall have the right to use and occupy the Premises for the purpose of general office. Landlord covenants and agrees that throughout the term of this Lease, Tenant shall be entitled to a reasonable number of parking spaces for its employees, customers and visitors.

5. QUIET ENJOYMENT. Landlord warrants to Tenant that Landlord is the owner of the Buildings, and that Landlord may rightfully enter into this Lease. Landlord shall protect, defend and indemnify Tenant against any interference with Tenant's use and quiet enjoyment of the Premises.

6. TAXES. Landlord shall be responsible for the payment of all taxes assessed on the Premises during the Term, subject to Tenant's obligation to reimburse Landlord for Tenant's Share thereof, and Tenant shall be responsible for the payment of taxes assessed upon any of Tenant's personal property located on the Premises. Notwithstanding any contrary provision herein, Tenant shall pay prior to delinquency any rent tax, sales tax or service tax generated as result of this Lease.

7. INSURANCE. Tenant shall pay its pro rata share of all premiums for fire insurance, extended coverage insurance, liability insurance, "other perils" insurance, and other insurance carried by Landlord on or with respect to the Premises. Tenant's pro rata share of the insurance premiums, regardless of the manner in which they are to be paid, shall be deemed to be additional rental due under this Lease. If the premiums should increase or decrease at any time, Tenant's pro rata share and Tenant's payments shall be appropriately adjusted.

7.1 LIABILITY INSURANCE. Tenant and Landlord shall each separately maintain at all times during the Initial Term and any Renewal Term and keep in force for their mutual benefit, commercial general liability insurance against claims for personal injury, death or property damage occurring in, on or about the Premises or sidewalks or areas adjacent to the Premises to afford protection to the limit of not less than $5,000,000 combined single limit. Such insurance may be covered under a blanket policy covering the Premises and other locations of Tenant or an affiliate corporation or entity. Certificates of all policies of insurance shall be delivered to the party requesting the certificates or parties designated by the party requesting the certificates upon written request.

7.2 WAIVER OF SUBROGATION. Both Tenant and Landlord agree to seek a waiver of subrogation clause from their respective insurers which establishes a waiver of the insurer's subrogation against Landlord or Tenant as the case may be for any property loss (real/personal property or improvements/betterments) caused by the other. Any policy or policies of insurance procured by Landlord or Tenant, covering direct or indirect property loss, shall include a waiver of subrogation clause in favor of the other party as the case may be.

8. UTILITIES. Landlord and Tenant agree that the Buildings are already connected for sewer, water, gas, and electricity. Subject to Tenant's obligations to pay Tenant's Share of the cost Landlord incurs in supplying utilities to the common areas, Tenant shall pay all utility expenses incurred by Tenant in connection with Tenant's use of the Premises (collectively, "Tenant's Utility Expenses"). In the event utility service is interrupted to the Premises due to the need for maintenance and repair to the utility lines, Landlord shall immediately commence restoration and repairs of the lines and conduits in order that said utility service shall be resumed at the earliest possible time. If Landlord shall fail to make such repairs after written notice from Tenant, Tenant may do so at Landlord's expense. Additionally, should there be an interruption in the utilities for more than 24 hours due to the Landlord's gross negligence, rent shall be abated until the utilities are restored.

9. MAINTENANCE AND REPAIRS. Structural portions of the Premises, including the roof, foundation, exterior walls and load bearing interior walls, shall be maintained and repaired by Landlord except to the extent repairs are made necessary by the acts of Tenant. Except for the repairs and maintenance Landlord is specifically obligated to make under this Section, Tenant shall maintain and keep the entire Premises including all partitions, doors, ceiling, fixtures, equipment and appurtenances thereof in good order, condition and repair, reasonable wear and tear excepted at the sole expense of Tenant. To the extent an HVAC system serves the Premises exclusively, Tenant shall be responsible for maintaining an HVAC service contract for routine filter changing and general upkeep. Landlord may disapprove the contractor, provided however, its approval may not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

10. COMMON AREA MAINTENANCE. Landlord shall keep the common area in good repair during the term or extension thereof, reasonable wear and tear excepted.

11. ALTERATIONS AND IMPROVEMENTS. Tenant shall have the right at any time throughout the term of this Lease and any extensions hereof, to make or cause to be made, any alterations, additions, or improvements, or install or cause to be installed any trade fixture, signs, floor covering, interior or exterior painting or lighting, plumbing fixtures, shades or awnings, as Tenant may deem necessary or suitable with Landlord's prior written approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Upon the expiration of the Initial Term of this Lease, Tenant shall have the option to remove such alterations, decorations, additions or improvements made by it, provided any damage to Premises resulting from such removal is repaired. Also, upon the expiration of the Initial Term of this Lease, Tenant if requested by Landlord shall remove any signs and repair any damages to the Premises resulting from such removal. During the term, Tenant shall not make any alterations, additions, improvements, non-cosmetic changes or other material changes to the Premises without the prior written approval of Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall be permitted to make Minor Alterations (as defined below) without Landlord's prior written consent. Minor Alterations, as used herein, shall be defined as any alterations, improvements, etc. made to the Premises (excluding the facade thereof) which do not affect the structure of the Building, their systems or equipment. If Landlord approves any alterations, additions, improvements, etc., Landlord shall notify Tenant, in writing, along with Landlord's approval notice, of whether Tenant shall, upon termination of this Lease, either: (i) remove any such alterations or additions and repair any damage to the Buildings or the Premises occasioned by their installation or removal and restore the Premises to substantially the same condition as existed prior to the time when any such alterations or additions were made, or (ii) reimburse Landlord for the cost of removing such alterations or additions and the restoration of the Premises.

12. FIRE OR CASUALTY. If more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the Premises or the use, occupancy or access to or of the Premises shall be destroyed in whole or in part by fire or other casualty, Tenant may in its reasonable discretion terminate this Lease. If less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the Premises shall be destroyed in whole or in part by fire or casualty, the Rent due during the remainder of the Lease term shall be reduced in proportion to the area destroyed, effective on the date of the casualty. Within thirty (30) days after the date of a fire or other casualty, Landlord must inform Tenant if the Premises and the office buildings will be rebuilt. If the Premises is to be rebuilt and Tenant elects not to terminate the Lease, the Premises and office buildings must be rebuilt and ready for occupancy within ninety (90) days of date of fire or other casualty. Landlord and Tenant agree and covenant that neither shall be liable to the other for loss arising out of damage to or destruction of the Premises or contents thereof when such loss is caused by any perils included within, and covered by, standard fire and extended coverage insurance policy of the state of Florida. This agreement shall be binding whether or not such damage or destruction be caused by negligence of either party or their agents, employees or visitors. Landlord agrees to carry fire and extended coverage to the extent required by its lender, and if there is no lender, in an amount satisfactory to Landlord.

13. EMINENT DOMAIN. If more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the Premises (or the use, occupancy or access to or of the Premises) shall be taken or condemned by any governmental or quasi-governmental authority for any public or quasi-public use or purpose (including sale under threat of such a taking), or if the owner elects to convey title to the condemnor by a deed in lieu of condemnation, then Tenant may in its discretion terminate the Lease and be relieved from further liability hereunder. If less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the Premises (or the use, occupancy or access to or of the Premises) shall be taken or condemned by any governmental or quasi-governmental authority for any public or quasi-public use or purpose (including sale under threat of such a taking), or if Tenant elects not to terminate this Lease, the Rent due during the remainder of the Lease term shall be reduced in proportion to the area taken, effective on the date physical possession is taken by the condemning authority; provided, however, that in the event Tenant cannot reasonably operate its business at the Premises due to such partial taking, Tenant shall be permitted to terminate this Lease by written notice to Landlord.

14. TENANT'S DEFAULT.

14.1 Any other provisions in this Lease notwithstanding, it shall be an event of default ("Event of Default") under this Lease if: (i) Tenant fails to pay any installment of rent or any other sum payable by Tenant hereunder when due and such failure continues for a period of ten (10) days after written notice from Landlord to Tenant that such payment has not been received, or (ii) Tenant fails to observe or perform any other material covenant or agreement of Tenant herein contained and such failure continues after written notice given by or on behalf of Landlord to Tenant for more than thirty (30) days, provided, however, that if such non-monetary Event of Default by Tenant cannot reasonably be cured within such thirty (30) day period, and provided further that Tenant is proceeding with due diligence to effect a cure of said Event of Default, no Event of Default hereunder shall be declared by Landlord if Tenant continues to proceed with diligence to cure said Event of Default, but in no event shall such cure period extend beyond ninety (90) days following notice from Landlord of such violation, default or breach, or (iii) Tenant files a petition commencing a voluntary case, or has filed against it a petition commencing an involuntary case, under the Federal Bankruptcy Code (Title 11 of the United States Code), as now or hereafter in effect, or under any similar law, or files or has filed against it a petition or answer in bankruptcy or for reorganization or for an arrangement pursuant to any state bankruptcy law or any similar state law, and, in the case of any such involuntary action, such action shall not be dismissed, discharged or denied within sixty (60) days after the filing thereof, or Tenant consents or acquiesces in the filing thereof, or (iv) a custodian, receiver, trustee or liquidator of Tenant or of all or substantially all of Tenant's property or of the Premises shall be appointed in any proceedings brought by or against Tenant and, in the latter case, such entity shall not be discharged within sixty (60) days after such appointment or Tenant consents to or acquiesces in such appointment, or (v) Tenant shall generally not pay Tenant's debts as such debts become due, or shall make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or shall admit in writing its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due. The notice and grace period provisions in clauses (i) and (ii) above shall have no application to the Events of Default referred to in clauses (iii) through (v) above.

14.2 If Tenant shall fail to make any payment of rent when due or if Tenant shall fail to keep and perform any express written covenant of this Lease and shall continue in default for a period of ten (10) days after Tenant has received written notice of such default and demand of performance from Landlord, Landlord may commence judicial proceedings, provided, however, if any default shall occur (other than in the payment of rent) which cannot be cured within a period of thirty (30) days and Tenant, prior to the expiration of thirty (30) days from and after the giving of notice as aforesaid, commences to eliminate such default and proceeds diligently to take steps to cure the same, Landlord shall not have the right to declare the term ended by reason thereof for an additional period of sixty (60) days.

14.3 In the event of any such Event of Default, Landlord at any time thereafter may at its option exercise any remedies available to Landlord at law or in equity, including, without limitation, one or more of the following remedies:

(i) Termination of Lease. Landlord may terminate this Lease, by written notice to Tenant, without any right by Tenant to reinstate its rights by payment of rent due or other performance of the terms and conditions hereof. Upon such termination Tenant shall immediately surrender possession of the Premises to Landlord, and Landlord shall immediately become entitled to receive from Tenant an amount equal to the difference between the aggregate of all rent reserved under this Lease for the balance of the Initial Term or Renewal Term, as the case may be, and the fair rental value of the Premises for that period, determined as of the date of such termination, and reduced by the amount Landlord may obtain upon reletting, discounted to present value at the rate of ten percent (10%).

(ii) Reletting. With or without terminating this Lease, as Landlord may elect, Landlord may, by summary proceedings, re-enter and repossess the Premises, or any part thereof, and lease them to any other person upon such terms as Landlord shall deem reasonable, for a term within or beyond the term of this Lease; provided, that any such reletting prior to termination shall be for the account of Tenant, and Tenant shall remain liable for (i) all rent and other sums which would be payable under this Lease by Tenant in the absence of such expiration, termination or repossession, less (ii) the net proceeds, if any, of any reletting effected for the account of Tenant after deducting from such proceeds all of Landlord's actual expenses, attorneys' fees, employees' expenses, reasonable alteration costs, expenses of preparation for such reletting and all other actual costs and expenses incurred as a result of Tenant's breach of this Lease. Landlord shall use commercially reasonable efforts to relet the Premises. If the Premises are at the time of default sublet or leased by Tenant to others, Landlord may, as Tenant's agent, collect rents due from any subtenant or other tenant and apply such rents to the rent and other amounts due hereunder without in any way affecting Tenant's obligation to Landlord hereunder.

(iii) Injunction. In the event of breach by either party of any provision of this Lease, the other party shall have the right of injunction and the right to invoke any remedy allowed at law or in equity in addition to other remedies provided for herein.

(iv) No Exclusive Right. No right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to Landlord or Tenant is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy herein or by law provided, but each shall be cumulative and in addition to every other right or remedy given herein or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute.

(v) Expenses. In the event that either Landlord or Tenant exercises any of the remedies provided herein, the wrongful party shall pay to the other all actual expenses incurred in connection therewith, including reasonable attorneys' fees.

15. LANDLORD'S DEFAULT. If Landlord shall be in default or shall fail or refuse to perform or comply with any of his obligations under this Lease and shall continue in default for a period of thirty (30) days after Tenant has given Landlord written notice of such default and demand of performance, Tenant may remedy the same and deduct the cost thereof from subsequent installments of rent or terminate the Lease and recover from Landlord any and all damages Tenant may have incurred due to such default or failure. Upon any default by Landlord under this Lease, Tenant may, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Lease to the contrary, exercise any of its rights provided at law or in equity.

16. ASSIGNMENT AND SUB-LETTING. Tenant shall not have the right to assign, sublet, transfer, or encumber this Lease or its rights hereunder or any part thereof at any time without the Landlord's prior written consent, except for the Permitted Transfers (defined below). A "Permitted Transfer" means an assignment or sublet to (i) any entity controlled by, controlling, or under common control with Tenant (a "Tenant Affiliate") or a Tenant Affiliate, including without limitation FNF, or (ii) any entity with which Tenant or a Tenant Affiliate may merge or consolidate, which acquires all or substantially all of the assets or shares of stock of Tenant or a Tenant Affiliate, or (iii) any entity that is the successor in the event of a reorganization. In instances other than Permitted Transfers, Landlord agrees not to withhold or delay its written consent if to do so would be commercially unreasonable. In the event of any assignment of this Lease by Tenant, Tenant shall not be and is not relieved of any liability under any and all of its covenants and obligations contained in or derived from this Lease arising out of any act, occurrence or omission occurring after said assignment; provided, however that the Tenant's assignee assumes all obligations of Tenant hereunder and attorns to Landlord for such obligations. Landlord may assign this Lease in connection with the sale or financing of the Demised Premises provided that (i) no such assignment may impose upon Tenant any obligations greater than set forth in the Lease; and (ii) Landlord gives notice to Tenant within thirty (30) days following the effective date of the assignment which contains the assignee's name, address, telephone number, and the name of the individual handling the affairs relating to this Lease. Any rents received by Landlord hereunder, which in fact belong to the assignee of Landlord, shall be held in trust by Landlord and forwarded immediately to the assignee of Landlord. In the event of any assignment or sublease, Tenant shall remain responsible for the payment of rent and for the performance of all terms, covenants and conditions undertaken by Tenant pursuant to this Lease unless otherwise agreed to by Landlord in writing.

17. HOLDING OVER. In the event Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of the Initial Term or a Renewal Term without executing a new Lease, Tenant shall occupy the Premises from month to month at a rental rate of 150% of the applicable rental rate during the last month of the term, subject to all of the covenants of this Lease insofar as consistent with such a tenancy. The provisions of this Section 17 shall not be deemed to limit or constitute a waiver of any other rights or remedies of Landlord provided herein or at law.

18. SIGNAGE. Landlord and Tenant hereby agree that FNF has retained and shall retain, throughout the term of the Lease, the signage rights it presently has on the exterior of the Buildings, the monument signage at Riverside Avenue, directory and suite entry signage. Landlord and Tenant agree that the only other signage that may appear on the exterior of the Buildings and on the exterior monument signage during the term hereof shall be that of Landlord, Tenant or FNF. Until such time as Landlord is a publicly traded company or experiences a change of control (i.e., another person or entity other than FNF possesses, directly or indirectly, the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of Landlord, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract, or otherwise), any proposed change by Landlord of the monument and building signage as it exists on the Commencement Date of this Lease shall require Tenant's prior written consent, which may be withheld by Tenant in its sole and absolute discretion, and Landlord if granted such consent shall solely bear the cost of any such change. Until such time as Landlord is a publicly traded company or experiences a change of control (as defined above), Landlord agrees that it shall not, without Tenant's prior written consent (which may be withheld in Tenant's sole and absolute discretion), cause any impairment to the visibility of Tenant's existing signage, if any, or install any additional signage on the monument or any of the Buildings. Beginning within a reasonable time of prior to Landlord becoming a public company or experiencing a change of control, Landlord and Tenant shall discuss and agree upon reasonable Landlord signage rights so that as of the date that Landlord is a public company or experiences a change of control it will be able to affix its name and/or logo in one or more locations on the building and monuments in a manner that is reasonably acceptable to Tenant.

19. HAZARDOUS MATERIALS. Landlord and Tenant agree to indemnify and hold harmless the other from any and all claims, damages, fines, judgments, penalties, costs, liabilities or losses (including, without limitation, any and all sums paid for settlement of claims, attorneys fees, consultant and expert fees) arising during or after the lease term from or in connection with the presence or suspected presence of hazardous substances in, on or beneath the Premises, unless the hazardous substances are present as the result of negligence, willful misconduct or other acts of the party otherwise so indemnified, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees. Without limitation of the foregoing, this indemnification shall include any and all costs incurred due to any investigation by a federal, state or local agency or political subdivision, unless the hazardous substances are present solely as the result of negligence, willful misconduct or other acts of the party otherwise so indemnified, its agents, employees, contractors or invitees. This indemnification shall specifically include any and all costs due to hazardous substances which flow, diffuse, migrate or percolate into, onto or under the Premises after the Commencement Date. Each of the parties agree to comply with all laws, codes, rules, and regulations of the United States, the State of Florida. Tenant agrees that it will not store, keep, use, sell, dispose of or offer for sale in, upon or from the Premises any article or substance which may be prohibited by any insurance policy in force from time to time covering the Buildings nor shall Tenant keep, store, produce or dispose of on, in or from the Premises or the Buildings any substance which may be deemed a hazardous substance or infectious waste under any state, local or federal rule, statute, law, regulation or ordinance as may be promulgated or amended from time to time. As used herein, "hazardous substance" means any substance which is toxic, ignitable, reactive, or corrosive and which is regulated by any local government, the state in which the Premises is located, or the United States government or poses a threat to human health or the environment, and includes any and all material and substances which are defined as "hazardous waste", "toxic substances" or a "hazardous substance" pursuant to state, federal or local governmental law, including, but not restricted to, asbestos, polychlorobiphenyls and petroleum.

20. AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT. Each of Landlord and Tenant represents and warrants that any alterations, modifications, upfit or construction performed by it shall be performed in compliance with the ADA.

21. SUBORDINATION. Subject to the covenant given by Landlord in this paragraph to obtain nondisturbance and attornment agreements with any mortgage or beneficiary of a deed of trust encumbering the property, Tenant agrees that this Lease is and shall remain subject and subordinate to any mortgage given by Landlord on the property or buildings, and Landlord's interest in this Lease may be assigned as security for any present and future mortgages or deeds of trust attaching the property and all renewals, modifications, replacements and extensions thereof. However, Landlord shall enter only into financing and mortgage agreements which allow Tenant to retain its leasehold interest in the Premises provided Tenant is not in default under this Lease and which obligates Tenant to abide by all the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease in the event the mortgagee takes title to the Premises through foreclosure or accepts a deed in lieu of foreclosure. At any time and from time to time upon not less than fifteen (15) days' prior notice by Landlord to Tenant, Tenant shall, without charge, execute, acknowledge and deliver to Landlord a statement prepared by Landlord, in a form for Tenant to fill in and sign, certifying whether (i) this lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if there have been modifications, whether the same is in full force and effect as modified and stating the modifications), (ii) the Term has commenced and Base Rent and Additional Rent have become payable hereunder and, if so, the dates to which they have been paid, (iii) whether or not, to the knowledge of the signer of such certificate, Landlord is in default in performance of any of the terms of this Lease and, if so, specifying each such default of which the signer may have knowledge, (iv) Tenant has accepted possession of the Premises, (v) Tenant has made any claim against Landlord under this Lease and, if so, the nature thereof and the dollar amount, if any, of such claim, (vi) Tenant then claims any offsets or defenses against enforcement of any of the terms of this Lease upon the part of Tenant to be performed, and, if so, specifying the same, and (vii) such further information with respect to the Lease or the Premises as Landlord may reasonably request. Any such statement delivered pursuant hereto may be relied upon by any prospective purchaser of the Premises or any part thereof or of the interest of Landlord in any part thereof, by any mortgagee or prospective mortgagee thereof, by any lessor or prospective lessor thereof, by any lessee or prospective lessee thereof, or by any prospective assignee of any mortgage thereof.

22. ATTORNEY'S FEES. In connection with any litigation arising out of this Lease, the prevailing party, Tenant or Landlord, shall be entitled to recover all costs incurred, including reasonable attorney's fees.

23. LIMITATION ON LIABILITY. Neither party is liable to the other for under this lease for any special, incidental, punitive or consequential damages of any kind or nature, including, without limitation, any lost profits or loss of business. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, Landlord is not liable for flood water damage unless Landlord is grossly negligent or willful misconduct. Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant or to Tenant's employees, agents or invitees, or to any other person or entity, whomsoever, for any injury to person or damage to or loss of property on or about the Premises or the common area caused by the negligence, acts or omissions, or misconduct of Tenant, its employees, or of any other person entering the Buildings under the express or implied invitation of Tenant, or arising out of the use of the Leased Premises by Tenant and the conduct of its business therein, or arising out of any breach or default by Tenant in the performance of its obligations under this Lease or resulting from any other cause whatsoever, except Landlord's gross negligence; and Tenant hereby agrees to indemnify Landlord and hold it harmless from any loss, cost, expense or claims arising out of any such damage or injury.

24. SERVICES PROVIDED BY LANDLORD.

24.1 SECURITY. Tenant shall adhere to Landlord's security procedures as they pertain to the Premises. This may include, but not be limited to, proper display of security badges, maintaining accurate employee access rosters, and assisting Landlord in the investigation of security related matters. Landlord agrees to provide Tenant with the same security services that Landlord provides throughout the Corporate Campus, subject to Tenant's compliance with Landlord's security procedures and subject to Tenant's obligation to pay Tenant's share of the cost thereof.

24.2 TELECOMMUNICATIONS. Landlord shall provide to Tenant and its affiliates phone and voicemail equipment system, together with services for such system, for its operations at the Premises, 10301 Deerwood Park Boulevard, Jacksonville, FL., 32256, and any airplane hangar used by Tenant or FNF at Jacksonville International Airport, in accordance with the terms set forth in Schedule A attached hereto.

24.3 MAIL SERVICES. Landlord covenants and agrees that throughout the term of this Lease Landlord shall provide Tenant with mail delivery services within the Corporate Campus.

25. MEMORANDUM OF LEASE. Tenant shall not record this Lease or a Memorandum of Lease.

26. NOTICES. Any notice, report, statement, approval, consent, designation, demand or request to be given under this Lease shall be effective when made in writing, deposited for mailing with the United States Postal Service and addressed to Landlord or Tenant at the following addresses:

27.6 COUNTERPARTS. The Lease may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be deemed an original, but such counterparts together shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

27.7 NO PARTNERSHIP CREATED. The Landlord and Tenant are not and shall not be considered joint venturers, not partners, and neither shall have power to bind or obligate the other except as set forth herein.

No modifications, alterations, or amendments of this Lease or any agreements in connection therewith shall be binding or valid unless in writing and duly executed by both Landlord and Tenant. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Lease may not be amended without the prior written consent of THL and TPG, not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, if such amendment (i) decreases the base rental rate (as expressed on a rentable square foot basis) provided hereunder in a manner not otherwise specifically authorized by this Lease, (ii) changes the term of the Lease, (iii) materially affects the scope of any service provided hereunder in a manner that is detrimental to Landlord, or (iv) changes any other material term or condition of the Lease in a manner that is materially adverse to Landlord. For the purposes hereof, the term "THL" shall mean Thomas H. Lee Equity Fund V, L.P. and the term "TPG" shall mean TPG Partners III, L.P.

This MASTER INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SERVICES AGREEMENT, dated as of _____, 2005 (the "Effective Date"), by and between FIDELITY NATIONAL TITLE GROUP, INC., a Delaware corporation ("FNT"), and FIDELITY INFORMATION SERVICES, INC., an Arkansas corporation ("FIS"), (including all exhibits, attachments and Statements of Work, as may be amended or appended from time to time, the "Agreement").

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, FIS previously entered into a Master Services Agreement dated as of March 4, 2005 (the "FNF Agreement") with Fidelity National Financial, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("FNF"), as the parent company of FNT and its subsidiaries, for the provision of certain information technology support and services, as more fully described herein and as set forth in the Exhibits and Schedules attached hereto and made a part hereof; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to an Assignment and Assumption Agreement of even date herewith between FNF and FNT, FNT has assumed, with the consent of FIS, all of FNF's rights and obligations under the FNF Agreement; and

WHEREAS, FIS and FNT wish to enter into a novation of the rights and obligations under the FNF Agreement, as assumed by and assigned to FNT, so that FNT is the clear party in interest with respect to the information technology support and services to be provided by FIS, as more particularly described herein and as set forth in the Exhibits and Schedules attached hereto and made a part hereof;

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the agreements of the parties set forth below, FNT and FIS agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1. DEFINITIONS; RULES OF INTERPRETATION

1.1. Definitions.

1.2. Rules of Interpretation.

- (a) The term "including" means "including, without limitations" unless the context clearly states otherwise.
- (b) All references in this Agreement to Articles, Sections, Exhibits or Schedules, unless expressed or indicated, are to the Articles, Sections, Exhibits or Schedules to this Agreement.
- (c) Words importing persons include, where appropriate, firms, associations, partnerships, trusts, corporations and other legal entities, including public bodies, as well as natural persons.
- (d) Words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa. Words of the masculine gender are deemed to include the correlative words of the feminine and neuter genders.

- (e) All references to a number of days mean calendar days, unless expressly indicated otherwise.
- (f) The recitals to this Agreement are deemed to be a part of this Agreement.
- (g) In the event of a conflict between the terms of any or all of the body of this Agreement, the Statement of Work and any other Exhibit or Schedule to this Agreement, the terms of this Agreement shall prevail to the extent of such conflict.
- (h) All reference herein to this Agreement shall include the exhibits and schedules attached to this Agreement.

ARTICLE 2. TERM

2.1. Initial Term. The initial term of this Agreement (the "Initial Term") commences as of the Effective Date and shall continue until the fifth Anniversary of the Effective Date (the "Initial Term Expiration Date"), unless terminated earlier pursuant to Article 18.

2.2. Renewal and Extensions.

- (a) FNT shall have the right to renew (a "Renewal Right") this Agreement upon the expiration of the Initial Term for a single one-year period (the "One Year Renewal Period") or for a single two-year period (the "Two Year Renewal Period"). Each such renewal period is referred to herein as a "Renewal Period". If FNT intends to exercise a Renewal Right, FNT shall provide FIS with a written notice of such intent (a "Renewal Notice") at least six (6) months prior to the Initial Term Expiration Date. FNT's failure to provide the Renewal Notice permitted by this Section 2.2 shall be conclusive evidence of FNT's intent not to exercise a Renewal Right. The Initial Term, along with any Renewal Period, are collectively referred to herein as the "Term". Expiration Date shall be defined as the end of the Term ("Expiration Date").
- (b) Upon receipt by FIS of a Renewal Notice, FNT and FIS shall commence discussions relating to the terms and conditions of this Agreement applicable to the Renewal Period. If, prior to the commencement of a Renewal Period, FNT and FIS have not agreed upon the terms and conditions applicable to this Agreement during such Renewal Period, this Agreement shall be renewed for only the One Year Renewal Period on the terms of this Agreement in effect on the Initial Term Expiration Date.
- (c) Each Statement of Work arising hereunder shall have an initial term as specified therein but, in the absence of any specification, shall be coextensive with the end of the Initial Term or then-current Renewal Term and, subject to any right of earlier termination, shall thereafter renew (or terminate) on the same dates and subject to the same notice requirements as applicable to this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3. SERVICES

3.1. Services.

- (a) As of the Effective Date and continuing throughout the Term, FIS will provide to the FNT Entities (defined immediately following), the information technology and related services that were provided by or on behalf of FIS (and Subsidiaries) to FNT Entities immediately prior to the Effective Date. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "FNT Entities" shall mean, collectively, at any given time, each of (i) FNT and (ii) all partnerships, firms, corporations, and entities which are, at that time, at least majority owned or otherwise controlled by FNF or FNT, but excluding, if otherwise applicable, Fidelity National Information Services, Inc. and each Subsidiary. The parties recognize that prior to the Effective Date, the services were provided pursuant to an intercompany relationship and not pursuant to a written agreement. Until such time as Service Levels have been mutually agreed upon by the parties following the baseline effort described in this Section, FIS shall provide the Services in the same basic manner and quality as prior to the Effective Date. Such services, together with Additional Services (defined herein below), and services to be provided under Statements of Work, Base Services Agreements, Exhibit B, Amendments, or an equivalent, made part of this Agreement from time to time, are collectively referenced herein as the "Services"; the resulting operating environment to exist at the Effective Date is referenced as the "As Is environment". The Roles and Responsibilities described in Exhibit A shall apply only to the extent that a Base Service Agreement states that such Services will be provided. To facilitate a more detailed specification of the As Is environment, the parties shall mutually agree upon a written documented baseline plan, with the assistance of reputable, knowledgeable, mutually agreeable third party consultants (at the expense of FNT), and mutually agree upon a baseline of the As Is environment within sixty (60) days following the Effective Date. The parties agree that to the extent that Services are omitted in the descriptions in Exhibit C and from the fees in Exhibit D, the parties will work together following the Effective Date to memorialize the description of the Services in Exhibit C along with the fees therefor.
- (b) FIS and FNT shall jointly prepare a non-binding technology plan (the "Technology Plan") within one hundred twenty (120) days after the Effective Date, and create updated Technology Plans in accordance with Section 3.10. Each Technology Plan after the first shall review and assess the immediately preceding Technology Plan. The Technology Plan shall consist of a three-year plan and an annual implementation of the plan and shall include a comprehensive assessment and strategic analysis of FNT's then-current IT systems and services for the next three (3) years, including an assessment of the appropriate direction for such systems and the Services in light of FNT's business priorities and strategies and competitive market forces.
- (c) "Ancillary Tasks" shall mean those tasks, services, functions and responsibilities which are incidental to and normally associated with the performance of the Services, or are reasonably necessary to perform the Services, as contemplated by this Agreement and as performed by FIS prior to the Effective Date; Ancillary Tasks are included within the concept and definition of Services and shall be performed by FIS to the same extent and in the same manner as performed prior to the Effective Date and, further, as if specifically and expressly described as a Service.

- (d) FNT and FIS agree that each of the FNT Entities shall have the right to receive, use and benefit from the Services to be provided pursuant to this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Subsidiary" shall mean any corporation or other legal entity of which Fidelity National Information Services, Inc. controls or owns, directly or indirectly, more than fifty percent (50%) of the stock or other equity interest entitled to vote on the election of the members to the board of directors or similar governing body. FNT shall be fully responsible for compliance by each FNT Entity with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. FNT shall be the sole point of contact for FIS for all requests, communications, decisions, and approvals under this Agreement. FNT shall resolve, and FIS shall not be responsible for, any conflicts among the FNT Entities which affect FIS'S performance of the Services. FIS shall look solely to FNT for the payment of Fees. An entity which ceases to be an FNT Entity shall, ipso facto, cease to enjoy rights hereunder, but any of the FNT Entities may use its rights hereunder to transition the former FNT Entity off the Services, for a reasonable period, not to exceed twelve (12) months, without breach hereof. In any such event, FNT shall continue to pay for Services requested by FNT and provided by FIS in support of the transitioning FNT entity or business and shall be responsible for the performance of such transitioning entity in conformity with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- (e) Subject to Section 3.1(d) and Section 3.5 (Additional Services) and subject to the terms of the applicable Base Service Agreement, FNT shall have the right to add additional entities, additional volumes and business units to this Agreement; provided that the addition or deletion of such entities or business units does not materially affect FIS'S obligations under this Agreement. Any such increase or decrease in volume resulting from the addition or deletion of entities, additional volumes or business units shall be treated as any other increase or decrease in the resource volumes invoiced to FNT. FNT shall share information with FIS necessary to allow FIS to determine which resources will be required to perform the Services and any Additional Services, subject to applicable confidentiality restrictions.

3.2. FIS Responsible for all Service Providers and FIS Subcontractors. The specific services to be provided under this Agreement shall be identified in the Base Services Agreements, Statement(s) of Work, Exhibits and Amendments to this Agreement as mutually agreed upon in writing by both parties. FIS will provide the Services on its own and/or through one or more subcontractors ("FIS Subcontractors") and FIS will be responsible and liable for compliance by the FIS Subcontractors with all applicable laws and regulations, the terms herein relating to confidentiality, data and data security, and the Fidelity Information Security Policy (attached as Exhibit J) and such additional terms as are identified by FNT to FIS as being expressly required in any subcontract. FIS shall be fully responsible for compliance by each FIS Subcontractor with the terms and conditions of this Agreement and for policing and enforcing each subcontract. FIS shall be the sole point of contact for all FIS Subcontractors for all requests, communications, decisions, and approvals under this Agreement. FIS shall resolve, and FNT shall not be responsible for, any conflicts among the FIS Subcontractors which affect performance of the Services. FNT shall be liable hereunder solely to FIS (and not to any subcontractor) for performance of this Agreement by FNT (or FNT Entities). FIS'S use of an FIS Subcontractor in the performance of the Services under this Agreement shall not, under any circumstances, operate to relieve FIS of any of its obligations or liabilities under this Agreement or shift responsibility therefore to FNT.

3.3. Core Services. The parties agree that as a result of the baselining effort described in Section 3.1(a), certain Services will, upon mutual agreement of the parties be deemed "Core Services." These Core Services may include: (i) managed operations, (ii) network, (iii) e-mail/messaging, (iv) network routing, (v) technology center infrastructure, (vi) active directory and domains, (vii) security management, (viii) disaster recovery, (ix) systems development and (x) business continuity. Notwithstanding any contrary limitation of remedies for FIS failure to meet Service Levels, failure of FIS to maintain agreed Service Levels for Core Services (as set forth in Exhibit H or otherwise), may rise to a material breach of this Agreement warranting termination, may accrue elevated Service Level Credits and may be the subject of damage claims.

3.4. Base Services Agreements. All Base Services Agreements attached hereto as a Schedule to Exhibit C (each a "Base Services Agreement" and collectively, the "Base Services Agreements") form a part of this Agreement. All applicable terms, conditions, responsibilities and delivery schedules that apply to a particular Service are identified in the applicable Base Services Agreement(s) and shall govern the provision of the relevant Service. Each Base Services Agreement shall contain a description of the Services to be performed, the applicable Fees and the Service-specific terms, conditions, responsibilities and delivery schedules which shall govern the provision of the relevant Services. All consistent terms of this Agreement shall also apply to performance of each of the foregoing Base Services Agreements. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by both parties, the Services to be rendered by FIS to FNT are limited to those Services that are specifically described in the Base Services Agreements and the related Ancillary Tasks. Any new terms, conditions, responsibilities or delivery schedules which may be specifically applicable to any particular Service, as they may be negotiated through the course of business, shall be set forth in writing and executed by the parties and added to this Agreement either as a new Base Services Agreement, Statement of Work or as an amendment to this Agreement. Such action shall not constitute a modification or change of any provision of this Agreement or of any provision of any other Base Services Agreement, unless expressly stated in such written agreement. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and a Base Services Agreement, the terms of this Agreement shall control unless the Base Services Agreement expressly states that, in the event of conflict with this specific Agreement (and not conflicting agreements generally), the Base Services Agreement shall control.

3.5. Statements of Work, Right of First Look, and Additional Services.

- (a) FNT may from time to time request that FIS perform services that are not specified herein (nor implied, as Ancillary Tasks) as being included in the Services ("Additional Services"). During the Term, if FNT wishes to outsource services similar to the Services, FNT will first request such services from FIS as FNT's preferred provider, prior to requesting them from any other service provider, as follows. Upon request by FNT in writing to the FIS Relationship Manager in detail sufficient for FIS to respond, FIS will promptly respond in an amount of time appropriate to the complexity of project, but in no event more than ten (10) days later, providing FNT, in writing, (1) (A) a description in reasonable detail of the work FIS proposes to perform to fulfill the request for Additional Services, including when appropriate suggested software and/or hardware, (B) a schedule for commencing and completing such Additional Services, and (C) FIS'S full prospective charges and/or rates for completing and/or maintaining such Additional Services or (2) an estimate of time by which FIS shall provide to FNT the information set forth in subsections 3.5(a)(1)(A), (B) and (C) hereof.
- (b) If FNT determines to move forward with such Additional Services from FIS on the terms offered, the parties shall work together over an appropriate period of time, not to exceed ten (10) days, to determine the following matters and develop a schedule for an appropriate Statement of Work: (1) when appropriate, any new software or hardware required by FIS to deliver the Additional Services, (2) when appropriate, if requested by FNT, the Designated Software, Equipment and run time requirements necessary to develop and operate any new applications required to deliver the Additional Services, (3) when appropriate, a description of the human resources necessary to develop and provide the Additional Services, (4) when appropriate, a list of any existing applications or hardware necessary to be used in delivering the Additional Services, and an assessment of the impact on then-current Services supported by such applications and/or hardware, (5) when appropriate, acceptance test criteria and procedures for any new applications, products, packages or services which are part of any Additional Services and (6) the applicable Fees. Thereafter, the parties shall mutually agree upon the time frame for the completion of the Statement of Work.
- (c) If after FNT's receipt of FIS'S initial response to FNT's request for Additional Services containing the information set forth in Section 3.5(a)(1), FNT determines to move forward with such Additional Services it may elect, in writing, to have FIS promptly commence performance of such Additional Services on a time and materials basis, in accord with the FIS response and all applicable terms herein, pending execution of a definitive Statement of Work and for an FNT-specified period of not more than sixty (60) days. Such interim work shall be performed on a time and materials basis at the Professional Services Rate set forth in Exhibit B. If FNT indicates to FIS its desire to negotiate a Statement of Work pending, during or instead of, assuming a time and materials arrangement, the Parties shall promptly commence negotiations thereof. Either party may discontinue negotiation of the definitive Statement of Work at such party's discretion at any time. Alternatively, if the FIS response is not acceptable to FNT, FNT may propose to, or request from, FIS a revision or refinement of the form or substance of FIS'S initial response. FIS will promptly (but in no event more than five (5) days later) respond with (1) a revised proposal or (2) an estimate of time by which FIS shall provide a revised proposal, and the process described above may repeat. A request by FNT for a revised proposal shall not be deemed a rejection of the original FIS proposal which may be taken up on a time and materials basis at any time within sixty (60) days of the relevant FIS response. If FIS fails to timely respond to a request for revised proposal, FNT may, for all purposes, deem such inaction as a rejection by FIS of the opportunity to make a counter proposal.

- (d) FIS shall not commence, nor shall FNT be liable to pay for, any Additional Service unless and until FIS and FNT have entered into either a time and materials agreement or Statement of Work (as contemplated above) or an Amendment to this Agreement in accord with Section 23.7 (Amendments). Upon entering into an agreement for Additional Services, such Additional Services shall be deemed included within the concept of Services.

3.6. License Management. Subject to FNT's prior written approval of FIS'S proposed acquisition of FNT Software and the related Pass Through Expenses, upon FNT's request, FIS shall obtain in FNT's name, comply with and maintain (for so long as used to support Services) all software licenses for FNT Software. FIS shall maintain, substantially current, a log of all FNT Software and FIS Software used or accessed by FNT or its customers and upon FNT's request from time to time shall provide FNT with a Report (i) identifying all current software comprising FNT Software and FIS Software used or accessed by FNT or its customers, and (ii) describing any unresolved disputes or contract claims arising under those licenses obtained by FIS in FNT's name.

3.7. Licenses and Permits. FIS, at its expense, and with FNT's reasonable assistance, shall obtain all business licenses and permits required by any applicable legal requirement, including laws, regulations, rules, orders, decrees or legislative enactments of any kind which FIS is required to have obtained in order to perform the Services.

3.8. Change Control Procedures. The change control procedures initially applicable hereto shall be those described in Section 4.1 of Exhibit A hereto (the "Change Control Procedures"). In the event information contained in any documentation is no longer accurate or current due to the implementation of a change, FIS shall revise the impacted documentation and provide revised documentation to FNT within five (5) days after such change. Upon reasonable notice to FIS, and to the extent relevant to any such change, FIS shall provide FNT access to FIS'S operations procedures which relate to the provision of the Services, as documented by FIS, and subject to FIS'S confidentiality obligations to third parties.

3.9. Product Discontinuation. With respect to any FNT Equipment, FNT Third Party Software which FIS uses to provide Services, or FIS Software used in connection with the provision of the Services under this Agreement which is scheduled for discontinuation by the manufacturer thereof, FIS will provide FNT with written notice of such planned discontinuation and will make recommendations for replacement.

3.10. Improved Technology and Practices.

- (a) Within thirty (30) days after each January 1 and July 1 during the Term, the Management Committee will review actual information technology trends during the previous calendar year based on objective third-party information presented by either party and update the Technology Plan accordingly. Subject to the Change Control Procedures of this Agreement, FIS shall cause the Services to evolve and to be modified, enhanced, supplemented and replaced as necessary for the Services to keep pace with technological advances and advances in the methods of delivering services, at least to the extent that such advances are at the time pertinent in general use within the insurance industry. FIS shall not be required under the terms of this Agreement to replace equipment, software or other technology in less than three (3) years after its acquisition by FIS provided that: (1) at the time of acquisition the equipment, software or other technology was current, in so far as such equipment, software or technology was in general use in the financial institution industry, (2) FIS did not know or have reason to know that such equipment, software or other technology was likely to become obsolete in less than eighteen (18) months after acquisition, and (3) FIS can establish that it is unable to re-deploy such previously acquired technology to other uses for FNT or other FIS customers. FNT recognizes that such advances may be dependent upon the FNT Proprietary Software and Equipment.
- (b) Any change in the technology used by FIS to provide the Services including changes which might materially affect FIS'S internal connectivity or architecture shall be implemented pursuant to the Change Control Procedures.

3.11. Disaster Recovery and Component Recovery. FIS shall establish and support a disaster recovery plan, pursuant to Schedule C-8. Upon the occurrence of an outage or interruption of Services involving a component or components of the System or FNT Proprietary Software covered by the disaster recovery and processing restoration plan, FIS shall provide the recovery and restoration Services described in the relevant Base Services Agreement.

3.12. Reports. During the Term and the Termination Assistance Period, FIS will continue to provide to FNT those reports, including without limitation Service Level Reports and business reports which FIS or any Subsidiary is providing to any FNT Entity as of the date of execution hereof, on the current schedule therefor or as subsequently agreed, together with such additional reports as are specified herein or as may be reasonably requested by FNT from time to time (collectively, the "Reports" and each, a "Report"), including, specifically, a monthly report of actual Service Levels as contrasted to then-current contract Service Levels. Expenses of monitoring FNT performance or otherwise enabling relevant data capture, and otherwise of providing the Reports, shall be borne by FIS. Reports shall be provided in electronic copies.

3.13. Compliance Environment. FIS acknowledges that FNT and certain FNT Entities are subject to various general and industry-specific laws and regulations, and that FNT has promulgated and provided to FIS (and will promulgate from time to time and provide to FIS) various internal policies to assure compliance with such laws and regulations. FNT shall apprise FIS from time to time of laws and regulations uniquely applicable to FNT Entities to the extent regulated by State Departments of Insurance, and of proposed changes to such laws and regulations and, when applicable, anticipated effective dates (each, a "Regulation"). To the extent that such Regulations and/or the Fidelity Information Security Policy have an impact on the Services, FNT will advise FIS of such impact and the Services (including, if appropriate, adjustments to the Service Levels and the Fees therefor) shall be adjusted appropriately pursuant to the Change Control Procedures. Subject to the foregoing, FIS will operate and deliver its Services in compliance with the Fidelity Information Security Policy. All changes to the Services shall be made in accordance with the Change Control Procedures. Subject to mutually agreed upon lead times for implementation, all Services shall be performed by FIS and FIS Subcontractors in a manner consistent with Regulations as made known to FIS from time to time and reflected in the Services pursuant to Change Control Procedures, modifying operations and practices as necessary.

3.14. Title to Work Product. FIS agrees that each item of FIS work product that constitutes FNT Software or FNT Data or changes thereto created by or for FIS by reason of its undertakings to provide Services to FNT (excluding all Confidential Information of FIS and its Subsidiaries) or work product that FNT specifically retains FIS to create as part of the Services (e.g. under Schedule C-9), including without limitation software, data bases, files, compilations, logs and reports is, to the extent applicable, a "work made for hire" as defined under U.S. copyright law and that, as a result, FNT shall own all copyrights in such work product as it arises or otherwise comes into being. To the extent that such work product does not qualify as a work made for hire under applicable law, and/or to the extent that any of the foregoing includes content subject to copyright, patent, trademark, trade secret, or other intellectual property rights, FIS hereby continuously assigns to FNT, its successors and assigns, all right, title and interest in and to any such work product as the same arises or otherwise comes into being during the Term, including all copyrights, patents, trademarks, trade secrets, and other proprietary rights therein (including renewals thereof). From time to time during or following the Term, FIS shall execute and deliver to FNT such additional instruments, and take such other actions, as FNT may reasonably request to confirm, evidence or carry out the grants of rights contemplated by this paragraph. FIS shall own other work product it creates, as further described in Section 9.3(a) regarding FIS Proprietary Software. Notwithstanding the foregoing FIS shall retain the rights to utilize any skills, knowledge, and expertise that it develops in performing the Services, in connection with the services FIS provides to third parties, so long as, in doing so, FIS does not use any tangible embodiment of FNT-owned work product or otherwise violate FIS'S obligations of confidentiality under Article 16. Without prejudice to any other licenses granted elsewhere, the preceding sentence will not constitute a license of FNT copyrights or patents.

3.15. FIS Affiliate Statements of Work. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, certain non-subsidiary affiliates of FIS, including without limitation Softpro and FNIS' Real Estate Division (each, an "Affiliate Provider") may, with the consent of FNT, enter into Statements of Work for which the Affiliate Provider shall have direct liability to FNT (and for which, notwithstanding Section 3.2 above, FIS shall have no liability.) In such event, the Affiliate Provider shall simultaneously execute and deliver a copy of Exhibit 3.15 hereto, duly completed, agreeing to the applicable terms of this Agreement as set forth in Exhibit 3.15 and as necessary to accommodate the disintermediation of FIS with respect to the undertaking of the Affiliate Provider.

ARTICLE 4. CUSTOMER SATISFACTION

4.1. Baseline FNT Satisfaction Survey. FIS shall administer a baseline customer satisfaction survey, in form and content reasonably satisfactory to FNT, and compile and share the results with the FNT Relationship Managers, no later than December 31, 2005, with content and scope, and pursuant to procedures, agreed between FNT and FIS. The survey conducted pursuant to this Section 4.1 will constitute the baseline for measurements of performance improvements described in Section 4.2.

4.2. FNT Satisfaction Survey. At least once every twelve (12) months and, at FNT's request, up to two (2) times in any year on or about dates specified by FNT on no less than thirty (30) days' notice, FIS shall conduct a customer satisfaction survey. The survey must, at a minimum, cover (a) end-users of the Services and (b) senior management of end-users. The content, scope, method and timing of the above surveys are subject to FNT's and FIS'S prior agreement, and must be consistent with the baseline FNT survey conducted pursuant to Section 4.1 except that any new application or Service will be included in any such survey undertaken more than thirty (30) days following implementation of such application or Service. FIS will make reasonable efforts to increase FNT satisfaction throughout the Term. FIS will use reasonable efforts to make an increase in FNT satisfaction a key performance incentive in connection with the compensation for key executives of FIS assigned to FNT's account.

ARTICLE 5. SERVICE LEVELS; SERVICE LEVEL CREDITS; ADJUSTMENTS TO SERVICE LEVELS

5.1. Services. At all times FIS'S level of performance shall be at least equal to specific Service Levels identified in or pursuant to this Agreement, as such Service Levels may be modified from time to time. All Services hereunder (including but not limited to Ancillary Tasks and Additional Services) shall also be performed in accordance with the Base Services Agreements.

5.2. Adjustment of Service Levels. FIS shall use reasonable efforts throughout the Term to continuously improve the quality and efficiency of its performance of the Services taken as a whole. Additionally, as the relevant technology that FIS uses in its overall operations changes and improves, FIS will use all reasonable efforts to improve the Services in a similar fashion as appropriate. Either FNT or FIS may, upon notice to the other party, no more frequently than two (2) times in any calendar year, initiate negotiations to review and, upon agreement by FNT and FIS, adjust the Service Level(s) which such party in good faith believes is inappropriate, ineffective or irrelevant at that time or to reflect improved efficiencies and/or capabilities enabled by advances in technology, processes and methods implemented by FIS, including without limitation changes pursuant to the Technology Plan. During such reviews, FIS shall work with FNT to identify possible cost/service level tradeoffs (but any resulting changes in the Service Levels shall be implemented only if mutually agreed). As new technologies and processes are introduced, the Parties shall establish additional Service Levels reflecting industry appropriate practices for those technologies and processes. Until such time as such additional Service Levels for those technologies and processes are agreed upon by the parties, FIS shall provide Services in no event at a level less than provided by FIS to any other of its similarly situated customers, internal or external.

5.3. Failure to Perform; Root-Cause Analysis. If FIS becomes aware of its failure to meet any Service Level, whether through internal monitoring or by receipt of notice from FNT, (each such event being a "Failure Recognition Event"), FIS shall promptly assess the nature, severity and tractability of the failure and provide either a solution or work-around with respect to such failure within twenty-four (24) hours of the Failure Recognition Event (or within any lesser period which may be required by Exhibit H or otherwise with respect thereto) and, if providing a work-around, will correct such failure as promptly as possible, but in any event within five (5) days of the Failure Recognition Event (or within any lesser period which may be required by Exhibit H or otherwise with respect thereto), at no additional cost to FNT. FIS shall use reasonable commercial efforts to minimize the time that a work around (as opposed to a solution) is utilized. FIS shall complete a root-cause analysis within fifteen (15) calendar days of the Failure Recognition Event. During such process, FIS shall keep FNT apprised of progress toward a resolution. Further, FIS shall, at its expense, promptly investigate, assemble and preserve pertinent information with respect to, and report on the causes of, the problem causing the Service Level failure, including performing a root-cause analysis of the problem to identify the cause of such failure. If the root-cause analysis reflects that FNT Software, FNT Third Party Software (except FNT Third Party Software licensed by FNT that is not FNT Approved Software) or FNT Equipment was the primary basis in FIS'S failing to meet the Service Level or if such failure is due to an exception to Service Level performance under Exhibit H, then (a) FIS shall promptly provide FNT with a complete copy of such root-cause analysis including a detailed description of the causes of the failure and the actions taken by FIS to correct such failure, (b) FNT shall reimburse FIS for any out of pocket costs or expenses incurred by FIS for correction of such failure, (c) FIS shall be excused from the compliance of applicable Service Levels and the payment or credit of any Service Level Credits to the extent such performance is within one or more of the Service Level exceptions reflected on Schedule H, and (d) FNT will compensate FIS at FIS'S full rates under this Agreement for any incremental personnel, beyond those that would otherwise be performing Services, required for FIS to correct the failure.

5.4. Service Level Credits. In the event of a failure of FIS to provide the Services in accordance with the applicable Service Levels set forth on Exhibit H, FIS will incur the Service Level Credits identified in, and according to, the schedule set forth in Exhibit H. Except as expressly set forth herein, FNT's sole and exclusive monetary remedy for FIS'S failure to comply with Service Levels for those Services for which FNT has elected to receive Service Level Credits, shall be the Service Level Credits; FNT nonetheless may exercise any applicable right of whole or partial termination provided for in Section 18 of this Agreement to the extent that the facts and circumstances so justify.

5.5. Priority of Recovery of Services. Until such time as the baseline has been completed and the terms and conditions of the Base Services Agreement for Disaster Recovery Services have been agreed upon, FIS shall give the recovery of its capabilities to perform the Services and the resumption of its actual performance of the Services the same or greater priority it gives to recovering its capabilities to perform services and resuming its performance of those services for any other similarly situated customer of FIS and FIS'S own operations.

5.6. Service Level Measurement. FIS shall utilize the necessary measurement and monitoring tools and procedures required to measure and report FIS'S performance of the Services against the applicable Service Levels. Such measurement and monitoring shall permit reporting at a level of detail sufficient to verify compliance with the Service Levels, and shall be subject to audit by FNT as described below in Section 5.7. FIS shall provide FNT with information regarding such tools and procedures upon request, for purposes of verification, project and contract management.

5.7. Service Level Audit. FNT may, at FNT's expense, audit the operations, procedures, policies and Service Levels of FIS relevant to the Services and this Agreement, on ten (10) business days prior written notice to FIS and at times mutually agreeable by FIS so as to not materially disrupt the operations of FIS, acting itself (a "Service Level Auditor"). The Service Level Auditor shall perform a review and audit of FIS'S performance of the Services in relation to the required Service Levels (a "Service Level Audit"). If the Service Level Auditor is required to prepare and submit to FNT a written report of the results of the Service Level Audit (a "Service Level Audit Report"), FNT will deliver to FIS a copy of the Service Level Audit Report within thirty (30) days of FNT's receipt thereof.

ARTICLE 6. SERVICE LOCATIONS

6.1. FIS Service Locations. The Services will be provided from one or more of FIS'S data centers or other service locations identified in Exhibit E or otherwise designated by FIS and agreed by FNT (collectively, the "FIS Service Location(s)") or from an FNT Location, as set forth in the applicable Base Services Agreement. In the event FIS proposes to move an FIS Service Location, or the support of a Service Component (either, an "FIS Service Location Move"), FIS shall provide FNT no less than sixty (60) days prior written notice of such proposed move specifying the Service Components affected and the current and future proposed supporting FIS Service Location. Within thirty (30) days after such notice, FIS and FNT shall agree, in writing, as to the scope of such FIS Service Location Move and any assumptions underlying the FIS Service Location Move which might affect costs or expenses of FNT caused by such FIS Service Location Move. Within thirty (30) days after such agreement, FNT will give to FIS, in writing, a description of those costs and expenses which FNT in its reasonable and good faith judgment anticipates will be caused by the FIS Service Location Move ("Move Expense Summary"). Within sixty (60) days after an FIS Service Location Move occurs, FIS shall credit to FNT those costs and expenses of FNT which FNT establishes were caused by the FIS Service Location Move, but not more than 110% of the amount specified for each cost or expense in the Move Expense Summary.

If the scope of, or assumptions underlying, the FIS Service Location Move change from those to which the parties agreed, the parties will agree in good faith to make an equitable adjustment to the Move Expense Summary to reflect such differences. Labor costs caused by the FIS Service Location Move shall be based on FNT's actual salary and benefit expense for such labor. FNT shall provide FIS with the project plan for expenses incurred in connection with the FIS Service Location Move (the "FIS Service Location Project Plan") promptly following the completion of the FIS Service Location Move. The FIS Service Location Project Plan shall indicate the time spent by each FNT personnel in connection with the FIS Service Location Move in bi-monthly increments, a description of such personnel's activities, the direct payroll expense for such personnel and the direct non-payroll expenses incurred for such personnel.

6.2. Safety and Security Procedures.

- (a) FIS shall maintain and enforce, at the FIS Service Locations, safety and security procedures that are at least (i) compliant with Regulations and the Fidelity Information Security Policy in accordance with FIS'S obligations under Section 3.13, (ii) equal to industry standards for such FIS Service Locations, and (iii) as rigorous as those procedures in effect at the FIS Service Locations as of the Effective Date. FIS shall investigate and remedy any Security Incident (as defined below) at the FIS Service Locations, if applicable, in accordance with the provisions of this Section.
- (b) At the FIS Service Locations, FIS shall maintain and comply with safeguards against the destruction, loss or alteration of FNT Data (the "Data Safeguards") which are at least (i) compliant with the requirements of Section 3.13, (ii) equal to generally accepted insurance industry standards, and (iii) as rigorous as those procedures used in protection of its own similar data as of the Effective Date. The safeguards shall include (1) FNT Data back up and storage which is separate from that of other FIS customers, and (2) upon request, reports of appropriate logs of the internal FIS firewall(s), FIS leveraged firewalls used to deliver FNT services or FIS-managed, FNT-dedicated firewalls which separate the FNT segment from other FIS segments (except that FIS reserves the right to mask certain sensitive information (e.g., FIS internal or other FIS customer IP addresses)). All changes to the firewall rule sets which will affect the delivery of the Services shall be made in accordance with Change Control Procedures. FNT shall be permitted to conduct, or to cause FIS to engage a third party (who is not a competitor and is mutually agreeable to FIS) to conduct, at FNT's expense and no more frequently than once a year, a review of FIS'S information security management, the FIS firewall rule sets for the internal FIS firewall(s) which separate the FNT segment from other FIS segments or leveraged firewalls used to deliver FNT services (except that FIS reserves the right to mask certain sensitive information (e.g., FIS internal or other FIS customer IP addresses)), FIS-managed, FNT-dedicated firewalls and any other security procedures implemented at the FIS Technology Centers (as set forth in Exhibit E) with respect to the Systems at the FIS Technology Centers upon reasonable notice (which shall be no less than ten (10) days notice for such reviews by auditors and inspectors designated by FNT and upon request, regardless of advance notice (a) to the extent FNT is required to conduct a more immediate review for compliance with law and (b) for more immediate reviews by FNT regulators) and so as to not disrupt FIS business operations. Such access shall be provided to FNT in accordance with FIS'S security and audit guidelines (i.e., access will be provided at the applicable FIS Service Location with the assistance of FIS personnel and shall include the opportunity to review but not copy the logs). FIS shall cooperate fully with any FNT investigation of a Security Incident. Such collaboration shall include permitting FNT access to internal audit data and logs of communications traffic pertinent to the Security Incident, provided that FIS shall not be required to disclose any information regarding other customers of FIS.

- (c) FIS shall maintain in effect at all times, and promulgate, within FIS and FIS Subcontractors performing Services, a Security Incident response plan, describing procedures for FIS to follow in the event of any actual (i) unauthorized use, access, disclosure, theft, manipulation and/or reproduction of FNT Data, and/or (ii) security breach of the Systems associated with the accessing, processing, storage, communication and/or transmission of FNT Data (a "Security Breach") or if FIS or FNT has a reasonable cause to believe that such a Security Breach has occurred or will occur (collectively, a "Security Incident"). This Security Incident Response Plan will include a documented escalation procedure and a process for notifying FNT immediately upon FIS'S becoming aware of a Security Incident without regard to incident point of origination. Communication to FNT as to a Security Incident should, in the first instance, be directed to the FNT Relationship Manager within one (1) hour of FIS'S awareness thereof, in a manner and timeframe consistent with California's Security Breach Notification Act and any other applicable law and/or regulation.
- (d) Subject to appropriate protections of third party confidential information, FNT may elect, with FIS'S cooperation, to observe any FIS investigation associated with any such Security Incident and FIS will, in any event, keep FNT informed of all progress and actions taken in response to each Security Incident. FNT in its sole discretion will determine whether to provide notification to customers, employees or agents concerning a breach or potential breach of security or any other type or form of Security Incident. Furthermore, FNT, and not FIS, will determine the need for and will have the sole authority to initiate disclosure to appropriate government authorities in the event of a security breach, unless such disclosure by FIS is mandated by applicable law or regulation.
- (e) FIS agrees to maintain on all Systems associated with access, processing, storage, communication and/or transmission of FNT Data, a continuous monitoring program to enable early detection of any known or suspected instance of unauthorized use, access, disclosure, theft, manipulation, reproduction and/or possible Security Incident.
- (f) To the extent that any of the Services are provided from a location other than an FIS Service Location, including but not limited to locations or facilities provided by FNT to FIS for the purposes of providing the Services (a "FNT Location"), FIS shall comply with those safety and security procedures that are in effect at such FNT Location and of which FIS is aware or reasonably should be aware. To the extent FNT's personnel are present at the FIS Service Location in connection with the performance of the Services, FNT shall comply with those safety and security policies and procedures imposed by FIS at FIS Service Locations of which FNT is aware or reasonably should be aware.

ARTICLE 7. RELATIONSHIP MANAGEMENT; DISPUTE RESOLUTION

7.1. Relationship Managers. Each party will designate a relationship manager, who initially will be Dan Leisle for FIS (the "FIS Relationship Manager") and Jan Ellis, Kevin Chiarello and Neil VillacortaBuer for FNT (the "FNT Relationship Managers") (collectively, the "Management Committee"). The Management Committee shall meet at least once each month during the Term to discuss any matters related to the Services or this Agreement. The FNT Relationship Managers will serve as the primary points of contact for FIS with respect to this Agreement. The FIS Relationship Manager will have overall responsibility for day-to-day management and administration of the Services provided under this Agreement and will serve as the primary contact for FNT with respect to this Agreement. The FIS Relationship Manager shall, at the request of FNT and with reasonable notice, attend any meeting related to this Agreement, the Systems, the FNT Proprietary Software or any of the Services, at FIS'S expense. If either party elects to replace a Relationship Manager, the replacement shall have the background, experience and qualifications necessary to perform his or her assigned duties and such party shall give the other party reasonable notice of such replacement.

7.2. Escalation Procedures.

- (a) All disputes, controversies, or claims arising out of or relating to this Agreement, ("Dispute(s)") shall be settled as set forth in this Section 7.2 (unless excepted pursuant to Section 7.2(d), 12.2 or 16.3). Disputes shall be initially referred to the Management Committee prior to escalation to First Tier Management (as defined below). If the Management Committee is unable to resolve, or does not anticipate resolving, a Dispute within ten (10) days after referral of the matter to it, then either party shall submit the Dispute to the First Tier Management.
- (b) Each party will designate a first tier manager, who will initially be the Senior Vice President - currently Harold Fackler, for FIS and Chief Administrative Officer of FNT, currently Ed Dewey for FNT (collectively, the "First Tier Management"). The First Tier Management shall meet at least once every two (2) months during the first year hereunder, and thereafter with such frequency as the First Tier Management may mutually agree, but in no event less frequently than once every ninety (90) days, for the purposes of (a) discussing the status of matters related to the Services, FIS performance, and any other matters and (b) resolving Disputes that may arise under this Agreement. The First Tier Management shall consider Disputes in the order such Disputes are brought before it. The First Tier Management shall negotiate in good faith and each use commercially reasonable efforts to resolve such Dispute. The location, format, frequency, duration and conclusion of these elevated discussions shall be left to the discretion of the representatives involved subject to the last sentence of this Subsection 7.2(b). Upon agreement, the representatives may utilize other alternative dispute resolution procedures to assist in the negotiations. Discussions and correspondence among the representatives for purposes of these negotiations shall be treated as confidential information developed for purposes of settlement, exempt from discovery and production, which shall not be admissible in subsequent proceedings between the parties. Documents identified in or provided with such communications, which are not prepared for purposes of the negotiations, are not so exempted and may, if otherwise admissible, be admitted in evidence in such subsequent proceeding. If the First Tier management is unable to resolve, or does not anticipate resolving, a Dispute within twenty (20) days after referral to it, the parties must submit the Dispute to the Executive Management (as defined below) pursuant to Subsection 7.2(c).

- (c) If the negotiations conducted pursuant to Section 7.2(b) do not lead to resolution of the underlying Dispute to the satisfaction of a party involved in such negotiations, then either party may notify the other in writing that it desires to elevate the Dispute to the President of FIS, currently Hugh Harris, and the President of FNT, currently Randy Quirk, (collectively, the "Executive Management") for resolution. Upon receipt by the other party of such written notice, the Dispute shall be so elevated and the President of FIS and the President of FNT shall negotiate in good faith and each use commercially reasonable efforts to resolve such Dispute within thirty (30) days. The location, format, frequency, duration and conclusion of these elevated discussions shall be left to the discretion of the representatives involved. Upon mutual agreement, the Dispute may be mediated before either party may resort to litigation. Upon agreement, the representatives may utilize other alternative dispute resolution procedures to assist in the negotiations. Discussions and correspondence among the representatives for purposes of these negotiations shall be treated as confidential information developed for purposes of settlement, exempt from discovery and production, which shall not be admissible in any subsequent proceedings between the parties. Documents identified in or provided with such communications, which are not prepared for purposes of the negotiations, are not so exempted and may, if otherwise admissible, be admitted in evidence in such subsequent proceeding.
- (d) In the event that a Dispute is not resolved within thirty (30) days after the referral of the Dispute to the Executive Management, either party may refer the Dispute to binding arbitration in accordance with the then current versions of the Commercial Arbitration Rules and Mediation Procedures of the American Arbitration Association. The arbitration will be conducted in Jacksonville, Florida in front of one mutually agreed upon arbitrator. The parties agree to participate in the management escalation process described in this Section 7.2 (the "Escalation Process") to its conclusion and not to terminate negotiations concerning resolution of the matters in dispute until the earlier of conclusion of the Escalation Process or termination or expiration of this Agreement. Each party agrees not to commence an arbitration action or seek other remedies prior to the conclusion of the Escalation Process, provided that either party may commence an arbitration action on any date (i) if, within the thirty (30) days thereafter, the commencement of a judicial claim might be barred by an applicable statute of limitations or (ii) in order to request an injunction to prevent irreparable harm. In such event, the parties agree (except as prohibited by court order) to continue to participate in the Escalation Process to its conclusion and to toll the statute of limitations until thirty (30) days after conclusion of the Escalation Process.

7.3. Continuity of Services. In the event of a Dispute between FNT and FIS pursuant to which FNT in good faith and reasonably believes it is entitled to withhold payment and during the pendency of the dispute resolution process described in this Article 7, FIS shall continue to provide the Services and FNT shall continue to pay any undisputed amounts to FIS. If the Dispute relates to performance of the Services to which a Service Level Credit is applicable, FNT may withhold only an amount equal to that part of the Service Level Credit which is disputed by FNT. If (i) a Dispute is not resolved within thirty (30) days after such disputed amounts would have been payable had such amounts not been disputed, and (ii) a Dispute or series of Disputes involves amounts totaling greater than $100,000, the party initially taking the Dispute to the Management Committee (the "Disputing Party") shall pay the disputed amount (the "Deposit Amount") into an interest-bearing account with a mutually agreeable independent financial institution (the "Deposit Institution") pending resolution of such Dispute or Disputes. During the pendency of any Dispute, the Deposit Amount shall be deemed for tax purposes the property of the Disputing Party and all income on the Disputed Amount shall be income of the Disputing Party and it shall file its tax return consistent with such treatment. Each party agrees to payment by the Deposit Institution to the Disputing Party, as and when necessary, the cumulative annual tax due arising from interest due earned on the Disputed Amount. Upon resolution of the Dispute with respect to which any Deposit Amount has been placed with a Deposit Institution, the parties shall allocate the Deposit Amount and any fees relating to opening and maintaining the Deposit Amount with the Deposit Institution, plus any interest earned on the Deposit Amount or taxes paid on such interest, in accordance with the resolution of the Dispute. For any Dispute, FIS shall continue to perform the Services at the Service Levels and FNT shall continue to pay for such Services and any Additional Services pending the completion of the Dispute resolution procedure described in Article 7 subject to the foregoing provisions of this Section 7.3.

ARTICLE 8. PROJECT STAFF

8.1. Project Staff. Subject to the terms of this Article 8, FIS shall appoint and manage individuals with suitable training and skills as described in this Section 8.1 to perform the Services (the "Project Staff"). FIS shall notify FNT as soon as possible after any Project Staff member dedicated to the Services resigns or is dismissed or for any other reason will no longer be performing Services, whether on a permanent or temporary basis. The Project Staff assigned to perform FIS'S obligations under this Agreement shall have experience, training, and expertise equal to personnel with similar responsibilities in the business in which FIS is engaged and shall have sufficient knowledge of the relevant aspects of the Services, and shall obtain sufficient knowledge of the practices and areas of expertise of each FNT Entity, to enable them to efficiently and effectively perform their duties and responsibilities under this Agreement. If FNT reasonably and in good faith recommends the removal of a Project Staff member dedicated to providing the Services to FNT from FNT's account, FIS shall discuss FNT's recommendation and if, after such discussion, FNT still wishes the removal, FIS shall remove the Project Staff member. If FNT reasonably and in good faith recommends the removal of a Project Staff member who FIS is leveraging in providing the Services to FNT from FNT's account, FIS shall discuss FNT's recommendation in good faith and either remove the Project Staff member or offer other commercially reasonable alternatives to address FNT's concerns. Nothing herein gives FNT the right to affect the employment relationship between FIS and any employee of FIS.

8.2. Account Manager; FTEs. FIS shall assign a team of account managers on a full time basis to serve on FNT's account (the "Account Managers"). Such Account Managers shall initially be Beth Rucker and Tom Weaver. FIS shall retain the initial Account Managers throughout the Term to the extent reasonably practicable. Upon FNT's request, and subject to availability, FIS shall assign additional FTE's beyond the two (2) included Account Managers to FNT's account for such additional fees as are agreed upon by FNT and FIS at the time of assignment of such resources. "FTE" means full time equivalent personnel resources provided by FIS which shall consist of an individual or combination of individuals as determined by FIS. If FNT reasonably and in good faith recommends the removal of an Account Manager from FNT's account, FIS shall discuss and in good faith consider FNT's recommendation.

8.3. Onsite Resources. To the extent existing and available to FNT, and without charge to FIS, FNT agrees to provide FIS with adequate premises, in good repair, to perform FIS'S responsibilities at an FNT Location under this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, FNT agrees to supply water, sewage, heat, lights, telephone lines and equipment, air conditioning, electricity, daily janitorial services, cafeteria services and office equipment and furniture, and parking spaces for FIS employees under the same conditions provided to employees of FNT in like positions. FNT will provide telephone instruments and telephone service. In the event FNT desires to move the FNT location after the Effective Date, FNT shall provide FIS prior notice of such move and pay FIS for any reasonable costs incurred by FIS because of such move.

8.4. FIS Subcontractors. FIS may subcontract any of the Services to any FIS Subcontractor in accordance with Section 3.2 above, and shall give FNT reasonable notice thereof in writing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, FIS shall perform the Services substantially through the use of its own employees and may subcontract only those tasks typically subcontracted in the information technology outsourcing industry. FIS shall not subcontract any Services which give an FIS Subcontractor access to FNT Data to a Direct Competitor of FNT. FNT shall have the right to direct FIS to replace any FIS Subcontractor with access to FNT Data within a reasonable period of time if the FIS Subcontractor's performance is materially deficient, results in misuse or disclosure of the FNT Data, or there have been material misrepresentations by or concerning the FIS Subcontractor. Additionally, if FNT has good faith doubts concerning the FIS Subcontractor's ability to render future performance because of changes in the FIS Subcontractor's ownership, management, financial condition, or otherwise, FIS shall discuss such concerns with FNT and work in good faith to resolve FNT's concerns on a mutually acceptable basis. "Direct Competitor" shall mean First American Real Estate Corporation, its successors and assigns, and such other entities and their successors and assigns operating primarily in the title insurance industry. If FIS becomes aware that an FIS Subcontractor (or an affiliate of an FIS Subcontractor) becomes (or becomes acquired by) a Direct Competitor, FIS shall give prompt notice to FNT. Within thirty (30) days after FNT has given FIS notice of FNT's desire to remove such FIS Subcontractor, FIS shall provide FNT with an estimate of the costs and expenses which FIS in its reasonable and good faith judgment anticipates will be required for such removal ("Removal Expense Summary"). If FNT approves the Removal Expense Summary, FIS shall remove the FIS Subcontractor as soon as reasonably practicable and in any event within one hundred and twenty (120) days after FNT approval of the Removal Expense Summary. Within sixty (60) days after removal, FNT shall pay to FIS those costs and expenses of FIS which FIS establishes were caused by the removal, but not more than 110% of the amount specified for each cost or expense in the Removal Expense Summary. If the scope of, or assumptions underlying the removal change from those to which the parties agreed, the parties will agree in good faith to make an equitable adjustment to the Removal Expense Summary to reflect such differences. Labor costs caused by the removal shall be at FIS'S actual salary and benefit expense for such labor.

8.5. Conduct of FIS Personnel. While at any FNT location, FIS'S personnel, contractors, and FIS Subcontractors shall comply with FNT's reasonable requests, rules, and regulations regarding personal and professional conduct (including the wearing of an identification badge and adhering to regulations and general safety practices or procedures) as communicated to FIS and otherwise conduct themselves in a businesslike and professional manner. If FNT determines that a particular employee, contractor, or subcontractor is not conducting himself or herself in the manner required pursuant to this Section 8.5, FNT may notify FIS. Upon such notice, FIS shall promptly investigate the matter and take appropriate action which includes, at FIS'S reasonable discretion, removing such employee, contractor or subcontractor from the Project Staff and providing FNT with prompt notice of such removal. If such employee, contractor or subcontractor is removed, FIS shall replace such employee, contractor or subcontractor with an individual with at least such experience, qualifications and technical skills suitable to, and generally required in connection with, the duties attendant to the position to be filled.

8.6. Conduct of FNT Personnel. While at any FIS location, FNT's personnel, contractors, and subcontractors shall comply with FIS'S reasonable requests, rules, and regulations regarding personal and professional conduct (including the wearing of an identification badge and adhering to regulations and general safety practices or procedures) as communicated to FNT and otherwise conduct themselves in a businesslike and professional manner. If FIS determines that a particular employee, contractor, or subcontractor is not conducting himself or herself in the manner required pursuant to this Section 8.6, FIS shall notify FNT. FNT shall promptly investigate the matter and take appropriate action.

8.7. Personnel Recruitment. Except as expressly permitted by other written agreement(s) between FIS and FNT, FIS agrees, during the Term, not to recruit and/or hire any personnel then employed by FNT. Except as expressly permitted herein or by other written agreement(s) between FIS and FNT, FNT agrees, during the Term, not to recruit and hire any personnel then employed by FIS. The provisions of this Section 8.7 shall not apply to any solicitation conducted by, or any hiring resulting from, general public advertising (including newspapers and trade publications) or the self-directed efforts of a placement professional.

ARTICLE 9. PROPRIETARY RIGHTS IN SOFTWARE AND SYSTEMS.

9.1. Identification of Software. The parties shall use reasonable efforts to schedule, by or promptly following the Effective Date, all software relating to the Services controlled by each of them at the Effective Date, and shall, with respect to prospective changes, maintain such schedule current throughout the Term as either develops, acquires or terminates licenses for software relating to the Services. The parties shall, promptly following the Effective Date and quarterly thereafter, update and reconcile such schedules. Promptly following each quarterly reconciliation, FIS shall deliver to FNT in electronic form, in a format and on media in common use at the time, a copy of the source code for all FNT Proprietary Software developed or modified by or on behalf of FIS since or from the prior such delivery, clearly labeled in accordance with industry practice but including, at least, product, version, date and the date of the prior delivery of source code for such product. Prior to the acquisition, development or use of any software by FIS in connection with the Services, the parties shall agree in writing on the categorization of such software as one of FNT Proprietary Software, FNT Third Party Software, FIS Proprietary Software, or FIS Third Party Software (each as defined herein below) and upon acquisition or development, shall add such software to the appropriate software schedule.

9.2. FNT Software. FNT shall provide FIS the right to use at FNT's sole expense, if any, and for use solely to provide the Services, software owned by FNT at the Effective Date and used prior to the Effective Date to support services which will be Services hereunder, or of which FNT acquires ownership after the Effective Date and provides to FIS for use in providing the Services, including pursuant to Section 3.14 above (the "FNT Proprietary Software") and the FNT Third Party Software. All FNT Proprietary Software will be and will remain the exclusive property of FNT. FIS will have no rights or interests in the FNT Proprietary Software hereunder except as described in this Section 9.2. FNT shall assist FIS in obtaining access to such software and any related documentation in FNT's possession on or after the Effective Date. "FNT Third Party Software" shall mean the software which is provided by FNT and licensed in FNT's name. FNT Proprietary Software and FNT Third Party Software are collectively referred to as "FNT Software". All FNT Third Party Software will be and will remain the exclusive property of such third party licensors and FIS will have no rights or interests in the FNT Third Party Software except as described in this Section 9.2. Any license fees or other expenses reasonably incurred by FIS in obtaining the licenses for the FNT Third Party Software shall be paid by FNT as a Pass-Through Expense. FIS shall not, without FNT's prior consent, decompile or reverse engineer the FNT Software. As of the Effective Date, FNT will cause FIS to be provided access to the FNT Proprietary Software in the form in use by FNT as of the Effective Date. Upon expiration of this Agreement or termination of this Agreement for any reason, the rights granted to FIS in this Section 9.2 will immediately revert to the entity which granted them and FIS shall, at no cost to FNT, other than the transfer fees described below (i) cease use of all FNT Software, except to the extent as required in connection with the Termination Assistance Services, (ii) deliver to FNT a current copy, if any, of all the FNT Software (including any related source code in FIS'S possession or control) in the form in use as of the date of such expiration or termination of this Agreement, (iii) destroy or erase all other copies of the FNT Software and documentation in FIS'S possession or the possession of FIS Subcontractors unless otherwise instructed by FNT, and (iv) if FIS has modified or enhanced any FNT Software, FIS shall deliver to FNT all copies of such modifications or enhancements. FIS will make reasonable efforts to give FNT prior notice of any transfer fees which FNT must pay to affect the transfer of any FNT Software to FNT. Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, at the request of FNT, FIS will make reasonable efforts to obtain for FNT (or FNT's designee) a royalty free, perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive license to use the FNT Third Party Software. Any fees or other expenses reasonably incurred by FIS in obtaining such licenses shall be paid by FNT as a Pass-Through Expense.

9.3. FIS Proprietary Software.

- (a) All software and related documentation owned by FIS before the Effective Date which is used in connection with the Services, or of which FIS acquires ownership after the Effective Date and which is used in connection with the Services (collectively, the "FIS Proprietary Software"), will be and will remain the exclusive property of FIS and FNT will have no rights or interests in the FIS Proprietary Software except as described in this Section 9.3. FNT agrees not to decompile or reverse engineer the FIS Proprietary Software. FIS shall use the FIS Proprietary Software, and subject to the Change Control Procedures, such other software as FIS shall determine is necessary to provide the Services.

- (b) Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason other than material breach of FIS'S intellectual property rights under this Agreement by FNT or an FNT Entity, FIS shall deliver to FNT a copy of such FIS Proprietary Software in the form being used on the effective date of such expiration or termination, together with related documentation and source code, certified by FIS as substantially complete and up to date. FNT (or FNT's designee which is not a competitor of FIS) shall receive a fully paid up, royalty free, perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive license subject to FIS'S standard licensing terms and conditions for the FIS Proprietary Software along with any related FIS Developed Items upon payment to FIS of a reasonable license fee. In no event shall such license fee exceed the fair market value of such software license or, if no such fair market value can be established, the documented cost of FIS'S development effort therefor divided by the number of its clients then benefiting from its use. FNT shall not be required to pay license fees to the extent FNT has previously reimbursed FIS for third party license fees associated therewith whether as a Pass-Through Expense or otherwise.
- (c) To the extent permitted by third party licenses pursuant to which FIS licenses FIS Third Party Software, FIS hereby grants FNT a fully paid up, royalty free, perpetual, worldwide, irrevocable, non-exclusive license to use, copy, maintain, modify, enhance, perform, display, create derivative work from, make and have made (collectively "Utilize"), sublicense and permit any third party to Utilize the Ancillary FIS Proprietary Software. To the extent third party licenses pursuant to which FIS licenses FIS Third Party Software preclude or limit such a grant, FIS shall promptly review with FNT, FNT's need for rights under each such license and, at FIS'S expense, shall obtain a written quote from each relevant licensor for a commercially reasonable license to FNT for the term, territory and rights deemed adequate in FNT's discretion for FNT's purposes up to and including the terms recited hereinabove. The underlying decision to enter into negotiations and cost of any resulting license shall be solely an FNT responsibility. FIS shall deliver to FNT a copy of the Ancillary FIS Proprietary Software in the form being used upon the earlier of FNT's request and the expiration or termination of this Agreement. The term "Ancillary FIS Proprietary Software" shall mean the FIS Proprietary Software identified as Ancillary FIS Proprietary Software prior to creation or acquisition.

9.4. FIS Third Party Software. All software and related documentation licensed or leased from a third party by FIS which will be used in connection with the Services (collectively, "FIS Third Party Software" and, together with the FIS Proprietary Software, the "FIS Software") will be and will remain the exclusive property of such third party licensors and FNT will have no rights or interests in the FIS Third Party Software except as described in this Section 9.4. FNT shall not decompile or reverse engineer the FIS Third Party Software. FIS will, during the Term (i) use such FIS Third Party Software, and such other software as FIS shall determine is necessary to provide the Services subject to the Change Control Procedures, and (ii) provide that FNT acquires such rights to use the FIS Third Party Software as are necessary in connection with the provision of the Services. Any license fees or other expenses reasonably incurred by FIS in providing the rights described in this Section 9.4 and related to FIS Third Party Software as a Pass-Through Expense shall be paid by FNT as a Pass-Through Expense. Except as otherwise provided herein, upon expiration of this Agreement or termination of this Agreement for any reason, FIS shall, (A) at the request of FNT, make reasonable efforts to either transfer and assign to FNT (or FNT's designee) the licenses for the FIS Third Party Software then being used in connection with the performance of the Services or obtain for FNT or FNT's designee a sublicense to use such FIS Third Party Software, to the extent FNT does not already have such rights and (B) to the extent permitted under the terms of the applicable license agreement, deliver to FNT a copy of such FIS Third Party Software in the form then in use by FIS in connection with the Services along with related documentation. FIS will make reasonable efforts to give FNT prior notice of any transfer fees which FNT must pay to affect the transfer of any FIS Third Party Software to FNT. FIS will make reasonable efforts to obtain for FNT a royalty free, perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive license to use the FIS Third Party Software along with related documentation. Any fees or other expenses reasonably incurred by FIS in obtaining such licenses shall be paid by FNT as a Pass-Through Expense. FIS Software and FNT Software are collectively referred to as "Designated Software".

9.5. Developed Software. Except as otherwise agreed by the parties pursuant to the Change Control Procedures, (i) enhancements or modifications to the FNT Software and related documentation and materials FNT specifically retains FIS to create as part of the Services (e.g., under Schedule C-9) shall be and remain the exclusive property of FNT or its third party licensor, (ii) enhancements or modifications to the FIS Software made by (or for) FIS for FNT in connection with the provision of the Services and any related documentation (the "FIS Developed Items") shall be and remain the exclusive property of FIS, and (iii) enhancements or modifications to the FIS Third Party Software shall be and remain the exclusive property of its third party licensor to the extent provided for in the third party license. Except with respect to the Ancillary FIS Proprietary Software, the rights to which are described above in Section 9.3, the parties shall identify all other software developed by FIS upon request of FNT and any related documentation (the "Developed Software") in writing as FNT Proprietary Software, FNT Third Party Software, FIS Proprietary Software, or FIS Third Party Software prior to the time of development of such Developed Software. FNT and FIS shall each be the sole and exclusive owner of all trade secrets, patents, copyrights, and other proprietary rights owned by each of them prior to entering into this Agreement.

9.6. Equipment. FIS shall provide computer, network equipment and maintenance as specified in the applicable Base Services Agreement or Statement of Work ("FIS Equipment"). FNT shall provide all other computer and network equipment and equipment maintenance necessary in connection with the Services and dedicated solely to the provision of Services to FNT hereunder, including but not limited to personal computers, printers, and related peripheral equipment and network equipment ("FNT Equipment"). FIS Equipment and FNT Equipment are collectively referred to as "Equipment". FNT shall pay the costs of all media and for the offsite storage of such media in connection with and dedicated solely to the Services to be provided to FNT hereunder. If Equipment once dedicated to Services is, upon audit or otherwise, discovered to be or to have been used for other purposes, FIS shall reimburse FNT for the pro-rated portion of such Equipment used for other purposes.

9.7. Systems. "Systems" shall mean collectively the Designated Software and the Equipment, which are used to provide the Services.

ARTICLE 10. REQUIRED CONSENTS

FIS shall obtain at FNT's expense, pursuant to Section 13.9, all consents or approvals necessary to allow FIS, its agents and FIS Subcontractors to use the Designated Software for the benefit of the FNT Entities and to provide the Services to FNT and for the FNT Entities to receive the Services during the Term and the Termination Assistance Period (collectively, the "Consents"), pursuant to the Change Control Procedures. FIS shall promptly provide to FNT a copy of all Consents.

ARTICLE 11. THIRD PARTY CONTRACT ADMINISTRATION AND MANAGEMENT

11.1. FIS Responsibilities. Throughout the Term, FIS will maintain a current schedule of, manage and administer the agreements for which Pass-Through Expenses are paid and such other agreements to which the parties mutually agree in writing (the "FIS Managed Agreements") and provide a copy of such schedule to FNT upon request from time to time. FIS shall provide FNT with reasonable notice of any renewal, termination or cancellation dates and fees in respect of such FIS Managed Agreements. FIS shall notify FNT of all available warranties and the expiration dates thereof. Within ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of any such warranty, FIS shall supply FNT with notice of such pending expiration and shall acquire, upon the written instruction of FNT, any available extension of any such warranty. FIS shall maintain all information required to make claims on warranties for the FIS Managed Agreements and shall, with FNT's cooperation, timely file all warranty claims. FNT may modify, terminate, or cancel any such FIS Managed Agreement in its sole discretion. Any modification, termination, or cancellation fees or charges imposed upon FNT in connection with any such modification, termination or cancellation shall be paid by FNT except as provided in the following sentence. FIS shall pay all fees and charges caused by or resulting from FIS'S negligence related to management of the FIS Managed Agreements.

11.2. Third Party Invoices. FIS will (1) receive all invoices submitted by third parties in connection with the FIS Managed Agreements (collectively, the "FIS Managed Invoices"), (2) review and correct any errors in any such FIS Managed Invoices in a timely manner, and (3) timely pay all amounts due under such FIS Managed Invoices. Except as otherwise provided in this Article 11, FNT shall pay to FIS, as a Pass-Through Expense, all amounts paid by FIS for FIS Managed Agreements, including FIS Managed Invoices.

ARTICLE 12. DATA

12.1. Title to Data. All data and information submitted to FIS by any FNT Entity, or learned, solicited or compiled by or for FIS for the benefit of FNT in the course of FIS'S performance of Services ("FNT Data") is and will remain, as between the parties, the property of FNT. FIS and its employees and agents, and FIS Subcontractors and their employees and agents, shall not (1) use the FNT Data for any purpose other than to provide the Services, (2) disclose, assign, lease, transmit or otherwise provide the FNT Data to third parties (other than to FIS Subcontractors), or (3) sell or otherwise commercially exploit the FNT Data directly or indirectly, for consideration of any nature. FIS and FIS Subcontractors shall not use archival tapes or other archival media containing FNT Data other than for archival purposes.

12.2. Return of Data. FIS shall upon (i) request by FNT at any time, or (ii) the cessation of all Termination Assistance Services, promptly return to FNT, in any FNT-specified form or format readily deliverable at the time, and on any specified media in common use at the time, marked to indicate the time and date of its currency, a copy of all of the FNT Data.

12.3. Partial Return of Data. Upon FNT request, FIS shall promptly provide to FNT a copy of any such FNT Data as FNT may specify, in any FNT-specified form or format readily deliverable at the time, and on any specified media in common use at the time, marked to indicate the time and date of its currency.

12.4. Timing; Expense. In the event of a request for full or partial return of FNT Data, FNT may specify a reasonable time frame for delivery and FIS shall use its reasonable best efforts to comply with such request, but shall in any event comply by the later of (i) the requested response date, and (ii) five (5) days. FIS recognizes and acknowledges the importance to FNT and its business of continual access to FNT Data and agrees that, in no event (including pending Dispute or inter-party litigation), shall FIS withhold FNT Data from FNT. FNT shall pay the reasonable, actual cost of complying with such request, including without limitation any media on which the FNT Data is stored for return and for the shipment thereof to FNT.

ARTICLE 13. INVOICES AND PAYMENTS

13.1. Fees. FNT will pay the fees set forth in Exhibit D, any Statements of Work, Exhibits or Amendments (the "Fees") in consideration for FIS'S due provision of the related Services.

13.2. Credits. If, at the termination or expiration of this Agreement, FNT is due any credits for the period prior to the termination or expiration of this Agreement, such credits shall be offset against any Fees becoming due thereafter or shall be paid to FNT within thirty (30) days after said termination or expiration.

13.3. Taxes. All amounts mentioned in this Agreement are exclusive of tax. FNT shall pay sales, use, value added, and goods and services taxes imposed by any federal, state, or local governmental entity for products or services provided under this Agreement, excluding taxes based on FIS'S income and property. FNT shall pay such tax(es) in addition to the sums due under this Agreement. FIS shall, to the extent it is aware of taxes, itemize them on a proper VAT, GST or other invoice submitted pursuant to this Agreement. All property, employment and income taxes based on the assets, employees and net income, respectively, of FIS except for

Pass-Through Expenses shall be FIS'S sole responsibility. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to minimize taxes to the extent legally permissible. Each party shall provide and make available to the other party any resale certificates, treaty certification and other exemption information reasonably requested by the other party.

13.4. Proration. FIS will compile all periodic fees or charges under this Agreement on a calendar month basis and will prorate such fees or charges for any partial month based upon the ratio of days in the period hereunder to the number of days in the month.

13.5. Invoicing and Payment. FIS will invoice FNT monthly, no later than the fifteenth day of the month following that to which the invoice corresponds. Each invoice will include sufficient detail directly or by reference to specific dated Reports to enable FNT to understand the basis for the calculation of Fees and charges then due including, as necessary, documentation of reimbursable expenses, hours for time and materials efforts, predicates for credit adjustments, etc. Upon FNT's request, FIS shall provide additional supporting detail for any invoice. Any sum due to FIS pursuant to this Agreement shall be due and payable thirty (30) days after receipt by FNT of an invoice from FIS. Any amount not received or disputed by FNT by the date payment is due shall be subject to interest on the balance overdue at a rate equal to the Prime Rate plus one percent from the due date, until paid, applied to the outstanding balance from time to time.

13.6. Rights of Set Off. With respect to any undisputed amount that (1) should be reimbursed to FNT or (2) is otherwise payable to FNT by FIS pursuant to this Agreement, FNT may, if such amount has not been credited against payments owed by FNT within a reasonable period of time after such amount was due, upon notice to FIS, deduct the entire amount owed against the charges otherwise payable or expenses owed to FIS under this Agreement until such time as the entire amount determined to be owed to FNT has been paid.

13.7. Refundable Items. In the event FIS receives, during the Term, any refund, credit, or other rebate in respect of a Pass-Through Expense, FIS will promptly notify FNT of such refund, credit, or rebate, and shall promptly pay to the appropriate FNT Entity the full amount of such refund, credit, or rebate, in no event later than thirty (30) days following receipt of such refund.

13.8. Inflation Adjustment.

- (a) The Fees (exclusive of Pass-Through Expenses) shall be subject to adjustment as set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Section 13.8. The Fees shall not be adjusted pursuant to this Section 13.8 with effect prior to January 1, 2006. If the Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index-Urban (1967=100) as published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the Department of Labor (the "CPIU") for 2005 or thereafter (the "Current CPI Index") shall increase from the CPIU applicable for the twelve (12) months immediately prior to the notice of increase (the "Base CPI Index"), then FIS may, no more often than once in any calendar year, upon no less than thirty (30) days prior written notice (but with initial effect on the first of the month next succeeding the 30th day following such notice), increase the Fees on a prospective basis. Such increase shall not exceed, as a percentage, one half (1/2) of the percentage by which the Current CPI Index increased from the Base CPI Index. The Fees (exclusive of Pass-Through Expenses) for any succeeding year shall be equal to the Fee as so increased or as further adjusted in succeeding years in accordance with this Section 13.8. Upon such election, FIS will provide to FNT a recalculation of the Fees in writing.

- (b) If the Bureau of Labor Statistics stops publishing the CPIU or substantially changes the content of the CPIU, the parties shall substitute another comparable measure published by a mutually agreeable source. If such change is merely to redefine the base year for the CPIU from 1967 to another year, the parties shall continue to use the CPIU but shall, if necessary, convert either the Base CPI Index or the Current CPI Index to the same basis as the other by multiplying such index by the appropriate conversion factor.

13.9. Pass-Through Expenses. FNT shall reimburse FIS, at cost, for the pass-through expenses mutually agreed by FNT and FIS in writing and required by FIS in providing the Services (the "Pass-Through Expenses"), to the extent such Pass-Through Expenses are actually incurred by FIS for resources and/or activities and to the extent actually supporting Services for FNT. FIS will promptly provide FNT with the original third-party invoice for such expense, together with a statement that FIS has reviewed the invoiced charges and made a determination of which charges are proper and valid and will be paid by FNT. Otherwise, FIS will act as payment agent for FNT and will pay all third-party charges comprising Pass-Through Expenses. FIS will pay the amounts due and will invoice FNT for such charges as part of the monthly billing. FIS will use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize the amount of Pass-Through Expenses. With respect to services or materials paid for on a Pass-Through Expense basis, FNT reserves the right to: (i) obtain such services or materials directly from a third party; (ii) designate the third party source for such services or materials; (iii) designate the particular services or materials (such as equipment make and model) FIS will obtain; (iv) require FIS to identify and consider multiple sources for such services or materials and evaluate the responses from such sources; and (v) review and approve a Pass-Through Expense for such services or materials before entering into a contract for such services or materials.

ARTICLE 14. AUDITS

14.1. Processing. Upon at least ten (10) days notice from FNT, FIS shall provide to auditors and inspectors designated by FNT in its notice, and upon request, regardless of advance notice, FIS shall provide (a) to FNT (or auditors and inspectors on behalf of FNT) to the extent FNT is required to do so for compliance with law or regulations or (b) for more immediate reviews by FNT regulators, reasonable access (i) during normal business days and hours (except as may be necessary to perform security audits) to the FIS Service Locations and (ii) at any time at any FNT location for the purpose of performing, at FNT's expense, audits or inspections of the business of FNT as supported by FIS. FIS shall provide such auditors and inspectors any assistance that they may reasonably require. If any audit by an auditor designated by FNT or a regulatory authority having jurisdiction over FNT or FIS results in FIS being notified that it is not in compliance with any generally accepted accounting principle or other audit requirement relating to the Services, FIS and FNT shall, within the period of time specified by such auditor or regulatory authority, work in good faith at FIS'S then-standard rates to comply with such auditor or regulatory authority. If any non-compliance is due to the non-performance of an obligation of FIS described in any Base Services Agreement, Statement of Work, Exhibit or Amendment, FIS shall correct such non-compliance at no cost to FNT.

14.2. Fee Audit. FNT may, with ten (10) days prior written notice and at its own expense, engage a third party mutually agreed to by the parties (a "Fee Auditor") to perform a review and audit of records and reports relating only to volumes of resources, Pass-Through Expenses and travel and living expenses billed to FNT by FIS pursuant to this Agreement (a "Fee Audit"). FIS agrees to cooperate fully with the Fee Auditor in preparation of the Fee Audit Report (as defined below) and deliver any requested information to the Fee Auditor which FIS would otherwise be required to furnish to FNT pursuant to Section 14.1 hereof at FNT's sole expense. The Fee Auditor shall prepare and submit to FNT a written report of the results of the Fee Audit (a "Fee Audit Report"). FNT will provide FIS with a copy of the Fee Audit Report within five (5) business days of FNT's receipt thereof. In the event that the Fee Audit Report reveals that any Fees have been overbilled, FIS shall (1) reimburse FNT for such Fees with interest from the date upon which the Fee was first paid by FNT (the "Fee Payment Date") until the date on which FIS makes such reimbursement, at the prime rate as published in the table money rates in the Wall Street Journal on the Fee Payment Date (or the prior date on which the Wall Street Journal was published if not published on the Fee Payment Date), ("Prime Rate") plus one percent and (2) if FIS is not working in good faith to resolve billing issues identified prior to the audit and the Fees exceed by more than 5% the amount which the Fee Auditor determines to be the proper Fee amount, pay any fees, costs or other expenses owed to the Fee Auditor for performing the Fee Audit. In no event shall FIS'S liability for the cost of the Fee Audit exceed reasonable and customary charges for such audits.

ARTICLE 15. FORCE MAJEURE; TIME OF PERFORMANCE

15.1. Force Majeure. Neither party shall be held liable for any delay or failure in performance of all or a portion of the Services or Additional Services or of any part of this Agreement from any cause beyond its reasonable control which, with the observation of its duties herein and reasonable care, could not have been avoided or promptly remediated (including, but not limited to, acts of God, acts of civil or military authority, government regulations, embargoes, epidemics, war, terrorist acts, riots, insurrections, fires, explosions, earthquakes, hurricanes, tornadoes, nuclear accidents and floods, each a "Force Majeure Event"). Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, none of (a) a failure of FIS or FNT to satisfy FIS'S or FNT's respective obligations related to Year 2000 compliance as specified in Section 17.1 (to the extent such failure is not otherwise due to a Force Majeure Event) or (b) the failure of the DRP to meet the requirements of Schedule C-8, if such failure results from FIS'S negligence in procuring or implementing the DRP, shall constitute Force Majeure Events. Upon the occurrence of a condition described in this Section 15.1, the party whose performance is prevented or delayed shall give immediate written notice to the other party describing the affected performance ("Affected Performance"), and the parties shall promptly confer, in good faith, to agree upon equitable, reasonable action to minimize the impact, on both parties, of such condition, including, without limitation, implementing the DRP, if it has not already been implemented. The parties agree that the party whose performance is affected shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize the delay caused by the Force Majeure Events and recommence the Affected Performance. FNT may immediately cease paying for that part of the Affected Performance which FIS is unable to perform. In the event the delay caused by the Force Majeure Event lasts for a period of more than fifteen (15) days, the parties shall negotiate an equitable modification to this Agreement with respect to the Affected Performance. If the parties are unable to agree upon an equitable modification within ten (10) days after such fifteen (15) day period has expired, then either party shall be entitled to serve thirty (30) days notice of termination on the other party with respect to only such Affected Performance. If the Force Majeure Event for such Affected Performance is continuing upon the expiration of such thirty (30) day notice period the portion of this Agreement relating to the Affected Performance shall automatically terminate. The remaining portion of this Agreement that does not involve the Affected Performance shall continue in full force and effect. In such event FIS shall be entitled to be paid for that portion of the Affected Performance for which it has completed or in the process of completing through the termination date.

15.2. Time of Performance and Increased Costs. FIS'S time of performance with respect to Services performed under this Agreement shall be extended, and its obligations under Exhibit H shall be suspended, if and to the extent reasonably necessary, in the event that (a) FNT fails to submit data or materials in the prescribed form agreed to by the parties or in accordance with the requirements identified as the responsibility of FNT in this Agreement, (b) FNT fails to perform on a timely basis or provide adequate resources to perform the tasks, functions or other responsibilities of FNT designated as the responsibility of FNT in this Agreement, (c) FNT or any governmental agency authorized to regulate or supervise FNT makes any special request which extends FIS'S normal performance schedule, or (d) any FNT Software does not perform in accordance with its documentation or is not Year 2000 Compliant (and, in each case, the same is necessary for FIS'S performance hereunder), or FNT or FIS (at FNT's direction) changes or modifies the FNT Software which change or modification materially affects FIS'S performance of the Services (each of (a), (b), (c) and (d) an "FNT Interruption Event"). FIS shall give FNT immediate notice of an FNT Interruption Event. If either an FNT Interruption Event occurs and FIS is not prevented thereby from performing any Services, but the occurrence of such FNT Interruption results in (A) an inability of FIS to perform any or all of the Services at the Service Levels or (B) an increased cost to FIS for providing the affected Services, FNT may elect to either (i) suspend FIS'S performance of such Service until such time as the FNT Interruption Event no longer exists, and continue to pay for the Services pursuant to Section 13 of this Agreement, or (ii) elect to receive the Services from FIS in which event FIS shall be relieved of Service Levels with respect to the affected Services for so long as the FNT Interruption Event continues. If an FNT Interruption prevents FIS from performing any Services, FNT shall continue to pay FIS for the Services pursuant to Section 13 of this Agreement.

15.3. Sole and Exclusive. FIS'S sole and exclusive remedy for FNT's failure to perform its obligations described in this Agreement (including Section 17.1(d)(1), but excluding Section 16 or use of FIS intellectual property right beyond the scope permitted by this Agreement), and for the occurrence of an FNT Interruption Event shall be limited as provided in this Section 15.3. In no event shall Section 15.2 affect FIS'S right to claim (i) Fees due under this Agreement for Services actually performed and (ii) damages to FIS for the termination of this Agreement in whole, or in part, by FNT (which termination FIS establishes is a breach of this Agreement) based on the lesser of (a) the Termination Fee (described in Section 18.5) plus the Fees from the date of termination through the notice period described in Section 18.1 and (b) Fees based on the volumes of resources multiplied by the number of months from the date of termination through the end of the Term. FIS'S failure to timely or duly perform Services hereunder shall not be a breach hereof to the extent resulting, in whole or in part, from an FNT Interruption Event.

ARTICLE 16. CONFIDENTIALITY

16.1. Confidential Information. Each party shall use at least the same standard of care in the protection of Confidential Information of the other party as it uses to protect its own confidential or proprietary information (provided that such Confidential Information shall be protected in at least a reasonable manner). For purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" includes (1) all confidential or proprietary information and documentation of either party, including the terms of this Agreement, including with respect to FNT, all FNT Software, FNT Data, all reports, exhibits and other documentation prepared by any FNT Entity in connection with any bid or proposal process and with respect to FIS, the FIS Software, any financial information, and reports, exhibits and other documentation prepared by FIS in connection with any bid or proposal process. Each party shall use the Confidential Information of the other party only in connection with the purposes of this Agreement (including administration and dispute resolution), and shall make such Confidential Information available only to its employees, subcontractors, or agents having a "need to know" with respect to such purpose. Each party shall advise its respective employees, subcontractors, and agents of such party's obligations under this Agreement. Except as otherwise required by the terms of this Agreement (including Article 18) or applicable law or national stock exchange rule, in the event of the expiration of this Agreement or termination of this Agreement for any reason all Confidential Information of a party disclosed to, and all copies thereof made by, the other party shall be returned to the disclosing party or, at the disclosing party's option, erased or destroyed. The recipient of the Confidential Information shall provide to the disclosing party certificates evidencing such destruction. The obligations in this Section 16.1 will not restrict disclosure by a party pursuant to applicable law, or by order or request of any court or government agency; provided that, prior to such disclosure the receiving party shall (i) immediately give notice to the disclosing party and (ii) cooperate with the disclosing party in challenging the right to such access and (iii) only provide such information as is required by law, such order or a final, non-appealable ruling of a court of proper jurisdiction. Confidential Information of a party will not be afforded the protection of this Agreement if such Confidential Information was (A) developed by the other party independently as shown by its written business records regularly kept, (B) rightfully obtained by the other party without restriction from a third party, (C) publicly available other than through the fault or negligence of the other party, or (D) released by the disclosing party without restriction to anyone.

16.2. Work Product Privilege. FNT represents and FIS acknowledges that, in the course of providing Services pursuant to this Agreement, FIS may have access to (i) documents, data, databases or communications that are subject to attorney client privilege and/or (ii) privileged work product prepared by or on behalf of the FNT Entities in anticipation of litigation with third parties (collectively, the "Privileged Work Product") and that FNT represents and FIS understands that all Privileged Work Product is protected from disclosure by Rule 26 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the equivalent rules and regulations under the law chosen to govern the construction of this Agreement. FNT represents and FIS understands the importance of maintaining the strict confidentiality of the Privileged Work Product to protect the attorney client privilege, work product doctrine and other privileges and rights associated with such Privileged Work Product pursuant to such Rule 26 and the equivalent rules and regulations under the law chosen to govern the construction of this Agreement. After FIS is notified or otherwise becomes aware that documents, data, database, or communications are Privileged Work Product, only FIS personnel for whom such access is necessary for the purposes of providing Services to FNT as provided in this Agreement shall have access to such Privileged Work Product. Should FIS ever be notified of any judicial or other proceeding seeking to obtain access to Privileged Work Product, FIS shall, (1) immediately give notice to FNT and (2) cooperate with FNT in challenging the right to such access and (3) only provide such information as is required by a final, non-appealable ruling of a court of proper jurisdiction. FNT shall pay the cost of any additional labor expense beyond that required by this Agreement which is incurred by FIS in complying with the immediately preceding sentence. FNT has the right and duty to represent FIS in such resistance or to select and compensate counsel to so represent FIS or to reimburse FIS for reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses as such fees and expenses are incurred in resisting such access. If FIS is ultimately required, pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, to produce documents, disclose data, or otherwise act in contravention of the confidentially obligations imposed in this Agreement, or otherwise with respect to maintaining the confidentiality, proprietary nature, and secrecy of Privileged Work Product, FIS is not liable for breach of such obligation to the extent such liability does not result from failure of FIS to abide by the terms of this Agreement. All Privileged Work Product is the property of FNT and will be deemed Confidential Information, except as specifically authorized in this Agreement or as required by law.

16.3. Injunctive Relief. Each party acknowledges and agrees that, in the event of a breach or threatened breach of any provision of this Article 16, such party shall have no adequate remedy in damages and notwithstanding the dispute resolution clause hereinabove, is entitled to seek an injunction to prevent such breach or threatened breach; provided, however, that no specification of a particular legal or equitable remedy is to be construed as a waiver, prohibition, or limitation of any legal or equitable remedies in the event of a breach hereof.

16.4. Unauthorized Acts. Each party shall: (1) notify the other party promptly of any unauthorized possession, use, or knowledge of any Confidential Information by any person which shall become known to it, any attempt by any person to gain possession of Confidential Information without authorization or any attempt to use or acquire knowledge of any Confidential Information without authorization (collectively, "Unauthorized Access"), (2) promptly furnish to the other party full details of the Unauthorized Access and use reasonable efforts to assist the other party in investigating or preventing the reoccurrence of any Unauthorized Access, (3) cooperate with the other party in any litigation and investigation against third parties deemed necessary by such party to protect its proprietary rights, and (4) promptly prevent a reoccurrence of any such Unauthorized Access.

16.5. Publicity. Except as required by law or national stock exchange rule, neither party shall issue any press release, distribute any advertising, or make any public announcement or disclosure (a) identifying the other party by name, trademark or otherwise, or (b) concerning this Agreement without the other party's prior written consent. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, in the event either party is required to issue a press release relating to this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or by the laws or regulations of any governmental authority, agency or self-regulatory agency, such party shall (i) give notice and a copy of the proposed press release to the other party as far in advance as reasonably possible, but in any event not less than five (5) days prior to publication of such press release and (ii) make any changes to such press release reasonably requested by the other party. In addition, FIS may (1) communicate the existence of the business relationship contemplated by the terms of this Agreement internally within FNT's organization and (2) orally and in writing communicate FNT's identity as a reference with potential and existing customers.

16.6. Data Privacy.

16.6.1. Where, in connection with this Agreement, FIS processes or stores information about a living individual that is held in automatically processable form (for example in a computerized database) or in a structured manual filing system ("personal data"), on behalf of any FNT Entities or their clients, then FIS shall:

- (i) process those personal data only on the written instructions of an FNT Entity (or, with an FNT Entity's prior written approval, the FNT Entity's client);
- (ii) implement appropriate administrative, physical and technical measures to protect those personal data against accidental or unlawful destruction or accidental loss, alternation, unauthorized disclosure or access, in particular where the processing involves the transmission of data over a network for which FIS has responsibility, and against all other unlawful forms of processing. Specifically, FIS will provide, without incremental charge, an annual SAS 70 (Type II) audit of its operations at each FIS Technology Center, inclusive of network management from such locations, and at each FIS Service Location to which such processing, in whole or part, may be moved, prepared by a reputable, independent accounting firm. FIS shall provide to FNT a copy of the related audit report promptly after receipt by FIS of such audit report, and in any event within thirty days of FIS'S receipt. FIS shall also provide FNT with a copy of the management response that addresses security and procedural changes suggested in any audit report, if any changes are suggested. Should an audit reveal unresolved deficiencies (which FIS agrees are deficiencies) without a management plan to correct them, FNT may require FIS to promptly provide a management response to cure the deficiency and to provide documentation, as reasonably requested, to demonstrate such cure to FNT's reasonable satisfaction. FIS shall bear the costs of the audit and any required remedial action. FIS'S security measures shall be in accordance with generally accepted industry standards and applicable Regulations and the Fidelity Information Security Policy in accordance with FIS'S obligations pursuant to Section 3.13. FNT may review FIS'S then-current security procedures in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 14 of this Agreement. Should a review of FIS'S security procedures and/or policies reveal issues with FIS'S security procedures and/or policies that constitute deficiencies as assessed against applicable Regulations, the Fidelity Information Security Policy and generally accepted industry standards, FNT may require FIS to promptly provide a plan to cure the deficiency and to provide documentation, as reasonably requested, to demonstrate such cure to FNT's reasonable satisfaction. In addition to the security measures previously implemented by FIS as described in FIS'S then-current security procedures, FIS agrees to adhere to such additional security measures with respect to FNT's personal data as may reasonably be imposed by FNT in accordance with Section 3.13. FNT will reimburse FIS for its actual costs incurred if adherence to additional security standards requested or required by FNT increases FIS'S costs of operation. FIS shall promptly notify FNT of (i) any known material unauthorized possession or use, or attempt thereof, of the data processing files or other personal data; (ii) the effect of such, and (iii) the corrective action taken in response thereto;

- (iii) not disclose those personal data to any person except as required or permitted by this Agreement (including without limitation any confidentiality restrictions contained in it) or pursuant to an FNT Entity's written consent;
- (iv) provide full cooperation and assistance to the FNT Entities in allowing data subjects (as defined in Directive 95/46/EC of the Parliament and of the Council of the European Union of 24 October 1995) to have access to those data and/or to ensure that those data are deleted or corrected if so required by any FNT Entity; and
- (v) not process those personal data except to the extent reasonably necessary to the performance of this Agreement.

Except as otherwise agreed in writing, all personal data relating to the FNT Entities or their clients, or any employees or representatives of the FNT Entities, or otherwise acquired by FIS or FIS Subcontractors as a result of this Agreement shall be processed on behalf of the FNT Entities, and FIS shall have no right to process or permit a third party to process such data other than in performance of FIS'S obligations under this Agreement.

- 16.6.2. FNT may instruct FIS, where FIS processes personal data on behalf of FNT Entities, to take such steps in the processing of those personal data as are reasonably necessary for the performance of this Agreement.
- 16.6.3. If FIS or any FIS Subcontractors transfers any of the personal data that were provided to FIS by FNT Entities to another jurisdiction for processing outside the United States, FIS shall ensure that the transfer, and FIS'S subsequent processing of personal data in the second jurisdiction, do not put the FNT Entities in breach of relevant data protection laws in the jurisdiction to which the personal data is transferred.
- 16.6.4. FNT Entities may, in connection with this Agreement, collect personal data in relation to FIS and FIS'S employees, directors and other officers involved in providing Services hereunder. Such data may be collected from FIS, its employees, its directors, its officers, or from other (for example, published) sources; and some limited personal data may be collected indirectly at FNT's (or FNT's Entities') locations from monitoring devices or by other means (e.g., telephone logs, closed circuit TV and door entry systems). Nothing in this Section 16.6.4 obligates FIS or FIS's employees, directors or other officers to provide personal data requested by FNT. The FNT Entities may use and disclose any such data disclosed by FIS solely for purposes connected with this Agreement and for the relevant purposes specified in the data privacy policy of the FNT Entity (a copy of which is available on request). In particular, FNT may for these purposes transfer such data to any country in which FNT's worldwide organization does business (including to other FNT Entities) so long as FNT does so in compliance with the relevant data protection laws. FIS agrees to such transfer in its own right and on behalf (with the authority) of its employees, directors and other officers. FNT will maintain the same level of protection for personal data collected from FIS (and FIS's employees, directors and officers, as appropriate) as FNT maintains with its own personal data, and will implement appropriate administrative, physical and technical measures to protect the personal data collected from FIS and FIS's employees, directors and other officers against accidental or unlawful destruction or accidental loss, alternation, unauthorized disclosure or access.

ARTICLE 17. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

17.1. Representations and Warranties.

(a) FIS represents that:

- (1) It is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Arkansas.
- (2) It has all requisite corporate power and authority to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under this Agreement.
- (3) With respect to the subject matter of this Agreement, it is duly licensed, authorized or qualified to do business and is in good standing in every jurisdiction in which a license, authorization or qualification is required for the ownership or leasing of its assets or the transaction of business of the character transacted by it, except where the failure to be so licensed, authorized or qualified would not have a material adverse effect on FIS's ability to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement.
- (4) The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement (a) has been duly authorized by FIS and (b) will not conflict with or result in a violation of any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any note, bond, mortgage, indenture or deed of trust or any license, lease agreement or other instrument or obligation to which FIS is a party or by which FIS or any of its assets is bound or affected.

- (5) It is in compliance with all applicable Federal, state, local, international and foreign laws and regulations applicable to it in connection with its obligations under this Agreement.
 - (6) There is no outstanding litigation, arbitrated matter or other dispute to which FIS is a party which, if decided unfavorably to FIS, would reasonably be expected to have a potential or actual material adverse effect on FIS's or FNT's ability or on FIS's cost to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement.
 - (7) None of the FIS Service Locations is in violation of applicable environmental laws.
 - (8) FIS has no knowledge after due inquiry that the provision of the FIS Software infringes upon the proprietary or contractual rights of any third party.
 - (9) The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement will not cause a breach of any commitments by FIS to third parties.
 - (10) FIS does not have any commitments to third parties that would cause a breach of FIS's obligations under this Agreement.
 - (11) No approval, authorization, or consent of any governmental or regulatory authority is required to be obtained or made by FIS in order for it to enter into and perform its obligations under this Agreement.
 - (12) FIS has the right to use the FIS Software to provide the Services and FIS is not aware of any claims of any party which could reasonably threaten such use.
- (b) Covenants and Warranties of FIS. FIS covenants and warrants that:
- (1) In connection with providing the Services, FIS shall comply with all applicable Federal, state and local laws and regulations and shall obtain all applicable permits and licenses related to the FIS Service Locations.
 - (2) FIS shall maintain and keep the Systems and any other software or Equipment used, exclusively or otherwise, in the provision of the Services, in such condition and state of repair consistent with generally accepted industry practices.
 - (3) Any FIS Proprietary Software will not contain any undisclosed back door, spyware, time bomb, drop dead device, clock, timer, copy protection feature, replication device, CPU serial number reference or other software routine designed to disable, lock or erase or otherwise interfere with normal use of a computer program, data, or any other files on the user's systems, automatically with the passage of time or under the positive control of a person other than a licensee of the software (collectively, "Self-Help Code") and FIS will make reasonable efforts to prevent the introduction of any virus, Trojan horse, worm contaminants, or other software routines or hardware components designed to permit unauthorized access to disable, erase, or otherwise harm software, hardware or data, or to perform any other similar actions (collectively, "Unauthorized Code").

- (4) FIS warrants that the Services and the Additional Services will be performed in a professional and workmanlike manner in accordance with the care and skill ordinarily used by other members of the information processing industry practicing under similar conditions for similar customers at the same time, and in no event at a level less than provided by FIS to any other of its similarly situated customers, internal or external, until such time as the baseline has been completed and the Service Levels have been mutually agreed upon.
- (5) Year 2000 Compliance.
 - (a) Definition. For purposes of this Section, the term "Year 2000 Compliant" means that the software, hardware, or equipment, as applicable, manages and manipulates data involving dates, including single-century, cross-century and leap year formulas and date values without resulting in the generation of incorrect or invalid values involving such dates or causing an abnormal ending.
 - (b) Representations Regarding the FIS Proprietary Software. The FIS Proprietary Software shall be Year 2000 Compliant; provided, however, that FIS shall not be responsible or liable for any failure of the FIS Proprietary Software to be Year 2000 compliant or for any improper operation or malfunction of the FIS Proprietary Software under any of the following conditions:
 - (i) The failure of the FIS Proprietary Software to be Year 2000 Compliant is the result, in whole or in part, of either the interaction between the FIS Proprietary Software and any other software or systems which are not Year 2000 Compliant or the interface between the FIS Proprietary Software and any other software or systems which may pass data into or accept data from the FIS Proprietary Software; or
 - (ii) The failure of the FIS Proprietary Software is the result, in whole or in part, of any hardware, operating systems, or equipment which is either provided by FNT or for which, under the terms of this Agreement, FIS is not responsible; or

- (iii) The failure is the result of modifications made to the FIS Proprietary Software either by FNT or by a third party at FNT's request.

In the event that the FIS Proprietary Software is not Year 2000 Compliant, subject to the limitations set forth above, FNT's sole and exclusive remedy shall be that FIS shall correct and repair the FIS Proprietary Software to make it Year 2000 Compliant.

- (c) Warranty With Respect to Services. FNT acknowledges that FIS shall have no responsibility for FNT's Year 2000 compliance or readiness and that FIS has made no representations that Services provided hereunder will make FNT Year 2000 Compliant or ready.
- (d) Warranty with Respect to Environment. FNT acknowledges that FIS is relying on the representations made by its third-party suppliers regarding the Year 2000 compliance or readiness of the FIS Third-Party Software, the FNT Third Party Software, operating systems, machines, hardware environment and equipment and that it is those third-party suppliers' responsibility to provide for the Year 2000 compliance of the products they manufacture or provide. Upon request by FNT, FIS shall provide FNT with the terms and conditions of any applicable manufacturers' warranties for such products and shall assign to FNT, without additional charge, such warranties as the manufacturers may extend to FIS for the benefit of FNT. In the event that any part of an FIS Service Location supporting Services is not Year 2000 compliant, FIS will use its reasonable and good faith efforts to cause the third-party supplier of the non-compliant FIS Third-Party Software, the FNT Third Party Software, operating systems, machines, hardware environment or equipment to make such FIS Third-Party Software, the FNT Third Party Software, operating systems, machines, hardware environment or Equipment Year 2000 Compliant and will replace such non-compliant FIS Third Party Software, FNT Third Party Software, operating systems, machines, hardware environment or equipment with comparable products if FIS, in its reasonable discretion, deems replacement is necessary. FIS makes no representations or warranties of any kind, express, implied or statutory, as to the Year 2000 compliance or readiness of such FIS Third-Party Software, the FNT Third Party Software, operating systems, machines, hardware environment and/or equipment or the sufficiency thereof.
- (e) Disclaimer. EXCEPT AS SPECIFICALLY PROVIDED IN THIS SECTION, FIS MAKES NO OTHER WARRANTIES WITH RESPECT TO THE YEAR 2000 COMPLIANCE OF ANY

SOFTWARE, MACHINES, HARDWARE, EQUIPMENT OR SERVICES PROVIDED BY FIS HEREUNDER AND ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, WITH RESPECT TO YEAR 2000 COMPLIANCE, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, ARE HEREBY EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMED AND EXCLUDED.

(c) Representations of FNT. FNT represents that:

- (1) It is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware.
- (2) It has all requisite corporate power and authority to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under this Agreement.
- (3) With respect to the subject matter of this Agreement, it is duly licensed, authorized or qualified to do business and is in good standing in every jurisdiction in which a license, authorization or qualification is required for the ownership or leasing of its assets or the transaction of business of the character transacted by it, except where the failure to be so licensed, authorized or qualified would not have a material adverse effect on FNT's ability to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement.
- (4) The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement (a) has been duly authorized by FNT and (b) will not conflict with or result in a violation of any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any note, bond, mortgage, indenture or deed of trust or any license, lease agreement or other instrument or obligation to which FNT is a party or by which FNT or any of its assets is bound or affected.
- (5) It is in compliance with all applicable Federal, state, local, international and foreign laws and regulations applicable to FNT in connection with its obligations under this Agreement.
- (6) There is no outstanding litigation, arbitrated matter or other dispute to which FNT is a party which, if decided unfavorably to FNT, would reasonably be expected to have a potential or actual material adverse effect on FIS's or FNT's ability to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement.

(d) Covenants of FNT:

- (1) FNT responsibilities shall be performed in a good and workmanlike manner in accordance with the care and skill ordinarily used by other members of the title insurance industry practicing under similar conditions at the same time.

- (e) FIS's sole and exclusive remedy for FNT's breach of Section 17.1 shall be as set forth in Sections 15.2 and 15.3.

17.2. Disclaimer. EXCEPT AS SPECIFIED IN THIS AGREEMENT, NEITHER FNT NOR FIS MAKES ANY WARRANTIES WITH RESPECT TO THE AGREEMENT AND EACH EXPLICITLY DISCLAIMS ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A SPECIFIC PURPOSE.

ARTICLE 18. TERMINATION

18.1. Termination for Convenience. Termination of this Agreement, in whole or in part, by FNT for convenience and associated partial termination amounts, termination fees and minimum purchase commitments for the Services are addressed in Exhibit I.

18.2. Termination.

- (a) If FIS fails to perform any of its material obligations under this Agreement and does not cure such failure within thirty (30) days of receipt (or, if a cure could not reasonably be completed in thirty days, but FIS is diligently pursuing a cure, then within sixty (60) days) ("Default Cure Period") of a notice of default ("Default Notice") from FNT, then FNT may terminate this Agreement (or any relevant Specific Core Service, Statement of Work, Base Services Agreement, or reasonably separable Service which is separately priced ("Service Component")) effective on the last day of the Default Cure Period. FNT shall not be required to provide a Default Notice with respect to the occurrences described in Section 18.2(b) and (c). If FNT fails to timely pay undisputed amounts due hereunder, or otherwise breaches its duty of confidentiality in a manner which has or may have a material adverse impact on FIS, and does not cure such failure within the Default Cure Period of a Default Notice from FIS, then FIS may terminate this Agreement (or at FIS's discretion any relevant Service Component) effective the last day of the Default Cure Period.
- (b) With respect to material breaches of the provisions of Section 16.1, 16.2, and/or 16.6, the Default Cure Period under Section 18.2 will be two (2) business days. This Section 18.2(b) shall not limit or obviate in any way any other remedies to which a terminating party may be entitled pursuant to this Agreement, by law, at equity or otherwise for breach of Sections 16.1, 16.2, and/or 16.6.
- (c) FNT may terminate this Agreement or any Service Component(s) without liability to either party, other than Fees for Services, Additional Services or Termination Assistance Services performed, if FIS has a Change of Control not approved by FNT. A "Change of Control" shall mean: (i) the consolidation or merger of FIS with or into a Direct Competitor of FNT or (ii) the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of FIS to a Direct Competitor of FNT.

18.3. Termination for Insolvency.

(a) In the event that either party:

- (1) shall admit in writing its inability to, or be generally unable to, pay its debts as such debts become due; or
- (2) shall (i) apply for or consent to the appointment of, or the taking of possession by, a receiver, custodian, trustee, examiner or liquidator of itself or of all or a substantial part of its property or assets, (ii) make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors, (iii) commence a voluntary case under the Bankruptcy Code, (iv) file a petition seeking to take advantage of any other law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, liquidation, dissolution, arrangement or winding-up, or composition or readjustment of debts, (v) fail to controvert in a timely and appropriate manner, or acquiesce in writing to, any petition filed against it in an involuntary case under the Bankruptcy Code or (vi) take any corporate, partnership or other action for the purpose of effecting any of the foregoing;

then the other party may, by giving notice thereof to such party, exercise any termination right, and such termination shall become effective as of the date specified in such termination notice.

(b) In the event that:

- (1) a proceeding or case shall be commenced, without the application or consent of a party, in any court of competent jurisdiction, seeking (i) its reorganization, liquidation, dissolution, arrangement or winding-up, or the composition or readjustment of its debts, (ii) the appointment of a receiver, custodian, trustee, examiner, liquidator or the like of such party or of all or any substantial part of its property or assets or (iii) similar relief in respect of such party under any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, winding-up, or composition or adjustment of debts, and such proceeding or case shall continue undismissed, or an order, judgment or decree approving or ordering any of the foregoing shall be entered and continue unstayed and in effect, for a period of sixty (60) days or more days; or
- (2) an order for relief against such party shall be entered in an involuntary case under the Bankruptcy Code;

then the other party may, by giving notice thereof to such party, exercise any termination right, and such termination shall become effective as of the date specified in such termination notice.

18.4. Termination Assistance. Upon the termination or expiration of this Agreement, or any Service Component, for any reason, FIS will provide FNT, at FNT's request, the transition services reasonably necessary for FNT to effect an orderly transition for the performance by or on behalf of FNT of the Services so terminated. Further, FIS will provide, at FNT's request, all staff, services and assistance reasonably required by FNT for such transition ("Termination Assistance Services"). All Termination Assistance Services shall be at FIS's then-standard rates for services of the type to which such Fees apply, whichever is applicable. In the event FIS terminates this Agreement for material breach by FNT, FNT shall prepay to FIS all anticipated fees and expenses related to the Termination Assistance Services prior to the commencement of Termination Assistance Services. FIS will comply with FNT's directions to accomplish the orderly transition and migration of the Services to FNT, or any entity designated by FNT, from FIS. FIS will continue to provide Services in connection with Termination Assistance Services for a period of up to six (6) months after termination or expiration of this Agreement, or any Service Component, but only if requested by FNT, and for such further period as mutually agreed by FNT and FIS ("Termination Assistance Period"). FIS's obligations under this Section 18.4 will also consist of the following:

- (a) FIS shall, upon FNT's request, promptly provide FNT with detailed specifications and documentation available to FIS for Equipment and FIS Software.
- (b) FIS shall, at FNT's request and at FNT's sole expense, make reasonable efforts to promptly transfer to FNT or any entity designated by FNT, any rights to access and to use the FIS Third Party Software then being used by FIS in providing the Termination Assistance Services under this Agreement and FIS shall, at FNT's request and at FNT's sole expense, make reasonable efforts to cause the grant to FNT, or any entity specified by FNT, of any necessary rights to access and use the FIS Third Party Software, to the extent such rights have not previously been so acquired or transferred.
- (c) Notwithstanding Section 8.7 above, FIS hereby consents to FNT's solicitation and/or hiring by FNT of those Project Staff that FIS and FNT jointly determine, at any time after notice of termination of any Service Component(s), of Project Staff working on such Service Components.
- (d) FIS shall make available to FNT for purchase, all Equipment owned by FIS and used in the provision of the Services which are dedicated solely to the Services, for a purchase price equal to the greater of (i) the then current net book value for such Equipment or (ii) the fair market value as determined by the Management Committee. For the Equipment not purchased by FNT in accordance with the provisions of the immediately preceding sentence, FIS shall identify, and assist FNT in procuring, at FNT's sole expense, suitable functionally equivalent replacements. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing to the contrary, FNT shall not be required to make any payment for the transfer of ownership rights to FNT of Equipment in connection with the purchase of which FIS originally charged FNT the purchase price therefor as a Pass-Through Expense. Payment shall be prorated to that portion of the purchase price which was not paid as a Pass-Through Expense.

- (e) At FNT's request, FIS shall make available to the extent permitted by the terms of a lease, all leases for the Equipment leased by FIS and used in the provision of the Services, and shall assist in obtaining consents to such assignments.
- (f) At FNT's request, FIS shall provide training reasonably required by FNT for the personnel who will be assuming responsibility for services and operations only during the Termination Assistance Period. FIS shall provide training to FNT after the Termination Assistance Period according to FIS's standard fees and class schedules.
- (g) FIS shall provide such other services only if, and at the rates, mutually agreed to by the Parties.

ARTICLE 19. EXIT PLAN

19.1. Description of Termination Assistance Services. Within one hundred eighty (180) days of the Effective Date, FIS will provide to FNT a description of Termination Assistance Services, reasonably acceptable to FNT.

19.2. Implementation. Upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason:

- (a) FIS shall provide assistance in building a detailed exit plan, which plan shall include, at a minimum, a high level work plan that sets forth the activities and associated timeline required to effect such a transfer and maintain ongoing operations;
- (b) FIS shall provide the Termination Assistance Services pursuant to Section 18.4;
- (c) The FNT Entities will allow FIS to use, at no charge, those FNT Entity facilities being used to perform the Termination Assistance Services for as long as FIS is providing the Termination Assistance Services to enable FIS to effect an orderly transition of FIS's resources to FNT or its designees; and
- (d) Each party will have the rights specified in Article 9 in respect of the Designated Software.

ARTICLE 20. INDEMNIFICATION

20.1. Indemnification by FIS. FIS shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless (collectively, "Indemnify") FNT and its respective employees, agents, officers, and designated representatives and including, for purposes of Sections 20.1(d) and 20.3, the FNT Entities (collectively, the "FNT Indemnified Parties") from and against any judgment, damage, fine, demand, loss, cost of any kind, liability (including settlements and judgments) or expense (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses and court costs) (collectively, "Damages"):

- (a) arising in connection with or as a result of (i) a violation of international, foreign, Federal, state, local or other laws or regulations for the protection of persons or members of a protected class or category of persons, including unlawful discrimination by FIS or any FIS Subcontractors or any of their respective employees or agents (collectively the "FIS Agents," and each, a "FIS Agent"), (ii) work-related injury or death caused by FIS or any FIS Agent; or (iii) any other aspect of the employment relationship of any FIS employee with FIS or the termination of the employment relationship with FIS (including claims for breach of an express or implied contract of employment), to the extent caused by alleged or actual improper conduct of FIS or any FIS Agent;

- (b) relating to any amounts including taxes, interest and penalties assessed against FNT that are the obligations of FIS pursuant to Article 13;
- (c) arising in connection with or as a result of death, personal injury, or damage to or loss of real or personal property, which is caused by the acts or omissions of FIS or any FIS Agent;
- (d) arising in connection with or as a result of FIS's breach of any confidentiality obligations of FIS pursuant to Article 16; or
- (e) arising in connection with the failure of FIS to comply with its obligations pursuant to Article 10.

20.2. Indemnification by FNT. FNT shall Indemnify FIS and its respective employees, agents, officers, and designated representatives (collectively, the "FIS Indemnified Parties", each of the FIS Indemnified Parties and the FNT Indemnified Parties individually are referred to as an "Indemnified Party") from and against any Damages:

- (a) arising in connection with or as a result of (i) a violation of international, foreign, Federal, state, local or other laws or regulations for the protection of persons or members of a protected class or category of persons, including unlawful discrimination by FNT or any of FNT's subcontractors or any of their respective employees or agents (collectively, the "FNT Agents," and each, a "FNT Agent"), (ii) work-related injury or death caused by FNT or any FNT Agent; or (iii) any other aspect of the employment relationship of any FNT employee with FNT or the termination of the employment relationship with FNT (including claims for breach of an express or implied contract of employment), to the extent caused by alleged or actual improper conduct of FNT or any FNT Agent;
- (b) relating to any amounts including taxes, interest and penalties assessed against FIS that are the obligations of FNT pursuant to Article 13;
- (c) arising in connection with or as a result of death, personal injury, or damage to or loss of real or personal property, which is caused by the acts or omissions of FNT or any FNT Agent; or
- (d) arising in connection with or as a result of FNT's breach of any confidentiality obligations of FNT pursuant to Article 16.

20.3. FIS Intellectual Property Indemnification.

- (a) FIS shall Indemnify the FNT Indemnified Parties with respect to Damages arising in connection with or as a result of any actual or alleged infringement by any of the FIS Software, FNT Third Party Software licensed by FIS unless the terms of the license are approved by FNT in writing in advance (which, upon such approval, will be "FNT Approved Software"), Developed Software, Documentation, or the manner in which the Services are performed of any patent, copyright, trademark, trade name or other intellectual property or proprietary or contractual rights of a third party. FIS shall not be responsible for any actual or alleged infringement of Developed Software or Services to the extent required by specifications or instructions given by FNT.
- (b) If, in FIS's opinion, any FIS Software, FNT Approved Software, or Documentation or portion thereof furnished hereunder is likely to or does become the subject of a claim of infringement or misappropriation, FIS shall either recommend for FNT's consideration an item which is equally suitable and upon FNT's approval of the recommended replacement, replace the infringing item, or modify the alleged infringement so that it becomes non-infringing, so long as such modification or replacement does not cause a material disruption in any FNT technology systems or operations, or at FIS's expense, obtain the right for FNT to continue the use of such item.
- (c) FIS shall use reasonable efforts to cause all licenses to FIS Third Party Software, FNT Third Party Software that FIS licenses and/or acquires on FNT's behalf, or other third party proprietary materials used to provide the Services to contain infringement indemnification for FNT to the same extent that such indemnification is provided hereunder.
- (d) This Section states FNT's and the FNT Entities' sole and exclusive remedy for any actual or alleged infringement of any third party's intellectual property or proprietary or contractual rights.

20.4. FNT Intellectual Property Indemnification.

- (a) FNT shall Indemnify the FIS Indemnified Parties with respect to Damages arising in connection with or as a result of any actual or alleged infringement by any of the FNT Proprietary Software, FNT Third Party Software as furnished by FNT under this Agreement, or any patent, copyright, trademark, trade name or other intellectual property or proprietary or contractual rights of a third party. FNT shall not be responsible for any actual or alleged infringement of FNT Proprietary Software which arises out of specifications or instructions given by FIS. Notwithstanding the foregoing, FNT's indemnification obligation to FIS Indemnified Parties for FNT Third Party Software that is procured by FIS and is not FNT Approved Software shall be limited to the amount (if any) of FNT's recovery relating to the claim pursuant to the applicable license agreement for such software.

- (b) If, in FNT's opinion, any FNT Proprietary Software, FNT Third Party Software as furnished by FNT under this Agreement and FNT Approved Software (but not FNT Third Party Software that is licensed by FIS and not FNT Approved Software), or portion thereof furnished hereunder is likely to or does become the subject of a claim of infringement or misappropriation, FNT shall either recommend for FIS's consideration an item which is equally suitable and upon FIS's approval of the recommended replacement, replace the infringing item, or modify the alleged infringement so that it becomes non-infringing, so long as such modification or replacement does not cause a material disruption to the Services or at FNT's expense, obtain the right for FIS to continue the use of such item.
- (c) This Section states FIS's sole and exclusive remedy for any actual or alleged infringement of any third party's intellectual property or proprietary or contractual rights.

20.5. Indemnification Procedures. Upon (a) the occurrence of an event or (b) the commencement of any civil, criminal, administrative, arbitral or investigative claim, action, suit or proceeding (each, a "Claim") against an Indemnified Party, in connection with which Damages have been incurred or are likely to be incurred, notice thereof shall be given to the party that is obligated to provide indemnification (the "Indemnifying Party") as promptly as practicable; provided, however, that any delay on the part of the Indemnified Party in providing such notice shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its indemnification obligation except to the extent the Indemnifying Party is detrimentally prejudiced thereby. After such notice, the Indemnifying Party shall immediately either provide the required indemnification or take control of the defense and investigation of the Claim, if any, and employ and engage attorneys reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party to handle and defend the same, at the Indemnifying Party's sole cost and expense. The Indemnified Party shall, at the expense of the Indemnifying Party, cooperate in all reasonable respects with the Indemnifying Party and its attorneys in the investigation, trial and defense of the Claim and any appeal arising therefrom. No settlement of a Claim that involves a remedy other than the payment of money by the Indemnifying Party shall be entered into without the consent of the Indemnified Party. After notice by the Indemnifying Party to the Indemnified Party of its election to assume full control of the defense of the Claim, the Indemnifying Party shall not be liable to the Indemnified Party for any legal expenses incurred thereafter by such Indemnified Party in connection with the defense of that Claim. If the Indemnifying Party does not assume full control over the defense of a Claim subject to such defense as provided in this Section 20.5, the Indemnified Party shall have the right to defend the Claim in such manner as it may deem appropriate, at the cost and expense of the Indemnifying Party.

20.6. Contribution. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if any third party Claim is commenced against one or both parties that would, if brought against both parties, entitle each party to indemnification from the other under either Section 20.1, Section 20.2, Section 20.3 or Section 20.4 the parties shall allocate between themselves any liability or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) arising out of or relating to such Claim, according to the parties' relative shares of liability. Neither contributory negligence nor any analogous principle shall be a defense to any allocation of liability or expenses pursuant to this Section 20.6. An Indemnifying Party shall not be relieved of its obligation to provide the defense against any Claim pursuant to such Indemnifying Party's obligations under this Article 20, notwithstanding any dispute by such Indemnifying Party relating to whether any act or omission of the Indemnified Party contributed to the Claim to which the obligation to Indemnify arises.

20.7. Limitation of Liability.

- (a) SUBJECT TO THIS SECTION 20.7, EACH PARTY SHALL BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER FOR ALL DIRECT DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO ANY CLAIMS, ACTIONS, LOSSES, COSTS, DAMAGES AND EXPENSES RELATED TO, IN CONNECTION WITH OR ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT. SUBJECT TO SECTION 20.8 BUT NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING ELSE IN THIS AGREEMENT TO THE CONTRARY, IN NO EVENT SHALL THE AGGREGATE LIABILITY OF EITHER PARTY TO THE OTHER FOR DAMAGES, WHETHER ARISING IN CONTRACT, TORT, EQUITY, NEGLIGENCE OR OTHERWISE, EXCEED THE GREATER OF (A) THE FEES PAID BY FNT TO FIS PURSUANT TO THIS AGREEMENT OVER THE TWELVE MONTH PERIOD IMMEDIATELY PRECEDING THE EVENT GIVING RISE TO SUCH LIABILITY AND (B) TEN MILLION DOLLARS ($10,000,000).
- (b) IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE FOR INDIRECT, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES OF ANY KIND WHATSOEVER.

20.8. Exclusions. The provisions set forth in Section 20.7(a) do not apply to and do not limit damages recoverable for (a) the indemnification provisions set forth in this Article 20 relating to third party claims, (b) breach of Section 16.1, or (c) damages arising out of gross negligence or intentional misconduct, nor shall any such damages accrue toward satisfaction of the foregoing limitation on damages.

ARTICLE 21. WAIVER

No delay or omission by a party to exercise any right or power accruing hereunder will impair or be construed as a waiver of any such right or power nor will such party be deemed to have waived any event of default or acquiesced in it, and such party shall exercise every such right and power from time to time and as often as shall be deemed expedient. All waivers shall be in writing and signed by the party waiving its rights.

ARTICLE 22. INSURANCE

22.1. Coverage Required. During the Term, FIS shall obtain and maintain, and require any FIS Subcontractors performing Services pursuant to the terms of this Agreement to obtain and maintain, without incremental cost to FNT, until the end of the Term and for any Termination Assistance Period, insurance of the types and in the amounts set forth below. FIS's duty to maintain such insurance coverage for itself shall nonetheless be relieved for so long as FIS is insured under the insurance policy or policies maintained by FNT, provided, however, that FIS reimburses FNT for FIS's portion of the cost of such insurance. Upon written agreement between the Parties at the time FIS will cease to be covered by FNT's insurance, and subject to annual renewal, this provision may be satisfied by FIS's self-insurance. The required insurance coverages are:

- (a) statutory workers' compensation in accordance with all international, foreign, federal, state and local requirements;
- (b) employer's liability insurance in an amount not less than $1,000,000 per occurrence, covering bodily injury by accident or disease, including death;
- (c) commercial general liability (including products/completed operations with coverage being maintained for a period of five (5) years past the termination or expiration of this Agreement and contractual liability insurance or such equivalent insurance in a foreign jurisdiction) in an amount not less than $1,000,000;
- (d) comprehensive automobile liability covering all vehicles that FIS owns, hires or leases in an amount not less than $1,000,000 (combined single limit for bodily injury and property damage);
- (e) professional errors and omissions liability insurance in an amount of not less than $5,000,000 per occurrence for liability arising out of any negligent act, error, mistake or omission of FIS or any FIS Subcontractors performing Services pursuant to the terms of this Agreement; and
- (f) fidelity insurance covering all employees of FIS with limits of not less than $2,000,000 per claim.

22.2. Insurance Documentation. To the extent third party insurance is obtained or maintained pursuant to Section 22.1, FIS shall, within ten (10) days of commencing work, furnish to FNT certificates of insurance or other appropriate documentation (including evidence of renewal of insurance) evidencing all coverage referenced in Section 22.1 and naming FNT as an additional insured on those policies described in Section 22.1(c) and (d) above. Such certificates or other documentation shall include a provision whereby thirty (30) days' notice must be received by FNT prior to coverage cancellation or material alteration of the coverage by either FIS or any FIS Subcontractors performing Services pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, or the applicable insurer. If reasonably requested by FNT, certified copies of any or all of the actual policies of insurance required hereunder shall be provided to FNT.

ARTICLE 23. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

23.1. Notices. Except as otherwise specified in this Agreement, all notices, requests, consents, approvals, and other communications required or permitted under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall have been deemed to have been properly given, unless explicitly stated otherwise if sent to each of the persons at the addresses or facsimile numbers set forth below for a party by (i) Federal Express or other comparable overnight courier, (ii) registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, or (iii) facsimile during normal business hours to the place of business of the recipient; provided that any facsimile notice must be followed the same day with a delivery of identical notice by Federal Express or other comparable overnight courier, for next business day delivery.

All notices, notifications, demands or requests so given shall be deemed given and received (i) if mailed, three (3) days after being deposited in the mail; (ii) if sent via overnight courier, the next business day after being deposited; or (iii) if sent via facsimile on a business day, that day, or if sent via facsimile on a day that is not a business day, the next day that is a business day; provided that any facsimile notice must be followed the same day with a delivery of identical notice by Federal Express or other comparable overnight courier, for next business day delivery. Either party may change its address(es) or facsimile number(s) or the individual(s) for notification purposes by giving the other party notice of the new address(es) or telecopy number(s) and/or individual(s) and the date upon which it will become effective.

23.2. Counterparts. This Agreement shall be executed in any number of counterparts all of which taken together will constitute one single agreement between the parties.

23.3. Headings. The article and section headings and the table of contents are for reference and convenience only and will not be considered in the interpretation of this Agreement.

23.4. Relationship. The performance by FIS of its duties and obligations under this Agreement are that of an independent contractor and nothing contained in this Agreement, except for the limited agency expressly provided for herein, creates or implies an agency relationship between FNT and FIS, nor will this Agreement be deemed to constitute a joint venture or partnership between FNT and FIS. FIS and FNT agree that FIS is an independent contractor and its personnel are not FNT's agents or employees for federal or state tax purposes, and are not entitled to any FNT employee benefits. Except as specifically set forth herein, each party assumes sole and full responsibility for its acts and the acts of its personnel, agents and subcontractors. Neither party has any authority to make commitments or enter into contracts on behalf of, bind, or otherwise obligate the other party in any manner whatsoever except as specifically set forth herein.

23.5. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be contrary to law, then the remaining provisions of this Agreement or the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is invalid or unenforceable will not be affected thereby, and each such provision of this Agreement will be valid and enforceable to the extent permitted by law.

23.6. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and each of the Exhibits and Schedules, which are hereby incorporated by reference into this Agreement, is the entire agreement between the parties with respect to its subject matter, and there are no other representations, understandings, or agreements between the parties relative to such subject matter. This Agreement is intended to supersede any and all continuing agreements among FIS and/or Subsidiaries on the one hand and FNT and/or FNT Entities on the other, for substantially similar services as contemplated herein.

23.7. Amendments. No amendment to, or change, waiver, or discharge of, any provision of this Agreement will be valid unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the party against which such amendment, change, waiver, or discharge is sought to be enforced. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time prior to the Sale of FNIS or any IPO, this Agreement may not be amended without the prior written consent of THL and TPG if such amendment would: (i) change Section 13 (Fees) or Exhibit D (Fees), (ii) affect the Term of the Agreement, (iii) affect FNT's ability to terminate any Services pursuant to Section 18 and Exhibit I (Termination Fees), (iv) affect Articles 3 (Services), 4 (Customer Satisfaction), 5 (Service Levels), 8.3 (Onsite Resources) or 9 (Proprietary Rights) or Exhibit H in any manner materially adverse to FIS, (v) affect Section 20.7 (Limitation of Liability) in any manner adverse to FIS, (vi) affect Article 20 (Indemnification) in any manner materially adverse to FIS, or (vii) affect this Section 23.7 (Amendment). For purposes of this Section 23.7, (a) the term "THL" shall mean Thomas H. Lee Equity Fund V, L.P.; (b) the term "TPG" shall mean TPG Partners III, L.P.; (c) the term "Sale of FNIS" means: an acquisition by any Person (within the meaning of Section 3(a)(9) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") and used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) thereof ("Person")) of Beneficial Ownership (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act ("Beneficial Ownership")) of 50% or more of either the then outstanding shares of FNIS common stock (the "Outstanding FNIS Common Stock") or the combined voting power of the then outstanding voting securities of FNIS entitled to vote generally in the election of directors (the "Outstanding FNIS Voting Securities"); excluding, however, the following: (A) any acquisition directly from FNIS, other than an acquisition by virtue of the exercise of a conversion privilege unless the security being so converted was itself acquired directly from FNIS or (B) any acquisition by any employee benefit plan (or related trust) sponsored or maintained by FNIS or a member of the FNIS Group; and (d) the term "IPO" means an offering and sale to the public of any shares or equity securities of FNIS or any of its subsidiaries pursuant to a registration statement in the United States. THL and TPG are intended express and intended third party beneficiaries for purposes of this Section 23.7 only.

23.8. Governing Law. This Agreement will be interpreted pursuant to and governed by the laws of the State of Florida applicable to contracts to be performed within Florida, without giving effect to any conflicts of law doctrine of such State.

23.9. Survival. The terms of Article 9, Section 12.2, Section 13.3, Article 14.2, Article 15, Article 16, Article 17, Section 18.4, Article 20, Article 21, and Article 23 will survive the expiration of this Agreement or termination of this Agreement for any reason.

23.10. Third Party Beneficiaries. Each party intends that this Agreement will not benefit, or create any right or cause of action in or on behalf of, any person or entity other than FNT or FIS or, with respect to Sections 20.1(d) and 20.3, the FNT Entities. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, (i) FIS shall have the right to bring a claim against FNT to the extent such claim results from an FNT Entity failing to abide by the terms of this Agreement and (ii) FNT shall have the right to bring any claim against FIS on behalf of any other FNT Entity which results from FIS's failure to deliver Services to such FNT Entity in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or to comply with the terms of this Agreement.

23.11. Acknowledgment. FNT and FIS each acknowledge that the limitations and exclusions contained in this Agreement have been the subject of active and complete negotiation between the parties and represent the parties' agreement based upon the level of risk to FNT and FIS associated with their respective obligations under this Agreement and the payments to be made to FIS and charges incurred by FIS pursuant to this Agreement. The parties agree that the terms and conditions of this Agreement will not be construed in favor of or against any party by reason of the extent to which any party or its professional advisors participated in the preparation of this Agreement.

23.12. Covenant of Further Assurances. FNT and FIS covenant and agree that, subsequent to the execution and delivery of this Agreement and without any additional consideration, each of FNT and FIS will execute and deliver any further legal instruments and perform any acts which are or shall become necessary to effectuate the purposes of this Agreement.

23.13. Assignment. Except as specified in Sections 3.2 and 8.4, neither FNT nor FIS shall assign, delegate or otherwise transfer all or any part of its rights or obligations under this Agreement or any part hereof, unless otherwise provided for in this Agreement, without the express written consent of the non-assigning Party. Any such attempted assignment, delegation or transfer will be null and void and of no effect. Either party shall be permitted to assign this Agreement to any Affiliate except that the assigning party shall remain responsible for all obligations under this Agreement including the payment of Fees.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement as of the date first written above.

SOFTPRO SOFTWARE LICENSE AGREEMENT

This SOFTWARE LICENSE AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is dated as of _____, 2005 ("Effective Date") and is made by and between FNIS SoftPro, a division of FIDELITY NATIONAL INFORMATION SOLUTIONS, INC., with its principal office at 333 East Six Forks Road, Raleigh, North Carolina, 27609 ("SoftPro"), and FIDELITY NATIONAL TITLE GROUP, INC., with its principal offices at 601 Riverside Avenue Jacksonville, FL 32204 ("Client").

WHEREAS, Fidelity National Information Services, Inc. ("FNIS"), the parent company of SoftPro, previously entered into a certain Stock Purchase Agreement, dated as of December 23, 2004 (the "Stock Purchase Agreement"), with Fidelity National Financial, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("FNF"), pursuant to which certain purchasers (the "Purchasers") purchased from FNIS 50,000,000 shares of FNIS' common stock, subject to the terms and conditions of the Stock Purchase Agreement; and

WHEREAS, a condition to the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement required that FNIS and FNF enter into certain Intercompany Agreements (as defined in the Stock Purchase Agreement), and that the form and substance of such Intercompany Agreements be satisfactory to the Parties and the representatives of the Purchasers; and

WHEREAS, SoftPro previously entered into a SoftPro Software License Agreement dated as of March 4, 2005 (the "FNF Agreement") with FNF, as the parent company of FNT and its subsidiaries, with respect to the use of certain software and the provision of certain services, as more fully described herein; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to an Assignment and Assumption Agreement of even date herewith between FNF and FNT, FNT has assumed, with the consent of FNIS and SoftPro, all of FNF's rights and obligations under the FNF Agreement; and

WHEREAS, SoftPro and FNT wish to enter into a novation of the rights and obligations under the FNF Agreement, as assumed by and assigned to FNT, so that FNT is the clear party in interest with respect to the license and services to be provided by SoftPro, as more particularly described herein;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, and of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements set forth herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Parties hereto agree as follows:

3. SOURCE CODE DELIVERY

3.1 DUTY TO DELIVER. Under the circumstances listed in Section 3.2 below, solely for purposes of integration, maintenance, modification and enhancement of Client's installation(s) of SoftPro Software, SoftPro shall promptly deliver to Client a complete copy of Source Code, which shall be subject to all of the license terms and restrictions applicable to the SoftPro Software.

3.2 CONDITIONS. SoftPro's duty of delivery of Source Code as described above shall be immediately due and enforceable in equity upon any of these circumstances:

- (a) SoftPro has given notice to Client under terms of Maintenance that SoftPro shall cease, or SoftPro has ceased, (i) providing Maintenance generally or (ii) supporting any part of SoftPro Software, and in the event of notice of future termination, such termination (whenever notice is given) shall be effective within twelve months.
- (b) SoftPro shall apply for or consent to the appointment of a receiver, trustee, or liquidator of all or a substantial part of its assets, file a voluntary petition in bankruptcy, make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, file a petition or an answer seeking reorganization or arrangement with creditors or take advantage of any insolvency law, or if an order, judgment or decree shall be entered by any court of competent jurisdiction, on the application of a creditor, adjudicating SoftPro as bankrupt or insolvent or approving a petition seeking reorganization of SoftPro or appointing a receiver, trustee, or liquidator of SoftPro or of all or substantial part of its assets, and such order, judgment or decree shall continue unstayed and in effect for any period of thirty (30) consecutive Days.

- (iii) Six (6) months following the delivery by Client to SoftPro of source code for Client's developments or enhancements under Section 3.2(d)(ii), SoftPro may request that Client certify, and Client will promptly certify to SoftPro, that Client has destroyed all copies of (x) Source Code delivered to it by SoftPro 3.2(d) and (y) all copies of the source code for Client's development or enhancement - except two hard copy prints of source code for Client's development or enhancement for proof of authorship.
- (iv) Client's right to obtain access to Source Code pursuant to this Section 3.2(d) may be invoked at any time and from time to time, regardless of the continuity of Maintenance.

Client may not sell, lease, assign, transfer, distribute or sublicense the Source Code to any person or entity at any time, except that Client may sublicense the Source Code to a direct or indirect subsidiary of Client as necessary to exercise Client's rights to modify and create derivative works of the SoftPro Software and Documentation.
- (c) Client shall use SoftPro Software subject to the Use Limitations.
- (d) Client will not make copies, or similar versions of the SoftPro Software or any part thereof without the prior written consent of SoftPro, except in the process of contemplated use, for administrative, archival or disaster recovery backup, and as expressly provided otherwise herein.

- (e) Client may not provide copies of the SoftPro Software to any person, firm, or corporation not permitted hereunder except as permitted under Sections 4.1(b) and (d) above, and except as to Client's non-Competitor contractors or subcontractors who have executed nondisclosure terms consistent with the confidentiality terms herein.

- 5.1 The term of license shall be perpetual subject to termination in accordance with the terms herein.
- 5.2 Client may terminate the license for convenience upon no less than ninety (90) days prior written notice to the other.
- 5.3 A license enjoyed by a direct or indirect subsidiary of Client shall terminate without further formality upon the six month anniversary date after such entity's ceasing to be a subsidiary of Client. Client shall cause such subsidiary to agree to migrate its data off the SoftPro Software and on to an alternative product during the above described six month period. In any event, if the subsidiary becomes a subsidiary of a Competitor, the license to the subsidiary shall terminate immediately.
- 5.4 In the event Client or a Client subsidiary discloses any of the SoftPro Software or any material part of the Documentation to a Competitor, then SoftPro upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to Client, may terminate the license with respect to that portion of relating to the SoftPro Software and Documentation provided to such competitor if Client on its own does not (or if Client does not cause its subsidiary to) discontinue disclosure of the SoftPro Software and Documentation to such Competitor within thirty days following Client's receipt of SoftPro's written notice. Any such termination shall be effective upon the expiration of the cure period. The foregoing is intended to apply only to the remedy of termination. SoftPro shall retain the right to pursue any other remedies in the event Client or its Subsidiary makes an unauthorized disclosure to a Competitor, including injunctive relief or recovery of damages, and, depending on the nature of the disclosure, requesting that Client undertake other measures in addition to simply discontinuing disclosure to the Competitor.

- 5.5 In the event of termination of the license for any reason, Client and/or its subsidiary, as applicable, shall promptly cease all use of the relevant SoftPro Software, delete from its systems all copies of the relevant SoftPro Software, and within thirty (30) days of termination, return to SoftPro all tangible copies of the relevant SoftPro Software, together with certification that it has ceased such use, deleted such copies and returned such tangible copies as required hereunder.
- 5.6 Each party acknowledges and agrees that, in the event of Client's breach or threatened breach or any provision of Sections 4, 5.3, 5.4, 5.5 or 7, SoftPro shall have no adequate remedy in damages and notwithstanding the dispute resolution provisions in Section 11 hereof, is entitled to seek an injunction to prevent such breach or threatened breach; provided, however, no specification of a particular legal or equitable remedy is to be construed as a waiver, prohibition, or limitation of any legal or equitable remedies in the event of a breach hereof.
- 5.7 Licenses purchased pursuant to the option in Schedule 4.1(b) shall survive in accordance with their terms.

6. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS.

- 6.1 OWNERSHIP OF SOFTPRO SOFTWARE AND DOCUMENTATION. From the date the SoftPro Software and Documentation is first disclosed to Client, and at all times thereafter, as between the parties, SoftPro and its licensors shall be the sole and exclusive owners of all right, title, and interest in and to the SoftPro Software, Documentation and all Modifications, including, without limitation, all intellectual property and other rights related thereto. The parties acknowledge that this Agreement in no way limits or restricts SoftPro and the SoftPro Affiliates from developing or marketing on their own or for any third party in the United States or any other country, the SoftPro Software, Documentation or Modifications, or any similar software (including, but not limited to, any modification, enhancement, interface, upgrade, change and all software, source code, blueprints, diagrams, flow charts, specifications, functional descriptions or training materials relating thereto) without payment of any compensation to Client, or any notice to Client.
- 6.2 DEVELOPMENT SERVICES. Client may from time to time wish to augment the SoftPro product with additional functionality or utility, or to integrate it with Client systems from other sources, and for such purposes may request the provision of development services from SoftPro pursuant to a statement of work under the MSA (a "SOW").

- 6.3 CONFLICT WITH MSA. Title to any SoftPro work product developed under the MSA shall be determined by the MSA notwithstanding any conflicting terms herein.

7. CONFIDENTIALITY.

- 7.1 CONFIDENTIALITY OBLIGATION. Proprietary Information (i) shall be deemed the property of the disclosing party (or the party for whom such data was collected or processed, if any), (ii) shall be used solely for the purposes of administering and otherwise implementing the terms of this Agreement and any ancillary agreements, and (iii) shall be protected by the receiving party in accordance with the terms of this Section 7.
- 7.2 NON-DISCLOSURE COVENANT. Except as set forth in this Section, neither party shall disclose the Proprietary Information of the other party in whole or in part, including derivations, to any third party. If the parties agree to a specific nondisclosure period for a specific document, the disclosing party shall mark the document with that nondisclosure period. In the absence of a specific period, the duty of confidentiality for (a) SoftPro Software (except pursuant to Schedule 4.1(b)), Source Code and related Documentation shall extend in perpetuity and (b) with respect to any other Proprietary Information shall extend for a period of five (5) years from disclosure. Proprietary Information shall be held in confidence by the receiving party and its employees, and shall be disclosed to only those of the receiving party's employees and professional advisors who have a need for it in connection with the administration and implementation of this Agreement. In no event shall Client disclose SoftPro Proprietary Information to a Competitor of SoftPro. Each party shall use the same degree of care and afford the same protections to the Proprietary Information of the other party as it uses and affords to its own Proprietary Information.
- 7.3 EXCEPTIONS. Proprietary Information shall not be deemed proprietary and, subject to the carve-out below, the receiving party shall have no obligation of nondisclosure with respect to any such information which:
- (i) is or becomes publicly known through no wrongful act, fault or negligence of the receiving party;
 - (ii) was disclosed to the receiving party by a third party that was free of obligations of confidentiality to the party providing the information;
 - (iii) is approved for release by written authorization of the disclosing party;
 - (iv) was known to the receiving party prior to receipt of the information;
 - (v) was independently developed by the receiving party without access to or use of the Proprietary Information of the disclosing party; or
 - (vi) is publicly disclosed pursuant to a requirement or request of a governmental agency, or disclosure is required by operation of law.

Notwithstanding application of any of the foregoing exceptions, in no event shall SoftPro treat as other than Proprietary Information, information comprising nonpublic personal information under the GLB Act.

7.4 CONFIDENTIALITY OF THIS AGREEMENT; PROTECTIVE ARRANGEMENTS.

- (a) The parties acknowledge that this Agreement contains confidential information that may be considered proprietary by one or both of the parties, and agree to limit distribution of this Agreement to those employees of Client and SoftPro with a need to know the contents of this Agreement or as required by law or national stock exchange rule. In no event may this Agreement be reproduced or copies shown to any third parties (except counsel, auditors and professional advisors) without the prior written consent of the other party, except as may be necessary by reason of legal, accounting, tax or regulatory requirements, in which event Client and SoftPro agree to exercise reasonable diligence in limiting such disclosure to the minimum necessary under the particular circumstances.
- (b) In addition, each party shall give notice to the other party of any demands to disclose or provide Proprietary Information of the other party under or pursuant to lawful process prior to disclosing or furnishing such Proprietary Information, and shall cooperate in seeking reasonable protective arrangements.

8. CONTINUING UNDERTAKINGS.

During the duration of the license granted hereunder, SoftPro shall offer Maintenance for the SoftPro Software for the fees set forth in Exhibit C hereto. A description of Maintenance services is set forth in Exhibit B hereto. Any related professional services shall be performed pursuant to Exhibit B of the MSA.

9. INVOICING AND PAYMENTS, PAST DUE AMOUNTS, CURRENCY.

- 9.1 INVOICING AND PAYMENT REQUIREMENTS. SoftPro shall invoice for such fees described in Exhibit C hereto as well as for any expenses and any other applicable charges incurred and owing hereunder. In accordance with this Section 9.1, Client shall pay SoftPro the invoiced amount in full on or prior to thirty (30) Days after Client's receipt of such invoice unless Client notifies SoftPro within such period that it is in good faith disputing SoftPro's invoice. Client shall make all payments to SoftPro by check, credit card or wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account or accounts designated by SoftPro. Payment in full shall not preclude later dispute of charges or adjustment of improper payments.
- 9.2 PAST DUE AMOUNTS. Any amount not received or disputed by Client by the date payment is due shall be subject to interest on the overdue balance at a rate equal to the prime rate as published in the table money rates in the Wall Street Journal on the date of payment (or the prior date on which the Wall Street Journal was published if not published on the date of payment), plus one percent from the due date, until paid, applied to the outstanding balance from time to time. Any amount paid but later deemed not to have been due, will be repaid or credited with interest on the same terms.

9.3 CURRENCY. All fees and charges listed and referred to in this Agreement are stated in and shall be paid in U.S. Dollars.

10. ASSISTANCE.

10.1 BASIS FOR ASSISTANCE. Assistance, except to the extent included in Maintenance, is not included in this Agreement. If Client desires to purchase Assistance from SoftPro or a SoftPro Affiliate, such Assistance shall be provided pursuant to separate agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent Assistance is available under the MSA, its performance shall be governed by the terms of the MSA.

11. DISPUTE RESOLUTION.

11.1 DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURES. If, prior to the termination of this Agreement or the license granted herein, and prior to notice of termination given by either party to the other, a dispute arises between SoftPro and Client with respect to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, or any subject matter governed by this Agreement (other than disputes regarding a party's compliance with the provisions of Sections 4 and/or 7), such dispute shall be settled as set forth in this Section 11. If either party exercises its right to initiate the dispute resolution procedures under this Section 11, then during such procedure any time periods providing for termination of the Agreement or curing any material breach pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall be suspended automatically, except with respect to any termination or breach arising out of Client's failure to make any undisputed timely and complete payments to SoftPro under this Agreement. At such time as the dispute is resolved, if such dispute involved the payment of monies, interest at a rate equal to the prime rate as published in the table money rates in the Wall Street Journal on the date the dispute is resolved (or the prior date on which the Wall Street Journal was published if not published on the date the dispute was resolved) plus one percent for the period of dispute shall be paid to the party entitled to receive the disputed monies to compensate for the lapsed time between the date such disputed amount originally was to have been paid (or was paid) through the date monies are paid (or repaid) in settlement of the dispute. Disputes arising under Sections 4 or 7 may be resolved by judicial recourse or in any other manner agreed by the parties.

11.2 ESCALATION PROCEDURES.

- (a) Each of the parties shall escalate and negotiate, in good faith, any claim or dispute that has not been satisfactorily resolved between the parties at the level where the issue is discovered and has immediate impact (excluding issues of title to work product, which shall be initially addressed at the general counsel level but otherwise pursuant to Section 11.2(b) following). To this end, each party shall escalate any and all unresolved disputes or claims in accordance with this Section 11.2 at any time to persons responsible for the administration of the relationship reflected in this Agreement. The location, format, frequency, duration and conclusion of these elevated discussions shall be left to the discretion of the representatives involved. If such parties do not resolve the underlying dispute within ten (10) Days of its escalation to them, then either party may notify the other in writing that he/she desires to elevate the dispute or claim to the President of Fidelity National Information Solutions, Inc. and the President of Fidelity National Title Group, Inc. or their designated representative(s) for resolution.

- (b) Upon receipt by a party of a written notice escalating the dispute to the company president level, the President of Fidelity National Information Solutions, Inc. and the President of Fidelity National Title Group, Inc. or their designated representative(s) shall promptly communicate with his/her counter party, negotiate in good faith and use reasonable efforts to resolve such dispute or claim. The location, format, frequency, duration and conclusion of these elevated discussions shall be left to the discretion of the representatives involved. Upon agreement, such representatives may utilize other alternative dispute resolution procedures to assist in the negotiations. If the parties have not resolved the dispute within ten (10) Days after receipt of the notice elevating the dispute to this level, either may once again escalate the dispute to binding arbitration.
- (c) All discussions and correspondence among the representatives for purposes of these negotiations shall be treated as Proprietary Information developed for purposes of settlement, exempt from discovery and production, which shall not be admissible in any subsequent proceedings between the parties. Documents identified in or provided with such communications, which are not prepared for purposes of the negotiations, are not so exempted and may, if otherwise admissible, be admitted in evidence in such subsequent proceeding.

11.3 ARBITRATION PROCEDURES. If a claim, controversy or dispute between the parties with respect to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, or any subject matter governed by this Agreement (and not otherwise excepted), has not been timely resolved pursuant to the foregoing escalation process, upon notice either party may initiate binding arbitration of the issue in accordance with the following procedures.

- (a) Either party may request arbitration by giving the other party written notice to such effect, which notice shall describe, in reasonable detail, the nature of the dispute, controversy or claim. Such arbitration shall be governed by the then current version of the Commercial Arbitration Rules and Mediation Procedures of the American Arbitration Association. The Arbitration will be conducted in Jacksonville, Florida in front of one mutually agreed upon arbitrator.

- (b) Each party shall bear its own fees, costs and expenses of the arbitration and its own legal expenses, attorneys' fees and costs of all experts and witnesses. Unless the award provides otherwise, the fees and expenses of the arbitration procedures, including the fees of the arbitrator or arbitrators, will be shared equally by the involved parties.
- (c) Any award rendered pursuant to such arbitration shall be final, conclusive and binding upon the parties, and any judgment thereon may be entered and enforced in any court of competent jurisdiction.

11.4 CONTINUATION OF SERVICES. Unless SoftPro initiates an action for Client's failure to make timely and complete payment of undisputed amounts claimed due to SoftPro, SoftPro will continue to provide Maintenance under the Maintenance services agreement (and development services under an MSA SOW), and unless Client is unable to lawfully use the SoftPro Software and Modifications thereto, Client will continue to make payments of undisputed amounts to SoftPro, in accordance with this Agreement, notwithstanding a dispute between the parties relating hereto or otherwise.

12. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

- 12.1 EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT ARISING FROM GROSS NEGLIGENCE, WILLFUL MISCONDUCT, BY REASON OF AN INDEMNITY OBLIGATION HEREUNDER OR BY REASON OF A BREACH OF WARRANTY, EITHER PARTY'S LIABILITY FOR ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION WHETHER BASED IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE WHICH ARISES UNDER OR IS RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE LIMITED TO THE OTHER PARTY'S DIRECT OUT-OF-POCKET DAMAGES, ACTUALLY INCURRED, WHICH UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES SHALL EXCEED, IN THE AGGREGATE, THE AMOUNT PAID BY CLIENT TO SOFTPRO UNDER THIS AGREEMENT FOR THE 12-MONTH PERIOD IMMEDIATELY PRECEDING THE DATE THE CLAIM AROSE.
- 12.2 IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE FOR INDIRECT, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES OF ANY KIND WHATSOEVER OR THE CLAIMS OR DEMANDS MADE BY ANY THIRD PARTIES, WHETHER OR NOT IT HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.
- 12.3 CLIENT SOFTWARE. SoftPro has no obligation or liability, either express or implied, with respect to the compatibility of SoftPro Software with any other software unless provided or specified by SoftPro including, but not limited to, Client software and/or Client-provided third party software.

13. INDEMNIFICATION.

13.1 PROPERTY DAMAGE. Subject to Section 12 hereof, each party agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the other and its officers, directors, employees, and affiliates (including, where applicable, the SoftPro Affiliates and Client affiliates), and agents from any and all liabilities, losses, costs, damages and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising from or in connection with the damage, loss (including theft) or destruction of any real property or tangible personal property of the indemnified party resulting from the actions or inactions of any employee, agent or subcontractor of the indemnifying party insofar as such damage arises out of or is ancillary to fulfilling its obligations under this Agreement and to the extent such damage is due to any negligence, breach of statutory duty, omission or default of the indemnifying party, its employees, agents or subcontractors.

13.2 INFRINGEMENT OF SOFTPRO SOFTWARE. SoftPro agrees to defend at its own expense, any claim or action brought by any third party against Client and/or against its officers, directors, and employees and affiliates, for actual or alleged infringement within the United States of any patent, copyright or other intellectual property right (including, but not limited to, misappropriation of trade secrets) based upon the SoftPro Software (except to the extent such infringement claim is (i) caused by Client-specified Custom Modifications to the SoftPro Software which could not have been made in a non-infringing manner; (ii) caused by the combination of SoftPro Software with software or hardware not provided, specified or approved by SoftPro; or (iii) based upon the Third Party Software ("Indemnified SoftPro Software")). Client, at its sole discretion and cost, may participate in the defense and all negotiations for its settlement or compromise. SoftPro further agrees to indemnify and hold Client, its officers, directors, employees and affiliates harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, costs, damages, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) associated with any such claim or action incurred by Client. SoftPro shall conduct and control the defense of any such claim or action and negotiations for its settlement or compromise, by the payment of money. SoftPro shall give Client, and Client shall give SoftPro, as appropriate, prompt written notice of any written threat, warning or notice of any such claim or action against SoftPro or Client, as appropriate, or any other user or any supplier of components of the Indemnified SoftPro Software, which could have an adverse impact on Client's use of same, provided SoftPro or Client, as appropriate, knows of such claim or action. If in any such suit so defended, all or any part of the Indemnified SoftPro Software (or any component thereof) is held to constitute an infringement or violation of any other party's intellectual property rights and is enjoined, SoftPro shall at its sole option take one or more of the following actions at no additional cost to Client: (i) procure the right to continue the use of the same without material interruption for Client; (ii) replace the same with non-infringing software; (iii) modify said Indemnified SoftPro Software so as to be non-infringing; or (iv) take back the infringing Indemnified SoftPro Software and credit Client with an amount equal to its purchase price. The foregoing represents the sole and exclusive remedy of Client for infringement or alleged infringement.

14. FORCE MAJEURE, TIME OF PERFORMANCE AND INCREASED COSTS.

14.1 FORCE MAJEURE.

(a) Neither party shall be held liable for any delay or failure in performance of its obligations under this Agreement from any cause which with the observation of reasonable care, could not have been avoided - which may include, without limitation, acts of civil or military authority, government regulations, government agencies, epidemics, war, terrorist acts, riots, insurrections, fires, explosions, earthquakes, hurricanes, tornadoes, nuclear accidents, floods, power blackouts affecting facilities (the "Affected Performance").

(b) Upon the occurrence of a condition described in Section 14.1(a), the party whose performance is affected shall give written notice to the other party describing the Affected Performance, and the parties shall promptly confer, in good faith, to agree upon equitable, reasonable action to minimize the impact on both parties of such condition, including, without limitation, implementing disaster recovery procedures. The parties agree that the party whose performance is affected shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize the delay caused by the force majeure events and recommence the Affected Performance. If the delay caused by the force majeure event lasts for more than fifteen (15) Days, the parties shall negotiate an equitable amendment to this Agreement with respect to the Affected Performance. If the parties are unable to agree upon an equitable amendment within ten (10) Days after such fifteen (15)-Day period has expired, then either party shall be entitled to serve thirty (30) Days' notice of termination on the other party with respect to only such Affected Performance. The remaining portion of the Agreement that does not involve the Affected Performance shall continue in full force and effect. SoftPro shall be entitled to be paid for that portion of the Affected Performance which it completed through the termination date.

14.2 TIME OF PERFORMANCE AND INCREASED COSTS. SoftPro's time of performance under this Agreement shall be adjusted, if and to the extent reasonably necessary, in the event and to the extent that (i) Client fails to timely submit material data or materials in the prescribed form or in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement, (ii) Client fails to perform on a timely basis, the material functions or other responsibilities of Client described in this Agreement, (iii) Client or any governmental agency authorized to regulate or supervise Client makes any special request, which is affirmed by Client and/or compulsory on SoftPro, which affects Pro's normal performance schedule, or (iv) Client has modified the SoftPro Software in a manner affecting SoftPro's burden. In addition, if any of the above events occur, and such event results in an increased cost to SoftPro, SoftPro shall estimate such increased costs in writing in advance and, upon Client's approval, Client shall be required to pay any and all such reasonable, increased costs to SoftPro upon documented expenditure, up to 110% of the estimate.

15.2 CHANGE OF ADDRESS. The address to which such notices, demands, requests, elections or other communications are to be given by either party may be changed by written notice given by such party to the other party pursuant to this Section.

16. WARRANTIES.

- 16.1 PERFORMANCE. For as long as SoftPro is providing Maintenance to Client for the SoftPro Software, SoftPro warrants and represents that the SoftPro Software and the Custom Modifications, as delivered to Client and the Base Modifications, will perform in all material respects in accordance with the respective Documentation, in concert and otherwise.
- 16.2 PERFORMANCE OF OBLIGATIONS. Each party represents and warrants to the other that it shall perform its respective obligations under this Agreement, including Exhibits and Schedules, in a professional and workmanlike manner.
- 16.3 COMPLIANCE WITH LAW. SoftPro warrants that (i) it has the power and corporate authority to enter into and perform this Agreement, (ii) its performance of this Agreement does not and will not violate any governmental law, regulation, rule or order, contract, charter or by-law; (iii) it has sufficient right, title and interest (or another majority-owned, direct or indirect subsidiary of FNF has or will grant it sufficient license rights) in the SoftPro Software to grant the licenses herein granted, (iv) it has received no written notice of any third party claim or threat of a claim alleging that any part of the SoftPro Software infringes the rights of any third party in any of the United States, and (v) each item of SoftPro Software provided by or for SoftPro to Client shall be delivered free of undisclosed trapdoors, Trojan horses, time bombs, time outs, spyware, viruses or other code which, with the passage of time, in the absence of action or upon a trigger, would interfere with the normal use of, or access to, any file, datum or system.

- 17.1 ASSIGNMENT. Except as set forth herein, neither party may sell, assign, convey, or transfer the licenses granted hereunder or any of such party's rights or interests, or delegate any of its obligations hereunder without the written consent of the other party. Any such consent shall be conditioned upon the understanding that this Agreement shall be binding upon the assigning party's successors and assigns. Either party may assign this Agreement to any direct or indirect subsidiary that is not a Competitor except that the assigning party shall remain responsible for all obligations under this Agreement including the payment of fees. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, Client may not assign this Agreement to a Competitor.

- 17.2 SEVERABILITY. Provided Client retains quiet enjoyment of the SoftPro Software including Custom Modifications and Base Modifications, if any one or more of the provisions contained herein shall for any reason be held to be unenforceable in any respect under law, such unenforceability shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement, but this Agreement shall be construed as if such unenforceable provision or provisions had never been contained herein, provided that the removal of such offending term or provision does not materially alter the burdens or benefits of either of the parties under this Agreement or any Exhibit or Schedule, in which case the unenforceable portion shall be replaced by one that reflects the parties original intent as closely as possible while remaining enforceable.
- 17.3 THIRD PARTY BENEFICIARIES. Except as set forth herein, the provisions of this Agreement are for the benefit of the parties and not for any other person. Should any third party institute proceedings, this Agreement shall not provide any such person with any remedy, claim, liability, reimbursement, cause of action, or other right.
- 17.4 GOVERNING LAW; FORUM SELECTION; CONSENT OF JURISDICTION. This Agreement will be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of Florida, USA, without regard to principles of conflict of laws. The parties agree that the only circumstance in which disputes between them, not otherwise excepted from the resolution process described in Section 11, will not be subject to the provisions of Section 11 is where a party makes a good faith determination that a breach of the terms of this Agreement by the other party requires prompt and equitable relief. Each of the parties submits to the personal jurisdiction of any state or federal court sitting in Jacksonville, Florida with respect to such judicial proceedings. Each of the parties waives any defense of inconvenient forum to the maintenance of any action or proceeding so brought and waives any bond, surety or to other security that might be required of any party with respect thereto. Any party may make service on the other party by sending or delivering a copy of the process to the party to be served at the address set forth in Section 15 above. Nothing in this Section, however, shall affect the right of any party to serve legal process in any other manner permitted by law or in equity. Each party agrees that a final judgment in any action or proceeding so brought shall be conclusive and may be enforced by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law or in equity.
- 17.5 EXECUTED IN COUNTERPARTS. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same document.
- 17.6 CONSTRUCTION. The headings and numbering of sections in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not be construed to define or limit any of the terms or affect the scope, meaning or interpretation of this Agreement or the particular section to which they relate. This Agreement and the provisions contained herein shall not be construed or interpreted for or against any party because that party drafted or caused its legal representative to draft any of its provisions.

- 17.7 ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement, including the Exhibits and Schedules attached hereto and the agreements referenced herein constitute the entire agreement between the parties, and supersedes all prior oral or written agreements, representations, statements, negotiations, understandings, proposals, marketing brochures, correspondence and undertakings related thereto.
- 17.8 AMENDMENTS AND WAIVERS. This Agreement may be amended only by written agreement signed by duly authorized representatives of each party. No waiver of any provisions of this Agreement and no consent to any default under this Agreement shall be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by or on behalf of both parties. No course of dealing or failure of any party to strictly enforce any term, right or condition of this Agreement shall be construed as a waiver of such term, right or condition. Waiver by either party of any default by the other party shall not be deemed a waiver of any other default. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time prior to the Sale of FNIS or any offering and sale to the public of any shares or equity securities of FNIS or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to a registration statement in the United States, this Agreement may not be amended without the prior written consent of Thomas H. Lee Equity Fund V, L.P. ("THL") and TPG Partners III, L.P. ("TPG") if such amendment would affect any of the term of the Agreement, Sections 2, 3, 4, 6, 9, 12, 13, 14.2, 16.2, 17.10, Exhibits B or C, rights upon default by Client or SoftPro's right to terminate, in any manner materially adverse to the consolidated business activities of the FNIS Group (defined below), taken as a whole, or FNIS Group's costs of doing business, viewed on a consolidated basis, provided that in no event shall any change to the schedules hereto require such prior written consent unless such change would materially and adversely affect in any manner FNIS Group's consolidated business activities, taken as a whole, or FNIS Group's costs of doing business, viewed on a consolidated basis, and provided, further that in no event shall the amendment provisions set forth in this Section 17.8 be amended or modified without the consent of THL and TPG. THL and TPG are intended third party beneficiaries of this Agreement solely with respect to this Section 17.8. "FNIS Group" means FNIS, Subsidiaries of FNIS, and each Person that FNIS directly or indirectly controls (within the meaning of the Securities Act) immediately after the Effective Date, and each other individual, a partnership, corporation, limited liability company, association, joint stock company, trust, joint venture, unincorporated organization, governmental entity or department, agency, or political subdivision thereof that becomes an Affiliate of FNIS after the Effective Date. "Sale of FNIS" means an acquisition by any Person (within the meaning of Section 3(a)(9) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") and used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) thereof ("Person")) of Beneficial Ownership (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act) of 50% or more of either the then outstanding shares of FNIS common stock or the combined voting power of the then outstanding voting securities of FNIS entitled to vote generally in the election of directors; excluding, however, the following: (i) any acquisition directly from FNIS, other than an acquisition by virtue of the exercise of a conversion privilege unless the security being so converted was itself acquired directly from FNIS or (ii) any acquisition by any employee benefit plan (or related trust) sponsored or maintained by FNIS or a member of the FNIS Group.

17.9 REMEDIES CUMULATIVE. Unless otherwise provided for under this Agreement, all rights of termination or cancellation, or other remedies set forth in this Agreement, are cumulative and are not intended to be exclusive of other remedies to which the injured party may be entitled by law or equity in case of any breach or threatened breach by the other party of any provision in this Agreement. Use of one or more remedies shall not bar use of any other remedy for the purpose of enforcing any provision of this Agreement.

17.10 TAXES. All charges and fees to be paid under this Agreement are exclusive of any applicable sales, use, service or similar tax which may be assessed currently or in the future on the SoftPro Software or related services provided under this Agreement. If a sales, use, services or a similar tax is assessed on the SoftPro Software or related services provided to Client under this Agreement, Client will pay directly, reimburse or indemnify SoftPro for such taxes as well as any applicable interest and penalties. Client shall pay such taxes in addition to the sums otherwise due under this Agreement. SoftPro shall, to the extent it is aware of taxes, itemize them on a proper VAT, GST or other invoice submitted pursuant to this Agreement. All property, employment and income taxes based on the assets, employees and net income, respectively, of SoftPro shall be SoftPro's sole responsibility. The parties will cooperate with each other in determining the extent to which any tax is due and owing under the circumstances and shall provide and make available to each other any withholding certificates, information regarding the location of use of the SoftPro Software or provision of the services or sale and any other exemption certificates or information reasonably requested by either party.

17.11 PRESS RELEASES. The parties shall consult with each other in preparing any press release, public announcement, news media response or other form of release of information concerning this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby that is intended to provide such information to the news media or the public (a "Press Release"). MIRROR NOTE

Dated: [], 2005
New York, New York

Section 1. General. FIDELITY NATIONAL TITLE GROUP, INC., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), for value received, hereby promises to pay to FIDELITY NATIONAL FINANCIAL, INC., a Delaware corporation (the "Holder") on August 15, 2011, the principal amount of Two Hundred and Fifty Million U.S. dollars ($250,000,000) together with simple interest (calculated on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months) on such principal amount from and after August 15, 2005 at the rate of 7.30% per annum, such interest payable semi-annually in arrears on February 15 and August 15 of each year, starting February 15, 2006. If any such date when payment of principal or interest is due is not a Business Day (as defined below), then such payment shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day, and no additional interest shall accrue on such unpaid amount during the period of delay. Payment of both interest and principal is to be made at such place as the Holder shall designate in writing, by wire transfer or check, at the Holder's option, in immediately available funds.

Section 2. Corresponding Obligation. This Mirror Note is intended to mirror the terms of the Holder's 7.30% notes due August 15, 2011 (Cusip No. 31632AC1) (the "FNF Notes") issued pursuant to the Indenture, dated as of August 20, 2001, by and between the Holder and the Bank of New York (the "Indenture"). Terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Indenture.

Section 3. Redemption.

(a) Mandatory Redemption. Upon redemption by the Holder of all or any portion of the FNF Notes pursuant to Section 6 of the FNF Notes and Article X of the Indenture, the Company shall redeem all or, as the case may be, a portion of this Mirror Note in an amount equal to the principal amount of the FNF Notes to be redeemed, at a redemption price (the "Mirror Note Redemption Price") equal to the Redemption Price (as defined in Section 6 of the FNF Notes, which for the avoidance of doubt includes accrued and unpaid interest to the date of redemption) paid by the Holder to redeem the FNF Notes. The Mirror Note Redemption Price shall be paid at or prior to 9:30 a.m., New York City time, on the Redemption Date. Upon such payment, the principal amount of the Mirror Note so redeemed shall cease to be outstanding and no further interest shall accrue with respect to such portion.

(b) Optional Redemption. The Company may elect to redeem this Mirror Note, at any time in whole or from time to time in part, as specified in this Section 3(b). Such redemption shall only be permitted if the Company delivers to the Holder FNF Notes in a principal amount equal to the principal amount of this Mirror Note to be redeemed. No prior notice of such redemption need be given. Upon delivery of such FNF Notes, an equal principal amount of this Mirror Note shall cease to be outstanding and no further interest shall accrue with respect to such portion. No interest accrued on this Mirror Note from the last interest payment date hereunder to the date of redemption will be payable by the Company except to the extent that following such redemption, interest in respect of such period remains payable by the Holder to any holder of an FNF Note. Upon any such redemption, the Holder shall immediately retire any FNF Notes so received from the Company.

Section 4. Mirror Note Events of Default.

(a) For purposes of this Mirror Note, a "Mirror Note Event of Default" shall be deemed to have occurred upon:

- (i) any failure by the Company to pay all or any portion of an interest payment on this Mirror Note when due and payable in accordance with the terms hereof, which failure continues un-remedied for a period of 10 days, or any failure to pay all or any portion of the principal amount of this Mirror Note when due and payable in accordance with the terms hereof;
- (ii) (A) the filing by the Company of a voluntary petition seeking liquidation, reorganization, arrangement or readjustment, in any form, of its debts under Title 11 of the United States Code (or corresponding provisions of future laws) or any other applicable bankruptcy, insolvency or similar law, or the filing by the Company of an answer consenting to or acquiescing in any such petition, (B) the making by the Company of any assignment for the benefit of its creditors, or the admission by the Company in writing of its inability to pay its debts as they become due, (C) the filing of (x) an involuntary petition against the Company under Title 11 of the United States Code, or any other applicable bankruptcy, insolvency or similar law (or corresponding provisions of future laws), (y) an application for the appointment of a custodian, receiver, trustee or other similar official for the Company for all or a substantial part of the assets of the Company or (z) an involuntary petition against the Company seeking liquidation, winding up, reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, protection, relief or composition of the Company or any of the Company's debts under any other federal or state insolvency law, provided that any such filing shall not have been vacated, set aside or stayed within a 45 day period from the date thereof, or (D) the entry against the Company of a final and nonappealable order for relief under any bankruptcy, insolvency or similar law now or hereafter in effect; or
- (iii) any acceleration under the Indenture of the payment of the principal amount of any FNF Notes as the result of any "Event of Default" under the FNF Notes.

(b) Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Mirror Note Event of Default described in Section 4(a)(i), the Holder may, by written notice to the Company, delivered at its headquarters in care of the Chief Financial Officer, declare all or any portion of the unpaid principal amount of this Mirror Note, together with accrued interest thereon, to be immediately due and payable. Upon the occurrence of any Mirror Note Event of Default described in Section 4(a)(ii) or 4(a)(iii), the unpaid principal amount of this Mirror Note, together with accrued interest thereon, shall automatically become due and payable, without any action or notice by the Holder; provided that, with respect to any Mirror Note Event of Default described in Section 4(a)(iii), if the acceleration of the FNF Notes is rescinded, the acceleration of the Mirror Notes shall be automatically rescinded. Demand, presentment, protest and notice of non-payment are hereby waived by the Company.

Section 5. Remedies Cumulative. No failure to exercise or delay in exercising any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided herein are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights, remedies, powers and privileges provided by law.

Section 6. Severability. If any provision of this Mirror Note is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, the other provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect in such jurisdiction and the remaining provisions hereof shall be liberally construed in favor of the Holder in order to effectuate the provisions hereof and the invalidity of any provision hereof in any jurisdiction shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 7. Successors and Assigns. This Mirror Note shall not be assignable by the Company (other than in a merger or by operation of law) without the prior written consent of the Holder. Subject to the foregoing, this Mirror Note shall be binding upon the Company and its successors and assigns.

Section 8. Replacement of Note. Upon receipt of evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Company of the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation of this Mirror Note, and the Company's receipt of an indemnity agreement of the Holder reasonably satisfactory to the Company, the Company will, at the expense of the Holder, execute and deliver, in lieu thereof, a new note of like terms.

Section 9. No Personal Liability. No director, officer, employee, incorporator, member or equity holder of the Company, as such, shall have any liability for any obligations of the Company under this Mirror Note or for any claim based on, in respect of, or by reason of, such obligations or their creation. By accepting this Mirror Note, the Holder waives and releases all such liability. This waiver and release are part of the consideration for issuance of this Mirror Note.

Section 10. Descriptive Headings. The descriptive headings of this Mirror Note are inserted for convenience only and do not constitute a part of this Mirror Note.

Section 11. Choice of Law. THIS MIRROR NOTE IS TO BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO THE PRINCIPLES OF CONFLICTS OF LAW THEREOF.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company has caused this Mirror Note to be executed as of the date first written above.

TAX SHARING AGREEMENT

AGREEMENT, dated as of June 17, 1998, by and between Chicago Title Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("CTC"), and Chicago Title and Trust Company, an Illinois corporation ("CT&T").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, CTC is the common parent corporation of an "affiliated group" of corporations (the "CTC Group"), as that term is defined in section 1504(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), which group includes CT&T and any corporation that is or subsequently becomes a member of an "affiliated group" of which CT&T would be the "common parent," as such terms are defined in Section 1504(a) of the Code, if CT&T were owned by individuals (CT&T and any present or future member of its affiliated group being referred to herein as the "CT&T Group"); and

WHEREAS, CTC and CT&T desire to agree on an equitable basis for determining the amount to be paid by CT&T to CTC on account of the CT&T Group's inclusion in the CTC Group's consolidated federal income tax returns.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and of the mutual covenants contained herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Inclusion in CTC Return. CT&T agrees to join, and -shall cause each other member of the CT&T Group to join, in the filing of the CTC Group's consolidated federal income tax return for each taxable year for which CT&T is eligible to join in such filing. CT&T agrees to, and agrees to cause each member of the CT&T Group to, file such consents, elections, and other documents and to take such other action as may be necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of this Agreement. CTC agrees that CTC shall timely file the CTC Group's consolidated federal income tax return for each taxable year that CT&T is a member of the CTC

Group, and CTC shall pay the amount of tax imposed by Subtitle A or F of the Code as reflected thereon or due with respect thereto.

In all matters relating to the CTC Group's consolidated tax liability, CTC is the agent for each member of the CTC Group, including CT&T. As said agent, CTC has the sole authority and discretion to make any election for each member, including any election that must be made to determine a member's separate taxable income for purposes of computing the consolidated taxable income of the CTC Group.

2. The CT&T Group's Hypothetical Tax. For purposes of this Agreement, the "CT&T Group's hypothetical tax" for any taxable year covered by this Agreement shall be the federal income tax liability that the CT&T Group would have had for such taxable year if the CT&T Group had filed its own consolidated federal income tax return for such taxable year, taking into account any carryovers to, or carrybacks from, other taxable years of the CT&T Group (or any member thereof) that are available in such taxable year of the CT&T Group, or would have been so available if the CT&T Group had filed its own consolidated (or where applicable, separate) federal income tax returns for such other taxable years, and the CT&T Group was subject to tax on all of its taxable income at the applicable maximum rate specified in the Code but without the benefit of any surtax exemption. In computing the CT&T Group's hypothetical tax: (1) there will be eliminated from taxable income any intercompany dividends that would be eliminated under Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-14(a); (ii) intercompany transactions between members of the CTC Group that would be deferred under Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-13 shall be deferred; (iii) in the case of any item of income, gain, loss deduction or credit that is computed or subject to a limitation only on a consolidated basis, including but not limited to, charitable contributions, capital losses, foreign tax credits, research and experimentation credit and Section 1231 gains and losses ("Consolidated Items"), such Consolidated Items shall be taken into account by the CT&T Group only if, and to the extent (determined by CTC on any reasonable basis), that a Consolidated Item is taken into account and actually affects the amount of the tax liability of the CTC Group; and (iv) in the case of the treatment of an item subject to an election made only on a consolidated basis, the treatment will be governed by the election made by CTC on the consolidated return. All intercompany transactions (as defined in Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-13(a)) between members of the CTC Group will be taken into account in computing the CT&T Group's hypothetical tax at the time when such transactions are required to be recognized by the CTC Group under Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-13, and any Consolidated Item not initially taken into account in computing the tax of the CT&T Group shall be taken into account by the CT&T Group in the year, and to the extent, that such Consolidated Item is taken into account by the CTC Group.

3. Payment. With respect to each taxable year for which CT&T is at any time a member of the CTC Group:

a. On each due date for payment of any required installment of estimated federal income tax (determined under Section 6655 of the Code) and on the due date (determined without regard to any extensions) for filing the CTC Group consolidated federal income tax return (determined under Section 6072 of the Code), CT&T shall pay to CTC the federal income tax imposed by Subtitle A and F of the Code on the CT&T Group's hypothetical tax that would have been payable on such date if the CT&T Group were filing its own consolidated federal income tax return for such taxable year. In computing CT&T's estimated federal income tax payments, each payment shall be sufficient to avoid incurring any addition to tax by the CT&T Group under Section 6655 of the Code by reason of an underpayment by a "large corporation" within the meaning of Section 6655(g)(2) of the Code and shall be consistent with the elections permitted to be made under Section 6655(d) and (e) of the Code as actually made by CTC, in its sole discretion, for such taxable year and communicated to CT&T.

b. On or prior to the date the CTC Group consolidated return is actually filed for a taxable year, CT&T shall pay to CTC, or CTC shall pay to CT&T, as the case may be, the difference between the CT&T Group's hypothetical tax for such taxable year and the amount paid by CT&T to CTC pursuant to paragraph 3(a) hereof for such taxable year. If the CT&T Group for such taxable year has a loss or credit which could be carried back to and which would reduce the CT&T Group's hypothetical tax (as adjusted) for any earlier taxable year for which the CT&T Group was included in the CTC Group, then (x) if and to the extent that such loss or credit is utilized to actually reduce the CTC Group's tax liability for such current taxable year, CTC shall pay to CT&T on the date the CTC Group consolidated return is actually filed for such taxable year the amount by which the CT&T Group's hypothetical tax in such earlier taxable year is reduced by reason of such carryback or (y) if and to the extent that such loss or credit is actually carried back to an earlier taxable year of the CTC Group, CTC shall pay to CT&T on the date any refund of tax is actually received the amount by which the CT&T Group's hypothetical tax in such earlier year is reduced by reason of such carryback together with any applicable interest.

c. All payments required to be made by CT&T to CTC shall be made by (1) either by wire transfer or the deposit of "immediately available funds" on the required date of payment to the appropriate bank account as may be designated by CTC for that purpose, provided that telephonic notice of any transfer is provided to CTC, or (ii) any other method agreed to by the parties; provided that, such method reflects an attempt in good faith to make a required payment on the day when due. In the case of amounts payable by CTC to CT&T under this Agreement, such amounts shall be paid under the same standards and conditions as required of CT&T.

4. Adjustments. CT&T agrees that CTC alone shall be responsible for, and shall have sole and absolute discretion with respect to, claiming any deductions or credits not claimed on the CTC Group consolidated return as filed, the filing of any amended returns, agreeing to, contesting, or settling any adjustments to the CTC Group's federal income tax liability for any taxable year covered by this Agreement, and CTC shall pay any deficiencies in, or receive any refunds of, the CTC Group's federal income tax liability for any such taxable year resulting from a final determination by the Internal Revenue Service or the courts, or from carrybacks or carryovers of the CTC Group from or to other taxable years. On or prior to the date of payment or receipt or, if there is to be no payment or receipt, then on or prior to the date on which there is an adjustment in the CT&T Group's hypothetical tax resulting from a final determination by the Internal Revenue Service or the courts, or from carrybacks or carryovers of the CTC Group from other taxable years, CT&T shall pay to CTC or CTC shall pay to CT&T, as the case may be, the amount necessary to reflect all adjustments in the CT&T Group's hypothetical tax for any taxable year, together with any interest and penalties fairly attributable thereto.

5. Resolution of Disputes as to the CT&T Group's Hypothetical Tax. In the event of a disagreement between the parties hereto as to the amount of the CT&T Group's hypothetical tax for any taxable year covered by this Agreement, such amount shall be determined by the independent certified public accountants who audit CTC's certified financial statements at the time such dispute arises, and the determination of such accountants shall be final and binding on the parties hereto.

6. CTC Indemnity. Provided that CT&T has made the payments required of CT&T under this Agreement, CTC shall be liable for, and shall indemnify and hold harmless CT&T and each member of the CT&T Group from and against any liabilities for the taxes imposed by Subtitle A or F of the Code on the CTC Group for each taxable year for which CT&T joined in the filing of the CTC Group consolidated federal income tax return.

7. Earnings and Profits and Characterization of Payments. Earnings and profits of each member of the CTC Group shall be calculated by allocating the federal income tax liability of the CTC Group to each member in accordance with the method described in Section 1552(ax2) of the Code and the applicable Treasury Regulations thereunder.

8. Certain Combined State Taxes.

a. In the case of any tax imposed by a State or political subdivision thereof which (i) is imposed on, or measured by, gross or net receipts, income, capital or net worth, including State and local franchise or similar taxes measured by net income, excluding any telecommunications, gross receipts (other than taxes on gross receipts that are imposed in lieu of a tax on net receipts) and other transactional taxes and (ii) are computed on a consolidated, unitary or combined basis by reference to the income and/or activities of members of the CTC Group other than members of the CT&T Group and members of the CT&T Group (a "Combined Tax"), such Combined Tax shall be allocated between members of the CTC Group other than members of the CT&T Group and members of the CT&T Group first on the basis of, and to the extent that, the receipts, income, capital or net worth of a member resulted in, or increased, such Combined Tax, with any remaining Combined Tax allocated among the members on the basis which each member's relative attribute (positive or negative) was taken into account in determining the amount of the Combined Tax.

b. Payments of Combined Tax among members of the CTC Group other than members of the CT&T Group and members of the CT&T Group shall be made at the times and in the amounts otherwise consistent with the provisions of Section 3 hereof.

9. Miscellaneous Provisions.

a. Entire Understanding. This Agreement contains the entire understanding of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof. No alteration, amendment or modification of any of the terms of this Agreement shall be valid unless made by an instrument signed in writing by an authorized officer of each of the parties hereto.

b. Choice of Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois applicable to agreements made and to be performed entirely within such state.

c. Further Assurances. The parties hereto shall execute and deliver such further instruments and do such further acts and things (including, without limitation, by causing their subsidiaries to execute and deliver such instruments and to do such acts and things) as may be required to carry out the intent and purpose of this Agreement. The parties each shall cooperate with the other with respect to the preparation and filing of any tax return or the conduct of any tax audit or other tax proceeding. If any party has possession of documents or records which relate to, or could affect, any item of income, loss, deduction, credit, tax basis or other tax attributes of any other party hereto, such party shall take reasonable steps to preserve such documents or records for the same period and to the same extent as such party preserves and protects its own similar tax documents, and prior to destroying or discarding any such records shall notify the party to whom the records relate and offer such party the opportunity, at such parties' expense, to take possession or control of such documents.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed on the date indicated by their duly authorized officers effective as of the date first above written, with execution in counterparts permitted.

CT&T agrees to join, and shall cause each other member of the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon to join, in the filing of the FNF Group's consolidated federal income tax return for each taxable year for which CT&T is eligible to join in such filing. CT&T agrees to, and agrees to cause each member of the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon Inc.

to, file such consents, elections, and other documents and to take such other action as may be necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of this Agreement. FNF agrees that FNF shall timely file the FNF Group's consolidated federal income tax return for each taxable year that CT&T is a member of the FNF Group, and FNF shall pay the amount of tax imposed by Subtitle A or F of the Code as reflected thereon or due with respect thereto.

In all matters relating to the FNF Group's consolidated tax liability, FNF is the agent for each member of the FNF Group, including CT&T. As said agent, FNF has the sole authority and discretion to make any election for each member, including any election that must be made to determine a member's separate taxable income for purposes of computing the consolidated taxable income of the FNF Group.

2. The CT&T Group's Hypothetical Tax. For purposes of this Agreement, the "CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon Inc.'s hypothetical tax" for any taxable year covered by this Agreement shall be the federal income tax liability that the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon Inc. would have had for such taxable year if the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon had filed its own consolidated federal income tax return for such taxable year, taking into account any carryovers to, or carrybacks from, other taxable years of the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon (or any member thereof) that are available in such taxable year of the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon, or would have been so available if the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon had filed its own consolidated (or where applicable, separate) federal income tax returns for such other taxable years, and the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon was subject to tax on all of its taxable income at the applicable maximum rate specified in the Code but without the benefit of any surtax exemption. In computing the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon's hypothetical tax: (i) there will be eliminated from taxable income any intercompany dividends that would be eliminated under Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-14(a); (ii) intercompany transactions between members of the FNF Group that would be deferred under Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-13 shall be deferred; (iii) in the case of any item of income, gain, loss deduction or credit that is computed or subject to a limitation only on a consolidated basis, including but not limited to, charitable contributions, capital losses, foreign tax credits, research and experimentation credit and Section 1231 gains and losses ("Consolidated Items"), such Consolidated Items shall be taken into account by the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon only if, and to the extent (determined by FNF on any reasonable basis), that a Consolidated Item is taken into account and actually affects the amount of the tax liability of the FNF Group; and (iv) in the case of the treatment of an item subject to an election made only on a consolidated basis, the treatment will be governed by the election made by FNF on the consolidated return. All intercompany transactions (as defined in Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-13(a)) between members of the FNF Group will be taken into account in computing the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon's hypothetical tax at the time when such transactions are required to be recognized by the FNF Group under Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-13, and any Consolidated Item not initially taken into account in computing the tax of the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon shall be taken into account by the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon in the year, and to the extent, that such Consolidated Item is taken into account by the FNF Group.

3. Payment. With respect to each taxable year for which CT&T is at any time a member of the FNF Group:

a. On each due date for payment of any required installment of estimated federal income tax (determined under Section 6655 of the Code) and on the due date (determined without regard to any extensions) for filing the FNF Group consolidated federal income tax return (determined under Section 6072 of the Code), CT&T shall pay to FNF the federal income tax imposed by Subtitle A and F of the Code on the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon's hypothetical tax that would have been payable on such date if the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon were filing its own consolidated federal income tax return for such taxable year. In computing CT&T's estimated federal income tax payments, each payment shall be sufficient to avoid incurring any addition to tax by the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon under Section 6655 of the Code by reason of an underpayment by a "large corporation" within the meaning of Section 6655(g)(2) of the Code and shall be consistent with the elections permitted to be made under Section 6655(d) and (e) of the Code as actually made by FNF, in its sole discretion, for such taxable year and communicated to CT&T.

b. On or prior to the date the FNF Group consolidated return is actually filed for a taxable year, CT&T shall pay to FNF, or FNF shall pay to CT&T, as the case may be, the difference between the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon's hypothetical tax for such taxable year and the amount paid by CT&T to FNF pursuant to paragraph 3(a) hereof for such taxable year. If the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon for such taxable year has a loss or credit which could be carried back to and which would reduce the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon's hypothetical tax (as adjusted) for any earlier taxable year for which the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon Inc. was included in the FNF Group, then (x) if and to the extent that such loss or credit is utilized to actually reduce the FNF Group's tax liability for such current taxable year, FNF shall pay to CT&T on the date the FNF Group consolidated return is actually filed for such taxable year the amount by which the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon's hypothetical tax in such earlier taxable year is reduced by reason of such carryback or (y) if and to the extent that such loss or credit is actually carried back to an earlier taxable year of the FNF Group, FNF shall pay to CT&T on the date any refund of tax is actually received the amount by which the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon's hypothetical tax in such earlier year is reduced by reason of such carryback together with any applicable interest.

c. All settlements under this Agreement shall be made within 30 days of the filing of the applicable estimated or actual consolidated federal corporate income tax return with the Internal Revenue Service, except where a refund is due FNF, in which case, FNF will pay to CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title

Insurance Company of Oregon the amounts due and owing within 30 days the receipt of the refund.

d. All payments required to be made by CT&T to FNF shall be made by (i) either by wire transfer or the deposit of "immediately available funds" on the required date of payment to the appropriate bank account as may be designated by FNF for that purpose, provided that telephonic notice of any transfer is provided to FNF, or (ii) any other method agreed to by the parties; provided that, such method reflects an attempt in good faith to make a required payment on the day when due. In the case of amounts payable by FNF to CT&T under this Agreement, such amounts shall be paid under the same standards and conditions as required of CT&T.

e. To help assure CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon's enforceable right to recoup federal income taxes in the event of future net losses, an escrow account consisting of assets eligible as an investment for an Oregon insurance company shall be established and maintained by FNF in an amount equal to the excess of the amount paid by CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon to FNF for federal income taxes over the actual payment made by FNF to the Internal Revenue Service. Escrow assets shall be released to FNF from the escrow account at such time as the permissible period for loss carrybacks has elapsed.

4. Adjustments. CT&T agrees that FNF alone shall be responsible for, and shall have sole and absolute discretion with respect to, claiming any deductions or credits not claimed on the FNF Group consolidated return as filed, the filing of any amended returns, agreeing to, contesting, or settling any adjustments to the FNF Group's federal income tax liability for any taxable year covered by this Agreement, and FNF shall pay any deficiencies in, or receive any refunds of, the FNF Group's federal income tax liability for any such taxable year resulting from a final determination by the Internal Revenue Service or the courts, or from carrybacks or carryovers of the FNF Group from or to other taxable years. On or prior to the date of payment or receipt or, if there is to be no payment or receipt, then on or prior to the date on which there is an adjustment in the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon's hypothetical tax resulting from a final determination by the Internal Revenue Service or the courts, or from carrybacks or carryovers of the FNF Group from other taxable years, CT&T shall pay to FNF or FNF shall pay to CT&T, as the case may be, the amount necessary to reflect all adjustments in the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon's hypothetical tax for any taxable year, together with any interest and penalties fairly attributable thereto.

5. Resolution of Disputes as to the CT&T Group's Hypothetical Tax. In the event of a disagreement between the parties hereto as to the amount of the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon's hypothetical tax for any taxable year covered by this Agreement, such amount shall be determined by the independent certified public accountants who audit FNF's certified financial statements at the time such dispute arises, and the determination of such accountants shall be final and binding on the parties hereto.

6. FNF Indemnity. Provided that CT&T has made the payments required of CT&T under this Agreement, FNF shall be liable for, and shall indemnify and hold harmless CT&T and each member of the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon from and against any liabilities for the taxes imposed by Subtitle A or F of the Code on the FNF Group for each taxable year for which CT&T joined in the filing of the FNF Group consolidated federal income tax return.

7. Earnings and Profits and Characterization of Payments. Earnings and profits of each member of the FNF Group shall be calculated by allocating the federal income tax liability of the FNF Group to each member in accordance with the method described in Section 1552(a)(2) of the Code and the applicable Treasury Regulations thereunder.

8. Certain Combined State Taxes.

a. In the case of any tax imposed by a State or political subdivision thereof which (i) is imposed on, or measured by, gross or net receipts, income, capital or net worth, including State and local franchise or similar taxes measured by net income, excluding any telecommunications, gross receipts (other than taxes on gross receipts that are imposed in lieu of a tax on net receipts) and other transactional taxes and (ii) are computed on a consolidated, unitary or combined basis by reference to the income and/or activities of members of the FNF Group other than members of the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon and members of the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon Inc. (a "Combined Tax"), such Combined Tax shall be allocated between members of the FNF Group other than members of the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon Inc. and members of the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon Inc. first on the basis of, and to the extent that, the receipts, income, capital or net worth of a member resulted in, or increased, such Combined Tax, with any remaining Combined Tax allocated among the members on the basis which each member's relative attribute (positive or negative) was taken into account in determining the amount of the Combined Tax.

b. Payments of Combined Tax among members of the FNF Group other than members of the CT&T Group and members of the CT&T Group which includes Chicago Title Insurance Company of Oregon Inc. shall be made at the times and in the amounts otherwise consistent with the provisions of Section 3 hereof.

9. Miscellaneous Provisions.

a. Entire Understanding. This Agreement contains the entire understanding of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof. No alteration, amendment or modification of any of the terms of this Agreement shall be valid unless made by an instrument signed in writing by an authorized officer of each of the parties hereto and approved by the Department of Insurance.

b. Choice of Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Oregon applicable to agreements made and to be performed entirely within such state.

c. Further Assurances. The parties hereto shall execute and deliver such further instruments and do such further acts and things (including, without limitation, by causing their subsidiaries to execute and deliver such instruments and to do such acts and things) as may be required to carry out the intent and purpose of this Agreement. The parties each shall cooperate with the other with respect to the preparation and filing of any tax return or the conduct of any tax audit or other tax proceeding. If any party has possession of documents or records which relate to, or could affect, any item of income, loss, deduction, credit, tax basis or other tax attributes of any other party hereto, such party shall take reasonable steps to preserve such documents or records for the same period and to the same extent as such party preserves and protects its own similar tax documents, and prior to destroying or discarding any such records shall notify the party to whom the records relate and offer such party the opportunity, at such parties' expense, to take possession or control of such documents.

d. Termination. Notwithstanding the termination of the Agreement, its provisions will remain in effect, with respect to any period of time during the tax year in which termination occurs, for which the income of the terminating party must be included in the consolidated return.

Notwithstanding its termination, all material including, but not limited to returns, supporting schedules, work papers, correspondence and other documents relating to the consolidated return shall be made available to any party to the agreement during regular business hours.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed on the date indicated by their duly authorized officers effective as of the date first above written, with execution in counterparts permitted.

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, FNF is the common parent corporation of an "affiliated group" of corporations (the "FNF Group"), as that term is defined in section 1504(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), which group includes CT&T and any corporation that is or subsequently becomes a member of an "affiliated group" of which CT&T would be the "common parent," as such terms are defined in Section 1504(a) of the Code, if CT&T were owned by individuals (CT&T and any present or future member of its affiliated group being referred to herein as the "CT&T Group"); and

WHEREAS, FNF and CT&T desire to agree on an equitable basis for determining the amount to be paid by CT&T to FNF on account of the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company's inclusion in the FNF Group's consolidated federal income tax returns.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and of the mutual covenants contained herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Inclusion in FNF Return. CT&T agrees to join, and shall cause each other member of the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company to join, in the filing of the FNF Group's consolidated federal income tax return for each taxable year for which CT&T is eligible to join in such filing. CT&T agrees to, and agrees to cause each member of the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company Inc. to, file such consents, elections, and other documents and to take such other action as may be necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of this Agreement. FNF agrees that FNF shall timely file the FNF Group's consolidated federal income tax return for each taxable year that CT&T is a member of the FNF Group, and FNF shall pay the amount of tax imposed by Subtitle A or F of the Code as reflected thereon or due with respect thereto.

In all matters relating to the FNF Group's consolidated tax liability; FNF is the agent for each member of the FNF Group, including CT&T. As said agent, FNF has the sole authority and discretion to make any election for each member, including any election that must be made to determine a member's separate taxable income for purposes of computing the consolidated taxable income of the FNF Group.

2. The CT&T Group's Hypothetical Tax. For purposes of this Agreement, the "CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company Inc.'s hypothetical tax" for any taxable year covered by this Agreement shall be the federal income tax liability that the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company Inc. would have had for such taxable year if the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company had filed its own consolidated federal income tax return for such taxable year, taking into account any carryovers to, or carrybacks from, other taxable years of the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company (or any member thereof) that are available in such taxable year of the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company, or would have been so available if the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company had filed its own consolidated (or where applicable, separate) federal income tax returns for such other taxable years, and the CT&T Group which includes American

Pioneer Title Insurance Company was subject to tax on all of its taxable income at the applicable maximum rate specified in the Code but without the benefit of any surtax exemption. In computing the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company's hypothetical tax: (i) there will be eliminated from taxable income any intercompany dividends that would be eliminated under Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-14(a); (ii) intercompany transactions between members of the FNF Group that would be deferred under Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-13 shall be deferred; (iii) in the case of any item of income, gain, loss deduction or credit that is computed or subject to a limitation only on a consolidated basis, including but not limited to, charitable contributions, capital losses, foreign tax credits, research and experimentation credit and Section 1231 gains and losses ("Consolidated Items"), such Consolidated Items shall be taken into account by the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company only if, and to the extent (determined by FNF on any reasonable basis), that a Consolidated Item is taken into account and actually affects the amount of the tax liability of the FNF Group; and (iv) in the case of the treatment of an item subject to an election made only on a consolidated basis, the treatment will be governed by the election made by FNF on the consolidated return. All intercompany transactions (as defined in Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-13(a)) between members of the FNF Group will be taken into account in computing the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company's hypothetical tax at the time when such transactions are required to be recognized by the FNF Group under Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-13, and any Consolidated Item not initially taken into account in computing the tax of the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company shall be taken into account by the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company in the year, and to the extent, that such Consolidated Item is taken into account by the FNF Group.

3. Payment. With respect to each taxable year for which CT&T is at any time a member of the FNF Group:

a. On each due date for payment of any required installment of estimated federal income tax (determined under Section 6655 of the Code) and on the due date (determined without regard to any extensions) for filing the FNF Group consolidated federal income tax return (determined under Section 6072 of the Code), CT&T shall pay to FNF the federal income tax imposed by Subtitle A and F of the Code on the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company's hypothetical tax that would have been payable on such date if the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company were filing its own consolidated federal income tax return for such taxable year. In computing CT&T's estimated federal income tax payments, each payment shall be sufficient to avoid incurring any addition to tax by the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company under Section 6655 of the Code by reason of an underpayment by a "large corporation" within the meaning of Section 6655(g)(2) of the Code and shall be consistent with the elections permitted to be made under Section 6655(d) and (e) of the Code as actually made by FNF, in its sole discretion, for such taxable year and communicated to CT&T.

b. On or prior to the date the FNF Group consolidated return is actually filed for a taxable year, CT&T shall pay to FNF, or FNF shall pay to CT&T, as the case may be, the difference between the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company's hypothetical tax for such taxable year and the amount paid by CT&T to FNF pursuant to paragraph 3(a) hereof for such taxable year. If the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company for such taxable year has a loss or credit which could be carried back to and which would reduce the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company's hypothetical tax (as adjusted) for any earlier taxable year for which the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company Inc. was included in the FNF Group, then (x) if and to the extent that such loss or credit is utilized to actually reduce the FNF Group's tax liability for such current taxable year, FNF shall pay to CT&T on the date the FNF Group consolidated return is actually filed for such taxable year the amount by which the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company's hypothetical tax in such earlier taxable year is reduced by reason of such carryback or (y) if and to the extent that such loss or credit is actually carried back to an earlier taxable year of the FNF Group, FNF shall pay to CT&T on the date any refund of tax is actually received the amount by which the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company's hypothetical tax in such earlier year is reduced by reason of such carryback together with any applicable interest.

c. All settlements under this Agreement shall be made within 30 days of the filing of the applicable estimated or actual consolidated federal corporate income tax return with the Internal Revenue Service, except where a refund is due FNF, in which case, FNF will pay to CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company the amounts due and owing within 30 days the receipt of the refund.

d. All payments required to be made by CT&T to FNF shall be made by (i) either by wire transfer or the deposit of "immediately available funds" on the required date of payment to the appropriate bank account as may be designated by FNF for that purpose, provided that telephonic notice of any transfer is provided to FNF, or (ii) any other method agreed to by the parties; provided that, such method reflects an attempt in good faith to make a required payment on the day when due. In the case of amounts payable by FNF to CT&T under this Agreement, such amounts shall be paid under the same standards and conditions as required of CT&T.

e. To help assure CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company's enforceable right to recoup federal income taxes in the event of future net losses, an escrow account consisting of assets eligible as an investment for a New York insurance company shall be established and maintained by FNF in an amount equal to the excess of the amount paid by CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company to FNF for federal income taxes over the actual payment made by FNF to the Internal Revenue Service. Escrow assets shall be released to FNF from the escrow account at such time as the permissible period for loss carrybacks has elapsed.

f. Adjustments. CT&T agrees that FNF alone shall be responsible for, and shall have sole and absolute discretion with respect to, claiming any deductions or credits not claimed on the FNF Group consolidated return as filed, the filing of any amended returns, agreeing to, contesting, or settling any adjustments to the FNF Group's federal income tax liability for any taxable year covered by this Agreement, and FNF shall pay any deficiencies in, or receive any refunds of, the FNF Group's federal income tax liability for any such taxable year resulting from a final determination by the Internal Revenue Service or the courts, or from carrybacks or carryovers of the FNF Group from or to other taxable years. On or prior to the date of payment or receipt or, if there is to be no payment or receipt, then on or prior to (be date on which there is an adjustment in the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company's hypothetical tax resulting from a final determination by the Internal Revenue Service or the courts, or from carrybacks or carryovers of the FNF Group from other taxable years. CT&T shall pay to FNF or FNF shall pay to CT&T, as the case may be, the amount necessary to reflect all adjustments in the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company's hypothetical tax for any taxable year, together with any interest and penalties fairly attributable thereto.

4. Resolution of Disputes as to the CT&T Group's Hypothetical Tax. In the event of a disagreement between the parties hereto as to the amount of the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company's hypothetical tax for any taxable year covered by this Agreement, such amount shall be determined by the independent certified public accountants who audit FNF's certified financial statements at the time such dispute arises, and the determination of such accountants shall be final and binding on the parties hereto.

5. FNF Indemnity. Provided that CT&T has made the payments required of CT&T under this Agreement, FNF shall be liable for, and shall indemnify and hold harmless CT&T and each member of the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company from and against any liabilities for the taxes imposed by Subtitle A or F of the Code on the FNF Group for each taxable year for which CT&T joined in the filing of the FNF Group consolidated federal income tax return.

6. Earnings and Profits and Characterization of Payments. Earnings and profits of each member of the FNF Group shall be calculated by allocating the federal income tax liability of the FNF Group to each member in accordance with the method described in Section 1552(a)(2) of the Code and the applicable Treasury Regulations thereunder.

7. Certain Combined State Taxes.

a. In the case of any tax imposed by a State or political subdivision thereof which (i) is imposed on, or measured by, gross or net receipts, income, capital or net worth, including State and local franchise or similar taxes measured by net income, excluding any telecommunications, gross receipts (other than taxes on gross receipts that are imposed in lieu of a tax on net receipts) and other transactional taxes and (ii) are computed on a consolidated, unitary or combined basis by reference to the income and/or activities of members of the FNF Group other than members of the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company Inc. and members of the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company Inc. (a "Combined Tax"), such Combined Tax shall be allocated between members of the FNF Group other than members of the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company Inc. and members of the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company Inc. first on the basis of, and to the extent that, the receipts, income, capital or net worth of a member resulted in, or increased, such Combined Tax, with any remaining Combined Tax allocated among the members on the basis which each member's relative attribute (positive or negative) was taken into account in determining the amount of the Combined Tax.

b. Payments of Combined Tax among members of the FNF Group other than members of the CT&T Group and members of the CT&T Group which includes American Pioneer Title Insurance Company Inc. shall be made at the times and in the amounts otherwise consistent with the provisions of Section 3 hereof.

8. Miscellaneous Provisions.

a. Entire Understanding. This Agreement contains the entire understanding of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof. No alteration, amendment or modification of any of the terms of this Agreement shall be valid unless made by an instrument signed in writing by an authorized officer of each of the parties hereto and approved by the Department of Insurance.

b. Choice of Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida applicable to agreements made and to be performed entirely within such state.

c. Further Assurances. The parties hereto shall execute and deliver such further instruments and do such further acts and things (including, without limitation, by causing their subsidiaries to execute and deliver such instruments and to do such acts and things) as may be required to carry out the intent and purpose of this Agreement. The parties each shall cooperate with the other with respect to the preparation and filing of any tax return or the conduct of any tax audit or other tax proceeding. If any party has possession of documents or records which relate to, or could affect, any item of income, loss, deduction, credit, tax basis or other tax attributes of any other party hereto, such party shall take reasonable steps to preserve such documents or records for the same period and to the same extent as such party preserves and protects its own similar tax documents, and prior to destroying or discarding any such records shall notify the party to whom the records relate and offer such party the opportunity, at such parties' expense, to take possession or control of such documents.

TAX SHARING AGREEMENT

AGREEMENT, dated as of January 31, 2005 by and between Fidelity National Financial, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("FNF and its subsidiaries"), Alamo Title Holding Company ("Alamo and its subsidiaries") and Alamo Title Insurance ("Alamo"), a Texas Corporation.

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, FNF is the common parent corporation of an "affiliated group" of corporations (the "FNF Group"), as that term is defined in section 1504(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), which group includes Alamo and any corporation that is or subsequently becomes a member of an "affiliated group" of which Alamo would be the "common parent," as such terms are defined in Section 1504(a) of the Code, if Alamo were owned by individuals (Alamo and any present or future member of its affiliated group being referred to herein as the "Alamo Group"); and

WHEREAS, FNF and Alamo desire to agree on an equitable basis for determining the amount to be paid by Alamo to FNF on account of the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance's inclusion in the FNF Group's consolidated federal income tax returns.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and of the mutual covenants contained herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Inclusion in FNF Return. Alamo agrees to join, and shall cause each other member of the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance to join, in the filing of the FNF Group's consolidated federal income tax return for each taxable year for which Alamo is eligible to join in such filing. Alamo agrees to, and agrees to cause each member of the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance to, file such consents, elections, and other documents and to take such other action as may be necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of this Agreement. FNF agrees that FNF shall timely file the FNF Group's consolidated federal income tax return for each taxable year that Alamo is a member of the FNF Group, and FNF shall pay the amount of tax imposed by Subtitle A or F of the Code as reflected thereon or due with respect thereto.

In all matters relating to the FNF Group's consolidated tax liability, FNF is the agent for each member of the FNF Group, including Alamo. As said agent, FNF has the sole authority and discretion to make any election for each member, including any election that must be made to determine a member's separate taxable income for purposes of computing the consolidated taxable income of the FNF Group.

2. The Alamo Group's Hypothetical Tax. For purposes of this Agreement, the "Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance's hypothetical tax" for any taxable year covered by this Agreement shall be the federal income tax liability that the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance would have had for such taxable year if the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance had filed its own consolidated federal income tax return for such taxable year, taking into account any carryovers to, or carrybacks from, other taxable years of the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance (or any member thereof) that are available in such taxable year of the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance, or would have been so available if the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance had filed its own consolidated (or where applicable, separate) federal income tax returns for such other taxable years, and the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance was subject to tax on all of its taxable income at the applicable maximum rate specified in the Code but without the benefit of any surtax exemption. In computing the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance's hypothetical tax: (i) there will be eliminated from taxable income any intercompany dividends that would be eliminated under Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-14(a); (ii) intercompany transactions between members of the FNF Group that would be deferred under Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-13 shall be deferred; (iii) in the case of any item of income, gain, loss deduction or credit that is computed or subject to a limitation only on a consolidated basis, including but not limited to, charitable contributions, capital losses, foreign tax credits, research and experimentation credit and Section 1231 gains and losses ("Consolidated Items"), such Consolidated Items shall be taken into account by the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance only if, and to the extent (determined by FNF on any reasonable basis), that a Consolidated Item is taken into account and actually affects the amount of the tax liability of the FNF Group; and (iv) in the case of the treatment of an item subject to an election made only on a consolidated basis, the treatment will be governed by the election made by FNF on the consolidated return. All intercompany transactions (as defined in Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-13(a)) between members of the FNF Group will be taken into account in computing the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance's hypothetical tax at the time when such transactions are required to be recognized by the FNF Group under Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-13, and any Consolidated Item not initially taken into account in computing the tax of the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance shall be taken into account by the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance in the year, and to the extent, that such Consolidated Item is taken into account by the FNF Group.

3. Payment. With respect to each taxable year for which Alamo is at any time a member of the FNF Group:

a. On each due date for payment of any required installment of estimated federal income tax (determined under Section 6655 of the Code) and on the due date (determined without regard to any extensions) for filing the FNF Group consolidated federal income tax return (determined under Section 6072 of the Code), Alamo shall pay to FNF the federal income tax imposed by Subtitle A and F of the Code on the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance's hypothetical tax that would have been payable on such date if the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance were filing its own consolidated federal income tax return for such taxable year. In computing Alamo's estimated federal income tax payments, each payment shall be sufficient to avoid incurring any addition to tax by the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance under Section 6655 of the Code by reason of an underpayment by a "large corporation" within the meaning of Section 6655(g)(2) of the Code and shall be consistent with the elections permitted to be made under Section 6655(d) and (e) of the Code as actually made by FNF, in its sole discretion, for such taxable year and communicated to Alamo.

b. On or prior to the date the FNF Group consolidated return is actually filed for a taxable year, Alamo shall pay to FNF, or FNF shall pay to Alamo, as the case may be, the difference between the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance's hypothetical tax for such taxable year and the amount paid by Alamo to FNF pursuant to paragraph 3(a) hereof for such taxable year. If the Alamo Group which includes Alamo

Title Insurance for such taxable year has a loss or credit which could be carried back to and which would reduce the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance's hypothetical tax (as adjusted) for any earlier taxable year for which the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance was included in the FNF Group, then (x) if and to the extent that such loss or credit is utilized to actually reduce the FNF Group's tax liability for such current taxable year, FNF shall pay to Alamo on the date the FNF Group consolidated return is actually filed for such taxable year the amount by which the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance's hypothetical tax in such earlier taxable year is reduced by reason of such carryback or (y) if and to the extent that such loss or credit is actually carried back to an earlier taxable year of the FNF Group, FNF shall pay to Alamo on the date any refund of tax is actually received the amount by which the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance's hypothetical tax in such earlier year is reduced by reason of such carryback together with any applicable interest.

c. All settlements under this Agreement shall be made within 30 days of the filing of the applicable estimated or actual consolidated federal corporate income tax return with the Internal Revenue Service, except where a refund is due FNF, in which case, FNF will pay to Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance the amounts due and owing within 30 days the receipt of the refund.

d. All payments required to be made by Alamo to FNF shall be made by (i) either by wire transfer or the deposit of "immediately available funds" on the required date of payment to the appropriate bank account as may be designated by FNF for that purpose, provided that telephonic notice of any transfer is provided to FNF, or (ii) any other method agreed to by the parties; provided that, such method reflects an attempt in good faith to make a required payment on the day when due. In the case of amounts payable by FNF to Alamo under this Agreement, such amounts shall be paid under the same standards and conditions as required of Alamo.

e. To help assure Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance's enforceable right to recoup federal income taxes in the event of future net losses, an escrow account consisting of assets eligible as an investment for a Texas insurance company shall be established and maintained by FNF in an amount equal to the excess of the amount paid by Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance to FNF for federal income taxes over the actual payment made by FNF to the Internal Revenue Service. Escrow assets shall be released to FNF from the escrow account at such time as the permissible period for loss carrybacks has elapsed.

f. Adjustments. Alamo agrees that FNF alone shall be responsible for, and shall have sole and absolute discretion with respect to, claiming any deductions or credits not claimed on the FNF Group consolidated return as filed, the filing of any amended returns, agreeing to, contesting, or settling any adjustments to the FNF Group's federal income tax liability for any taxable year covered by this Agreement, and FNF shall pay any deficiencies in, or receive any refunds of, the FNF Group's federal income tax liability for any such taxable year resulting from a final determination by the Internal Revenue Service or the courts, or from carrybacks or carryovers of the FNF Group from or to other taxable years. On or prior to the date of payment or receipt or, if there is to be no payment or receipt, then on or prior to the date on which there is an adjustment in the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance's hypothetical tax resulting from a final determination by the Internal Revenue Service or the courts, or from carrybacks or carryovers of the FNF Group from other taxable years, ALAMO shall pay to FNF or FNF shall pay to Alamo, as the case may be, the amount necessary to reflect all adjustments in the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance's hypothetical tax for any taxable year, together with any interest and penalties fairly attributable thereto.

g. Resolution of Disputes as to the ALAMO Group's Hypothetical Tax. In the event of a disagreement between the parties hereto as to the amount of the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance's hypothetical tax for any taxable year covered by this Agreement, such amount shall be determined by the independent certified public accountants who audit FNF's certified financial statements at the time such dispute arises, and the determination of such accountants shall be final and binding on the parties hereto.

h. FNF Indemnity. Provided that Alamo has made the payments required of Alamo under this Agreement, FNF shall be liable for, and shall indemnify and hold harmless Alamo and each member of the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance from and against any liabilities for the taxes imposed by Subtitle A or F of the Code on the FNF Group for each taxable year for which Alamo joined in the filing of the FNF Group consolidated federal income tax return.

i. Earnings and Profits and Characterization of Payments. Earnings and profits of each member of the FNF Group shall be calculated by allocating the federal income tax liability of the FNF Group to each member in accordance with the method described in Section 1552(a)(2) of the Code and the applicable Treasury Regulations thereunder.

j. Certain Combined State Taxes.

a. In the case of any tax imposed by a State or political subdivision thereof which (i) is imposed on, or measured by, gross or net receipts, income, capital or net worth, including State and local franchise or similar taxes measured by net income, excluding any telecommunications, gross receipts (other than taxes on gross receipts that are imposed in lieu of a tax on net receipts) and other transactional taxes and (ii) are computed on a consolidated, unitary or combined basis by reference to the income and/or activities of members of the FNF Group other than members of the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance and members of the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance (a "Combined Tax"), such Combined Tax shall be allocated between members of the FNF Group other than members of the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance and members of the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance first on the basis of, and to the extent that, the receipts, income, capital or net worth of a member resulted in, or increased, such Combined Tax, with any remaining Combined Tax allocated among the members on the basis which each member's relative attribute (positive or negative) was taken into account in determining the amount of the Combined Tax.

b. Payments of Combined Tax among members of the FNF Group other than members of the Alamo Group and members of the Alamo Group which includes Alamo Title Insurance shall be made at the times and in the amounts otherwise consistent with the provisions of Section 3 hereof.

4. Miscellaneous Provisions.

a. Entire Understanding. This Agreement contains the entire understanding of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof. No alteration, amendment or modification of any of the terms of this Agreement shall be valid unless made by an instrument signed in writing by an authorized officer of each of the parties hereto and approved by the Department of Insurance.

b. Choice of Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas applicable to agreements made and to be performed entirely within such state.

c. Further Assurances. The parties hereto shall execute and deliver such further instruments and do such further acts and things (including, without limitation, by causing their subsidiaries to execute and deliver such instruments and to do such acts and things) as may be required to carry out the intent and purpose of this Agreement. The parties each shall cooperate with the other with respect to the preparation and filing of any tax return or the conduct of any tax audit or other tax proceeding. If any party has possession of documents or records which relate to, or could affect, any item of income, loss, deduction, credit, tax basis or other tax attributes of any other party hereto, such party shall take reasonable steps to preserve such documents or records for the same period and to the same extent as such party preserves and protects its own similar tax documents, and prior to destroying or discarding any such records shall notify the party to whom the records relate and offer such party the opportunity, at such parties' expense, to take possession or control of such documents.

d. Termination. Notwithstanding the termination of the Agreement, its provisions will remain in effect, with respect to any period of time during the tax year in which termination occurs, for which the income of the terminating party must be included in the consolidated return.

Notwithstanding its termination, all material including, but not limited to returns, supporting schedules, work papers, correspondence and other documents relating to the consolidated return shall be made available to any party to the agreement during regular business hours.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed on the date indicated by their duly authorized officers effective as of the date first above written, with execution in counterparts permitted.

TAX ALLOCATION AGREEMENT

This Agreement is entered into as of December 13, 1999 between Fidelity National Financial, Inc. ("FNFI") and Fidelity National Title Insurance Company of New York ("Group Member").

I. RECITAL

WHEREAS, FNFI and all 80 percent or more owned subsidiaries shall file their federal income tax return on a consolidated basis; and

WHEREAS, it will be necessary to allocate such consolidated tax liability or benefit among the consolidated group membership; and

WHEREAS, such allocated tax liability or benefit should represent the liability or benefit that would have been incurred or received by each consolidated group member as if such group member filed a separate federal income tax return; and

WHEREAS, FNFI will act as a clearinghouse to collect allocated tax liabilities from profitable group members and redistribute allocated tax benefits to loss group members.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereby agree as follows:

II. DEFINITIONS

- (a) "Group Member" shall include only such corporations which are included in the FNFI affiliated group as defined in section 1504 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended.
- (b) "Consolidated Federal Income Tax Liability" shall be the amount of actual tax liability which is due for the taxable period under determination as reflected on the consolidated federal income tax return.

- (g) "Consolidated Return" shall refer only to the consolidated federal return.
- (h) "Effective Date" shall be the date defined under paragraph (a) of Section V.

III. TAX LIABILITY

- (a) Group member shall calculate its tax liability under the provisions of New York Circular Letter 1979-33.3(A) - Method A, as described in this Section.
- (b) Group member shall calculate separate taxable income or net operating loss as if such member filed a separate federal income tax return for the taxable year except as provided in paragraph (d) of this section and is to include a separate computation of the taxable income and the tax charge or tax refund under:
 - i) regular federal income tax provisions: and
 - ii) alternative minimum tax provisions.
- (c) Group member shall determine the following consolidated return tax attributes on its separate return as appropriate without consideration of any impact on the consolidated return. These attributes include, but are not limited to:

Thereafter, any carryback period is limited to the period this Agreement has been effective.
- (g) If taxable income, special deductions or credits reported in the consolidated federal income tax return are revised by the Internal Revenue Service or other appropriate authority, a recalculation of the tax liability for all parties to the Agreement shall be made as appropriate under the provisions of this Section.

IV. ADMINISTRATION AND SETTLEMENT

- (a) This Agreement shall be administered and interpreted by the Chief Financial Officer of FNFI or by the individual or group of individuals designated by the Chief Financial Officer of FNFI.
- (b) FNFI's Tax Department shall make a preliminary calculation of the Group Member's separate taxable income or net operating loss under paragraph (a) of Section III, in accordance with audited financial statements prepared by FNFI's independent certified accounts, within one hundred twenty (120) days from the end of each calendar year that this Agreement remains in effect.
- (c) FNFI shall make a preliminary notification to the Group Member of the liability or benefit based upon the preliminary computation. In no event is the preliminary calculation under paragraph (b) of this Section deemed to establish a liability or require settlement between FNFI and the Group Member. Final payment between FNFI and the Group Member is to be made only in accordance with the terms set forth in paragraphs (d) and (e) of this section.
- (d) FNFI shall deposit or deduct cash or other admitted assets in the amount of the benefit or liability, respectively, attributable to Group Member into or from the Group Member's cash management accounts, based upon the final calculation of the member's taxable income or net operating loss included in the consolidated return.

Such escrow assets may be released to FNFI from the escrow account at such time as the permissible period for carrybacks has elapsed.

- (e) In no event is settlement, as defined under paragraph (d) of this Section, to occur any later than on or before thirty (30) days after the earlier of these two dates:
 - i) the actual date the consolidated return is filed; or
 - ii) the maximum extended due date for the consolidated return as then permitted under the Internal Revenue Code.

V. TERM AND TERMINATION

- (a) This Agreement shall be effective and applicable to each party's taxable year, or short taxable year, beginning with the year the member first becomes a part of the FNFI affiliated group and each taxable year thereafter.
- (b) This Agreement may be amended at any time by mutual agreement or for cause. All amendments, unless designated as prospective to January 1 of the following taxable year,

- J. Comply with all applicable laws and regulations relating to the conduct of Agent's business.
- K. Comply with all bulletins, manuals and other instructions furnished to Agent in writing, by facsimile or other electronic transmission by Principal. If any reasonable doubt exists with regard to the insurability or marketability of title or as to whether a particular risk is extra-ordinary or extra-hazardous, Agent shall contact Principal or Principal's designated underwriting counsel for guidance and approval.

- L. The parties hereto acknowledge that Agent is not an agent of Principal for purposes of conducting a Closing, as defined in Paragraph 7H hereof; however, because Principal may be subject to allegations of liability for acts of Agent with regard to Agent's settlement or escrow business. Agent shall cooperate with Principal in the performance of audits of Agent's escrow records, accounts and procedures. In addition, Agent agrees to provide to Principal, within thirty (30) days following receipt, a copy of any audit conducted by any accounting firm with respect to Agent's escrow records, accounts or procedures.

- B. Furnish Agent guidelines and instructions for transacting Agent's title insurance business.
- C. Resolve all risk assumption questions submitted by Agent.
- D. Arrange for reinsurance where required, to the extent such reinsurance is available.

This Issuing Agency Contract ("Contract") is made and entered into this 9th of August 2004, by and between Chicago Title Insurance Company, a Missouri corporation ("Principal") and LSI Alabama, LLC, an Alabama Limited Liability Company ("Agent").

In consideration of the promises and the mutual covenants herein and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Principal and Agent agree as follows:

1. APPOINTMENT OF AGENT. Principal hereby appoints Agent as a policy issuing agent of Principal for the sole purpose of issuing title insurance commitments, policies, endorsements and other title assurances approved by Principal and by all required regulatory agencies, now in existence or hereafter developed, relating to real property located in all counties of the State of Alabama ("geographic area") in accordance with the terms of this Contract; provided, however, that Agent will immediately cease and refrain from issuing any policies of Principal in any portion of the geographic area in which Principal informs Agent that Principal had, on the date indicated above, an exclusive agency agreement with another agent or agency. At any time after the initial five (5) years of this Contract, either party may give written notice to the other of its election to terminate this Contract with such termination to take effect at least five (5) years after delivery of the written notice. The term of this Contract shall be automatically extended beyond the initial ten (10) year term until (i) written notice is provided by either party and (ii) the term of the notice (which shall not be less than five (5) years) has expired. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party hereto may terminate this Contract pursuant to Paragraph 9 hereof. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, this Agreement shall be terminated following ninety (90) days' written request for such termination by the Missouri Department of Insurance in the event Principal is or has been placed under regulatory supervision.

Agent hereby grants to Principal the right to enter upon the premises of Agent or other locations where such files are maintained, during business hours, for purposes of recovering possession thereof;

This Issuing Agency Contract ("Contract") is made and entered into this 8th Day of February 2005, by and between Chicago Title Insurance Company, a Missouri corporation ("Principal") and LSI Title Company of Oregon, LLC, an Oregon Limited Liability Company ("Agent").

In consideration of the promises and the mutual covenants herein and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Principal and Agent agree as follows:

1. APPOINTMENT OF AGENT. Principal hereby appoints Agent as a policy issuing agent of Principal for the sole purpose of issuing title insurance commitments, policies, endorsements and other title assurances approved by Principal and by all required regulatory agencies, now in existence or hereafter developed, relating to real property located in all counties of the State of Oregon ("geographic area") in accordance with the terms of this Contract; provided, however that Agent will immediately cease and refrain from issuing any policies of Principal in any portion of the geographic area in which Principal informs Agent that Principal had, on the date indicated above, an exclusive agency agreement with another agent or agency. During the term of this Contract, pertaining to the geographic area:

2. CONTRACT TERM. The term of this Contract shall be ten (10) years, commencing on February 8, 2005; provided however that Agent shall not issue any title insurance commitments, policies and endorsements of Principal in any county or state in the geographic area until Agent is duly licensed to do so by the applicable regulatory body in such state or permitted to do so by applicable law or regulation of such state. At any time after the initial five (5) years of this Contract, either party may give written notice to the other of its election to terminate this Contract with such termination to take effect at least five (5) years after delivery of the written notice. The term of this Contract shall be automatically extended beyond the initial ten (10) year term until (i) written notice is provided by either party and (ii) the term of the notice (which shall not be less than five (5) years) has expired. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party hereto may terminate this Contract pursuant to Paragraph 9 hereof. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, this Agreement shall be terminated following ninety (90) days' written request for such termination by the Missouri Department of Insurance in the event Principal is or has been placed under regulatory supervision.

3. DUTIES OF PRINCIPAL. Principal shall:

- A. Furnish Agent forms of commitments, policies, endorsements and other forms required for transacting Agent's title insurance business.
- B. Furnish Agent guidelines and instructions for transacting Agent's title insurance business.

Pertaining to Agents files:

- (i) Title thereto shall remain with Agent. Upon termination of this Contract, Agent shall allow Principal to copy, at Principal's cost and expense, Agent's files. Agent hereby grants to Principal the right to enter upon the premises of Agent or other locations where such files are maintained, during business hours, for purposes of recovering possession thereof;
 - (ii) In the event Agent ceases to engage in the title insurance business, title to such files shall vest in Principal, and Agent shall deliver said files to Principal immediately upon termination of this Contract. Agent shall safely maintain and store all forms furnished by Principal and hereby assumes liability for loss or damage suffered by Principal by reason of Agent's wrongful or negligent use or storage of such forms.
- G. Provide Principal annually copies of annual financial statements of the agency and an updated Information Affidavit, such financial statements to be kept confidential by Principal.
- H. Perform such services and render such assistance as Principal may reasonably request in connection with any claim or litigation arising from a commitment, contact Principal or Principal's designated underwriting counsel for guidance and approval.

- L. The parties hereto acknowledge that Agent is not an agent of Principal for purposes of conducting a Closing, as defined in Paragraph 7H hereof; however, because Principal may be subject to allegations of liability for acts of Agent with regard to Agent's settlement or escrow business, Agent shall cooperate with Principal in the performance of audits of Agent's escrow records, accounts and procedures. In addition, Agent agrees to provide to Principal, within thirty (30) days following receipt, a copy of any audit conducted by any accounting firm with respect to Agent's escrow records, accounts or procedures.

ISSUING AGENCY CONTRACT

This Issuing Agency Contract ("Contract") is made and entered into this 28th of September 2004, by and between Fidelity National Title Insurance Company, a California corporation ("Principal") and LSI Alabama, LLC, an Alabama Limited Liability Company ("Agent").

In consideration of the promises and the mutual covenants herein and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Principal and Agent agree as follows:

1. APPOINTMENT OF AGENT. Principal hereby appoints Agent as a policy issuing agent of Principal for the sole purpose of issuing title insurance commitments, policies, endorsements, and other title assurances approved by Principal and by all required regulatory agencies, now in existence or hereafter developed, relating to real property located in all counties of the State of Alabama ("geographic area") in accordance with the terms of this Contract; provided, however, that Agent will immediately cease and refrain from issuing any policies of Principal in any portion of the geographic area in which Principal informs Agent that Principal had, on the date indicated above, an exclusive agency agreement with another agent or agency. During the term of this Contract, pertaining to the geographic area:
 - A. Agent shall issue title insurance commitments, policies and endorsements of Principal and my other title insurance Company;
 - B. Principal or its affiliates and subsidiaries shall have, and do retain, the right to appoint other agents; and
 - C. Principal and its affiliates or subsidiaries shall have, and do retain, the right to service directly any customer, and Principal or its affiliates or subsidiaries may, without limitation, do any of the following:
 - (i) issue directly, from any of its offices, or from any location nationwide, commitments, policies, endorsements, or any other title assurance or evidence, search or real estate information product, or any other product whatsoever, now in existence or hereafter developed (all of the foregoing are hereafter collectively referred to as "Information"); or

At any time after the initial five (5) years of this Contract, either party may give written notice to the other of its election to terminate this Contract with such termination to take effect at least five (5) years after delivery of the written notice. The term of this Contract shall be automatically extended beyond the initial ten (10) year term until (i) written notice is provided by either party and (ii) the term of the notice (which shall not be less than five (5) years) has expired. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party hereto may terminate this Contract pursuant to Paragraph 9 hereof, and the terms of this Contract shall be open for renegotiation every three years on written notice of one party to the other.

3. DUTIES OF PRINCIPAL. Principal shall:

- A. Furnish Agent forms of commitments, policies, endorsements and other forms required for transacting Agent's title insurance business.
- B. Furnish Agent guidelines and instructions for transacting Agent's title insurance business.
- C. Resolve all risk assumption questions submitted by Agent.

 - (ii) an examination of all documents affecting title to the subject property.
- C. Supply, at Agent's expense, office space and qualified personnel for conducting business pursuant to this Contract by the date of execution of this Contract.

Pertaining to Agent's files:

- (i) Title thereto shall remain with Agent. Upon termination of this Contract, Agent shall allow Principal to copy, at Principal's cost and expense, Agent's files. Agent hereby grants to Principal the right to enter upon the premises of Agent or other locations where such files are maintained, during business hours, for purposes of recovering possession thereof;
- (ii) In the event Agent ceases to engage in the title insurance business, title to such files shall vest in Principal, and Agent shall deliver said files to Principal immediately upon termination of this Contract. Agent hereby grants to Principal the right to enter upon the premises of Agent or other locations where said title files are maintained, during business hours, for purposes of making a reproduction thereof.

E. Report to Principal, as hereafter set forth, by sending to Principal any one of the following:

F. Maintain a policy register in a form approved by Principal showing the disposition of all policies and other pre-numbered forms furnished by Principal. Upon request by Principal, Agent shall furnish a statement accounting for all such forms and shall return all spoiled, obsolete or canceled policies and forms to Principal. Agent shall safely maintain and store all forms furnished by Principal and hereby assumes liability for loss or damage suffered by Principal by reason of Agent's wrongful or negligent use or storage of such forms.

- H. Perform such services and render such assistance as Principal may reasonably request in connection with any claim or litigation arising from a commitment, policy, endorsement or other title assurance issued by Agent or by Principal on behalf of Agent or on account of any conduct of Agent, whether such claim or litigation is instituted during the term of this Contract or following termination thereof. - L. The parties hereto acknowledge that Agent is not an agent of Principal for purposes of conducting a Closing, as defined in Paragraph 7H hereof; however, because Principal may be subject to allegations of liability for acts of Agent with regard to Agent's settlement or escrow business, Agent shall cooperate with Principal in the performance of audits of Agent's escrow records, accounts and procedures. In addition, Agent agrees to provide to Principal, within thirty (30) days following receipt, a copy of any audit conducted by any accounting firm with respect to Agent's escrow records, accounts or procedures.

Agent hereby grants to Principal the right to enter upon the premises of Agent or other locations where such files are maintained, during business hours, for purposes of recovering possession thereof;

In addition, in the event of a material breach by Agent, Principal shall be entitled to recover all costs and loss associated with resolving the matter giving rise to said material breach. RIDER TO ISSUING AGENCY CONTRACT

This Rider to Issuing Agency Contract (hereinafter referred to as "Rider") is made by and between Fidelity National Title Insurance Company ("Principal") and LSI Title Company of Oregon, LLC ("Agent") in order to amend and modify the terms and provisions of that certain Issuing Agency Contract dated February 24, 2005 and executed contemporaneously herewith (the Issuing Agency Contract and this Rider are hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Contract.")

RATES, REMITTANCES, AND GENERAL LIABILITY LIMITATION

1. Attached hereto is the schedule of rates and remittances or manual for the area covered by this Contract. Agent shall quote, charge and collect said rates for each policy issued. Principal reserves the right to amend this schedule, at its discretion.
2. Principal will quote special rates on request for special or unusual situations.
3. For extraordinary or extra-hazardous risks and for extensions of policy coverage, Principal reserves the right to set and determine the charge.
4. For each commitment, policy and endorsement of Principal issued by Agent pursuant to this Contract, Agent shall report and remit nine percent (9%) of the rates set forth in Paragraph number "1" of this Rider. If the Loss Percentage during any calendar year, as herein defined, arising from policies issued by Agent, equals or exceeds twenty percent (20%), Agent and Principal agree to review and adjust, in good faith, the remittance rate set forth in this paragraph and the general liability limit set forth in the Paragraph numbered "9" of this Rider. For the purposes of this paragraph, Loss Percentage shall mean the total losses incurred by Principal during a calendar year or portion thereof at the inception of this Agreement (including all costs and attorneys' fees paid, net of recoupment, plus claim-based reserves set during such period) divided by remittances received pursuant to this paragraph during the same calendar year or portion thereof at the inception of this Agreement, expressed as a percentage.
5. For charges made pursuant to Paragraphs numbered "2" and "3" of this Rider, and orders referred to Agent by Principal, Agent shall remit an amount as shall be agreed upon between Principal and Agent.
6. Where Principal purchases reinsurance or excess coinsurance, a decision that rests solely with Principal, the division of the rates as herein provided shall be computed on the net amount remaining after deducting the costs thereof. Agent shall remit to Principal the cost of such reinsurance or coinsurance.
7. All payments required hereunder shall be directed to Principal as hereafter set forth: Remitted premiums, together with any remittance report or information required by the Contract, shall be delivered to Principal at the following address: Fidelity National Title Insurance Company, 601 Riverside Avenue, Jacksonville FL 32204, Attn: Agency Accounting no later than thirty (30) days following the Effective Date, as hereinafter defined, of the title assurance. The Effective Date of any title assurance shall be the policy date set forth in Schedule A of the title insurance policy.

8. Compensation. Principal's compensation shall be the amount required to be remitted hereunder by Agent. Agent's compensation shall be the rates and charges herein required to be collected, less the amount remitted to Principal. It is the Parties' mutual understanding and intent to maintain an annual weighted average compensation to Principal (and/or its affiliates) of twelve percent (12%) (or as adjusted pursuant to paragraph 4 of this Rider) of the rates and charges required to be collected by Agent and its affiliates on a nationwide basis pursuant to all Issuing Agency Agreements in force between the Parties and/or their respective affiliates. The Parties hereto agree to assess on an annual basis the aggregate compensation of Principal and/or its affiliates under all such Issuing Agency Agreements, and to prospectively adjust the amounts remitted by Agent under one or more such Agreements in a good faith attempt to maintain the desired weighted average on a nationwide basis.
9. General Liability Limit of Agent: Subject to the provisions of Paragraph 8, Agent shall be liable for the first portion of any Loss sustained or incurred by Principal as a result of the issuance of the Title Assurances by Agent in the following amount: $5,000.

TRANSITIONAL COST SHARING AGREEMENT

This TRANSITIONAL COST SHARING AGREEMENT ("Agreement") made effective as of the 14th day of April, 2005, by and among FIS Management Services, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("FIS Management"); Lender's Service Title Agency, Inc., an Ohio corporation ("LSI Ohio"); LSI Alabama, LLC, an Alabama limited liability company ("LSI Alabama"); LSI Maryland, Inc., a Maryland corporation ("LSI Maryland"); LSI Title Agency, Inc., an Illinois corporation ("LSI Illinois"); LSI Title Company, a California corporation ("LSI California"); LSI Title Company of Oregon, LLC, an Oregon limited liability company ("LSI Oregon"); and Chicago Title Insurance Company, a Missouri-domiciled title insurance company ("CTI"). FIS Management, LSI Ohio, LSI Alabama, LSI Maryland, LSI Illinois, LSI California and LSI Oregon are collectively the "LSI Companies", and each LSI Company, together with CTI is a "Party" and collectively, the "Parties".

WHEREAS, each of the LSI Companies is owned directly or indirectly by Fidelity National Information Services, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("FNIS"); and

WHEREAS, CTI and FNIS are direct or indirect subsidiaries of Fidelity National Financial, Inc. ("FNF"); and

WHEREAS, FIS Management provides employee services to the LSI Companies; and

WHEREAS, one of the businesses of FNIS is the Lender's Services, or LSI, business; and

WHEREAS, the LSI business provides appraisal, title and closing services to residential mortgage originators and provides automated loan servicing; and

WHEREAS, LSI California, LSI Alabama, LSI Ohio, LSI Illinois, and LSI Oregon have each entered into an Issuing Agency Contract with CTI relating to the LSI business; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to a dividend approved by the Missouri Department of Insurance, CTI began transitioning the LSI business to the LSI Companies on October 31, 2004; and

WHEREAS, the transition of the LSI business to the LSI Companies is not occurring as quickly as anticipated in certain jurisdictions; and

WHEREAS, the LSI Companies desire that CTI continue to operate certain aspects of the LSI business on a direct basis in those jurisdictions in which the LSI Companies are not licensed or otherwise able to operate until such time as the LSI Companies become licensed or otherwise able to operate in those jurisdictions; and

WHEREAS, each Party participates in the operations of the LSI business to some extent and desires to cooperate in the sharing of certain costs associated with the LSI business, and desires further to share in the use of certain property, equipment, and facilities associated with the LSI business (collectively, "facilities"); and

WHEREAS, the Parties contemplate that such an arrangement will achieve certain operating economies, and improve services to their mutual benefit; and

WHEREAS, the Parties wish to assure that all sharing of costs and the use of facilities incurred hereunder are reasonable, and in accordance with the requirements of the Missouri Department of Insurance, and to the extent practical, reflect actual costs and are arrived at in a fair and equitable manner.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and of the mutual covenants herein contained, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the Parties agree as follows:

1. SHARING OF COSTS AND USE OF FACILITIES The Parties agree to share the costs of the employees performing services in connection with the LSI business. FIS Management will provide employees to perform the services. Compensation paid to FIS Management for such employees' services shall be on a cost basis and will be no greater than what each Party would expend in providing such services for itself.

The Parties also agree to share facilities needed in connection with the LSI business, including but not limited to, data processing, equipment, business property, whether owned or leased, and communication equipment.

Each Party's division of costs for the employees and facilities needed in connection with the LSI business will be determined on a monthly calendar basis as follows: the premiums for the LSI business of each of the Parties who are underwriters, underwritten title companies and agents are aggregated, and the percentage of the total is calculated for each company. The costs are then allocated to each Party based on those percentages. The allocation of costs shall be consistent with the provisions of any law or regulation that may apply.

CTI will provide escrow services and underwrite the LSI title insurance business on a direct basis pursuant to this Agreement only in those jurisdictions, as set forth on Schedule A attached hereto as amended from time to time by the LSI Companies, in which the LSI Companies cannot otherwise conduct the LSI business. Nothing contained herein shall alter the rights, duties, or responsibilities of the LSI Companies under their respective Issuing Agency Contracts with CTI in any jurisdiction not listed for "title" in Schedule A.

2. REPORTS AND PAYMENT Within thirty (30) days after the end of each month, each Party will submit to LSI California a written statement reflecting the total costs subject to this Agreement that were incurred by such Party in the preceding month, including costs not included in any previous statement. LSI California will review such written statements and make the necessary cost allocations to each Party based on the method set forth in Paragraph I of this Agreement. Reports shall be furnished monthly by LSI California to each Party; and each Party will remit what it owes within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the report.

3. RECORDS AND DOCUMENTS RELATING TO CHARGES Each Party shall be responsible for maintaining full and accurate accounting records of the sharing of employees and facilities pursuant to this Agreement in accordance with any law or regulation that may apply and such additional information as any other Party may reasonably request for purposes of its internal bookkeeping and accounting operations. Each Party shall make such accounting records insofar as they pertain to the computation of costs hereunder available at its principal offices for audit, inspection and copying by the recipient party or any governmental agency having jurisdiction over such recipient party during all reasonable business hours. All records generated by the employees in the performance of their duties under this Agreement in which a CTI title insurance policy is issued on a direct basis belong to CTI.

4. EFFECTIVE DATE This Agreement shall become effective as of the date first written above. Other direct or indirect subsidiaries of FNIS engaged in the LSI business may join this Agreement at a later date, subject to the approval all parties and subject to approval of the appropriate insurance department, if necessary, under any applicable insurance holding company act or regulation.

5. TERMINATION AND MODIFICATION This Agreement or any part thereof shall remain in effect until terminated in whole or in part as follows: (i) by mutual consent of all of the Parties, in which event the obligations under this Agreement shall terminate as of the date specified by the Parties; (ii) as to each LSI Company, upon giving thirty (30) days written notice to the other Parties, in which event, as to such LSI Company, the obligations under this Agreement shall terminate immediately upon expiration of the 30 day notice period, provided that the termination of the obligations under this Agreement as to such LSI Company shall not affect the effectiveness of this Agreement to the other LSI Companies; (iii) immediately upon the occurrence of any event which results in National Title Insurance of New York Inc. becoming a direct or indirect subsidiary of FNIS; or (iv) as to CTI, immediately at such time as no jurisdiction is listed on Schedule A. Participation in this Agreement shall end immediately as to a LSI Company that is no longer affiliated with FNIS. This Agreement shall be subject to renegotiation at least every three years following the initial effective date of this Agreement. In the event of termination, each Party shall have the right to elect to continue to receive data processing services and/or to continue to utilize data processing facilities and related software for up to one year from the date of such notice. Upon termination, each Party shall deliver to the other Parties all books and records that are, or are deemed by this Agreement to be, the property of such Party and each Party shall provide a final written statement in accordance with Paragraph 2 of this Agreement.

This Agreement may be amended only by mutual consent in writing signed by each Party; provided however, that the deletion of a jurisdiction from Schedule A shall be effective upon written notice from the LSI Companies to CTI. No amendment of this Agreement, other than the deletion of a jurisdiction from Schedule A, shall be effective without the prior written approval of the Missouri Department of Insurance.

6. ASSIGNMENT This Agreement and any rights pursuant hereto shall not be assignable by any Party hereto, except by operation of law. Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, is intended to confer on any person other than the Parties hereto, or their respective legal successors, any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities, or to relieve any person other than the Parties hereto, or their respective legal successors, from any obligations or liabilities that would otherwise be applicable.

7. GOVERNING LAW This Agreement is made pursuant to and shall be governed by, interpreted under, and the rights of the Companies determined in accordance with, the laws of the State of Missouri notwithstanding the conflicts of laws provisions thereof.

8. ARBITRATION Any unresolved difference of opinion between the Companies arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or in the breach thereof, except as provided in Section 3, shall be settled by arbitration in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association and the Expedited Procedures thereof, and judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The arbitration shall take place in the State of California. Arbitrations shall be governed by the laws of the State of Missouri.

9. NOTICE All notices, statements or requests ("Notice") provided for hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when delivered by hand to an officer of the other Party, or after one day when deposited with a nationally-recognized next-day courier service. All Notices shall be addressed to the addresses of the Parties as set forth on the signature pages hereof.

10. HEADINGS The headings of the various paragraphs of this Agreement are for convenience only, and shall be accorded no weight in the construction of this Agreement.

11. ENTIRE AGREEMENT This Agreement, together with such amendments as may from time to time be executed in writing by the Parties, constitutes the entire Agreement between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the Parties has caused this Agreement to be executed on its behalf by its duly authorized representative as of the date and year first above written.

1.4 Title Plant: Accumulation of title information stored in computer, optical disk, paper, microfiche, microfilm or other media format. Specific contents shown in Appendix A.

2. SALE OF COPY OF TITLE PLANT; GRANT OF ACCESS TO TITLE PLANT PREMISES

Seller hereby sells to Purchaser one Copy of the Title Plant for the County as described in Section 1.3 and the Appendix. The Copy will be current as of the date of this Agreement.

Purchaser shall, at Purchaser's sole cost and expense, cause the creation of one Copy of Seller's Title Plant in the County. Purchaser shall have discretion as to the manner in which the Copy is created, subject to the terms of this Agreement, and shall have the right to create subsequent Copies, at Purchaser's expense, if Purchaser determines that an earlier-created Copy does not meet the requirements of Purchaser to do title business. The Copies shall be made without undue interruption of Seller's business, given Seller's understanding that some or all of the Title Plant may be reproduced off-site due to the physical limitations of the facilities where the Title Plant is currently maintained.

Seller shall make the Title Plant reasonably available to Purchaser upon Purchaser's request for use or further duplication in order to provide a replacement Copy in the event Purchaser's Copy shall have become unusable due to calamity or normal wear and tear, or in the event that Purchaser's Copy is partially illegible or unreadable, as the case may be.

Purchaser shall make its Copy of the Title Plant reasonably available to Seller upon Seller's request for use or further duplication in order to provide a replacement Copy in the event Seller's Copy shall have become unusable due to calamity or normal wear and tear, or in the event that Seller's Copy is partially illegible or unreadable, as the case may be.

A Purchaser's Manual detailing specifications of the index and the step by step procedures to be followed from a PC workstation, will be supplied for the training of Purchaser's key personnel, if available.

4.3 The training shall be for the sufficient period of time in Seller's sole judgment to enable the initial operators of said devices to become proficient in their use. The initial training period shall not exceed 24 business hours. Any further training required for the replacement of additional operators will be charged to Purchaser on the basis of time and material.

5. RESTRICTIONS ON USE OF THE COPY

Purchaser further agrees that it will not provide the use or the benefits derived from the Title Plants (or any portion thereof) or to further resell or copy the Title Plants, or any of them, to any other underwritten title company or title insurer, or to any other person, corporation, association, or entity for two (2) years after the effective date of this Agreement, provided however, none of the provisions of this paragraph shall prohibit Purchaser from furnishing title information to its customers or to the title insurance company whose policies it regularly issues in the usual and customary course of business.

The foregoing restrictions on sale or transfer shall not apply to any transactions which substantially all of the business assets of the Purchaser for the County are transferred to another entity by sale, lease, merger, reorganization or consolidation; and the foregoing paragraph shall not be construed to prevent Purchaser from providing miscellaneous title information to real estate licensees, attorneys or other Purchasers in the title insurance services in order to facilitate the placing of orders for such services,

For a period of 10 years from the date User cancels, withdraws or terminates as a user under the agreement in Clark County, with regard to the indices developed hereunder, or any portion thereof, or any photostatic copy, "Xerox" copy, electronic format or any other type of reproduction of a copy of the indices (or any portion thereof), User agrees that it will not allow the use of same in any manner whatsoever by persons other than direct employees of User, or use same (or any material provided by Provider pursuant to this Agreement), in other than its own title business. The foregoing restrictions on sale or transfer shall not apply to any transactions which result in the transfer of substantially all of the Clark County business assets of User to another entity by sale, lease, merger, reorganization or consolidation; and the foregoing paragraph shall not be construed to prevent User from providing miscellaneous title information to real estate licensees, attorneys or other users in the title insurance services in order to facilitate the placing of orders for such services.

The parties hereto recognize that the input and retrieval of the information contained in Provider's computer is subject to the hazard of temporary interruptions, commonly known as down time, by reason of equipment failure or its inability to operate arising from numerous possible causes, and that Provider is not the guarantor of the instant and continual availability of the information contained in the computer Title Plant and performance by Provider of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be excused because of and during said Down Time. Provider does, however, agree that it will maintain a reasonable capability to provide timely, workmanlike repair and maintenance service whenever such Title Plant becomes inoperable. Any data incapable of being entered during such down time will be entered as quickly as possible when system operation is restored. There shall be no abatement of the purchase price during Down Time. Promptly upon the discovery by User of any error in any information, in whatever form, supplied pursuant to this Agreement, User shall communicate the fact thereof in writing to Provider. Upon receipt of this information, Provider shall incorporate the correction as soon as possible in the Title Plant for Clark County.

26. LIABILITY LOSS

User shall indemnify and hold Provider harmless from and against such claim or assertion, including all costs, expenses, attorney's fees and actual loss or losses incurred or sustained by reason of such claim or assertion. When such claim or assertion is made to Provider, Provider shall promptly give notice to User and User shall have the right, if it so elects, to provide for the defense of Provider in any action of litigation based thereupon by counsel of said User's own choosing and at User's own cost and to pursue such litigation of final determination. User shall also have the right, whether or not any action or litigation shall have resulted, to compromise or settle any such claim on behalf of said Provider but at the sole cost of User. The parties hereto agree that they do not intend by this Agreement to benefit any third party or to create any third party beneficiary rights under this Agreement. Any benefit accruing to any third party is incidental to the rights and obligations created hereunder.

Provider shall not be liable to User and User shall defend and hold Provider harmless from any loss or damage, nor shall there be any abatement of the charges set forth herein arising from (a) accuracy or inaccuracy, completeness, correctness or incorrectness, legibility or illegibility, or other deficiency of any kind of any recorded document image; (b) Provider's failure to deliver, or delay of any recorded document image requested by User; (c) any lack of completeness or other inadequacy of the Imaged Library; (d) any changes to any original recorded document occurring as a result of conversion of said original recorded document from microfilm to electronic image format; (e) the use of any equipment or other software or hardware used in the operation or recorded document images in the Imaged Library; (f) any interruption or loss of service, information, or imaged document; or (g) any other act or omission of Provider related to use of the recorded document image in the Imaged Library.

The parties also agree that Provider's development and maintenance of the Title Plant and the delivery of recorded document images to User, shall in no way create a policy of title insurance between the parties.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties, intending to be legally bound hereby, agree as follows:

ARTICLE I.
RETENTION FOR UPDATING AND MAINTENANCE SERVICES

Section 1.01 Retention of PI. As of the Effective Date, each of the Companies hereby retains PI to provide to such Company the services described in Section 2.01 (the "Services") for its respective Title Plants that are described in EXHIBIT B; and PI hereby accepts such retention as to each Company and each of the FNF Title Plants that are described in EXHIBIT B, all in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, the parties acknowledge that PI may use employees, independent contractors or consultants to provide the Services.

ARTICLE II.
THE SERVICES

Section 2.01 PI Services. During the term of this Agreement, and subject to the terms and conditions hereof, PI shall provide (or cause to be provided) all of the services described in this Section 2.01.

(a) Updating, Purging and Maintaining the Title Plants. After receiving from each Company all of the FNF Title Plants as updated, purged and maintained up to the Effective Date (as to each of the FNF Title Plants, a "Base Title Plant" and collectively the "Base FNF Title Plants") as contemplated by Section 2.03(b), PI shall periodically update and purge each of the Base FNF Title Plants in accordance with the specifications and the frequency and procedural requirements set forth on the applicable schedule for such Title Plant included in EXHIBIT B. Each of the Base FNF Title Plants shall be sorted, stored, filed and maintained in the format specified for such Base Title Plant on the applicable Title Plant schedule to EXHIBIT B. PI shall extract pertinent information from the public records and add such pertinent information to each Base Title Plant, and purge outdated or irrelevant information, all in accordance with the specifications set forth on the applicable Title Plant schedule to EXHIBIT B. Without limiting or expanding the foregoing and as a non-contractual commitment, the parties acknowledge that

(i) the objective of these services is to maintain each of the FNF Title Plants in such a manner that it will at all times be current, accurate and accessible, so as to provide an abstract and title evidence plant for the geographic areas covered by the FNF Title Plants, and (ii) the title plant updating and maintenance services being provided by the former Property Insight Divisions of the Companies (the "Divisions") as of the Effective Date are of a nature and quality that satisfies these objectives. For sake of clarification, the parties further acknowledge that, as between PI and the Companies, each of the FNF Title Plants, as so updated by PI, remain exclusively owned by the respective Company.

(b) Manuals and Training. PI shall produce and maintain detailed documentation designed to enable each Company and its respective employees to understand the nature and content of such Company's Title Plants. This will include creating and maintaining manuals and other documentation setting forth in reasonable detail a description of the nature and content of the databases, indices and other information and materials included in each FNF Title Plant. Such manuals and documentation are the property of PI and shall be returned to it upon termination of PI's obligations to provide the Services under this Agreement, provided that each Company shall be provided with a copy of all manuals and documentation, as updated and maintained to the date of such termination, relating to each of such Company's Title Plants.

Section 2.02 Additional Obligations of PI in Performing Services.

(a) Proprietary Systems. The parties acknowledge that in providing the Services described herein, PI may utilize proprietary systems and software, together with methodologies and technologies, developed, owned or licensed by it (the "Proprietary Systems"), to process, store, extract and manipulate the data and information in the FNF Title Plants into a readily accessible and searchable information system. Each of the Companies acknowledges that, unless otherwise provided in this Agreement (including without limitation Section 8.02) or agreed in writing by the parties, such Company has no ownership right, title or interest in the Proprietary Systems, including any and all source code, object code and/or compiled code that may be used in connection with constructing, processing, extracting or manipulating the Company's Title Plants. Nothing in this Section 2.02(a) shall affect any ownership or other right that any Company has in the intellectual property described in Article IV.

(b) Updated and Replacement Equipment and Systems. PI may, but is not required to, from time to time acquire or develop additional hardware, software or other equipment or systems in connection with the fulfillment of its obligations hereunder. All such acquisitions shall be at the expense of PI and, subject to Section 8.02, such hardware, software or other equipment or systems so acquired shall be owned solely by PI, unless one or more of the Companies has agreed to compensate PI for such acquired property, and no Company will have any ownership rights therein, unless otherwise agreed by the applicable parties. The parties acknowledge that it is contemplated that the parties will discuss and mutually agree on who will provide financial support and funding for the development of any upgraded or advance software or systems and who will be the owner(s) that have rights to use such developments.

Section 2.03 Obligations and Rights of the Companies.

(a) Exclusive Use of PI Services. With respect to the Services hereunder that PI will provide to each Company as of the Effective Date, each Company agrees to use PI exclusively for Services for such Company's Title Plants described in EXHIBIT B at all times during the applicable term of this Agreement, subject in all cases to the termination provisions set forth in Article VIII. To the extent that, after the Effective Date, PI has or acquires the right to update and maintain any other title plant in a geographic location in which a Company is doing business and is receiving title plant updating and maintenance services from any other party (other than PI or a direct subsidiary of such Company), then, so long as the service levels and pricing (including royalties) offered by PI for title plant updating and maintenance services are as good or better than the service levels and pricing in effect with such other party, if requested by PI, such Company agrees to (x) terminate its title plant updating and maintenance contract with such other party at the earliest date permitted without incurring a termination fee or penalty and (y) enter into a contract with PI for the provision of title plant updating and maintenance services (similar to those provided hereunder). Furthermore, each Company agrees that, so long as Services are being provided to it hereunder, to the extent that (A) such Company determines to enter into a service arrangement with any other party (other than a direct subsidiary of such Company) to update and maintain any other title plants that are currently owned or may hereafter be acquired by the Company, and (B) the service levels and pricing (including royalties) offered by PI for such title plant updating and maintenance services are as good as or better than the service levels and pricing offered by such other party, if requested by PI, such Company agrees to obtain such services from PI exclusively. If the service levels or pricing terms offered by PI for title plant updating and maintenance services for additional title plants pursuant to this Section 2.03(a) are not as good or better than those offered by the other applicable party and if the applicable Company has otherwise complied with the provisions of this Section 2.03(a), then nothing contained herein shall restrict or limit the ability of such Company to enter into any service arrangement with another party to update and maintain such Company's applicable title plants.

(b) Base Title Plant Provided. Each of the Companies hereby agrees that, on the Effective Date, it will make available to PI, all of the Base Title Plants (as more fully specified in the applicable schedule for such Title Plant included in EXHIBIT B) that comprise each Title Plant owned by such Company as of the Effective Date so that PI will be able to perform the Services to the Companies and similar services to other customers of PI.

(c) Representations and Warranties Regarding Software and Title Plants. Each of the Companies hereby represents and covenants to PI, as to its Title Plants and Software that:

(i) The Company owns, or has a license or right to use and sublicense to others, all of its Title Plants and Software, as more specifically identified on the applicable schedule for each Title Plant included in EXHIBIT B, free and clear of all liens, encumbrances and adverse claims. No proceedings are pending or, to the knowledge of the Company, threatened which challenge the rights of the Company with respect to its Title Plants and Software, nor has any person or entity claimed or alleged any rights thereto.

(ii) All of its Title Plants and Software meet the specifications set forth on EXHIBIT B, and the Company has taken reasonable precautions to assure that the Title Plants and Software, as provided to PI on the Effective Date, are free of viruses or other contaminants that are designed to disable, lock, erase or otherwise interfere with normal use thereof.

(iii) The Company's use of its Title Plants and Software, including the licenses granted to PI pursuant to Article IV, does not infringe upon any intellectual property rights of any other person or entity.

(iv) The schedules included in EXHIBIT B accurately describe all of the software, software programs, and software systems that are in use by each Company (directly or indirectly through its respective Division) as of the Effective Date.

(d) Compliance with Title Plant Access Agreement. The Companies acknowledge that simultaneously herewith, PI has entered into the Title Plant Access Agreement with RMSS, pursuant to which RMSS will obtain access from PI to the updated FNF Title Plants, on behalf of the Companies and other FNF Affiliates. The terms of the access to the FNF Title Plants are set forth in schedules and exhibits to the Title Plant Access Agreement. In connection with such access, and as part of the consideration hereunder, each of the Companies agrees to abide (and to cause RMSS to comply) with the terms of the Title Plant Access Agreement, including the terms and conditions governing access to the FNF Title Plants.

Section 2.04 Working Committee. Within 10 days following the effectiveness of this Agreement, the parties shall establish a title plant working committee who shall be empowered and authorized to work together to mutually agree to adjust and/or refine (including additions or deletions) the specific services to be provided hereunder, and whose members shall include one representative from each of the parties to this Agreement. The working committee shall meet from time to time as necessitated by the operation of this Agreement.

Section 2.05 Errors.

(a) Errors Discovered. Promptly upon the discovery of any error in the information, in whatever form, contained in any FNF Title Plant, each Company shall communicate in writing to PI, setting forth a detailed description of the error and the means of locating the error within the applicable FNF Title Plant and the relevant search system. Upon receipt of such information, PI shall promptly investigate the allegedly erroneous information and upon verification, shall incorporate the correction into the applicable FNF Title Plant(s).

(b) Liability for Errors. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, except in the event of PI's gross negligence or willful misconduct, PI shall have no liability to any Company for any error in any of the information provided in the performance of the Services in connection with any of the FNF Title Plants, including without limitation the ordinary ongoing maintenance of such Company's Title Plants, and the periodic posting and updating title information in the Company's Title Plants, by PI. PI shall have no liability or responsibility to any customer of any Company, or to any person or entity to which such Company may furnish such title information, report, binder, guarantee or policy, by reason of any error in any information furnished by PI hereunder. In the event that any such customer or person shall claim or assert that PI has such liability by reason of any error in the information that PI is required to furnish or has furnished under the terms of this Agreement, the applicable Company shall indemnify and hold PI harmless from and against such claim or demand, including the reasonable costs, expenses, attorneys' fees and actual loss or losses incurred or sustained by reason of such claim or assertion. When such a claim or assertion is made to PI, it shall promptly give notice to the applicable Company, and such Company shall have the right (if it so elects) to provide for the defense of PI in any action or litigation based upon or involving such claim or assertion, by counsel of the Company's choosing and at the Company's expense, and to pursue such litigation to final determination. In such event, the applicable Company shall also have the right, at its sole cost, whether or not any action or litigation shall have resulted, to compromise or settle any such claim on behalf of PI, except to the extent that such compromise or settlement involves terms other than money damages or does not provide for a full release of claims for the benefit of PI.

ARTICLE III. PERFORMANCE OF SERVICES

Section 3.01 Performance of Services. PI and each of the Companies shall perform their respective obligations hereunder with the same degree of care, skill, and prudence customarily exercised for their own operations. Except as may be specifically noted in the description of services to be performed in connection with a particular Title Plant (including the service level requirements therefor) on its respective schedule to EXHIBIT B, it is understood and agreed that, unless and until otherwise agreed by the applicable Company, the Services provided to each Company will be of a nature and quality reasonably comparable to the Services performed by the Divisions during the fiscal year immediately prior to the execution of this Agreement.

Section 3.02 Use of Services. The parties agree to perform and use the Services in accordance with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, rules, regulations, and tariffs and in accordance with reasonable conditions, rules, regulations and specifications which are or may be set forth in any manuals, materials, documents, or instructions from the other parties, as applicable. Each party reserves the right to take all actions in order to ensure that the Services are provided in accordance with any applicable laws, rules, regulations, and tariffs.

Section 3.03 Authority. Each party to this Agreement will retain discretion, control, and management over its respective business, including, without limitation, (i) oversight and management, (ii) formulation and implementation of policy decisions, (iii) supervision of the employment of personnel, and (iv) payment of all financial obligations.

Section 3.04 Officers and Directors. Nothing herein shall be construed to restrict the officers and directors of PI or any of the Companies in the performance of their respective duties or limit the exercise of their powers as prescribed by law or otherwise.

ARTICLE IV.
LICENSE OF TITLE PLANTS AND RELATED SOFTWARE

Section 4.01 License to Use Title Plant Assets and Software.

(a) Grant of Title Plant License. In consideration for the Services to be provided by PI to each Company pursuant to this Agreement, each Company hereby grants to PI, a perpetual, irrevocable, non-terminable, transferable, and nonexclusive worldwide license (as to each Company and its Title Plants, the "Title Plant License") to use, exploit, sell services from, sublicense, operate, alter, modify, adapt, distribute, create derivative works from, display, copy (for internal use and for use by third parties who have entered into contracts with PI for access to the FNF Title Plants), and access such Company's Title Plants, (including as updated and compiled through the Services), including without limitation any use in connection with arrangements that may be entered into by PI with other potential users of the Title Plants (including FNF Affiliates as well as entities who may be competitors of the Company) to provide such users with rights to access the applicable Title Plants, provided, however, that in no event shall any such other user be granted any ownership rights in or to any of the FNF Title Plants.

(b) Grant of Software License. In further consideration for the Services to be provided by PI pursuant to this Agreement, each Company hereby grants to PI, a perpetual, irrevocable, non-terminable, transferable, and nonexclusive worldwide license (as to each Company, its "Software License") to use, reproduce, exploit, sell services from, sublicense, operate, alter, modify, adapt, distribute, create derivative works from, display and access all of the software, software programs, and software systems that are currently used by such Company, either directly or through its Division (including without limitation the software known as "Super Search") (collectively, for each Company, its "Software"), as more fully identified on EXHIBIT B, and including the right to create derivative and advanced works and the right to sublicense use of the Software to other third parties. In addition, in furtherance of the purposes and provisions of this Agreement (including without limitation Article VIII), each Company hereby grants to each of the other Companies a Software License to use, reproduce, exploit, sell services from, sublicense, operate, alter, modify, adapt, distribute, create derivative works from, display and access all of its Software, and including the right to create derivative and advanced works and the right to sublicense use of the Software to other third parties. All right, title and interest, including copyright, in the derivative works created by or at the direction of PI, as between PI and the Companies, shall be owned by PI.

Section 4.02 Assignment of Existing Access Agreements. In further consideration of the Services to be provided by PI pursuant to this Agreement, each Company hereby assigns to PI all of such Company's right, title and interests in and to, and all of its obligations to perform, all of the agreements in effect as of the Effective Date pursuant to which the Company has granted access to one or more of its Title Plants to third parties (excluding FNF Affiliates), all of which are listed on the applicable Title Plant schedules to EXHIBIT B. PI hereby agrees to perform the obligations under all such agreements in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth therein, and shall be entitled to all fees, compensation and other payments under these agreements.

Section 4.03 Royalties.

(a) Calculation of the Royalty. In consideration for the grant of the Title Plant License and the Software License (collectively the "Licenses"), and subject to the royalty termination provisions set forth in Section 8.02(a)(iii), so long as one or both of the Licenses are effective hereunder or PI is otherwise entitled to access any of the FNF Title Plants or the Software (including during the period pending the effectiveness of a termination under Section 8.02), PI agrees to pay to the Companies a royalty (the "Royalty"), equal to the amounts calculated in accordance with the tiered rate formula set forth on EXHIBIT A, and subject to adjustment as described on EXHIBIT A. Each Company will receive its proportionate share of any Royalty paid, calculated on the basis of the aggregate amount of usage of and access to such Company's Title Plants during the period for which the Royalty was received, with the sharing recalculated each such period. If PI is no longer obligated to provide the Services to a Company hereunder, then (subject to the royalty termination provisions set forth in Section 8.02(a)(iii)) PI shall continue to pay the Royalty to each of the Companies who remains a party to this Agreement as to which PI continues to be obligated to provide the Services, but any Company as to which Services are no longer being performed shall not share in the Royalty as of the date on which the Service obligations terminated.

(b) Payment of the Royalty. On or before the 25th day of each calendar month, PI shall pay to each Company its pro rata share of the Royalty, calculated in accordance with EXHIBIT A for the immediately preceding calendar month, provided, that, as more fully described in EXHIBIT A, the aggregate amount of the Royalty due and paid in each fiscal year shall be re-calculated and confirmed at the end of such fiscal year, with each of the applicable parties making additional payments or refunds as required in accordance with the annual re-calculation numbers. All payments hereunder shall be in immediately available funds in lawful US currency. Each Company shall provide PI with wire transfer or other payment instructions for its share of the Royalty.

Section 4.04 Limitation of License. The parties acknowledge that, as to each of the Title Plants and the Software, no right of ownership therein is transferred to PI by the terms of this Agreement, other than with regard to certain possible derivative works as expressly set forth in Section 4.01. Except as otherwise contemplated in Section 4.01, as between the parties hereto, each applicable Company retains ownership of and all rights of any kind whatsoever in its respective Title Plants and Software, including without limitation, rights in data structures, data, written documentation, and all other attributes of any kind, whether such rights are granted by the law of the United States or any state in the United States, including common law, the law of any other national or international jurisdiction, or by international treaty or convention.

ARTICLE V. CONFIDENTIALITY

Section 5.01 Each party hereto may from time to time be provided with or have access to information that is confidential and proprietary to the other parties hereto. Accordingly, each party agrees that (i) it will not reveal such information or any of it, that is not otherwise generally available to the public, to a third party without the prior written consent of the other applicable party, except as may be permitted by the grant of the sublicensing rights described above or as required by law or as necessary to perform obligations or enforce rights hereunder; (ii) that such information will be distributed only to those of its own employees and officers and agents who have a reasonable need for it in order to carry out the purposes of and exercise its rights under this Agreement; (iii) that such information will not be used in any manner except for the purpose provided; and (iv) that upon termination of this Agreement, all documents containing such confidential or proprietary information upon request will be returned promptly to the party to which such information belongs. Each party shall take such steps as are reasonably necessary to protect the confidential or proprietary information of the others. For purposes hereof, confidential or proprietary information shall include, among other things, customer lists and other customer information, and financial, technical, and business information relating to one party and provided by such party to the others, including without limitation any of the FNF Title Plants, and the Proprietary Systems.

ARTICLE VI. RELATIONSHIP OF PARTIES

Section 6.01 Independent Contractors. Each of the parties hereto is an independent contractor acting for its own account and is not authorized to make any commitment or representation on the other's behalf unless authorized in writing.

Section 6.02 Competition. None of the parties shall have a duty to any other party to refrain from engaging in the business of providing services similar or identical to the business of the other parties, nor shall any of the parties have a duty to any other party to refrain from engaging in the business of providing services similar or identical to the Services hereunder to third parties, provided in all cases that nothing herein shall permit any of the Companies (i) to create or maintain a business or entity, a significant portion of whose business is the updating and maintenance of title plants for non-affiliated parties, in competition with PI, or (ii) to enter into a contract to receive title plant updating and maintenance services from any third party unless the applicable Company(s) first have complied with the provisions of Section 2.03(a). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties acknowledge that, as of the date of this Agreement, some or all of the Companies currently undertake and perform title plant updating and maintenance services for themselves and for others, and nothing herein is intended to preclude or restrict the on-going provision of such services.

Section 6.03 Three-Year Renegotiation. Notwithstanding any other provision contained herein, including without limitation the provisions of Article VIII, the parties agree that on the third anniversary of the effective date of this Agreement, and on every three-year anniversary subsequent thereto, at the request of any party to this Agreement (the "Requesting Party"), the other parties shall be available to each other to discuss the renegotiation of any term or provision of this Agreement that, during the preceding three-year period, has created a hardship on the Requesting Party (or any other party hereto) or is otherwise not reasonably workable under such party's strategic business plan or operational procedures. Any Requesting Party who wishes to avail itself of the renegotiation option contemplated by this Section shall provide all other parties hereto with written notice (a "Renegotiation Notice"), setting forth the nature of the hardship or grievance about which the Requesting Party is concerned, and providing sufficient detail so that the parties receiving the notice can consider the Requesting Party's issues and develop possible solutions. For a period of 30 days after receipt of a Renegotiation Notice, a senior decision-making officer or other representative of each party shall be available, upon reasonable notice, to participate in renegotiation discussions with the other parties regarding the issues described in the Renegotiation Notice. Each of the parties agrees to give good faith consideration to all proposals put forth to relieve the hardship or otherwise address the issues. If the parties fail to reach any further agreements regarding the hardships and issues described in the Renegotiation Notice, then the terms of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect as provided herein.

ARTICLE VII.
DISCLAIMER AND LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY

Section 7.01 Limitations of Liability. THE LIABILITY OF ANY PARTY FOR A CLAIM ASSERTED BY ANY OTHER PARTY BASED ON A BREACH OF ANY COVENANT UNDER, AGREEMENT IN, OR UNDERTAKING REQUIRED BY, THIS AGREEMENT SHALL NOT EXCEED, IN THE AGGREGATE, AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO THE "MAXIMUM LIABILITY AMOUNT" (AS HEREINAFTER DEFINED) CALCULATED FOR THE FISCAL YEAR (SUBJECT TO THE LAST TWO SENTENCES OF THIS SECTION) IMMEDIATELY PRIOR TO THE YEAR IN WHICH SUCH LIABILITY ARISES; PROVIDED THAT THE MAXIMUM LIABILITY AMOUNT SHALL NOT BE APPLICABLE IN RESPECT OF ANY CLAIMS BASED ON A PARTY'S (i) GROSS NEGLIGENCE, (ii) WILLFUL MISCONDUCT, (iii) IMPROPER USE OR DISCLOSURE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, (iv) VIOLATIONS OF LAW, OR (v) INFRINGEMENT OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS OF A PERSON OR ENTITY WHO IS NOT A PARTY HERETO OR THE SUBSIDIARY OF A PARTY HERETO. For purposes hereof, "Maximum Liability Amount" means, for any fiscal year, the amount equal to 1.25% of PI's annual gross revenues that are attributable to the use of the FNF Title Plants and/or use of the Software, as determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied throughout the applicable period. In the event that liability hereunder shall arise during the first 2 calendar years of the effectiveness of this Agreement (i.e., arising any time prior to December 31, 2005), for purposes of calculating the Maximum Liability Amount, the amount of PI's annual gross revenues shall be equal to the product of (x) the average monthly gross revenues that are attributable to the use of the FNF Title Plants and/or use of the Software for the entire period immediately prior to the date on which such liability arises, multiplied by (y) 12. Without limiting and subject to the foregoing and to Section 7.02, the parties acknowledge that if the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Sections 8.01(c), (e) or (h), then PI shall be liable for compensatory damages in an amount equal to the actual increased marginal costs incurred by the Companies in obtaining updated title plant information from the FNF Title Plants.

Section 7.02 Disclaimer of Liability. NONE OF THE PARTIES HERETO SHALL BE LIABLE TO ANY OTHER PARTY FOR ANY SPECIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, DAMAGES FOR LOSS OF BUSINESS PROFITS, BUSINESS INTERRUPTION, LOSS OF BUSINESS INFORMATION OR OTHER PECUNIARY LOSSES, OR DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF LITIGATION OR GOVERNMENTAL INVESTIGATION, OR ARISING FROM THIS AGREEMENT OR THE USE OR INABILITY TO USE ANY OF THE TITLE PLANTS, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY THEREOF, WHETHER FORESEEN OR

UNFORESEEN, FORESEEABLE OR UNFORESEEABLE. THE FOREGOING LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY SHALL APPLY REGARDLESS OF THE CAUSE OF ACTION UNDER WHICH SUCH DAMAGES ARE SOUGHT, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, BREACH OF CONTRACT, NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY, OR OTHER TORT.

ARTICLE VIII.
TERM AND TERMINATION

Section 8.01 Termination. Subject to the provisions of Section 6.03, the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement may be terminated by any of the following means (it being understood that, notwithstanding any termination of the obligation to provide the Services, the Licenses may be terminated only as provided in Section 8.02):

(a) at any time by mutual agreement of the parties hereto, in which event the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement shall terminate as of the date specified by the parties;

(b) as to each Company, at any time by PI, if such Company breaches any material warranty or fails to perform any material obligation hereunder, and such breach is not remedied within 30 days after written notice thereof to such Company that is in default, in which event as to such Company the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement shall terminate on the 20th business day following the expiration of such 30-day cure period; provided that if the breach or default is of a nature that it cannot reasonably be cured within a 30-day period and the breaching Company is actively pursuing a cure in good faith, then no default shall be deemed to have occurred so long as the default is cured as promptly as reasonably possible and in any event prior to the first anniversary of the occurrence of such default; and provided, further, that the termination of the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement as to such Company shall not affect the effectiveness of this Agreement to the obligations of PI to the other Companies nor the obligations of the other Companies (other than the defaulting Company) to PI;

(c) as to PI, at any time by any Company, if PI breaches any material warranty or fails to perform any material Service obligation owing hereunder to such Company, and such breach is not remedied within 30 days after written notice thereof to PI, in which event the obligation to provide Services to such Company under this Agreement shall terminate on the 20th business day following the expiration of such 30-day cure period; provided that if the breach or default is of a nature that it cannot reasonably be cured within a 30-day period and PI is actively pursuing a cure in good faith, then no default shall be deemed to have occurred so long as the default is cured as promptly as reasonably possible and in any event prior to the first anniversary of the occurrence of such default; and provided, further, that the termination of the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement as to such Company shall not affect the effectiveness of this Agreement to the obligations of PI to the other Companies nor the obligations of the other Companies (other than the terminating Company) to PI;

(d) as to each Company, at any time by PI, if such Company shall admit in writing its inability to, or be generally unable to, pay its debts as such debts become due, or shall (1) apply for or consent to the appointment of, or the taking of possession by, a receiver, custodian, trustee,

(e) as to PI, at any time by any Company, if PI shall admit in writing its inability to, or be generally unable to, pay its debts as such debts become due, or shall (1) apply for or consent to the appointment of, or the taking of possession by, a receiver, custodian, trustee, examiner or liquidator of itself or of all or a substantial part of its property or assets, (2) make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors, (3) commence a voluntary case under the federal Bankruptcy Code, (4) file a petition seeking to take advantage of any other law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, liquidation, dissolution, arrangement or winding-up, or composition or readjustment of debts, (5) fail to controvert in a timely and appropriate manner, or acquiesce in writing to, any petition filed against it in an involuntary case under the Bankruptcy Code or (6) take any company action for the purpose of effecting any of the foregoing, in which event as to such Company the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement shall terminate immediately; provided that the termination of the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement as to such Company shall not affect the effectiveness of this Agreement to the obligations of PI to the other Companies nor the obligations of the other Companies (other than the terminating Company) to PI;

(f) as to each Company, on or after the 5th anniversary of the Effective Date, by PI, upon 5 years' prior written notice to such Company; provided that the termination of the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement as to such Company shall not affect the effectiveness of this Agreement to the obligations of PI to the other Companies nor the obligations of the other Companies (other than the defaulting Company) to PI;

(g) as to PI, on or after the 5th anniversary of the Effective Date, by any Company, upon 5 years' prior written notice to PI, provided that the termination of the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement as to such Company shall not affect the effectiveness of this Agreement to the obligations of PI to the other Companies nor the obligations of the other Companies (other than the terminating Company) to PI;

(h) as to PI, at any time by any Company if there has been a change in control of PI; it being understood, that for purposes of this provision, "change of control" means a reorganization, merger, share (or LLC ownership interest) exchange or consolidation, or sale or other disposition of more than 50% of the LLC ownership interests in, or all or substantially all of the assets or business of, PI, other than a transaction in which no person or entity, other than FNIS or an entity controlled by FNIS, will have beneficial ownership, directly or indirectly, of

50% or more of the LLC ownership interests of PI or of the power to appoint the LLC manager(s) or vote in the election of directors; or

(i) as to any Company, upon 6 months prior written notice by such Company to PI if there has been a change in control of the Company; it being understood, that for purposes of this provision, "change of control" of a Company means a reorganization, merger, share exchange or consolidation, or sale or other disposition of more than 50% of the voting capital stock in, or all or substantially all of the assets or business of, such Company, other than a transaction in which no person or entity, other than FNF or an entity controlled by FNF, will have beneficial ownership, directly or indirectly, of 50% or more of the voting capital stock of PI or of the power to vote the election of directors.

Section 8.02 Effect of Termination.

(a) Services and Licenses. Upon termination of the obligation to provide Services to any particular Company or as to PI under this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.01 (the date on which the termination of the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement is effective being the "Service Termination Date"), then:

(i) the obligations of each applicable terminating or terminated party hereunder (except to the extent set forth in Section 8.03) shall immediately cease; and

(ii) if the termination is pursuant to Sections 8.01 (c), (e), (f) or (h), then, with respect to the terminating Company(s), the applicable Licenses granted to, and the rights to grant sublicenses and access to the applicable FNF Title Plants and the Software by, PI from the terminating Company(s) pursuant to Article IV shall terminate, effective as of the date of the latest expiration date of the third party contracts entered into by PI for title plant access to any of the applicable FNF Title Plants, provided that in no event shall the date for the termination of the applicable Licenses hereunder be later than the 5th anniversary of the Service Termination Date, and provided, further, that, notwithstanding the Service Termination Date, Royalty payments in accordance with Section 4.03 for the access to and use of the applicable FNF Title Plants and Software shall continue to be due and owing from PI until the date on which the applicable Licenses are fully terminated and PI is no longer entitled to use or access any of the applicable FNF Title Plants or Software; it being understood that after the Service Termination Date, PI shall not enter into any additional third party contracts for title plant access to any of the applicable FNF Title Plants nor shall PI extend or renew any such third party contract even if such extension or renewal would expire prior to the latest expiration date referred to above and the 5th anniversary of the Service Termination Date. So long as the obligation to provide Services to any Company under this Agreement has not been terminated pursuant to Sections 8.01 (c), (e), (f) or (h), then the Licenses granted, and the rights to grant sublicenses, to PI from such Company pursuant to Article IV shall continue to be in full force and effect and, except as provided in this Article VIII, be perpetual, non-terminable, and irrevocable; and

(iii) if the termination is pursuant to Sections 8.01(b), (d), (g) or (i), then, as to each Company as to which such termination is effective, (A) the Licenses granted to, and the rights to grant sublicenses and access to the FNF Title Plants and the Software by, PI pursuant to Article IV shall thereafter be perpetual, non-terminable, irrevocable and fully-paid, effective as of the Service Termination Date, (B) PI shall be entitled to retain a copy of the FNF Title Plants, as updated and maintained to the Service Termination Date, and (C) PI shall have no further obligation to pay any additional Royalty to such terminating or terminated Company as of the Service Termination Date. Without limiting the foregoing, it is understood by the parties that after the Service Termination Date, PI shall be permitted to enter into third party contracts for title plant access to any of the FNF Title Plants and to extend or renew existing contracts, in each case, without payment of any Royalties to the Companies; and

(iv) if the termination is pursuant to Section 8.01 (a), then the Licenses granted to, and the rights to grant sublicenses and access to the FNF Title Plants and the Software by, PI pursuant to Article IV shall be effective or shall terminate as per the agreement of the parties in connection with such termination.

(b) Return of Title Plants and Software; Licensed of New Software. If the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement has been terminated then, within 2 business days of the date on which such termination is effective:

(i) Return of Title Plants and Software. PI shall make available to each Company for which Services are being terminated (A) an original copy of each of the FNF Title Plants owned by such Company, as updated and maintained to the date of termination, in a generally-accessible format or system that will permit the Company who owns such Title Plant to easily use and access the applicable Title Plant, together with such Company's Software, and (B) an original copy of each of the Title Plants owned by such Company, as updated and maintained to the date of termination, in the form and format utilized in PI's normal course of business, together with such Company's Software and a copy of all of the software, software programs and software systems that are necessary or appropriate to permit the Company to use and access its Title Plants (the "New Software"), including an irrevocable, non-terminable, transferable, non-exclusive and royalty-free worldwide license to use, reproduce, exploit, sell services from, sublicense, operate, alter, modify, adapt, distribute, create derivative works from, display and access the New Software, in each case effective from the date on which the New Software is delivered to such Company; provided that (x) if the termination is pursuant to Sections 8.01 (c), (e), (f) or (h), then such license to use and access the New Software shall be perpetual, (y) if the termination is pursuant to Sections 8.01(b), (d), (g) or (i), then such license to use and access the New Software shall be effective for a one year period, and (z) if the termination is pursuant to Section 8.01(a), then such license to use and access the New Software shall be effective for that period mutually agreed among the parties; and

(ii) License of Upgraded Software. Except as otherwise provided in Section 8.02(b)(i), if either PI, on the one hand, or the Companies, on the other, is the owner of, or has other licensable rights (including the right to transfer or sublicense) to, the software and systems used to update, manage, maintain and access each of the FNF Title Plants (the "Upgraded Software"), then, effective as of the date on which the termination is effective, either (A) if PI is the party who is the owner of, or has other licensable rights (including the right to transfer or sublicense) to, the Upgraded Software and the termination is pursuant to Sections 8.01 (c), (e), (f) or (h), then PI shall grant to the Companies a perpetual, irrevocable, non-terminable, transferable, and nonexclusive royalty-free worldwide license to use, reproduce, exploit, sell services from, sublicense, operate, alter, modify, adapt, distribute, create derivative works from, display and access the Upgraded Software; or (B) if one or more of the Companies is the party(s) who is the owner of, or has other licensable rights (including the right to transfer or sublicense) to, the Upgraded Software and the termination is pursuant to Sections 8.01(b), (d), (g) or (i), then the applicable Company(s) shall grant to PI a perpetual, irrevocable, non-terminable, transferable, and nonexclusive royalty-free worldwide license to use, reproduce, exploit, sell services from, sublicense, operate, alter, modify, adapt, distribute, create derivative works from, display and access the Upgraded Software; it being understood that (x) if PI is the party who is the owner of, or has other licensable rights (including the right to transfer or sublicense) to, the Upgraded Software and the termination is pursuant to Sections 8.01(b), (d), (g) or (i), then PI shall have no obligation to provide the Companies with any license or copy of, or use or access to, the Upgraded Software, and (y) if one or more of the Companies is the party(s) who is the owner of, or has other licensable rights (including the right to transfer or sublicense) to, the Upgraded Software and the termination is pursuant to Sections 8.01 (c), (e), (f) or (h), then the applicable Company(s) shall have no obligation to provide PI with any license or copy of, or use or access to, the Upgraded Software. If required to license the Upgraded Software pursuant to this Section 8.02(b)(ii), then the applicable party agrees to make available to the other(s) a copy of the Upgraded Software, together with instructions on its use and maintenance and, if reasonably requested, training and other assistance in learning to use the Upgraded Software. If PI, on the one hand, or one or more of the Companies, on the other, has rights from third parties to use and access the software and systems used to update, manage, maintain and access each of the FNF Title Plants, which rights are not transferable or may not be sublicensed, then upon termination the applicable party will cooperate with the other(s) in an effort to obtain rights in and to such software and systems from the third party owners.

Section 8.03 Survival. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the provisions of Section 2.05(b) (Liability for Errors), Article IV (License of Title Plants and Related Software), Article V (Confidentiality), Article VII (Disclaimer and Limitations of Liability) and this Article VIII (Term and Termination) shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement. In addition, termination of this Agreement as to any particular Company shall not affect the effectiveness and continuation of this Agreement as to the non-terminating and non-terminated Companies.

ARTICLE IX. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Section 9.01 Amicable Resolution. The parties mutually desire that friendly collaboration will continue between them. Accordingly, they will try to resolve in an amicable manner all disagreements and misunderstandings connected with their respective rights and obligations under this Agreement, including any amendments hereto. In furtherance thereof, in the event of any dispute or disagreement (a "Dispute") between the parties in connection with this Agreement (including, without limitation, any use of the Licenses or the termination of the licenses granted hereby), then the Dispute, upon written request of any party, will be referred for resolution to the applicable Division Presidents of the parties, who will have ten (10) days to resolve such Dispute.

Section 9.02 Mediation. In the event any Dispute cannot be resolved in a friendly manner as set forth in Section 9.01, the parties intend that such Dispute be resolved by mediation. If the Division Presidents of the parties are unable to resolve the Dispute as contemplated by Section 9.01, any party may demand mediation of the Dispute by written notice to the other parties in which case PI, on the one hand, and the Companies, on the other, will select a single mediator within ten (10) days after the demand. No party may unreasonably withhold consent to the selection of the mediator. Each party will bear its own costs of mediation but the parties will share the costs of the mediator 50/50 between PI, on the one hand, and the Companies, on the other. The mediator will have twenty (20) days from the date of referral to resolve any Dispute.

Section 9.03 Arbitration. In the event that the Dispute is not resolved pursuant to Section 9.01 or through mediation pursuant to Section 9.02, the latter within thirty (30) days of the submission of the Dispute to mediation, any party involved in the Dispute may submit the dispute to binding arbitration pursuant to this Section 9.03. All Disputes submitted to arbitration pursuant to this Section 9.03 shall be resolved in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association, unless the parties involved mutually agree to utilize an alternate set of rules, in which event all references herein to the American Arbitration Association shall be deemed modified accordingly. Expedited rules shall apply regardless of the amount at issue. Arbitration proceedings hereunder may be initiated by any party making a written request to the American Arbitration Association, together with any appropriate filing fee, at the office of the American Arbitration Association in Orlando, Florida. All arbitration proceedings shall be held in the city of Jacksonville, Florida in a location to be specified by the arbitrators (or any place agreed to by the parties and the arbitrators). The arbitration shall be by a single qualified arbitrator experienced in the matters at issue, such arbitrator to be mutually agreed upon by the parties. If the parties fail to agree on an arbitrator thirty (30) days after notice of commencement of arbitration, the American Arbitration Association shall, upon the request of any party to the dispute or difference, appoint the arbitrator. Any order or determination of the arbitral tribunal shall be final and binding upon the parties to the arbitration as to matters submitted and may be enforced by any party to the Dispute in any court having jurisdiction over the subject matter or over any of the parties. All costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such arbitration proceeding (including reasonable attorneys' fees) shall be borne by the party incurring such costs. The use of any alternative dispute resolution procedures hereunder will not be construed under the doctrines of laches, waiver or estoppel to affect adversely the rights of any party.

Section 9.04 Commencement of Dispute Resolution Procedure. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the parties are entitled to commence a dispute resolution procedure under this Agreement, whether pursuant to this Article IX or otherwise.

ARTICLE X.
MISCELLANEOUS

Section 10.01 Non-Exclusive Remedy. The parties acknowledge and agree that money damages would not be a sufficient remedy for any breach of this Agreement by any party or misuse of the FNF Title Plants or the Software or any confidential information of any party. Accordingly, nothing in Article IX or this Article X will prevent any party from immediately seeking injunctive or interim relief in such event. All actions for such injunctive or interim relief shall be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction. In addition, the rights and remedies of the parties provided in this Agreement shall not be exclusive and are in addition to any other rights and remedies provided at law or in equity.

Section 10.02 Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the successors and assigns of the parties hereto. None of the parties may assign its respective rights and obligations under this Agreement to any other person or entity without the prior written consent of the other parties hereto, and in any event such assignment shall be subject to the prior approval of the Missouri Department of Insurance so long as PI and the Companies are "affiliates" as defined in section 382.010 of the Missouri Statutes. Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, the parties hereto intend that this Agreement shall not benefit or create any right or cause of action in or on behalf of any person other than the parties hereto.

Section 10.03 No Agency. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as making any party the agent of the others or as creating a partnership, joint venture or similar arrangement. As among the parties, each party shall be responsible for the payment of compensation to its employees and those of its subsidiaries, for any injury to them in the course of their employment, and for withholding or payment of all federal, state and local taxes or contributions imposed or required under unemployment insurance, social security and income tax laws with respect to such persons.

Section 10.04 Notices. All notices and other communications required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing (including telefax) and shall be delivered personally, delivered by facsimile transmission (with confirmation of receipt immediately thereafter by telephone), sent by nationally recognized overnight courier (marked for overnight delivery), addressed to the parties at the address appearing on the first page of this Agreement or to such other address as may be hereafter designated in writing hereunder by the respective parties. Each party shall promptly advise the other in writing of any change of address.

Section 10.05 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held illegal or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, such provision shall be deemed separable from the remaining provisions of this Agreement and shall not affect or impair the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement. The parties hereto agree to replace any such illegal or unenforceable provision that has the most nearly similar permissible economic or other effect.

Section 10.06 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of California, without regard to its conflicts of law principles.

Section 10.07 No Waiver. The failure of any party to enforce, in any one or more instances, any of the terms or conditions of the Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of the future performance of any such term or condition.

Section 10.08 Force Majeure. No party shall be liable for its failure to perform any of its obligations hereunder during any period in which such performance is directly delayed by the occurrence of events beyond the control of the failing party such as fire, explosion, flood, storm or the acts of God, war, acts of terrorism, embargo, riot, or the intervention of any government authority, provided that the party suffering the delay immediately notifies the other parties of the delay.

Section 10.09 Entire Agreement; Amendment. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the parties concerning the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior oral and written understandings and agreements between the parties relating hereto. This Agreement may not be modified except in a writing signed by the authorized representatives of the parties hereto, and any such modification shall be subject to the prior approval of the Missouri Department of Insurance so long as PI and the Companies are "affiliates" as defined in section 382.010 of the Missouri Statutes.

Section 10.10 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

Section 10.11 Title 11. Each of the licenses granted hereunder are, for all purposes of Section 365(n) of Title 11 of the United States Code ("Title 11") and to the fullest extent permitted by law, a license of rights to "intellectual property" as defined in Title 11. All parties agree that the licensee of any rights under this Agreement shall retain and may fully exercise all of its applicable rights and elections under Title 11.

Section 10.12 Effective Date. This Agreement shall be effective as of business day (the "Effective Date") following the day on which (i) all insurance regulatory approvals that are required are received and (ii) the prior notice period applicable to all filings made to applicable title insurance regulators has expired or been terminated or waived (by action of the regulator or otherwise).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused their respective duly authorized representatives to execute this Agreement as of the date first above written.

(b) CUSTOMER STARTERS. "Customer Starters" are Starters provided by Customer to Property Insight.

(c) DATABASES. "Databases" consist of certain designated records of Property Insight accessible via an on-line system. (d) RECON TRACKING SERVICE. "Recon Tracking Service" consists of services for the purpose of tracking deeds of trust and reconveyances ("Reconveyance Tracking System"). The Reconveyance Tracking System is designed to meet the requirements of California Civil Code Section 2941(b) (3), which sets forth a procedure in which a title insurer that has processed a pay-off of a deed of trust, can execute and record a Release of Obligation if the trustee does not record a Reconveyance within a specified period of time.

(e) GROSS TITLE PREMIUMS. "Gross Title Premiums" means all premiums and other fees charged by Customer for Title Orders (including cancellation fees), as well as any other reports or products in which Title Records are used and from which Customer generates income. To the extent applicable, such amounts shall be determined and reported by Customer to Property Insight on a County-by-County basis.

(f) INQUIRY(IES). "Inquiry(ies)" means any instance of accessing Property Insight Databases including but not limited to, Inquiry by Date/Document reference, General

Index (AKA Individual/Corporation) and Property Information. Each instance of such Inquiries may be counted separately to screen and/or to printer.

(g) LOT BOOKS. "Lot Books" consist of copies of indices in tangible form of recorded documents relating to parcels of real property in such County (for example, Numbered Tracts, Alphabetical Tracts, Ranchos and Sectional Lands). Lot Books may be available as specified in such schedule.

(h) MAPS. "Maps" consist of copies of diagrams and other graphic representations of boundaries relating to parcels of real property in such County.

(i) OFFICIAL RECORDS. "Official Records" (excluding Maps) consist of copies of items recorded in the County Recorders' Office.

(j) PC or PCs. "PC" or "PCs" means a single or group of terminals, workstations or personal computers of all types including printers or any method of accessing information from the Property Insight on-line Databases.

(k) PROVIDER. "Provider" means each of the persons which owns (or co-own) or distributes, furnishes, licenses or otherwise makes available to Property Insight information, software or other similar material which is made available to, or which is used (directly or indirectly) by Customer under this Agreement.

(m) TAX SERVICE. "Tax Service" means tax data made available to Customer either by online databases or by manual access.

(n) TITLE ORDER. "Title Order" means an order, by a customer of Customer, of a Title Search and an examination thereof which may result in the issuance of an evidence of title (for example, a title policy, binder, guarantee, or endorsements) or delivery of other reports or products in which Title Records are used (for example, a preliminary report).

(o) TITLE PLANT. "Title Plant" means a currently maintained index of land records and copies of Official Records and other materials related thereto, excluding Starters, for a County.

accessible Databases, Lot Books, Maps, Official Records, and Starters) which are necessary for examining, reporting on and otherwise issuing an evidence of title on specific parcels of real property.

2. SERVICES.

(a) Performance. Property Insight will perform the Services identified in each County Schedule. Such Services are subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the terms and conditions set forth in the applicable County Schedule, and all Appendixes thereto. As the posting of the computerized databases are dependent upon the receipt of the recorded documents from the county(ies), Property Insight shall make every attempt to maintain the currency of the Property and General indexes in a commercially reasonable manner. Lot Books, Maps, Official Records, Starters and other materials included in the Title Records are maintained in one or more formats or media determined by Property Insight (for example, on microfilm or paper or in electronic form as digital files) and Property Insight reserves the right to modify any such format or medium from time to time. Both parties recognize that Property Insight or its Providers may in the future acquire records and materials through purchase, lease, assignment or other method of transfer and that Property Insight may restrict, or may be restricted from allowing, Customer from using such records and materials. Any records and materials so acquired and restricted are not included in this Agreement.

(b) Access. For each County selected on a County Schedule, Property Insight grants Customer nonexclusive computerized title plant access during the normal working hours of the local title plant operation. Consult the local operation for their hours of operation. Additional service hours may be provided upon request by Customer at the then prevailing hourly rate, as set by Property Insight. Such access and services are subject to all the other provisions of this Agreement.

(c) Joint Ownership. In certain Counties, selected Title Record information is jointly owned by Property Insight's Providers and one or more other co-owners. Customer access to any such jointly-owned information may be provided by a County Schedule to this Agreement or by a separate agreement among Customer, Property Insight and the joint owner(s). If jointly-owned information is made available to Customer under this Agreement, the co-owner(s) is (are) identified on the applicable County Schedule for such County. Co-Owners are protected collectively with Property Insight by all appropriate provisions of this Agreement wherever jointly-owned information is identified on the applicable County Schedule. The term "Property Insight" in such circumstances shall include the co-owner(s).

(d) Training. Property Insight will provide reasonable initial training in the use of Property Insight on-line systems or products at no additional charge per its then current training policies. Training may be provided by visits to Customer's premises, by telephone, by Internet, or at a Property Insight office location, at Property Insight's discretion. Customer is responsible for training its new employees; however, additional training requested by Customer will be scheduled and provided on a resources available basis at Property Insight's then current fee.

(e) Special Services. In the event that Customer requests Property Insight to supply special services, reports or items, Customer will pay the then-current fees for Property Insight labor, out-of-pocket expenses paid or incurred and an administrative fee. Property Insight will provide an estimate of such fees upon request.

(f) No Other Services. Property Insight shall not be obligated to furnish any information or service not specifically set forth in this Agreement or a County Schedule, including without limitation: (a) any tax, bond or assessment information; (b) any title engineer or other help for the purpose of verifying or creating a legal description of land involved in Customer's Title Orders; or (c) any parking facilities for Customer's employees.

(g) Plant Location. Property Insight shall have the right at any time to move the physical location of each of the Property Insight on-line systems, Databases, Title Records, or facilities from one location to any other location upon three (3) months prior written notice, provided, however, that if Property Insight proposes to move the physical location of any Title Records, it shall consult with the Customer(s) to in an effort determine an appropriate location therefor, taking into consideration the requests and convenience of all customers of Property Insight (including the Customer(s)) that use or are likely to use such Title Records.

(h) Posting of Office Information. In applicable counties, Property Insight shall post office information entries to the databases within 24 hours of receipt of the completed OI posting form. Property Insight posts OI entries as a convenience to our customers and bears no liability for errors or omissions.

3. FEES AND PAYMENT.

(a) Fees. The Customer indicated on the signature page of this Agreement shall, on behalf of all Customers, pay Property Insight the fees for the Services specified in the County Schedules and the Appendix for Technology Related Charges. Any monthly minimum fee shall be due and payable regardless of whether or not Customer finds it necessary to use the applicable Service. The fees and charges do not include taxes. Customer will pay, or reimburse, Property Insight for payment of, any applicable sales, use, personal property or similar taxes and any government charges based on transactions hereunder, exclusive of corporate income or franchise taxes based on Property Insight's net income. Property Insight may increase the fees set forth in each County Schedule as follows: (i) annually on the anniversary date of the Agreement by the percentage amount indicated by the annual change in the Consumer Price index for urban wage earners and clerical workers for the national average as compiled by the U.S. Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics ("Index") for the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the adjustment date, except where fees are based on Gross Title Premiums; (ii) monthly where the cost increases to acquire documents or other media necessary to create or provide the Title Records, except where fees are based on Gross Title Premiums; and (iii) triennially on the anniversary date of this Agreement to amounts which reflect the then current market rates for the Services for each County charged by Property Insight to its other customers.

(b) Reports. For any Fees based upon Gross Title Premiums, Customer must furnish a written report to Property Insight on or before the 10th day of each month showing the information necessary to enable Property Insight to determine the amount of Gross Title Premiums for the prior month. This information shall be confidential to and used by Property Insight's auditors, accounting personnel and management and shall not be used for other purposes by Property Insight. The report form shall be designed and furnished by Property Insight and signed by an officer of Customer. For any Fees based on number of inquiries or orders or the like, Property insight shall furnish a written inquiry report to Customer on or before the 10th day of each month, setting forth the number of inquiries, orders, etc, by Customer in the prior month and otherwise providing Customer with such other information regarding the procedure and methods used to count inquiries, orders, etc. for purposes of this Agreement.

(c) Due Date. Customer shall pay all sums which are due and payable to Property Insight within 30 days after the invoice date, with the exception of fees based on Gross Title Premiums (including any applicable minimum monthly fee) which are due and payable together with the report for such month on or before the 10th day of each month. Customer will be in default under this Agreement whenever Customer fails to pay any sum due to Property Insight for a period of fifteen (15) days after the sum has become due and payable.

(d) Audit. Should any of Customer's fees be based on Gross Title Premiums, Property Insight shall have the right to audit the accounts of Customer, at the expense of Property Insight, in order to verify the correctness of the sums of money being paid to Property Insight by Customer. These audits shall be conducted so as not to unreasonably interfere with the normal business routine of Customer. Upon request of Property Insight, Customer shall supply the following to Property Insight at the end of each fiscal year: (i) a copy of Customer's reports to the Insurance Commissioner of the State; or (ii) audited financial statements for each County in which fees due hereunder are based upon Customer's Gross Title Premiums in such County.

4. TERM.

(a) Term. Unless sooner terminated in accordance with the provisions hereof, this Agreement shall continue in effect.

(b) Termination. The obligation to provide Services under this Agreement may be terminated by any of the following means:

(1) at any time by mutual agreement of the parties hereto, in which event the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement shall terminate as of the date specified by the parties;

(2) as to Customer, at any time by Property Insight, if Customer breaches any warranty or fails to perform any material obligation hereunder, and such breach is not remedied within 30 days after written notice thereof to Customer, in which event the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement shall terminate on the 20th business day following the expiration of such 30-day cure period; provided that if the breach or default is of a nature that it cannot reasonably be cured within a 30-day period and Customer is actively pursuing a cure in good faith, then no default shall be deemed to have occurred so long as the default is cured as promptly as reasonably possible and in any event prior to the first anniversary of the occurrence of such default; and provided, further, that, to the extent that such breach or default concerns one or more, but not all, of the Counties for which Services are provided hereunder, the termination of the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement as to such Counties shall not affect the effectiveness of this Agreement to the obligations of Property Insight to the other Counties nor the obligations of Customer regarding the other Counties (other than the County(ies) affected by the default or breach) to Property Insight;

(3) as to Property Insight, at any time by Customer, if Property Insight breaches any warranty or fails to perform any material Service obligation hereunder, and such breach is not remedied within 30 days after written notice thereof to Property Insight, in which event the obligations of Customer under this Agreement shall terminate on the 20th business day following the expiration of such 30-day cure period; provided that if the breach or default is of a nature that it cannot reasonably be cured within a 30-day period and Property Insight is actively pursuing a cure in good faith, then no default shall be deemed to have occurred so long as the default is cured as promptly as reasonably possible and in any event prior to the first anniversary of the occurrence of such default; and provided, further, that, to the extent that such breach or default concerns one or more, but not all, of the Counties for which Services are provided hereunder, the termination of the obligations of Customer under this Agreement as to such Counties shall not affect the effectiveness of this Agreement to the obligations of Customer regarding the other Counties nor the obligations of Property Insight (other than the county or counties affected by the default or breach) to Customer;

(4) as to Customer, at any time by Property Insight, if Customer shall admit in writing its inability to, or be generally unable to, pay its debts as such debts become due, or shall (a) apply for or consent to the appointment of, or the taking of possession by, a receiver, custodian, trustee, examiner or liquidator of itself or of all or a substantial part of its property or assets, (b) make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors, (c) commence a voluntary case under the federal Bankruptcy Code, (d) file a petition seeking to take advantage of any other law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, liquidation, dissolution, arrangement or winding-up, or composition or readjustment of debts, (e) fail to controvert in a timely and appropriate manner, or acquiesce in writing to, any petition filed against it in an involuntary case under the Bankruptcy Code or (f) take any company action for the purpose of effecting any of the foregoing, in which event as to Customer the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement shall terminate immediately;

(5) as to Property Insight, at any time by Customer, if Property Insight shall admit in writing its inability to, or be generally unable to, pay its debts as such debts become due, or shall (a) apply for or consent to the appointment of, or the taking of possession by, a receiver, custodian, trustee, examiner or liquidator of itself or of all or a substantial part of its property or assets, (b) make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors, (c) commence a voluntary case under the federal Bankruptcy Code, (d) file a petition seeking to take advantage of any other law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, liquidation, dissolution, arrangement or winding-up, or composition or readjustment of debts, (e) fail to controvert in a timely and appropriate manner, or acquiesce in writing to, any petition filed against it in an involuntary case under the Bankruptcy Code or (f) take any company action for the purpose of effecting any of the foregoing, in which event the obligations of Customer under this Agreement shall terminate immediately;

(6) as to Customer, on or after the 5th anniversary of the date on which this Agreement becomes effective (the "Effective Date"), by Property Insight, upon 5 years' prior written notice to Customer as to one or more Counties; provided that the termination of the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement as to such Counties shall not affect the effectiveness of this Agreement to the obligations of Property Insight with respect to the other Counties nor the obligations of Customer with regard to the other Counties;

(7) as to Property Insight, on or after the 5th anniversary of the Effective Date, by Customer, upon 5 years' prior written notice to Property Insight as to one or more Counties, provided that the termination of the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement as to such Counties shall not affect the effectiveness of this Agreement to the obligations of Property Insight with respect to the other Counties nor the obligations of Customer with regard to the other Counties; or

(8) as to Property Insight, at any time by Customer, if there has been a change in control of Property Insight; it being understood, that for purposes of this provision, "change of control" means a reorganization, merger, share (or LLC ownership interest) exchange or consolidation, or sale or other disposition of more than 50% of the LLC ownership interests in, or all or substantially all of the assets or business of, Property Insight, other than a transaction in which no person or entity, other than Fidelity National Information Solutions ("FNIS") or an entity controlled by FNIS, will have beneficial ownership, directly or indirectly, of 50% or more of the LLC ownership interests of Property Insight or the power to appoint the LLC manager(s) or vote in the election of directors.

5. OWNERSHIP AND USE.

(a) Ownership. All Title Records and all programs, Databases, manuals and documentation relating to any Service, Database or system (including without limitation, compression, storage, and retrieval techniques and formats and any enhancements made thereto) are and shall remain the property of Property Insight or its Providers. Customer agrees to not make copies of such manuals and documentation. Customer agrees to return all applicable Property Insight property upon termination of this Agreement or of a County Schedule.

(b) Customer Use. Title Records made available to Customer under this Agreement are to be used by Customer solely for the purpose of conducting Title Searches of specific parcels of real property and examinations thereof in connection with bona fide Title Orders of Customer. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Customer agrees that access to the Title Records shall not be utilized by Customer or any of its employees for the purpose of furnishing any Title Record information to any other title insurance company, title company, or any person, firm or corporation except Customer and Customer's customers in the ordinary course of its business. However, Customer shall have the right to utilize the Title Records to furnish the usual customer service as to inquiry by customers of Customer as regards specific parcels of land or specific documents covered in such Title Records; provided that Customer shall not deliver a copy of any Starter (other than a Customer Starter) to any other person.

(c) No Tours or Demonstrations. Customer will not (1) conduct any 'tour' of, or give access to, any facility where the Title Records are located, or (2) demonstrate the use of the Property Insight on-line system or other systems, or make the documentation for such systems available, except to train persons who are authorized employees and contractors of Customer acting within the scope of this Agreement provided, however, that Customer may in the course of its business demonstrate such systems within Customer's own facilities.

(d) Nonexclusive Use. It is recognized by the parties that Property Insight shall continue to use the Title Records in the usual and ordinary course of business while at the same time furnishing services to Customer as well as others.

(e) Advertisement of Use or Ownership. During the term of the Agreement, Customer shall not publicize to the public that Customer owns any Title Records or Property Insight Title Plant or has any interest therein except such rights as are specifically granted to Customer by this Agreement. Likewise, during the term of this Agreement, Property Insight shall not, in any advertisement or publicity, state that Customer is dependent upon Property Insight for use of the Title Records or any Property Insight facility. Property Insight may, however, publicize to whatever extent it may desire, its ownership of the Title Records and its facilities and services.

(f) Due Care. Customer agrees to exercise due care in the use of Property Insight facilities, services, systems and information, so as to prevent loss or damage. Each party agrees that it shall be liable to the other (and, if applicable, its Providers) for any loss or damage to any property of the other or any Providers arising out of a failure to exercise due care or arising out of an intentional, dishonest or fraudulent act of an employee of such party.

(g) Customer Title Plant. Customer agrees that if at any time during the term of this Agreement it elects to build or participate in the building of a Title Plant or to continue the maintenance of its existing Title Plant for any County, it shall do so without the use of any Title Records obtained from a Property Insight facility or via any Property Insight on-line system. An election by Customer to build or participate in the building of a Title Plant or the maintenance of its existing Title Plant shall not discharge or relieve Customer of any of its obligations under this Agreement.

(h) Compliance with Laws and Regulations. Customer agrees to use information received from Property Insight in compliance with all applicable Federal, State and local laws and regulations, including without limitation, the Federal Credit Reporting Act (U.S.C.A. Title 15, Chapter 41, Subchapter III), as amended from time to time.

(i) Exclusive Use of Property Insight Services. With respect to the Title Plant access Services hereunder that Property Insight will provide to each Customer as of the Effective Date, each Customer agrees to use Property Insight exclusively for Title Plant access in all of the geographic locations described on the schedules hereto at all times during the term of this Agreement, subject in all cases to the termination provisions set forth in Section 4 and to the provisions of this Section 5(i). To the extent that, after the Effective Date, Property Insight has or acquires the right to obtain Title Plant access for a geographic location in which a Customer is doing business and is receiving Title Plant access from any other party (other than Property Insight or a direct subsidiary of such Customer), then, so long as the service levels and pricing offered by Property Insight for Title Plant access in that geographic location are as good or better than the service levels and pricing in effect with such other party, if requested by Property Insight, such Customer agrees to (x) terminate its Title Plant access contract with such other party at the earliest date permitted without incurring a termination fee or penalty and (y) enter into a contract with Property Insight for the provision of Title Plant access (similar to that provided hereunder) to the applicable geographic location. Furthermore, each Customer agrees that, so long as Title Plant access Services are being provided to it hereunder, to the extent that (A) such Customer determines to enter into a service arrangement with any other party (other than a direct subsidiary of such Customer) to obtain Title Plant access in any geographic location not covered by the schedules to this Agreement, (B) Property Insight can obtain access to Title Plants in that geographic location, and (C) the service levels and pricing offered by Property Insight for such Title Plant access in the applicable geographic location are as good as or better than the service levels and pricing offered by such other party, then if requested by Property Insight, such Customer agrees to obtain such Title Plant access for the applicable geographic location from Property Insight exclusively. If the service levels or pricing terms offered by Property Insight for Title Plant access in such other geographic location(s) pursuant to this Section are not as good or better than those offered by the other applicable party and if the applicable Customer has otherwise complied with the provisions of this Section, then nothing contained herein shall restrict or limit the ability of such Customer to enter into any service arrangement with another party to obtain Title Plant access in any other geographic location(s). Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 5(i) shall preclude Customer from utilizing generally available non-title-based search services (such as publicly available material accessible on the internet) for single record searches or specific searches (such as an internet search of court records or UCC financing statements) that do not involve access to title plants or what would customarily be considered to be full service title plant information or involve obtaining title plant search services from any entity that would reasonably be viewed as a competitor of Property Insight.

6. DISCLAIMERS AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

(a) Disclaimer of Liabilities. Except as expressly set forth herein, Property Insight and Customer agree that Property Insight (and, if applicable, its Providers) assumes no liability and shall not be held liable to Customer, or to Customer's customers or insureds, or to any other person to whom Customer may furnish any title policy, binder, guarantee, endorsement or other title assurance, or any report or title information, by reason of any error or omission or assertion of error or omission in any information (including any Title Records obtained from a Property Insight facility or via an on-line system and furnished to Customer by Property Insight) or resulting from the use of any Service or deliverable. PROPERTY INSIGHT MAKES NO WARRANTY OR REPRESENTATION, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, CONCERNING THE ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF THE TITLE RECORDS MADE AVAILABLE TO CUSTOMER, WHETHER IN TANGIBLE FORM OR VIA AN ON-LINE SYSTEM OR CONCERNING ANY PRODUCT. Customer agrees that in no event shall Property Insight (and, if applicable, its Providers) be liable for any lost profits or for any special, consequential or exemplary damages, even if Property Insight has been advised of the possibility of such damages.

(b) Limitation of Liability. In the event that Customer discovers an error, defect or omission in any Title Record, Property Insight's sole obligation, and Customer's exclusive remedy with respect thereto, is to replace such Title Record with a duplicate copy of the applicable record if a better copy of the record is available from the source.

(c) Third-Party Providers. Certain materials and information provided or made available to Customer under this Agreement are obtained by Property Insight from third party Providers. In the event that any such Provider falls to deliver (or delays the delivery of) such material or information (through no fault of Property Insight) or in the event that any such Provider materially and adversely modifies the conditions or cost to Property Insight of obtaining such material or information, then Property Insight, at its option, may: (i) use reasonable efforts to seek alternative sources of supply on commercially reasonable terms; or (ii) suspend or terminate its obligations to Customer under this Agreement whether with respect to the portion of such Agreement which relates thereto or with respect to the entire Agreement upon thirty (30) days written notice; or (iii) notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, increase the applicable fees or charges upon thirty (30) days written notice; or (iv) any combination of the foregoing. Property Insight will incur no liability to Customer with respect to any action or omission under this Section. In the event that Customer receives a notice pursuant to this Section substituting a service or increasing the price thereof, then Customer may terminate such service if it notifies Property Insight within thirty (30) days after receipt of notice from Property Insight regarding such service.

(d) Injury or Property Damage. Property Insight shall not be liable for injuries to any employees, guests or invitees of Customer nor for damage to property of Customer caused by the conditions of any Property Insight facility, except for injury or damage arising from Property Insight's gross negligence or willful misconduct. Customer agrees to neither hold nor attempt to hold Property Insight, its agents or employees liable for any injury or damage, either proximate or remote, occurring through or caused by any repairs, alterations, injury or accidents in or to the premises, or adjacent to the premises or in other parts of the premises in which Title Records are stored, accessed or located, whether by reason of the negligence or fault of Property Insight, another customer or any other person. Property Insight shall not be liable for any injury or damage occasioned by gas, smoke, rain, snow, wind, ice, hail, water, lightning, earthquakes, war, civil disorder, strike, defective electrical wiring or the breaking or stoppage of the plumbing or sewage upon or in the building or adjacent premises, whether the breakdown or stoppage results from freezing or otherwise and no matter how often injury or damage occurs

7. INDEMNIFICATION.

(a) Alleged Errors or Omissions. If Customer, or any customer of Customer or any other person claims or asserts that Property Insight or its Providers have any liability by reason of an error or omission in any information (including Title Records obtained from any Property Insight facility or via an on-line system) furnished to Customer by Property Insight or resulting from the use of any Service or deliverable, Customer agrees to indemnify and hold Property Insight, its affiliates and its Providers, and their respective directors, officers, employees and agents (the "Indemnified Parties") harmless from and against the claim or demand, including all costs, expenses, attorneys' fees and actual loss or losses incurred or sustained by reason of the claim or assertion.

(b) Personal Injury and Property Damage. Customer accepts the premises where the Title Records used by Customer are located and agrees to defend, indemnify and hold the Indemnified Parties harmless from any and all claims, damages, liabilities, losses or actions, including costs, expenses and attorneys' fees, arising out of actions or claims by employees, guests or invitees of Customer, by reason of death, injuries to person or damage to property arising out of or relating to use of such premises or use of any equipment located on such premises, except in instances where Property Insight has engaged in grossly negligent activities or willful misconduct.

(c) Other Matters; Violation of Law. Customer will indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Indemnified Parties, against and in respect to any and all claims, damages, liabilities, losses or actions, including costs, expenses and attorneys' fees, arising out of actions or claims which any Indemnified Party may at any time suffer, incur, or become subject to as a result of or in connection with any of the following: (i) the inaccuracy of any representation made by Customer; (ii) Customer's breach of, or failure to perform, any of Its warranties, covenants, promises, or obligations arising under this Agreement; or (iii) Customer's violation of any Federal, State or local law or regulation; except in instances where Property Insight has engaged in grossly negligent activities or willful misconduct.

(d) Procedures. When a claim or assertion is made, Property Insight agrees to promptly give notice to Customer. Customer shall have the right, if it so elects, to provide for the defense of Property Insight, in any action or litigation based upon or involving the claim or assertion, by counsel of Customer's own choosing, and approved in writing by Property Insight, at Customer's own expense and to pursue litigation to final determination. Customer shall also have the right, whether or not any action or litigation results, to compromise or settle the claim on behalf of Property Insight but at the sole cost of Customer.

8. GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

(a) Force Majeure. If at any time either party to the Agreement is prevented from performance when due (other than performance consisting of payment of money) by a disaster such as or resulting from flood, hurricane, cyclone, earthquake, fire or other event commonly referred to as an Act of God, causing extensive destruction or damage; or by acts of war, riot, unlawful assembly, strikes, explosions, peaceful protest gatherings or other similar events causing or accompanied by a lack of access or extensive destruction; so that it is impossible or unreasonably difficult for that party to perform, then its failure to perform when performance is due shall be deemed excused. Provided, however, that party must take all reasonable steps to remedy its non-performance or delay in performance with the least possible delay, and by doing whatever may reasonably be done to mitigate the adverse effect of its non-performance upon the other party to this Agreement.

(b) Dispute Resolution. If either party institutes an action against the other party for breach of this Agreement, at Property Insight's option, arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the Rules of Commercial Arbitration of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"). The arbitration shall be conducted in Los Angeles by a single arbitrator. If the parties have not agreed to a mutually acceptable arbitrator within thirty (30) days of the date of the notice to arbitrate, the arbitrator shall be selected by the AAA from its regularly maintained list of commercial arbitrators familiar with matters similar to the subject of this Agreement. The arbitrator shall conduct a single hearing for the purpose of receiving evidence and shall render a decision within thirty (30) days of the conclusion of the hearing. The parties shall be entitled to require production of documents prior to the hearing in accordance with the procedures of the Federal Rule of Civil Procedure, shall exchange a list of witnesses, and shall be entitled to conduct up to five (5) depositions in accordance with the procedures of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The decision of the arbitrator shall be binding and final. The arbitrator may award only compensatory damages, and not exemplary or punitive damages. In the event a party asserts multiple claims or causes of action, some but not all of which are subject to arbitration under law, any and all claims subject to arbitration shall be submitted to arbitration in accordance with this provision.

(c) Attorneys' Fees and Costs. If either party institutes an action against the other party for breach of this Agreement, the successful party shall be entitled to recover costs, expenses and attorneys' fees as the court (or if applicable, the arbitrator) directs.

(d) Interpretation. This Agreement is to be construed under the laws of the State of California; provided that the Services will be performed in accordance with the laws of the State where such Services are performed. If any one or more of the terms, provisions, promises, covenants or conditions of this Agreement, or their application to any person, corporation, other business entity, or circumstance is to any extent adjudged invalid, unenforceable, void or voidable for any reason whatsoever by a court of competent jurisdiction, each and all of the remaining terms, provisions, promises, covenants and conditions of this Agreement and their application to other persons, corporations, business entities, or circumstances shall not be affected and shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law. This Agreement shall not be construed against the party preparing it, but shall be construed as if all parties prepared this Agreement. The headings of each section and paragraph are to assist in reference only and are not to be used in the interpretation of this Agreement. Nothing contained in this Agreement is to be deemed to constitute an association, partnership or joint liability between the parties. The parties have no intention or thought to agree between themselves, or even to confer together, as to fees or premiums to be charged by them to their customers, or as to any other processes or practices of either party.

(e) Assignment or Transfer. This Agreement cannot be assigned, in whole or in part, by Customer without the prior written consent of Property Insight, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. If Customer's rights and benefits in this Agreement are transferred in whole or in part by involuntary method, or by operation of law, Property Insight shall have the right to terminate this Agreement if the result is not satisfactory to Property Insight. Any assignment in contravention of this Section shall be void. Property Insight may assign the Agreement to any affiliated company by providing 30 day notice to the Customer.

(f) Benefit. This Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. This Agreement is solely for the benefit of the parties hereto and no third party will have the right or claim to the benefits afforded either party hereunder.

(g) Compliance with Laws and Regulations. Customer agrees to use information received from Property Insight in compliance with all applicable Federal, State and local laws and regulations, including without limitation, the Federal Credit Reporting Act (U.S.C.A. Title 15, Chapter 41, Subchapter III), as amended from time to time.

(h) Survival. Following the expiration or termination of this Agreement, whether by its terms, operation of law or otherwise, all terms, provisions or conditions required for the interpretation of this Agreement or necessary for the full observation and performance by each party hereto of all rights and obligations arising prior to the date of expiration or termination, shall survive such expiration or termination.

(i) Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties pertaining to the subject contained in it and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, both oral and written, representations and understandings of the parties. No supplement, modification, or amendment of this Agreement shall be binding unless executed in writing by the parties. No waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement is to be considered a waiver of any other provision, whether or not similar, nor is any waiver to constitute a continuing waiver. No waiver shall be binding unless set forth in a writing executed by the party making the waiver. This Agreement may be executed simultaneously in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

(j) Schedules. Each of the Schedules, Addenda and Exhibits attached to this Agreement (initially or by way of amendment) are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.

(k) Notices. All written notices permitted or required to be given under this Agreement may be personally delivered to the office of the other party(s), or shipped via a nationally recognized overnight courier service, or mailed to the office of the other party(s) by Certified United States Mail. Each notice shall be addressed to the address set forth under the party's signature. Any notice delivered hereunder will be effective on the date delivered when delivered personally or by overnight courier, or on the third business day after mailing if mailed by Certified United States Mail. Either party may, by written notice to the other via first class mail, change its address for notices.

TITLE PLANT MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT

This TITLE PLANT MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") dated as of May 17, 2005 is entered into between PROPERTY INSIGHT, LLC, a California limited liability company with its principal place of business at 601 Riverside Avenue, Jacksonville, FL 32204 ("PI"); and TICOR TITLE INSURANCE COMPANY OF FLORIDA (formerly known as American Pioneer Title Insurance Company), a Florida-domiciled title insurance company with its principal place of business at 601 Riverside Avenue, Jacksonville, FL 32204 ("TICOR-FL").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, TICOR-FL is a direct or indirect subsidiary of Fidelity National Financial, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("FNF"); and

WHEREAS, PI is a direct or indirect subsidiary of Fidelity National Information Services, a Delaware corporation ("FNIS"); and

WHEREAS, TICOR-FL is engaged in the title insurance business, including searching and examining titles to real property, and issuing or causing to be issued policies of title insurance insuring interests in real property; and

WHEREAS, in connection with its business, TICOR-FL is the owner of several 'title plants', with each title plant consisting of a collection of data, images, and/or indices, including indices of land records and copies of Official Records, and other materials and databases, relating to a particular geographic area; and

WHEREAS, certain of the title plants owned by TICOR-FL are more particularly described on the applicable schedule relating to such title plant attached to EXHIBIT A (the "Title Plants"); and

WHEREAS, TICOR-FL desires to retain PI to provide the management, sales and other services (as more fully described herein and on EXHIBIT B) for each of the Title Plants, as well as for the systems, intellectual property and software used by TICOR-FL in connection with the Title Plants; and PI is willing to provide such services, subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, as of the Effective Date (as defined in Section 10.12); and

WHEREAS, as permitted by the terms and conditions of this Agreement, it is anticipated that from time to time PI will introduce TICOR-FL to third parties who desire to access one or more of the Title Plants (including competitors of TICOR-FL);

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties, intending to be legally bound hereby, agree as follows:

ARTICLE I.
RETENTION FOR MANAGEMENT SERVICES; PAYMENT FOR SERVICES

Section 1.01 Retention of PI. As of the Effective Date, TICOR-FL hereby retains PI to provide the services described in Section 2.01 (the "Services") and on EXHIBIT B for the benefit of the Title Plants described in EXHIBIT A; and PI hereby accepts such retention as to each of the Title Plants that are described in EXHIBIT A, all in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, the parties acknowledge that PI may use employees, independent contractors or consultants to provide the Services.

Section 1.02 Payment for Management Services. So long as this Agreement is in effect and PI is providing the management and maintenance services described in Section 2.01 and EXHIBIT B, then on or before the 15th day of each calendar month, TICOR-FL shall pay to PI a management fee equal to 20% of the actual costs incurred by TICOR-FL in the updating of the Title Plants, purging of the title records, and maintaining and processing of the Title Plants, including without limitation their related systems, intellectual property and software, during the immediately preceding calendar month. Without limiting the foregoing, the parties agree that the minimum monthly management fees payable hereunder shall be not less than $100,000 per month, and to the extent that management fees for any calendar month are less than $100,000, then TICOR-FL shall pay to PI $100,000 for such month's management fee.

Section 1.03 Commissions from Sales to Third Party Customers. For so long as this Agreement is in effect, PI shall be paid a commission of 7.5% per annum on the aggregate gross revenues received by TICOR-FL from all Title Plant access fees paid by Third Party Customers that become customers of TICOR-FL through the sales efforts of PI, as contemplated by Section 2.01(c) (as so calculated, the "Commission"). In addition, if this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Sections 8.01(b) or (j), then PI shall continue to be paid the Commission (calculated on the then aggregate gross revenues from such Title Plant access fees) during the 2-year period immediately following the effective date of such termination. Commission payments hereunder shall be made on or before the 25th day of each calendar month for the aggregate gross revenues received by TICOR-FL from all Title Plant access fees paid by such Third Party Customers during the immediately preceding calendar month.

Section 1.04 Payments in General. All payments hereunder shall be in immediately available funds in lawful US currency. PI shall provide TICOR-FL with wire transfer or other payment instructions for the management fee and/or commissions (including the Commissions).

ARTICLE II.
THE SERVICES

Section 2.01 PI Services. During the term of this Agreement, and subject to the terms and conditions hereof, PI shall provide (or cause to be provided) all of the services described in this Section 2.01 and more particularly specified on EXHIBIT B; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall obligate PI to maintain, or otherwise cause PI to have responsibility or liability for the maintenance of, the Title Plants, it being understood that PI's Services hereunder are limited to managing the Title Plant Employees (as hereinafter defined) and maintaining the Title Plant Equipment (as hereinafter defined) in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Without limiting or expanding the foregoing and as a non-contractual commitment, the parties acknowledge that (i) the management objective of these services is to maintain each of the Title Plants in such a manner that it will be current, accurate and accessible according to industry standards, so as to provide title data for the geographic areas covered by the Title Plants, and (ii) the title plant updating and maintenance services being provided by the former Aptitude Solutions Division of TICOR-FL (the "Division") as of the Effective Date are of a nature and quality that satisfies these objectives.

(a) Managing Title Plant Employees and Title Plant Maintenance Process. PI agrees to oversee and supervise (x) all of the TICOR-FL employees whose job descriptions and functions relate primarily to the updating of the Title Plants, purging the title records, and maintenance of the title plants (individually, a "Title Plant Employee" and collectively, the "Title Plant Employees"), and (y) the title plant updating, title records purging and title data maintenance process (the "Title Plant Maintenance Process"), such oversight and supervision to be as more fully described on EXHIBIT B, including without limitation the management of TICOR-FL's computer and database systems, the creation of back-up/disaster recovery procedures and sites, and implementation of appropriate architecture. PI shall monitor and oversee the Title Plant Maintenance Process, with the objective of making and keeping it functioning properly and efficiently. It is understood by the parties that the services to be provided hereunder include (but are not limited to) infrastructure planning and implementation work by PI for TICOR-FL. It is anticipated that PI may make recommendations to TICOR-FL from time to time as to improvements or additional processes to be included in the Title Plant Maintenance Process, which recommendation will be considered by TICOR-FL.

(b) Management and Maintenance of Current Equipment and Software. During the term of this Agreement, PI shall be responsible for managing and maintaining the computer hardware and software systems and other intellectual property utilized by TICOR-FL in its title plant business, including, without limitation, all telephone and communication equipment (such as routers, servers, etc.) utilized by TICOR-FL (collectively, the "Title Plant Equipment"). PI shall maintain the Title Plant Equipment in the same condition (ordinary wear and tear excepted) and to the same quality standards as was applicable to the Title Plant Equipment during the 6-month period immediately prior to the date of this Agreement. Without limiting the services to be provided herein, PI acknowledges that, unless otherwise provided in this Agreement or agreed in writing by the parties, PI has no ownership right, title or interest in the Title Plant Equipment, including any and all source code, object code and/or compiled code that may be used in connection with constructing, processing, extracting or manipulating the Title Plants.

(c) Sales and Solicitation of Third Party Title Plant Customers. So long as this Agreement is in effect, TICOR-FL hereby appoints PI as its exclusive sales agent to identify and solicit third parties (including competitors of TICOR-FL) who may have an interest in accessing the Title Plants ("Title Plant Customers"). Subject to the provisions and limitations set forth herein, PI may use all reasonable business means to solicit Title Plant Customers. PI shall be compensated for its sales and solicitation efforts through payment of Commissions as more fully described in Section 1.03.

Section 2.02 Obligations of TICOR-FL.

(i) Exclusive Use of PI Services. With respect to the Services hereunder that PI will provide to TICOR-FL as of the Effective Date, TICOR-FL (for itself, including any businesses that become part of TICOR-FL from time to time) agrees to use PI exclusively for Services for the Title Plants at all times during the applicable term of this Agreement, subject in all cases to the termination provisions set forth in Article VIII. Without limiting the foregoing, TICOR-FL agrees that PI shall be the exclusive representative and sales agent of TICOR-FL to third parties interested in obtaining access to TICOR-FL's title plants, and TICOR-FL agrees to use reasonable business efforts to cooperate with PI in such sales efforts.

(ii) Other Service Arrangements. In addition, TICOR-FL agrees that, so long as Services are being provided to it hereunder, to the extent that (A) TICOR-FL determines to enter into a service arrangement with any other party (other than a direct subsidiary of TICOR-FL) to manage any other title plants that are currently owned or may hereafter be acquired by TICOR-FL, and (B) the service levels and pricing (including royalties) offered by PI for such title plant management services are as good as or better than the service levels and pricing offered by such other party, if requested by PI, TICOR-FL agrees to obtain such services from PI exclusively. If the service levels or pricing terms offered by PI for title plant management services for additional title plants pursuant to this Section 2.03(a) are not as good or better than those offered by the other applicable party and if TICOR-FL has otherwise complied with the provisions of this Section 2.03(a), then nothing contained herein shall restrict or limit the ability of TICOR-FL to enter into any service arrangement with another party to manage, update or maintain its title plants.

ARTICLE III. PERFORMANCE OF SERVICES GENERALLY

Section 3.01 Performance of Services. PI and TICOR-FL shall perform their respective obligations hereunder with the same degree of care, skill, and prudence customarily exercised for their own operations, it being understood and agreed that, unless and until otherwise agreed by TICOR-FL, the Services provided to TICOR-FL will be of a nature and quality reasonably comparable to the Services performed by the Division during the fiscal year immediately prior to the execution of this Agreement.

Section 3.02 Use of Services. The parties agree to perform and use the Services in accordance with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, rules, regulations, and tariffs and in accordance with reasonable conditions, rules, regulations and specifications which are or may be set forth in any manuals, materials, documents, or instructions from the other parties, as applicable. Each party reserves the right to take all actions in order to ensure that the Services are provided in accordance with any applicable laws, rules, regulations, and tariffs.

Section 3.03 Authority. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, each party to this Agreement will retain discretion, control, and management over its respective business, including, without limitation, (i) oversight and management, (ii) formulation and implementation of policy decisions, (iii) supervision of the employment of personnel, and (iv) payment of all financial obligations.

Section 3.04 Working Committee. Within 10 days following the effectiveness of this Agreement, the parties shall establish a title plant working committee who shall be empowered and authorized to work together to mutually agree to adjust and/or refine (including additions or deletions) the specific services to be provided hereunder, and whose members shall include one representative from each of the parties to this Agreement. The working committee shall meet from time to time as necessitated by the operation of this Agreement.

Section 3.05 Officers and Directors. Nothing herein shall be construed to restrict the officers and directors of PI or TICOR-FL in the performance of their respective duties or limit the exercise of their powers as prescribed by law or otherwise.

ARTICLE IV. LIMITED LICENSE OF TITLE PLANTS AND RELATED SOFTWARE

Section 4.01 License to Use Title Plant Assets and Software.

(a) Grant of Title Plant License. Solely to the extent necessary in connection with the performance of the Services hereunder, TICOR-FL hereby grants to PI, a limited, revocable, terminable, non-transferable, and nonexclusive worldwide license (the "Title Plant License") to use, exploit, sell services from, operate, display, copy (for internal use only), and access the Title Plants and the Title Plant Equipment, but without any right to copy, reproduce or sublicense.

(b) Grant of Software License. Solely to the extent necessary in connection with the performance of the Services hereunder, TICOR-FL hereby grants to PI, a limited, revocable, terminable, non-transferable, and nonexclusive worldwide license (the "Software License") to use, exploit, sell services from, operate, display and access all of the software, software programs, and software systems that are currently used by TICOR-FL, either directly or through the Division (the "Software"), as more fully identified on EXHIBIT A, but without any right to copy, reproduce or sublicense. All right, title and interest, including copyright, in the derivative works created by or at the direction of PI, as between PI and TICOR-FL, shall be owned by PI.

Section 4.02 Limitation of License. The parties acknowledge that, as to each of the Title Plants and the Software, no right of ownership therein is transferred to PI by the terms of this Agreement. As between the parties hereto, TICOR-FL retains ownership of and all rights of any kind whatsoever in the Title Plants and the Software, including without limitation, rights in data structures, data, written documentation, and all other attributes of any kind, whether such rights are granted by the law of the United States or any state in the United States, including common law, the law of any other national or international jurisdiction, or by international treaty or convention.

ARTICLE V.
CONFIDENTIALITY

Section 5.01 Confidential Treatment. Each party hereto may from time to time be provided with or have access to information that is confidential and proprietary to the other party hereto. Accordingly, each party agrees that (i) it will not reveal such information or any of it, that is not otherwise generally available to the public, to a third party without the prior written consent of the other party, except as may be permitted by the grant of the sublicensing rights described above or as required by law or as necessary to perform obligations or enforce rights hereunder; (ii) that such information will be distributed only to those of its own employees and officers and agents who have a reasonable need for it in order to carry out the purposes of and exercise its rights under this Agreement; (iii) that such information will not be used in any manner except for the purpose provided; and (iv) that upon termination of this Agreement, all documents containing such confidential or proprietary information upon request will be returned promptly to the party to which such information belongs. Each party shall take such steps as are reasonably necessary to protect the confidential or proprietary information of the other. For purposes hereof, confidential or proprietary information shall include, among other things, customer lists and other customer information, and financial, technical, and business information relating to one party and provided by such party to the other, including without limitation any of the Title Plants, and the Proprietary Systems.

ARTICLE VI.
RELATIONSHIP OF PARTIES

Section 6.01 Independent Contractors. Each of the parties hereto is an independent contractor acting for its own account and is not authorized to make any commitment or representation on the other's behalf unless authorized in writing.

Section 6.02 Competition. None of the parties shall have a duty to the other party to refrain from engaging in the business of providing services similar or identical to the business of the other party, nor shall either party have a duty to the other party to refrain from engaging in the business of providing services similar or identical to the Services hereunder to third parties.

ARTICLE VII.
DISCLAIMER AND LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY

Section 7.01 Limitations of Liability. THE LIABILITY OF EITHER PARTY FOR A CLAIM ASSERTED BY THE OTHER PARTY BASED ON A BREACH OF ANY COVENANT UNDER, AGREEMENT IN, OR UNDERTAKING REQUIRED BY, THIS AGREEMENT SHALL NOT EXCEED, IN THE AGGREGATE, AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO THE "MAXIMUM LIABILITY AMOUNT" (AS HEREINAFTER DEFINED) CALCULATED FOR THE FISCAL YEAR (SUBJECT TO THE LAST TWO SENTENCES OF THIS SECTION) IMMEDIATELY PRIOR TO THE YEAR IN WHICH SUCH LIABILITY ARISES; PROVIDED THAT THE MAXIMUM LIABILITY AMOUNT SHALL NOT BE APPLICABLE IN RESPECT OF ANY CLAIMS BASED ON A PARTY'S (i) GROSS NEGLIGENCE, (ii) WILLFUL MISCONDUCT, (iii) IMPROPER USE OR DISCLOSURE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, (iv) VIOLATIONS OF LAW, OR (v) INFRINGEMENT

OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS OF A PERSON OR ENTITY WHO IS NOT A PARTY HERETO OR THE SUBSIDIARY OF A PARTY HERETO. For purposes hereof, "Maximum Liability Amount" means, for any fiscal year, the amount equal to 4% of the aggregate annual gross amount of fees and commissions (including the Commissions) that PI received from TICOR-FL pursuant to this Agreement in the immediately preceding calendar year. In the event that liability hereunder shall arise during the first 2 calendar years after the effectiveness of this Agreement, for purposes of calculating the Maximum Liability Amount, the aggregate annual gross amount of fees and commissions that PI received from TICOR-FL for such year shall be equal to the product of (x) the average monthly gross amount of fees and commissions (including the Commissions) that PI received from TICOR-FL for the entire period immediately prior to the date on which such liability arises, multiplied by (y) 12.

Section 7.02 Disclaimer of Liability. NONE OF THE PARTIES HERETO SHALL BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY FOR ANY SPECIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, DAMAGES FOR LOSS OF BUSINESS PROFITS, BUSINESS INTERRUPTION, LOSS OF BUSINESS INFORMATION OR OTHER PECUNIARY LOSSES, OR DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF LITIGATION OR GOVERNMENTAL INVESTIGATION, OR ARISING FROM THIS AGREEMENT OR THE USE OR INABILITY TO USE ANY OF THE TITLE PLANTS, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY THEREOF, WHETHER FORESEEN OR UNFORESEEN, FORESEEABLE OR UNFORESEEABLE. THE FOREGOING LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY SHALL APPLY REGARDLESS OF THE CAUSE OF ACTION UNDER WHICH SUCH DAMAGES ARE SOUGHT, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, BREACH OF CONTRACT, NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY, OR OTHER TORT.

ARTICLE VIII. TERM AND TERMINATION

Section 8.01 Term and Termination. Unless sooner terminated in accordance with the provisions hereof, this Agreement shall continue in effect. The obligation to provide Services under this Agreement may be terminated by any of the following means (it being understood that, notwithstanding any termination of the obligation to provide the Services, the Licenses may be terminated only as provided in Section 8.02):

(a) at any time by mutual agreement of the parties hereto, in which event the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement shall terminate as of the date specified by the parties;

(b) at any time by PI, if TICOR-FL breaches any material warranty or fails to perform any material obligation hereunder, and such breach is not remedied within 30 days after written notice thereof to TICOR-FL that is in default, in which event the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement shall terminate on the 20th business day following the expiration of such 30-day cure period; provided that if the breach or default is of a nature that it cannot reasonably be cured within a 30-day period and TICOR-FL is actively pursuing a cure in good faith, then no default shall be deemed to have occurred so long as the default is cured as promptly as reasonably possible and in any event prior to the first anniversary of the occurrence of such default;

(c) at any time by TICOR-FL, if PI breaches any material warranty or fails to perform any material Service obligation owing hereunder, and such breach is not remedied within 30 days after written notice thereof to PI, in which event the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement shall terminate on the 20th business day following the expiration of such 30-day cure period; provided that if the breach or default is of a nature that it cannot reasonably be cured within a 30-day period and PI is actively pursuing a cure in good faith, then no default shall be deemed to have occurred so long as the default is cured as promptly as reasonably possible and in any event prior to the first anniversary of the occurrence of such default;

(d) by PI, upon 12 months' prior written notice to TICOR-FL, if TICOR-FL shall admit in writing its inability to, or be generally unable to, pay its debts as such debts become due, or shall (1) apply for or consent to the appointment of, or the taking of possession by, a receiver, custodian, trustee, examiner or liquidator of itself or of all or a substantial part of its property or assets, (2) make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors, (3) commence a voluntary case under the federal Bankruptcy Code, (4) file a petition seeking to take advantage of any other law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, liquidation, dissolution, arrangement or winding-up, or composition or readjustment of debts, (5) fail to controvert in a timely and appropriate manner, or acquiesce in writing to, any petition filed against it in an involuntary case under the Bankruptcy Code or (6) take any company action for the purpose of effecting any of the foregoing, in which event the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement shall terminate immediately;

(e) at any time by TICOR-FL, if PI shall admit in writing its inability to, or be generally unable to, pay its debts as such debts become due, or shall (1) apply for or consent to the appointment of, or the taking of possession by, a receiver, custodian, trustee, examiner or liquidator of itself or of all or a substantial part of its property or assets, (2) make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors, (3) commence a voluntary case under the federal Bankruptcy Code, (4) file a petition seeking to take advantage of any other law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, liquidation, dissolution, arrangement or winding-up, or composition or readjustment of debts, (5) fail to controvert in a timely and appropriate manner, or acquiesce in writing to, any petition filed against it in an involuntary case under the Bankruptcy Code or (6) take any company action for the purpose of effecting any of the foregoing, in which event the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement shall terminate immediately;

(f) by the receiver, rehabilitator, liquidator or similar individual or entity that is acting on behalf of TICOR-FL, its policyholders, or the Office of Insurance Regulation of the State of Florida, upon 12 months' prior written notice to PI, if TICOR-FL shall (1) apply for or consent to the appointment of, or the taking of possession by, a receiver, custodian, trustee, examiner or liquidator of itself or of all or a substantial part of its property or assets, or (2) file a petition seeking to take advantage of any other law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, liquidation, dissolution, arrangement or winding-up, or composition or readjustment of debts;

(g) by PI, upon 5 years' prior written notice to TICOR-FL, which notice may not be delivered prior to the 5th anniversary of the Effective Date;

(h) by TICOR-FL, upon 5 years' prior written notice to PI, which notice may not be delivered prior to the 5th anniversary of the Effective Date;

(i) at any time by TICOR-FL if there has been a change in control of PI; it being understood, that for purposes of this provision, "change of control" means a reorganization, merger, share (or LLC ownership interest) exchange or consolidation, or sale or other disposition of more than 50% of the LLC ownership interests in, or all or substantially all of the assets or business of, PI, other than a transaction in which no person or entity, other than FNIS or an entity controlled by FNIS, will have beneficial ownership, directly or indirectly, of 50% or more of the LLC ownership interests of PI or of the power to appoint the LLC manager(s) or vote in the election of directors; or

(j) by TICOR-FL, upon 6 months' prior written notice to PI, if there has been a change in control of TICOR-FL; it being understood, that for purposes of this provision, "change of control" means a reorganization, merger, share exchange or consolidation, or sale or other disposition of more than 50% of the voting capital stock in, or all or substantially all of the assets or business of, TICOR-FL, other than a transaction in which no person or entity, other than FNF or an entity controlled by FNF, will have beneficial ownership, directly or indirectly, of 50% or more of the voting capital stock of TICOR-FL or of the power to vote the election of directors.

Section 8.02 Effect of Termination.

(a) Services and Licenses. Upon termination of the obligation to provide Services or as to PI under this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.01 (the date on which the termination of the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement is effective being the "Service Termination Date"), then the obligations of the terminating or terminated party hereunder (except to the extent set forth in Section 8.03) shall immediately cease; and the Licenses granted to PI pursuant to Article IV shall terminate, provided that, notwithstanding the Service Termination Date, Commission payments shall continue to be due and owing as provided in Section 1.03; it being understood that after the Service Termination Date, PI shall not solicit on behalf of TICOR-FL for any additional Third Party Customers for access to any of the Title Plants; provided, however, that if the termination is pursuant to Section 8.01(a), then the Licenses granted to PI pursuant to Article IV shall be effective or shall terminate as per the agreement of the parties in connection with such termination.

(b) Return of Title Plants Records. If the obligation to provide Services under this Agreement has been terminated then, within 2 business days of the date on which such termination is effective, PI shall return to TICOR-FL all copies of the books and records and other information (including all title plants and software), if any, obtained or made available to PI during the course of its services under this Agreement.

Section 8.03 Survival. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Section 1.03 (Commissions), Article IV (License of Title Plants and Related Software), Article V (Confidentiality), Article VII (Disclaimer and Limitations of Liability) and this Article VIII (Term and Termination) shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE IX.
DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Section 9.01 Amicable Resolution. The parties mutually desire that friendly collaboration will continue between them. Accordingly, they will try to resolve in an amicable manner all disagreements and misunderstandings connected with their respective rights and obligations under this Agreement, including any amendments hereto. In furtherance thereof, in the event of any dispute or disagreement (a "Dispute") between the parties in connection with this Agreement (including, without limitation, any use of the Licenses or the termination of the licenses granted hereby), then the Dispute, upon written request of either party, will be referred for resolution to the Division Presidents of the parties, who will have ten (10) days to resolve such Dispute.

Section 9.02 Mediation. In the event any Dispute cannot be resolved in a friendly manner as set forth in Section 9.01, the parties intend that such Dispute be resolved by mediation. If the Division Presidents of the parties are unable to resolve the Dispute as contemplated by Section 9.01, either party may demand mediation of the Dispute by written notice to the other parties in which case the parties will select a single mediator within ten (10) days after the demand. No party may unreasonably withhold consent to the selection of the mediator. Each party will bear its own costs of mediation but the parties will share the costs of the mediator 50/50. The mediator will have twenty (20) days from the date of referral to resolve any Dispute.

Section 9.03 Arbitration. In the event that the Dispute is not resolved pursuant to Section 9.01 or through mediation pursuant to Section 9.02, the latter within thirty (30) days of the submission of the Dispute to mediation, either party may submit the dispute to binding arbitration pursuant to this Section 9.03. All Disputes submitted to arbitration pursuant to this Section 9.03 shall be resolved in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association, unless the parties involved mutually agree to utilize an alternate set of rules, in which event all references herein to the American Arbitration Association shall be deemed modified accordingly. Expedited rules shall apply regardless of the amount at issue. Arbitration proceedings hereunder may be initiated by either party by making a written request to the American Arbitration Association, together with any appropriate filing fee, at the office of the American Arbitration Association in Orlando, Florida. All arbitration proceedings shall be held in the city of Jacksonville, Florida in a location to be specified by the arbitrators (or any place agreed to by the parties and the arbitrators). The arbitration shall be by a single qualified arbitrator experienced in the matters at issue, such arbitrator to be mutually agreed upon by the parties. If the parties fail to agree on an arbitrator thirty (30) days after notice of commencement of arbitration, the American Arbitration Association shall, upon the request of either party to the dispute or difference, appoint the arbitrator. Any order or determination of the arbitral tribunal shall be final and binding upon the parties to the arbitration as to matters submitted and may be enforced by either party to the Dispute in any court having jurisdiction over the subject matter or over either of the parties. All costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such arbitration proceeding (including reasonable attorneys' fees) shall be borne by the party incurring such costs. The use of any alternative dispute resolution procedures hereunder will not be construed under the doctrines of laches, waiver or estoppel to affect adversely the rights of either party.

Section 9.04 Commencement of Dispute Resolution Procedure. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the parties are entitled to commence a dispute resolution procedure under this Agreement, whether pursuant to this Article IX or otherwise.

ARTICLE X. MISCELLANEOUS

Section 10.01 Non-Exclusive Remedy. The parties acknowledge and agree that money damages would not be a sufficient remedy for any breach of this Agreement by either party or misuse of the Title Plants or the Software or any confidential information of either party. Accordingly, nothing in Article IX or this Article X will prevent either party from immediately seeking injunctive or interim relief in such event. All actions for such injunctive or interim relief shall be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction. In addition, the rights and remedies of the parties provided in this Agreement shall not be exclusive and are in addition to any other rights and remedies provided at law or in equity.

Section 10.02 Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the successors and assigns of the parties hereto. Neither of the parties may assign its respective rights and obligations under this Agreement to any other person or entity without the prior written consent of the other party hereto. Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, the parties hereto intend that this Agreement shall not benefit or create any right or cause of action in or on behalf of any person other than the parties hereto.

Section 10.03 No Agency. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as making either party the agent of the other or as creating a partnership, joint venture or similar arrangement. As among the parties, each party shall be responsible for the payment of compensation to its employees and those of its subsidiaries, for any injury to them in the course of their employment, and for withholding or payment of all federal, state and local taxes or contributions imposed or required under unemployment insurance, social security and income tax laws with respect to such persons.

Section 10.04 Notices. All notices and other communications required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing (including telefax) and shall be delivered personally, delivered by facsimile transmission (with confirmation of receipt immediately thereafter by telephone), sent by nationally recognized overnight courier (marked for overnight delivery), addressed to the parties at the address appearing on the first page of this Agreement or to such other address as may be hereafter designated in writing hereunder by the respective parties. Each party shall promptly advise the other in writing of any change of address.

Section 10.05 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held illegal or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, such provision shall be deemed separable from the remaining provisions of this Agreement and shall not affect or impair the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement. The parties hereto agree to replace any such illegal or unenforceable provision that has the most nearly similar permissible economic or other effect.

Section 10.06 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of California, without regard to its conflicts of law principles.

Section 10.07 No Waiver. The failure of either party to enforce, in any one or more instances, any of the terms or conditions of the Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of the future performance of any such term or condition.

Section 10.08 Force Majeure. No party shall be liable for its failure to perform any of its obligations hereunder during any period in which such performance is directly delayed by the occurrence of events beyond the control of the failing party such as fire, explosion, flood, storm or the acts of God, war, acts of terrorism, embargo, riot, or the intervention of any government authority, provided that the party suffering the delay immediately notifies the other parties of the delay.

Section 10.09 Entire Agreement; Amendment. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the parties concerning the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior oral and written understandings and agreements between the parties relating hereto. This Agreement may not be modified except in a writing signed by the authorized representatives of the parties hereto.

Section 10.10 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

Section 10.11 Title 11. Each of the licenses granted hereunder are, for all purposes of Section 365(n) of Title 11 of the United States Code ("Title 11") and to the fullest extent permitted by law, a license of rights to "intellectual property" as defined in Title 11. All parties agree that the licensee of any rights under this Agreement shall retain and may fully exercise all of its applicable rights and elections under Title 11.

[signatures to follow]

Section 10.12 Effective Date. This Agreement shall be effective as of business day (the "Effective Date") following the day on which (i) all insurance regulatory approvals that are required are received and (ii) the prior notice period applicable to all filings made to applicable title insurance regulators has expired or been terminated or waived (by action of the regulator or otherwise).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused their respective duly authorized representatives to execute this Agreement as of the date first above written.

In no event may this Agreement be reproduced or copies shown to any third parties (except counsel, auditors and professional advisors) without the prior written consent of the other party, except as may be necessary by reason of legal, accounting, tax or regulatory requirements, in which event Licensee and RMSS agree to exercise reasonable diligence in limiting such disclosure to the minimum necessary under the particular circumstances.

10. DISPUTE RESOLUTION.

10.1 DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURES. If, prior to the termination of this Agreement or the license granted herein, and prior to notice of termination given by either party to the other, a dispute arises between RMSS and Licensee with respect to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, or any subject matter governed by this Agreement (other than disputes regarding a party's compliance with the provisions of Sections 3 and/or 6), such dispute shall be settled as set forth in this Section 10. If either party exercises its right to initiate the dispute resolution procedures under this Section 10, then during such procedure any time periods providing for termination of the Agreement or curing any material breach pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall be suspended automatically, except with respect to any termination or breach arising out of Licensee's failure to make any undisputed timely and complete payments to RMSS under this Agreement. At such time as the dispute is resolved, if such dispute involved the payment of monies, interest at a rate equal to the prime rate as published in the table money rates in the Wall Street Journal on the date the dispute is resolved (or the prior date on which the Wall Street Journal was published if not published on the date the dispute was resolved) plus one percent for the period of dispute shall be paid to the party entitled to receive the disputed monies to compensate for the lapsed time between the date such disputed amount originally was to have been paid (or was paid) through the date monies are paid (or repaid) in settlement of the dispute. Disputes arising under Sections 3 or 6 may be resolved by judicial recourse or in any other manner agreed by the parties.

10.2 ESCALATION PROCEDURES.

- (a) Each of the parties shall escalate and negotiate, in good faith, any claim or dispute that has not been satisfactorily resolved between the parties at the level where the issue is discovered and has immediate impact (excluding issues of title to work product, which shall be initially addressed at the general counsel level but otherwise pursuant to Section 10.2(b) following). To this end, each party shall escalate any and all unresolved disputes or claims in accordance with this Section 10.2 at any time to persons responsible for the administration of the relationship reflected in this Agreement. The location, format, frequency, duration and conclusion of these elevated discussions shall be left to the discretion of the representatives involved. If such parties do not resolve the underlying dispute within ten (10) Days of its escalation to them, then either party may notify the other in writing that he/she desires to elevate the dispute or claim to the President of RMSS and the President of Licensee or their designated representative(s) for resolution.
- (b) Upon receipt by a party of a written notice escalating the dispute to the company president level, the President of RMSS and the President of Licensee or their designated representative(s) shall promptly communicate with his/her counter party, negotiate in good faith and use reasonable efforts to resolve such dispute or claim. The location, format, frequency, duration and conclusion of these elevated discussions shall be left to the discretion of the representatives involved. Upon agreement, such representatives may utilize other alternative dispute resolution procedures to assist in the negotiations. If the parties have not resolved the dispute within ten (10) Days after receipt of the notice elevating the dispute to this level, either may once again escalate the dispute to binding arbitration.
- (c) All discussions and correspondence among the representatives for purposes of these negotiations shall be treated as Proprietary Information developed for purposes of settlement, exempt from discovery and production, which shall not be admissible in any subsequent proceedings between the parties. Documents identified in or provided with such communications, which are not prepared for purposes of the negotiations, are not so exempted and may, if otherwise admissible, be admitted in evidence in such subsequent proceeding.

10.3 ARBITRATION PROCEDURES. If a claim, controversy or dispute between the parties with respect to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, or any subject matter governed by this Agreement (and not otherwise excepted), has not been timely resolved pursuant to the foregoing escalation process, upon notice either party may initiate binding arbitration of the issue in accordance with the following procedures.

- (a) Either party may request arbitration by giving the other party written notice to such effect, which notice shall describe, in reasonable detail, the nature of the dispute, controversy or claim. Such arbitration shall be governed by the then current version of the Commercial Arbitration Rules and Mediation Procedures of the American Arbitration Association. The Arbitration will be conducted in Jacksonville, Florida in front of one mutually agreed upon arbitrator.
- (b) Each party shall bear its own fees, costs and expenses of the arbitration and its own legal expenses, attorneys' fees and costs of all experts and witnesses. Unless the award provides otherwise, the fees and expenses of the arbitration procedures, including the fees of the arbitrator or arbitrators, will be shared equally by the involved parties.
- (c) Any award rendered pursuant to such arbitration shall be final, conclusive and binding upon the parties, and any judgment thereon may be entered and enforced in any court of competent jurisdiction.

11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

11.1 EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT ARISING FROM GROSS NEGLIGENCE, WILLFUL MISCONDUCT, BY REASON OF AN INDEMNITY OBLIGATION HEREUNDER OR BY REASON OF A BREACH OF WARRANTY, EITHER PARTY'S LIABILITY FOR ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION WHETHER BASED IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE WHICH ARISES UNDER OR IS RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE LIMITED TO THE OTHER PARTY'S DIRECT OUT-OF-POCKET DAMAGES, ACTUALLY INCURRED, WHICH UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES SHALL EXCEED, IN THE AGGREGATE, THE AMOUNT PAID BY LICENSEE TO RMSS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT FOR THE 12-MONTH PERIOD IMMEDIATELY PRECEDING THE DATE THE CLAIM AROSE.

11.2 IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE FOR INDIRECT, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES OF ANY KIND WHATSOEVER OR THE CLAIMS OR DEMANDS MADE BY ANY THIRD PARTIES, WHETHER OR NOT IT HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

11.3 LICENSEE SOFTWARE. RMSS has no obligation or liability, either express or implied, with respect to the compatibility of RMSS Software with any other software unless provided or specified by RMSS including, but not limited to, Licensee software and/or Licensee-provided third party software.

12. INDEMNIFICATION.

12.1 PROPERTY DAMAGE. Subject to Section 11 hereof, each party agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the other and its officers, directors, employees, and affiliates (including, where applicable, each RMSS Subsidiary and Licensee affiliates), and agents from any and all liabilities, losses, costs, damages and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising from or in connection with the damage, loss (including theft) or destruction of any real property or tangible personal property of the indemnified party resulting from the actions or inactions of any employee, agent or subcontractor of the indemnifying party insofar as such damage arises out of or is ancillary to fulfilling its obligations under this Agreement and to the extent such damage is due to any negligence, breach of statutory duty, omission or default of the indemnifying party, its employees, agents or subcontractors.

12.2 INFRINGEMENT OF RMSS SOFTWARE. RMSS agrees to defend at its own expense, any claim or action brought by any third party against Licensee and/or against its officers, directors, and employees and affiliates, for actual or alleged infringement within the United States of any patent, copyright or other intellectual property right (including, but not limited to, misappropriation of trade secrets) based upon the RMSS Software (except to the extent such infringement claim is caused by a Licensee-specified Modification to the RMSS Software which could not have been made in a non-infringing manner) or caused by the combination of RMSS Software with software or hardware not provided, specified or approved by RMSS, or based upon the Third Party Software ("Indemnified RMSS Software"). Licensee, at its sole discretion and cost, may participate in the defense and all negotiations for its settlement or compromise. RMSS further agrees to indemnify and hold Licensee, its officers, directors, employees and affiliates harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, costs, damages, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) associated with any such claim or action incurred by Licensee. RMSS shall conduct and control the defense of any such claim or action and negotiations for its settlement or compromise, by the payment of money. RMSS shall give Licensee, and Licensee shall give RMSS, as appropriate, prompt written notice of any written threat, warning or notice of any such claim or action against RMSS or Licensee, as appropriate, or any other user or any supplier of components of the Indemnified RMSS Software, which could have an adverse impact on Licensee's use of same, provided RMSS or Licensee, as appropriate, knows of such claim or action. If in any such suit so defended, all or any part of the Indemnified RMSS Software (or any component thereof) is held to constitute an infringement or violation of any other party's intellectual property rights and is enjoined, RMSS shall at its sole option take one or more of the following actions at no additional cost to Licensee: (i) procure the right to continue the use of the same without material interruption for Licensee; (ii) replace the same with non-infringing software; (iii) modify said Indemnified RMSS Software so as to be non-infringing; or (iv) take back the infringing Indemnified RMSS Software and credit Licensee with an amount equal to its prepaid but unused license fees hereunder. The foregoing represents the sole and exclusive remedy of Licensee for infringement or alleged infringement.

13. FORCE MAJEURE, TIME OF PERFORMANCE AND INCREASED COSTS.

13.1 FORCE MAJEURE.

- (a) Neither party shall be held liable for any delay or failure in performance of its obligations under this Agreement from any cause which with the observation of reasonable care, could not have been avoided - which may include, without limitation, acts of civil or military authority, government regulations, government agencies, epidemics, war, terrorist acts, riots, insurrections, fires, explosions, earthquakes, nuclear accidents, floods, power blackouts affecting facilities (the "Affected Performance").
- (b) Upon the occurrence of a condition described in Section 13.1(a), the party whose performance is affected shall give written notice to the other party describing the Affected Performance, and the parties shall promptly confer, in good faith, to agree upon equitable, reasonable action to minimize the impact on both parties of such condition, including, without limitation, implementing disaster recovery procedures. The parties agree that the party whose performance is affected shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize the delay caused by the force majeure events and recommence the Affected Performance. If the delay caused by the force majeure event lasts for more than fifteen (15) Days, the parties shall negotiate an equitable amendment to this Agreement with respect to the Affected Performance. If the parties are unable to agree upon an equitable amendment within ten (10) Days after such fifteen (15)-Day period has expired, then either party shall be entitled to serve thirty (30) Days' notice of termination on the other party with respect to only such Affected Performance. The remaining portion of the Agreement that does not involve the Affected Performance shall continue in full force and effect. RMSS shall be entitled to be paid for that portion of the Affected Performance which it completed through the termination date.

13.2 TIME OF PERFORMANCE AND INCREASED COSTS. RMSS's time of performance under this Agreement shall be adjusted, if and to the extent reasonably necessary, in the event and to the extent that (i) Licensee fails to timely submit material data or materials in the prescribed form or in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement, (ii) Licensee fails to perform on a timely basis, the material functions or other responsibilities of Licensee described in this Agreement, (iii) Licensee or any governmental agency authorized to regulate or supervise Licensee makes any special request, which is affirmed by Licensee and/or compulsory on RMSS, which affects RMSS's normal performance schedule, or (iv) Licensee has modified the RMSS Software in a manner affecting RMSS's burden. In addition, if any of the above events occur, and such event results in an increased cost to RMSS, RMSS shall estimate such increased costs in writing in advance and, upon Licensee's approval, Licensee shall be required to pay any and all such reasonable, increased costs to RMSS upon documented expenditure, up to 110% of the estimate.

16.1 ASSIGNMENT. Except as set forth herein, neither party may sell, assign, convey, or transfer the licenses granted hereunder or any of such party's rights or interests, or delegate any of its obligations hereunder without the written consent of the other party. Any such consent shall be conditioned upon the understanding that this Agreement shall be binding upon the assigning party's successors and assigns. Either party may assign this Agreement to any Subsidiary that is not a Competitor except that the assigning party shall remain responsible for all obligations under this Agreement including the payment of fees. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, Licensee may not assign this Agreement to a Competitor.

16.2 SEVERABILITY. Provided Licensee retains quiet enjoyment of the RMSS Software, if any one or more of the provisions contained herein shall for any reason be held to be unenforceable in any respect under law, such unenforceability shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement, but this Agreement shall be construed as if such unenforceable provision or provisions had never been contained herein, provided that the removal of such offending term or provision does not materially alter the burdens or benefits of either of the parties under this Agreement or any Exhibit or Schedule, in which case the unenforceable portion shall be replaced by one that reflects the parties original intent as closely as possible while remaining enforceable.

- 16.3 THIRD PARTY BENEFICIARIES. Except as set forth herein, the provisions of this Agreement are for the benefit of the parties and not for any other person. Should any third party institute proceedings, this Agreement shall not provide any such person with any remedy, claim, liability, reimbursement, cause of action, or other right.
- 16.4 GOVERNING LAW; FORUM SELECTION; CONSENT OF JURISDICTION. This Agreement will be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of Florida, USA, without regard to principles of conflict of laws. The parties agree that the only circumstance in which disputes between them, not otherwise excepted from the resolution process described in Section 10, will not be subject to the provisions of Section 10 is where a party makes a good faith determination that a breach of the terms of this Agreement by the other party requires prompt and equitable relief. Each of the parties submits to the personal jurisdiction of any state or federal court sitting in Jacksonville, Florida with respect to such judicial proceedings. Each of the parties waives any defense of inconvenient forum to the maintenance of any action or proceeding so brought and waives any bond, surety or to other security that might be required of any party with respect thereto. Any party may make service on the other party by sending or delivering a copy of the process to the party to be served at the address set forth in Section 14 above. Nothing in this Section, however, shall affect the right of any party to serve legal process in any other manner permitted by law or in equity. Each party agrees that a final judgment in any action or proceeding so brought shall be conclusive and may be enforced by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law or in equity.
- 16.5 EXECUTED IN COUNTERPARTS. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same document.
- 16.6 CONSTRUCTION. The headings and numbering of sections in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not be construed to define or limit any of the terms or affect the scope, meaning or interpretation of this Agreement or the particular section to which they relate. This Agreement and the provisions contained herein shall not be construed or interpreted for or against any party because that party drafted or caused its legal representative to draft any of its provisions.
- 16.7 ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement, including the Exhibits and Schedules attached hereto and the agreements referenced herein constitute the entire agreement between the parties, and supersedes all prior oral or written agreements, representations, statements, negotiations, understandings, proposals, marketing brochures, correspondence and undertakings related thereto.

16.8 AMENDMENTS AND WAIVERS. This Agreement may be amended only by written agreement signed by duly authorized representatives of each party. No waiver of any provisions of this Agreement and no consent to any default under this Agreement shall be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by or on behalf of both parties. No course of dealing or failure of any party to strictly enforce any term, right or condition of this Agreement shall be construed as a waiver of such term, right or condition. Waiver by either party of any default by the other party shall not be deemed a waiver of any other default. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time prior to the Sale of FNIS (defined below) or any offering and sale to the public of any shares or equity securities of FNIS or any of its subsidiaries pursuant to a registration statement in the United States, this Agreement may not be amended without the prior written consent of Thomas H. Lee Equity Fund V, L.P. ("THL") and TPG Partners III, L.P. ("TPG") if such amendment would affect any of Sections 2.1, 3, 8, 12, 13.2, 16.10, Exhibit B, either party's limitation of liability, the term of the Agreement, RMSS' right to terminate or rights upon default by Licensee or a Licensee Subsidiary, in any manner materially adverse to the consolidated business activities of the FNIS Group (defined below), taken as a whole, or FNIS Group's costs of doing business, viewed on a consolidated basis, provided that in no event shall any change to the schedules hereto require such prior written consent unless such change would materially and adversely affect in any manner FNIS Group's consolidated business activities, taken as a whole, or FNIS Group's costs of doing business, viewed on a consolidated basis, and provided, further, that in no event shall the amendment provisions set forth in this Section 16.8 be amended or modified without the consent of THL and TPG. THL and TPG are intended third party beneficiaries of this Agreement solely with respect to this Section 16.8. "Sale of FNIS" means an acquisition by any Person (within the meaning of Section 3(a)(9) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") and used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) thereof ("Person")) of Beneficial Ownership (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act) of 50% or more of either the then outstanding shares of FNIS common stock or the combined voting power of the then outstanding voting securities of FNIS entitled to vote generally in the election of directors; excluding, however, the following: (i) any acquisition directly from FNIS, other than an acquisition by virtue of the exercise of a conversion privilege unless the security being so converted was itself acquired directly from FNIS or (ii) any acquisition by any employee benefit plan (or related trust) sponsored or maintained by FNIS or a member of the FNIS Group. "FNIS Group" means FNIS, Subsidiaries of FNIS,, and each Person that FNIS directly or indirectly controls (within the meaning of the Securities Act) immediately after the Effective Date, and each other individual, a partnership, corporation, limited liability company, association, joint stock company, trust, joint venture, unincorporated organization, governmental entity or department, agency, or political subdivision thereof that becomes an Affiliate of FNIS after the Effective Date.

- 16.9 REMEDIES CUMULATIVE. Unless otherwise provided for under this Agreement, all rights of termination or cancellation, or other remedies set forth in this Agreement, are cumulative and are not intended to be exclusive of other remedies to which the injured party may be entitled by law or equity in case of any breach or threatened breach by the other party of any provision in this Agreement. Use of one or more remedies shall not bar use of any other remedy for the purpose of enforcing any provision of this Agreement.
- 16.10 TAXES. All charges and fees to be paid under this Agreement are exclusive of any applicable sales, use, service or similar tax which may be assessed currently or in the future on the RMSS Software or related services provided under this Agreement. If a sales, use, services or a similar tax is assessed on the RMSS Software or related services provided to Licensee under this Agreement, Licensee will pay directly, reimburse or indemnify RMSS for such taxes as well as any applicable interest and penalties. Licensee shall pay such taxes in addition to the sums otherwise due under this Agreement. RMSS shall, to the extent it is aware of taxes, itemize them on a proper VAT, GST or other invoice submitted pursuant to this Agreement. All property, employment and income taxes based on the assets, employees and net income, respectively, of RMSS shall be RMSS's sole responsibility. The parties will cooperate with each other in determining the extent to which any tax is due and owing under the circumstances and shall provide and make available to each other any withholding certificates, information regarding the location of use of the RMSS Software or provision of the services or sale and any other exemption certificates or information reasonably requested by either party.
- 16.11 PRESS RELEASES. The parties shall consult with each other in preparing any press release, public announcement, news media response or other form of release of information concerning this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby that is intended to provide such information to the news media or the public (a "Press Release"). Neither party shall issue or cause the publication of any such Press Release without the prior written consent of the other party; except that nothing herein will prohibit either party from issuing or causing publication of any such Press Release to the extent that such action is required by applicable law or the rules of any national stock exchange applicable to such party or its affiliates, in which case the party wishing to make such disclosure will, if practicable under the circumstances, notify the other party of the proposed time of issuance of such Press Release and consult with and allow the other party reasonable time to comment on such Press Release in advance of its issuance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement as of the Effective Date by their duly authorized representatives.

 - (i) To the extent the integration or development relates to a specific module or separable component of RMSS Software, the duty of Source Code delivery shall be limited to the Source Code for such specific module or separable component.
 - (ii) In the event of delivery of Source Code by RMSS under this subsection (d), upon Licensee's completion of its development or integration effort, equating generally to the same scope of work that RMSS was requested to perform but did not perform, it will provide to RMSS a copy of the source code for the development or enhancement, including any annotations therein, certifying same as complete and accurate and, without further formality, RMSS shall be deemed granted a license to use that source code developed by Licensee or its non-Competitor contractors, solely for maintenance or further development of the RMSS Software as implemented for Licensee and for no other use or beneficiary.

- (iii) Six (6) months following the delivery by Licensee to RMSS of source code for Licensee's developments or enhancements under Section 3.2(d)(ii), RMSS may request that Licensee certify, and Licensee will promptly certify to RMSS, that Licensee has destroyed all copies of (x) Source Code delivered to it by RMSS 3.2(d) and (y) all copies of the source code for Licensee's development or enhancement - except two hard copy prints of source code for Licensee's development or enhancement for proof of authorship; provided, however, that the six (6) month limitation above shall not apply in the event that the development of Release 1.0 of the eLenders Solutions software under the eLenders Joint Development Agreement dated March 4, 2005 is not completed on the scheduled completion date and Accepted under the terms of that agreement, and in such event, the RMSS' request for certification under this Section 3.2(d)(iii) may not be made until such Release 1.0 is completed and Accepted.
- (iv) Licensee's right to obtain access to Source Code pursuant to this Section 3.2(d) may be invoked at any time and from time to time, regardless of the continuity of Maintenance.

4. SOFTWARE USE RESTRICTIONS.

4.1 RESTRICTIONS ON RMSS SOFTWARE.

- (a) Licensee may not use the RMSS Software in a service bureau or in a time share arrangement.
- (b) Licensee may not sell, lease, assign, transfer, distribute or sublicense the RMSS Software or Documentation, to any party that is not a (direct or indirect) subsidiary of Licensee. Licensee may not sell, lease, assign, transfer, distribute or sublicense the Source Code to any person or entity at any time, except that Licensee may sublicense the Source Code to a Subsidiary of Fidelity National Information Services, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("FNIS"), as necessary to exercise Licensees rights to modify and create derivative works of the RMSS Software and Documentation.
- (c) Licensee shall use RMSS Software subject to the Use Limitations.
- (d) Licensee will not make copies, or similar versions of the RMSS Software or any part thereof without the prior written consent of RMSS, except in the process of contemplated use, for administrative, archival or disaster recovery backup, and as expressly provided otherwise herein.
- (e) Licensee may not provide copies of the RMSS Software to any person, firm, or corporation not permitted hereunder except as permitted under Sections 4.1(b) and (d) above, and except as to Licensee's non-Competitor contractors or subcontractors who have executed nondisclosure terms consistent with the confidentiality terms herein.

- (f) Licensee shall not allow any third party to use or have access to the RMSS Software for any purpose without RMSS's prior written consent except as permitted under Sections 4.1 (b) and (d) above, and except as to Licensee's non-Competitor contractors or subcontractors who have executed nondisclosure terms consistent with the confidentiality terms herein.
- (g) Licensee agrees not to disclose, decompile, disassemble or reverse engineer the RMSS Software.

4.2 ADDITIONAL RESTRICTIONS ON PC SOFTWARE.

- (a) Except as specifically set forth herein, all other restrictions on use, copying or disclosure of the RMSS Software and Licensee's agreement to maintain the confidentiality thereof shall apply to the PC Software and its Documentation.
- (b) Licensee may not modify the PC Software (although RMSS may do so on Licensee's behalf.)

5. TERM; TERMINATION

- 5.1 The term of license shall be perpetual subject to termination in accordance with the terms herein.
- 5.2 Licensee may terminate the license for convenience upon no less than ninety (90) Days prior written notice to RMSS.
- 5.3 A license enjoyed by a Subsidiary of FNIS shall terminate without further formality upon such entity's ceasing to be a Subsidiary of FNIS. A license enjoyed by a Subsidiary of Licensee shall terminate without further formality upon the six month anniversary date after such entity's ceasing to be a Subsidiary of Licensee. Prior to such Subsidiary ceasing to be a Subsidiary of Licensee, Licensee shall cause such Subsidiary to agree to migrate its data off the RMSS Software and on to an alternative product during the above described six month period. In any event, if the Subsidiary becomes a Subsidiary of a Competitor, the license to the Subsidiary shall terminate immediately.
- 5.4 In the event Licensee or a Licensee Subsidiary discloses any of the RMSS Software or any material part of the Documentation to a Competitor, then RMSS upon thirty Days prior written notice to Licensee, may terminate the license with respect to that portion relating to the RMSS Software and Documentation provided to such Competitor if Licensee on its own does not (or if Licensee does not cause its Subsidiary to) discontinue disclosure of the RMSS Software and Documentation to such Competitor within thirty Days following Licensee's receipt of RMSS' written notice. Any such termination shall be effective upon the expiration of the cure period. The foregoing is intended to apply only to the remedy of termination. RMSS shall retain the right to pursue any other remedies in the event Licensee or its Subsidiary makes an unauthorized disclosure to a Competitor, including injunctive relief or recovery of damages, and, depending on the nature of the disclosure, requesting that Licensee undertake other measures in addition to simply discontinuing disclosure to the Competitor.

- 5.5 In the event of termination of the license for any reason, Licensee and/or its Subsidiary, as applicable, shall promptly cease all use of the relevant RMSS Software, delete from its systems all copies of the relevant RMSS Software, and within thirty (30) Days of termination, return to RMSS all tangible copies of the relevant RMSS Software, together with certification that it has ceased such use, deleted such copies and returned such tangible copies as required hereunder.
- 5.6 Each party acknowledges and agrees that, in the event of Licensee's breach or threatened breach or any provision of Sections 4, 5.3, 5.4, 5.5 or 7, RMSS shall have no adequate remedy in damages and notwithstanding the dispute resolution provisions in Section 11 hereof, is entitled to seek an injunction to prevent such breach or threatened breach; provided, however, no specification of a particular legal or equitable remedy is to be construed as a waiver, prohibition, or limitation of any legal or equitable remedies in the event of a breach hereof.

6. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS.

- 6.1 OWNERSHIP OF RMSS SOFTWARE AND DOCUMENTATION. From the date the RMSS Software and Documentation is first disclosed to Licensee, and at all times thereafter, as between the parties, RMSS and its licensors shall be the sole and exclusive owners of all right, title, and interest in and to the RMSS Software, Documentation and all Modifications, including, without limitation, all intellectual property and other rights related thereto. The parties acknowledge that this Agreement in no way limits or restricts RMSS and the RMSS Subsidiaries from developing or marketing on their own or for any third party in the United States or any other country, the RMSS Software, Documentation or Modifications, or any similar software (including, but not limited to, any modification, enhancement, interface, upgrade, change and all software, source code, blueprints, diagrams, flow charts, specifications, functional descriptions or training materials relating thereto) without payment of any compensation to Licensee, or any notice to Licensee.
- 6.2 DEVELOPMENT SERVICES. Licensee may from time to time wish to augment the RMSS product with additional functionality or utility, or to integrate it with Licensee systems from other sources, and for such purposes may request the provision of development services from RMSS.

7.1 CONFIDENTIALITY OBLIGATION. Proprietary Information (i) shall be deemed the property of the disclosing party (or the party for whom such data was collected or processed, if any), (ii) shall be used solely for the purposes of administering and otherwise implementing the terms of this Agreement and any ancillary agreements, and (iii) shall be protected by the receiving party in accordance with the terms of this Section 7.

7.2 NON-DISCLOSURE COVENANT. Except as set forth in this Section, neither party shall disclose the Proprietary Information of the other party in whole or in part, including derivations, to any third party. If the parties agree to a specific nondisclosure period for a specific document, the disclosing party shall mark the document with that nondisclosure period. In the absence of a specific period, the duty of confidentiality for (a) RMSS Software, Source Code and related Documentation shall extend in perpetuity and (b) with respect to any other Proprietary Information shall extend for a period of (5) five years from disclosure. Proprietary Information shall be held in confidence by the receiving party and its employees, and shall be disclosed to only those of the receiving party's employees and professional advisors who have a need for it in connection with the administration and implementation of this Agreement. In no event shall Licensee disclose RMSS Proprietary Information to a Competitor of RMSS. Each party shall use the same degree of care and afford the same protections to the Proprietary Information of the other party as it uses and affords to its own Proprietary Information.

7.3 EXCEPTIONS. Proprietary Information shall not be deemed proprietary and, subject to the carve-out below, the receiving party shall have no obligation of nondisclosure with respect to any such information which:

- (i) is or becomes publicly known through no wrongful act, fault or negligence of the receiving party;
- (ii) was disclosed to the receiving party by a third party that was free of obligations of confidentiality to the party providing the information;
- (iii) is approved for release by written authorization of the disclosing party;
- (iv) was known to the receiving party prior to receipt of the information;
- (v) was independently developed by the receiving party without access to or use of the Proprietary Information of the disclosing party; or
- (vi) is publicly disclosed pursuant to a requirement or request of a governmental agency, or disclosure is required by operation of law.

Notwithstanding application of any of the foregoing exceptions, in no event shall RMSS treat as other than Proprietary Information, information comprising nonpublic personal information under the GLB Act.

7.4 CONFIDENTIALITY OF THIS AGREEMENT; PROTECTIVE ARRANGEMENTS.

- (a) The parties acknowledge that this Agreement contains confidential information that may be considered proprietary by one or both of the parties, and agree to limit distribution of this Agreement to those employees of Licensee and RMSS with a need to know the contents of this Agreement or as required by law or national stock exchange rule. In no event may this Agreement be reproduced or copies shown to any third parties (except counsel, auditors and professional advisors) without the prior written consent of the other party, except as may be necessary by reason of legal, accounting, tax or regulatory requirements, in which event Licensee and RMSS agree to exercise reasonable diligence in limiting such disclosure to the minimum necessary under the particular circumstances.
- (b) In addition, each party shall give notice to the other party of any demands to disclose or provide Proprietary Information of the other party under or pursuant to lawful process prior to disclosing or furnishing such Proprietary Information, and shall cooperate in seeking reasonable protective arrangements.

8. CONTINUING UNDERTAKINGS.

During the duration of the license granted hereunder, RMSS shall offer Maintenance for the RMSS Software for the fees set forth in Exhibit C hereto. A description of Maintenance services is set forth in Exhibit B hereto. Any related professional services shall be performed pursuant to further agreement between the parties.

9. INVOICING AND PAYMENTS, PAST DUE AMOUNTS, CURRENCY.

- 9.1 INVOICING AND PAYMENT REQUIREMENTS. RMSS shall invoice for such fees described in Exhibit C hereto as well as for any expenses and any other applicable charges incurred and owing hereunder. In accordance with this Section 9.1, Licensee shall pay RMSS the invoiced amount in full on or prior to thirty (30) Days after Licensee's receipt of such invoice unless Licensee notifies RMSS within such period that it is in good faith disputing RMSS's invoice. Licensee shall make all payments to RMSS by check, credit card or wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account or accounts designated by RMSS. Payment in full shall not preclude later dispute of charges or adjustment of improper payments.
- 9.2 PAST DUE AMOUNTS. Any amount not received or disputed by Licensee by the date payment is due shall be subject to interest on the overdue balance at a rate equal to the prime rate as published in the table money rates in the Wall Street Journal on the date of payment (or the prior date on which the Wall Street Journal was published if not published on the date of payment), plus one percent from the due date, until paid, applied to the outstanding balance from time to time. Any amount paid but later deemed not to have been due, will be repaid or credited with interest on the same terms.

9.3 CURRENCY. All fees and charges listed and referred to in this Agreement are stated in and shall be paid in U.S. Dollars.

10. ASSISTANCE.

10.1 BASIS FOR ASSISTANCE. Assistance, except to the extent included in Maintenance, is not included in this Agreement. If Licensee desires to purchase Assistance from RMSS or a RMSS Subsidiary, such Assistance shall be provided pursuant to separate agreement.

11. DISPUTE RESOLUTION.

11.1 DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURES. If, prior to the termination of this Agreement or the license granted herein, and prior to notice of termination given by either party to the other, a dispute arises between RMSS and Licensee with respect to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, or any subject matter governed by this Agreement (other than disputes regarding a party's compliance with the provisions of Sections 4 and/or 7), such dispute shall be settled as set forth in this Section 11. If either party exercises its right to initiate the dispute resolution procedures under this Section 11, then during such procedure any time periods providing for termination of the Agreement or curing any material breach pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall be suspended automatically, except with respect to any termination or breach arising out of Licensee's failure to make any undisputed timely and complete payments to RMSS under this Agreement. At such time as the dispute is resolved, if such dispute involved the payment of monies, interest at a rate equal to the prime rate as published in the table money rates in the Wall Street Journal on the date the dispute is resolved (or the prior date on which the Wall Street Journal was published if not published on the date the dispute was resolved) plus one percent for the period of dispute shall be paid to the party entitled to receive the disputed monies to compensate for the lapsed time between the date such disputed amount originally was to have been paid (or was paid) through the date monies are paid (or repaid) in settlement of the dispute. Disputes arising under Sections 4 or 7 may be resolved by judicial recourse or in any other manner agreed by the parties.

11.2 ESCALATION PROCEDURES.

- (a) Each of the parties shall escalate and negotiate, in good faith, any claim or dispute that has not been satisfactorily resolved between the parties at the level where the issue is discovered and has immediate impact (excluding issues of title to work product, which shall be initially addressed at the general counsel level but otherwise pursuant to Section 11.2(b) following). To this end, each party shall escalate any and all unresolved disputes or claims in accordance with this Section 11.2 at any time to persons responsible for the administration of the relationship reflected in this SIMON Software License Agreement. The location, format, frequency, duration and conclusion of these elevated discussions shall be left to the discretion of the representatives involved. If such parties do not resolve the underlying dispute within ten (10) Days of its escalation to them, then either party may notify the other in writing that he/she desires to elevate the dispute or claim to the President of RMSS and the President of Licensee or their designated representative(s) for resolution.

- (b) Upon receipt by a party of a written notice escalating the dispute to the company president level, the President of RMSS and the President of Licensee or their designated representative(s) shall promptly communicate with his/her counter party, negotiate in good faith and use reasonable efforts to resolve such dispute or claim. The location, format, frequency, duration and conclusion of these elevated discussions shall be left to the discretion of the representatives involved. Upon agreement, such representatives may utilize other alternative dispute resolution procedures to assist in the negotiations. If the parties have not resolved the dispute within ten (10) Days after receipt of the notice elevating the dispute to this level, either may once again escalate the dispute to binding arbitration.
- (c) All discussions and correspondence among the representatives for purposes of these negotiations shall be treated as Proprietary Information developed for purposes of settlement, exempt from discovery and production, which shall not be admissible in any subsequent proceedings between the parties. Documents identified in or provided with such communications, which are not prepared for purposes of the negotiations, are not so exempted and may, if otherwise admissible, be admitted in evidence in such subsequent proceeding.

11.3 ARBITRATION PROCEDURES. If a claim, controversy or dispute between the parties with respect to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, or any subject matter governed by this Agreement (and not otherwise excepted), has not been timely resolved pursuant to the foregoing escalation process, upon notice either party may initiate binding arbitration of the issue in accordance with the following procedures.

- (a) Either party may request arbitration by giving the other party written notice to such effect, which notice shall describe, in reasonable detail, the nature of the dispute, controversy or claim. Such arbitration shall be governed by the then current version of the Commercial Arbitration Rules and Mediation Procedures of the American Arbitration Association. The Arbitration will be conducted in Jacksonville, Florida in front of one mutually agreed upon arbitrator.
- (b) Each party shall bear its own fees, costs and expenses of the arbitration and its own legal expenses, attorneys' fees and costs of all experts and witnesses. Unless the award provides otherwise, the fees and expenses of the arbitration procedures, including the fees of the arbitrator or arbitrators, will be shared equally by the involved parties.

- (c) Any award rendered pursuant to such arbitration shall be final, conclusive and binding upon the parties, and any judgment thereon may be entered and enforced in any court of competent jurisdiction.

11.4 CONTINUATION OF SERVICES. Unless RMSS initiates an action for Licensee's failure to make timely and complete payment of undisputed amounts claimed due to RMSS, RMSS will continue to provide Maintenance under the Maintenance services agreement, and unless Licensee is unable to lawfully use the RMSS Software and Modifications thereto, Licensee will continue to make payments of undisputed amounts to RMSS, in accordance with this Agreement, notwithstanding a dispute between the parties relating hereto or otherwise.

12. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

12.1 EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT ARISING FROM GROSS NEGLIGENCE, WILLFUL MISCONDUCT, BY REASON OF AN INDEMNITY OBLIGATION HEREUNDER OR BY REASON OF A BREACH OF WARRANTY, EITHER PARTY'S LIABILITY FOR ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION WHETHER BASED IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE WHICH ARISES UNDER OR IS RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE LIMITED TO THE OTHER PARTY'S DIRECT OUT-OF-POCKET DAMAGES, ACTUALLY INCURRED, WHICH UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES SHALL EXCEED, IN THE AGGREGATE, THE AMOUNT PAID BY LICENSEE TO RMSS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT FOR THE 12-MONTH PERIOD IMMEDIATELY PRECEDING THE DATE THE CLAIM AROSE.

12.2 IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE FOR INDIRECT, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES OF ANY KIND WHATSOEVER OR THE CLAIMS OR DEMANDS MADE BY ANY THIRD PARTIES, WHETHER OR NOT IT HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

12.3 LICENSEE SOFTWARE. RMSS has no obligation or liability, either express or implied, with respect to the compatibility of RMSS Software with any other software unless provided or specified by RMSS including, but not limited to, Licensee software and/or Licensee-provided third party software.

13. INDEMNIFICATION.

13.1 PROPERTY DAMAGE. Subject to Section 13 hereof, each party agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the other and its officers, directors, employees, and affiliates (including, where applicable, the RMSS Subsidiaries and Licensee Subsidiaries), and agents from any and all liabilities, losses, costs, damages and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising from or in connection with the damage, loss (including theft) or destruction of any real property or tangible personal property of the indemnified party resulting from the actions or inactions of any employee, agent or subcontractor of the indemnifying party insofar as such damage arises out of or is ancillary to fulfilling its obligations under this Agreement and to the extent such damage is due to any negligence, breach of statutory duty, omission or default of the indemnifying party, its employees, agents or subcontractors.

13.2 INFRINGEMENT OF RMSS SOFTWARE. RMSS agrees to defend at its own expense, any claim or action brought by any third party against Licensee and/or against its officers, directors, and employees and affiliates, for actual or alleged infringement within the United States of any patent, copyright or other intellectual property right (including, but not limited to, misappropriation of trade secrets) based upon the RMSS Software (except to the extent such infringement claim is caused by Licensee-specified Custom Modifications to the RMSS Software which could not have been made in a non-infringing manner) or caused by the combination of RMSS Software with software or hardware not provided, specified or approved by RMSS, or based upon the Third Party Software ("Indemnified RMSS Software"). Licensee, at its sole discretion and cost, may participate in the defense and all negotiations for its settlement or compromise. RMSS further agrees to indemnify and hold Licensee, its officers, directors, employees and affiliates harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, costs, damages, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) associated with any such claim or action incurred by Licensee. RMSS shall conduct and control the defense of any such claim or action and negotiations for its settlement or compromise, by the payment of money. RMSS shall give Licensee, and Licensee shall give RMSS, as appropriate, prompt written notice of any written threat, warning or notice of any such claim or action against RMSS or Licensee, as appropriate, or any other user or any supplier of components of the Indemnified RMSS Software, which could have an adverse impact on Licensee's use of same, provided RMSS or Licensee, as appropriate, knows of such claim or action. If in any such suit so defended, all or any part of the Indemnified RMSS Software (or any component thereof) is held to constitute an infringement or violation of any other party's intellectual property rights and is enjoined, RMSS shall at its sole option take one or more of the following actions at no additional cost to Licensee: (i) procure the right to continue the use of the same without material interruption for Licensee; (ii) replace the same with non-infringing software; (iii) modify said Indemnified RMSS Software so as to be non-infringing; or (iv) take back the infringing Indemnified RMSS Software and credit Licensee with an amount equal to its prepaid but unused license fees hereunder. The foregoing represents the sole and exclusive remedy of Licensee for infringement or alleged infringement.

13.3 DISPUTE RESOLUTION. The provisions of Section 13 shall apply with respect to the submission of any claim for indemnification under this Agreement and the resolution of any disputes relating to such claim.

14. FORCE MAJEURE, TIME OF PERFORMANCE AND INCREASED COSTS.

14.1 FORCE MAJEURE.

- (a) Neither party shall be held liable for any delay or failure in performance of its obligations under this Agreement from any cause which with the observation of reasonable care, could not have been avoided - which may include, without limitation, acts of civil or military authority, government regulations, government agencies, epidemics, war, terrorist acts, riots, insurrections, fires, explosions, earthquakes, nuclear accidents, floods, power blackouts affecting facilities (the "Affected Performance").
- (b) Upon the occurrence of a condition described in Section 14.1(a), the party whose performance is affected shall give written notice to the other party describing the Affected Performance, and the parties shall promptly confer, in good faith, to agree upon equitable, reasonable action to minimize the impact on both parties of such condition, including, without limitation, implementing disaster recovery procedures. The parties agree that the party whose performance is affected shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize the delay caused by the force majeure events and recommence the Affected Performance. If the delay caused by the force majeure event lasts for more than fifteen (15) Days, the parties shall negotiate an equitable amendment to this Agreement with respect to the Affected Performance. If the parties are unable to agree upon an equitable amendment within ten (10) Days after such fifteen (15)-Day period has expired, then either party shall be entitled to serve thirty (30) Days' notice of termination on the other party with respect to only such Affected Performance. The remaining portion of the Agreement that does not involve the Affected Performance shall continue in full force and effect. RMSS shall be entitled to be paid for that portion of the Affected Performance which it completed through the termination date.

14.2 TIME OF PERFORMANCE AND INCREASED COSTS. RMSS's time of performance under this Agreement shall be adjusted, if and to the extent reasonably necessary, in the event and to the extent that (i) Licensee fails to timely submit material data or materials in the prescribed form or in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement, (ii) Licensee fails to perform on a timely basis, the material functions or other responsibilities of Licensee described in this Agreement, (iii) Licensee or any governmental agency authorized to regulate or supervise Licensee makes any special request, which is affirmed by Licensee and/or compulsory on RMSS, which affects RMSS's normal performance schedule, or (iv) Licensee has modified the RMSS Software in a manner affecting RMSS's burden. In addition, if any of the above events occur, and such event results in an increased cost to RMSS, RMSS shall estimate such increased costs in writing in advance and, upon Licensee's approval, Licensee shall be required to pay any and all such reasonable, increased costs to RMSS upon documented expenditure, up to 110% of the estimate.

15.2 CHANGE OF ADDRESS. The address to which such notices, demands, requests, elections or other communications are to be given by either party may be changed by written notice given by such party to the other party pursuant to this Section.

16. WARRANTIES.

16.1 PERFORMANCE. For as long as RMSS is providing Maintenance to Licensee for the RMSS Software, RMSS warrants and represents that the RMSS Software and the Custom Modifications, as delivered to Licensee and the Base Modifications, will perform in all material respects in accordance with the respective Documentation, in concert and otherwise.

16.2 PERFORMANCE OF OBLIGATIONS. Each party represents and warrants to the other that it shall perform its respective obligations under this Agreement, including Exhibits and Schedules, in a professional and workmanlike manner.

16.3 COMPLIANCE WITH LAW. RMSS warrants that (i) it has the power and corporate authority to enter into and perform this Agreement, (ii) its performance of this Agreement does not and will not violate any governmental law, regulation, rule or order, contract, charter or by-law, (iii) it has sufficient right, title and interest (or another Subsidiary of FNF has or will grant it sufficient license rights) in the RMSS Software to grant the licenses herein granted, (iv) it has received no written notice of any third party claim or threat of a claim alleging that any part of the RMSS Software infringes the rights of any third party in any of the United States, and (v) each item of RMSS Software provided by or for RMSS to Licensee shall be delivered free of undisclosed trapdoors, Trojan horses, time bombs, time outs, spyware, viruses or other code which, with the passage of time, in the absence of action or upon a trigger, would interfere with the normal use of, or access to, any file, datum or system.

17.1 ASSIGNMENT. Except as set forth herein, neither party may sell, assign, convey, or transfer the licenses granted hereunder or any of such party's rights or interests, or delegate any of its obligations hereunder without the written consent of the other party. Any such consent shall be conditioned upon the understanding that this Agreement shall be binding upon the assigning party's successors and assigns. Either party may assign this Agreement to any Subsidiary that is not a Competitor except that the assigning party shall remain responsible for all obligations under this Agreement including the payment of fees. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, Licensee may not assign this Agreement to a Competitor.

17.2 SEVERABILITY. Provided Licensee retains quiet enjoyment of the RMSS Software including Custom Modifications and Base Modifications, if any one or more of the provisions contained herein shall for any reason be held to be unenforceable in any respect under law, such unenforceability shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement, but this Agreement shall be construed as if such unenforceable provision or provisions had never been contained herein, provided that the removal of such offending term or provision does not materially alter the burdens or benefits of either of the parties under this Agreement or any Exhibit or Schedule, in which case the unenforceable portion shall be replaced by one that reflects the parties original intent as closely as possible while remaining enforceable.

- 17.3 THIRD PARTY BENEFICIARIES. Except as set forth herein, the provisions of this Agreement are for the benefit of the parties and not for any other person. Should any third party institute proceedings, this Agreement shall not provide any such person with any remedy, claim, liability, reimbursement, cause of action, or other right.
- 17.4 GOVERNING LAW; FORUM SELECTION; CONSENT OF JURISDICTION. This Agreement will be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of Florida, USA, without regard to principles of conflict of laws. The parties agree that the only circumstance in which disputes between them, not otherwise excepted from the resolution process described in Section 11, will not be subject to the provisions of Section 11 is where a party makes a good faith determination that a breach of the terms of this Agreement by the other party requires prompt and equitable relief. Each of the parties submits to the personal jurisdiction of any state or federal court sitting in Jacksonville, Florida with respect to such judicial proceedings. Each of the parties waives any defense of inconvenient forum to the maintenance of any action or proceeding so brought and waives any bond, surety or to other security that might be required of any party with respect thereto. Any party may make service on the other party by sending or delivering a copy of the process to the party to be served at the address set forth in Section 15 above. Nothing in this Section, however, shall affect the right of any party to serve legal process in any other manner permitted by law or in equity. Each party agrees that a final judgment in any action or proceeding so brought shall be conclusive and may be enforced by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law or in equity.
- 17.5 EXECUTED IN COUNTERPARTS. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same document.
- 17.6 CONSTRUCTION. The headings and numbering of sections in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not be construed to define or limit any of the terms or affect the scope, meaning or interpretation of this Agreement or the particular section to which they relate. This Agreement and the provisions contained herein shall not be construed or interpreted for or against any party because that party drafted or caused its legal representative to draft any of its provisions.
- 17.7 ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement, including the Exhibits and Schedules attached hereto and the agreements referenced herein constitute the entire agreement between the parties, and supersedes all prior oral or written agreements, representations, statements, negotiations, understandings, proposals, marketing brochures, correspondence and undertakings related thereto.

17.8 AMENDMENTS AND WAIVERS. This Agreement may be amended only by written agreement signed by duly authorized representatives of each party. No waiver of any provisions of this Agreement and no consent to any default under this Agreement shall be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by or on behalf of both parties. No course of dealing or failure of any party to strictly enforce any term, right or condition of this Agreement shall be construed as a waiver of such term, right or condition. Waiver by either party of any default by the other party shall not be deemed a waiver of any other default. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time prior to the Sale of FNIS or any offering and sale to the public of any shares or equity securities of FNIS or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to a registration statement in the United States, this Agreement may not be amended without the prior written consent of Thomas H. Lee Equity Fund V, L.P. ("THL") and TPG Partners III, L.P. Unless otherwise provided for under this Agreement, all rights of termination or cancellation, or other remedies set forth in this Agreement, are cumulative and are not intended to be exclusive of other remedies to which the injured party may be entitled by law or equity in case of any breach or threatened breach by the other party of any provision in this Agreement. Use of one or more remedies shall not bar use of any other remedy for the purpose of enforcing any provision of this Agreement.

- 6.1 OWNERSHIP OF RMSS SOFTWARE AND DOCUMENTATION. From the date the RMSS Software and Documentation is first disclosed to Licensee, and at all times thereafter, as between the parties, RMSS and its licensors shall be the sole and exclusive owners of all right, title, and interest in and to the RMSS Software, Documentation and all Modifications, including, without limitation, all intellectual property and other rights related thereto. Proprietary Information (i) shall be deemed the property of the disclosing party (or the party for whom such data was collected or processed, if any), (ii) shall be used solely for the purposes of administering and otherwise implementing the terms of this Agreement and any ancillary agreements, and (iii) shall be protected by the receiving party in accordance with the terms of this Section 7.

7.2 NON-DISCLOSURE COVENANT. Except as set forth in this Section, neither party shall disclose the Proprietary Information of the other party in whole or in part, including derivations, to any third party. If the parties agree to a specific nondisclosure period for a specific document, the disclosing party shall mark the document with that nondisclosure period. In the absence of a specific period, the duty of confidentiality for (a) RMSS Software, Source Code and related Documentation shall extend in perpetuity and (b) with respect to any other Proprietary Information shall extend for a period of (5) five years from disclosure. Proprietary Information shall be held in confidence by the receiving party and its employees, and shall be disclosed to only those of the receiving party's employees and professional advisors who have a need for it in connection with the administration and implementation of this Agreement. In no event shall Licensee disclose RMSS Proprietary Information to a Competitor of RMSS. Each party shall use the same degree of care and afford the same protections to the Proprietary Information of the other party as it uses and affords to its own Proprietary Information.

7.3 EXCEPTIONS. Proprietary Information shall not be deemed proprietary and, subject to the carve-out below, the receiving party shall have no obligation of nondisclosure with respect to any such information which:

- (i) is or becomes publicly known through no wrongful act, fault or negligence of the receiving party;

- (iii) is approved for release by written authorization of the disclosing party;
- (iv) was known to the receiving party prior to receipt of the information;
- (v) was independently developed by the receiving party without access to or use of the Proprietary Information of the disclosing party; or
- (vi) is publicly disclosed pursuant to a requirement or request of a governmental agency, or disclosure is required by operation of law.

Notwithstanding application of any of the foregoing exceptions, in no event shall RMSS treat as other than Proprietary Information, information comprising nonpublic personal information under the GLB Act.

7.4 CONFIDENTIALITY OF THIS AGREEMENT; PROTECTIVE ARRANGEMENTS.

- (a) The parties acknowledge that this Agreement contains confidential information that may be considered proprietary by one or both of the parties, and agree to limit distribution of this Agreement to those employees of Licensee and RMSS with a need to know the contents of this Agreement or as required by law or national stock exchange rule. In no event may this Agreement be reproduced or copies shown to any third parties (except counsel, auditors and professional advisors) without the prior written consent of the other party, except as may be necessary by reason of legal, accounting, tax or regulatory requirements, in which event

Licensee and RMSS agree to exercise reasonable diligence in limiting such disclosure to the minimum necessary under the particular circumstances.

- (b) In addition, each party shall give notice to the other party of any demands to disclose or provide Proprietary Information of the other party under or pursuant to lawful process prior to disclosing or furnishing such Proprietary Information, and shall cooperate in seeking reasonable protective arrangements.

8. CONTINUING UNDERTAKINGS.

During the duration of the license granted hereunder, RMSS shall offer Maintenance for the RMSS Software for the fees set forth in Exhibit C hereto. A description of Maintenance services is set forth in Exhibit B hereto. Any related professional services shall be performed pursuant to further agreement between the parties.

9. INVOICING AND PAYMENTS, PAST DUE AMOUNTS, CURRENCY.

9.1 INVOICING AND PAYMENT REQUIREMENTS. RMSS shall invoice for such fees described in Exhibit C hereto as well as for any expenses and any other applicable charges incurred and owing hereunder. In accordance with this Section 9.1, Licensee shall pay RMSS the invoiced amount in full on or prior to thirty (30) Days after Licensee's receipt of such invoice unless Licensee notifies RMSS within such period that it is in good faith disputing RMSS's invoice. Licensee shall make all payments to RMSS by check, credit card or wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account or accounts designated by RMSS. Payment in full shall not preclude later dispute of charges or adjustment of improper payments.

9.2 PAST DUE AMOUNTS. Any amount not received or disputed by Licensee by the date payment is due shall be subject to interest on the overdue balance at a rate equal to the prime rate as published in the table money rates in the Wall Street Journal on the date of payment (or the prior date on which the Wall Street Journal was published if not published on the date of payment), plus one percent from the due date, until paid, applied to the outstanding balance from time to time. Any amount paid but later deemed not to have been due, will be repaid or credited with interest on the same terms.

9.3 CURRENCY. All fees and charges listed and referred to in this Agreement are stated in and shall be paid in U.S. Dollars.

If either party exercises its right to initiate the dispute resolution procedures under this Section 11, then during such procedure any time periods providing for termination of the Agreement or curing any material breach pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall be suspended automatically, except with respect to any termination or breach arising out of Licensee's failure to make any undisputed timely and complete payments to RMSS under this Agreement. At such time as the dispute is resolved, if such dispute involved the payment of monies, interest at a rate equal to the prime rate as published in the table money rates in the Wall Street Journal on the date the dispute is resolved (or the prior date on which the Wall Street Journal was published if not published on the date the dispute was resolved) plus one percent for the period of dispute shall be paid to the party entitled to receive the disputed monies to compensate for the lapsed time between the date such disputed amount originally was to have been paid (or was paid) through the date monies are paid (or repaid) in settlement of the dispute. Disputes arising under Sections 4 or 7 may be resolved by judicial recourse or in any other manner agreed by the parties.

11.2 ESCALATION PROCEDURES.

- (a) Each of the parties shall escalate and negotiate, in good faith, any claim or dispute that has not been satisfactorily resolved between the parties at the level where the issue is discovered and has immediate impact (excluding issues of title to work product, which shall be initially addressed at the general counsel level but otherwise pursuant to Section 11.2(b) following). To this end, each party shall escalate any and all unresolved disputes or claims in accordance with this Section 11.2 at any time to persons responsible for the administration of the relationship reflected in this TEAM Software License Agreement. The location, format, frequency, duration and conclusion of these elevated discussions shall be left to the discretion of the representatives involved. If such parties do not resolve the underlying dispute within ten (10) Days of its escalation to them, then either party may notify the other in writing that he/she desires to elevate the dispute or claim to the President of RMSS and the President of Licensee or their designated representative(s) for resolution.
- (b) Upon receipt by a party of a written notice escalating the dispute to the company president level, the President of RMSS and the President of Licensee or their designated representative(s) shall promptly communicate with his/her counter party, negotiate in good faith and use reasonable efforts to resolve such dispute or claim. The location, format, frequency, duration and conclusion of these elevated discussions shall be left to the discretion of the representatives involved. Upon agreement, such representatives may utilize other alternative dispute resolution procedures to assist in the negotiations. If the parties have not resolved the dispute within ten (10) Days after receipt of the notice elevating the dispute to this level, either may once again escalate the dispute to binding arbitration.

- (c) All discussions and correspondence among the representatives for purposes of these negotiations shall be treated as Proprietary Information developed for purposes of settlement, exempt from discovery and production, which shall not be admissible in any subsequent proceedings between the parties. Documents identified in or provided with such communications, which are not prepared for purposes of the negotiations, are not so exempted and may, if otherwise admissible, be admitted in evidence in such subsequent proceeding.

11.3 ARBITRATION PROCEDURES. If a claim, controversy or dispute between the parties with respect to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, or any subject matter governed by this Agreement (and not otherwise excepted), has not been timely resolved pursuant to the foregoing escalation process, upon notice either party may initiate binding arbitration of the issue in accordance with the following procedures.

- (a) Either party may request arbitration by giving the other party written notice to such effect, which notice shall describe, in reasonable detail, the nature of the dispute, controversy or claim. Such arbitration shall be governed by the then current version of the Commercial Arbitration Rules and Mediation Procedures of the American Arbitration Association. The Arbitration will be conducted in Jacksonville, Florida in front of one mutually agreed upon arbitrator.
- (b) Each party shall bear its own fees, costs and expenses of the arbitration and its own legal expenses, attorneys' fees and costs of all experts and witnesses. Unless the award provides otherwise, the fees and expenses of the arbitration procedures, including the fees of the arbitrator or arbitrators, will be shared equally by the involved parties.
- (c) Any award rendered pursuant to such arbitration shall be final, conclusive and binding upon the parties, and any judgment thereon may be entered and enforced in any court of competent jurisdiction.

11.4 CONTINUATION OF SERVICES. Unless RMSS initiates an action for Licensee's failure to make timely and complete payment of undisputed amounts claimed due to RMSS, RMSS will continue to provide Maintenance under the Maintenance services agreement, and unless Licensee is unable to lawfully use the RMSS Software and Modifications thereto, Licensee will continue to make payments of undisputed amounts to RMSS, in accordance with this Agreement, notwithstanding a dispute between the parties relating hereto or otherwise.

12. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

12.1 EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT ARISING FROM GROSS NEGLIGENCE, WILLFUL MISCONDUCT, BY REASON OF AN INDEMNITY OBLIGATION HEREUNDER OR BY REASON OF A BREACH OF WARRANTY, EITHER PARTY'S LIABILITY FOR ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION WHETHER BASED IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE WHICH ARISES UNDER OR IS RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE LIMITED TO THE OTHER PARTY'S DIRECT OUT-OF-POCKET DAMAGES, ACTUALLY INCURRED, WHICH UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES SHALL EXCEED, IN THE AGGREGATE, THE AMOUNT PAID BY LICENSEE TO RMSS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT FOR THE 12-MONTH PERIOD IMMEDIATELY PRECEDING THE DATE THE CLAIM AROSE.

12.2 IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE FOR INDIRECT, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES OF ANY KIND WHATSOEVER OR THE CLAIMS OR DEMANDS MADE BY ANY THIRD PARTIES, WHETHER OR NOT IT HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

12.3 LICENSEE SOFTWARE. RMSS has no obligation or liability, either express or implied, with respect to the compatibility of RMSS Software with any other software unless provided or specified by RMSS including, but not limited to, Licensee software and/or Licensee-provided third party software.

13. INDEMNIFICATION.

13.1 PROPERTY DAMAGE. Subject to Section 12 hereof, each party agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the other and its officers, directors, employees, and affiliates (including, where applicable, the RMSS Subsidiaries and Licensee Subsidiaries), and agents from any and all liabilities, losses, costs, damages and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising from or in connection with the damage, loss (including theft) or destruction of any real property or tangible personal property of the indemnified party resulting from the actions or inactions of any employee, agent or subcontractor of the indemnifying party insofar as such damage arises out of or is ancillary to fulfilling its obligations under this Agreement and to the extent such damage is due to any negligence, breach of statutory duty, omission or default of the indemnifying party, its employees, agents or subcontractors.

13.2 INFRINGEMENT OF RMSS SOFTWARE. RMSS agrees to defend at its own expense, any claim or action brought by any third party against Licensee and/or against its officers, directors, and employees and affiliates, for actual or alleged infringement within the United States of any patent, copyright or other intellectual property right (including, but not limited to, misappropriation of trade secrets) based upon the RMSS Software (except to the extent such infringement claim is caused by Licensee-specified Custom Modifications to the RMSS Software which could not have been made in a non-infringing manner) or caused by the combination of RMSS Software with software or hardware not provided, specified or approved by RMSS, or based upon the Third Party Software ("Indemnified RMSS Software"). Licensee, at its sole discretion and cost, may participate in the defense and all negotiations for its settlement or compromise. RMSS further agrees to indemnify and hold Licensee, its officers, directors, employees and affiliates harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, costs, damages, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) associated with any such claim or action incurred by Licensee. RMSS shall conduct and control the defense of any such claim or action and negotiations for its settlement or compromise, by the payment of money. RMSS shall give Licensee, and Licensee shall give RMSS, as appropriate, prompt written notice of any written threat, warning or notice of any such claim or action against RMSS or Licensee, as appropriate, or any other user or any supplier of components of the Indemnified RMSS Software, which could have an adverse impact on Licensee's use of same, provided RMSS or Licensee, as appropriate, knows of such claim or action. If in any such suit so defended, all or any part of the Indemnified RMSS Software (or any component thereof) is held to constitute an infringement or violation of any other party's intellectual property rights and is enjoined, RMSS shall at its sole option take one or more of the following actions at no additional cost to Licensee: (i) procure the right to continue the use of the same without material interruption for Licensee; (ii) replace the same with non-infringing software; (iii) modify said Indemnified RMSS Software so as to be non-infringing; or (iv) take back the infringing Indemnified RMSS Software and credit Licensee with an amount equal to its prepaid but unused license fees hereunder. The foregoing represents the sole and exclusive remedy of Licensee for infringement or alleged infringement.

13.3 DISPUTE RESOLUTION. The provisions of Section 13 shall apply with respect to the submission of any claim for indemnification under this Agreement and the resolution of any disputes relating to such claim.

14. FORCE MAJEURE, TIME OF PERFORMANCE AND INCREASED COSTS.

14.1 FORCE MAJEURE.

- (a) Neither party shall be held liable for any delay or failure in performance of its obligations under this Agreement from any cause which with the observation of reasonable care, could not have been avoided - which may include, without limitation, acts of civil or military authority, government regulations, government agencies, epidemics, war, terrorist acts, riots, insurrections, fires, explosions, earthquakes, nuclear accidents, floods, power blackouts affecting facilities (the "Affected Performance").

- (b) Upon the occurrence of a condition described in Section 14.1(a), the party whose performance is affected shall give written notice to the other party describing the Affected Performance, and the parties shall promptly confer, in good faith, to agree upon equitable, reasonable action to minimize the impact on both parties of such condition, including, without limitation, implementing disaster recovery procedures. The parties agree that the party whose performance is affected shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize the delay caused by the force majeure events and recommence the Affected Performance. If the delay caused by the force majeure event lasts for more than fifteen (15) Days, the parties shall negotiate an equitable amendment to this Agreement with respect to the Affected Performance. If the parties are unable to agree upon an equitable amendment within ten (10) Days after such fifteen (15)-Day period has expired, then either party shall be entitled to serve thirty (30) Days' notice of termination on the other party with respect to only such Affected Performance. The remaining portion of the Agreement that does not involve the Affected Performance shall continue in full force and effect. RMSS shall be entitled to be paid for that portion of the Affected Performance which it completed through the termination date.

14.2 TIME OF PERFORMANCE AND INCREASED COSTS. RMSS's time of performance under this Agreement shall be adjusted, if and to the extent reasonably necessary, in the event and to the extent that (i) Licensee fails to timely submit material data or materials in the prescribed form or in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement, (ii) Licensee fails to perform on a timely basis, the material functions or other responsibilities of Licensee described in this Agreement, (iii) Licensee or any governmental agency authorized to regulate or supervise Licensee makes any special request, which is affirmed by Licensee and/or compulsory on RMSS, which affects RMSS's normal performance schedule, or (iv) Licensee has modified the RMSS Software in a manner affecting RMSS's burden. In addition, if any of the above events occur, and such event results in an increased cost to RMSS, RMSS shall estimate such increased costs in writing in advance and, upon Licensee's approval, Licensee shall be required to pay any and all such reasonable, increased costs to RMSS upon documented expenditure, up to 110% of the estimate.

15.2 CHANGE OF ADDRESS. The address to which such notices, demands, requests, elections or other communications are to be given by either party may be changed by written notice given by such party to the other party pursuant to this Section.

16. WARRANTIES.

16.1 PERFORMANCE. For as long as RMSS is providing Maintenance to Licensee for the RMSS Software, RMSS warrants and represents that the RMSS Software and the Custom Modifications, as delivered to Licensee and the Base Modifications, will perform in all material respects in accordance with the respective Documentation, in concert and otherwise.

16.2 PERFORMANCE OF OBLIGATIONS. Each party represents and warrants to the other that it shall perform its respective obligations under this Agreement, including Exhibits and Schedules, in a professional and workmanlike manner.

16.3 COMPLIANCE WITH LAW. RMSS warrants that (i) it has the power and corporate authority to enter into and perform this Agreement, (ii) its performance of this Agreement does not and will not violate any governmental law, regulation, rule or order, contract, charter or by-law; (iii) it has sufficient right, title and interest (or another Subsidiary of FNF has or will grant it sufficient license rights) in the RMSS Software to grant the licenses herein granted, (iv) it has received no written notice of any third party claim or threat of a claim alleging that any part of the RMSS Software infringes the rights of any third party in any of the United States, and (v) each item of RMSS Software provided by or for RMSS to Licensee shall be delivered free of undisclosed trapdoors, Trojan horses, time bombs, time outs, spyware, viruses or other code which, with the passage of time, in the absence of action or upon a trigger, would interfere with the normal use of, or access to, any file, datum or system.

16.4 EXCLUSIVE WARRANTIES. EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN THIS AGREEMENT, NEITHER PARTY MAKES ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, AND EACH PARTY AGREES THAT ALL REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES THAT ARE NOT EXPRESSLY PROVIDED IN THIS AGREEMENT ARE HEREBY EXCLUDED AND DISCLAIMED.

17.1 ASSIGNMENT. Except as set forth herein, neither party may sell, assign, convey, or transfer the licenses granted hereunder or any of such party's rights or interests, or delegate any of its obligations hereunder without the written consent of the other party. Any such consent shall be conditioned upon the understanding that this Agreement shall be binding upon the assigning party's successors and assigns. Either party may assign this Agreement to any Subsidiary that is not a Competitor except that the assigning party shall remain responsible for all obligations under this Agreement including the payment of fees. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, Licensee may not assign this Agreement to a Competitor.

17.2 SEVERABILITY. Provided Licensee retains quiet enjoyment of the RMSS Software including Custom Modifications and Base Modifications, if any one or more of the provisions contained herein shall for any reason be held to be unenforceable in any respect under law, such unenforceability shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement, but this Agreement shall be construed as if such unenforceable provision or provisions had never been contained herein, provided that the removal of such offending term or provision does not materially alter the burdens or benefits of either of the parties under this Agreement or any Exhibit or Schedule, in which case the unenforceable portion shall be replaced by one that reflects the parties original intent as closely as possible while remaining enforceable.

17.3 THIRD PARTY BENEFICIARIES. Except as set forth herein, the provisions of this Agreement are for the benefit of the parties and not for any other person. Should any third party institute proceedings, this Agreement shall not provide any such person with any remedy, claim, liability, reimbursement, cause of action, or other right.

17.4 GOVERNING LAW; FORUM SELECTION; CONSENT OF JURISDICTION. This Agreement will be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of Florida, USA, without regard to principles of conflict of laws. The parties agree that the only circumstance in which disputes between them, not otherwise excepted from the resolution process described in Section 11, will not be subject to the provisions of Section 11 is where a party makes a good faith determination that a breach of the terms of this Agreement by the other party requires prompt and equitable relief. Each of the parties submits to the personal jurisdiction of any state or federal court sitting in Jacksonville, Florida with respect to such judicial proceedings. Each of the parties waives any defense of inconvenient forum to the maintenance of any action or proceeding so brought and waives any bond, surety or to other security that might be required of any party with respect thereto. Any party may make service on the other party by sending or delivering a copy of the process to the party to be served at the address set forth in Section 15 above. Nothing in this Section, however, shall affect the right of any party to serve legal process in any other manner permitted by law or in equity. Each party agrees that a final judgment in any action or proceeding so brought shall be conclusive and may be enforced by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law or in equity.

- 17.5 EXECUTED IN COUNTERPARTS. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same document.
- 17.6 CONSTRUCTION. The headings and numbering of sections in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not be construed to define or limit any of the terms or affect the scope, meaning or interpretation of this Agreement or the particular section to which they relate. This Agreement and the provisions contained herein shall not be construed or interpreted for or against any party because that party drafted or caused its legal representative to draft any of its provisions.
- 17.7 ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement, including the Exhibits and Schedules attached hereto and the agreements referenced herein constitute the entire agreement between the parties, and supersedes all prior oral or written agreements, representations, statements, negotiations, understandings, proposals, marketing brochures, correspondence and undertakings related thereto.
- 17.8 AMENDMENTS AND WAIVERS. This Agreement may be amended only by written agreement signed by duly authorized representatives of each party. No waiver of any provisions of this Agreement and no consent to any default under this Agreement shall be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by or on behalf of both parties. No course of dealing or failure of any party to strictly enforce any term, right or condition of this Agreement shall be construed as a waiver of such term, right or condition. Waiver by either party of any default by the other party shall not be deemed a waiver of any other default. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time prior to the Sale of FNIS or any offering and sale to the public of any shares or equity securities of FNIS or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to a registration statement in the United States, this Agreement may not be amended without the prior written consent of Thomas H. Lee Equity Fund V, L.P. ("THL") and TPG Partners III, L.P. ("TPG") if such amendment would affect Sections 2.1, 3, 4, 5, 9, 13, 14.2, 16.2, 17.10, Exhibits B or C, either party's limitation of liability, RMSS' right to terminate or rights upon default by Licensee or a Licensee Subsidiary, in any manner materially adverse to the consolidated business activities of the FNIS Group (defined below), taken as a whole, or FNIS Group's costs of doing business, viewed on a consolidated basis, provided that in no event shall any change to the schedules hereto require such prior written consent unless such change would materially and adversely affect in any manner FNIS Group's consolidated business activities, taken as a whole, or FNIS Group's costs of doing business, viewed on a consolidated basis, and provided, further, that in no event shall the amendment provisions set forth in this Section 17.8 be amended or modified without the consent of THL and TPG. THL and TPG are intended third party beneficiaries of this Agreement solely with respect to this Section 17.8. "FNIS Group" means FNIS, Subsidiaries of FNIS, and each Person that FNIS directly or indirectly controls (within the meaning of the Securities Act) immediately after the Effective Date, and each other individual, a partnership, corporation, limited liability company, association, joint stock company, trust, joint venture, unincorporated organization, governmental entity or department, agency, or political subdivision thereof that becomes an Affiliate of FNIS after the Effective Date. "Sale of FNIS" means an acquisition by any Person (within the meaning of Section 3(a)(9) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") and used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) thereof ("Person")) of Beneficial Ownership (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act) of 50% or more of either the then outstanding shares of FNIS common stock or the combined voting power of the then outstanding voting securities of FNIS entitled to vote generally in the election of directors; excluding, however, the following: (i) any acquisition directly from FNIS, other than an acquisition by virtue of the exercise of a conversion privilege unless the security being so converted was itself acquired directly from FNIS or (ii) any acquisition by any employee benefit plan (or related trust) sponsored or maintained by FNIS or a member of the FNIS Group.

17.9 REMEDIES CUMULATIVE. Unless otherwise provided for under this Agreement, all rights of termination or cancellation, or other remedies set forth in this Agreement, are cumulative and are not intended to be exclusive of other remedies to which the injured party may be entitled by law or equity in case of any breach or threatened breach by the other party of any provision in this Agreement. Use of one or more remedies shall not bar use of any other remedy for the purpose of enforcing any provision of this Agreement.

17.10 TAXES. All charges and fees to be paid under this Agreement are exclusive of any applicable sales, use, service or similar tax which may be assessed currently or in the future on the RMSS Software or related services provided under this Agreement. If a sales, use, services or a similar tax is assessed on the RMSS Software or related services provided to Licensee under this Agreement, Licensee will pay directly, reimburse or indemnify RMSS for such taxes as well as any applicable interest and penalties. Licensee shall pay such taxes in addition to the sums otherwise due under this Agreement. RMSS shall, to the extent it is aware of taxes, itemize them on a proper VAT, GST or other invoice submitted pursuant to this Agreement. All property, employment and income taxes based on the assets, employees and net income, respectively, of RMSS shall be RMSS's sole responsibility. The parties will cooperate with each other in determining the extent to which any tax is due and owing under the circumstances and shall provide and make available to each other any withholding certificates, information regarding the location of use of the RMSS Software or provision of the services or sale and any other exemption certificates or information reasonably requested by either party.

17.11 PRESS RELEASES. The parties shall consult with each other in preparing any press release, public announcement, news media response or other form of release of information concerning this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby that is intended to provide such information to the news media or the public (a "Press Release"). Neither party shall issue or cause the publication of any such Press Release without the prior written consent of the other party; except that nothing herein will prohibit either party from issuing or causing publication of any such Press Release to the extent that such action is required by applicable law or the rules of any national stock exchange applicable to such party or its affiliates, in which case the party wishing to make such disclosure will, if practicable under the circumstances, notify the other party of the proposed time of issuance of such Press Release and consult with and allow the other party reasonable time to comment on such Press Release in advance of its issuance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement as of the Effective Date by their duly authorized representatives.

4.1 eLenderSolutions and any related documentation are the confidential and proprietary property of both RMSS and LSI and, subject to any contrary position in a Joint Development Agreement as effective (if at all), neither Party shall disclose such confidential and proprietary information to any third party, other than to (a) third party consultants and developers under written obligations of nondisclosure comparable to those herein, (b) competent regulators, auditors or attorneys of the receiving Party after having been given notice of its confidential nature, or (c) pursuant to enforceable judicial process or other legal compulsion.

(i) any acquisition directly from FNIS, other than an acquisition by virtue of the exercise of a conversion privilege unless the security being so converted was itself acquired directly from FNIS or (ii) any acquisition by any employee benefit plan (or related trust) sponsored or maintained by FNIS or a member of the FNIS Group.

LENDER SOLUTIONS
SOFTWARE DEVELOPMENT AND PROPERTY ALLOCATION
AGREEMENT

This SOFTWARE DEVELOPMENT AND PROPERTY ALLOCATION AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is made and entered into as of March 4, 2005 (the "Effective Date"), by and between ROCKY MOUNTAIN SUPPORT SERVICES, INC., an Arizona corporation ("RMSS") and LSI TITLE COMPANY, a California corporation ("LSI").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, pursuant to a Cross Conveyance and Joint Ownership Agreement between the parties dated as of the Effective Date, RMSS and LSI are equal owners of an undivided interest in an incomplete software package termed by the parties 'eLender Solutions' (the "Software");

WHEREAS, the parties agree that, subject to the terms herein, LSI shall pursue completion of Release 1.0 of the Software and deliver to RMSS that version of the Software which will perform in accordance with the specifications described in Schedule A to this Agreement (the "Specifications"), and the related documentation describing the Software and those Specifications ("Release 1.0 of the Software");

WHEREAS, LSI is willing to undertake such development on the terms herein;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual agreements and covenants set forth herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. DEVELOPMENT & DELIVERY UNDERTAKING OF RELEASE 1.0 OF THE SOFTWARE

- 1.1 LSI shall continue to expend at least that level of effort and resources used prior to the Effective Date, which shall at least represent a reasonable level of effort and resources that are necessary to enable LSI to perform and complete its obligations under this Agreement, in development hereunder of Release 1.0 of the Software with the goal of producing, no later than August 31, 2005, Release 1.0 of the Software satisfying the Specifications in all material respects together with basic documentation ("Documentation"). LSI reserves the right to propose changes to the specifications of Release 1.0 of the Software to conform it to LSI's ongoing business requirements. Upon RMSS' written approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, the new specifications shall become Specifications for purposes of this Agreement.
- 1.2 Designated representatives of LSI and RMSS shall meet monthly or as otherwise agreed during the term hereof to discuss the status of the Software development. LSI shall provide to RMSS, in a format mutually agreed upon by the parties and within one (1) day of the monthly meeting, a written status report describing Release 1.0 of the Software and Documentation development progress.

1.3 Upon delivery of the proposed Release 1.0 of the Software and Documentation to RMSS by LSI, RMSS shall have a period of forty-five (45) days to confirm that the Software performs in accordance with its Specifications and that the Documentation is reasonably complete as to the major functions of the Software and substantially accurate. If RMSS reasonably believes that the Software does not perform in accordance with the Specifications, RMSS shall so inform LSI in a detailed writing of the areas of nonconformance. LSI shall use reasonable efforts to revise the Software to make it conform to the Specifications, and RMSS shall cooperate with such efforts as reasonably requested by LSI. Both parties will cooperate in good faith to apply any agreed testing criteria for Release 1.0 of the Software. Upon RMSS' confirmation that the Software has successfully performed in accordance with the Specifications with no severity one and two errors, which confirmation will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, the Software will be deemed "Accepted." Notwithstanding RMSS' acceptance testing rights, LSI may use the Software in production to support LSI's own business at any time.

1.4 LSI shall deliver to RMSS a copy of the current relevant work product, including source code (in a format reasonably requested by RMSS), and a copy of Documentation theretofore developed by LSI within seven business days following completion of each release, which is presently scheduled in each even calendar month. If LSI does not make such delivery in an even calendar month, then RMSS may request such a delivery upon written request to LSI. Regardless of the specific calendar month involved or RMSS' request, the same duty of delivery shall be due as of, and within seven business days following, the close of business on August 31, 2005 and on the close of business on the last day of the Term hereunder. The parties agree that the failure of LSI to comply with this Section 1.7 will result in irreparable harm to RMSS, which harm is not capable of full compensation by the payment of monetary damages, and therefore, RMSS shall be entitled to seek the granting of injunctive relief, including, but not limited to a preliminary injunction, without the requirement of RMSS' posting of bond to address any such failure by LSI.

2. DEVELOPMENT OF SOFTWARE BEYOND RELEASE 1.0 OF THE SOFTWARE

2.1 During the Term but after Acceptance of Release 1.0, LSI agrees to continue to further develop and enhance the Software in a manner and timeframe consistent with LSI's business objectives. Prior to August 31, 2005 and from time to time thereafter, the parties shall promptly commence meeting, on a schedule to be agreed at that time, to discuss the features, functions, and timing of any such new development. RMSS shall have the right to provide input with respect to such new development direction, but ultimately LSI shall have the final decision on the scope and timing of any future development of the Software. After LSI establishes the future development direction of the Software, it shall provide

RMSS with the applicable development specifications, at which time, and unless otherwise agreed to by the parties, the terms and conditions of Section 1 with respect to the Release 1.0 of the Software will apply to this new development for the remainder of the Term, as extended by mutual agreement of the parties.

- 2.2 In the event that the parties do not agree to continue their joint development arrangement beyond the Term, LSI, for a two year period thereafter and when requested by RMSS, agrees to offer and provide access to RMSS to subsequent releases of LSI internally developed Software on commercially reasonable financial and other terms.

3. TERM

- 3.1 Unless earlier terminated as contemplated herein or extended by the mutual agreement of the parties, this Agreement shall continue until March 31, 2006 (the "Term"). Neither termination nor expiration shall terminate any obligations accrued hereunder prior to such time.

4. COMPENSATION

- 4.1 Through March 31, 2006, RMSS agrees to pay LSI five hundred thousand ($500,000) per month for LSI's development services. RMSS shall pay LSI within thirty (30) days of receipt of invoice. The parties have specified August 31, 2005 as a "Target Completion Date" for Release 1.0 of the Software.
- 4.2 Following Acceptance and for the duration of the Term, LSI shall offer maintenance for the Software, as described in Schedule B hereto, for no incremental fee. Any related professional services for custom development, conversion, integration, hosting or training assistance shall be performed pursuant to further agreement between the parties. The parties intend that RMSS will utilize Release 1.0 of the Software from within the LSI environment. If RMSS elects to maintain and use Release 1.0 of the Software in an RMSS environment, RMSS shall bear the costs of any third party hardware and software necessary to establish and run the Software in RMSS' environment.

5. PRODUCTION BACK OFFICE

- 5.1 In the event that RMSS elects to utilize the rules engine component of Release 1.0 of the Software in production, then RMSS agrees that it will only utilize LSI services, and not the data and services of any other third party, with respect to the use of such rules engine. Similarly, if in connection with providing such services to RMSS, LSI needs to obtain any "Starters" and "L&Vs" from Fidelity National Financial, Inc. under that certain FNF Starters Repository Access Agreement dated as of the Effective Date between Fidelity National Financial, Inc. and Fidelity National Information Services, Inc. (the "Starters Agreement"), then either RMSS agrees to reimburse LSI for the fees paid to Fidelity National Financial, Inc. for access to the Starters and L&V under the Starters Agreement, or to cause Fidelity National Financial, Inc. not to charge FNIS for the fees to access the Starters and L&Vs under the Starters Agreement.

- 5.2 If RMSS desires to purchase production back office processing services with respect to its use of the Software during the Term, it shall so inform LSI and Provide LSI with the opportunity to make a commercial proposal to provide such services.

6. TITLE IN DEVELOPMENTS

- 6.1 Each Party shall own an undivided half interest in the Software (including Release 1.0 of the Software and any subsequent development of the Software during the Term), and related Documentation (without a duty of accounting) as it is further developed and enhanced hereunder and as it exists upon termination of this Agreement, maintaining the allocation of title established by the above-referenced Cross Conveyance and Joint Ownership Agreement. During the Term, LSI hereby makes a continuing assignment of an undivided one half interest in its Software (including Release 1.0 of the Software and subsequent development of the Software during the Term) and Documentation work product hereunder including without limitation related know-how, concepts, inventions, copyrights, source and object code. The foregoing continuing assignment shall cease upon termination hereof but the allocation of property subject to the assignment to such date shall be unaffected thereby.
- 6.2 Subject to Section 7 herein, each party may use the work product arising hereunder and owned by it in any manner it may choose, including without limitation development of derivative works. Neither party shall have to account to the other for any profits it may make from exploitation of such work product within the terms of permitted use hereunder.
- 6.3 From time to time, upon request of either party, at the expense of the requesting party, the other party shall take such actions and execute and deliver such documents, as the requesting party may reasonably specify for purposes of recording, perfecting or otherwise memorializing the foregoing allocation of property interest. This provision shall survive the term of this Agreement.

7. LSI COVENANTS, REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

- 7.1 LSI covenants, represents and warrants as follows:

- 7.1.1 the service to be provided to RMSS hereunder shall be performed in a professional and workmanlike manner;
- 7.1.2 the Software development shall reflect solely the original work product of LSI unless the inclusion of third-party source code materials is embedded in the Software and is otherwise disclosed in writing in advance to RMSS;

7.1.3 If the services of a consultant or contractor are used by LSI in connection with development of the Software, LSI shall secure all necessary agreements to assure that (i) the title to its work product vests in LSI and, pursuant hereto, in RMSS, and that (ii) consultant or contractor is bound to the duties of confidentiality reasonably similar to those described in this Agreement;

7.1.4 the Software developed hereunder shall not infringe or misappropriate any intellectual property rights, including without limitation, copyrights, trademarks, trade secrets or patents, or contractual rights of any third party;

7.1.5 (a) it has the power and corporate authority to enter into and perform this Agreement, (b) its performance of this Agreement does not and will not violate any governmental law, regulation, rule or order, contract, charter or by-law; (c) it has received no written notice of any third party claim or threat of a claim alleging that any part of the Software infringes the rights of any third party in any of the United States, and (d) each item of Software developed hereunder shall be delivered free of undisclosed trapdoors, Trojan horses, time bombs, time outs, spyware, viruses or other code which, with the passage of time, in the absence of action or upon a trigger, would interfere with the normal use of, or access to, any file, datum or system.

8. CONFIDENTIALITY.

8.1 Proprietary Information (i) shall be deemed the confidential property of the disclosing party (or the party for whom such data was collected or processed, if any), (ii) shall be used solely for the purposes of administering and otherwise implementing the terms of this Agreement and any ancillary agreements, and (iii) shall be protected by the receiving party in accordance with the terms of this Section 7. This Section 7 shall survive the term.

8.2 Except as set forth in this Section, neither party shall disclose the Proprietary Information of the other party in whole or in part, including derivations, to any third party except as contemplated herein. In no event shall source code for the Software or derivative works be shared with any third party except under a perpetual duty of nondisclosure. If the parties agree to a specific nondisclosure period for a specific document, the disclosing party shall mark the document with that nondisclosure period. In the absence of a specific period, the duty of confidentiality for (a) object code versions of the Software and related Documentation shall extend until the Software has been Accepted or until termination of this Agreement and (b) with respect to any other Proprietary Information shall extend for a period of (5) five years from disclosure. Proprietary Information shall be held in confidence by the receiving party and its employees, and shall be disclosed to only those of the receiving party's employees and professional advisors who have a need for it in connection with the administration and implementation of this Agreement. Each party shall use the same degree of care and afford the same protections to the Proprietary Information of the other party as it uses and affords to its own Proprietary Information.

8.3 Proprietary Information shall not be deemed proprietary and, subject to the carve-out below, the receiving party shall have no obligation of nondisclosure with respect to any such information which:

8.3.1 is or becomes publicly known through no wrongful act, fault or negligence of the receiving party;

8.3.2 was disclosed to the receiving party by a third party that was free of obligations of confidentiality to the party providing the information;

8.3.3 is approved for release by written authorization of the disclosing party;

8.3.4 was known to the receiving party prior to receipt of the information; or

8.3.5 is publicly disclosed pursuant to a requirement or request of a governmental agency, or disclosure is required by operation of law.

8.4 The parties acknowledge that this Agreement contains confidential information that may be considered proprietary by one or both of the parties, and agree to limit distribution of this Agreement to those employees of the parties with a need to know the contents of this Agreement or as required by law or national stock exchange rule. In no event may this Agreement be reproduced or copies shown to any third parties (except counsel, auditors and professional advisors) without the prior written consent of the other party, except as may be necessary by reason of legal, accounting, tax or regulatory requirements, in which event the respective parties agree to exercise reasonable diligence in limiting such disclosure to the minimum necessary under the particular circumstances.

8.4.1 In addition, each party shall give notice to the other party of any demands to disclose or provide Proprietary Information of the other party under or pursuant to lawful process prior to disclosing or furnishing such Proprietary Information, and shall cooperate in seeking reasonable protective arrangements.

9. GOVERNING LAW; DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 9.1 This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of Florida. The parties hereby submit to the personal jurisdiction of the state and federal courts in the State of Florida for the purpose of adjudication of all matters arising hereunder or relating hereto which may be the subject of litigation between the parties.
- 9.2 If, prior to the termination of this Agreement, a dispute arises between RMSS and LSI with respect to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, or any subject matter governed by this Agreement, such dispute shall be settled as set forth in Sections 8.3-8.7 of this Section 8.
- 9.3 The parties shall escalate and negotiate, in good faith, any claim or dispute that has not been satisfactorily resolved between the parties at the level where the issue is discovered and has immediate impact. Escalation shall be by written notice to the other party and to the movant's president. Such president (or his or her designee) shall attempt to resolve such a dispute within twenty (20) days of the initial communication between them on the topic of the dispute (which may be by notice). The location, format, frequency, duration and termination of these discussions shall be left to the discretion of the representatives involved. If such parties do not resolve the underlying dispute within such twenty (20) day period, then either party may notify the other in writing that the dispute is to be elevated to binding arbitration.
- 9.4 All discussions and correspondence among the representatives for purposes of these negotiations shall be treated as Confidential Information developed for purposes of settlement, exempt from discovery and production, which shall not be admissible in any subsequent proceedings between the parties. Documents identified in or provided with such communications, which are not prepared for purposes of the negotiations, are not so exempted and may, if otherwise admissible, be admitted in evidence in such subsequent proceeding.
- 9.5 Either party may request arbitration by giving the other party written notice to such effect, which notice shall describe, in reasonable detail, the nature of the dispute, controversy or claim. Such arbitration shall be governed by the then current version of the Commercial Arbitration Rules and Mediation Procedures of the American Arbitration Association. The Arbitration will be conducted in Jacksonville, Florida in front of one mutually agreed upon arbitrator.
- 9.6 Each party shall bear its own fees, costs and expenses of the arbitration and its own legal expenses, attorneys' fees and costs of all experts and witnesses. Unless the award provides otherwise, the fees and expenses of the arbitration procedures, including the fees of the arbitrator or arbitrators, will be shared equally by the parties.

9.7 Any award rendered pursuant to such arbitration shall be final, conclusive and binding upon the parties, and any judgment thereon may be entered and enforced in any court of competent jurisdiction.

10. INDEMNIFICATION

10.1 Each party (in this context, the "Indemnitor") shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the other, its officers, directors, agents, and employees (collectively, "Indemnitees") against all costs, expenses, and losses (including reasonable attorney fees and costs) incurred by reason of claims of third parties against any of the Indemnitees based on any Indemnitor use of, or related Indemnitor representations or assurances with respect to, the Software to such third party (or any derivative work developed by or for the Indemnitor).

10.2 LSI shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless RMSS against all costs, expenses and losses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs) incurred by reason of claims of third parties arising from the breach of Section 6.1.2, 6.1.3, or 6.1.4 hereof.

11. INFRINGEMENTS BY THIRD PARTIES

11.1 The parties shall cooperate reasonably in the prosecution of infringers of the Software. If the parties cannot agree to pursue a purported infringer, a party wishing to pursue such infringer on its own may do so at its own expense (and to its own benefit), and the other party shall, to the extent necessary, assign its right to pursue such a claim to the former party.

11.2 Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a party unilaterally pursuing a purported infringer is the subject of a judgment invalidating or derogating in any material way from the value of the Software to the party having elected not to pursue such enforcement, the latter party may initiate binding arbitration, pursuant to Section 8 hereof, to determine the diminution in value to it of the Software in light of the aforementioned judgment, and to recover from the party having elected to pursue a claim, an equal amount.

12. TERMINATION AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

12.1 The parties may terminate this Agreement upon mutual agreement by written consent.

12.2 If either party fails to perform any of its material obligations under this Agreement and does not cure such failure within thirty (30) days of receipt (or, if a cure could not reasonably be completed in thirty days, but the other party is diligently pursuing a cure, then within sixty (60) days) of notice of default, then the other party may terminate this Agreement effective on the last day of the cure period.

12.3 EACH PARTY SHALL BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER FOR ALL DIRECT DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO ANY CLAIMS, ACTIONS, LOSSES, COSTS, DAMAGES AND EXPENSES RELATED TO, IN CONNECTION WITH OR ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT. SUBJECT TO SECTION 11.4 BUT NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING ELSE IN THIS AGREEMENT TO THE CONTRARY, IN NO EVENT SHALL THE AGGREGATE LIABILITY OF EITHER PARTY TO THE OTHER FOR DAMAGES, WHETHER ARISING IN CONTRACT, TORT, EQUITY, NEGLIGENCE OR OTHERWISE EXCEED THE AMOUNT OF FEES PAID BY RMSS TO LSI PURSUANT TO THIS AGREEMENT OVER THE TWELVE MONTH PERIOD IMMEDIATELY PRECEDING THE EVENT GIVING RISE TO SUCH LIABILITY.

12.4 IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE FOR INDIRECT, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES OF ANY KIND WHATSOEVER.

Neither party has any authority to make commitments or enter into contracts on behalf of, bind, or otherwise obligate the other party in any manner whatsoever except as specifically set forth herein.

Lee Equity Fund V, L.P. ("THL") and TPG Partners III, L.P. ("TPG") if such amendment would affect Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 9, 10 or 11 in any manner materially adverse to FNIS Group's consolidated business activities, taken as a whole, or FNIS Group's costs of doing business, viewed on a consolidated basis, provided that in no event shall any change to the schedules hereto require such prior written consent unless such change would materially and adversely affect in any manner FNIS Group's consolidated business activities, taken as a whole, or FNIS Group's costs of doing business, viewed on a consolidated basis, and provided, further, that in no event shall the amendment provisions set forth in this Section 14.7 be amended or modified without the consent of THL and TPG. THL and TPG are intended third party beneficiaries of this Agreement solely with respect to this Section 14.7. "Sale of Fidelity National Information Services, Inc." means an acquisition by any Person (within the meaning of Section 3(a)(9) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") and used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) thereof ("Person")) of Beneficial Ownership (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act) of 50% or more of either the then outstanding shares of FNIS common stock or the combined voting power of the then outstanding voting securities of FNIS entitled to vote generally in the election of directors; excluding, however, the following: (i) any acquisition directly from FNIS, other than an acquisition by virtue of the exercise of a conversion privilege unless the security being so converted was itself acquired directly from FNIS or (ii) any acquisition by any employee benefit plan (or related trust) sponsored or maintained by FNIS or a member of the FNIS Group. "FNIS Group" means FNIS, Subsidiaries of FNIS, and each Person that FNIS directly or indirectly controls (within the meaning of the Securities Act) immediately after the Effective Date, and each other individual, a partnership, corporation, limited liability company, association, joint stock company, trust, joint venture, unincorporated organization, governmental entity or department, agency, or political subdivision thereof that becomes an Affiliate of FNIS after the Effective Date.

TITLEPOINT
SOFTWARE DEVELOPMENT AND
AGREEMENT

This SOFTWARE DEVELOPMENT AND PROPERTY ALLOCATION AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is made and entered into as of March 4, 2005 (the "Effective Date"), by and between ROCKY MOUNTAIN SUPPORT SERVICES, INC., an Arizona corporation ("RMSS") and PROPERTY INSIGHT, LLC, a California corporation ("PI").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, RMSS owns all intellectual property rights in and to Titlepoint, which was formerly known as PI2, and which is separate from Titlepoint Express, which is outside the scope of this Agreement (the "Software");

WHEREAS, the parties agree that, subject to the terms herein, PI shall pursue completion of Releases 1.0 and 2.0 of the Software and deliver to RMSS those versions of the Software which will perform in accordance with the specifications described in Schedule A to this Agreement or any mutually agreed upon changes to the specifications as described in Section 1.1 below (the "Specifications"), and the related documentation describing the Software and those Specifications ("Releases 1.0 and 2.0 of the Software");

WHEREAS, PI is willing to undertake such development on the terms herein;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual agreements and covenants set forth herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. DEVELOPMENT & DELIVERY UNDERTAKING OF RELEASES 1.0 AND 2.0 OF THE SOFTWARE

- 1.1 RMSS shall have a period of up to thirty days following the Effective Date to confirm the acceptability of the Specifications to Releases 1.0 and 2.0 as described on Schedule A. If RMSS provides such confirmation without proposing material changes to such Specifications, then the estimated delivery dates and fee caps described in this Agreement shall remain unchanged. If, however, RMSS proposes material changes to the specifications of Releases 1.0 and/or 2.0 as described on Schedule A, then the estimated delivery date and fee caps described in this Agreement shall not apply, and the parties shall use their commercially reasonable best efforts to develop and agree upon new mutually agreed upon Specifications for Releases 1.0 and/or 2.0 of the Software, consistent in all respects with Schedule A hereto, and to agree to new applicable delivery dates and fee caps as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter.

- 1.2 If a written Specification is not agreed between the parties by a date no later than sixty (60) days from the Effective Date, either party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement upon ten (10) days notice. If RMSS elects to so terminate, it shall reimburse PI for the unamortized cost of any hardware or software that PI may have purchased with RMSS' specific prior written approval in order to perform services hereunder prior to such termination date.
- 1.3 During the term, either party may propose changes to the Specifications but no change to the Specifications shall be adopted without written agreement of both parties.
- 1.4 PI shall continue to expend at least that level of effort and resources used prior to the Effective Date, which shall at least represent a reasonable level of effort and resources that are necessary to enable PI to perform and complete its obligations under this Agreement, in development hereunder of Releases 1.0 and 2.0 of the Software with the goal of producing, no later than the target dates set forth in Schedule A, attached hereto, Releases 1.0 and 2.0 of Software satisfying the Specifications in all material respects together with basic documentation ("Documentation").
- 1.5 Designated representatives of PI and RMSS shall meet monthly or as otherwise agreed during the term hereof to discuss the status of Releases 1.0 and 2.0 of the Software development. PI shall provide to RMSS, in a format mutually agreed upon by the parties and within one (1) day of the monthly meeting, a written status report describing of Releases 1.0 and 2.0 of the Software and Documentation development progress.
- 1.6 Upon delivery of each proposed Releases 1.0 or 2.0 of the Software and Documentation to RMSS by PI, RMSS shall have a period of forty-five (45) days to test such release of the Software in accordance with the testing scripts described in Schedule B attached hereto to confirm that it performs in accordance with its Specifications. If RMSS reasonably believes that any such release of the Software does not perform in accordance with its respective Specifications, RMSS shall so inform PI in a detailed writing of the areas of nonconformance. PI shall use reasonable efforts to revise the appropriate release of the Software to make it conform to its respective Specifications, and RMSS shall cooperate with such efforts as reasonably requested by PI. Both parties will cooperate in good faith to apply the above testing criteria for the Releases 1.0 and 2.0 of the Software. Upon RMSS' confirmation that a release of the Software has successfully performed in accordance with the Specifications, which confirmation will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, the Software will be deemed "Accepted." After the earlier to occur of (a) RMSS uses the Software in general production (which does not include production use at a limited number of sites during the forty-five (45) day testing period) and (b) RMSS' testing shows no severity one and two errors, any additional work requested by RMSS and performed by PI to conform the Software to the Specifications shall be done on a time and materials basis without regard to the fee cap.

- 1.7 Upon the earlier of Acceptance of each release of the Software or RMSS using the Software release in general production, RMSS grants to PI, a perpetual, irrevocable, non-terminable, transferable, and nonexclusive worldwide license to use, reproduce, exploit, sell services from, sublicense, operate, alter, modify, adapt, distribute, create derivative works from, display and access that release of the Software, and including the right to create derivative works and the right to sublicense use of the Software to third parties. Additionally, upon Acceptance of each release of the Software, PI shall update, purge and maintain such release of the Software under and in accordance with the terms and conditions of that certain Title Plant Maintenance Agreement dated as of the Effective Date between PI, Security Union Title Insurance Company, Chicago Title Insurance Company, and Ticor Title Insurance Company and Exhibit B thereof shall be automatically amended to include any Accepted development work performed under this Agreement.
- 1.8 Upon request of RMSS from time to time, but not more than once in each calendar quarter, PI shall deliver to RMSS a copy of the current relevant work product, including source code (in a format reasonably requested by RMSS), and a copy of Documentation theretofore developed by PI. Regardless of RMSS request, the same duty of delivery shall be due as of, and within fifteen days following, RMSS' Acceptance of each release of the Software. The parties agree that the failure of PI to comply with this Section 1.8 will result in irreparable harm to RMSS, which harm is not capable of full compensation by the payment of monetary damages, and therefore, RMSS shall be entitled to seek the granting of injunctive relief, including, but not limited to a preliminary injunction, without the requirement of RMSS' posting of bond to address any such failure by PI.

2. DEVELOPMENT OF SOFTWARE BEYOND RELEASES 1.0 AND 2.0 OF THE SOFTWARE

- 2.1 Prior to November 14, 2005 and from time to time thereafter, the parties shall promptly commence meeting, on a schedule to be agreed at that time, to discuss the features, functions, timing and cost of any new development of the Software, including the cost and timeline for the conversion of additional counties and data beyond those counties scoped for Release 2.0. Any additional development after the Acceptance of release 2.0 of the Software will require written agreement of the parties on the features, functions, timing and cost.
- 2.2 In the event that at any time the parties do not agree to continue their joint development arrangement on the Software within forty-five (45) days after the Acceptance of the last Release or other development deliverable, then for the two year period following the last Acceptance and when requested by RMSS, PI agrees to offer and provide access to RMSS to subsequent releases of PI internally developed Software on commercially reasonable financial and other terms.

3. TERM

- 3.1 Unless earlier terminated as contemplated herein, this Agreement shall continue until forty-five (45) days after Acceptance of Release 2.0 or any agreed Release or development there after, without the parties agreeing in writing on PI performing any further development work for RMSS under this Agreement (the "Term"). Neither termination nor expiration shall terminate any obligations accrued hereunder prior to such time.

4. COMPENSATION

- 4.1 RMSS agrees to pay PI the fees and pass-through expenses (such as travel and entertainment expenses) described in Schedule C, attached hereto, which amount RMSS shall pay to PI within thirty (30) days of receipt of invoice.
- 4.2 Schedule A identifies target completion dates for each of Release 1.0 and 2.0 of the Software.
- 4.3 Any related professional services for integration, open order and/or data plant conversion, implementation, hosting, or special training assistance shall be performed pursuant to a further agreement between the parties. In the event that RMSS decides to run the Software in its own environment, RMSS shall bear the costs of any third party hardware and software necessary to establish and run the Software in its environment.

5. ADDITIONAL OR CHANGED SERVICES

- 5.1 Either party may from time to time request the other party to change the Specifications, and RMSS may from time to time request PI to perform services that are not specified herein ("Additional or Changed Services"). Upon receipt of this request, the parties agree to meet and work together to consider this request. If the parties agree, then they shall prepare and enter into an appropriate amendment. Conversely, if the parties can not agree, then each party shall have the right to undertake such Additional or Changed Services on its own without sharing such work with the other party. PI shall not be required to commence, nor shall RMSS be liable to pay for, any Additional or Changed Service unless and until PI and RMSS have entered into an applicable amendment.

6. TITLE IN SOFTWARE AND DEVELOPMENTS

- 6.1 All Releases 1.0 and 2.0 of the Software, or any future release developed under this agreement, will be and will remain the exclusive property of RMSS. Enhancements or modifications to the Software and related documentation performed hereunder shall be and remain the exclusive property of RMSS or its third party licensor. PI agrees that each item of PI work product hereunder, including without limitation software, data bases, files, compilations, logs and reports is, to the extent applicable, a "work made for hire" as defined under U.S. copyright law and that, as a result, RMSS shall own all copyrights in such work product as it arises or otherwise comes into being. To the extent that such work product does not qualify as a work made for hire under applicable law, and/or to the extent that any of the foregoing includes content subject to copyright, patent, trademark, trade secret, or other intellectual property rights, PI hereby continuously assigns to RMSS, its successors and assigns, all right, title and interest in and to any such work product as the same arises or otherwise comes into being during the Term, including all copyrights, patents, trademarks, trade secrets, and other proprietary rights therein (including renewals thereof). From time to time during or following the Term, PI shall execute and deliver to RMSS such additional instruments, and take such other actions, as RMSS may reasonably request to confirm, evidence or carry out the grants of rights contemplated by this paragraph.
- 6.2 RMSS and PI shall each be the sole and exclusive owner of all trade secrets, patents, copyrights, and other proprietary rights owned by each of them prior to entering into this Agreement.

7. PI COVENANTS, REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

7.1 PI covenants, represents and warrants as follows:

7.1.1 the service to be provided to RMSS hereunder shall be performed in a professional and workmanlike manner;

7.1.2 the Software development shall reflect solely the original work product of PI unless the inclusion of third-party source code materials is embedded in the Software and is otherwise disclosed in writing in advance to RMSS;

7.1.3 If the services of a consultant or contractor are used by PI in connection with development of the Software, PI shall secure all necessary agreements to assure that (i) the title to its work product vests in PI and, pursuant hereto, in RMSS, and that (ii) consultant or contractor is bound to the duties of confidentiality reasonably similar to those described in this Agreement;

7.1.4 the Software developed hereunder shall not infringe or misappropriate any intellectual property rights, including without limitation, copyrights, trademarks, trade secrets or patents, or contractual rights of any third party;

7.1.5 (a) it has the power and corporate authority to enter into and perform this Agreement, (b) its performance of this Agreement does not and will not violate any governmental law, regulation, rule or order, contract, charter or by-law; (c) it has received no written notice of any third party claim or threat of a claim alleging that any part of the Software infringes the rights of any third party in any of the United States, and (d) each item of Software developed hereunder shall be delivered free of undisclosed trapdoors, Trojan horses, time bombs, time outs, spyware, viruses or other code which, with the passage of time, in the absence of action or upon a trigger, would interfere with the normal use of, or access to, any file, datum or system.

8. CONFIDENTIALITY.

8.1 Proprietary Information (i) shall be deemed the confidential property of the disclosing party (or the party for whom such data was collected or processed, if any), (ii) shall be used solely for the purposes of administering and otherwise implementing the terms of this Agreement and any ancillary agreements, and (iii) shall be protected by the receiving party in accordance with the terms of this Section 8. This Section 8 shall survive the term.

8.2 Except as set forth in this Section, neither party shall disclose the Proprietary Information of the other party in whole or in part, including derivations, to any third party except as contemplated herein. In no event shall source code for the Software or derivative works be shared with any third party except under a perpetual duty of nondisclosure. If the parties agree to a specific nondisclosure period for a specific document, the disclosing party shall mark the document with that nondisclosure period. In no event may this Agreement be reproduced or copies shown to any third parties (except counsel, auditors and professional advisors) without the prior written consent of the other party, except as may be necessary by reason of legal, accounting, tax or regulatory requirements, in which event the respective parties agree to exercise reasonable diligence in limiting such disclosure to the minimum necessary under the particular circumstances.

8.4.1 In addition, each party shall give notice to the other party of any demands to disclose or provide Proprietary Information of the other party under or pursuant to lawful process prior to disclosing or furnishing such Proprietary Information, and shall cooperate in seeking reasonable protective arrangements.

of the state and federal courts in the State of Florida for the purpose of adjudication of all matters arising hereunder or relating hereto which may be the subject of litigation between the parties.

The location, format, frequency, duration and termination of these discussions shall be left to the discretion of the representatives involved. If such parties do not resolve the underlying dispute within such twenty (20) day period, then either party may notify the other in writing that the dispute is to be elevated to binding arbitration.
- 9.4 All discussions and correspondence among the representatives for purposes of these negotiations shall be treated as Confidential Information developed for purposes of settlement, exempt from discovery and production, which shall not be admissible in any subsequent proceedings between the parties. Documents identified in or provided with such communications, which are not prepared for purposes of the negotiations, are not so exempted and may, if otherwise admissible, be admitted in evidence in such subsequent proceeding.
- 9.5 Either party may request arbitration by giving the other party written notice to such effect, which notice shall describe, in reasonable detail, the nature of the dispute, controversy or claim. Such arbitration shall be governed by the then current version of the Commercial Arbitration Rules and Mediation Procedures of the American Arbitration Association. The Arbitration will be conducted in Jacksonville, Florida in front of one mutually agreed upon arbitrator.
- 9.6 Each party shall bear its own fees, costs and expenses of the arbitration and its own legal expenses, attorneys' fees and costs of all experts and witnesses. Unless the award provides otherwise, the fees and expenses of the arbitration procedures, including the fees of the arbitrator or arbitrators, will be shared equally by the parties.

9.7 Any award rendered pursuant to such arbitration shall be final, conclusive and binding upon the parties, and any judgment thereon may be entered and enforced in any court of competent jurisdiction.

11. TERMINATION AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

11.1 The parties may terminate this Agreement upon mutual agreement by written consent.

FIDELITY NATIONAL TITLE GROUP, INC.
2005 OMNIBUS INCENTIVE PLAN

ARTICLE 1. ESTABLISHMENT, OBJECTIVES, AND DURATION

1.1. ESTABLISHMENT OF THE PLAN. Fidelity National Title Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (hereinafter referred to as the "Company"), hereby establishes an incentive compensation plan to be known as the "Fidelity National Title Group, Inc. 2005 Omnibus Incentive Plan" (hereinafter referred to as the "Plan"). The Plan permits the granting of Nonqualified Stock Options, Incentive Stock Options, Stock Appreciation Rights, Restricted Stock, Restricted Stock Units, Performance Shares, Performance Units and Other Awards.

The Plan shall become effective as of _____, 2005 (the "Effective Date"), subject to the approval of the Plan by the stockholders of the Company.

1.2. OBJECTIVES OF THE PLAN. The objectives of the Plan are to optimize the profitability and growth of the Company through incentives that are consistent with the Company's goals and that link the personal interests of Participants to those of the Company's stockholders.

The Plan is further intended to provide flexibility to the Company in its ability to motivate, attract, and retain the services of Participants who make or are expected to make significant contributions to the Company's success and to allow Participants to share in the success of the Company.

1.3. DURATION OF THE PLAN. No Award may be granted under the Plan after the day immediately preceding the tenth anniversary of the Effective Date, or such earlier date as the Board shall determine. The Plan will remain in effect with respect to outstanding Awards until no Awards remain outstanding.

ARTICLE 2. DEFINITIONS

The following terms, when capitalized, shall have the meanings set forth below:

2.1. "AWARD" means, individually or collectively, Nonqualified Stock Options, Incentive Stock Options, Stock Appreciation Rights, Restricted Stock, Restricted Stock Units, Performance Shares, Performance Units, and Other Awards granted under the Plan.

2.2. "AWARD AGREEMENT" means an agreement entered into by the Company and a Participant setting forth the terms and provisions applicable to an Award.

2.3. "BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP" shall have the meaning ascribed to such term in Rule 13d-3 of the General Rules and Regulations under the Exchange Act.

2.4. "BOARD" means the Board of Directors of the Company.

2.5. "CHANGE IN CONTROL" means that the conditions set forth in any one of the following subsections shall have been satisfied:

- (a) an acquisition immediately after which any Person possesses direct or indirect Beneficial Ownership of 25% or more of either the then outstanding shares of Company common stock (the "Outstanding Company Common Stock") or the combined voting power of the then outstanding voting securities of the Company entitled to vote generally in the election of directors (the "Outstanding Company Voting Securities"); provided that, immediately after such acquisition, the acquirer's Beneficial Ownership of the Outstanding Company Common Stock or the Outstanding Company Voting Securities, as the case may be, exceeds FNF's; provided further that the following acquisitions shall be excluded: (i) any acquisition directly from the Company, other than an acquisition by virtue of the exercise of a conversion privilege unless the security being so converted was itself acquired directly from the Company, (ii) any acquisition by the Company or by FNF, (iii) any acquisition by any employee benefit plan (or related trust) sponsored or maintained by the Company, a Parent or a Subsidiary, or (iv) any acquisition pursuant to a transaction that complies with paragraphs (i), (ii) and (iii) of subsection (c) of this Section 2.5; or
- (b) during any period of two consecutive years, the individuals who, as of the beginning of such period, constitute the Board (such Board shall be hereinafter referred to as the "Incumbent Board") cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority of the Board; provided that for purposes of this Section 2.5, any individual who becomes a member of the Board subsequent to the beginning of such period and whose election, or nomination for election by the Company's shareholders, was approved by a vote of at least two-thirds of those individuals who are members of the Board and who were also members of the Incumbent Board (or deemed to be such pursuant to this proviso) shall be considered as though such individual were a member of the Incumbent Board; provided, further, that any such individual whose initial assumption of office occurs as a result of either an actual or threatened election contest or other actual or threatened solicitation of proxies or consents by or on behalf of a Person other than the Board shall not be so considered as a member of the Incumbent Board; or
- (c) consummation of a reorganization, merger, share exchange, consolidation or sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company ("Corporate Transaction"); excluding, however, such a Corporate Transaction pursuant to which:

- (i) all or substantially all of the individuals and entities who have Beneficial Ownership, respectively, of the Outstanding Company Common Stock and Outstanding Company Voting Securities immediately prior to such Corporate Transaction will have Beneficial Ownership, directly or indirectly, of more than 50% of, respectively, the outstanding shares of common stock and the combined voting power of the then outstanding voting securities entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, as the case may be, of the corporation resulting from such Corporate Transaction (including, without limitation, the Company or a corporation that as a result of such transaction owns the Company or all or substantially all of the Company's assets either directly or through one or more subsidiaries) (the "Resulting Corporation") in substantially the same proportions as their ownership, immediately prior to such Corporate Transaction, of the Outstanding Company Common Stock and Outstanding Company Voting Securities, as the case may be;
- (ii) no Person (other than (1) the Company, (2) the parent organization of the Company or Resulting Corporation, (3) an employee benefit plan (or related trust) sponsored or maintained by the Company or Resulting Corporation, or (4) any entity controlled by the Company or Resulting Corporation) will have Beneficial Ownership, directly or indirectly, of 25% or more of, respectively, the outstanding shares of common stock of the Resulting Corporation or the combined voting power of the outstanding voting securities of the Resulting Corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, except to the extent that such ownership existed prior to the Corporate Transaction; and
- (iii) individuals who were members of the Incumbent Board will continue to constitute at least a majority of the members of the board of directors of the Resulting Corporation; or
- (d) the approval by the stockholders of the Company of a complete liquidation or dissolution of the Company.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing definition, neither an initial public offering of the Company's common stock nor the distribution of the Company's common stock held by FNF to FNF's stockholders (the "Distribution") shall constitute a Change in Control for purposes of this Plan. In addition, as long as FNF owns more than 50% of the Outstanding Company Common Stock or Outstanding Company Voting Securities, a change in control of FNF shall also be considered a Change in Control under the Plan. For this purpose, whether a change in control of FNF has occurred shall be determined in the same manner as described above with respect to the Company, except that if the change in control is the result of an acquisition of FNF's outstanding common stock or outstanding voting securities, Beneficial Ownership of more than 50% of FNF's outstanding common stock or outstanding voting securities must be acquired before a Change in Control will be deemed to have occurred under the Plan.

- (h) DIVIDENDS AND DIVIDEND EQUIVALENTS: The maximum dividend or Dividend Equivalent that may be paid in any one fiscal year to any one Participant shall be $2,000,000.

4.3. ADJUSTMENTS IN AUTHORIZED SHARES AND AWARDS. In the event of any merger, reorganization, consolidation, recapitalization, liquidation, stock dividend, split-up, spin-off, stock split, reverse stock split, share combination, share exchange, extraordinary dividend, or any change in the corporate structure affecting the Shares, such adjustment shall be made in the number and kind of Shares that may be delivered under the Plan as set forth in Section 4.1(a) and (b), the individual limits set forth in Section 4.2, and, with respect to outstanding Awards, the number and kind of Shares subject to outstanding Awards, the Exercise Price, grant price or other price of Shares subject to outstanding Awards, any performance conditions relating to Shares, the market price of Shares, or per-Share results, and other terms and conditions of outstanding Awards, as may be determined to be appropriate and equitable by the Committee, in its sole discretion, to prevent dilution or enlargement of rights; provided, however, that, unless otherwise determined by the Committee, the number of Shares subject to any Award shall always be rounded down to a whole number.

ARTICLE 5. ELIGIBILITY AND PARTICIPATION

5.1. ELIGIBILITY. Persons eligible to participate in the Plan include all Employees, Directors and Consultants.

5.2. ACTUAL PARTICIPATION. Subject to the provisions of the Plan, the Committee may, from time to time, select from all eligible Employees, Directors and Consultants, those to whom Awards shall be granted and shall determine the nature and amount of each Award.

ARTICLE 6. OPTIONS

6.1. GRANT OF OPTIONS. Subject to the terms and provisions of the Plan, Options may be granted to Participants in such amounts, upon such terms, and at such times as the Committee shall determine.

6.2. AWARD AGREEMENT. Each Option grant shall be evidenced by an Award Agreement that shall specify the Exercise Price, the duration of the Option, the number of Shares to which the Option pertains, and such other provisions as the Committee shall determine. The Award Agreement also shall specify whether the Option is intended to be an ISO or an NQSO. Options that are intended to be ISOs shall be subject to the limitations set forth in Code Section 422.

6.3. EXERCISE PRICE. The Exercise Price for each grant of an Option under the Plan shall be at least equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the Fair Market Value of a Share on the date the Option is granted; provided, however, that this restriction shall not apply to Replacement Awards or Awards that are adjusted pursuant to Section 4.3 herein. No ISO granted to a Participant who, at the time the ISO is granted, owns stock representing more than ten percent (10%) of the voting power of all classes of stock of the Company or any Parent or Subsidiary shall have an Exercise Price that is less than one hundred ten percent (110%) of the Fair Market Value of a Share on the date the ISO is granted.

6.4. DURATION OF OPTIONS. Each Option granted to a Participant shall expire at such time as the Committee shall determine at the time of grant; provided, however, that no Option shall be exercisable later than the tenth (10th) anniversary date of its grant. No ISO granted to a Participant who, at the time the ISO is granted, owns stock representing more than ten percent (10%) of the voting power of all classes of stock of the Company or any Parent or Subsidiary shall be exercisable later than the fifth (5th) anniversary of the date of its grant.

6.5. EXERCISE OF OPTIONS. Options granted under this Article 6 shall be exercisable at such times and be subject to such restrictions and conditions as set forth in the Award Agreement and as the Committee shall in each instance approve, which need not be the same for each grant or for each Participant.

6.6. PAYMENT. Options granted under this Article 6 shall be exercised by the delivery of a written notice of exercise to the Company, setting forth the number of Shares with respect to which the Option is to be exercised and specifying the method of payment of the Exercise Price.

The Exercise Price of an Option shall be payable to the Company in full: (a) in cash or its equivalent, (b) by tendering Shares or directing the Company to withhold Shares from the Option having an aggregate Fair Market Value at the time of exercise equal to the Exercise Price, (c) by broker-assisted cashless exercise, (d) in any other manner then permitted by the Committee, or (e) by a combination of any of the permitted methods of payment. The Committee may limit any method of payment, other than that specified under (a), for administrative convenience, to comply with applicable law, or for any other reason.

6.7. RESTRICTIONS ON SHARE TRANSFERABILITY. The Committee may impose such restrictions on any Shares acquired pursuant to the exercise of an Option granted under this Article 6 as it may deem advisable, including, without limitation, restrictions under applicable federal securities laws, under the requirements of any stock exchange or market upon which such Shares are then listed and/or traded, and under any blue sky or state securities laws applicable to such Shares.

6.8. DIVIDEND EQUIVALENTS. At the discretion of the Committee, an Award of Options may provide the Participant with the right to receive Dividend Equivalents, which may be paid currently or credited to an account for the Participant, and may be settled in cash and/or Shares, as determined by the Committee in its sole discretion, subject in each case to such terms and conditions as the Committee shall establish.

6.9. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT OR SERVICE. Each Participant's Option Award Agreement shall set forth the extent to which the Participant shall have the right to exercise the Option following termination of the Participant's employment or, if the Participant is a Director or Consultant, service with the Company, a Parent and/or a Subsidiary, as the case may be. Such provisions shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Committee, need not be uniform among all Options, and may reflect distinctions based on the reasons for termination of employment or service.

6.10. NONTRANSFERABILITY OF OPTIONS.

- (a) INCENTIVE STOCK OPTIONS. ISOs may not be sold, transferred, pledged, assigned, or otherwise alienated or hypothecated, other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution, and shall be exercisable during a Participant's lifetime only by such Participant.
- (b) NONQUALIFIED STOCK OPTIONS. Except as otherwise determined by the Committee, NQSOs may not be sold, transferred, pledged, assigned, or otherwise alienated or hypothecated, other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution, and shall be exercisable during a Participant's lifetime only by such Participant.

ARTICLE 7. STOCK APPRECIATION RIGHTS

7.1. GRANT OF SARS. Subject to the terms and provisions of the Plan, SARs may be granted to Participants in such amounts, upon such terms, and at such times as the Committee shall determine. The Committee may grant Freestanding SARs, Tandem SARs, or any combination of these forms of SAR.

The Committee shall have complete discretion in determining the number of SARs granted to each Participant (subject to Article 4 herein) and, consistent with the provisions of the Plan, in determining the terms and conditions pertaining to such SARs.

The grant price of a Freestanding SAR shall at least equal to the Fair Market Value of a Share on the date of grant of the SAR, and the grant price of a Tandem SAR shall equal the Exercise Price of the related Option; provided, however, that this restriction shall not apply to Replacement Awards or Awards that are adjusted pursuant to Section 4.3 herein.

7.2. EXERCISE OF TANDEM SARS. A Tandem SAR may be exercised only with respect to the Shares for which its related Option is then exercisable. To the extent exercisable, Tandem SARs may be exercised for all or part of the Shares subject to the related Option. The exercise of all or part of a Tandem SAR shall result in the forfeiture of the right to purchase a number of Shares under the related Option equal to the number of Shares with respect to which the SAR is exercised. Conversely, upon exercise of all or part of an Option with respect to which a Tandem SAR has been granted, an equivalent portion of the Tandem SAR shall similarly be forfeited.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan to the contrary, with respect to a Tandem SAR granted in connection with an ISO: (i) the Tandem SAR will expire no later than the expiration of the underlying ISO; (ii) the value of the payout with respect to the Tandem SAR may be for no more than one hundred percent (100%) of the difference between the Exercise Price of the underlying ISO and the Fair Market Value of the Shares subject to the underlying ISO at the time the Tandem SAR is exercised; and (iii) the Tandem SAR may be exercised only when the Fair Market Value of the Shares subject to the ISO exceeds the Exercise Price of the ISO.

7.3. EXERCISE OF FREESTANDING SARS. Freestanding SARs may be exercised upon whatever terms and conditions the Committee, in its sole discretion, imposes upon them and sets forth in the Award Agreement.

7.4. AWARD AGREEMENT. Each SAR grant shall be evidenced by an Award Agreement that shall specify the grant price, the term of the SAR, and such other provisions as the Committee shall determine.

7.5. TERM OF SARS. The term of an SAR granted under the Plan shall be determined by the Committee, in its sole discretion; provided, however, that such term shall not exceed ten (10) years.

7.6. PAYMENT OF SAR AMOUNT. Upon exercise of an SAR, a Participant shall be entitled to receive payment from the Company in an amount determined by multiplying:

- (a) the difference between the Fair Market Value of a Share on the date of exercise over the grant price; by
- (b) the number of Shares with respect to which the SAR is exercised.

At the discretion of the Committee, the payment upon SAR exercise may be in cash, in Shares of equivalent value, or in some combination thereof.

7.7. DIVIDEND EQUIVALENTS. At the discretion of the Committee, an Award of SARs may provide the Participant with the right to receive Dividend Equivalents, which may be paid currently or credited to an account for the Participant, and may be settled in cash and/or Shares, as determined by the Committee in its sole discretion, subject in each case to such terms and conditions as the Committee shall establish.

7.8. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT OR SERVICE. Each SAR Award Agreement shall set forth the extent to which the Participant shall have the right to exercise the SAR following termination of the Participant's employment or, if the Participant is a Director or Consultant, service with the Company, a Parent and/or a Subsidiary, as the case may be. Such provisions shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Committee, need not be uniform among all SARs, and may reflect distinctions based on the reasons for termination of employment or service.

7.9. NONTRANSFERABILITY OF SARs. Except as otherwise determined by the Committee, SARs may not be sold, transferred, pledged, assigned, or otherwise alienated or hypothecated, other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution, and shall be exercisable during a Participant's lifetime only by such Participant.

ARTICLE 8. RESTRICTED STOCK

8.1. GRANT OF RESTRICTED STOCK. Subject to the terms and provisions of the Plan, Restricted Stock may be granted to Participants in such amounts, upon such terms, and at such times as the Committee shall determine.

8.2. AWARD AGREEMENT. Each Restricted Stock grant shall be evidenced by an Award Agreement that shall specify the Period(s) of Restriction and, if applicable, Performance Period(s), the number of Shares of Restricted Stock granted, and such other provisions as the Committee shall determine.

8.3. OTHER RESTRICTIONS. The Committee shall impose such other conditions and/or restrictions on any Shares of Restricted Stock granted pursuant to the Plan as it may deem advisable including, without limitation, a requirement that Participants pay a stipulated purchase price for each Share of Restricted Stock, a requirement that the issuance of Shares of Restricted Stock be delayed, restrictions based upon the achievement of specific performance goals, time-based restrictions on vesting following the attainment of the performance goals, time-based restrictions, and/or restrictions under applicable laws or under the requirements of any stock exchange or market upon which such Shares are listed or traded, or holding requirements or sale restrictions placed on the Shares by the Company upon vesting of such Restricted Stock. The Company may retain in its custody any certificate evidencing the Shares of Restricted Stock and place thereon a legend and institute stop-transfer orders on such Shares, and the Participant shall be obligated to sign any stock power requested by the Company relating to the Shares to give effect to the forfeiture provisions of the Restricted Stock.

8.4. REMOVAL OF RESTRICTIONS. Subject to applicable laws, Restricted Stock shall become freely transferable by the Participant after the last day of the Period of Restriction applicable thereto. Once Restricted Stock is released from the restrictions, the Participant shall be entitled to receive a certificate evidencing the Shares.

8.5. VOTING RIGHTS. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee and set forth in a Participant's Award Agreement, to the extent permitted or required by law, as determined by the Committee, Participants holding Shares of Restricted Stock granted hereunder may exercise full voting rights with respect to those Shares during the Period of Restriction.

8.6. DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS. Except as otherwise provided in a Participant's Award Agreement, during the Period of Restriction, Participants holding Shares of Restricted Stock shall receive all regular cash dividends paid with respect to all Shares while they are so held, and, except as otherwise determined by the Committee, all other distributions paid with respect to such Restricted Stock shall be credited to Participants subject to the same restrictions on transferability and forfeitability as the Restricted Stock with respect to which they were paid and paid at such time following full vesting as are paid the Shares of Restricted Stock with respect to which such distributions were made.

8.7. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT OR SERVICE. Each Award Agreement shall set forth the extent to which the Participant shall have the right to retain unvested Restricted Stock following termination of the Participant's employment or, if the Participant is a Director or Consultant, service with the Company, a Parent and/or a Subsidiary, as the case may be. Such provisions shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Committee, need not be uniform among all Awards of Restricted Stock, and may reflect distinctions based on the reasons for termination of employment or service.

8.8. NONTRANSFERABILITY OF RESTRICTED STOCK. Except as otherwise determined by the Committee, during the applicable Period of Restriction, a Participant's Restricted Stock and rights relating thereto shall be available during the Participant's lifetime only to such Participant, and such Restricted Stock and related rights may not be sold, transferred, pledged, assigned, or otherwise alienated or hypothecated other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution.

ARTICLE 9. RESTRICTED STOCK UNITS AND PERFORMANCE SHARES

9.1. GRANT OF RESTRICTED STOCK UNITS/PERFORMANCE SHARES. Subject to the terms and provisions of the Plan, Restricted Stock Units and Performance Shares may be granted to Participants in such amounts, upon such terms, and at such times as the Committee shall determine.

9.2. AWARD AGREEMENT. Each grant of Restricted Stock Units or Performance Shares shall be evidenced by an Award Agreement that shall specify the applicable Period(s) of Restriction and/or Performance Period(s) (as the case may be), the number of Restricted Stock Units or Performance Shares granted, and such other provisions as the Committee shall determine. The initial value of a Restricted Stock Unit or Performance Share shall be at least equal to the Fair Market Value of a Share on the date of grant; provided, however, that this restriction shall not apply to Replacement Awards or Awards that are adjusted pursuant to Section 4.3 herein.

9.3. FORM AND TIMING OF PAYMENT. Except as otherwise provided in Article 17 herein or a Participant's Award Agreement, payment of Restricted Stock Units or Performance Shares shall be made at a specified settlement date that shall not be earlier than the last day of the Period of Restriction or Performance Period, as the case may be. The Committee, in its sole discretion, may pay earned Restricted Stock Units and Performance Shares by delivery of Shares or by payment in cash of an amount equal to the Fair Market Value of such Shares (or a combination thereof). The Committee may provide that settlement of Restricted Stock Units or Performance Shares shall be deferred, on a mandatory basis or at the election of the Participant.

9.4. VOTING RIGHTS. A Participant shall have no voting rights with respect to any Restricted Stock Units or Performance Shares granted hereunder; provided, however, that the Committee may deposit Shares potentially deliverable in connection with Restricted Stock Units or Performance Shares in a rabbi trust, in which case the Committee may provide for pass through voting rights with respect to such deposited Shares.

9.5. DIVIDEND EQUIVALENTS. At the discretion of the Committee, an Award of Restricted Stock Units or Performance Shares may provide the Participant with the right to receive Dividend Equivalents, which may be paid currently or credited to an account for the Participant, and may be settled in cash and/or Shares, as determined by the Committee in its sole discretion, subject in each case to such terms and conditions as the Committee shall establish.

9.6. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT OR SERVICE. Each Award Agreement shall set forth the extent to which the Participant shall have the right to receive a payout respecting an Award of Restricted Stock Units or Performance Shares following termination of the Participant's employment or, if the Participant is a Director or Consultant, service with the Company, a Parent and/or a Subsidiary, as the case may be. Such provisions shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Committee, need not be uniform among all Restricted Stock Units or Performance Shares, and may reflect distinctions based on the reasons for termination of employment or service.

9.7. NONTRANSFERABILITY. Except as otherwise determined by the Committee, Restricted Stock Units and Performance Shares and rights relating thereto may not be sold, transferred, pledged, assigned, or otherwise alienated or hypothecated, other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution.

ARTICLE 10. PERFORMANCE UNITS

10.1. GRANT OF PERFORMANCE UNITS. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan, Performance Units may be granted to Participants in such amounts, upon such terms, and at such times as the Committee shall determine.

10.2. AWARD AGREEMENT. Each grant of Performance Units shall be evidenced by an Award Agreement that shall specify the number of Performance Units granted, the Performance Period(s), the performance goals and such other provisions as the Committee shall determine.

10.3. VALUE OF PERFORMANCE UNITS. The Committee shall set performance goals in its discretion that, depending on the extent to which they are met, will determine the number and/or value of Performance Units that will be paid out to the Participants.

10.4. FORM AND TIMING OF PAYMENT. Except as otherwise provided in Article 17 herein or a Participant's Award Agreement, payment of earned Performance Units shall be made following the close of the applicable Performance Period. The Committee, in its sole discretion, may pay earned Performance Units in cash or in Shares that have an aggregate Fair Market Value equal to the value of the earned Performance Units (or a combination thereof). The Committee may provide that settlement of Performance Units shall be deferred, on a mandatory basis or at the election of the Participant.

10.5. DIVIDEND EQUIVALENTS. At the discretion of the Committee, an Award of Performance Units may provide the Participant with the right to receive Dividend Equivalents, which may be paid currently or credited to an account for the Participant, and may be settled in cash and/or Shares, as determined by the Committee in its sole discretion, subject in each case to such terms and conditions as the Committee shall establish.

10.6. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT OR SERVICE. Each Award Agreement shall set forth the extent to which the Participant shall have the right to receive a payout respecting an Award of Performance Units following termination of the Participant's employment or, if the Participant is a Director or Consultant, service with the Company, a Parent and/or a Subsidiary, as the case may be. Such provisions shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Committee, need not be uniform among all Performance Units and may reflect distinctions based on reasons for termination of employment or service.

10.7. NONTRANSFERABILITY. Except as otherwise determined by the Committee, Performance Units and rights relating thereto may not be sold, transferred, pledged, assigned or otherwise alienated or hypothecated, other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution.

ARTICLE 11. OTHER AWARDS

11.1. GRANT OF OTHER AWARDS. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan, Other Awards may be granted to Participants in such amounts, upon such terms, and at such times as the Committee shall determine. Types of Other Awards that may be granted pursuant to this Article 11 include, without limitation, the payment of cash or Shares based on attainment of performance goals established by the Committee, the payment of Shares as a bonus or in lieu of cash based on attainment of performance goals established by the Committee, and the payment of Shares in lieu of cash under other Company incentive or bonus programs

11.2. PAYMENT OF OTHER AWARDS. Payment under or settlement of any such Awards shall be made in such manner and at such times as the Committee may determine.

11.3. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT OR SERVICE. The Committee shall determine the extent to which the Participant shall have the right to receive Other Awards following termination of the Participant's employment or, if the Participant is a Director or Consultant, service with the Company, a Parent and/or a Subsidiary, as the case may be. Such provisions shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Committee, may be included in an agreement entered into with each Participant, but need not be uniform among all Other Awards, and may reflect distinctions based on the reasons for termination of employment or service.

11.4. NONTRANSFERABILITY. Except as otherwise determined by the Committee, Other Awards and rights relating thereto may not be sold, transferred, pledged, assigned, or otherwise alienated or hypothecated, other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution.

ARTICLE 12. REPLACEMENT AWARDS

Each Replacement Award shall have substantially the same terms and conditions (as determined by the Committee) as the award it replaces; provided, however, that the number of Shares subject to Replacement Awards, the Exercise Price, grant price or other price of Shares subject to Replacement Awards, any performance conditions relating to Shares underlying Replacement Awards, or the market price of Shares underlying Replacement Awards or per-Share results may differ from the awards they replace to the extent such differences are determined to be appropriate and equitable by the Committee, in its sole discretion.

ARTICLE 13. PERFORMANCE MEASURES

The Committee may specify that the attainment of one or more of the performance measures set forth in this Article 13 shall determine the degree of granting, vesting and/or payout with respect to Awards (including any related dividends or Dividend Equivalents) that the Committee intends will qualify for the Performance-Based Exception. The performance goals to be used for such Awards shall be chosen from among the following performance measure(s): earnings per share, economic value created, market share (actual or targeted growth), net income (before or after taxes), operating income, adjusted net income after capital charge, return on assets (actual or targeted growth), return on capital (actual or targeted growth), return on equity (actual or targeted growth), return on investment (actual or targeted growth), revenue (actual or targeted growth), cash flow, operating margin, share price, share price growth, total stockholder return, and strategic business criteria consisting of one or more objectives based on meeting specified market penetration goals, productivity measures, geographic business expansion goals, cost targets, customer satisfaction or employee satisfaction goals, goals relating to merger synergies, management of employment practices and employee benefits, or supervision of litigation and information technology, and goals relating to acquisitions or divestitures of Subsidiaries and/or other affiliates or joint ventures. The targeted level or levels of performance with respect to such performance measures may be established at such levels and on such terms as the Committee may determine, in its discretion, including in absolute terms, as a goal relative to performance in prior periods, or as a goal compared to the performance of one or more comparable companies or an index covering multiple companies. Awards (including any related dividends or Dividend Equivalents) that are not intended to qualify for the Performance-Based Exception may be based on these or such other performance measures as the Committee may determine.

Achievement of performance goals in respect of Awards intended to qualify under the Performance-Based Exception shall be measured over a Performance Period, and the goals shall be established not later than ninety (90) days after the beginning of the Performance Period or, if less than (90) days, the number of days that is equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of the relevant Performance Period applicable to the Award. The Committee shall have the discretion to adjust the determinations of the degree of attainment of the pre-established performance goals; provided, however, that Awards that are designed to qualify for the Performance-Based Exception may not be adjusted upward (the Committee may, in its discretion, adjust such Awards downward).

ARTICLE 14. BENEFICIARY DESIGNATION

Each Participant under the Plan may, from time to time, name any beneficiary or beneficiaries (who may be named contingently or successively) to whom any benefit under the Plan is to be paid in case of his or her death before he or she receives any or all of such benefit. Each such designation shall revoke all prior designations by the same Participant, shall be in a form prescribed by the Committee, and will be effective only when filed by the Participant in writing during the Participant's lifetime with the Committee. In the absence of any such designation, benefits remaining unpaid at the Participant's death shall be paid to the Participant's estate.

ARTICLE 15. DEFERRALS

If permitted by the Committee, a Participant may defer receipt of amounts that would otherwise be provided to such Participant with respect to an Award, including Shares deliverable upon exercise of an Option or SAR or upon payout of any other Award. If permitted, such deferral (and the required deferral election) shall be made in accordance with, and shall be subject to, the terms and conditions of the applicable nonqualified deferred compensation plan, agreement or arrangement under which such deferral is made and such other terms and conditions as the Committee may prescribe.

ARTICLE 16. RIGHTS OF PARTICIPANTS

16.1. CONTINUED SERVICE. Nothing in the Plan shall:

- (a) interfere with or limit in any way the right of the Company, a Parent or a Subsidiary to terminate any Participant's employment or service at any time,
- (b) confer upon any Participant any right to continue in the employ or service of the Company, a Parent or a Subsidiary, nor
- (c) confer on any Director any right to continue to serve on the Board of Directors of the Company, a Parent or a Subsidiary.

16.2. PARTICIPATION. No Employee, Director or Consultant shall have the right to be selected to receive an Award under the Plan, or, having been so selected, to be selected to receive future Awards.

ARTICLE 17. CHANGE IN CONTROL

Except as otherwise provided in a Participant's Award Agreement, upon the occurrence of a Change in Control, unless otherwise specifically prohibited under applicable laws, or by the rules and regulations of any governing governmental agencies or national securities exchanges:

- (a) any and all outstanding Options and SARs granted hereunder shall become immediately exercisable; provided, however, that the Committee instead may instead provide that such Awards shall be automatically cashed out upon a Change in Control;
- (b) any Period of Restriction or other restriction imposed on Restricted Stock, Restricted Stock Units and Other Awards shall lapse; and
- (c) any and all Performance Shares, Performance Units and other Awards (if performance-based) shall be deemed earned at the target level (or if no target level is specified, the maximum level) with respect to all open Performance Periods.

ARTICLE 18. ADDITIONAL FORFEITURE PROVISIONS

The Committee may condition a Participant's right to receive a grant of an Award, to vest in the Award, to exercise the Award, to retain cash, Shares, other Awards, or other property acquired in connection with the Award, or to retain the profit or gain realized by the Participant in connection with the Award, including cash or other proceeds received upon sale of Shares acquired in connection with an Award, upon compliance by the Participant with specified conditions relating to non-competition, confidentiality of information relating to or possessed by the Company, non-solicitation of customers, suppliers, and employees of the Company, cooperation in litigation, non-disparagement of the Company and its officers, directors and affiliates, and other restrictions upon or covenants of the Participant, including during specified periods following termination of employment with or service for the Company, a Parent and/or a Subsidiary.

ARTICLE 19. AMENDMENT, MODIFICATION, AND TERMINATION

19.1. AMENDMENT, MODIFICATION, AND TERMINATION. The Board may at any time and from time to time, alter, amend, suspend or terminate the Plan in whole or in part; provided, however, that no amendment that requires stockholder approval in order for the Plan to continue to comply with the New York Stock Exchange listing standards or any rule promulgated by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission or any securities exchange on which the securities of the Company are listed shall be effective unless such amendment shall be approved by the requisite vote of stockholders of the Company entitled to vote thereon within the time period required under such applicable listing standard or rule.

19.2. ADJUSTMENT OF AWARDS UPON THE OCCURRENCE OF CERTAIN UNUSUAL OR NONRECURRING EVENTS. The Committee may make adjustments in the terms and conditions of, and the criteria included in, Awards in recognition of unusual or nonrecurring events (including, without limitation, the events described in Section 4.3 hereof) affecting the Company or the financial statements of the Company or of changes in applicable laws, regulations, or accounting principles, whenever the Committee determines that such adjustments are appropriate in order to prevent dilution or enlargement of the benefits or potential benefits intended to be made available under the Plan. With respect to any Awards intended to comply with the Performance-Based Exception, any such exception shall be specified at such times and in such manner as will not cause such Awards to fail to qualify under the Performance-Based Exception.

19.3. AWARDS PREVIOUSLY GRANTED. No termination, amendment or modification of the Plan or of any Award shall adversely affect in any material way any Award previously granted under the Plan without the written consent of the Participant holding such Award, unless such termination, modification or amendment is required by applicable law and except as otherwise provided herein.

19.4. COMPLIANCE WITH THE PERFORMANCE-BASED EXCEPTION. If it is intended that an Award (and/or any dividends or Dividend Equivalents relating to such Award) comply with the requirements of the Performance-Based Exception, the Committee may apply any restrictions it deems appropriate such that the Awards (and/or dividends or Dividend Equivalents) maintain eligibility for the Performance-Based Exception. If changes are made to Code Section 162(m) or regulations promulgated thereunder to permit greater flexibility with respect to any Award or Awards available under the Plan, the Committee may, subject to this Article 19, make any adjustments to the Plan and/or Award Agreements it deems appropriate.

ARTICLE 20. WITHHOLDING

20.1. TAX WITHHOLDING. The Company shall have the power and the right to deduct or withhold, or require a Participant to remit to the Company, an amount sufficient to satisfy federal, state, local, domestic or foreign taxes required by law or regulation to be withheld with respect to any taxable event arising as a result of the Plan.

20.2. USE OF SHARES TO SATISFY WITHHOLDING OBLIGATION. With respect to withholding required upon the exercise of Options or SARs, upon the vesting or settlement of Restricted Stock, Restricted Stock Units, Performance Shares or Performance Units, or upon any other taxable event arising as a result of Awards granted hereunder, the Committee may require or may permit Participants to elect that the withholding requirement be satisfied, in whole or in part, by having the Company withhold, or by tendering to the Company, Shares having a Fair Market Value equal to the minimum statutory withholding (based on minimum statutory withholding rates for federal and state tax purposes, including payroll taxes) that could be imposed on the transaction and, in any case in which it would not result in additional accounting expense to the Company, taxes in excess of the minimum statutory withholding amounts. Any such elections by a Participant shall be irrevocable, made in writing and signed by the Participant.

ARTICLE 21. INDEMNIFICATION

Each person who is or shall have been a member of the Committee, or of the Board, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Company to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law against and from any loss, cost, liability, or expense that may be imposed upon or reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with or resulting from any claim, action, suit, or proceeding to which he or she may be a party or in which he or she may be involved by reason of any action taken or failure to act under the Plan and against and from any and all amounts paid by him or her in settlement thereof, with the Company's approval, or paid by him or her in satisfaction of any judgment in any such action, suit, or proceeding against him or her, provided he or she shall give the Company an opportunity, at its own expense, to handle and defend the same before he or she undertakes to handle and defend it on his or her own behalf. The foregoing right of indemnification is subject to the person having been successful in the legal proceedings or having acted in good faith and what is reasonably believed to be a lawful manner in the Company's best interests. The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of any other rights of indemnification to which such persons may be entitled under the Company's Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws, as a matter of law, or otherwise, or any power that the Company may have to indemnify them or hold them harmless.

ARTICLE 22. SUCCESSORS

All obligations of the Company under the Plan and with respect to Awards shall be binding on any successor to the Company, whether the existence of such successor is the result of a direct or indirect purchase, merger, consolidation, or other event, or a sale or disposition of all or substantially all of the business and/or assets of the Company.

ARTICLE 23. LEGAL CONSTRUCTION

23.1. GENDER, NUMBER AND REFERENCES. Except where otherwise indicated by the context, any masculine term used herein also shall include the feminine; the plural shall include the singular and the singular shall include the plural. Any reference in the Plan to an act or code or to any section thereof or rule or regulation thereunder shall be deemed to refer to such act, code, section, rule or regulation, as may be amended from time to time, or to any successor act, code, section, rule or regulation.

23.2. SEVERABILITY. In the event any provision of the Plan shall be held illegal or invalid for any reason, the illegality or invalidity shall not affect the remaining parts of the Plan, and the Plan shall be construed and enforced as if the illegal or invalid provision had not been included.

23.3. REQUIREMENTS OF LAW. The granting of Awards and the issuance of Shares under the Plan shall be subject to all applicable laws, rules, and regulations, and to such approvals by any governmental agencies or national securities exchanges as may be required.

23.4. GOVERNING LAW. To the extent not preempted by federal law, the Plan, and all agreements hereunder, shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the State of Florida, without giving effect to conflicts or choice of law principles.

23.5. NON-EXCLUSIVE PLAN. Neither the adoption of the Plan by the Board nor its submission to the stockholders of the Company for approval shall be construed as creating any limitations on the power of the Board or a committee thereof to adopt such other incentive arrangements as it may deem desirable, including other incentive arrangements and awards that do or do not qualify under the Performance-Based Exception.

23.6. CODE SECTION 409A COMPLIANCE. To the extent applicable, it is intended that this Plan and any Awards granted under the Plan comply with the requirements of Code Section 409A and any related regulations or other guidance promulgated with respect to such Section by the U.S. Department of the Treasury or the Internal Revenue Service (collectively "Section 409A"). Any provision that would cause the Plan or any Award granted under the Plan to fail to satisfy Section 409A shall have no force or effect until amended to comply with Section 409A, which amendment may be retroactive to the extent permitted by Section 409A.

ARTICLE III
ELIGIBILITY AND PARTICIPATION

3.1. ELIGIBILITY. Eligibility under the Plan shall be determined as follows:

(a) Each Employee of the Employer who participated in or was eligible to participate in the Fidelity National Financial, Inc. Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the "FNF ESPP") prior to the Distribution Date shall be eligible to become a Participant in the Plan following the Distribution Date.

(b) All other Employees of the Employer shall be eligible to become Participants in the Plan on the first day of the next Payroll Period (to the extent practical under the Employer's payroll practices) following the delivery of an enrollment form provided by the Employer (the "Enrollment Form") coincident with or next following the completion of ninety days of employment with the Employer.

3.2. PARTICIPATION. As soon as administratively practicable following the Distribution Date, as determined by the Committee in its sole discretion, an Employee who has satisfied the eligibility requirements of Section 3.1 may become a participant in the Plan upon his or her completion and delivery to the Human Resources Department of the Company an Enrollment Form authorizing payroll deductions. Payroll deductions for a Participant shall commence on the first day of the next Payroll Period coincident with or next following the filing of the Participant's Enrollment Form and shall remain in effect until revoked by the Participant by the filing of a notice of withdrawal from the Plan under Article VII or by the filing of a new Enrollment Form providing for a change in the Participant's payroll deduction rate in accordance with Section 4.2 below.

3.3. SPECIAL RULES. In the event that a person is excluded from participation in the Plan under Section 2.10 above and a court of competent jurisdiction determines that the person is eligible to participate in the Plan, the person shall be treated as an Employee only from the date of the court's determination and shall not be entitled to retroactive participation in the Plan.

ARTICLE IV
PAYROLL DEDUCTIONS

4.1. PARTICIPANT ELECTION. Upon the Enrollment Form, each Participant shall designate the amount of payroll deductions ("Participant Contributions") to be made from his paycheck to purchase Company Stock under the Plan. The amount of Participant Contributions shall be designated in whole percentages of Base Earnings, of at least 3% not to exceed 15% of Base Earnings for any Plan Year. The amount so designated upon the Enrollment Form shall be effective as of the next Payroll Period and shall continue until terminated or altered in accordance with Section 4.2 below.

4.2. CHANGES IN ELECTION. A Participant may terminate participation in the Plan at any time prior to the close of a Payroll Period as provided in Article VII. A Participant may decrease or increase the rate of Participant Contributions once each Quarter by completing and delivering to the Human Resources Department of the Company a new Enrollment Form setting forth the desired change. Any change under this Section 4.2 shall become effective on the first day of the next Payroll Period (to the extent practical under the Employer's payroll practices) following the delivery of the new Enrollment Form.

4.3. PARTICIPANT ACCOUNTS. The Company shall establish and maintain a separate Brokerage Account for each Participant. The amount of each Participant's Participant Contributions shall be credited to his or her Brokerage Account. No interest will be paid or allowed on amounts credited to a Participant's Brokerage Account. All Participant Contributions withheld by the Company under the Plan are general corporate assets of the Company and may be used by the Company for any corporate purpose. The Company is not obligated to segregate such Participant Contributions.

ARTICLE V COMPANY CONTRIBUTIONS

5.1. OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS. For each Officer or director of the Employer who is a Participant in the Plan and remains an Employee on each day from each Quarter End until the anniversary of that Quarter End (the "Matching Date"), the Employer shall make a Matching Contribution to the Brokerage Account of that Participant. The Matching Contribution shall be in an amount equal to one-half of the amount of Participant Contributions set aside into the Participant's Brokerage Account for the Quarter ending on the applicable Quarter End. The Matching Contribution shall be made as soon as is practical to the Broker following the Matching Date. Withholding taxes, if any, shall be made upon such Matching Contribution based upon the Participant's existing withholding percentages or as otherwise required by law from the Participant's Base Earnings. For purposes of the Plan, "Officer" means president, secretary, vice president, treasurer or assistant vice president and shall be determined by the Committee as of any Quarter End.

5.2. OTHER PARTICIPANTS. For each Participant who the Committee determines is not an Officer or director of the Employer under Section 5.1 above and who remains an Employee on each day from each Quarter End until the Matching Date, the Company shall make a Matching Contribution to the Brokerage Account of that Participant. Except as otherwise provided in Section 5.3 below, the Matching Contribution shall be in an amount equal to one-third of the amount of Participant Contributions set aside into the Participant's Brokerage Account for the Quarter ending on the applicable Quarter End. The Matching Contribution shall be made as soon as is practical to the Broker following the Matching Date. Withholding taxes, if any, shall be made upon such Matching Contribution based upon the Participant's existing withholding percentages or as otherwise required by law from the Participant's Base Earnings.

5.3. TEN-YEAR EMPLOYEES. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 5.2 above, with respect to each Participant who has completed at least ten consecutive years of employment with the Employer at the time any Matching Contribution will be made ("Ten-Year Employee"), the Matching Contribution for such Participant under Section 5.2 above shall be one-half of the amount of the Participant's Contributions instead of one-third. For purposes of this Section 5.3, a Participant's years of employment with Fidelity National Financial Inc. ("FNF") prior to the Distribution Date, including all direct and indirect subsidiaries of FNF, shall be included in determining whether the Participant is a Ten-Year Employee.

5.4. CHANGES IN STATUS. In the event that a Participant becomes an Officer or director of the Employer, as described in Section 5.1 herein, or a Ten-Year Employee, as described in Section 5.3 herein, during a Quarter, for purposes of determining such Participant's Matching Contribution, all Participant Contributions made during the Quarter in which the change in status occurred shall be considered to have been made as an Officer, director or Ten-Year Employee for that Quarter.

ARTICLE VI PURCHASE OF STOCK

6.1. PURCHASE OF COMPANY STOCK. Absent an election by the Participant to terminate his or her payroll deductions and have his or her Brokerage Account returned, as soon as is practical following the transfer of funds from the Employer to the Broker following the close of each Payroll Period or, with respect to Matching Contributions, Quarter End, the Plan shall cause the Broker to purchase on behalf of each Participant the maximum number of shares and partial shares of Company Stock at the purchase price determined under Section 6.4 as can be purchased with the amounts held in each Participant's Brokerage Account. If there are amounts held in a Participant's Brokerage Account that are not used to purchase Company Stock, all such amounts shall be held in the Participant's Brokerage Account and carried forward to the next Payroll Period.

6.2. DELIVERY OF COMPANY STOCK.

(a) Company Stock acquired under the Plan may either be issued directly to Participants or may be issued to the Broker engaged by the Company to administer the Plan under Article VIII. If the Company Stock is issued in the name of the Broker, all Company Stock so issued ("Plan Held Stock") shall be held in the name of the Broker for the benefit of the Plan. The Broker shall maintain Brokerage Accounts for the benefit of the Participants that shall reflect each Participant's interest in the Plan Held Stock. Such accounts shall reflect the number of whole and partial shares of Company Stock that are being held by the Broker for the benefit of each Participant.

(b) Any Participant may elect to have the Company Stock purchased under the Plan from his or her Brokerage Account be issued directly to the Participant. Any election under this paragraph shall be on the forms provided by the Company and shall be issued in accordance with paragraph (c) below.

(c) In the event that Company Stock under the Plan is issued directly to a Participant, the Company will deliver to each Participant a stock certificate or certificates issued in his or her name for the number of shares of Company Stock purchased as soon as practicable after the Company Stock is purchased. Where Company Stock is issued under this paragraph, only full shares of stock will be issued to a Participant. The time of issuance and delivery of shares may be postponed for such period as may be necessary to comply with the registration requirements under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the listing requirements of any securities exchange on which the Company Stock may then be listed, or the requirements under other laws or regulations applicable to the issuance or sale of such shares.

6.3. PURCHASE PRICE. The purchase price for any Offering Period shall be the Fair Market Value of Company Stock on the date shares are purchased.

6.4. FAIR MARKET VALUE. For purposes of the Plan, the term "Fair Market Value" on any given date means the value of one share of Company Stock, determined as follows:

(a) If the Company Stock is then listed or admitted to trading on the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE"), NASDAQ National Market System ("NASDAQ") or a stock exchange that reports closing sale prices, the Fair Market Value shall be the opening sale price on the date of valuation, or, if no opening sale price is quoted or no sale takes place on such day, then the Fair Market Value shall be the opening sale price of the Company Stock on the next preceding day on which a sale occurred.

(b) If the Company Stock is not then listed or admitted to trading on the NYSE, NASDAQ, or a stock exchange that reports closing sale prices, the Fair Market Value shall be the average of the opening bid and asked prices of the Company Stock in the over-the-counter market on the date of valuation.

(c) If neither (a) nor (b) is applicable as of the date of valuation, then the Fair Market Value shall be determined by the Committee in good faith using any reasonable method of valuation, which determination shall be conclusive and binding on all interested parties.

6.5. FEES AND COMMISSIONS. The Company shall pay the Broker's administrative charges for opening and maintaining the Brokerage Accounts for the Participants and the brokerage commissions on purchases made for such Brokerage Accounts that are attributable to the purchase of Company Stock with Participant Contributions and Matching Contributions under the Plan. Such Brokerage Accounts may be utilized for other transactions as described in Section 6.6 below, but any fees, commissions or other charges by the Broker in connection with such transactions shall, in certain circumstances described in Section 6.6, be payable directly to the Broker by the Participant.

6.6. PARTICIPANT ACCOUNTS WITH BROKER. Each Participant's Brokerage Account shall be credited with all cash dividends paid with respect to full shares and fractional shares of Company Stock purchased with Participant Contributions and Matching Contributions, unless the Company Stock is registered in the Participant's name under Section 6.2 above. Unless directed otherwise, all cash dividends on Company Stock held in a Participant's Brokerage Account shall automatically be reinvested in Company Stock as soon as is practical following receipt of the dividends by the Broker. Applicable fees and brokerage commissions on the reinvestment of such dividends will be payable by the Participant. Any stock dividends or stock splits that are made with respect to Company Stock purchased with Participant Contributions and Matching Contributions shall be credited to the Participant's Brokerage Account without charge to the Participant. Any Participant may request that a certificate for any or all of the full shares of Company Stock credited to his or her Brokerage Account be delivered to him or her at any time, provided that the Participant shall be charged by the Broker for any fees applicable to such request. A Participant may request the Broker to sell any or all of the full or fractional shares of Company Stock allocated to his or her Brokerage Account. Unless directed otherwise by the Participant, the Broker shall mail to the Participant a check for the proceeds, less any applicable fees and brokerage commissions and any transfer taxes, registration fees or other normal charges associated with such a sale, which shall be paid by the Participant. Except as provided in Section 7.1 below, any sale of Company Stock held in a Participant's Brokerage Account shall not affect his or her status as a Participant. A Participant may purchase or sell additional shares of Company Stock through his or her Brokerage Account at any time through separate purchases arranged through the Broker. The Participant shall pay any and all costs, commissions or fees associated with any such transactions to the Broker, including, but not limited to, purchases, sales, reinvestment of dividends, requests for certificates and crediting of stock dividends or stock splits.

ARTICLE VII WITHDRAWAL

7.1. IN SERVICE WITHDRAWALS. At any time prior to the close of a Payroll Period, any Participant may withdraw the amounts held in his or her Brokerage Account by executing and delivering to the Human Resources Department for the Company written notice of withdrawal on the form provided by the Company. In such a case, the entire balance of the Participant's Brokerage Account shall be paid to the Participant, without interest, as soon as is practicable. Upon such notification, that Participant shall cease to participate in the Plan for the remainder of the Payroll Period in which the notice is given. Any Employee who has withdrawn under this Section shall be excluded from participation in the Plan for the remainder of the Payroll Period, but may then be reinstated as a Participant for a subsequent Payroll Period by executing and delivering a new Enrollment Form to the Committee.

7.2. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT.

(a) In the event that a Participant's employment with the Employer terminates for any reason, the Participant shall cease to participate in the Plan on the date of termination. As soon as is practical following the date of termination, the entire balance of the Participant's Brokerage Account shall be paid to the Participant or his or her beneficiary, without interest.

(b) A Participant may file a written designation of a beneficiary who is to receive any shares of Company Stock purchased under the Plan or any cash from the Participant's Brokerage Account in the event of his or her death. Beneficiary designations may be changed by the Participant at any time by written notice. If a Participant dies, the Committee may rely upon the most recent beneficiary designation it has on file as being the appropriate beneficiary. If a Participant dies and no valid beneficiary designation exists, or the beneficiary has predeceased the Participant, the Committee shall deliver any cash or shares of Company Stock to the executor or administrator of the estate of the Participant, or if no such executor or administrator has been appointed to the knowledge of the Committee, the Committee, in its sole discretion, may deliver such shares of Company Stock or cash to the spouse or any one or more dependents or relatives of the Participant, or if no spouse, dependent or relative is known to the Committee, then to such other person as the Committee may designate.

ARTICLE VIII
PLAN ADMINISTRATION

8.1. PLAN ADMINISTRATION.

(a) Authority to control and manage the operation and administration of the Plan shall be vested in the Board, or a committee ("Committee") appointed by the Board. Until such time as the Board appoints a Committee to administer the Plan, the Board shall serve as the Committee for purposes of the Plan. The Board or Committee shall have all powers necessary to supervise the administration of the Plan and control its operations.

(b) In addition to any powers and authority conferred on the Board or Committee elsewhere in the Plan or by law, the Board or Committee shall have the following powers and authority:

(i) To designate agents to carry out responsibilities relating to the Plan;

(ii) To administer, interpret, construe and apply this Plan and to answer all questions that may arise or that may be raised under this Plan by a Participant, his or her beneficiary or any other person whatsoever;

(iii) To establish rules and procedures from time to time for the conduct of its business and for the administration and effectuation of its responsibilities under the Plan; and

(iv) To perform or cause to be performed such further acts as it may deem to be necessary, appropriate, or convenient for the operation of the Plan.

(c) Any action taken in good faith by the Board or Committee in the exercise of authority conferred upon it by this Plan shall be conclusive and binding upon a Participant and his or her beneficiaries. All discretionary powers conferred upon the Board shall be absolute.

8.2. LIMITATION ON LIABILITY. No Employee of the Employer nor any member of the Board or Committee shall be subject to any liability with respect to his or her duties under the Plan unless the person acts fraudulently or in bad faith. To the extent permitted by law, the Company shall indemnify each member of the Board or Committee, and any other Employee of the Employer with duties under the Plan who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, by reason of the person's conduct in the performance of his or her duties under the Plan.

ARTICLE IX
COMPANY STOCK

9.1. LIMITATIONS ON PURCHASE OF SHARES. The maximum number of shares of Company Stock that shall be made available for sale under the Plan shall be [_____] shares, subject to adjustment under Section 9.4 below. The Company will issue the shares of Company Stock to be sold to Participants under the Plan. If the total number of shares of Company Stock that would otherwise be issuable pursuant to rights granted pursuant to Article VI of the Plan at the purchase date exceeds the number of shares then available under the Plan, the Company shall make a pro rata allocation of the shares remaining available in as uniform and equitable a manner as is practicable. In such event, the Company shall give written notice of such reduction of the number of shares to each Participant affected thereby and any unused Participant Contributions shall be returned to such Participant if necessary.

9.2. VOTING COMPANY STOCK. The Participant will have no interest or voting right in shares to be purchased under Article VI of the Plan until such shares have been purchased.

9.3. REGISTRATION OF COMPANY STOCK. Shares to be delivered to a Participant under the Plan will be registered in the name of the Plan unless designated otherwise by the Participant.

9.4. CHANGES IN CAPITALIZATION OF THE COMPANY. Subject to any required action by the stockholders of the Company, the number of shares of Company Stock covered by each right under the Plan that has not yet been exercised and the number of shares of Company Stock that have been authorized for issuance under the Plan but have not yet been placed under rights or that have been returned to the Plan upon the cancellation of a right, as well as the purchase price per share of Company Stock covered by each right under the Plan that has not yet been exercised, shall be proportionately adjusted in the event of a stock split, stock dividend, spin-off, reorganization, recapitalization, merger, consolidation, exchange of shares or similar transaction affecting the shares of Company Stock. Such adjustment shall be made by the Board, whose determination in that respect shall be final, binding and conclusive. Except as expressly provided herein, no issue by the Company of shares of stock of any class, or securities convertible into shares of stock of any class, shall affect, and no adjustment by reason thereof shall be made with respect to, the number or price of shares of Company Stock subject to any right granted hereunder.

9.5. MERGER OF COMPANY. In the event that the Company at any time proposes to merge into, consolidate with or to enter into any other reorganization pursuant to which the Company is not the surviving entity (including the sale of all or substantially all of its assets or a "reverse" merger in which the Company is the surviving entity), the Plan shall terminate, unless provision is made in writing in connection with such transaction for the continuance of the Plan and for the assumption of rights theretofore granted, or the substitution for such rights of new rights covering the shares of a successor corporation, with appropriate adjustments as to number and kind of shares and prices, in which event the Plan and the rights theretofore granted or the new rights substituted therefore, shall continue in the manner and under the terms so provided. If such provision is not made in such transaction for the continuance of the Plan and the assumption of rights theretofore granted or the substitution for such rights of new rights covering the shares of a successor corporation, then the Board or Committee shall cause written notice of the proposed transaction to be given to the persons holding rights not less than 10 days prior to the anticipated effective date of the proposed transaction, and, concurrent with the effective date of the proposed transaction, such rights shall be exercised automatically in accordance with Article

VI as if such effective date were the end of a Payroll Period unless a Participant withdraws from the Plan as provided in Article VII.

ARTICLE X MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS

10.1. AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION. Since future conditions affecting the Company cannot be anticipated or foreseen, the Board reserves the right to amend, modify, or terminate the Plan at any time. Upon termination of the Plan, all benefits shall become payable immediately. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no such amendment or termination shall affect rights previously granted, nor may an amendment make any change in any right previously granted which adversely affects the rights of any Participant. In addition, no amendment may be made without prior approval of the stockholders of the Company if such amendment would:

(a) Increase the number of shares of Company Stock that may be issued under the Plan;

(b) Materially modify the requirements as to eligibility for participation in the Plan; or

(c) Materially increase the benefits that accrue to Participants under the Plan.

10.2. BENEFITS NOT ALIENABLE. Benefits under the Plan may not be assigned or alienated, whether voluntarily or involuntarily. Any attempt at assignment, transfer, pledge or other disposition shall be without effect, except that the Company may treat such act as an election to withdraw funds in accordance with Article VII.

10.3. NO ENLARGEMENT OF EMPLOYEE RIGHTS. This Plan is strictly a voluntary undertaking on the part of the Employer and shall not be deemed to constitute a contract between the Employer and any Employee or to be consideration for, or an inducement to, or a condition of, the employment of any Employee. Nothing contained in the Plan shall be deemed to give the right to any Employee to be retained in the employ of the Employer or to interfere with the right of the Employer to discharge any Employee at any time.

10.4. GOVERNING LAW. To the extent not preempted by Federal law, the Plan shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the State of Florida, excluding any conflicts or choice of law rule or principle that might otherwise refer construction or interpretation of this Plan to the substantive law of another jurisdiction.

10.5. NON-BUSINESS DAYS. When any act under the Plan is required to be performed on a day that falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, that act shall be performed on the next succeeding day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday. Notwithstanding the above, Fair Market Value shall be determined in accordance with Section 6.5.

10.6. COMPLIANCE WITH SECURITIES LAWS. Notwithstanding any provision of the Plan, the Committee shall administer the Plan in such a way to insure that the Plan at all times complies with any requirements of Federal securities laws. For example, affiliates may be required to make irrevocable elections in accordance with the rules set forth under Section 16b-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Acquisition of Micro General Corporation, page F-15

- 5. Please refer to your response to our prior comment number 45. We note that Micro General is not a subsidiary of the company. Please tell us why you included this disclosure, if the financial information of this company is not reflected in the consolidated financial statements.

Micro General ("MGEN") has been a subsidiary of FNF for all periods covered by the financial statements. It is part of FNF's title operations and will be contributed to us prior to the distribution, together with the rest of such operations. It was originally majority owned by FNF. In 2002, FNF's majority owned subsidiary Fidelity National Information Solutions, Inc. ("FNIS") purchased the majority ownership from FNF and the outstanding public minority shares. However, from a consolidated perspective, MGEN remained a subsidiary of FNF. The purchase of the minority interest was accounted for under purchase accounting as the acquisition of shares from a minority interest. Purchase accounting was applied to the portion of MGEN's assets and liabilities deemed acquired in this minority asset purchase. The result of the transaction was an increase in consolidated equity of $98.7 million and an increase in net assets, the majority of which was goodwill. The same accounting that was used in FNF's historical accounts has been applied in FNT's financial statements, which reflect the historical accounting for the operations which will represent FNT's operations after the distribution. The company does not believe that any additional information about the accounting for this acquisition is needed in the S-1, due to its small size and the complicated nature of the accounting involved.

- 6. We note your response to our prior comment number 47. Please note that we view the disclosure of the amounts being sought in each lawsuit as the maximum of a range of potential settlements as discussed in SFAS 5 with no settlement being the lower end of that range. Please revise your discussion of the amounts being sought by the plaintiffs in each of these actions. You may want to disclose separately the amount of premium refund versus the amount of damages sought if you feel it is helpful in understanding the potential impact of these legal actions.

Upon review of the cases, the Company has determined that no amounts have been specified in any of the cases. We have changed the disclosure on pages 50, 51, F-23, F-24, F-45 and F-46 to reflect this fact.
